

Table of Contents

CHAPTER 1. AN OVERVIEW OF ERISA

§ 1:1	Introduction
§ 1:2	Key ERISA concepts—ERISA’s four titles
§ 1:3	—Purpose of ERISA and definitions of key terms
§ 1:4	—Types of deferred compensation plans—Defined benefit plans
§ 1:5	— —Defined contribution plans
§ 1:6	— —Employee stock ownership plans
§ 1:7	— —Multiple employer and multiemployer plans
§ 1:8	— —Nonqualified plans
§ 1:9	— —Insured plans
§ 1:10	— —Individual retirement accounts
§ 1:11	— —Simplified employee pension plans
§ 1:12	— —SIMPLE plans
§ 1:13	— —Cash balance plans
§ 1:14	—The 2002 Act
§ 1:15	—Pension Protection Act of 2006
§ 1:16	Plan design issues—Deferred compensation plans—Tax qualification issues
§ 1:17	— —Service
§ 1:18	— —Vesting and benefit accruals
§ 1:19	— —Limitations on benefits and contributions
§ 1:20	— —Minimum funding standards (defined benefit plans only)
§ 1:21	— —Correcting plan defects
§ 1:22	—Welfare benefit plans—Types
§ 1:23	— —Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act
§ 1:24	— —Retiree medical benefits
§ 1:25	Plan administration—Reporting and disclosure requirements
§ 1:26	— —Reporting obligations
§ 1:27	— —Disclosure obligations—Practical considerations
§ 1:28	— — —Specific documents
§ 1:29	— —Records retention
§ 1:30	—Distributions
§ 1:31	—Contributions
§ 1:32	—Plan assets
§ 1:33	—Antialienation
§ 1:34	— —Rights to joint and survivor annuities
§ 1:35	— —Qualified domestic relations orders

- § 1:36 — —Qualified medical child support orders
- § 1:37 Fiduciaries—Primary parties
- § 1:38 —Duties
- § 1:39 —Prohibited transactions
- § 1:40 —Co-fiduciaries and nonfiduciaries
- § 1:41 —Section 404(c) protection
- § 1:42 —Social investing
- § 1:43 —Proxy voting
- § 1:44 Preemption
- § 1:45 Enforcement
- § 1:46 —Government agencies
- § 1:47 —Civil enforcement
- § 1:48 —Criminal enforcement
- § 1:49 Jurisdictional issues under ERISA—Parties to ERISA lawsuits
- § 1:50 —Standards of review
- § 1:51 —Remedies
- § 1:52 Specific ERISA litigation issues—Interference with ERISA rights
- § 1:53 —Welfare plan litigation
- § 1:54 —Severance benefits
- § 1:55 —Window programs
- § 1:56 —Retiree welfare benefits
- § 1:57 Plan terminations
- § 1:58 Withdrawal liability
- § 1:59 Corporate transactions
- § 1:60 Conclusion

Appendix 1-A. FAQs about Retirement Plans and ERISA
(U.S. Department of Labor and Employee Benefits Security Administration)

Appendix 1-B. MEWAs Multiple Employer Welfare Arrangements
under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act—A Guide to Federal and State Regulation (U.S.
Department of Labor and Employee Benefits
Security Administration—April 2022)

CHAPTER 2. DEFINING AN EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLAN UNDER ERISA

- § 2:1 Introduction
- § 2:2 Statutory background—Reasons behind the enactment of ERISA
- § 2:3 —Statutory definitions of an employee benefit plan
- § 2:4 Employee benefit plans as defined by the courts—
Overview: The Dillingham analysis
- § 2:5 —“Plan, Fund, or Program”: The Fort Halifax decision
- § 2:6 —Definition of “employee” under case law

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 2:7	— —Independent contractors
§ 2:8	— —Leased employees
§ 2:9	— —Sole owner-employees
§ 2:10	—Provided by an employer or employee organization
§ 2:11	Types of arrangements claimed to be employee benefit plans—Employment contracts
§ 2:12	—Severance pay programs
§ 2:13	—Early retirement programs
§ 2:14	—Health insurance and disability cases
§ 2:15	—Other types of “plans, funds, and programs”
§ 2:16	—Miscellaneous intriguing results
§ 2:17	Church plans
§ 2:18	Conclusion

Appendix 2-A. An Employer’s Guide to Health and Disability Benefit Claims (U.S. Department of Labor and Employee Benefits Security Administration—September 2018)

