

Table of Contents

Volume 1

CHAPTER 1. HISTORY AND DEVELOPMENT OF THE RIGHTS OF PUBLICITY AND PRIVACY

I. INTRODUCTION TO THE RIGHTS OF PUBLICITY AND PRIVACY

- § 1:1 Introduction
- § 1:2 —Definition and history of the right of publicity
- § 1:3 — —Simple definition of the right of publicity
- § 1:4 — —History of development of publicity and privacy rights
- § 1:5 —Authors' comment: "publicity" rights and "privacy" rights
- § 1:6 — —What is a right of "privacy"?
- § 1:7 — —"Publicity" law develops from "privacy" law
- § 1:8 —Authors' comment: the contribution of other fields of law

II. THE WARREN AND BRANDEIS' ARTICLE

- § 1:9 Early stirrings of the right of privacy
- § 1:10 1890 Warren and Brandeis article
- § 1:11 —Article
- § 1:12 The 1890 Warren and Brandeis article—The myth
- § 1:13 —The myth crumbles
- § 1:14 1890 Warren and Brandeis article—Impact of the article on the law

III. EARLY CASE LAW

- § 1:15 Development of the right of privacy
- § 1:16 —New York: the Roberson case and its statutory response
- § 1:17 —Proprivacy: the Pavesich decision

THE RIGHTS OF PUBLICITY AND PRIVACY

§ 1:18 —Fallout after Roberson and Pavesich

IV. PROSSER'S FOUR TORTS OF PRIVACY

§ 1:19 Prosser's four torts of privacy

§ 1:20 —Prosser's first tort: invasion of privacy by intrusion

§ 1:21 —Prosser's second tort: public disclosure of private facts

§ 1:22 —Prosser's third tort: false light privacy

§ 1:23 —Prosser's fourth tort: invasion of privacy by appropriation

§ 1:24 —Impact of Prosser's four torts and the 1977 Second Restatement of Torts

V. CREATION OF THE RIGHT OF PUBLICITY

§ 1:25 Stage is set for the right of publicity

§ 1:26 Birth of the right of publicity

VI. MODERN DEVELOPMENT OF THE RIGHT OF PUBLICITY

§ 1:27 Nimmer builds the foundation

§ 1:28 Modern development of the right of publicity: 1954 to 1970

§ 1:29 —Development in the 1950s

§ 1:30 —Development in the 1960s

§ 1:31 Modern development of the right of publicity: 1970 to the present

§ 1:32 —1970s: the right of publicity comes of age

§ 1:33 —1977 Zacchini case: the Supreme Court's "shot from a cannon case"

§ 1:34 —Developments in the 1980s and 1990s

§ 1:35 —1995 restatement of unfair competition

§ 1:36 —Developments in the 21st century

§ 1:37 Authors' comment: a retrospective view of the history of the rights of publicity and privacy

§ 1:38 [Reserved]

§ 1:39 Authors' comment: a retrospective view of the history of the rights of publicity and privacy—
Why all the fuss?

CHAPTER 2. POLICY REASONS FOR THE RIGHT OF PUBLICITY

§ 2:1 Natural rights of property justification

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 2:2 —Human identity as a self-evident property right
- § 2:3 —“Why not” challenge
- § 2:4 —Free speech criticism
- § 2:5 —Appeal to first principles
- § 2:6 Incentive justification
- § 2:7 Economic justification
- § 2:8 Falsity justification
- § 2:9 Right of self-definition justification

CHAPTER 3. ELEMENTS OF INFRINGEMENT OF THE RIGHT OF PUBLICITY

I. A PRIMA FACIE CASE OF INFRINGEMENT OF THE RIGHT OF PUBLICITY

- § 3:1 Outline of a prima facie case
- § 3:2 —Outline
- § 3:3 —Validity
- § 3:4 —Infringement
- § 3:5 —Remedies
- § 3:6 —Defenses

II. IDENTIFICATION OF THE PLAINTIFF IN PRIVACY AND PUBLICITY LAW

A. IDENTIFICATION OF THE PLAINTIFF IN PRIVACY LAW

- § 3:7 The “Of and Concerning” Test of Defamation Law
- § 3:8 The “Of and Concerning” Test of privacy law

B. IDENTIFICATION OF THE PLAINTIFF IN RIGHT OF PUBLICITY LAW

- § 3:9 Right of publicity—Plaintiff must be “identifiable” from the accused use
- § 3:10 —The requirement of “identification”
- § 3:11 —Authors’ Comment on “aided” versus “unaided” identification
- § 3:12 —Identification of plaintiff by how many people?
- § 3:13 —Authors’ comment: The problem of identifiability for non-celebrity plaintiffs

III. INTENT TO INFRINGE ONE'S RIGHT OF PUBLICITY

- § 3:14 Intent to infringe plaintiff's right of publicity
- § 3:15 Mistake as to consent from plaintiff
- § 3:16 The Constitutional requirement of "actual malice" in defamation cases does not apply to the right of publicity

IV. LIABILITY OF DISTRIBUTORS

- § 3:17 Liability of those who only circulate another's infringement—Is knowledge required?
- § 3:18 Liability of those who only distribute or advertise another's infringement—Privacy and publicity law

V. LIABILITY OF INTERNET SERVICE PROVIDERS

- § 3:19 Liability of internet service providers: the 1996 Communications Decency Act safe harbor

VI. CONTRIBUTORY INFRINGEMENT OF THE RIGHT OF PUBLICITY

- § 3:20 Contributory infringement of the right of publicity and liability of corporate officers and directors

CHAPTER 4. WHO AND WHAT ARE PROTECTED BY THE RIGHT OF PUBLICITY

I. WHO HAS A RIGHT OF PUBLICITY?

A. CELEBRITY STATUS

- § 4:1 Celebrities
- § 4:2 —Who is a "celebrity"?
- § 4:3 —Authors' comment: don't draw a line between "celebrities" and "noncelebrities"
- § 4:4 Is prior exploitation required for living plaintiffs?
- § 4:5 Erroneous use of a prior exploitation requirement for living plaintiffs

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 4:6 Erroneous use of a prior exploitation requirement for living plaintiffs: the Lerman case as an example
- § 4:7 Prior exploitation is not a requirement for living plaintiffs
- § 4:8 Why are celebrities' identities used to attract attention to products and advertisements?
- § 4:9 Celebrities' right to recover for invasion of privacy
- § 4:10 —Can a celebrity's feelings be hurt by advertising?
- § 4:11 [Reserved]
- § 4:12 Celebrities' right to recover for invasion of privacy—Professional models
- § 4:13 —Special cases of embarrassing infringement

