

Table of Contents

CHAPTER 1. FINAL TRIAL PREPARATION AND MOTIONS

I. TRIAL SCHEDULING

- § 1:1 Assignment of cases governed by local rules
- § 1:2 Placing cases on trial docket
- § 1:3 —Perfecting the right to a jury trial; time to request a jury
- § 1:4 Deposit or cost bond prerequisite to placing a case on the jury trial docket
- § 1:5 —Time when bond required to be filed
- § 1:6 Deposit—Time when deposit required to be made—
Amount of deposit
- § 1:7 Answer filed before case set for trial
- § 1:8 —Exceptions
- § 1:9 Notice of trial governed by local rules
- § 1:10 Preferences in trial setting
- § 1:11 Dismissal for plaintiff's failure to appear at trial
- § 1:12 Dismissal for failure to prosecute
- § 1:13 —When three-year period begins
- § 1:14 —Examples of exceptions to Article 561 rule of abandonment
- § 1:15 —Taking a “step”
- § 1:16 —Examples of taking a “step”
- § 1:17 —Examples of not taking a “step”
- § 1:18 —Waiver
- § 1:19 Revival
- § 1:20 Examples of abandonment

II. CONTINUANCES

- § 1:21 Introduction; current policies
- § 1:22 Grounds for a continuance
- § 1:23 —Peremptory grounds
- § 1:24 — —Requirement of diligence
- § 1:25 — —Material witness
- § 1:26 —Discretionary grounds
- § 1:27 —Effect of agreement
- § 1:28 Motion requirement
- § 1:29 Examples where party entitled to continuance

§ 1:30 Trial of motion

III. COMPELLING ATTENDANCE OF WITNESSES/ PRODUCTION OF EVIDENCE AT TRIAL

- § 1:31 Subpoenaing witnesses
- § 1:32 Form of subpoena
- § 1:33 Mechanics of obtaining a subpoena
- § 1:34 Restrictions on subpoenas
- § 1:35 —Lawyers
- § 1:36 —State officials
- § 1:37 —Physicians
- § 1:38 Witness fees
- § 1:39 —Payment by clerk after witness appears
- § 1:40 —Expert witnesses
- § 1:41 — —Examples
- § 1:42 Service
- § 1:43 —On attorney of record
- § 1:44 —On police or fire department
- § 1:45 —On corporations
- § 1:46 —Using long arm statute
- § 1:47 —Mail service
- § 1:48 —By long arm statute
- § 1:49 Trial subpoena of documents or evidence
- § 1:50 —Relationship to discovery
- § 1:51 —Attaching description of facts to be proven
- § 1:52 —Subpoena of medical records in lieu of testimony of physician

IV. MOTIONS IN LIMINE

- § 1:53 Policy
- § 1:54 Purpose
- § 1:55 —Procedure
- § 1:56 —Service
- § 1:57 —Hearing
- § 1:58 Common subjects of motions in limine

V. FINAL TRIAL PREPARATION

- § 1:59 Case re-evaluation for trial—Attempts to settle
- § 1:60 Trial depositions
- § 1:61 Updating the pretrial order
- § 1:62 Requests for admissions
- § 1:63 —Points for which admissions should often be requested

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 1:64 Testimony of treating physician
- § 1:65 Legal research
- § 1:66 Settlement letters
- § 1:67 Photographic enlargements and other demonstrative aids
- § 1:68 Physical organization of the file
- § 1:69 —Exhibit list
- § 1:70 —Witness list
- § 1:71 Planning for assistance at trial
- § 1:72 Having equipment ready and being familiar with its operation
- § 1:73 Organizing witness appearances
- § 1:74 Checking on subpoenas
- § 1:75 Pretrial memoranda
- § 1:76 Verdict form

VI. PREPARING THE TESTIMONY OF THE CLIENT AND ASSOCIATES

- § 1:77 Generally
- § 1:78 —Demeanor
- § 1:79 Rehearse direct examination
- § 1:80 —Review of depositions
- § 1:81 —Review of exhibits
- § 1:82 Preparing the testimony of family members of the client

VII. PREPARING CROSS-EXAMINATION

- § 1:83 Generally

VIII. FINAL MATTERS

- § 1:84 Voir dire
- § 1:85 Opening statement
- § 1:86 Closing argument
- § 1:87 Jury instructions

IX. CHECKLISTS

- § 1:88 Matters typically certified in request for trial date
- § 1:89 Case re-evaluation for trial

X. FORMS

- § 1:90 Motion in limine
- § 1:91 Motion in limine/Daubert motion, or in the Alternative, Motion for Continuance

- § 1:92 Motion in limine/Daubert motion to exclude testimony of medical expert
- § 1:93 Emergency rule for contempt and motion to compel citing Articles 1354(G) and 1357
- § 1:94 Pretrial memorandums—Plaintiff’s pretrial memorandum
- § 1:95 —Defendant’s pretrial memorandum
- § 1:96 Request for trial on merits
- § 1:97 Motion to dismiss for want of prosecution
- § 1:98 Request for admissions
- § 1:99 Motion In Limine, to take expert witness out of turn
- § 1:100 Ex parte motion, affidavit, and order of dismissal for abandonment

CHAPTER 2. TRIAL STRUCTURE AND CONDUCT

I. GENERAL RULES

- § 2:1 Trial conducted in open court
- § 2:2 Sealed records
- § 2:3 —Good cause
- § 2:4 Right to a public trial; exclusion of public and press; trials generally not televised
- § 2:5 Side bar conferences
- § 2:6 Stenographic reporting of proceedings

II. STRUCTURE OF THE TRIAL SUBPART

- § 2:7 Usual order or elements of pretrial order
- § 2:8 Motions
- § 2:9 Multiple parties and multiple witnesses
- § 2:10 Notice of trial
- § 2:11 —Examples
- § 2:12 Normal order of trial
- § 2:13 Opening statements
- § 2:14 —Plaintiff’s opening statement
- § 2:15 —Defendant’s opening statement
- § 2:16 Plaintiff’s case in chief
- § 2:17 —Direct examination of witnesses
- § 2:18 — —Admissibility of evidence
- § 2:19 — —Countering a proffer
- § 2:20 —Cross-examination of witnesses
- § 2:21 —Rebuttal
- § 2:22 — —Examples

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 2:23 Defendant's case in chief
- § 2:24 —Direct examination of witnesses
- § 2:25 —Cross-examination of witnesses
- § 2:26 Motion for direct verdict
- § 2:27 Closing argument
- § 2:28 Reopening case
- § 2:29 —Examples
- § 2:30 Jury instructions
- § 2:31 Deliberation and judgment
- § 2:32 —Jury verdict
- § 2:33 —Special verdicts and interrogatories
- § 2:34 — —Legal cause
- § 2:35 — —Comparative fault
- § 2:36 —Judgment
- § 2:37 Post-judgment motions
- § 2:38 —Motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict
- § 2:39 —Motion for new trial
- § 2:40 —Motion for additur or remittitur
- § 2:41 Suspensive and devolutive appeals
- § 2:42 —A judicial mortgage
- § 2:43 — —Collection of judgment against movable property
- § 2:44 — —To execute under a judgment
- § 2:45 Limitations on jury trials
- § 2:46 Admiralty issues
- § 2:47 State as a defendant
- § 2:48 Jury request must be timely
- § 2:49 Issues a jury tries
- § 2:50 Separate trial of separate issues
- § 2:51 —Case application of C.C.P. art. 1562

III. CONDUCT OF THE JUDGE

- § 2:52 Power, generally
- § 2:53 Duties, generally
- § 2:54 Ruling on admissibility of evidence, generally
- § 2:55 —Under Louisiana Code of Evidence
- § 2:56 —Examples of error in admitting evidence
- § 2:57 Charging jury
- § 2:58 Conduct during trial
- § 2:59 —When conduct is reversible error
- § 2:60 Maintaining control of courtroom
- § 2:61 Impartiality
- § 2:62 —Presumption
- § 2:63 —Avoid ex parte contacts
- § 2:64 —Judge not investigator

- § 2:65 —Self-represented litigants
- § 2:66 —Comments by judge
- § 2:67 — —Assist jury, not control findings
- § 2:68 — —Humor or sarcasm
- § 2:69 — —Evidence or credibility of witnesses
- § 2:70 — —Examples
- § 2:71 —Post-trial before judgment recusal of judge
- § 2:72 Questioning of witness by court
- § 2:73 —Duty of court as to unrepresented party
- § 2:74 Conducting legal research
- § 2:75 Acting without request of party
- § 2:76 Conduct toward deliberating jury

IV. CONDUCT OF THE ATTORNEY

- § 2:77 Decorum, generally
- § 2:78 Local rules
- § 2:79 Familiarity with courtroom procedures
- § 2:80 Location of counsel; parties
- § 2:81 Requirement of candor
- § 2:82 Making false statements of material facts or law
- § 2:83 Failing to disclose fact necessary to avoid illegal or fraudulent or criminal act by the client
- § 2:84 Failing to disclose contrary legal authority
- § 2:85 Offering false evidence
- § 2:86 Limitations on conduct
- § 2:87 Communications with adverse party
- § 2:88 Ex parte communications with court
- § 2:89 Trial publicity
- § 2:90 Court personnel
- § 2:91 Minute clerk
- § 2:92 Official court reporter
- § 2:93 Crier or bailiff
- § 2:94 No gratuities

