

Table of Contents

CHAPTER 1. WHITE COLLAR LANDSCAPE: REGULATORS, ENFORCEMENT ACTIVITY, AND PRIORITIES

- § 1:1 Introduction
- § 1:2 Department of Justice
- § 1:3 Securities and Exchange Commission
- § 1:4 Commodity Futures Trading Commission
- § 1:5 Financial Industry Regulatory Authority
- § 1:6 Consumer Financial Protection Bureau
- § 1:7 State Attorneys General
- § 1:8 Conclusion

CHAPTER 2. DEVELOPING AN EFFECTIVE CORPORATE COMPLIANCE PROGRAM

I. BENEFITS AND PURPOSES OF AN EFFECTIVE COMPLIANCE AND ETHICS PROGRAM

- § 2:1 Overview

II. THE FEDERAL SENTENCING GUIDELINES

- § 2:2 Overview
- § 2:3 The evolving notion of compliance program
“effectiveness”
- § 2:4 Calculation of corporate criminal fines
- § 2:5 —Determining the base fine
- § 2:6 —Determining the culpability score
- § 2:7 —Determining the fine multiplier
- § 2:8 —Departures from the guideline fine range
- § 2:9 —Probation

III. THE PRINCIPLES OF FEDERAL PROSECUTION OF BUSINESS ORGANIZATIONS

- § 2:10 Overview

IV. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE CORPORATE COMPLIANCE PROGRAM GUIDANCE

- § 2:11 Overview

- § 2:12 Is the Program Well-Designed?
- § 2:13 Is the Program Implemented Effectively?
- § 2:14 Does the Program Work in Practice?

V. INDUSTRY-SPECIFIC CONSEQUENCES OF NONCOMPLIANCE

- § 2:15 Overview

VI. GOVERNMENT-IMPOSED COMPLIANCE REQUIREMENTS: CIAS AND MONITORSHIPS

- § 2:16 Corporate Integrity Agreements
- § 2:17 Monitorships

VII. STRATEGIES FOR IMPLEMENTING AN EFFECTIVE COMPLIANCE PROGRAM

- § 2:18 Risk assessments
- § 2:19 Written policies and procedures
- § 2:20 Training
- § 2:21 Monitoring and auditing systems
- § 2:22 —Open-door policy
- § 2:23 —Anonymous complaints
- § 2:24 —Non-retaliation
- § 2:25 —Internal audit
- § 2:26 —Other monitoring
- § 2:27 Issue remediation

VIII. CONCLUSION

- § 2:28 In summary

CHAPTER 3. CONDUCTING INTERNAL INVESTIGATIONS

I. INTRODUCTION

- § 3:1 Overview
- § 3:2 How internal investigations arise

II. DETERMINING WHETHER TO CONDUCT AN INTERNAL INVESTIGATION

- § 3:3 Overview
- § 3:4 Incentives to conduct an internal investigation—
Current Guidance
- § 3:5 Risks

TABLE OF CONTENTS

III. PREPARING FOR AN INTERNAL INVESTIGATION

- § 3:6 Nature of the alleged misconduct
- § 3:7 Defining the objectives and scope of an investigation
- § 3:8 Determining who should control an investigation
- § 3:9 Determining which lawyers should assist in the investigation
- § 3:10 —In-house counsel
- § 3:11 —Outside counsel
- § 3:12 — —Selecting outside counsel
- § 3:13 — —The role of outside counsel

IV. CONDUCTING AN INVESTIGATION

- § 3:14 Developing the investigative plan
- § 3:15 —Maximizing the potential for voluntary self-disclosure and cooperation credit
- § 3:16 Developing the Investigation Plan—Strategies for controlling costs & preventing a “runaway investigation”
- § 3:17 Dealing with attorney-client issues during an investigation
- § 3:18 —Handling multiple representations
- § 3:19 —Providing separate counsel for employees
- § 3:20 —Protecting confidential communications during the investigation
- § 3:21 —Deciding whether to participate in joint defense agreements
- § 3:22 Retaining experts and outside vendors
- § 3:23 Notifying employees of an investigation
- § 3:24 Collecting, reviewing and analyzing relevant documents
- § 3:25 —Preliminary considerations
- § 3:26 —Preserving documents
- § 3:27 —Collecting documents
- § 3:28 —Organizing and processing documents
- § 3:29 —Reviewing and analyzing documents
- § 3:30 —Subpoena compliance and production
- § 3:31 Interviewing key witnesses
- § 3:32 —Privilege issues and Upjohn warnings
- § 3:33 —Drafting interview memoranda
- § 3:34 —Handling uncooperative employees

V. REPORTING THE RESULTS OF THE INTERNAL INVESTIGATION

- § 3:35 Reporting to the client

- § 3:36 —General issues to address
- § 3:37 —Deciding between a written and an oral report
- § 3:38 —Allowing company employees to review the final draft of a report
- § 3:39 —Reporting to a special committee
- § 3:40 Reporting to the government
- § 3:41 —Contents of the presentation
- § 3:42 —Potential waivers of privilege and work product protections
- § 3:43 —Considerations arising from the SEC's final rules implementing its Whistleblower Program

VI. CONCLUSION

- § 3:44 In summary

CHAPTER 4. THE ROLE OF GENERAL COUNSEL IN A CRISIS

I. INTRODUCTION

- § 4:1 Overview

II. UNDERSTANDING THE NATURE OF THE ISSUE

- § 4:2 Crisis or problem?
- § 4:3 Playing gatekeeper

III. GETTING THE RIGHT HELP

- § 4:4 Introduction
- § 4:5 Judgment versus intelligence
- § 4:6 Where do I find this person?
- § 4:7 Inside or outside the company?