B. THE RIGHT OF PUBLICITY PROTECTS THE IDENTITY OF NON-CELEBRITIES

- § 4:14 Noncelebrities
- § 4:15 —Minority view: noncelebrities have no right of publicity
- § 4:16 —Majority view: noncelebrities have a right of publicity
- § 4:17 —Defendant's commercial use proves the commercial value of a non-celebrity's identity
- § 4:18 —Authors' comment: noncelebrities should not be locked into the mental distress mold
- § 4:19 —Commentators support the majority view
- § 4:20 —Authors' comment: everyone has a right of publicity
- § 4:21 —Members of the Armed Services
- § 4:22 Joinder of privacy and publicity claims

C. THE RIGHT OF PUBLICITY AND POLITICAL PERSONS

- § 4:23 The right of publicity of persons involved in the political process
- § 4:24 Political figures—Privacy and publicity rights of political figures
- § 4:25 —Context of use is critical
- § 4:26 —Drawing the line between politically informative use and advertising use
- § 4:27 —Political expression by the user of items embodying the identity of a political figure

THE RIGHTS OF PUBLICITY AND PRIVACY

§ 4:28 [Reserved]

§ 4:29 Political figures—Political status as a joke: the Pat Paulsen case

§ 4:30 —Use and misuse of identity in the political process

§ 4:31 Deceased political figures

§ 4:32 —Commercial uses “in memory of” deceased political figures: the Martin Luther King, Jr. case

§ 4:33 —Preventing undignified uses of deceased public figures

§ 4:34 —Naming public facilities after a deceased political figure

§ 4:35 —Authors’ comment

D. THE RIGHT OF PUBLICITY OF NON-HUMAN PERSONS: LITERARY AND CARTOON CHARACTERS AND ANIMALS

§ 4:36 Do literary and illustrated characters have a right of publicity?

§ 4:37 Do animals and pets have a right of publicity?

§ 4:38 Authors’ Comment: animals should not have a right of publicity

E. THE RIGHTS OF PUBLICITY AND PRIVACY OF ORGANIZATIONS, GROUPS AND CORPORATIONS

§ 4:39 Nonhuman “persons”: corporations, groups, and institutions

§ 4:40 —Case law and statutory law

§ 4:41 Nonhuman “persons”—There is no right of publicity for corporations and associations

§ 4:42 A right of publicity for musical groups?

§ 4:43 A right of privacy for associations—Case law and statutory law

§ 4:44 Nonhuman “persons”: corporations, groups, and institutions—Overwhelming the law of trademarks and unfair competition

§ 4:45 Authors’ comment: there should not be a right of publicity for the identity of non-human “persons”

TABLE OF CONTENTS

II. WHAT DOES THE RIGHT OF PUBLICITY PROTECT?

§ 4:46 “Persona”

A. PERSONAL NAMES

- § 4:47 Personal names
- § 4:48 —Identification of plaintiff by name
- § 4:49 —Name-sameness alone
- § 4:50 —Names with a nonname meaning also and names that are generic for a product
- § 4:51 —Context in which a name appears
- § 4:52 —Here’s Johnny: a name as identifying plaintiff’s persona
- § 4:53 —Use of variations of a name to avoid identification
- § 4:54 Impersonations, identity theft, and forgery
- § 4:55 Personal names—Name with another’s picture
- § 4:56 Nicknames, stage names, and pen names
- § 4:57 —Common-law rights
- § 4:58 —Statutory rights

B. IMAGES OF PEOPLE

- § 4:59 Pictures
- § 4:60 —Infringement of right of publicity by use of picture of a person
- § 4:61 —Test of identifiability by picture
- § 4:62 —Identifiable by distinctive body movement or posture
- § 4:63 —Celebrity look-alikes in advertising
- § 4:64 —Plaintiff’s picture with another’s name
- § 4:65 —Faces in the crowd
- § 4:66 —Media filming of public events
- § 4:67 —Group scenes in commercial advertisements

C. PERSONA IN A ROLE OR CHARACTERIZATION

- § 4:68 Persona in a role or characterization
- § 4:69 —Persona embodied in an actor’s characterization
- § 4:70 —Playing a role as opposed to being the character
- § 4:71 —Case of Bela Lugosi as Count Dracula

THE RIGHTS OF PUBLICITY AND PRIVACY

- § 4:72 —“Inextricably identified” test: the Spanky McFarland case
- § 4:73 —Authors’ comment

D. PERSONAL VOICE AND SOUND

- § 4:74 Voice and sound
- § 4:75 —Distinctive “sound”: style of instrumental playing
- § 4:76 —Voice sound-alikes
- § 4:77 — —Early cases
- § 4:78 — —Modern cases
- § 4:79 —Authors’ comment
- § 4:80 —Federal preemption issues
- § 4:81 — —Is a copyright licensee free from liability for state law violations?
- § 4:82 [Reserved]
- § 4:83 Voice and sound—Federal preemption issues—
Copyright preemption of right of publicity claims based on sound?

E. OBJECTS ASSOCIATED WITH A PERSON

- § 4:84 Persona identified by objects associated with a person
- § 4:85 —Motschenbacher case
- § 4:86 —Objects which identify plaintiff’s persona
- § 4:87 —Vanna White case
- § 4:88 —Authors’ comment

CHAPTER 5. NON-PUBLICITY THEORIES USED TO PROTECT PERSONA AND THE COMMON LAW RIGHT OF PRIVACY

I. OVERVIEW

- § 5:1 Introduction: the menu of legal rights
- § 5:2 —Using legal categories as a checklist
- § 5:3 —Authors’ comment: the significance of legal labels
- § 5:4 —Overview of the legal neighborhood

TABLE OF CONTENTS

II. TRADEMARKS AND FALSE ADVERTISING

A. TRADEMARKS AND SERVICE MARKS

- § 5:5 Trademarks and service marks
- § 5:6 —Right of publicity and trademarks: similar but different
- § 5:7 —Chart of significant differences between trademarks and the right of publicity
- § 5:8 —Differences
- § 5:9 — —What is identified
- § 5:10 — —Prior exploitation
- § 5:11 — —Test of infringement
- § 5:12 — —Transfer rules
- § 5:13 Service marks in personal and entertainment services
- § 5:14 Service mark or trademark rights in a person's name, nickname or picture
- § 5:15 [Reserved]
- § 5:16 [Reserved]
- § 5:17 Service marks in personal and entertainment services—Authors' comment

B. FALSE ADVERTISING

- § 5:18 Falsity based claims: false advertising and false endorsement
- § 5:19 Right of publicity infringement requires no proof of falsity or showing of false endorsement
- § 5:20 False endorsement and false advertising under Lanham Act § 43(a)
- § 5:21 —Proof of falsity
- § 5:22 False advertising and false endorsement under Lanham Act § 43(a)—Standing to sue
- § 5:23 False advertising under Lanham Act § 43(a)—Materiality
- § 5:24 False advertising—Use of § 43(a) in literary and entertainment advertising
- § 5:25 —The 2003 Supreme Court decision in Dastar
- § 5:26 [Reserved]
- § 5:27 False use of a creator or performer's name in an expressive work
- § 5:28 [Reserved]
- § 5:29 [Reserved]
- § 5:30 Protection of media marks