V. CONDUCT OF JURORS

- § 2:95 Misconduct
- § 2:96 Examples
- § 2:97 —Court officials affecting jury
- § 2:98 —Contact with parties
- § 2:99 —Contact with witnesses
- § 2:100 —Notetaking
- § 2:101 —Exposure to case through media
- § 2:102 —Late for court

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 2:103 Procedure for dealing with misconduct
- § 2:104 —Objection
- § 2:105 —Motion for mistrial

VI. CONTEMPT

- § 2:106 Definition
- § 2:107 Types of contempt
- § 2:108 Civil
- § 2:109 Criminal
- § 2:110 Direct
- § 2:111 Constructive
- § 2:112 Acts constituting contempt
- § 2:113 Misbehavior in presence of court
- § 2:114 —Insolent behavior
- § 2:115 —Breach of peace or decorum
- § 2:116 Failure to comply with subpoena
- § 2:117 —Failure to be sworn or to testify
- § 2:118 Disobedience of court order
- § 2:119 —Examples of disobedience
- § 2:120 —Examples of no disobedience
- § 2:121 Removal of person or property from court's jurisdiction
- § 2:122 Abuse of process
- § 2:123 Detention of witness, party or attorney
- § 2:124 Procedure
- § 2:125 Summary contempt
- § 2:126 —Applicable only to direct contempts
- § 2:127 —Oral opportunity to be heard in defense or mitigation
- § 2:128 —Court order
- § 2:129 Constructive contempt; need for trial
- § 2:130 —Rule to show cause
- § 2:131 — —Issuance on court's motion or request by party
- § 2:132 — —Content
- § 2:133 — —Service
- § 2:134 —Request for oral hearing
- § 2:135 —Hearing
- § 2:136 —Order
- § 2:137 —Sufficient recitation of facts
- § 2:138 Punishment
- § 2:139 Fine
- § 2:140 Imprisonment
- § 2:141 Contempt by attorney
- § 2:142 Review of conviction

§ 2:143 Examples of punishment for contempt

VII. CHECKLIST

§ 2:144 Grounds for motion for new trial

VIII. FORMS

§ 2:145 Petition of intervention—By surviving family members

§ 2:146 —By insurer in connection with employment-related injury

§ 2:147 Motion to file exhibit under seal

CHAPTER 3. THE JURY TRIAL: INITIAL PROCEDURES

I. IN GENERAL

§ 3:1 Right to trial by jury

§ 3:2 —Instances where plaintiff found not entitled to jury trial

§ 3:3 Demand prior to trial

§ 3:4 Trial by consent

§ 3:5 Special or advisory juries

§ 3:6 Jury bond and cost deposits

§ 3:7 —The jury bond

§ 3:8 —Cash deposit in lieu of bond

§ 3:9 — —Party making deposit

§ 3:10 — —Disbursement of funds for jury costs

§ 3:11 —Orleans Parish

§ 3:12 —Local rules

II. WHO MAY SERVE AS A JUROR

§ 3:13 Qualifications

§ 3:14 —Citizenship and residence

§ 3:15 —Age

§ 3:16 —Language

§ 3:17 —Mental or physical infirmity

§ 3:18 — —Deafness

§ 3:19 — —Interpreter for the deaf

§ 3:20 —Felonies

§ 3:21 Discretion of court to disqualify

§ 3:22 Impermissible factors

§ 3:23 Exemptions

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 3:24 —Rule prior to 1994
- § 3:25 —Present exclusions

III. SELECTING AND SUMMONING PROSPECTIVE JURORS

- § 3:26 Jury commissions
- § 3:27 —Composition of commission
- § 3:28 The general venire
- § 3:29 —Developing the general venire
- § 3:30 Central jury pools
- § 3:31 —One day/one trial jury system
- § 3:32 The petit jury venire
- § 3:33 The petit jury venire (excluding Orleans Parish)—
Summoning the venire
- § 3:34 —Excusal
- § 3:35 —Return of general venire box
- § 3:36 Jury service in multiparish judicial districts
- § 3:37 Tales jurors
- § 3:38 Duty to attend; penalties; petit and tales jurors
- § 3:39 Petit and tales jurors: Orleans Parish
- § 3:40 Challenges to general or petit jury venire as a whole
- § 3:41 Challenges to general or petit jury venire as a whole;
grounds—Fair cross-section requirement
- § 3:42 —Time for challenge
- § 3:43 —Burden of proof
- § 3:44 Juror compensation, generally
- § 3:45 Orleans Parish

IV. SELECTION OF JURY

- § 3:46 Number of jurors
- § 3:47 —Number required for verdict
- § 3:48 —Alternate jurors
- § 3:49 — —Purpose of alternate jurors
- § 3:50 — —Functioning of alternate jurors
- § 3:51 — —Discharge of alternate jurors
- § 3:52 — —Illustrations where court did not provide for
- § 3:53 Examination of jurors (voir dire)
- § 3:54 —Examination of alternate jurors
- § 3:55 —Swearing of prospective jurors
- § 3:56 —Conduct of the examination
- § 3:57 — —Examination by the court
- § 3:58 — —Examination by counsel
- § 3:59 —Scope of examination

- § 3:60 — — Objectives of counsel voir dire
- § 3:61 — — — Identifying “bad” jurors
- § 3:62 — — — Get the prospective jurors to do most of the talking
- § 3:63 — — — Get the “bad” jurors sent home
- § 3:64 — — — Inspire jurors to care about your case
- § 3:65 — — General areas of inquiry
- § 3:66 Challenges for cause
- § 3:67 — — Grounds
- § 3:68 — — — Lack of qualifications
- § 3:69 — — — Bias
- § 3:70 — — — Examples where challenge based on bias denied
- § 3:71 — — — Examples where challenge based on bias granted
- § 3:72 — — Relationship to party or counsel
- § 3:73 — — Prior jury service on same or related case
- § 3:74 — — Asserting the fifth amendment privilege
- § 3:75 — — Constitutional issues
- § 3:76 — — Number of challenges
- § 3:77 — — Time for challenge
- § 3:78 Appellate review
- § 3:79 Peremptory challenges
- § 3:80 — — Number of challenges
- § 3:81 — — Allocation of peremptories among multiple parties
- § 3:82 — — Alternate jurors
- § 3:83 — — — What constitutes a “side”
- § 3:84 — — Time of challenge
- § 3:85 — — Method of challenge
- § 3:86 — — Effect of passing challenge
- § 3:87 — — Batson challenges
- § 3:88 — — Illustrations
- § 3:89 Peremptory challenges—Batson challenges [Reserved]
- § 3:90 Using a jury consultant
- § 3:91 Sample voir dire—Plaintiff’s in lawsuit against pharmaceutical company
- § 3:92 — — Domestic violence cases
- § 3:93 — — Third party defendant is attorney

V. FORMS

- § 3:94 Motions—To withdraw trial by jury
- § 3:95 — — To strike jury demand
- § 3:96 — — To prohibit allegations by defense in voir dire

CHAPTER 4. THE OPENING STATEMENT

I. PURPOSE AND SIGNIFICANCE OF OPENING STATEMENT

- § 4:1 Objectives of opening statement
- § 4:2 —Inform the jury in general way of nature of case and basic facts
- § 4:3 —Identify theory of case and key themes
- § 4:4 Primacy and recency
- § 4:5 Contrasting purpose of statement and argument
- § 4:6 Trial court's discretion in controlling counsel's arguments
- § 4:7 Necessity of creating visual image
- § 4:8 Establish rapport with jury
- § 4:9 Influence outcome of case
- § 4:10 Dealing with weaknesses in your case
- § 4:11 Significance of opening statement
- § 4:12 —Jury trials
- § 4:13 — —Introduce everyone
- § 4:14 — —Facts of case
- § 4:15 — — —Beginning
- § 4:16 — — —Middle
- § 4:17 — — —End
- § 4:18 —Non-jury trials

II. PRESENTING THE OPENING STATEMENT

- § 4:19 Right or duty to make an opening statement
- § 4:20 —When to waive or reserve an opening statement
- § 4:21 Sequence for making opening statement
- § 4:22 —Special circumstances
- § 4:23 —Additional parties
- § 4:24 — —Division of time among parties
- § 4:25 — —Cross-claims, reconvention demands, and other incidental actions among multiple parties
- § 4:26 Delivering the opening statement
- § 4:27 —Practice your opening statement
- § 4:28 — —In front of mirror
- § 4:29 — —Live audience
- § 4:30 — —Eye contact
- § 4:31 — —Hand gestures
- § 4:32 — —Practicing in courtroom
- § 4:33 — — —Microphones
- § 4:34 — —Excuses for not practicing

- § 4:35 —Beginning the opening statement
- § 4:36 — —Demonstrate respect for everyone in court
- § 4:37 —Show confidence
- § 4:38 —Avoid reading from written notes
- § 4:39 —Physical movement
- § 4:40 — —Establishing courtroom presence
- § 4:41 — — —Lecterns
- § 4:42 — — —Blackboards
- § 4:43 — — —Demonstrative aids
- § 4:44 — —Maintain conversational distance
- § 4:45 — —Move to address different jurors
- § 4:46 —Eye contact
- § 4:47 — —Natural expression
- § 4:48 — —Avoid artificial rules
- § 4:49 — —Distractions
- § 4:50 — — —“Transference phenomenon”
- § 4:51 — — —Recognizing and disarming transference
- § 4:52 —Duration
- § 4:53 —Harassment or interruption of counsel delivering statement
- § 4:54 —Losing your train of thought