IV. COMMUNICATING WITH STAKEHOLDERS

- § 4:8 Dealing with the early factual garble
- § 4:9 Senior management
- § 4:10 The Board
- § 4:11 External audiences

V. CONCLUSION

- § 4:12 In summary

CHAPTER 5. DEFENDING INDIVIDUALS IN GOVERNMENT INVESTIGATIONS

I. INTRODUCTION

§ 5:1 Overview

II. INITIAL CONSIDERATIONS

§ 5:2 Your client's role in the investigation: subject, target, or witness

§ 5:3 Conflicts of interest—Downside of joint representation

§ 5:4 —Obtaining a written waiver

§ 5:5 Joint defense agreements

III. MANAGING YOUR CLIENT

§ 5:6 Client expectations

§ 5:7 Psychological effect on client

§ 5:8 Address your client's personal issues

IV. ACCESS TO DOCUMENTS

§ 5:9 Overview

V. WHETHER YOUR CLIENT SHOULD TALK TO THE GOVERNMENT AND COMPANY COUNSEL

§ 5:10 Asserting one's Fifth Amendment privilege

§ 5:11 Company policy

§ 5:12 Timing

§ 5:13 Whether your client should speak to company counsel

§ 5:14 Subpoenas to testify before the grand jury

§ 5:15 —Preparing your client for testifying

§ 5:16 Review of documents

§ 5:17 Interviews

§ 5:18 Proffer sessions—What is a proffer session?

§ 5:19 —Risks of proffer sessions

§ 5:20 —Proffer agreements

§ 5:21 Statutory immunity in federal court

VI. OBSTRUCTION OF JUSTICE ISSUES

§ 5:22 Overview

§ 5:23 The obstruction statutes

§ 5:24 Perjury statutes

§ 5:25 False statement statute

§ 5:26 False Testimony—Practical considerations

VII. PAYMENT OF LEGAL FEES AND INVESTIGATIVE COSTS

- § 5:27 Indemnification
- § 5:28 Contractual indemnification provisions
- § 5:29 D&O insurance
- § 5:30 Will your client be held liable for the company's investigative costs?
- § 5:31 —Government-requested investigations
- § 5:32 —Practical considerations

VIII. SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS FOR CLIENTS LOCATED OUTSIDE THE UNITED STATES

- § 5:33 Obtaining criminal counsel outside the United States
- § 5:34 Extraterritorial jurisdiction
- § 5:35 Can your client be compelled to give testimony if he or she is located outside the United States?
- § 5:36 What are the risks of travel to the United States
- § 5:37 Border stops and seizures of laptops and other items
- § 5:38 Material witness warrants and arrests
- § 5:39 Safe passage agreements
- § 5:40 What are the risks of travel outside of the United States?
- § 5:41 Obtaining evidence outside of the United States
- § 5:42 Whether to submit to voluntary interviews with the company counsel outside the United States
- § 5:43 Whether to submit to MLAT interviews/voluntary interviews

Appendix 5A. Joint Defense Agreement

CHAPTER 6. REPRESENTING CORPORATIONS IN UNITED STATES ATTORNEY'S OFFICE AND DOJ INVESTIGATIONS

- § 6:1 Introduction
- § 6:2 DOJ's organizational structure
- § 6:3 The United States Attorney's Offices
- § 6:4 Coordination among USAOs and main justice
- § 6:5 Life cycle of a DOJ or USAO investigation
- § 6:6 Principles underlying corporate criminal prosecutions
- § 6:7 DOJ's "principles of federal prosecution of business organizations"
- § 6:8 The corporate enforcement policy and self-reporting
- § 6:9 Analyzing the factors federal prosecutors consider
- § 6:10 Timely reporting

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 6:11	Cooperation as a mitigating factor
§ 6:12	Issues related to cooperation
§ 6:13	Remedial action as a mitigating factor
§ 6:14	Compliance programs
§ 6:15	Other factors
§ 6:16	Making presentations to the prosecutors
§ 6:17	—Know your audience
§ 6:18	—Know the process
§ 6:19	—Scope of presentations
§ 6:20	Resolving the case—Forms of resolution
§ 6:21	Non-prosecution and deferred prosecution agreements
§ 6:22	Guilty pleas
§ 6:23	Monetary assessments
§ 6:24	Monitors and/or reporting obligations
§ 6:25	Debarment
§ 6:26	Conclusion

CHAPTER 7. DEFENDING CLIENTS IN SEC INVESTIGATIONS AND ENFORCEMENT ACTIONS

I. INTRODUCTION

§ 7:1	Introduction to the SEC
§ 7:2	Organization
§ 7:3	Recent developments—Cryptocurrency—Introduction
§ 7:4	— — Howey and Registration Cases
§ 7:5	— —Fraud, touting, and cyber-related misconduct
§ 7:6	— —Exchange-Traded Products (ETPs)
§ 7:7	—Administrative proceedings
§ 7:8	Recent enforcement actions—Insider trading
§ 7:9	—Ponzi schemes
§ 7:10	Recent developments—Off-system communications regulatory actions
§ 7:11	Recent enforcement actions—Financial reporting and revenue recognition
§ 7:12	Recent developments—Regulation Best Interest
§ 7:13	—China
§ 7:14	Recent Developments—ESG Litigation
§ 7:15	—Other Litigation Developments

II. OPENING AND PURSUING AN ENFORCEMENT INVESTIGATION

§ 7:16	Recent Developments—Remedies
§ 7:17	Incentives to aid the SEC in pursuing an investigation—The “Whistleblower” Program

§ 7:18 Initial investigative stages

III. THE INITIAL INTERNAL INVESTIGATION

§ 7:19 Introduction

§ 7:20 Retaining outside counsel to investigate

§ 7:21 The pros and cons of self-disclosure

§ 7:22 —Should a corporation voluntarily disclose wrongdoing to the SEC?

§ 7:23 —Should individuals voluntarily disclose wrongdoing to the SEC?