CHAPTER 3. CORPORATE COUNSEL’S GUIDE TO ERISA’S REPORTING AND DISCLOSURE OBLIGATIONS

§ 3:1	Introduction
§ 3:2	Reporting and disclosure obligations to government agencies
§ 3:3	—Initial filings
§ 3:4	—Periodic or ongoing filings
§ 3:5	—Special events reporting
§ 3:6	—Civil and criminal penalties for governmental obligations
§ 3:7	Reporting and disclosure obligations to participants and beneficiaries
§ 3:8	—Summary plan descriptions
§ 3:9	—Other information subject to disclosure
§ 3:10	—Civil and criminal penalties for participant and beneficiary obligations
§ 3:11	—Privacy rules
§ 3:12	Case law regarding participant disclosure
§ 3:13	—Who is a participant under § 104(b)(4)?
§ 3:14	—What information must be provided under § 104(b)(4)?
§ 3:15	—Awarding statutory penalties under § 502
§ 3:16	—Other relief available under § 502
§ 3:17	Conclusion

Appendix 3-A. Reporting and Disclosure Guide for Employee Benefit Plans (U.S. Department of Labor and Employee Benefits Security Administration—December 2022)

Appendix 3-B. Fact Sheet—Voluntary Fiduciary Correction Program
(U.S. Department of Labor and Employee Benefits Security Administration—January 2025)

CHAPTER 4. SUMMARY PLAN DESCRIPTIONS

- § 4:1 Introduction
- § 4:2 Basic SPD requirements
- § 4:3 SPD checklist
- § 4:4 Relevant case law
- § 4:5 —Compliance with ERISA—Is the document an SPD?
- § 4:6 —Which party is the plan administrator?
- § 4:7 —Is the language in the SPD adequate?
- § 4:8 —Are the plan amendment procedures adequate?
- § 4:9 —Distributions of SPDs to employees—What are the effects of technical noncompliance?
- § 4:10 —What result if the plaintiff relied upon procedural defects?
- § 4:11 —Disclaimers in SPDs
- § 4:12 —Conflicting interpretations between SPDs and plan documents
- § 4:13 —Cases involving conflicts between plan documents
- § 4:14 —Oral modification cases
- § 4:15 Conclusion

CHAPTER 5. FIDUCIARY LAW UNDER ERISA

- § 5:1 Introduction
- § 5:2 Judicial construction of the statutory language—
General fiduciary duties under ERISA § 404—
Exclusive purpose
- § 5:3 —Prudence
- § 5:4 —Diversification
- § 5:5 —Acting in accordance with the plan documents
- § 5:6 —Judicial determinations of fiduciary status
- § 5:7 The functional approach to fiduciary status—Business decisions and other settlor functions
- § 5:8 —Discretionary authority or control
- § 5:9 —Definition of “function”
- § 5:10 —Plan administration
- § 5:11 —Asset management
- § 5:12 —Investment advice
- § 5:13 —Pension Protection Act of 2006 and qualified default investment alternative

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 5:14	—Other fiduciary duty cases—Purchasing annuities or other investments
§ 5:15	— — —Regulations for selection of annuity providers
§ 5:16	— — —Corporate transactions
§ 5:17	— — —Suspensions of criminal conduct
§ 5:18	Logistical and procedural plan issues
§ 5:19	—Formalities of naming fiduciaries
§ 5:20	—Bonding requirements of fiduciaries
§ 5:21	—Termination of fiduciary status
§ 5:22	—Individuals’ causes of action
§ 5:23	— — —Arbitration
§ 5:24	— — —Class action
§ 5:25	—Piercing the corporate veil
§ 5:26	—Requests for documentation
§ 5:27	—Health care providers
§ 5:28	Prohibited transactions under ERISA
§ 5:29	Liability for breaches of fiduciary duty
Appendix 5-A.	Understanding Your Fiduciary Responsibilities under a Group Health Plan (U.S. Department of Labor and Employee Benefits Security Administration—September 2023)

