

Table of Contents

CHAPTER 1. ETHICAL CODES AND PROFESSIONAL DISCIPLINE

- § 1:1 Introduction
- § 1:2 ABA Model Code of Professional Responsibility
- § 1:3 ABA Model Rules of Professional Conduct
- § 1:4 ATLA American Lawyer's Code of Conduct
- § 1:5 ABA Standards Relating to the Administration of Justice: The Defense Function
- § 1:6 Ethics opinions
- § 1:7 Professional disciplinary proceedings
- § 1:8 Relationship to civil or criminal actions
- § 1:9 Choice of law problems

CHAPTER 2. CRIMINAL DEFENSE MALPRACTICE

- § 2:1 Legal malpractice generally
- § 2:2 —Nature of cause of action
- § 2:3 —Duty to client
- § 2:4 — —Attorney-client relationship
- § 2:5 — —Standard of care
- § 2:6 — —Establishing breach of duty
- § 2:7 —Causation
- § 2:8 —Damages
- § 2:9 Relationship to professional ethics
- § 2:10 Relationship to ineffective assistance of counsel: Collateral estoppel
- § 2:11 Immunity from suit
- § 2:12 —State malpractice actions
- § 2:13 —Federal civil rights actions
- § 2:14 Recurring criminal defense malpractice claims

CHAPTER 3. DEFENSE ATTORNEY COMPETENCY

- § 3:1 Context: Civil, criminal or disciplinary proceedings
- § 3:2 Knowledge and professional skill—In general
- § 3:3 —Preparation
- § 3:4 —Obligation to refer or associate
- § 3:5 Neglect—In general
- § 3:6 —Diligence—Communication with clients

- § 3:7 —Information relating to representation status
- § 3:8 —Information relating to representation decisions
- § 3:9 —Duty to investigate
- § 3:10 Limiting malpractice liability
- § 3:11 Impaired attorneys

CHAPTER 4. ACCEPTING, DECLINING, AND WITHDRAWING FROM REPRESENTATION

- § 4:1 General considerations: Accepting or declining employment
- § 4:2 Terminating employment—General considerations
- § 4:3 —Mandatory withdrawal
- § 4:4 —Permissive withdrawal—General considerations
- § 4:5 — —Indigent appeals
- § 4:6 Representation of guilty clients
- § 4:7 Representation of unpopular clients

CHAPTER 5. SCOPE OF REPRESENTATION

- § 5:1 Prefatory matters: Zealousness, confidentiality, candor toward the tribunal, and the adversary system
- § 5:2 Zealousness and overzealousness: In general
- § 5:3 Client autonomy
- § 5:4 —Ethical considerations in decision-making
- § 5:5 —Constitutional considerations in decision-making
- § 5:6 —Representation of impaired or incompetent clients
- § 5:7 Confidentiality of client information
- § 5:8 —Ethical issues: Confidentiality requirement—Basic obligation
- § 5:9 — —Scope of the obligation
- § 5:10 —Evidentiary issues: Attorney-client privilege—Basic privilege
- § 5:11 — —Scope of the privilege
- § 5:12 Permissible or required revelations of confidential information
- § 5:13 —Revelation of client's identity and fee
- § 5:14 —Revelation of client's whereabouts
- § 5:15 —Revelation to protect self or collect fee
- § 5:16 —Revelation of client perjury
- § 5:17 —Revelation of witness perjury
- § 5:18 —Revelation of past crimes
- § 5:19 —Revelation of continuing crimes
- § 5:20 —Revelation of future crimes
- § 5:21 —Revelation of fraud upon court
- § 5:22 —Revelation of existence of physical evidence
- § 5:23 —Revelation of legal authority

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 5:24 —Revelation to secure legal ethics advice
- § 5:25 Improper advice or counseling
- § 5:26 Improper arguments and defenses
- § 5:27 Improper examination of witnesses
- § 5:28 Improper demeanor, decorum, and tactics
- § 5:29 Threats of criminal prosecution