IV. THE SEC'S INITIAL INVESTIGATIVE ACTIVITIES

§ 7:24 Matter under inquiry

§ 7:25 Initial SEC requests

§ 7:26 Ethical issues regarding representation

V. THE FORMAL INVESTIGATION

§ 7:27 Introduction

§ 7:28 The formal order of investigation

§ 7:29 The SEC's investigative tools

§ 7:30 Initial contact with the staff

§ 7:31 Subpoena duces tecum—The importance of document preservation

§ 7:32 —Compliance with the subpoena

§ 7:33 —Definition of “document”

§ 7:34 —Electronic searches

§ 7:35 —Hard copy searches

§ 7:36 —Production of documents required to be retained

§ 7:37 —International issues in subpoena compliance

§ 7:38 —Agreement on scope of production

§ 7:39 Subpoena ad testificandum

§ 7:40 —Scheduling testimony

§ 7:41 —Preparation for testimony

§ 7:42 —Preliminary matters prior to testimony

§ 7:43 —Attendance of counsel

§ 7:44 —Assertion of Fifth Amendment privilege

§ 7:45 —Role of counsel

§ 7:46 —Duration of testimony

§ 7:47 —Access to transcripts

§ 7:48 Sworn statements under Section 21(a)

§ 7:49 Escalation of disputes

§ 7:50 Subpoena enforcement proceedings

§ 7:51 Sanctions against SEC personnel

§ 7:52 Freedom of Information Act and access requests

TABLE OF CONTENTS

VI. UNDERSTANDING THE POTENTIAL SANCTIONS

§ 7:53 Overview

VII. POTENTIAL STATUTORY VIOLATIONS

§ 7:54 Introduction

§ 7:55 General anti-fraud prohibitions (Securities Exchange Act of 1934 § 10)

§ 7:56 Books and records (Securities Exchange Act of 1934 § 13)

§ 7:57 Scienter and nonscienter fraud (Securities Act 1933 § 17)

§ 7:58 Supervisory duties (Securities Exchange Act of 1934 § 20)

§ 7:59 Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (Securities Exchange Act of 1934 § 30A)

§ 7:60 Control person liability for FCPA violations (Securities Exchange Act of 1934 § 20(a))

VIII. COMMENCING ADMINISTRATIVE OR FEDERAL COURT ENFORCEMENT
PROCEEDINGS

§ 7:61 Remedies in federal district court—Injunctive relief

§ 7:62 —Civil monetary penalties

§ 7:63 —Ancillary relief

§ 7:64 — —Director and officer bar

§ 7:65 — —Asset freezes

§ 7:66 — —Compelled changes to internal controls and corporate officers

§ 7:67 — —Bonus forfeiture

§ 7:68 — —Corrective disclosure

§ 7:69 — —Prohibition of improper influence on conduct of audits

§ 7:70 Obtaining discovery from the SEC

§ 7:71 Obtaining discovery from third parties

§ 7:72 Administrative remedies

§ 7:73 —Cease and desist orders

§ 7:74 —Administrative fines

§ 7:75 —Censure

§ 7:76 —Section 21(a)(1) reports

§ 7:77 —Stop orders, trading suspensions, and deregistration

§ 7:78 —Officer and director bar

§ 7:79 —Bar against persons appearing before SEC and Rule 102(e) proceedings

§ 7:80 —Use of statutory emergency powers

- § 7:81 —Penalties for broker-dealers
- § 7:82 Suspension of Well-Known Seasoned Issuer (WKSI) status

IX. CRIMINAL ENFORCEMENT

- § 7:83 Overview

X. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

- § 7:84 Overview

XI. THE WELLS PROCESS

- § 7:85 Background
- § 7:86 Pre-Wells communications
- § 7:87 The Wells call
- § 7:88 The Wells submission

XII. THE STAFF'S ENFORCEMENT RECOMMENDATION

- § 7:89 Overview

XIII. SETTLEMENT OFFERS

- § 7:90 Overview
- § 7:91 Negotiations with staff
- § 7:92 Settlement documents in federal court proceedings
- § 7:93 Settlement documents in administrative proceedings
- § 7:94 Settlement terms
- § 7:95 —Neither admit nor deny
- § 7:96 —Prohibition against inconsistent statements
- § 7:97 Final commission approval
- § 7:98 Settlement through filed case
- § 7:99 Document certification
- § 7:100 The litigation release

XIV. CLOSING THE INVESTIGATION WITHOUT CHARGES

- § 7:101 Overview

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CHAPTER 8. DEFENDING CLIENTS IN CONSUMER FINANCIAL PROTECTION
BUREAU INVESTIGATIONS

I. THE CONSUMER FINANCIAL PROTECTION BUREAU

- § 8:1 Introduction
- § 8:2 Formation of the CFPB and Early History
- § 8:3 The CFPB's Jurisdiction—"Covered Persons" and Service Providers
- § 8:4 The CFPB's Jurisdiction—"Federal consumer financial law"
- § 8:5 The CFPB's Jurisdiction—Unfair, Deceptive and Abusive Acts and Practices

II. THE CFPB'S FUNCTIONS AND ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

- § 8:6 Introduction
- § 8:7 Supervision
- § 8:8 Rulemaking
- § 8:9 Enforcement

III. DEFENDING A CLIENT IN A CFPB INVESTIGATION

- § 8:10 Introduction
- § 8:11 The Civil Investigative Demand (CID)
- § 8:12 CIDs—Assessing a CID
- § 8:13 —Meet-and-Confer
- § 8:14 —Written Modifications to the CID
- § 8:15 —Petition for an Order Modifying or Setting Aside a
CID
- § 8:16 —Noncompliance
- § 8:17 —Productions/Responses
- § 8:18 Disclosure of Confidential Information
- § 8:19 Protections for Confidential Information
- § 8:20 Assertion of Privilege
- § 8:21 CID Testimony—Investigational Hearings
- § 8:22 Individuals as Targets
- § 8:23 Credit for Cooperation
- § 8:24 Closure of an Investigation
- § 8:25 Non-Public Supervisory Actions