CHAPTER 6. SECURITIES LAW ISSUES RELATING TO EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLANS

§ 6:1	Introduction
§ 6:2	Registration obligations under the Securities Act
§ 6:3	—General definition of “security” and “sale of security”—What is a security?
§ 6:4	— — —Sale of security—Initial sale
§ 6:5	— — —Resale of securities
§ 6:6	—Registration issues pertaining to various types of plans—Qualified pension and profit-sharing plans not primarily invested in company stock
§ 6:7	— — —Is there a security?
§ 6:8	— — —Exemption from registration
§ 6:9	— — —Nonqualified deferred compensation plans—Is registration required?
§ 6:10	— — —Exemptions
§ 6:11	— — —Section 403(b) plans
§ 6:12	— — —Stock-related plans
§ 6:13	— — —ESOPs
§ 6:14	— — —Stock option plans
§ 6:15	— — —Stock purchase plans
§ 6:16	— — —Stock bonus plans
§ 6:17	—Plan transactions
§ 6:18	— — —Employer securities purchased and sold by plan

- § 6:19 — — Purchases and sales of nonemployer securities and interests in investment vehicles
- § 6:20 — — Conversion of plans
- § 6:21 — — Registration—General considerations
- § 6:22 — — Resales by affiliated employees
- § 6:23 — — Transferable options and consultants or advisers
- § 6:24 — — Successor corporations
- § 6:25 Registration and reporting obligations under the Exchange Act
- § 6:26 — — Registration under §§ 12 and 15(d)—Section 12
- § 6:27 — — Section 15(d)
- § 6:28 — — Periodic reporting obligations
- § 6:29 — — Acquisition reports
- § 6:30 — — Proxy statements and annual reports
- § 6:31 — — Short-swing profit liability and insider reports under § 16
- § 6:32 — — Short-swing profit recovery
- § 6:33 — — — Nondiscretionary tax-conditioned plans
- § 6:34 — — — Discretionary transactions
- § 6:35 — — — Grants, awards, and other acquisitions from an issuer
- § 6:36 — — — Dispositions to the issuer
- § 6:37 — — Insider reports
- § 6:38 Antifraud rules
- § 6:39 — Securities Act
- § 6:40 — Exchange Act
- § 6:41 Publicly traded employer securities—Diversification requirements
- § 6:42 Compliance with the Investment Company Act of 1940
- § 6:43 Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002
- § 6:44 State blue sky laws
- § 6:45 Conclusion

CHAPTER 7. EMPLOYEE BENEFIT ASPECTS OF THE SARBANES-OXLEY ACT OF 2002

- § 7:1 History
- § 7:2 Blackout rules—Background
- § 7:3 — — Blackout disclosure requirements—General
- § 7:4 — — Notice timing requirements
- § 7:5 — — Notice content requirements
- § 7:6 — — Change in length of blackout period
- § 7:7 — — Method of delivery
- § 7:8 — — Penalties
- § 7:9 — — General observations
- § 7:10 — — Prohibited trading transactions—General

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 7:11	— —Persons covered by § 306(a) and Regulation BTR—Issuers
§ 7:12	— — —Individuals
§ 7:13	— — —Termination of status
§ 7:14	— —Blackout periods under § 306(a) and Regulation BTR—Blackout periods
§ 7:15	— — —Individual account plans
§ 7:16	— — —Calculation of 50 percent threshold
§ 7:17	— — —Exclusions from blackout periods
§ 7:18	— —Covered securities and prohibited transactions— Covered equity securities
§ 7:19	— — —Transactions subject to trading prohibition
§ 7:20	— — —Acquired in connection with service as director or executive officer
§ 7:21	— — —Service or employment presumption
§ 7:22	— —Exempt transactions
§ 7:23	— —Remedies—SEC enforcement
§ 7:24	— — —Private actions by issuer or security holders
§ 7:25	— — —Computation of realized profits
§ 7:26	— —Required notices
§ 7:27	Prohibition of insider loans—Background
§ 7:28	—Split-dollar life insurance arrangements
§ 7:29	—Cashless exercise programs for stock options
§ 7:30	—Personal use of company credit cards and travel and similar advances
§ 7:31	Accelerated SEC filings for insiders
§ 7:32	Professional responsibility imposed on the benefits attorney under the Act—Background
§ 7:33	—Attorneys appearing and practicing before the SEC
§ 7:34	—Application to the ERISA practice
§ 7:35	Consequences of potential wrongdoing
§ 7:36	SEC temporary freeze authority for extraordinary payments
§ 7:37	Increased ERISA penalties
Appendix 7-A. Model Regulatory Blackout Period Notice