C. FALSE ENDORSEMENT

- § 5:31 False endorsement under Lanham Act § 43(a)
- § 5:32 False endorsement by a deceased person?
- § 5:33 False endorsement by a non-celebrity?
- § 5:34 False advertising—Illustrative list of false-endorsement cases—Cases finding false endorsement
- § 5:35 — —Cases finding no false endorsement
- § 5:36 —Federal Trade Commission: deceptive endorsements and testimonials
- § 5:37 —Endorser tort liability

III. COPYRIGHT AND MISAPPROPRIATION

A. COPYRIGHT

- § 5:38 Copyright
- § 5:39 —Outline of copyright law
- § 5:40 —Copyright compared to the personal identification aspect of the right of publicity
- § 5:41 Copyright does not protect the human persona which is the subject of the state law right of publicity
- § 5:42 Copyright does not protect the identification function of the names of persons
- § 5:43 Copyright does not protect the identification function of images of persons
- § 5:44 Copyright does not protect the identification function of sounds
- § 5:45 Copyright compared to the personal identification aspect of the state law right of publicity—Authors' comment
- § 5:46 Copyright compared to performance values protected by the state law right of publicity

B. THE COMMON LAW TORT OF MISAPPROPRIATION

- § 5:47 The INS v AP tort of misappropriation
- § 5:48 Misappropriation—Misappropriation doctrine and the right of publicity
- § 5:49 —Outline of the misappropriation doctrine
- § 5:50 — —Misappropriation as a residual commercial tort

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 5:51 [Reserved]

§ 5:52 Misappropriation—Outline of the misappropriation doctrine—Preemption problems with misappropriation

§ 5:53 — —Authors’ comment

IV. RIGHTS OF PRIVACY

A. CONSTITUTIONAL PRIVACY

§ 5:54 Constitutional “privacy” rights

§ 5:55 —Introduction to constitutional privacy

§ 5:56 —Constitutional privacy is different from tort law privacy

§ 5:57 —Outline of constitutional privacy

§ 5:58 —Governmental collection and disclosure of confidential information

§ 5:59 —Authors’ conclusion on constitutional privacy

B. APPROPRIATION PRIVACY

§ 5:60 Appropriation form of privacy

§ 5:61 —Invasion of privacy by appropriation

§ 5:62 —Elements of a claim for invasion of privacy by appropriation of name or likeness

§ 5:63 —Appropriation privacy compared to the right of publicity

§ 5:64 —Chart of comparison between “appropriation privacy” and the “right of publicity”

§ 5:65 —Cases distinguishing privacy from publicity

§ 5:66 —Commentary distinguishing privacy from publicity

§ 5:67 —Authors’ comment: personal right of privacy versus property right of publicity

C. DISCLOSURE PRIVACY

§ 5:68 Disclosure of private facts form of privacy

§ 5:69 —Elements of the tort of invasion of privacy by disclosure

§ 5:70 —Disclosure from Data Breaches or Otherwise

§ 5:71 —Disclosure must be highly offensive

§ 5:72 —Persons formerly in the news

§ 5:73 —Disclosing the identity of donors of AIDSinfected blood and of AIDS-infected persons

THE RIGHTS OF PUBLICITY AND PRIVACY

- § 5:74 —Critics of, and States not recognizing, the tort
- § 5:75 —Suing under a fictitious name
- § 5:76 —Disclosure privacy rights and the First Amendment
- § 5:77 — —Facts of legitimate concern to the public
- § 5:78 — —Identifying individuals and naming names
- § 5:79 —Facts in the public record
- § 5:80 —Publishing the accusation of a crime
- § 5:81 —Factors to weigh in balancing free speech
- § 5:82 [Reserved]
- § 5:83 Disclosure of private facts form of privacy—
Privacy and government records: the Freedom of Information Act and the Privacy Act
- § 5:84 — —Freedom of Information Act
- § 5:85 — —Privacy Act
- § 5:86 — —Other federal privacy laws

D. INTRUSION PRIVACY

- § 5:87 Intrusion form of privacy
- § 5:88 —Importance of protection from intrusion
- § 5:89 —Defining intrusion
- § 5:90 —Intrusion by the media cooperating with police and fire departments and other governmental agencies
- § 5:91 —Intrusion by viewing persons in private places
- § 5:92 —Intrusion by tampering with mail, wiretapping, interception of online activities, or collecting and retaining biometric information
- § 5:93 —Reasonable expectation of privacy
- § 5:94 —Intrusion on employee privacy
- § 5:95 —What is a “highly offensive” intrusion?
- § 5:96 —Hidden cameras, pretexting and obtaining consent by misrepresentation
- § 5:97 —Activities in public places
- § 5:98 —Relative privacy
- § 5:99 —Freedom from harassment
- § 5:100 —Intrusion privacy and the First Amendment
- § 5:101 —Drug Testing
- § 5:102 —Intrusion by inducing breach of trust or fiduciary duty
- § 5:103 Conflict between state trade secret statutes and the intrusion tort
- § 5:104 [Reserved]

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 5:105 [Reserved]

E. OTHER ASPECTS OF PRIVACY

§ 5:106 RICO claims

V. DEFAMATION AND FALSE LIGHT INVASION OF PRIVACY

§ 5:107 Defamation law

§ 5:108 —Authors' introduction

§ 5:109 —Elements of a legal claim for defamation

§ 5:110 —Libel by false testimonial or endorsement

§ 5:111 [Reserved]

§ 5:112 False light invasion of privacy

§ 5:113 —History and development of the tort

§ 5:114 —Elements of a claim for invasion of false light privacy

§ 5:115 —Jurisdictions rejecting the false light tort

§ 5:116 —Relationship between invasion of false light privacy and defamation

§ 5:117 — —Is it reputation or dignity that is protected?