IV. DEFENDING A CLIENT IN A CFPB ENFORCEMENT ACTION

- § 8:26 Introduction

- § 8:27 Early Warning Process (NORA)
- § 8:28 Adjudication
- § 8:29 —Decisions and Appeals
- § 8:30 —Temporary Cease & Desist Orders
- § 8:31 Civil Actions
- § 8:32 Settlement
- § 8:33 —Substantive Conduct Provisions
- § 8:34 —Restitution
- § 8:35 —Civil Money Penalties

V. PARALLEL AND COORDINATED INVESTIGATION AND ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

- § 8:36 Introduction
- § 8:37 Federal Agency Partnerships
- § 8:38 State Agency Partnerships

VI. CONCLUSION

- § 8:39 In Summary

CHAPTER 9. DEFENDING CLIENTS IN FINANCIAL INDUSTRY REGULATORY AUTHORITY INVESTIGATIONS

I. WHAT IS FINRA?

- § 9:1 Introduction
- § 9:2 Overview
- § 9:3 Early History of the NASD
- § 9:4 The Schapiro and Post-Schapiro Eras
- § 9:5 The Cook Era
- § 9:6 FINRA's Jurisdiction

II. FINRA'S FUNCTIONS AND ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

- § 9:7 Introduction
- § 9:8 FINRA Rulemaking
- § 9:9 FINRA Examinations and Market Surveillance
- § 9:10 —Member Regulation
- § 9:11 FINRA Examinations and Market Surveillance—
Market Regulation
- § 9:12 FINRA Examinations and Market Surveillance—Office
of Fraud Detection and Market Intelligence (OFDMI)
- § 9:13 FINRA examinations—Advertising Regulation
- § 9:14 FINRA enforcement

TABLE OF CONTENTS

III. DEFENDING A CLIENT IN A FINRA INVESTIGATION

- § 9:15 Introduction
- § 9:16 Document and/or Information Requests
- § 9:17 —The Basics of Responding to a Document and/or Information Request
- § 9:18 —Common Issues or Problems
- § 9:19 —Internal Investigations
- § 9:20 On-the-Record Testimony
- § 9:21 —The Basics of Testimony
- § 9:22 —Counsel’s Role During Testimony
- § 9:23 Confidentiality Concerns
- § 9:24 Parallel Regulatory or Criminal Proceedings
- § 9:25 Receiving Credit for Extraordinary Cooperation
- § 9:26 Sufficiency of Evidence Review
- § 9:27 The Wells Process
- § 9:28 —How to Respond to a Wells Notification
- § 9:29 —Written Wells Submissions
- § 9:30 —Alternatives to Written Wells Submissions
- § 9:31 —Potential Staff Responses
- § 9:32 Deciding Whether to Settle or Litigate
- § 9:33 The Settlement Process
- § 9:34 —Reaching an Agreement in Principle
- § 9:35 —Negotiating the AWC
- § 9:36 —Office of Disciplinary Affairs Review
- § 9:37 —Publication of the Settlement

IV. DEFENDING A CLIENT IN A FINRA DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDING

- § 9:38 Introduction
- § 9:39 Responding to the Complaint
- § 9:40 —Affirmative Defenses
- § 9:41 —Requesting a Hearing
- § 9:42 Pre-Hearing Conference
- § 9:43 Discovery
- § 9:44 —Discovery of FINRA Staff’s Investigative File
- § 9:45 —Respondent’s Request for Documents or Testimony
- § 9:46 —Respondent’s Request for Production of Witness Statements
- § 9:47 —FINRA Staff’s Ability to Issue Rule 8210 Requests Post-Complaint
- § 9:48 Pre-Hearing Submissions and Expert Witness Determinations
- § 9:49 Hearing
- § 9:50 The Hearing Panel’s Decision

- § 9:51 Potential Sanctions
- § 9:52 Appeal of Hearing Panel's Decision—National Adjudicatory Council
- § 9:53 Further Appeals

CHAPTER 10. DEFENDING CLIENTS IN PUBLIC COMPANY ACCOUNTING OVERSIGHT BOARD INVESTIGATIONS

I. INTRODUCTION

- § 10:1 Scope

II. BACKGROUND

- § 10:2 Formation
- § 10:3 Responsibilities
- § 10:4 —Registration
- § 10:5 —Inspections
- § 10:6 —Standard setting
- § 10:7 —Enforcement
- § 10:8 Organizational structure—Board
- § 10:9 —Division of Registration and Inspections
- § 10:10 —Division of Enforcement and Investigations
- § 10:11 SEC oversight
- § 10:12 —Rulemaking
- § 10:13 —Disciplinary actions
- § 10:14 Sanctions
- § 10:15 Available remedies

III. PCAOB INSPECTIONS AND INVESTIGATIONS

- § 10:16 Sources of PCAOB Inspections
- § 10:17 PCAOB Inspections—International Oversight
- § 10:18 —Inspection Reports
- § 10:19 Sources of PCAOB Investigations
- § 10:20 Conduct of PCAOB investigations
- § 10:21 Informal inquiries
- § 10:22 Formal investigations—Commencement and closure procedures
- § 10:23 Order of formal investigation
- § 10:24 Accounting board demands and requests
- § 10:25 Procedure for production
- § 10:26 Testimony
- § 10:27 Assertion of privileges
- § 10:28 Rights of witnesses in inquiries and investigations
- § 10:29 Rule 5109(d) notices

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 10:30 Rule 5109(d) submissions
- § 10:31 Non-cooperation—Grounds for proceeding
- § 10:32 —Expedited procedures
- § 10:33 Coordination—SEC referrals
- § 10:34 Other referrals
- § 10:35 Conduct of PCAOB investigations—Confidentiality

