

Summary of Contents

PART 1. RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

Chapter 1. New Trends and Developments

PART 2. REGULATORY TAKINGS

Chapter 2. The Takings Blunderbuss: From Pennsylvania Coal to Dobbs

Chapter 3. A Taking is a Taking is a Taking . . . and Juries Know One When They See It

Chapter 4. Exacting Assessments: Sheetz and the Problem of Stategraft

Chapter 5. Cedar Point Nursery v. Hassid and Customary Use: Protecting the Public's Right to Recreate on Dry Sand Beaches

Chapter 6. A Taking By Another Name: Challenging Historic Preservation After Cedar Point

PART 3. HOUSING

Chapter 7. Reflections on Arlington Heights: Fifty Years of Exclusionary Zoning Litigation and Beyond

Chapter 8. Litigation Landmies: Exclusionary Zoning and Sober Living Homes

Chapter 9. The Evolution of Inclusion: The Mount Laurel Doctrine at Fifty

Chapter 10. Agencies "Shall Cooperate": A blueprint for Affirmatively Furthering Fair Housing

Chapter 11. Missing Middle Housing: Accelerating America's Transition from Single-Family Zoning

PART 4. HOT TOPICS

- Chapter 12. “Zoning” Matters: Rluipa and The New Normal of Religious Discrimination
- Chapter 13. Cutting Zoning Down to Size: Reevaluating the Legal Vulnerability of Urban Minimum Lot Sizes
- Chapter 14. Climate Zoning
- Chapter 15. Growing Up in the Big Cities: Planning for the Future of Urban Agriculture
- Chapter 16. Reinventing the Wheel by Taking it Away: How Autonomous Vehicles Will Shape Land Use Law
- Chapter 17. Preserving Sacred Sites and Property Law
- Chapter 18. Constitutional Perspectives on Historic Preservation Law: Mediating the Balance Between Private Owners and Their Historic Properties
- Chapter 19. Public Space or Private Profit? ‘Streateries’ and the Need to Reclaim the Public Realm in the Post-Pandemic City
- Chapter 20. Sidewalk Government

Appendix

- Appendix A. Select Bibliography