§ 5:118 —Relationship between false light and defamation—Falsehoods that do not harm reputation can be actionable under false light tort

§ 5:119 Evidentiary and procedural issues in false light cases—The Hearsay Rule and Motions to Seal

§ 5:120 False light invasion of privacy—The falsity and offensiveness requirements

§ 5:121 —Proving indignity from false light—Forum of publication causing false light and indignity

§ 5:122 — —Fictionalized interviews and dialogue

§ 5:123 —Requirement of “malice”

§ 5:124 —Illustrative list of significant false light privacy cases

§ 5:125 —False light privacy distinguished from the right of publicity

VI. OTHER RELATED TORTS

§ 5:126 Infliction of mental distress

§ 5:127 —Intentional infliction of mental distress

§ 5:128 —Negligent infliction of mental distress

§ 5:129 —Media attacks on public figures

- § 5:130 —Outrageous commercial uses of personal identity
- § 5:131 Prima facie tort

CHAPTER 6. LEGAL SOURCES DEFINING THE RIGHTS OF PUBLICITY AND PRIVACY

I. STATE COMMON LAW

- § 6:1 Introduction to the law of the states—Right of privacy
- § 6:2 —Right of publicity
- § 6:3 —Flexibility of the common law

II. STATE STATUTES

A. OVERVIEW

- § 6:4 Survey of state statutes—Overview of the right of publicity statutes
- § 6:5 —Overview of the state statutes
- § 6:6 Chart of state statutes: appropriation privacy and right of publicity
- § 6:7 Chart of the types of privacy codified

B. STATES WITH STATUTES

- § 6:8 Alabama
- § 6:9 Text of the Alabama Statute
- § 6:10 Arizona
- § 6:11 Text of the Arizona Statutes
- § 6:12 Arkansas
- § 6:13 Text of the Arkansas Statute
- § 6:14 California
- § 6:15 —Authors' introduction to California law
- § 6:16 Statute of limitations—California right of privacy
- § 6:17 California—Acceptance of the common law rights of privacy
- § 6:18 —The “four torts” of privacy
- § 6:19 —Invasion of privacy by intrusion
- § 6:20 —Invasion of privacy by offensive disclosure of private facts

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 6:21	—Invasion of privacy by false light
§ 6:22	—California “anti-paparazzi” intrusion statute
§ 6:23	—California constitutional right of privacy
§ 6:24	—California common law of invasion of privacy by commercial appropriation
§ 6:25	—California common law right of publicity
§ 6:26	—1972 and 1985 California statutes
§ 6:27	— —1972 California statute
§ 6:28	— —1985 California statutes: life and after-life
§ 6:29	—1999, 2007 and 2010 Amendments to the postmortem statute
§ 6:30	—Anti-SLAPP motion to dismiss
§ 6:31	—Statute of limitations
§ 6:32	—California statutes: analysis and commentary—Rights protected—Rights of “persons”
§ 6:33	— — —Protected aspects of personal identity
§ 6:34	— — —Face in the crowd
§ 6:35	— —Prohibited uses
§ 6:36	— —Exempted uses
§ 6:37	— — —Exemptions for living and deceased persons
§ 6:38	— — —Exemptions for use of identity of deceased persons prior to 1999 amendments
§ 6:39	— —Exemptions for use of identity of deceased persons after the 1999 amendments
§ 6:40	— —Transferability
§ 6:41	— —Consent and license
§ 6:42	— —Postmortem rights
§ 6:43	— — —Legislative change of the Lugosi rule
§ 6:44	— — —Registration of claim
§ 6:45	— — —Who owns the postmortem right?
§ 6:46	— — —Devises of the post mortem right publicity by persons who died prior to 1985
§ 6:47	— — —Statutory definition of “survivors”
§ 6:48	— — —Illustrative example
§ 6:49	— — —Differences from copyright law
§ 6:50	— —Remedies
§ 6:51	— —Impact on common law rights
§ 6:52	— —Knowledge and intent
§ 6:53	—Text of the California statutes: postmortem statute as amended
§ 6:54	—Text of the California statutes: 1985 statute for living persons

THE RIGHTS OF PUBLICITY AND PRIVACY

- § 6:55 Florida
- § 6:56 Overview of Florida constitutional and common
Law Privacy Rights
- § 6:57 Overview of Florida Statutory Privacy and Publicity Rights
- § 6:58 Florida—Text of the Florida statutes
- § 6:59 Hawaii
- § 6:60 Text of the Hawaii Statute
- § 6:61 Illinois—Overview of the Illinois statute
- § 6:62 —Text of the Illinois statute
- § 6:63 Indiana
- § 6:64 —Overview of the Indiana statute
- § 6:65 —Text of the Indiana statute
- § 6:66 Kentucky
- § 6:67 —Overview of the Kentucky statute
- § 6:68 —Text of the Kentucky statute
- § 6:69 Louisiana
- § 6:70 —Overview of the Louisiana statute
- § 6:71 —Text of the Louisiana statute
- § 6:72 Massachusetts
- § 6:73 —Overview of Massachusetts Common Law and Privacy-Publicity Statutes
- § 6:74 —Text of the Massachusetts statutes
- § 6:75 Nebraska
- § 6:76 —Research references
- § 6:77 —Text of the Nebraska statutes
- § 6:78 Nevada
- § 6:79 —Overview of the Nevada statute
- § 6:80 —Text of the Nevada statute
- § 6:81 New Jersey
- § 6:82 New York
- § 6:83 —Authors' introduction to New York law
- § 6:84 —Short history of the New York privacy statute
- § 6:85 —Statutory and common law privacy and publicity rights
- § 6:86 —Rights of privacy in New York—Intrusion form of privacy
- § 6:87 — —Disclosure of private facts form of privacy
- § 6:88 — —2003 Surreptitious Surveillance Law
- § 6:89 — —False light invasion of privacy
- § 6:90 —Right of publicity in New York
- § 6:91 —New York General Business Law § 397
- § 6:92 —Analysis of the New York statute

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 6:93	— — Rights protected
§ 6:94	— — Prohibited uses
§ 6:95	— — — Advertising purposes and purposes of trade
§ 6:96	— — — Newsworthiness exception
§ 6:97	— — — Reasonable relationship requirement
§ 6:98	— — — Newsworthy material in a commercial medium
§ 6:99	— — — Incidental use exception
§ 6:100	— — — Noncommercial uses
§ 6:101	— — — Artistic uses
§ 6:102	— — Exempted uses
§ 6:103	— — Transferability
§ 6:104	— — Consent and license
§ 6:105	— — Postmortem uses
§ 6:106	— — Remedies and statute of limitations
§ 6:107	— — Impact on common law rights
§ 6:108	— — Knowledge and intent
§ 6:109	— Text of the New York statutes
§ 6:110	— — Civil Rights Law §§ 50, 50-f, 51 and 52-C
§ 6:111	— — N.Y. Gen. Bus. Law § 397
§ 6:112	Ohio
§ 6:113	— Overview of the Ohio statute
§ 6:114	— Text of the Ohio statute
§ 6:115	Oklahoma
§ 6:116	— Research references
§ 6:117	— Text of the Oklahoma statute
§ 6:118	Pennsylvania
§ 6:119	— Overview of the Pennsylvania statute
§ 6:120	— Text of the Pennsylvania statute
§ 6:121	Rhode Island
§ 6:122	— Text of the Rhode Island statute
§ 6:123	South Dakota
§ 6:124	Text of the South Dakota Statute
§ 6:125	[Reserved]
§ 6:126	Tennessee
§ 6:127	— Text of the Tennessee statute
§ 6:128	Texas
§ 6:129	— Common law
§ 6:130	— Texas statute
§ 6:131	— Text of the Texas statute
§ 6:132	Utah
§ 6:133	— Research references