IV. DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS

- § 10:36 Initiation of disciplinary proceedings
- § 10:37 Settlements—Procedures
- § 10:38 —Waivers
- § 10:39 Contested proceedings—Types of proceedings
- § 10:40 —Order Instituting Proceedings
- § 10:41 —Pre-hearing procedures—Case management order
- § 10:42 —Stay Requests
- § 10:43 —Answer to Order Instituting Proceedings
- § 10:44 —Discovery of PCAOB investigative record
- § 10:45 —Pre-hearing discovery
- § 10:46 —Motions
- § 10:47 —Motion for summary disposition
- § 10:48 —Hearing procedures
- § 10:49 —Post-hearing briefs
- § 10:50 —Initial decision
- § 10:51 —Appeals of disciplinary actions—Board review of initial decisions
- § 10:52 —Interlocutory review
- § 10:53 —Board review procedure
- § 10:54 Sanctions and collateral consequences

CHAPTER 11. DEFENDING CLIENTS IN ATTORNEY GENERAL, DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL SERVICES, AND DISTRICT ATTORNEY INVESTIGATIONS AND ENFORCEMENT ACTIONS

I. INTRODUCTION

- § 11:1 Overview

II. STATE OFFICIALS' INCREASED ENFORCEMENT EFFORTS

- § 11:2 Recent trends and developments in investigations and enforcement actions by state officials
- § 11:3 The Dodd-Frank Act's impact on state regulators and Attorneys General

III. THE NEW YORK ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE

- § 11:4 Introduction
- § 11:5 Organization of the New York Attorney General's Office
- § 11:6 Recent trends in investigations and enforcement actions of the New York Attorney General's Office

IV. SCOPE OF ENFORCEMENT AND INVESTIGATIVE POWERS

- § 11:7 Statutory powers: overview
- § 11:8 The Martin Act
- § 11:9 —History
- § 11:10 —Scope of investigatory powers
- § 11:11 —Elements of a Martin Act violation
- § 11:12 —Civil liability under the Martin Act
- § 11:13 —Criminal liability under the Martin Act
- § 11:14 Taxpayer Protection Bureau
- § 11:15 The False Claims Act
- § 11:16 —Prohibited conduct
- § 11:17 —Elements of a False Claims Act violation
- § 11:18 —Qui Tam suits
- § 11:19 —Scope of civil liability
- § 11:20 —Recent investigations

V. THE DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL SERVICES

- § 11:21 Introduction to the Department of Financial Services
- § 11:22 A new regulator flexes broad powers under state and federal law
- § 11:23 Organization of the Department of Financial Services
- § 11:24 Attorney General vs. Superintendent powers
- § 11:25 Expansion of Superintendent's powers

VI. MANHATTAN DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE

- § 11:26 Organization and jurisdiction of the District Attorney's Office
- § 11:27 Recent trends and prosecutions of the Manhattan District Attorney

VII. CONCLUSION

- § 11:28 In summary

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CHAPTER 12. DEFENDING CLIENTS IN FOREIGN CORRUPT PRACTICES ACT
INVESTIGATIONS

I. WHAT IS THE FCPA AND HOW IS IT ENFORCED?

- § 12:1 Introduction
- § 12:2 History of the FCPA
- § 12:3 Enforcement of the FCPA
- § 12:4 Key Enforcement Trends

II. THE FCPA'S ANTI-BRIBERY PROVISIONS

- § 12:5 Overview
- § 12:6 Who is subject to the anti-bribery provisions?
- § 12:7 Who is a foreign official?
- § 12:8 What is Corruptly?
- § 12:9 Obtaining, retaining or directing business or improper advantages
- § 12:10 Defenses under the anti-bribery provisions—
Facilitating, expediting, or grease payments
- § 12:11 —Affirmative defenses—Legality under local law
- § 12:12 — —Reasonable and bona fide expenditures

III. THE FCPA'S BOOKS AND RECORDS AND INTERNAL CONTROLS PROVISIONS

- § 12:13 Overview
- § 12:14 Requirements of the books and records and internal controls provisions
- § 12:15 Liability under the books and records and internal
controls provisions

IV. INHERITED LIABILITY IN THE MERGERS AND ACQUISITIONS CONTEXT

- § 12:16 Overview

V. FINES, SANCTIONS AND PENALTIES

- § 12:17 Overview
- § 12:18 Collateral effects of FCPA violations
- § 12:19 Individual liability includes threat of significant prison terms

VI. COMPLIANCE PROGRAMS

- § 12:20 Best Practices

§ 12:21 Enforcement Trends and Guidance

CHAPTER 13. DEFENDING CLIENTS IN AML INVESTIGATIONS

- § 13:1 Introduction
- § 13:2 The Bank Secrecy Act
- § 13:3 —Updates to BSA/AML legal framework between the 1970s and 2000s
- § 13:4 2001 Patriot Act
- § 13:5 Interim AML rules
- § 13:6 Anti-Money Laundering Act of 2020
- § 13:7 Agencies with jurisdiction
- § 13:8 —The Department of Justice and U.S. Attorneys' Offices
- § 13:9 —Other federal agencies
- § 13:10 —Federal banking regulators
- § 13:11 —State agencies
- § 13:12 Common enforcement actions
- § 13:13 New anti-money laundering crimes under the AMLA
- § 13:14 Recent enforcement trends
- § 13:15 Expanded extraterritorial jurisdiction
- § 13:16 Developing and administering an adequate compliance program
- § 13:17 AML compliance program requirements
- § 13:18 AML whistleblower program
- § 13:19 Suspicious activity monitoring and reporting
- § 13:20 Failure to identify suspicious activity or file SARs
- § 13:21 Board of directors AML oversight
- § 13:22 Identifying and responding to red flags
- § 13:23 Bank examinations
- § 13:24 Approaching a law enforcement or regulatory inquiry
- § 13:25 —Voluntary document requests
- § 13:26 —Subpoenas
- § 13:27 —Information collection
- § 13:28 —Internal investigations
- § 13:29 —Dealing with multiple agencies
- § 13:30 —Confidential supervisory information
- § 13:31 Enforcement outcomes
- § 13:32 —Criminal penalties
- § 13:33 —Civil penalties
- § 13:34 —Deferred prosecution and nonprosecution agreements
- § 13:35 —Cease and desist orders
- § 13:36 —Independent monitors
- § 13:37 —Remediation
- § 13:38 Trends in enforcement outcomes