III. CONTENTS OF OPENING STATEMENT

- § 4:55 Be succinct
- § 4:56 —Briefly discuss nature of action and facts
- § 4:57 Control by court
- § 4:58 —Exposition of law might not be permissible
- § 4:59 Content
- § 4:60 —What the evidence will establish
- § 4:61 — —Reference to inadmissible evidence
- § 4:62 — —Effect of not presenting promised evidence
- § 4:63 —Limitations on content
- § 4:64 — —Settlements
- § 4:65 — —Insurance coverage
- § 4:66 — —Plaintiff’s social, economic, racial or cultural deprivation
- § 4:67 — —The “Golden Rule”

IV. OBJECTING TO OPENING STATEMENT

- § 4:68 When and how to object
- § 4:69 —Where untimely objections permitted
- § 4:70 Instructions to jury
- § 4:71 Mistrial

TABLE OF CONTENTS

V. DISMISSAL ON OPENING STATEMENT

§ 4:72 Generally

VI. CHECKLISTS

§ 4:73 Contents of the opening statement

§ 4:74 Grounds for objecting to opening statements

CHAPTER 5. EVIDENCE: BURDEN OF PROOF, ADMISSIBILITY AND OBJECTIONS

I. BURDEN OF PROOF

§ 5:1 Evidence defined

§ 5:2 —Plaintiff has burden of proof of all essential elements of claim

§ 5:3 Personal injury suits—Causal relationship

§ 5:4 Products liability suits

§ 5:5 Medical malpractice

§ 5:6 —Defendant's burden

§ 5:7 Food poisoning

§ 5:8 Workers' compensation

§ 5:9 —Defendant has burden of proof of all essential elements of defense

§ 5:10 To enforce a claim under uninsured motorist provisions of automobile liability policy

§ 5:11 Negligence claim brought against merchant by person lawfully on premises

§ 5:12 Suit for unpaid wages

§ 5:13 Shift in burden of proof

§ 5:14 Presumptions

§ 5:15 —Not conclusive

§ 5:16 —Cases holding that adverse presumption did not apply

§ 5:17 —Conclusive presumptions

§ 5:18 —Rebutting

§ 5:19 Burden of persuasion

§ 5:20 —The preponderance of the evidence standard

§ 5:21 —Clear and convincing evidence

II. ADMISSIBILITY OF EVIDENCE

§ 5:22 Introduction to the Louisiana Code of Evidence

§ 5:23 Applicability of the Code of Evidence

§ 5:24 Practical differences between jury and bench trials

- § 5:25 Preliminary questions
- § 5:26 —Admissibility generally
- § 5:27 —Competency as witness
- § 5:28 —Scope of determination
- § 5:29 — —Standard of proof in evidentiary determinations
- § 5:30 —Hearing of jury
- § 5:31 —Effect of preliminary finding of admissibility
- § 5:32 Limited admissibility generally
- § 5:33 —Admissible only as to certain party
- § 5:34 — —Court must instruct jury on request
- § 5:35 — — —Waiver of limiting instruction
- § 5:36 Relevancy
- § 5:37 —Probative of issues to be proven
- § 5:38 — —Damages
- § 5:39 —Facts of consequence to action
- § 5:40 General rule that relevant evidence is admissible
- § 5:41 Evidence of similar crimes, wrongs, or acts in certain civil actions
- § 5:42 Evidence of victim’s attire in sexual assault cases
- § 5:43 Evidence of similar crimes, wrongs, or acts in domestic abuse cases and cruelty against juveniles
- § 5:44 Exclusion of relevant evidence
- § 5:45 —Prejudice, confusion or waste of time
- § 5:46 — —Unfair prejudice
- § 5:47 — — —Repeated prior claims
- § 5:48 —Confusion of issues
- § 5:49 —Mislead jury
- § 5:50 —Delay and cumulative evidence
- § 5:51 —Character evidence generally
- § 5:52 — —Credibility of witness
- § 5:53 — —Evidence of crimes, wrongs, or acts
- § 5:54 — —Evidence of creative or artistic expression
- § 5:55 — —Evidence of crimes, wrongs, or acts—Motive
- § 5:56 — — —Opportunity
- § 5:57 — — —Intent
- § 5:58 — — —Preparation
- § 5:59 — — —Plan
- § 5:60 — — —Knowledge
- § 5:61 — — —Identity
- § 5:62 — — —Absence of mistake or accident
- § 5:63 — —Methods of proving character
- § 5:64 — — —Reputation, opinion or conviction
- § 5:65 — — —Specific instances of conduct
- § 5:66 — — —Foundation for testimony
- § 5:67 —Evidence of habit or routine practice

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 5:68	— —Distinguished from character
§ 5:69	— —Method of proving habit
§ 5:70	— —Case applications
§ 5:71	—Evidence of prior incidents
§ 5:72	— —Products liability actions
§ 5:73	—Evidence of subsequent remedial measures
§ 5:74	— —Examples of admissible purpose
§ 5:75	—Evidence of settlement offers, negotiations, or amounts paid in settlement
§ 5:76	— —When admissible
§ 5:77	— —Examples
§ 5:78	— —Admissible evidence disclosed in negotiations
§ 5:79	—Evidence of payment of medical and similar expenses generally
§ 5:80	— —Examples
§ 5:81	—Pleas, plea discussions and related statements
§ 5:82	—Liability insurance
§ 5:83	—Settlement or tender
§ 5:84	—Workers' compensation benefits
§ 5:85	—Illegal adoption
§ 5:86	—Non-use of seatbelt
§ 5:87	Parol or extrinsic evidence
§ 5:88	—Parol evidence rule
§ 5:89	— —Examples of application
§ 5:90	—Oral contracts
§ 5:91	Extrajudicial admissions
§ 5:92	Motion in limine

III. PRIVILEGES

§ 5:93	Scope of privileges
§ 5:94	Privilege defined
§ 5:95	Effect
§ 5:96	Waiver of privilege
§ 5:97	—Waiver as personal; joint holders
§ 5:98	—Manner
§ 5:99	Reference to exercise of privilege
§ 5:100	Lawyer-client privilege
§ 5:101	—Definitions
§ 5:102	— —Client
§ 5:103	— —Lawyer
§ 5:104	— —Representative of client
§ 5:105	— —Representative of lawyer
§ 5:106	— —Confidential communication

LOUISIANA CIVIL TRIAL PROCEDURE

- § 5:107 — — —Privilege not extended to incidental information
- § 5:108 —Scope of privilege
- § 5:109 —What communications are privileged
- § 5:110 —Waiver of privilege
- § 5:111 —Who may claim privilege
- § 5:112 — —Client may refuse to disclose communication
- § 5:113 — —Prohibition on subpoena to lawyer seeking privileged information
- § 5:114 —Effect of determination
- § 5:115 — —Crime and fraud
- § 5:116 — —Claim through deceased client
- § 5:117 — —Breach of duty between lawyer and client
- § 5:118 — —Authenticity of document signed by attorney
- § 5:119 — —Matter of common interest between clients
- § 5:120 — —Joint representation agreements
- § 5:121 — —Disclosure of client's identity
- § 5:122 Patient and health care provider privilege
- § 5:123 —Definitions
- § 5:124 — —Patient
- § 5:125 — —Health condition
- § 5:126 — —Health care provider
- § 5:127 — —Physician
- § 5:128 — —Psychotherapist
- § 5:129 — —Representative of patient
- § 5:130 — —Representative of health care provider
- § 5:131 — —Confidential communication
- § 5:132 — — —Examples
- § 5:133 —Release of privileged information
- § 5:134 —Who may assert privilege
- § 5:135 —Waiver
- § 5:136 — —Examples
- § 5:137 —Exceptions
- § 5:138 Patient and healthcare provider privilege—
Exceptions—Examples
- § 5:139 Patient and health care provider privilege—Medical malpractice
- § 5:140 —Authorized release of medical records
- § 5:141 —Preemption
- § 5:142 Reporter's privilege
- § 5:143 —Definitions
- § 5:144 — —Reporter
- § 5:145 — —News media
- § 5:146 —Extent of privilege
- § 5:147 Spousal privilege

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 5:148 —Confidential communications privilege
- § 5:149 —Spousal witness privilege
- § 5:150 Clergy privilege
- § 5:151 —Definitions
- § 5:152 — —Clergyman
- § 5:153 — —Confidential communication
- § 5:154 —General rule of privilege
- § 5:155 —Who may claim privilege
- § 5:156 —Privileged communications between persons and religious authorities relating to matrimonial rights or status
- § 5:157 — —Definitions
- § 5:158 — — —Marital status or rights
- § 5:159 — — —Person
- § 5:160 — — —Privileged communications
- § 5:161 — — —Recognized religious authority
- § 5:162 Political vote
- § 5:163 Trade secrets
- § 5:164 Records of Bureau of Criminal Identification and Information
- § 5:165 Federal immunity statute

IV. EVIDENTIARY OBJECTIONS AND PROFFERS

- § 5:166 Purposes of objections
- § 5:167 Proffer of evidence

V. FORMS

- § 5:168 Motion to quash subpoena
- § 5:169 Motion in limine—Exclude evidence of subsequent accidents
- § 5:170 —Exclude evidence of other claims or lawsuits against defendant
- § 5:171 —Exclude evidence plaintiffs' receipt of benefits from collateral source, portion of cause of action is subrogation claim, recovery not subject to taxation
- § 5:172 —Preclude use of social media photographs, comments
- § 5:173 —Preclude expert opinion
- § 5:174 Motion to strike—Privileged material—Federal immunity statute
- § 5:175 — —Violation of patient-physician privilege
- § 5:176 — —Joint representation agreement—Sample form