THE RIGHTS OF PUBLICITY AND PRIVACY

- § 6:134 —Text of the Utah statute
- § 6:135 Virginia
- § 6:136 —Analysis of the Statute
- § 6:137 —Text of the Virginia statutes
- § 6:138 Washington common law of privacy
- § 6:139 Washington—Overview of the Washington statute
- § 6:140 —Text of the Washington statute
- § 6:141 Wisconsin
- § 6:142 —Overview of Wisconsin law
- § 6:143 —Text of the Wisconsin statute

III. FEDERAL LAW

- § 6:144 Federal law: introduction
- § 6:145 —Overview of relevant federal law
- § 6:146 —Lanham Act § 43(a) is not a vehicle for assertion of infringement of the right of publicity
- § 6:147 Federal law—Federal court jurisdiction over right of publicity claim
- § 6:148 Using personal identity to prevent federal trademark and service mark registration
- § 6:149 —Lanham Act § 2(a)
- § 6:150 [Reserved]
- § 6:151 Using personal identity to prevent federal trademark and service mark registration—Lanham Act § 2(c)—Section 2(c) as a vehicle for publicity and privacy rights
- § 6:152 — —Identification under § 2(c)
- § 6:153 [Reserved]
- § 6:154 Using personal name or image as a trademark or service mark
- § 6:155 —Registered and unregistered rights
- § 6:156 Federal Trade Commission endorsement guides—Introduction
- § 6:157 —Celebrities
- § 6:158 [Reserved]

IV. FOREIGN LAW

- § 6:159 Foreign Laws on Publicity and Privacy
- § 6:160 European Convention on Human Rights
- § 6:161 England: Right of privacy
- § 6:162 England: Right of publicity

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 6:163	Australia
§ 6:164	—Protecting goodwill and reputation
§ 6:165	—Privacy and protecting confidential information
§ 6:166	Canada
§ 6:167	[Reserved]
§ 6:168	[Reserved]
§ 6:169	German Law
§ 6:170	Germany—Right to one’s picture
§ 6:171	—Right to one’s name
§ 6:172	—General personality right
§ 6:173	—Afterlife protection of a persona
§ 6:174	—Protection of minors
§ 6:175	—Consequences of an infringement of a personality right
§ 6:176	—Licensing
§ 6:177	—Author’s rights
§ 6:178	—Commentary and statutes

Volume 2

CHAPTER 7. INFRINGING USE OF PERSONAL IDENTITY IN A COMMERCIAL SETTING

I. USE IN ADVERTISING

A. FREE SPEECH, COMMERCIAL SPEECH AND USE OF IDENTITY IN ADVERTISING

§ 7:1	Do commercial uses have First Amendment immunity?
§ 7:2	“Commercial” speech distinguished from “expressive” speech
§ 7:3	Will free speech principles immunize commercial use of identity from liability for right of publicity infringement?
§ 7:4	[Reserved]
§ 7:5	Free speech principles and use of names in litigation
§ 7:6	Use and misuse of identity in deposition video
§ 7:7	Use of personal name in domain name

§ 7:8 [Reserved]

B. LOOK-ALIKES AND SOUND-ALIKES IN ADVERTISING

§ 7:9 Celebrity look-alikes and sound-alikes in advertising

§ 7:10 —Celebrity look-alikes

§ 7:11 —Celebrity sound-alikes

C. CREATOR'S NAMES USED IN CONNECTION WITH THEIR CREATIONS

§ 7:12 Names of authors, artists, and performers in connection with their works

D. NEWS ITEM USED IN AN ADVERTISEMENT

§ 7:13 Reprinting a news feature as an advertisement

§ 7:14 —Reprinting news items in an advertisement for nonmedia goods and services

E. NEWS ITEM USED AS AN ADVERTISEMENT FOR A MEDIA PUBLICATION

§ 7:15 Reprinting a news feature as an advertisement—
Incidental use: reprinting media feature as an advertisement for the media

§ 7:16 — —New York media advertising immunity

§ 7:17 — —Media advertising exception in other states

§ 7:18 — —Authors' comment

F. AN ADVERTISEMENT BECOMES NEWS

§ 7:19 Reprinting a news feature as an advertisement—
Reproducing an advertisement as news

G. INCIDENTAL AND INSIGNIFICANT USAGE OF IDENTITY

§ 7:20 Insignificant or fleeting usage

TABLE OF CONTENTS

II. USE ON PRODUCTS

A. FREE SPEECH AND USE OF IDENTITY ON PRODUCTS

- § 7:21 Does celebrity memorabilia have First Amendment value as free speech?
- § 7:22 —Focusing on the medium rather than the message
- § 7:23 [Reserved]
- § 7:24 Classifying specific products as commercial merchandise or expressive media

B. EXAMPLES OF USE ON SPECIFIC PRODUCTS

- § 7:25 Specific products—T-shirts and wearing apparel
- § 7:26 —Board games and video games
- § 7:27 —Internet fantasy sports
- § 7:28 —Posters
- § 7:29 —Calendars
- § 7:30 —Background reports, dossiers and subscription lists

C. USE OF IDENTITY ON REPACKAGED OR USED GENUINE GOODS

- § 7:31 Specific products—Repackaged or used genuine merchandise

III. USE IN CYBERSPACE

- § 7:32 Federal Anti-cybersquatting Act: person's names
- § 7:33 State anti-cybersquatting acts
- § 7:34 Use of name or image on web sites

CHAPTER 8. INFRINGING USE OF PERSONAL IDENTITY IN EXPRESSIVE WORKS

I. FIRST AMENDMENT

A. OVERVIEW

- § 8:1 The purpose of the First Amendment and its commitment to free speech

THE RIGHTS OF PUBLICITY AND PRIVACY

§ 8:2 [Reserved]

§ 8:3 The free marketplace of ideas

§ 8:4 Entertainment speech

§ 8:5 False commercial speech

§ 8:6 A Constitutional right not to listen and not to speak

§ 8:7 The “self-fulfillment” purpose of the First Amendment

§ 8:8 The “safety valve” purpose of the First Amendment

§ 8:9 Free speech, “breathing space” and the “chilling effect”

§ 8:10 Authors’ comment: “Free speech” can permit the media to make free commercial use of the identity of prominent people

§ 8:11 The least restrictive alternative rule

§ 8:12 Hierarchy of First Amendment protection

§ 8:13 —Introduction to the different levels of “speech”

§ 8:14 —“News”: information about public issues and the real world

§ 8:15 —“Stories”: fiction and entertainment

§ 8:16 —“Advertising”: the message is “buy”

B. COMMERCIAL SPEECH

§ 8:17 Introduction to “commercial speech”

§ 8:18 The place of “commercial speech” in the hierarchy of the First Amendment

§ 8:19 Distinguishing commercial speech from non-commercial speech

§ 8:20 The Central Hudson four part test of commercial speech

§ 8:21 Where is the “governmental action” in private litigation?

