HIGHLIGHTS OF THE 2025 EDITION

For greater ease-of-use and more efficient updating, Trial Handbook for New Mexico Lawyers has been reformatted from a hardbound volume with A cumulative supplement to an annually-replaced softbound volume.

The 2025 Edition includes the fully updated and revised text of the original hardbound volume, the 2024 cumulative supplement, and recent developments affecting trial practice in New Mexico, including new material on challenges for cause, credibility of witnesses, and motions to suppress evidence.

About the Author

J. Duke Thornton practiced in the areas of general liability litigation, professional liability and trucking and transportation. He graduated from the University of New Mexico School of Law with a J.D. in 1969. He was admitted to practice in New Mexico and New York and is a former member of the State Bar of New Mexico American Bar Association, the Defense Research and Trial Lawyers Association, the International Association of Insurance Counsel, the Association for Transportation Law, Logistics and Policy, and the American Board of Trial Advocates, as well as a former associate member of the American Board of Trial Advocates. In 1987, he was appointed by the Governor as the public member of the N.M. Board of Dentistry. In 1988, he was appointed by the Governor to the New Mexico State Racing Commission. He also served as Chairman of the American Law Firm Association Transportation from 1999 to 2000. He is a former NCAA authorized player-agent and a former member of the National Football League Players Association. He has a passion for flying and is a licensed commercial pilot. He also trained as a commercial motor vehicle operator.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The Author would like to acknowledge the excellent work of Nicholas Chiado, Esq. of Butt, Thornton and Beahr for his unwavering dedication to the tedious work of updating the Trial Handbook for New Mexico Lawyers.