CHAPTER 6. WITNESSES AND TESTIMONY

I. GENERAL RULES FOR TAKING TESTIMONY

- § 6:1 Form of taking testimony
- § 6:2 —The parties present testimony
- § 6:3 —Control by court
- § 6:4 — —Contempt power of court
- § 6:5 —Verbatim record
- § 6:6 Use of interpreters
- § 6:7 —Examples
- § 6:8 Calling and interrogation of witness by judge
- § 6:9 —Questions by court
- § 6:10 — —Examples
- § 6:11 —Objections to judge calling or questioning witness
- § 6:12 —Consent of all parties required in jury trial
- § 6:13 Exclusion of witnesses
- § 6:14 —Persons who may not be excluded from the courtroom
- § 6:15 —Sanctions for violations of sequestration order

II. PREREQUISITES TO TESTIFYING

- § 6:16 Competency, generally
- § 6:17 —Competency of specific persons as witnesses
- § 6:18 — —Disqualification of judge as witness
- § 6:19 — —Lawyer as witness
- § 6:20 — — —Limitations on lawyer being both advocate and witness
- § 6:21 — — —Exceptions to general rule of disqualification
- § 6:22 — — —Effect of other lawyer in firm as witness
- § 6:23 — —Restriction on juror as witness
- § 6:24 — — —Juror cannot impeach verdict
- § 6:25 — —Person having transaction with decedent; Dead Man's Statute
- § 6:26 — — —Parol admissible where debt acknowledged
- § 6:27 — — —Need for corroborating evidence
- § 6:28 — — —Parol evidence objection cannot be waived
- § 6:29 — — —Competence of child witnesses
- § 6:30 —Procedure to challenge competency
- § 6:31 — —Preliminary hearing on ability to testify
- § 6:32 Witness must possess personal knowledge
- § 6:33 —Proof from witness
- § 6:34 —Other proof
- § 6:35 —Illustrations

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 6:36 Necessity of oath or affirmation
- § 6:37 —Oath must be taken before testimony
- § 6:38 —Form of oath
- § 6:39 —Effect of religious belief

III. DIRECT EXAMINATION

- § 6:40 Preparing witness to testify
- § 6:41 Purpose and objectives of direct examination
- § 6:42 Use of leading questions
- § 6:43 —Leading question defined
- § 6:44 —Adverse party
- § 6:45 —Hostile witness
- § 6:46 —Unresponsive witness
- § 6:47 —Expert witnesses
- § 6:48 —Young children
- § 6:49 —Use leading questions to develop testimony
- § 6:50 Procedure for direct examination; calling witnesses
- § 6:51 —Oath or affirmation
- § 6:52 —Preliminary questions
- § 6:53 — —Name, address, age
- § 6:54 — —Relevancy of testimony
- § 6:55 — —Competency of witness
- § 6:56 Testimony on subject matter
- § 6:57 —Simple questions
- § 6:58 —Witness' response
- § 6:59 —Ensure question answered
- § 6:60 Use of exhibits
- § 6:61 —Permission to approach witness
- § 6:62 —Distribute copies of exhibit
- § 6:63 —Foundation for admission of exhibit
- § 6:64 —Offer exhibit into evidence
- § 6:65 Dealing with objections
- § 6:66 —Avoid improper reaction
- § 6:67 —Anticipate objections before trial
- § 6:68 —Request bench conference
- § 6:69 —Request basis for objection
- § 6:70 —Prepare witness for objections
- § 6:71 Dealing with the forgetful or hostile witness
- § 6:72 —Refreshing witness recollection
- § 6:73 — —Production of writing used before testifying
- § 6:74 — —Use of writing by adverse party
- § 6:75 — —Inspection
- § 6:76 — —Cross-examination
- § 6:77 — —Failure to produce memory refreshing document

- § 6:78 — —Improper use of document, recording or object
- § 6:79 — —Examples
- § 6:80 — —Past recollection recorded
- § 6:81 — —Distinguished from refreshing recollection
- § 6:82 — —Exception to hearsay rule
- § 6:83 — —Requirements for use; witness recollection insufficient to testify
- § 6:84 — —Made at a time when fact occurred
- § 6:85 — —Made by or at direction of witness
- § 6:86 — —Concerns matter of which witness has knowledge
- § 6:87 — —Admission of contents of writing; portion not remembered read into evidence
- § 6:88 — —Relevance remains a requirement for introduction into evidence
- § 6:89 — —Disclosure of statements to opposing counsel
- § 6:90 — —Procedure; witness identifies writing
- § 6:91 — —Move to admit
- § 6:92 — —Read writing

IV. TESTIMONY THROUGH DEPOSITIONS AND OTHER PRETRIAL MATERIALS

- § 6:93 Use of depositions at trial
- § 6:94 — —Evidence must be otherwise admissible
- § 6:95 — —Deponent as witness
- § 6:96 — —Examples
- § 6:97 — —Adverse party
- § 6:98 — —Examples
- § 6:99 — —Unavailability of witness
- § 6:100 — —Caveat concerning unavailability
- § 6:101 — —Examples where depositions inadmissible
- § 6:102 — —Other circumstances when deposition testimony may be used
- § 6:103 — —Use of expert deposition
- § 6:104 — —Notice to use expert deposition
- § 6:105 — —Objection to expert deposition
- § 6:106 — —Court authority to admit expert deposition
- § 6:107 — —Procedure for reading deposition into record
- § 6:108 — —Editing the deposition for trial
- § 6:109 — —Procedure for using video tape deposition
- § 6:110 Tactical considerations in using depositions
- § 6:111 — —Whose witness is the deponent?
- § 6:112 — —Rebutting deposition testimony
- § 6:113 Answers to interrogatories
- § 6:114 Admissions

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 6:115 —Judicial admissions
- § 6:116 —Other admissions
- § 6:117 —Judicial admissions are conclusive
- § 6:118 —Judicial admissions may be withdrawn
- § 6:119 —Admissions may be used only in pending action
- § 6:120 —Judicial confessions
- § 6:121 — —Examples
- § 6:122 — — —Statements that are not judicial confessions
- § 6:123 — — —Revocations

V. CROSS-EXAMINATION

- § 6:124 Generally
- § 6:125 Right to cross-examine
- § 6:126 —Cross-examination cannot be denied
- § 6:127 — —The right to cross-examine extends to re-opened cases
- § 6:128 To cross or not to cross
- § 6:129 —Not occasion for discovery
- § 6:130 — —Outline the cross-examination
- § 6:131 — —Practice the cross-examination
- § 6:132 — —Showtime—A cross without a hitch
- § 6:133 Purpose and objectives of cross-examination
- § 6:134 —Scope of impeachment
- § 6:135 — —Probative value versus prejudicial effect
- § 6:136 — —Extrinsic evidence may be excluded
- § 6:137 — —Religious beliefs
- § 6:138 Scope of cross-examination
- § 6:139 —Limited cross-examination—The hostile or adverse witness
- § 6:140 —Credibility of witness
- § 6:141 Conducting the cross-examination
- § 6:142 —Assert control over witness
- § 6:143 —Project confidence
- § 6:144 Formulating the question: Use leading questions
- § 6:145 —Use short, clear, simple questions
- § 6:146 — —Illustrative question
- § 6:147 —Know the answer to your question in advance
- § 6:148 —Use of exhibits
- § 6:149 Witness' answer to question
- § 6:150 —Sanction non-responsive answers
- § 6:151 —Request judge to direct witness to answer question
- § 6:152 Elicit favorable testimony
- § 6:153 —Repeat favorable parts of direct testimony
- § 6:154 —Corroborate client's case

- § 6:155 —Exhibits
- § 6:156 —Admissions
- § 6:157 Discredit unfavorable testimony
- § 6:158 —Methods of discrediting
- § 6:159 — —Attack perception of matter
- § 6:160 — — —Ability to observe
- § 6:161 — — —Perception not complete
- § 6:162 — —Attack the witness' conduct as inconsistent with testimony
- § 6:163 — —Attack memory
- § 6:164 — — —Length of time since event
- § 6:165 — — —Inability to recall other details

VI. REDIRECT AND RECROSS-EXAMINATION

- § 6:166 When permitted
- § 6:167 —Purposes; rehabilitation
- § 6:168 —Re-impeach the witness
- § 6:169 —Explore issues not fully explained
- § 6:170 —Explore issues “opened” by opponent
- § 6:171 Scope of examination
- § 6:172 —Redirect
- § 6:173 —Recross

VII. IMPEACHING AND REHABILITATING A WITNESS

- § 6:174 Generally
- § 6:175 Who may impeach witness
- § 6:176 —Party calling witness may attack credibility
- § 6:177 Time for raising credibility issues
- § 6:178 —General inquiry into background and ability to perceive
- § 6:179 Intrinsic or extrinsic evidence of credibility
- § 6:180 —Use of extrinsic evidence of credibility
- § 6:181 —Extrinsic evidence of prior inconsistent statements and contradictions
- § 6:182 — —Risks outweigh probative value
- § 6:183 —Foundation for extrinsic evidence testimony
- § 6:184 — —Laying the impeachment foundation
- § 6:185 — — —Make the witness admit or deny the event
- § 6:186 Use of prior inconsistent statement—Party and witness distinguished
- § 6:187 —Exception to hearsay rule
- § 6:188 —Examining witness concerning prior statement
- § 6:189 —Disclosure of statement