II. PUBLICITY AND PRIVACY RIGHTS AND THE FIRST AMENDMENT

A. FREE SPEECH IN THE CONTEXT OF THE RIGHT OF PUBLICITY

§ 8:22 Balancing the free speech defense against the right of publicity

§ 8:23 The free speech defense to the right of publicity—
Methods for balancing the two legal rights

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 8:24 Balancing the right of publicity against the First Amendment—Balancing the right of publicity against free speech: the Zacchini case
- § 8:25 — —Majority opinion
- § 8:26 — —Dissent
- § 8:27 — —What are the lessons of Zacchini?
- § 8:28 Property rights and free speech
- § 8:29 —Weighing the property right in the right of publicity against First Amendment rights
- § 8:30 — —Trademark analogy
- § 8:31 — —Shopping center analogy
- § 8:32 — —Authors’ comment: drawing the analogy to the right of publicity
- § 8:33 —Is there a constitutional right not to be forced to permit the property in one’s identity to be used as a vehicle for defendant’s message?
- § 8:34 Can the First Amendment be directly incorporated into the right of publicity?
- § 8:35 [Reserved]
- § 8:36 Can the First Amendment be directly incorporated into the right of publicity?—Narrowly construing a privacy or publicity statute
- § 8:37 [Reserved]
- § 8:38 Can the First Amendment be directly incorporated into the right of publicity?—Borrowing the copyright “fair use” defense
- § 8:39 [Reserved]

B. FREE SPEECH IN THE CONTEXT OF THE RIGHT OF PRIVACY

- § 8:40 Rights of privacy and the First Amendment
- § 8:41 —Introduction
- § 8:42 —Intrusion form of invasion of privacy
- § 8:43 —Disclosure of private facts form of invasion of privacy
- § 8:44 —False light invasion of privacy
- § 8:45 —Appropriation form of invasion of privacy

III. EXPRESSIVE USES OF PERSONAL IDENTITY

A. USE OF IDENTITY IN CONNECTION WITH NEWSWORTHY STORIES

- § 8:46 Personal identity used in connection with “news”

THE RIGHTS OF PUBLICITY AND PRIVACY

- § 8:47 News reportage and commentary on public issues
- § 8:48 [Reserved]
- § 8:49 [Reserved]
- § 8:50 [Reserved]
- § 8:51 News reportage and commentary on public issues—Matters of public concern
- § 8:52 —Illustrative list of items held newsworthy
- § 8:53 —Educational and scholarly uses of identity
- § 8:54 —Press conferences and interviews
- § 8:55 —Doings of celebrities as protected news
- § 8:56 —Constitutional value of news about people
- § 8:57 —Reasonable relationship between the person and the news
- § 8:58 — —Liability for invasion of “appropriation” or “disclosure” privacy or infringement of the right of publicity
- § 8:59 Unnecessary insertion of personal identity into news or entertainment
- § 8:60 Private persons involved in newsworthy events
- § 8:61 [Reserved]
- § 8:62 Examples of unnecessarily identifying persons in the news
- § 8:63 News reportage and commentary on public issues—Putting person in a false light by photograph illustrating a controversial issue

B. LIFE STORIES

- § 8:64 Life Story Rights? Authors’ comment
- § 8:65 Telling the story—Liability to the subject of the story
- § 8:66 —Liability to relatives and associates of the subject of the story

C. MEDIA PROFIT

- § 8:67 Media profit and advertising do not remove First Amendment protection—Supreme Court precedent
- § 8:68 First Amendment protection applies to publishing or selling news or expressive works for profit
- § 8:69 Advertising for constitutionally protected uses
- § 8:70 Corporate funded documentaries

TABLE OF CONTENTS

D. METHODS FOR BALANCING THE FREE SPEECH DEFENSE

- § 8:71 Use in expressive works—The Rogers balancing test for falsity-based claims
- § 8:72 Artistic and expressive uses and the “Transformative Test”
- § 8:73 Video games and the transformative use test

E. FICTION AND DOCUDRAMA

- § 8:74 Fiction, faction, and docudrama—Introduction
- § 8:75 [Reserved]
- § 8:76 Fiction, faction, and docudrama—New York fictionalization cases
- § 8:77 Authors’ opinion on the New York Fictionalization Rule
- § 8:78 Fictionalization cases in other states
- § 8:79 —California: the Rudolph Valentino case analysis
- § 8:80 —Texas and other states: the Matthews case and its progeny
- § 8:81 Commentators’ viewpoints
- § 8:82 Authors’ comment: what is a common sense constitutional rule for fiction, faction, and docudrama?
- § 8:83 Disclaimer of factual treatment and disclosure of fiction

F. FICTION AND FACT

- § 8:84 What is the significance of falsity?
- § 8:85 —Authors’ introductory comment: defining the issue
- § 8:86 —Case law
- § 8:87 — —New York cases
- § 8:88 — —California cases
- § 8:89 —Authors’ comment: the impact of falsity

G. MIXED COMMERCIAL AND EXPRESSIVE USES

- § 8:90 Line between news, fiction, and advertising
- § 8:91 —News versus advertising: political and public issue speech versus commercial speech
- § 8:92 [Reserved]

THE RIGHTS OF PUBLICITY AND PRIVACY

- § 8:93 Authors' comment: is the accused use primarily commercial or expressive?
- § 8:94 Parody as a defense
- § 8:95 Conveying information in a predominantly commercial setting
- § 8:96 [Reserved]
- § 8:97 Mixed commercial and communicative messages
- § 8:98 Commercial and communicative messages inextricably intertwined
- § 8:99 Characterizing mixed media messages

H. ADVERTISEMENT IN DISGUISE

- § 8:100 Advertisement in disguise
- § 8:101 —New York concept of an “advertisement in disguise”
- § 8:102 —Authors' comment: what is the newsworthy content of the news?