CHAPTER 8. WELFARE BENEFIT PLAN LITIGATION

§ 8:1	Introduction
§ 8:2	Procedural issues—Jurisdiction
§ 8:3	—Standards of review
§ 8:4	Problem areas in welfare benefit plan litigation— Payment and preemption issues
§ 8:5	— —COB cases
§ 8:6	— —Assignment and reimbursement cases
§ 8:7	— —Subrogation cases

- § 8:8 — —Preemption
- § 8:9 —Miscommunication of plan benefits
- § 8:10 —Oral and informal statements
- § 8:11 —Continuation health benefits
- § 8:12 —Disability benefits
- § 8:13 —Mental health parity
- § 8:14 —Retiree medical benefits
- § 8:15 —Death benefits
- § 8:16 —Conversion of insurance policies
- § 8:17 Remedies

Appendix 8-A. No Surprises Act Fact Sheet

CHAPTER 9. PAYMENT FOR EXPERIMENTAL TREATMENTS

- § 9:1 Introduction
- § 9:2 Standards of review
- § 9:3 Case illustrations—Experimental treatments are covered
- § 9:4 —Experimental treatments are not covered
- § 9:5 Conclusion

CHAPTER 10. EXHAUSTION OF INTERNAL REMEDIES

- § 10:1 Introduction
- § 10:2 Claims procedures
- § 10:3 Scope of the exhaustion doctrine
- § 10:4 Exhaustion doctrine in ERISA § 510 cases
- § 10:5 —Exhaustion is not required in § 510 cases
- § 10:6 —Exhaustion is required in § 510 cases
- § 10:7 —The claimant may be irreparably harmed
- § 10:8 —The claimant had no meaningful access to the internal procedures
- § 10:9 Exceptions to the exhaustion doctrine—When exhausting internal remedies would be futile
- § 10:10 External arbitration procedures
- § 10:11 Statute of limitations issues

CHAPTER 11. EXTRACTIONAL DAMAGES UNDER ERISA

- § 11:1 Introduction
- § 11:2 The statutory provisions
- § 11:3 Court decisions—Supreme Court case law
- § 11:4 —Circuit court case law
- § 11:5 — —First circuit
- § 11:6 — —Second circuit

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 11:7	— —Third circuit
§ 11:8	— —Fourth circuit
§ 11:9	— —Fifth circuit
§ 11:10	— —Sixth circuit
§ 11:11	— —Seventh circuit
§ 11:12	— —Eighth circuit
§ 11:13	— —Ninth circuit
§ 11:14	— —Tenth circuit
§ 11:15	— —Eleventh circuit
§ 11:16	—District court case law
§ 11:17	Conclusion

CHAPTER 12. ERISA PREEMPTION

§ 12:1	Introduction
§ 12:2	Overview of ERISA preemption—Statutory language
§ 12:3	—Evolving scope and recent case law
§ 12:4	—Plans covered by ERISA
§ 12:5	—Negligent denials of benefit claims
§ 12:6	Preemption of workplace tort claims— Ingersoll-Rand and its progeny
§ 12:7	—Malpractice claims
§ 12:8	—Complete preemption
§ 12:9	Claims under employment agreements
§ 12:10	Misrepresentation cases—Pension plans
§ 12:11	—Welfare benefit plans
§ 12:12	— —Terms of coverage
§ 12:13	— —Enrollment
§ 12:14	— —Third-party providers
§ 12:15	— —Inducement
§ 12:16	— —Equitable estoppel claims
§ 12:17	Conversion coverage
§ 12:18	—State conversion rights
§ 12:19	— —Cases finding no preemption
§ 12:20	— —Cases finding preemption
§ 12:21	— —Breach of contract claims
§ 12:22	Application of ERISA preemption to other fact patterns
§ 12:23	—Plan contributions
§ 12:24	—Participation
§ 12:25	—Beneficiary designations
§ 12:26	—Wrongful death
§ 12:27	—Disability
§ 12:28	—Family and medical leaves
§ 12:29	—Women’s rights
§ 12:30	—Privacy
§ 12:31	Apprenticeships