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 6:190 —Extrinsic evidence
- § 6:191 —Opportunity to explain or deny statement
- § 6:192 —Opportunity for opposing counsel to interrogate on statement
- § 6:193 Bias, interest, or motive
- § 6:194 Attacking credibility by character evidence; reputation for veracity
- § 6:195 —Foundation for testimony about reputation
- § 6:196 —Limitations
- § 6:197 — —Character traits cannot be proven by specific conduct
- § 6:198 — —Cross-examination of character witness
- § 6:199 —Evidence of conviction of crime
- § 6:200 — —Arrest distinguished
- § 6:201 —Details not admissible
- § 6:202 —Types of crimes which are admissible
- § 6:203 — —Crimes involving dishonesty
- § 6:204 — —Juvenile offenses
- § 6:205 —Effect of pardon
- § 6:206 —Effect of pending appeal
- § 6:207 —Method of proving conviction
- § 6:208 —Production of record
- § 6:209 — —Other competent evidence of conviction
- § 6:210 —Exclusion of conviction
- § 6:211 — —Examples
- § 6:212 — —Other causes for exclusion of conviction evidence
- § 6:213 —Religious beliefs or opinions
- § 6:214 Rehabilitating credibility with prior consistent statements
- § 6:215 —Examples
- § 6:216 —Truthful character
- § 6:217 — —Opinion
- § 6:218 — —Reputation
- § 6:219 — —Specific instances of conduct
- § 6:220 In general

VIII. CHECKLISTS

- § 6:221 Conducting the direct examination
- § 6:222 Refreshing witness' recollection
- § 6:223 Past recollection recorded
- § 6:224 Methods for impeaching witnesses
- § 6:225 Requirements for impeaching witnesses
- § 6:226 Redirect examination

IX. FORMS

- § 6:227 Motion to permit introduction of witness deposition at trial
- § 6:228 —Order
- § 6:229 Motion to strike plaintiffs' witnesses and exhibits
- § 6:230 Motion to strike or exclude witness and motion in limine to restrict testimony and evidence
- § 6:231 Plaintiffs' memorandum in support of motion in limine to exclude testimony and argument regarding alleged fraud and extramarital affairs
- § 6:232 —Order
- § 6:233 Motion in limine and motion to strike witnesses and portions of answer
- § 6:234 —Order
- § 6:235 Request for interpreter and order

CHAPTER 7. OPINION AND EXPERT TESTIMONY

I. OPINION TESTIMONY BY LAY WITNESSES

- § 7:1 Generally
- § 7:2 Prerequisites for presenting
- § 7:3 —Must be rationally based on perception of the witness
- § 7:4 — —Examples where evidence admissible
- § 7:5 — —Examples where evidence inadmissible
- § 7:6 —Must assist the trier of fact in understanding the witness' testimony or determination of a fact at issue
- § 7:7 — —Automobile collision repair
- § 7:8 Procedure for presenting lay opinion testimony; laying a foundation
- § 7:9 —Lay opinion as to specific issues
- § 7:10 — —Speed of a vehicle
- § 7:11 —Location of a vehicle
- § 7:12 —Lay opinion as to specific issues—Handwriting
- § 7:13 — —Value of property and damages
- § 7:14 — —Fair market value of property
- § 7:15 — —Safety issues
- § 7:16 — — —Examples
- § 7:17 — — —Damages
- § 7:18 — —Credibility
- § 7:19 — —Physical appearance or mental health
- § 7:20 — —Intoxication

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 7:21 Exclusion of lay opinion testimony
- § 7:22 —Grounds for exclusion of lay opinion testimony
- § 7:23 — —Irrelevant
- § 7:24 Testimony that does not constitute “opinion”

II. EXPERT OPINION TESTIMONY

- § 7:25 Construction with federal law
- § 7:26 Prerequisites for admission of expert opinion testimony
- § 7:27 Court should scrutinize expert opinion testimony before admitting into evidence; the danger of “junk science”
- § 7:28 —Potential for abuse of expert opinion testimony
- § 7:29 —Courts as “gatekeepers” for admission of expert opinions
- § 7:30 —The status of Daubert in Louisiana
- § 7:31 Court should scrutinize expert opinion testimony before admitting into evidence; the danger of “junk science”—Cases interpreting Daubert
- § 7:32 Determination of whether witness’ testimony is the proper subject of testimony by an expert witness under La Code Evid Ann art 702
- § 7:33 Determination of whether witness’ testimony is the proper subject of testimony by an expert witness under La Code Evid Ann art 702—Sufficient facts or data
- § 7:34 Determination of whether witness’ testimony is the proper subject of testimony by an expert witness under La Code Evid Ann art 702—“Scientific knowledge”
- § 7:35 —“Technical knowledge”
- § 7:36 —“Other specialized knowledge”
- § 7:37 Determination of whether the expert testimony assists the trier of fact
- § 7:38 —Trial court determination of whether an expert opinion is necessary
- § 7:39 — —Expert opinion testimony on legal issues
- § 7:40 — —Expert opinion testimony on damages
- § 7:41 — —Expert opinion on the ultimate legal issue
- § 7:42 — —Opinion of expert with insufficient knowledge of facts of a case
- § 7:43 Prerequisites for admission of expert testimony under Daubert, generally
- § 7:44 —Whether an expert opinion involves “scientific evidence” under La Code Evid Ann art 702 and Daubert

- § 7:45 —Whether an expert’s opinion is reliable
- § 7:46 — —Examples where expert’s opinion not reliable
- § 7:47 — —Examples where opinion testimony is reliable
- § 7:48 —Whether expert opinion testimony is “relevant”
under Daubert
- § 7:49 — —Examples
- § 7:50 Exclusion of expert opinions
- § 7:51 —Special procedural issues involving expert
testimony
- § 7:52 — —Opposing summary judgment; affidavit of expert
- § 7:53 — — —Affidavits made in bad faith
- § 7:54 —Motion in limine
- § 7:55 Expert opinions as to specific issues
- § 7:56 —Business matters
- § 7:57 —Value of services
- § 7:58 —Value of real estate
- § 7:59 — —Examples
- § 7:60 —Accident investigation
- § 7:61 —Accident reconstruction
- § 7:62 — —Examples
- § 7:63 —Medical matters
- § 7:64 Expert opinions to specific issues—Medical matters—
Guidelines
- § 7:65 Expert opinions as to specific issues—Medical matters—Locality rule
- § 7:66 — —Qualifications
- § 7:67 — —Medical review panels
- § 7:68 — —Examples
- § 7:69 — —When expert testimony not needed
- § 7:70 —Child custody
- § 7:71 —Product liability
- § 7:72 — —Examples
- § 7:73 —Construction defects, repairs, and maintenance
- § 7:74 —Environmental issues
- § 7:75 —Earning capacity
- § 7:76 —Testamentary capacity
- § 7:77 Opinion on ultimate issue
- § 7:78 Foundation testimony for expert witnesses; voir dire examination
- § 7:79 —Qualification of an expert by experience or specialized knowledge and skill
- § 7:80 —Qualification of an expert by training or education
- § 7:81 —Subjects of voir dire examination
- § 7:82 —Qualification of medical expert
- § 7:83 — —Examples

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 7:84 The basis of opinion testimony
- § 7:85 —Types of information which an expert may use in reaching an opinion
- § 7:86 — —Examples of admissible evidence
- § 7:87 — —Examples of inadmissible evidence
- § 7:88 —The role of the court under La Code Evid Ann art 703
- § 7:89 —Foundation for expert’s use of inadmissible evidence under La Code Evid Ann art 703
- § 7:90 — —Examples of inadmissible evidence
- § 7:91 — — —Expert must establish that others in field rely on same facts or data
- § 7:92 — — —Underlying facts and data viewed as “reliable” among the expert’s peers
- § 7:93 — — —Expert reasonably relied on the underlying facts and data in forming opinion
- § 7:94 —Facts perceived by an expert
- § 7:95 —Facts made known to an expert before trial
- § 7:96 —Experiments and tests of expert
- § 7:97 —Opinions based upon opinions of other experts
- § 7:98 —Exclusion of inadmissible evidence under La Code Evid Ann art 703
- § 7:99 —Disclosure of the underlying facts and data during your expert’s direct examination
- § 7:100 Hypothetical questions
- § 7:101 Conducting the direct examination of an expert witness
- § 7:102 —Foundation for expert’s testimony
- § 7:103 —Elicit the expert’s opinion
- § 7:104 — —Timing of presenting expert’s opinion
- § 7:105 — —Procedure for eliciting expert’s opinion during direct examination
- § 7:106 — — —Your expert’s opinion
- § 7:107 — — —How your expert arrived at his or her opinion
- § 7:108 — — —Why your expert’s opinion should be accepted
- § 7:109 — — —What the trier of fact should conclude based on your expert’s opinion
- § 7:110 —Experiments, demonstration or models
- § 7:111 Conducting the cross-examination of an expert witness
- § 7:112 —General objectives
- § 7:113 — —Follow the basic rules of cross-examination
- § 7:114 — —Demonstrate the lack of qualifications and credibility of an adverse expert
- § 7:115 — —Try to prove a few simple “sure winners”