IV. PERFORMANCE RIGHTS AND THE MEDIA

A. REPRODUCTION OF A PERFORMANCE

- § 8:103 Reproduction of performance
- § 8:104 —Reproduction of performance and the Zacchini case
- § 8:105 —State common law copyright
- § 8:106 —Performance reproduction as misappropriation
- § 8:107 —1994 Federal Anti-Bootlegging Act
- § 8:108 Imitation of performance: Authors' comment—the right of publicity is not appropriate

B. IMITATION OF STYLE

- § 8:109 Imitation of style: advertising use
- § 8:110 —Performing “style” and the right of publicity
- § 8:111 —Infringement by imitation in advertising
- § 8:112 Imitation of style: entertainment use by mimics and impersonators
- § 8:113 —Use in competitive entertainment
- § 8:114 —Parody of persons in comedic entertainment
- § 8:115 Imitation of style: mimics and impersonators of deceased performers
- § 8:116 —Advertising uses of imitations of deceased performers

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 8:117 —Entertainment uses of imitations of deceased performers
- § 8:118 — —Elvis Presley performance case
- § 8:119 — —Marx Brothers case
- § 8:120 — —Janis Joplin case
- § 8:121 — —Copyright fair use defense for entertainment parody
- § 8:122 — —Authors' comment: theatrical imitations of deceased performers
- § 8:123 Computer animations and simulations of actors

CHAPTER 9. POSTMORTEM RIGHT OF PUBLICITY

I. PRIVACY RIGHTS—NO POST MORTEM DURATION

- § 9:1 Privacy rights: no postmortem duration

II. POST MORTEM DURATION OF THE RIGHT OF PUBLICITY

A. ARGUMENTS PRO AND CON FOR A POST MORTEM DURATION

- § 9:2 Postmortem right of publicity: the arguments pro and con
- § 9:3 —Authors' introduction to the issue
- § 9:4 —Arguments for and against the postmortem right of publicity
- § 9:5 — —“Property” versus “personal” rights debate
- § 9:6 — —Argument over analogies
- § 9:7 — —Policy debate
- § 9:8 — — —Policy arguments against a postmortem right of publicity
- § 9:9 — — —Policy arguments in favor of a postmortem right of publicity
- § 9:10 —Authors' comment: misusing the postmortem right of publicity to assert dignitary interests

B. THE ARCHAIC RULE—LIFETIME EXPLOITATION REQUIRED

- § 9:11 Is lifetime exploitation required?

THE RIGHTS OF PUBLICITY AND PRIVACY

- § 9:12 —Introduction
- § 9:13 —History of the “lifetime exploitation” condition on postmortem rights
- § 9:14 — —Authors’ comment: why the exploitation
requirement?
- § 9:15 — —Rejection of the lifetime exploitation
requirement

C. HOW LONG SHOULD THE POST MORTEM DURATION LAST?

- § 9:16 How long should the right of publicity last?

D. SURVEY OF THE STATES—POST MORTEM RIGHTS

- § 9:17 State of the law on a post mortem right of publicity—A survey of the states
- § 9:18 State of the law on a post mortem right of publicity
- § 9:19 Postmortem rule of the states—Alabama
- § 9:20 —Arizona
- § 9:21 —Arkansas
- § 9:22 —California
- § 9:23 —Connecticut
- § 9:24 —Florida
- § 9:25 —Georgia
- § 9:26 —Hawaii
- § 9:27 —Illinois
- § 9:28 —Indiana
- § 9:29 —Kentucky
- § 9:30 —Michigan
- § 9:31 —Minnesota
- § 9:32 —Missouri
- § 9:33 —Nebraska
- § 9:34 —Nevada
- § 9:35 —New Jersey
- § 9:36 —New York
- § 9:37 —Ohio
- § 9:38 —Oklahoma
- § 9:39 —Pennsylvania
- § 9:40 —South Carolina
- § 9:41 —South Dakota
- § 9:42 —Tennessee

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 9:43 —Texas
- § 9:44 —Utah
- § 9:45 —Virginia
- § 9:46 —Washington
- § 9:47 —Wisconsin

CHAPTER 10. ASSIGNMENTS AND LICENSES

I. TRANSFER OF PUBLICITY AND PRIVACY RIGHTS

A. TRANSFER OF PRIVACY RIGHTS

- § 10:1 Transfer of privacy rights
- § 10:2 —Privacy rights are personal
- § 10:3 — —General rule
- § 10:4 — —Authors' comment
- § 10:5 —Rule leads to creation of the right of publicity

B. TRANSFER OF PUBLICITY RIGHTS

- § 10:6 Right of publicity is property
- § 10:7 —Right of publicity viewed as a “property” right
- § 10:8 —Significance of the “property” label
- § 10:9 —Infringement of the right of publicity as the “tort” of “unfair competition”
- § 10:10 Assignment of the right of publicity—
Introduction
- § 10:11 Rules of trademark assignments
- § 10:12 Sale of name prior to acceptance of the right of publicity
- § 10:13 Assignment of the right of publicity
- § 10:14 Authors' comment on assignment of the right of publicity

II. LICENSES

A. TYPES OF LICENSES

- § 10:15 Licenses of the rights of publicity and privacy
- § 10:16 —Assignments, exclusive licenses, and nonexclusive licenses compared
- § 10:17 Assignments compared to licenses
- § 10:18 Nonexclusive licenses

THE RIGHTS OF PUBLICITY AND PRIVACY

- § 10:19 Exclusive licenses
- § 10:20 Publicity licenses compared to trademark licenses
- § 10:21 Consents and licenses of privacy rights

B. SCOPE OF ACTIVITIES PERMITTED IN A LICENSE

- § 10:22 Scope of licenses
- § 10:23 —Conditions and limitations in licenses
- § 10:24 —Determining the scope of the license
- § 10:25 —Examples of limitations in licenses
- § 10:26 — —Duration
- § 10:27 — —Context of use
- § 10:28 — —Product line

C. ORAL AND WRITTEN LICENSES

- § 10:29 Oral and written licenses and termination
- § 10:30 —Is a writing required?

D. INFORMAL AND IMPLIED LICENSES

- § 10:31 Gratuitous licenses, termination and estoppel
- § 10:32 Implied licenses and estoppel
- § 10:33 —Consent and license implied from conduct
- § 10:34 —Fame is not an implied license to infringe the right of publicity

E. USE BY LICENSEE OUTSIDE THE SCOPE OF THE LICENSE

- § 10:35 Use outside scope of license
- § 10:36 —Use by licensee outside the scope of the license constitutes infringement
- § 10:37 —Licensee changes in content or format of identity

F. LACK OF CAPACITY TO CONSENT BY MINORS AND OTHERS

- § 10:38 Capacity to license or consent
- § 10:39 —Minors
- § 10:40 —Mentally disabled persons
- § 10:41 —Lack of authority to license or consent

TABLE OF CONTENTS

G. CONFLICTING LICENSES AND PAROLE EVIDENCE

§ 10:42 Conflicting licenses and parole evidence

H. LICENSE INVALID BECAUSE OF FRAUD, MISTAKE OR FORGERY

§ 10:43 License induced by fraud or mistake

§ 10:44 Forged licenses

I. EMPLOYER'S COMMERCIAL USE OF EMPLOYEE'S IDENTITY

§ 10:45 Employer's use of employee's identity

§ 10:46 —Use of employee's identity in advertising outside the scope of employment

§ 10:47 —Use of employee's identity in advertising within scope of employment: in term and post term