- § 12:32 State law bans on discretionary clauses insurance contracts

CHAPTER 13. ERISA § 510 ISSUES

- § 13:1 Introduction
 § 13:2 Prelitigation issues—Possible damages under § 510
 § 13:3 —Factors of a § 510 claim
 § 13:4 Interference with benefits and rights—Effect on the employment relationship § 13:5 —Parties committing the interference
 § 13:6 —Proof of specific intent
 § 13:7 —Vesting and benefit accrual issues
 § 13:8 Employer retaliation
 § 13:9 Other issues—Exhaustion of administrative remedies
 § 13:10 —Preemption of state law
 § 13:11 —Remedies
 § 13:12 —Right to jury trial
 § 13:13 —Analogous state law claims

CHAPTER 14. SINGLE-EMPLOYER PLAN TERMINATIONS

- § 14:1 Introduction
 § 14:2 Qualification for termination insurance
 § 14:3 —Defined benefit pension plans
 § 14:4 —Applicable employers
 § 14:5 —Tax-qualified plans
 § 14:6 Requirements for a standard termination
 § 14:7 —Compliance with the law
 § 14:8 —Plan amendment procedures
 § 14:9 — —Before Curtiss-Wright Corp. v. Schoonejongen
 § 14:10 — —Supreme Court's decision in Curtiss-Wright Corp. v. Schoonejongen
 § 14:11 — —After Curtiss-Wright Corp. v. Schoonejongen
 § 14:12 Procedures for terminating pension plans
 § 14:13 —Notice of intent to terminate
 § 14:14 —Notice to PBGC
 § 14:15 —Notice of plan benefits
 § 14:16 —Notice of noncompliance
 § 14:17 —Legislation in the 1990s
 § 14:18 Allocation of pension plan assets
 § 14:19 Restoration of pension plans
 § 14:20 Reversion of excess pension plan assets
 § 14:21 Partial termination of pension plans
 § 14:22 —Statutory framework
 § 14:23 —When does a partial termination occur?
 § 14:24 —Background of In re Gulf Pension Litigation

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 14:25 —Vertical partial terminations
- § 14:26 — —Factors used in calculating the number or percentage
- § 14:27 — — —Vested versus nonvested employees
- § 14:28 — — —Transfer to successor employer
- § 14:29 — — —Turnover rate
- § 14:30 — — —Relevant time period
- § 14:31 — —Significant corporate event
- § 14:32 — —Determining whether percentage is “significant”
- § 14:33 —Horizontal partial terminations
- § 14:34 —Remedies for partial terminations

CHAPTER 15. WITHDRAWAL LIABILITY

- § 15:1 Introduction
- § 15:2 Overview of withdrawal liability—Important definitions
- § 15:3 —Brief history of MPPAA
- § 15:4 Complete withdrawal liability
- § 15:5 —Employers and common control groups
- § 15:6 —Obligation to contribute
- § 15:7 —Cessation of all covered operations
- § 15:8 —Effective date of complete withdrawal
- § 15:9 Partial withdrawal liability—Statutory provisions
- § 15:10 —Effective date of partial withdrawal
- § 15:11 Allocation formulas and relief provisions
- § 15:12 —Complete withdrawal liability—Actuarial assumptions and interest rates
- § 15:13 — —Calculation methods
- § 15:14 — — —Presumptive method
- § 15:15 — — —Modified presumptive method
- § 15:16 — — —Rolling-five method
- § 15:17 — — —Direct attribution method and other PBGC-approved methods
- § 15:18 — —Underfunded plans
- § 15:19 — —Calculation methods—Paradox: withdrawal liability under fully funded plans?
- § 15:20 — —Allocation rules
- § 15:21 — — —De minimis rules
- § 15:22 — — —“Free look” rule
- § 15:23 — — —Twenty-year cap
- § 15:24 — — —Sale of assets limitation
- § 15:25 — — —Insolvent employer rules
- § 15:26 — — —Individual employer exemptions
- § 15:27 —Partial withdrawal liability—Calculation methods
- § 15:28 —Relevant case law
- § 15:29 Notice and payment requirements
- § 15:30 Special industry provisions

- § 15:31 —Building and construction industry
- § 15:32 —Entertainment industry
- § 15:33 —Trucking industries
- § 15:34 —Retail food industry
- § 15:35 —Other industries
- § 15:36 Arbitration
- § 15:37 —Procedures
- § 15:38 —Enforcement
- § 15:39 Conclusion

Appendix 15-A. Annual Funding Notice Requirements for Multiemployer Pension Plans that Received
Special Financial Assistance