- § 7:116 — —Do not argue with the adverse expert
- § 7:117 — —Scope of cross-examination
- § 7:118 — —Attack the foundation of the adverse expert’s opinion
- § 7:119 — —Attack the opposing expert’s opinion
- § 7:120 — —Opinion changes where there are different facts
- § 7:121 — —Prior inconsistent statements
- § 7:122 — —Use of learned treatise in cross-examination of an adverse expert
- § 7:123 — —The financial interest of an adverse expert
- § 7:124 Court-appointed experts

III. CHECKLISTS

- § 7:125 Requirements and procedure for admission of lay opinion testimony
- § 7:126 Identification and education of expert witness
- § 7:127 Associations and affiliations of expert
- § 7:128 Expert’s specialty or subspecialty
- § 7:129 Products liability expert—Experience with comparable products
- § 7:130 —Preparation for testimony

IV. FORMS

- § 7:131 Motion in limine based on LCE article 704
- § 7:132 Motion in limine citing Evidence Rule 702
- § 7:133 Memorandums in support of and opposing motion in limine to exclude inflammatory testimony by expert witness
- § 7:134 Motion substitute expert witness based upon a medical necessity (personal injury case)

CHAPTER 8. HEARSAY

I. HEARSAY RULE AND DEFINITION OF HEARSAY

- § 8:1 The hearsay rule
- § 8:2 Hearsay is inadmissible
- § 8:3 —Hearsay within hearsay
- § 8:4 Definition of hearsay
- § 8:5 —Statement
- § 8:6 — —Oral or written assertion
- § 8:7 — —Nonverbal conduct as assertion
- § 8:8 —Witness not person who made statement
- § 8:9 —Offered to prove truth of matter asserted

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 8:10 — —Examples
- § 8:11 — —Not when offered for other purposes
- § 8:12 — —Examples
- § 8:13 — —Writings

II. STATEMENTS THAT ARE NOT HEARSAY

- § 8:14 General distinction between statements that are not hearsay and hearsay exceptions
- § 8:15 Overview
- § 8:16 — —Prior statements by witness
- § 8:17 — —Inconsistent former testimony
- § 8:18 — — —Application limited to criminal actions
- § 8:19 — —Consistent statements offered for rebuttal
- § 8:20 — —Prior identification
- § 8:21 — —Initial complaint of sexual assault
- § 8:22 — —Victim of sexually-oriented criminal offense to healthcare provider
- § 8:23 — —Admission used against party
- § 8:24 — —Statement adopted by party
- § 8:25 — —Statement by party's agent or employee
- § 8:26 — —Illustrations
- § 8:27 — —Statement by coconspirator
- § 8:28 — —Statement by someone primarily liable
- § 8:29 — —Examples
- § 8:30 — —Statement by someone through which a party claims a right or title
- § 8:31 — —Statement by decedent in wrongful death action
- § 8:32 — —Statement by child in action to recover damages for child's benefit
- § 8:33 — —Statements that speak for themselves

III. EXCEPTIONS TO THE HEARSAY RULE

- § 8:34 Overview
- § 8:35 Exceptions not dependent on declarant's unavailability
- § 8:36 — —Present sense impression
- § 8:37 — —Nature and purpose
- § 8:38 — —Spontaneous statement descriptive of event or condition
- § 8:39 — — —Examples that are not present sense impressions (803(1))
- § 8:40 — —Excited utterance
- § 8:41 — —Nature and purpose
- § 8:42 — —Startling event or condition

LOUISIANA CIVIL TRIAL PROCEDURE

- § 8:43 — —Time of statement
- § 8:44 — — —Implied requirement for spontaneity
- § 8:45 — —Examples
- § 8:46 — —Then existing mental, emotional, or physical condition
- § 8:47 — —Nature and purpose
- § 8:48 — —Conditions contemplated
- § 8:49 — —Not admissible to prove belief or memory
- § 8:50 — — —Wills exception
- § 8:51 — —Examples
- § 8:52 — —Statements for purposes of medical treatment and medical diagnosis in connection with treatment
- § 8:53 — —Nature and purpose
- § 8:54 — —Made for the purpose of treatment and diagnosis
- § 8:55 — —Recorded recollection
- § 8:56 — —Foundation
- § 8:57 — —Nature and purpose
- § 8:58 — —Exclusion from jury room
- § 8:59 — —Records of regularly conducted business activity
- § 8:60 — —Nature and purpose
- § 8:61 — —Foundation; custodian must testify
- § 8:62 — — —Custodian of records
- § 8:63 — — —Other qualified persons
- § 8:64 — —Information supplied by a person with actual knowledge
- § 8:65 — —Record made at or near the time of observation
- § 8:66 — —Record made in the regular course of business
- § 8:67 — —Regular practice to make record
- § 8:68 — —Trustworthiness
- § 8:69 — —Examples of documents not falling within business records exception
- § 8:70 — —Examples of documents falling within business records exception
- § 8:71 — —Absence of entry in records of regularly conducted business activity
- § 8:72 — —Purpose of evidence
- § 8:73 — —Public records and reports
- § 8:74 — —Nature of exception
- § 8:75 — — —Examples
- § 8:76 — —Exclusions
- § 8:77 — —Absence of public record or entry
- § 8:78 — —Nature of exception
- § 8:79 — —Vital statistics
- § 8:80 — —Original certificates
- § 8:81 — —Records of religious organizations

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 8:82 —Marriage, baptismal, and similar certificates
- § 8:83 —Family records
- § 8:84 —Reputation evidence
- § 8:85 —Judgments
- § 8:86 —Documents affecting an interest in property
- § 8:87 — —Statements in such documents
- § 8:88 —Ancient documents
- § 8:89 — —Statutory definition
- § 8:90 —Market reports, commercial publications
- § 8:91 —Learned treatises
- § 8:92 — —Contrast with federal rule
- § 8:93 —Reputation or judgments concerning boundaries
- § 8:94 —Reputation as to character
- § 8:95 —Previous conviction
- § 8:96 — —Nolo contendere plea excluded
- § 8:97 — —Criminal cases
- § 8:98 —Testimony about own age
- § 8:99 Certain exceptions require that the declarant not be available
- § 8:100 —Former testimony
- § 8:101 —Statement under belief of impending death
- § 8:102 — —Examples
- § 8:103 —Statement against interest
- § 8:104 —Statement of personal or family history
- § 8:105 — —Made before the controversy
- § 8:106 — —Statement by relative
- § 8:107 —Minor’s complaint of sexually assaultive behavior
- § 8:108 —Forfeiture by wrongdoing
- § 8:109 Other exceptions

CHAPTER 9. EXHIBITS

I. REAL AND DEMONSTRATIVE EVIDENCE

- § 9:1 Generally; definition
- § 9:2 The importance and use of demonstrative evidence
- § 9:3 —When to consider demonstrative evidence
- § 9:4 —Use of demonstrative evidence
- § 9:5 —Consideration for use
- § 9:6 —Cost of demonstrative evidence; less expensive alternatives
- § 9:7 — —Cameras, copy stands, and tripods

II. PLANNING FOR USE OF DEMONSTRATIVE EVIDENCE

- § 9:8 Consider physical layout of courtroom

- § 9:9 Consider local rules and customs
- § 9:10 Be organized
- § 9:11 —Options to consider
- § 9:12 — —A copy for each juror
- § 9:13 — —Commercial enlargements
- § 9:14 [Reserved]
- § 9:15 [Reserved]
- § 9:16 Be organized—Options to consider—Electronic projection
- § 9:17 — —Photographic reproductions

III. GENERAL RULES GOVERNING ADMISSION OF DEMONSTRATIVE EVIDENCE

- § 9:18 Procedure for admission of exhibit into evidence, generally; discretion of judge
- § 9:19 Marking of exhibits
- § 9:20 Stipulations of authenticity or admissibility
- § 9:21 Authenticity of the exhibit; standard applied by court
- § 9:22 —Introducing exhibit into evidence
- § 9:23 —Need to object
- § 9:24 Record of exhibits and retention of exhibits
- § 9:25 Examination of exhibits by jury
- § 9:26 Photographs, generally
- § 9:27 —Photographs of people and objects
- § 9:28 Video
- § 9:29 —Considerations for admissibility
- § 9:30 —Authentication
- § 9:31 —Situations where video admitted
- § 9:32 —Situations where video tapes not admitted
- § 9:33 —Execution of will
- § 9:34 —Day-in-life film
- § 9:35 —Surveillance films
- § 9:36 —Surgery
- § 9:37 —Injuries
- § 9:38 Demonstration of injuries
- § 9:39 —Where client is unable to attend trial
- § 9:40 Diagrams
- § 9:41 —Admissibility dependent on purpose of offer
- § 9:42 —Excluded where misleading
- § 9:43 —Examples
- § 9:44 Charts and summaries
- § 9:45 Demonstration and experiment
- § 9:46 —Considerations for admissions
- § 9:47 Models

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 9:48 Computer-generated exhibits
- § 9:49 —Examples where admitted
- § 9:50 Visit to the scene
- § 9:51 —Use of exhibits during opening statement and closing argument