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CHAPTER 14. DEFENDING CLIENTS IN ANTITRUST CRIMINAL INVESTIGATIONS

I. INTRODUCTION

§ 14:1 Overview

II. SOURCES OF POTENTIAL EXPOSURE

- § 14:2 Statutory basis
- § 14:3 —Elements of a criminal antitrust offense
- § 14:4 —Statute of limitations
- § 14:5 —Penalties
- § 14:6 Increasing fines and prison sentences
- § 14:7 —Steady trend toward higher corporate fines
- § 14:8 —The Antitrust Division's emphasis on prison sentences
- § 14:9 —More frequent and longer jail sentences
- § 14:10 —Foreign nationals facing jail sentences
- § 14:11 —More frequent prosecution of individuals who do not plead guilty
- § 14:12 International cartels
- § 14:13 —International cooperation and multijurisdictional investigations
- § 14:14 —U.S. enforcement targeting international cartels

III. INITIAL RESPONSE TO POTENTIAL CRIMINAL ANTITRUST EXPOSURE

- § 14:15 Discovery of potential exposure
- § 14:16 Initial investigation

IV. THE ANTITRUST DIVISION'S AMNESTY PROGRAM

- § 14:17 Overview
- § 14:18 The Corporate Amnesty Program
- § 14:19 The Individual Amnesty Program
- § 14:20 Application of the Amnesty Program—Applying for a marker
- § 14:21 —Marker redemption
- § 14:22 —Revocation of conditional amnesty
- § 14:23 —Cooperation

V. MAKING THE CHOICE: DECIDING WHETHER TO SEEK AMNESTY

- § 14:24 Introduction

- § 14:25 Conduct the analysis promptly
- § 14:26 Account for the possible need to make parallel applications in other jurisdictions
- § 14:27 Anticipate the impacts of Amnesty Plus, Penalty Plus and the omnibus question
- § 14:28 Account for likely future civil litigation
- § 14:29 Account for other government enforcement exposure related to the same conduct

VI. RESPONDING TO GRAND JURY INVESTIGATIONS WHEN AMNESTY IS NOT AVAILABLE

- § 14:30 Introduction
- § 14:31 Benefits of cooperation
- § 14:32 Risks of cooperation
- § 14:33 Corporate plea agreements and individual “carve-outs”
- § 14:34 Deferred Prosecution Agreements & Compliance Program Credit

VII. CONCLUSION

- § 14:35 In summary

CHAPTER 15. DEFENDING CLIENTS IN INSIDER TRADING INVESTIGATIONS AND ENFORCEMENT ACTIONS

I. WHAT IS INSIDER TRADING?

- § 15:1 Introduction

II. THE LAW OF INSIDER TRADING

- § 15:2 Overview
- § 15:3 Statutory and regulatory sources of insider trading law—Securities & Exchange Act of 1934
- § 15:4 —Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002
- § 15:5 —The mail and wire fraud statutes
- § 15:6 —Regulation FD (Fair Disclosure)
- § 15:7 Theoretical underpinnings of insider trading law
- § 15:8 —The classical theory of insider trading
- § 15:9 —The misappropriation theory of insider trading
- § 15:10 —Tipper/Tippee liability
- § 15:11 A practical approach to the law of insider trading
- § 15:12 —Existence and breach of a duty of trust and confidence

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 15:13 —Nonpublic nature of information
- § 15:14 —Materiality
- § 15:15 —Scienter
- § 15:16 —Use or possession of information in connection with purchase or sale of securities
- § 15:17 A practical approach to the law of insider trading—
Common defenses

III. ENFORCEMENT OF INSIDER TRADING LAWS

- § 15:18 Who enforces the prohibitions against insider trading?
- § 15:19 How do insider trading investigations and criminal and regulatory enforcement actions begin?
- § 15:20 Timeline and phases of an investigation
- § 15:21 How links are established between traders and insiders
- § 15:22 —Telephone and electronic communications
- § 15:23 —Financial transactions
- § 15:24 —Cooperating witnesses
- § 15:25 How to respond to an investigation—Entities
- § 15:26 —Individuals
- § 15:27 Trends in enforcement of insider trading cases

IV. FINES, SANCTIONS, AND PENALTIES

- § 15:28 Overview
- § 15:29 Imprisonment
- § 15:30 Criminal forfeiture and disgorgement in civil cases
- § 15:31 Fines
- § 15:32 Disbarment or loss of office
- § 15:33 Trends in imposition of fines, sanctions, and penalties

V. MINIMIZING THE LIKELIHOOD OF AN INSIDER TRADING INVESTIGATION OR ENFORCEMENT ACTION

- § 15:34 Overview
- § 15:35 Basic preventive measures
- § 15:36 —Compliance professionals & culture
- § 15:37 —Education
- § 15:38 —Monitoring systems and restricted lists
- § 15:39 —Routine testing of compliance systems
- § 15:40 Expert network firms
- § 15:41 Conclusion