CHAPTER 16. TOP HAT PLANS

- § 16:1 Introduction
- § 16:2 Advantages and disadvantages of top hat plans—
Advantages
 - § 16:3 — —Annual benefit allocation and accrual limits
 - § 16:4 — —Annual deferral limitations
 - § 16:5 — —Compensation limits
 - § 16:6 — —Minimum coverage and participation standards
 - § 16:7 — —Maximum disparity limits
 - § 16:8 — —Excess or early distribution excise tax
 - § 16:9 — —ERISA requirements
- § 16:10 —Disadvantages—Unfunded benefits
- § 16:11 — —Minimal governmental guidance
- § 16:12 — —Delayed deductions
- § 16:13 — —Risky to set aside funds
- § 16:14 — —Social security effects
- § 16:15 — —Financial accounting standards
- § 16:16 Establishing top hat plans—Complying with ERISA’s definition
 - § 16:17 —What is a select group?
 - § 16:18 —Either/Or?
 - § 16:19 —What is “management” or “highly compensated”?
 - § 16:20 —What does “primarily” mean?
 - § 16:21 —Funded versus unfunded?
- § 16:22 Enforcement of top hat plans—Enforcement under ERISA
 - § 16:23 —Enforcement as unilateral contracts
- § 16:24 Types of informal funding
 - § 16:25 —Employer reserve account
 - § 16:26 —Corporate-owned life insurance
 - § 16:27 —Third-party guaranties and surety bonds
 - § 16:28 —Rabbi trusts
- § 16:29 Conclusion

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CHAPTER 17. EXCESS BENEFIT PLANS

- § 17:1 Introduction
- § 17:2 An excess benefit plan as an ERISA plan
- § 17:3 Advantages and disadvantages of excess benefit plans—Advantages of funded and unfunded plans
- § 17:4 —Advantages of unfunded excess benefit plans
- § 17:5 —Disadvantages of excess benefit plans—Unfunded plans
- § 17:6 — —Funded plans
- § 17:7 — —Other annual limits on qualified plans
- § 17:8 — —Social security effects
- § 17:9 Tax effects: Deduction timing and income recognition
- § 17:10 —The unfunded plan
- § 17:11 —The funded plan
- § 17:12 —Employer deduction must be reasonable and necessary
- § 17:13 —Employee taxation when amounts are distributed
- § 17:14 —Income to the trust
- § 17:15 When is a plan “funded”?
- § 17:16 Types of funding arrangements—Unfunded arrangements
- § 17:17 —Funded arrangements
- § 17:18 Conclusion

CHAPTER 18. ANTIALIENATION PROVISIONS

- § 18:1 Introduction
- § 18:2 The statutory and regulatory provisions
- § 18:3 Case law interpreting the antialienation provisions—Pension versus welfare benefits
- § 18:4 —Involuntary assignments
- § 18:5 —Voluntary assignments
- § 18:6 —Failure to remove as beneficiary
- § 18:7 The major statutory exceptions—Rights to joint and survivor annuities
- § 18:8 —QDROs
- § 18:9 —Tax levies and judgments
- § 18:10 Other exceptions
- § 18:11 Conclusion

CHAPTER 19. EARLY RETIREMENT PROGRAMS

- § 19:1 Introduction
- § 19:2 Overview of early retirement benefits
- § 19:3 Age discrimination issues—Overview and background
- § 19:4 —Summary

- § 19:5 Design issues under the Code
- § 19:6 —Qualification requirements
- § 19:7 — —Coverage rules
- § 19:8 — — —Ratio percentage test
- § 19:9 — — —Average benefit test
- § 19:10 — —Minimum participation rules
- § 19:11 — —Nondiscrimination rules
- § 19:12 — —Anticutback rules
- § 19:13 — —Code § 415 limitations
- § 19:14 —Case law
- § 19:15 Design issues under ERISA
- § 19:16 —Types of nonqualified separation programs
- § 19:17 —Communicating early retirement programs
- § 19:18 —Modifying early retirement programs (especially retiree medical benefits)
- § 19:19 —Preemption
- § 19:20 Miscellaneous legal issues—Accounting standards
- § 19:21 —WARN issues
- § 19:22 —Duty to bargain cases
- § 19:23 —Equitable estoppel