CHAPTER 6. SIMULTANEOUS CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

- § 6:1 Context: When and where the issue arises
- § 6:2 Ethical obligations—Basic obligations
- § 6:3 —Client informed consent
- § 6:4 —Vicarious disqualification
- § 6:5 Constitutional requirements—Nature of right
- § 6:6 —Waiver: Common defense
- § 6:7 Disqualification motions—In general
- § 6:8 —Appeal of disqualification motions
- § 6:9 Common patterns of simultaneous conflicts
- § 6:10 —Representation of multiple defendants
- § 6:11 —Simultaneous prosecution and defense practice
- § 6:12 —Representation of organizations
- § 6:13 —Conflicts with counsel's personal interests
- § 6:14 — —Compromised loyalty
- § 6:15 — —Relationships with opposing counsel
- § 6:16 — —Sexual relationships
- § 6:17 —Business interests
- § 6:18 —Third party employers
- § 6:19 Counsel as witness

CHAPTER 7. SUCCESSIVE CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

- § 7:1 Context: When and where the issue arises
- § 7:2 Ethical obligations—Basic obligations
- § 7:3 —Client informed consent
- § 7:4 —Vicarious disqualification
- § 7:5 Constitutional requirements—Nature of right
- § 7:6 —Waiver
- § 7:7 Disqualification motions—In general
- § 7:8 —Appeal of disqualification motions
- § 7:9 Movement from prosecution or other public employment to defense practice

CHAPTER 8. IMPROPER CONTACTS

- § 8:1 Judges
- § 8:2 —Gifts or contributions

- § 8:3 —Ex parte communications
- § 8:4 Jurors
- § 8:5 —Before trial
- § 8:6 —During trial
- § 8:7 —After trial
- § 8:8 Witnesses
- § 8:9 —Relations with prospective witnesses
- § 8:10 —Payment or reimbursement
- § 8:11 — —Lay witnesses
- § 8:12 — —Expert witnesses

CHAPTER 9. TRIAL PUBLICITY AND OTHER PUBLIC STATEMENTS

- § 9:1 Ethical code prohibitions on trial publicity—Former ABA code
- § 9:2 —Model rules
- § 9:3 —ABA Standards for Criminal Justice
- § 9:4 —Summary
- § 9:5 Judicial decisions on trial publicity
- § 9:6 Broad­sides

CHAPTER 10. ATTORNEY’S FEE ISSUES

- § 10:1 Reasonable fee
- § 10:2 Contingency fee
- § 10:3 Referral fee
- § 10:4 Literary or media rights
- § 10:5 Gifts from clients
- § 10:6 Bankrolling clients
- § 10:7 Client trust accounts
- § 10:8 Suing clients for fee
- § 10:9 —Fee arbitration
- § 10:10 —Attorney’s liens
- § 10:11 Federal statutory requirements
- § 10:12 Tax on legal services

CHAPTER 11. PROFESSIONAL RESTRICTIONS

- § 11:1 Advertising
- § 11:2 Remunerative solicitation
- § 11:3 Associational solicitation
- § 11:4 Trade names
- § 11:5 Specialization
- § 11:6 Unauthorized practice of law
- § 11:7 —Jurisdictional limitations on practice
- § 11:8 —Assisting nonlawyers

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 11:9	—Standby counsel
§ 11:10	—Jailhouse lawyers
§ 11:11	—Nonlawyer partners
§ 11:12	Bar residency requirements
§ 11:13	Bar membership requirements
§ 11:14	Sale of law practice
§ 11:15	Ancillary business
§ 11:16	Anti-discrimination rules
§ 11:17	Non-compete agreements
§ 11:18	“Pay to play” rules
§ 11:19	Collective bargaining

CHAPTER 12. PROFESSIONAL OBLIGATIONS

§ 12:1	Reporting misconduct
§ 12:2	Pro bono practice
§ 12:3	Accepting appointments
§ 12:4	—For remuneration
§ 12:5	—Without remuneration
§ 12:6	—Appointments boycotts
§ 12:7	Appearance of impropriety
§ 12:8	Responsibilities of supervisory and subordinate lawyers
§ 12:9	Continuing legal education

Table of Laws and Rules

Table of Cases

Index