CHAPTER 16. DEFENDING CLIENTS IN PARALLEL CRIMINAL AND CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

I. INTRODUCTION

§ 16:1 Overview

II. INCREASE IN PARALLEL INVESTIGATIONS AND CHARGING

§ 16:2 Corporate Fraud Task Force

§ 16:3 SEC and DOJ working together

§ 16:4 Internal Revenue Service's criminal and civil arms investigating together

III. LEVEL OF COORDINATION BETWEEN THE SEC AND DOJ

§ 16:5 Background legal principles

§ 16:6 Prohibitions

§ 16:7 Additional facts for consideration

§ 16:8 —Degree of direction/control by DOJ over civil case

§ 16:9 —Affirmative misrepresentations versus nondisclosure

§ 16:10 —Deviation from normal civil process, length of deposition/interviews

IV. FIFTH AMENDMENT ISSUES ARISING IN PARALLEL PROCEEDINGS

§ 16:11 Overview

§ 16:12 Assertion of the privilege in a later proceeding after waiver in an earlier proceeding

§ 16:13 The impact on the company of employee assertions of the privilege

§ 16:14 The Government's duty to provide Miranda warnings in the course of administrative questioning

V. OBTAINING A STAY OF THE CIVIL OR ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

§ 16:15 Overview

§ 16:16 Whether to seek a stay

§ 16:17 How to obtain a stay

§ 16:18 The main factors in deciding whether a stay will be granted

TABLE OF CONTENTS

VI. LIMITATIONS ON THE USE OF GRAND JURY MATERIALS

- § 16:19 The rule of grand jury secrecy
- § 16:20 Exceptions to the rule of grand jury secrecy—For use in performing an attorney’s duty
- § 16:21 Exceptions to the rule of grand jury secrecy—Whether the materials are matters occurring before the grand jury
- § 16:22 —Whether the materials sought are preliminary to, or in connection with, a judicial proceeding
- § 16:23 —Whether the parties seeking the materials have demonstrated a particularized need

VII. GAINING ACCESS TO MATERIALS DEVELOPED THROUGH THE ADMINISTRATIVE INVESTIGATION OR NON-GRAND JURY MATERIALS DEVELOPED IN THE CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION

- § 16:24 FOIA
- § 16:25 —Materials governed by the Act
- § 16:26 —How to make the FOIA request
- § 16:27 Civil process

VIII. PROPOSED RESOLUTIONS

- § 16:28 Joint resolutions of civil and criminal matters
- § 16:29 Use of criminal order of restitution to satisfy civil liability

IX. IMPACT OF PARALLEL INVESTIGATION ON INTERNAL INVESTIGATION

- § 16:30 Procedure and protocol: Discoverability of internal investigation materials
- § 16:31 —Document collection by government agency
- § 16:32 —Document collection by a private plaintiff
- § 16:33 —Witness interviews
- § 16:34 —Conclusions and remedial actions
- § 16:35 Cooperation—Timing
- § 16:36 —Individual employees

X. CONCLUSION

- § 16:37 In summary

CHAPTER 17. DEFENDING CLIENTS IN FORFEITURE ACTIONS

I. INTRODUCTION

- § 17:1 Overview
- § 17:2 Types of forfeiture proceedings
- § 17:3 Governing statutes
- § 17:4 Theories of asset forfeiture

II. ADMINISTRATIVE FORFEITURE

- § 17:5 Administrative Forfeiture—Overview

III. CIVIL ASSET FORFEITURE

- § 17:6 Civil asset forfeiture—Overview
- § 17:7 —Seizure and complaint
- § 17:8 —Restraining order and hearing
- § 17:9 —Fugitive Disentitlement
- § 17:10 —Trial

IV. CRIMINAL ASSET FORFEITURE

- § 17:11 Criminal asset forfeiture—Overview
- § 17:12 —Initiation and restraint
- § 17:13 —Trial
- § 17:14 —Orders of asset forfeiture
- § 17:15 —Ancillary hearings
- § 17:16 —Receivership
- § 17:17 —Substitute assets
- § 17:18 —Mortgage fraud
- § 17:19 —Paycheck Protection Program fraud
- § 17:20 —Compensating victims of fraud
- § 17:21 Criminal and Civil asset forfeiture—Compensating Whistleblowers
- § 17:22 Criminal asset forfeiture—Terrorism and International Criminal Networks—Forfeitures around the globe

V. DEFENSES TO CIVIL AND CRIMINAL ASSET FORFEITURE

- § 17:23 Overview
- § 17:24 Constitutional violations
- § 17:25 Constitutional violations Eighth Amendment excessive fines clause
- § 17:26 Constitutional violations—Fifth Amendment double jeopardy clause

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 17:27 —Due process
- § 17:28 — —Delayed hearing
- § 17:29 — —Lack of notice
- § 17:30 Innocent owner defense
- § 17:31 —Owner of property when illegal activity occurred
- § 17:32 —Purchased property after illegal activity occurred
- § 17:33 Insufficient nexus defense
- § 17:34 Legitimate source defense

VI. SEC AND CFTC AUTHORITY TO RESTRAIN ASSETS

- § 17:35 Government requests for TROs and preliminary injunctions—Basis for government authority to seek injunctive relief
- § 17:36 —Standards applicable to SEC and CFTC requests for injunctive relief
- § 17:37 Asset freeze
- § 17:38 No future misconduct as defense to TRO

VII. CONCLUSION

- § 17:39 In summary

CHAPTER 18. RESPONDING TO SUBPOENAS AND OTHER REGULATORY REQUESTS

I. TYPES OF SUBPOENAS AND SUMMONSES

- § 18:1 Introduction
- § 18:2 Grand jury subpoenas
- § 18:3 —Subpoena ad testificandum
- § 18:4 —Subpoena duces tecum
- § 18:5 Subpoenas seeking electronically stored communications
- § 18:6 Grand jury subpoenas—Forthwith subpoenas
- § 18:7 Administrative demands
- § 18:8 —SEC and CFTC subpoenas
- § 18:9 —IRS summonses

II. LITIGATION HOLDS

- § 18:10 The duty to implement a litigation hold
- § 18:11 Formulating and documenting the litigation hold
- § 18:12 Contents of the litigation hold memorandum
- § 18:13 Distribution of the litigation hold memorandum
- § 18:14 Ensuring compliance with the litigation hold