IV. DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE

- § 9:52 Admissibility, generally
- § 9:53 —Relevance
- § 9:54 —Hearsay
- § 9:55 Authentication of documents and other evidence
- § 9:56 —Testimony of subscribing witness not necessary
- § 9:57 —Where authenticity contested
- § 9:58 —Manner of authentication
- § 9:59 Self authentication
- § 9:60 —Code of Evidence
- § 9:61 — —Official records or documents
- § 9:62 —Other statutes addressing admissibility
- § 9:63 — —Copies
- § 9:64 — —Certified documents
- § 9:65 Traffic tickets
- § 9:66 Texts and emails
- § 9:67 Social media evidence

V. NECESSITY OF INTRODUCTION OF THE ORIGINAL

- § 9:68 Introduction
- § 9:69 —Writings, recordings, and photographs defined
- § 9:70 — —Original defined
- § 9:71 — —Duplicate defined
- § 9:72 —Admissibility of duplicate under Article 1002
- § 9:73 —Admissibility of duplicate under Article 1004
- § 9:74 —Electronic duplicates
- § 9:75 —Business records
- § 9:76 —Hospital charts and medical records
- § 9:77 — —Examples
- § 9:78 —Blood alcohol concentration test results
- § 9:79 —Admission of contents by a party
- § 9:80 —Summaries
- § 9:81 Best evidence rule and insurance policies

VI. CHECKLIST

- § 9:82 Requirements and procedure for admission of demonstrative evidence

§ 9:83 Using technology

VII. FORM

§ 9:84 Business records

§ 9:85 Sample expert examination:

CHAPTER 10. OTHER TYPES OF EVIDENCE

I. JUDICIAL NOTICE

- § 10:1 Overview; adjudicative facts
- § 10:2 Facts not in dispute and generally known
- § 10:3 —Common knowledge
- § 10:4 — —Examples
- § 10:5 — —Capable of determination using standard sources
- § 10:6 —Legal malpractice
- § 10:7 —Discretionary or mandatory notice
- § 10:8 —Personal knowledge prohibited
- § 10:9 —Requesting that court take judicial notice
- § 10:10 — —Out of hearing of jury
- § 10:11 —Opportunity to be heard
- § 10:12 — —Request of party
- § 10:13 —Jury instruction
- § 10:14 Judicial notice of legal matters
- § 10:15 —Situations when mandatory
- § 10:16 — —Laws of the United States
- § 10:17 — —Laws of states and territories
- § 10:18 — —Local ordinances
- § 10:19 —No request required
- § 10:20 —Situations where not mandatory
- § 10:21 — —Need for request
- § 10:22 — — —Provide information to court
- § 10:23 — — —Court may inform itself
- § 10:24 — —Time for requesting
- § 10:25 — —Legal matters are questions for court
- § 10:26 — —Particular matters
- § 10:27 — — —Proclamations
- § 10:28 — — —Rules published in Louisiana Register
- § 10:29 — — —Ordinances
- § 10:30 — — —Published court rules
- § 10:31 — — —Rules of federal or state agencies
- § 10:32 — — —Foreign law
- § 10:33 — — —International or maritime law

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 10:34 —Proof of statutes, regulations, or decisions
- § 10:35 — —Federal records and documents
- § 10:36 — —States, territories, or foreign jurisdictions

II. VIEW BY JURY

- § 10:37 Availability
- § 10:38 Procedure
- § 10:39 —At court’s direction
- § 10:40 —No evidence presented during view
- § 10:41 —Trial to proceed though no view had
- § 10:42 Examples—Denial of request
- § 10:43 Expenses

III. STIPULATIONS

- § 10:44 When to use
- § 10:45 —Effect of stipulation on law and court
- § 10:46 —Stipulations as to evidentiary matters
- § 10:47 — —Illustrations
- § 10:48 Time when made
- § 10:49 Effect
- § 10:50 —Examples
- § 10:51 Method of presenting

IV. FORMS

- § 10:52 Motion and order for taking judicial notice
- § 10:53 Stipulation concerning maximum value of claim

CHAPTER 11. MOTIONS DURING TRIAL

I. IN GENERAL

- § 11:1 Motions during trial, generally
- § 11:2 —Procedure considerations
- § 11:3 —Necessity for writing
- § 11:4 — —Oral if made in open court
- § 11:5 —Content
- § 11:6 — —Relief desired

II. MOTIONS DIRECTED TO OR TESTING SUFFICIENCY OF EVIDENCE

- § 11:7 Generally
- § 11:8 Motions to strike evidence
- § 11:9 —Time for motion

LOUISIANA CIVIL TRIAL PROCEDURE

- § 11:10 —Form of motion
- § 11:11 Motion for dismissal
- § 11:12 —Plaintiff fails to appear
- § 11:13 — —Dismissal with or without prejudice
- § 11:14 —Prior to the presentation of evidence
- § 11:15 — —Ruling on motion prior to live testimony—
Summary judgment
- § 11:16 — —Requirements for motion
- § 11:17 — — —Facts undisputed
- § 11:18 — — —Law free from doubt
- § 11:19 — —Evidence
- § 11:20 — —Requirements for motion—No cause or right of action
- § 11:21 —After presentation of plaintiff’s evidence; involuntary dismissal
- § 11:22 — —Non-jury trial
- § 11:23 — —Standard for granting
- § 11:24 — —Effect of multiple parties
- § 11:25 — —Right to present defense evidence not waived
- § 11:26 — —Requirements for motion
- § 11:27 — —Who may move
- § 11:28 — — —Cross-claims, counter-claims, third-party claims
- § 11:29 — — —Sua sponte dismissal
- § 11:30 — —Time when made
- § 11:31 — —When trial judge must rule
- § 11:32 — —Granting of motion
- § 11:33 — — —No inference
- § 11:34 — — —Effect of uncontroverted evidence
- § 11:35 — — —Effect
- § 11:36 — — —Examples
- § 11:37 — —Denial of motion
- § 11:38 — — —Effect
- § 11:39 — — —Examples
- § 11:40 — —Appellate review
- § 11:41 Motion for directed verdict
- § 11:42 —In jury cases
- § 11:43 —Grounds
- § 11:44 — —Must be stated
- § 11:45 —Evaluations of credibility
- § 11:46 —Timing of motion
- § 11:47 [Reserved]
- § 11:48 Motion for directed verdict—Timing of motion—What constitutes close of evidence
- § 11:49 — —Right to present defense evidence not waived

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 11:50 —Not waiver of jury trial
- § 11:51 —Does not need jury’s assent
- § 11:52 —Must be specifically pled
- § 11:53 —Examples of motions properly granted
- § 11:54 — —Examples of motions not properly granted
- § 11:55 —Examples of motion properly denied
- § 11:56 —Appellate review

III. OTHER MOTIONS

- § 11:57 Motion to amend pleadings to conform with evidence
- § 11:58 —Issues tried by consent
- § 11:59 —Issues not objected to
- § 11:60 — —Evidence admissible for other purpose
- § 11:61 —Liberal amendment policy
- § 11:62 — —When objection made that evidence is not within issues pleaded
- § 11:63 —Formal motion to amend pleadings
- § 11:64 — —Any party
- § 11:65 — —Made any time
- § 11:66 — — —Motion after judgment
- § 11:67 —Effect of failure to make motion
- § 11:68 Mistrial
- § 11:69 —Basis for declaring
- § 11:70 — —Guidelines
- § 11:71 — — —Discharge of juror or jury
- § 11:72 — — —Conduct of trial
- § 11:73 — — —Deadlocked jury
- § 11:74 — — —Exposure to inadmissible evidence
- § 11:75 — — —Misconduct by judge, jury or parties
- § 11:76 — — —Improper questioning or statements by counsel
- § 11:77 — — —Ex parte communications
- § 11:78 — — —Misconduct curable by instruction or admonition
- § 11:79 —Procedure for requesting
- § 11:80 — —Guidelines for hearing and deciding motion
- § 11:81 —Policy considerations
- § 11:82 —Effect

IV. FORMS

- § 11:83 Motion—Directed verdict
- § 11:84 Motion and order for voluntary dismissal
- § 11:85 Motion for partial dismissal
- § 11:86 Motion for dismissal with prejudice

CHAPTER 12. CLOSING ARGUMENT

I. IN GENERAL

- § 12:1 Overview; purpose
- § 12:2 —Objectives
- § 12:3 —Culmination of trial
- § 12:4 —Summarize the evidence
- § 12:5 — —Strengths of client's case
- § 12:6 — —Rebut opponent's case
- § 12:7 — —Weaknesses of opponent's case
- § 12:8 — —Argue and influence case disposition

II. PSYCHOLOGY OF JUROR DECISION MAKING

- § 12:9 How juries make decisions
- § 12:10 —Decision making when uncertain
- § 12:11 —Discovering rules for uncertain situations
- § 12:12 — —Preexisting prototypes
- § 12:13 — —Heuristics
- § 12:14 — — —The availability heuristic
- § 12:15 — — —The representativeness heuristic
- § 12:16 —The severity effect, the fundamental attribution error, and the simulation heuristic
- § 12:17 — —Severity effect
- § 12:18 — —Fundamental attribution error
- § 12:19 — —Simulation heuristic
- § 12:20 Using the psychology of how jurors decide cases
- § 12:21 —Using narratives and prototypical stories
- § 12:22 —The severity effect
- § 12:23 —Using the fundamental attribution error
- § 12:24 —The simulation heuristic
- § 12:25 —Structuring the argument in lay terms; levels of argument
- § 12:26 — —Levels of argument
- § 12:27 — — —Fairness level
- § 12:28 — — —Factual level
- § 12:29 — — —Comfort zone level
- § 12:30 — —The facts and the law

