

Introduction to the 2025 Edition

Case law updates in the 2025 edition appear in:

Chapter 2. Voluntariness

2:6. The totality of the circumstances test

Chapter 3. Self-Incrimination

3:13. Act-of-production immunity for sole proprietorships

3:14. The “foregone conclusion” exception and compelling the production of computer or “smartphone” passwords

Chapter 5. Custody

5:8. Questioning in the police station

5:12. Search and arrest warrants

Chapter 6. Interrogation

6:15. Routine booking questions

Chapter 7. Waiver of Miranda Rights

7:8. Voluntary waiver

7:26. Anticipatory invocations—Suspect not in custody or being questioned

7:31. Initiation

Chapter 8. Right to Counsel

8:3. Attachment of the Sixth Amendment right to counsel

8:4. The critical stage requirement

8:8. Offense specificity

8:11. Requesting counsel at arraignment—The subsequently overruled Jackson rule

8:14. Statements made on advice of counsel (new)

Chapter 10. Fruit of the Poisonous Tree

10:1. Confessions that are the fruit of earlier involuntary confessions

10:2. Confessions that are the fruit of Fourth Amendment violations—Brown v. Illinois

Chapter 12. Independent State Grounds for Regulating Confessions

12:5. State self-incrimination and immunity rules

12:7. State Miranda rules for juveniles (new)

12:8. State Miranda waiver rules (new)

12:10. State rules regarding the use of a defendant's silence

Chapter 18. Hearings on Admissibility

18:9. False confession experts