CHAPTER 20. SEVERANCE PAY PLANS

- § 20:1 Introduction
- § 20:2 ERISA and the regulations
- § 20:3 Establishment of a plan—Absence of a written policy
- § 20:4 —Internal policy statements
- § 20:5 —Ongoing administrative scheme
- § 20:6 Termination or amendment of a severance plan before a reduction in force—Fiduciary duty
- § 20:7 —ERISA notification and disclosure issues
- § 20:8 Interpreting plan language
- § 20:9 Conclusion

Appendix 20-A. Sample Severance Pay Policies

CHAPTER 21. THE BENEFIT PROVISIONS OF THE AMERICAN JOBS CREATION ACT

- § 21:1 Introduction
- § 21:2 Deferred compensation
- § 21:3 Plan design and administrative issues
- § 21:4 Enforcement
- § 21:5 Reporting obligations
- § 21:6 Regulatory developments
- § 21:7 Accounting issues
- § 21:8 Executive compensation
- § 21:9 Tax withholding

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CHAPTER 22. CRIMINAL ENFORCEMENT UNDER ERISA

- § 22:1 Introduction
- § 22:2 Crimes arising under Title I of ERISA—Reporting and disclosure violations
- § 22:3 —Coercive interference
- § 22:4 —Prohibition against persons holding certain positions
- § 22:5 Other criminal provisions applicable to ERISA plans—Theft or conversion
- § 22:6 —Criminal prosecution for bribery or graft
- § 22:7 —Concealment or misrepresentation of facts in plan documents
- § 22:8 —Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act violations
- § 22:9 Conclusion

CHAPTER 23. DIRECTOR AND OFFICER ERISA LIABILITY: INDEMNIFICATION AND INSURANCE

- § 23:1 Introduction
- § 23:2 Directors and officers as fiduciaries—Requirements of fiduciary status
- § 23:3 —What are the directors’ and officers’ duties?
- § 23:4 —Illustrative cases on fiduciary status of directors and officers
- § 23:5 — —Chairman of the board and chief operating officer not personally liable because no basis for piercing corporate veil
- § 23:6 — —Corporate directors and officers not personally liable for failing to distribute surplus dividends
- § 23:7 — —Corporate officers are not liable for corporate acts unless they have individual discretionary roles to administer the plan
- § 23:8 — —Mismanagement by individual directors and officers not subject to ERISA liability
- § 23:9 — —Officer was liable for inadequately investigating committee’s decision to abstain from voting plan shares, and for exercising authority and control over the vote
- § 23:10 — —Officer and shareholder was not an ERISA fiduciary; the district court could not pierce the corporate veil
- § 23:11 — —Owners of bankrupt company were not liable
- § 23:12 — —Corporate officer was not liable for delinquent contributions
- § 23:13 — —Personal liability of officers and shareholders for plan contributions is possible under ERISA

- § 23:14 Remedies for breach of duty
- § 23:15 Indemnification agreements
- § 23:16 Director and officer insurance

CHAPTER 24. CORPORATE COUNSEL'S GUIDE TO RECORDS RETENTION UNDER ERISA

- § 24:1 Introduction
- § 24:2 ERISA § 107 requirements—General rules
- § 24:3 —Interpretive releases
- § 24:4 —Relevant case law
- § 24:5 ERISA § 209 requirements—General rules
- § 24:6 —Proposed regulations
- § 24:7 — —Individual benefit record keeping for single employer plans
- § 24:8 — —Individual benefit record keeping for multiple employer plans
- § 24:9 —Relevant case law
- § 24:10 — —Burden of proof issues
- § 24:11 — —Subpoenas
- § 24:12 — —Mandatory audit issues
- § 24:13 — —Private rights of action
- § 24:14 ERISA § 701 requirements
- § 24:15 Other records retention requirements—Code requirements
- § 24:16 —PBGC requirements
- § 24:17 —Cybersecurity
- § 24:18 Conclusion
- Appendix 24-A. DOL's Proposed Regulations under ERISA § 209 (29 C.F.R. §§ 2530.209-1 through 2530.209-3)
- Appendix 24-B. DOL's Regulations under ERISA § 701 (29 C.F.R. § 2590.701-5(A)(1)-(2))
- Appendix 24-C. PBGC's Regulations under ERISA § 4007 (29 C.F.R. § 4007.10)
- Appendix 24-D. DOL's Regulations under ERISA § 107 (29 C.F.R. § 2520.107-1)
- Appendix 24-E. Cybersecurity Program Best Practices (U.S. Department of Labor and Employee Benefits Security Administration)

