

INTRODUCTION TO 2025 EDITION

This 2025 Edition of Georgia Probate and Administration is an up-to-date resource on the typically and frequently occurring probate issues in the state. This content provides attorneys with solutions to everyday problems in the area and offers a “how to” guide to probate and administration in Georgia. New material has been added this year and/or existing material updated on the following subjects, among others:

- Technology fee
 - Notices to beneficiaries
 - Execution in physical presence of testator
 - Joint accounts
 - Deceased heirs
 - Annual statement of receipts and disbursements
 - Written statement or list disposing of personal property
 - Children born out of wedlock
 - Parties in interest
 - Child support obligees
-

This 2025 Edition replaces the 2024 Edition, which now may be recycled or discarded.