

INTRODUCTION TO 2025 EDITION

This 2025 Edition of Georgia Alternative Dispute Resolution is a complete guide to methods for resolving legal disputes outside of the court system in Georgia. This handy, yet thorough, manual makes expert advice on resolving disputes without litigation quickly accessible to the Georgia practitioner. Since last year's edition, new material has been added and/or existing material updated on the following subjects, among others:

- Incorporation of rules
- Waiver of arbitration
- Multiple contracts
- Questions of arbitrability
- Transportation worker exemption
- Jurisdiction of federal courts
- Stay of proceedings pending arbitration
- Bias of arbitrator
- Attorney fees
- Imperfect execution of arbitrator authority
- Agreement to arbitrate
- Unconscionability
- Scope of arbitration clause

This 2025 Edition replaces the 2024 Edition, which may now be recycled or discarded.