CHAPTER 25. ETHICS, PRIVILEGE, AND RELATED ISSUES IN EMPLOYEE BENEFITS PRACTICE

- § 25:1 Introduction

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 25:2	Entity representation
§ 25:3	—Communications with an entity client's constituents
§ 25:4	— —Disclosure of constituent communications
§ 25:5	— —Communications with constituents represented by other counsel
§ 25:6	—Inadvertent formation of attorney-client relationship with constituents
§ 25:7	—Representing constituents
§ 25:8	—Reporting breaches of fiduciary duties
§ 25:9	— —Model Rule 1.13
§ 25:10	— —Restatement § 96
§ 25:11	— —Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002
§ 25:12	Multiple representation
§ 25:13	—Conflicts rules
§ 25:14	— —Direct adversity
§ 25:15	— —Materially limited representation
§ 25:16	— —Consent
§ 25:17	— —Settlement conflicts
§ 25:18	— —Duties of defense counsel appointed under fiduciary liability insurance policy
§ 25:19	— —Withdrawal from multiple representation
§ 25:20	— —Duties to former clients
§ 25:21	— — —Loyalty
§ 25:22	— — —Confidentiality
§ 25:23	— — —Consent
§ 25:24	— —Imputed disqualification in conflicts cases
§ 25:25	— —Screening to avoid imputation of conflicts
§ 25:26	— —Disqualification proceedings
§ 25:27	—Confidentiality between coclients
§ 25:28	Fiduciary representation
§ 25:29	—Identifying the client
§ 25:30	—Confidentiality obligations
§ 25:31	— —Fiduciary as sole client
§ 25:32	— —Plan as client
§ 25:33	— —Beneficiaries as clients
§ 25:34	— —Disclosure to prevent or rectify harm
§ 25:35	Evidentiary privileges
§ 25:36	—Attorney-Client privilege
§ 25:37	— —Entity representation
§ 25:38	— —Multiple representation
§ 25:39	— —Fiduciary representation
§ 25:40	— — —Good cause exception in ERISA cases
§ 25:41	— — —No good cause requirement
§ 25:42	— — —Limitations on fiduciary exception
§ 25:43	— — —Divergence of interests
§ 25:44	— — —Settlor versus fiduciary functions

- § 25:45 — — — —Personal liability versus plan administration
- § 25:46 — — —Preserving attorney-client privilege
- § 25:47 —Work-Product immunity
- § 25:48 — —Anticipation of litigation
- § 25:49 — — —Divergence of interests
- § 25:50 — — —Ordinary course of business
- § 25:51 — —Fiduciary exception
- § 25:52 — —Preserving work-product immunity
- § 25:53 Choice of law and the unauthorized practice of law
- § 25:54 —Unauthorized practice of law
- § 25:55 — —Birbrower v. Superior Court
- § 25:56 — —Federal practice exception
- § 25:57 — —Restatement § 3
- § 25:58 — —Model Rule 5.5
- § 25:59 — —State regulatory activity
- § 25:60 —Choice of law
- § 25:61 —Federal court rules

CHAPTER 26. BANKRUPTCY AND QUALIFIED PLANS

- § 26:1 Introduction
- § 26:2 Bankruptcy of the sponsoring employer—Impact on assets of the plan
- § 26:3 —Impact on employer’s obligation to contribute
- § 26:4 Bankruptcy of participants—Introduction
- § 26:5 — —ERISA provision
- § 26:6 — —Code provision
- § 26:7 —Generally
- § 26:8 —Loan repayment
- § 26:9 —Can the participant-debtor be forced to borrow from the plan to fund the bankruptcy estate?
- § 26:10 —Section 401(k) contributions
- § 26:11 —Bankruptcy of the participant and impact on the alternate payee—Introduction
- § 26:12 — —Does the bankruptcy of the participant after the issuance of a QDRO have any impact on the rights of the alternate payee?
- § 26:13 — —Can the participant discharge his or her obligations to the alternate payee by filing bankruptcy?
- § 26:14 Obligations of the bankruptcy trustee where the debtor maintained a qualified plan
- § 26:15 Individual retirement accounts and simplified employee pensions

APPENDICES

Appendix A. Glossary of Selected ERISA Terms

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Appendix B. U.S.C.A./ERISA Parallel Citation List

Table of Laws and Rules

Table of Cases

Index