J. CONTRACTS BY ACTORS AND PERFORMERS

§ 10:48 Actors' and performers' contracts

§ 10:49 —Grant of rights clause

§ 10:50 —Grant to producer of merchandising rights

§ 10:51 —Scope of the grant of rights

§ 10:52 —Recovery under quantum meruit

K. LICENSEE'S STANDING TO SUE THIRD PARTIES

§ 10:53 Licensee's standing to sue third parties

L. CRIMINALS' PUBLISHING CONTRACTS AND "SON OF SAM" LAWS

§ 10:54 Criminal defendants' publication agreements

§ 10:55 —"Son of Sam" statutes: publication proceeds paid to criminals

§ 10:56 —Simon & Schuster case and constitutional challenges

§ 10:57 —Criminal defense attorneys' publishing arrangements with their clients

III. CONTRACT CHECKLIST

- § 10:58 Checklist for drafting and negotiating personality licenses
- § 10:59 —Licensing checklist
- § 10:60 — —What legal rights are being licensed?
- § 10:61 — — —Rights of publicity and privacy
- § 10:62 — — —Waiver of other tort claims
- § 10:63 — — —Trademarks and service marks
- § 10:64 — — —Copyrights
- § 10:65 — —Aspects of identity being licensed
- § 10:66 — —Format and context of use
- § 10:67 — —Territorial scope
- § 10:68 — —Duration of license
- § 10:69 — —Up-front payments
- § 10:70 — —Running royalties
- § 10:71 — —Minimum royalties
- § 10:72 — —Method and time of paying royalties
- § 10:73 — —Licensor control over quality of licensed products
- § 10:74 — —Warranty of right to license
- § 10:75 — —Licensee's use of trademark and copyright notices
- § 10:76 — —Termination and rights upon termination
- § 10:77 — —Licensee's right to assign or sublicense
- § 10:78 — —Indemnification and insurance
- § 10:79 — —Arbitration, forum selection, and choice of law
- § 10:80 — —Enforcement of rights against infringers
- § 10:81 — —Boilerplate language

IV. MARITAL AND ESTATE PROPERTY

- § 10:82 Right of publicity as marital property
- § 10:83 Right of publicity as an asset in decedent's estate

V. ASSETS FOR PAYMENT OF DEBTS

- § 10:84 Foreclosing on the right of publicity

VI. AUTHENTICITY CONTROLS

- § 10:85 Autographed memorabilia authenticity statutes

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CHAPTER 11. PROCEDURE, REMEDIES, AND DEFENSES

I. PROCEDURE

A. PERSONAL JURISDICTION

- § 11:1 Personal jurisdiction
- § 11:2 —Privacy and publicity cases
- § 11:3 —Personal jurisdiction through Internet usage

B. FEDERAL JURISDICTION AND STANDING

- § 11:4 Federal jurisdiction
- § 11:5 —Diversity jurisdiction
- § 11:6 —Federal question and pendent jurisdiction
- § 11:7 Standing to litigate in federal court

C. CONFLICT OF LAWS

- § 11:8 Conflict of laws
- § 11:9 —Authors' introduction: choice of law
- § 11:10 —Defamation and invasion of privacy
- § 11:11 —Right of publicity: international conflict of laws
- § 11:12 —Right of publicity: domestic conflict of laws
- § 11:13 — —Applying the law of the forum
- § 11:14 — —Applying the law of the place of infringement
- § 11:15 — —Applying the law of the place of plaintiff's domicile
- § 11:16 — —Applying the law of the place of plaintiff's domicile to existence of a post mortem right
- § 11:17 — —The Rule of Depecage
- § 11:18 — —Authors' Comment on applying the law of plaintiff's domicile to determine a post mortem right of publicity
- § 11:19 —Authors' comment on choice of law

D. CLASS ACTIONS

- § 11:20 Class actions

E. THE SINGLE PUBLICATION RULE

- § 11:21 Single publication rule

F. ABATEMENT OF CLAIMS FOLLOWING
DEATH OF DEFENDANT

- § 11:22 Abatement of claims following death of defendant

II. REMEDIES

A. INJUNCTIONS

- § 11:23 Injunctions
§ 11:24 —Injunction against infringement
§ 11:25 —Preliminary injunction
§ 11:26 —Prior restraint rule
§ 11:27 —Territorial scope of injunction

B. DAMAGES

- § 11:28 Damages: indignity and mental distress
§ 11:29 —Nature of the injury
§ 11:30 —Measure of damages
§ 11:31 —How much is appropriate?
§ 11:32 Damages: commercial loss
§ 11:33 —Commercial value of identity
§ 11:34 —Recovering the fair market value of identity
§ 11:35 —Damage to professional standing and publicity value
§ 11:36 —Unjust enrichment and infringer's profits
§ 11:37 —Damages for false endorsement
§ 11:38 Punitive and exemplary damages
§ 11:39 Constitutional limits on punitive damages

C. ATTORNEY FEES

- § 11:40 Attorney's fees

III. DEFENSES

A. STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS

- § 11:41 Statute of limitations
§ 11:42 —Accrual of cause of action to start statute of limitations running
§ 11:43 —Statute of limitations: length of time
§ 11:44 —Estoppel by laches and abandonment

TABLE OF CONTENTS

B. ANTITRUST

§ 11:45 Antitrust

C. ABUSE OF LITIGATION AND OF CEASE
AND DESIST DEMANDS

§ 11:46 Tortious abuse of litigation and of cease and desist demands

D. PREEMPTION OF STATE PUBLICITY AND PRIVACY CLAIMS BY FEDERAL
COPYRIGHT LAW OR OTHER FEDERAL STATUTES

§ 11:47 Federal preemption

§ 11:48 [Reserved]

§ 11:49 Federal preemption—Preemption rules of the Copyright Act

§ 11:50 Federal Preemption—Conflict preemption

§ 11:51 Federal preemption—Privacy rights

§ 11:52 —Right of publicity

§ 11:53 — —Names

§ 11:54 — —Pictures and photographs

§ 11:55 — —Sounds

§ 11:56 — —Audio and video recordings of performances

§ 11:57 Authors' Opinion: Federal preemption of performance-based right of publicity claims

§ 11:58 Defendant's copyright ownership

§ 11:59 —Rights and obligations of photographers

§ 11:60 — —Ownership of copyright in photographs of people

§ 11:61 — —Obligations of photographers

§ 11:62 —Is the owner or licensee of copyright in a likeness of a person immune from liability for privacy invasion or publicity infringement?

§ 11:63 —Authors' comment: copyright ownership is no defense to right of publicity infringement

E. IMMUNITIES, CONSENT, AND PRIVILEGES

§ 11:64 Immunities generally

§ 11:65 Consent

THE RIGHTS OF PUBLICITY AND PRIVACY

- § 11:66 Governmental immunities
- § 11:67 Charitable or religious immunity
- § 11:68 The workers compensation exclusivity rule
- § 11:69 The “Litigation,” “Fair Reporting” and “Common Interest” privileges

F. INVASION OF PRIVACY AS UNCLEAN HANDS TO DEFEAT OTHER CLAIMS

- § 11:70 Unclean hands

Table of Laws and Rules

Table of Cases

Index