III. DOCUMENT COLLECTION

- § 18:15 Assembling a response team
- § 18:16 —Response team membership
- § 18:17 —Tasks and responsibilities of the response team
- § 18:18 Developing a data collection plan
- § 18:19 —What issues are relevant to the government’s document request?
- § 18:20 —Who are the key players and what is the relevant time frame?
- § 18:21 —What documents and electronic materials does the company have?
- § 18:22 —Where are the potentially responsive documents located?
- § 18:23 —How will the documents be preserved and collected, and how will compliance impact the company’s resources?
- § 18:24 Negotiating the scope of the subpoena
- § 18:25 —Deadlines and rolling production
- § 18:26 —Meeting with investigators to discuss the scope of the request
- § 18:27 —Predictive coding to relieve burden
- § 18:28 —Documenting any agreement with the government
- § 18:29 Interviewing custodians
- § 18:30 Implementing the document collection plan

IV. DOCUMENT PRODUCTION

- § 18:31 Counsel’s review of documents and privilege issues in cross-border disputes
- § 18:32 Privilege issues—Privilege waiver
- § 18:33 —Privileged materials subpoenaed from a third party
- § 18:34 —Rule 502
- § 18:35 —Privilege log
- § 18:36 Grand jury secrecy
- § 18:37 FOIA requests
- § 18:38 Formatting the production
- § 18:39 Cover letter
- § 18:40 Certifying compliance with a grand jury subpoena
- § 18:41 Accompanying documents and authentication—
Certifying compliance with SEC subpoenas
- § 18:42 Potential for cost-shifting

V. MOTIONS TO QUASH

- § 18:43 Motions to quash grand jury subpoenas
- § 18:44 —Relevancy
- § 18:45 —Particularity
- § 18:46 —Burden

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 18:47 Motions to quash regulatory requests
- § 18:48 Privileges in the grand jury and administrative contexts
- § 18:49 —Fifth Amendment
- § 18:50 —Attorney-client privilege
- § 18:51 —Work-product doctrine
- § 18:52 —Other privileges
- § 18:53 —Other subpoena objections
- § 18:54 Appellate review
- § 18:55 Sanctions for failure to respond or cooperate—Grand jury subpoenas
- § 18:56 —Administrative subpoenas and summonses

VI. CONCLUSION

- § 18:57 In summary
- Appendix 18A. Sample Litigation Hold Memorandum
- Appendix 18B. Outline of a Document Retention Practices Interview
- Appendix 18C. Sample FOIA Request Letter

CHAPTER 19. MANAGING ELECTRONIC INFORMATION DURING GOVERNMENT INVESTIGATIONS

- § 19:1 Introduction
- § 19:2 Selecting a response team
- § 19:3 Preservation issues and strategies
- § 19:4 Collection issues and strategies
- § 19:5 Data review issues and strategies
- § 19:6 —Search terms
- § 19:7 —File extensions and exception-handling
- § 19:8 —De-duplication, near duplicates and e-mail threads
- § 19:9 —Technology-Assisted Review
- § 19:10 —Complex data sources
- § 19:11 — —Enterprise vaults
- § 19:12 — —Enterprise databases
- § 19:13 — —Smartphones and other mobile devices
- § 19:14 — —Back-up tapes, disks and drives
- § 19:15 — —Cloud storage
- § 19:16 Production issues
- § 19:17 Conclusion

CHAPTER 20. HANDLING THE MEDIA DURING GOVERNMENT INVESTIGATIONS

- § 20:1 Introduction

- § 20:2 Dealing with the media
- § 20:3 Media strategies
- § 20:4 —Offensive strategy
- § 20:5 —Defensive strategy
- § 20:6 The risks of making public statements during an investigation
- § 20:7 —Potential admissions of a party opponent
- § 20:8 —Potential waiver of client protections
- § 20:9 —Potential waiver of attorney-client privilege
- § 20:10 —Potential waiver of work product protection
- § 20:11 The role of media consultants
- § 20:12 —Attorney-client privilege issues
- § 20:13 —Work product protection issues
- § 20:14 —Practical considerations for retaining and dealing with media consultants
- § 20:15 Social media
- § 20:16 Conclusion

CHAPTER 21. REPRESENTING CLIENTS IN CYBERCRIME AND CRYPTOCURRENCY INVESTIGATIONS

I. INTRODUCTION

- § 21:1 What is Cybercrime?
- § 21:2 Three Categories of Cybercrime
- § 21:3 Overview of Statutes

II. RESPONDING TO CYBER BREACHES AND INCIDENTS

- § 21:4 Advising Cybercrime Victims
- § 21:5 Preventing and Mitigating the Effects of a Potential Breach
- § 21:6 Responding to a Criminal Cyber Incident
- § 21:7 Security Breaches Involving Personal Information
- § 21:8 Investigation into Potential Security Breaches
- § 21:9 Ransomware
- § 21:10 OFAC and Ransomware

III. LEGAL ISSUES AND DEVELOPMENTS IN CYBERCRIME

- § 21:11 Advising Targets or Subjects of Cybercrime Investigations
- § 21:12 The Current Landscape
- § 21:13 Department of Justice Procedures and Policy

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 21:14 Computer Fraud and Abuse Act (CFAA)—18 U.S.C. § 1030
- § 21:15 CFAA—Prohibited Conduct
- § 21:16 CFAA—Common Issues in CFAA Investigations and Prosecutions
- § 21:17 The Wiretap Statute—18 U.S.C. § 2511
- § 21:18 Stored Communications Act—18 U.S.C. § 2701

IV. CRYPTOCURRENCY AND CYBERCRIME

- § 21:19 Introduction
- § 21:20 Bank Secrecy Act/Anti-Money Laundering
- § 21:21 Regulation of Cryptocurrency Sales and Trading
- § 21:22 Conclusion

Table of Laws and Rules

Table of Cases

Index