

What's New in the 2025 Edition

- Expanded discussion of “targeted dumping” and recent decisions undercutting the Commerce Department’s statistical analysis thereof;
- Updated discussion of standing and what level of administrative participation is required to be a “party to the proceeding” with a right to appeal; and
- Updated subsidy information from the U.S. Department of Commerce and the Office of the United States Trade Representative.