III. PREPARATION

- § 12:31 In general
- § 12:32 —Review opening statements
- § 12:33 — —Party admissions
- § 12:34 — —Promises kept

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 12:35 — —Promises broken
- § 12:36 —Review pleadings
- § 12:37 —Review evidence
- § 12:38 —Review jury instructions
- § 12:39 —Remain flexible
- § 12:40 The draft
- § 12:41 —Practice of closing argument
- § 12:42 —The goal of preparation: Credibility with the jury
- § 12:43 —Know the jury; use the knowledge
- § 12:44 — —Identifying jury leaders
- § 12:45 — —Rapport with the jury

IV. PRESENTATION

- § 12:46 Sequence for presenting closing argument
- § 12:47 Delivering the closing argument
- § 12:48 —Position for delivery
- § 12:49 —Movement during delivery
- § 12:50 —Eye contact
- § 12:51 Presentation style
- § 12:52 —Principles of effective closing argument
- § 12:53 — —Building and maintaining credibility
- § 12:54 — —Identify and integrate a case theme
- § 12:55 — —Structure the argument to maximize persuasiveness
- § 12:56 — —Engage in a horizontal dialogue with the jury
- § 12:57 — —Employ the tools of argument
- § 12:58 — —Use demonstrative aids and exhibits
- § 12:59 — —Recognize the limits of your audience
- § 12:60 — —Adopt a persuasive style
- § 12:61 — —Display passion and conviction
- § 12:62 — —Take the rebuttal seriously
- § 12:63 —Visual aids
- § 12:64 —Mode and technique of speech, demeanor
- § 12:65 —Sincerity and candor
- § 12:66 Contents of the closing argument
- § 12:67 —Generally; latitude
- § 12:68 — —Statements regarding facts
- § 12:69 — —Counsel’s view of evidence
- § 12:70 — —Counsel’s conclusions from evidence
- § 12:71 — —Burden of proof
- § 12:72 — —Jury’s duties and obligations
- § 12:73 Organization of closing
- § 12:74 —Around jury instructions/legal issues
- § 12:75 —Around structure of trial/summary of evidence

- § 12:76 —Around the most crucial or most controverted evidence
- § 12:77 Conclusion

V. THE REPLY AND OBJECTIONS

- § 12:78 Generally
- § 12:79 The rebuttal
- § 12:80 Objections

VI. THE LAW GOVERNING CLOSING ARGUMENT

- § 12:81 In general
- § 12:82 Courts grant wide latitude to closing argument
- § 12:83 —Appeals to prejudice
- § 12:84 —Appeals to emotion
- § 12:85 —Examples
- § 12:86 — —Improper remarks
- § 12:87 — —Proper remarks
- § 12:88 Closing argument not a substitute for evidence

VII. CONCLUSION

- § 12:89 A note of caution

VIII. CHECKLISTS

- § 12:90 Contents of the closing argument
- § 12:91 Grounds for objecting during closing argument
- § 12:92 Additional resources

CHAPTER 13. FINAL STAGES OF TRIAL AND ENTRY OF JUDGMENT

I. JURY TRIAL, GENERALLY

- § 13:1 Province of judge and jury
- § 13:2 —Comment by judge
- § 13:3 — —Effect on jury verdict
- § 13:4 — —Objection to relevance
- § 13:5 — —Charging jury
- § 13:6 Right to trial by jury
- § 13:7 —Statutes limiting general right to jury trial
- § 13:8 Directed verdicts
- § 13:9 —Analyzing weight and character of evidence
- § 13:10 —Credibility of witnesses

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 13:11 —Involuntary dismissals
- § 13:12 — —Examples

II. JURY INSTRUCTIONS

- § 13:13 Definition
- § 13:14 Purpose of jury instructions
- § 13:15 —When given
- § 13:16 — —Standard for reviewing instructions
- § 13:17 — — —Examples
- § 13:18 General versus specific jury instructions
- § 13:19 Limiting number of instructions
- § 13:20 The charge conference
- § 13:21 Objection to instructions
- § 13:22 Court’s duty to inform parties
- § 13:23 —Special instructions
- § 13:24 Burden of proof
- § 13:25 —Examples—Personal injury cases
- § 13:26 Evidence—Spoliation
- § 13:27 —Adverse presumption
- § 13:28 Negligence—Reasonableness
- § 13:29 Negligence—Duty
- § 13:30 Negligence—Reasonableness—Causation
- § 13:31 —Apparent authority
- § 13:32 —Independent contractor or third party fault
- § 13:33 — —Imputing negligence
- § 13:34 — —Sudden emergency doctrine
- § 13:35 —Comparative fault
- § 13:36 Negligence—Standard of care
- § 13:37 —Loss of chance of survival
- § 13:38 —Alcohol-related vehicular accidents
- § 13:39 Force-of-impact instruction
- § 13:40 Res ipsa loquitur
- § 13:41 —Examples
- § 13:42 Sophisticated user
- § 13:43 Slip and fall
- § 13:44 Intentional infliction of emotions distress instructions
- § 13:45 Wrongful death
- § 13:46 Medical malpractice cases
- § 13:47 —Examples
- § 13:48 Breach of contract
- § 13:49 Damages
- § 13:50 —Presumption that disability resulted from the accident
- § 13:51 —Settlements

III. VERDICT FORMS

- § 13:52 Form of verdict: Special or general
- § 13:53 —General verdict form submitted with interrogatories
- § 13:54 — —Purpose of interrogatories
- § 13:55 —General verdict inconsistent with answers to interrogatories
- § 13:56 Special verdict
- § 13:57 —Issues omitted from the special verdict form
- § 13:58 — —Special verdicts in personal injury cases
- § 13:59 —Objections to verdict forms/interrogatories
- § 13:60 —Importance of substantive laws
- § 13:61 —Examples—Insufficient forms
- § 13:62 — — —Burden of proof
- § 13:63 —Examples—Sufficient forms/interrogatories
- § 13:64 Special Verdict—Examples where not required
- § 13:65 Sample special interrogatories—Negligence—Trip or slip and fall
- § 13:66 — —Vehicular accident
- § 13:67 —Medical malpractice—In connection with treatment for cancer
- § 13:68 — —Neonatology care

IV. JURY TRIALS

- § 13:69 Number of jurors; alternate jurors
- § 13:70 —Discharge of alternate jurors
- § 13:71 — —Effect of alternate juror’s presence during deliberations
- § 13:72 Selection of foreperson
- § 13:73 Deliberations—In general
- § 13:74 Evidence taken into deliberation room
- § 13:75 —Discretion of judge
- § 13:76 —Examples
- § 13:77 —Recorded recollections excepted
- § 13:78 Jury requests to review evidence
- § 13:79 —Examples
- § 13:80 Additional instructions requested by jury
- § 13:81 Questions by jury
- § 13:82 —Objections to
- § 13:83 Deadlocked jury

V. RETURN OF THE VERDICT

- § 13:84 Number of jurors required for verdict

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 13:85 Internal inconsistency of jury verdict
- § 13:86 Polling the jury
- § 13:87 —Procedure
- § 13:88 —Irregularities in procedure
- § 13:89 —Rendition and reception
- § 13:90 Jury misconduct—New trial

VI. ENTRY OF JUDGMENT

- § 13:91 Generally
- § 13:92 Judgment defined
- § 13:93 —Difference between final and interlocutory
- § 13:94 — —Importance of classification
- § 13:95 Form of final judgment
- § 13:96 —Examples
- § 13:97 Reasons for judgment
- § 13:98 —Requirement of separate opinion
- § 13:99 —Apparent conflict of judgment with assigned reasons
- § 13:100 —Procedure
- § 13:101 —Examples
- § 13:102 Signing of judgments
- § 13:103 —Place of signing judgment
- § 13:104 —Notice of signing judgment
- § 13:105 — —Request for written notice
- § 13:106 — — —Effect on appeals and new trials
- § 13:107 — —Waiver of notice of signing judgment
- § 13:108 Partial judgments
- § 13:109 —Criteria for granting
- § 13:110 —Effect on remaining issues
- § 13:111 —Examples
- § 13:112 Signing of a judgment by the court
- § 13:113 Medical malpractice cases

VII. AMENDMENT TO JUDGMENT

- § 13:114 Generally
- § 13:115 —Substantive error
- § 13:116 — —Example of substantive changes
- § 13:117 — —Example of nonsubstantive changes
- § 13:118 Generally amendment to conform judgment

VIII. COURT COSTS

- § 13:119 Generally
- § 13:120 —Determining amount

- § 13:121 —Discretionary with court
- § 13:122 —Examples of no abuse of discretion
- § 13:123 —Examples of abuse of discretion
- § 13:124 —Application
- § 13:125 —Sufficiency of evidence
- § 13:126 Type of costs recoverable
- § 13:127 —Attorneys' fees
- § 13:128 — —Limited to reasonable fee
- § 13:129 — — —Factors in determining reasonableness
- § 13:130 — —Evidence
- § 13:131 — —Examples
- § 13:132 —Expert witness fees
- § 13:133 — —Determining amount
- § 13:134 — — —Discretion of court
- § 13:135 Copy costs
- § 13:136 Generally—Offer of judgment
- § 13:137 Interest on judgments
- § 13:138 —Delictual obligations
- § 13:139 —Calculation of rates

IX. NEW TRIAL VERSUS REMITTITUR OR ADDITUR

- § 13:140 Generally
- § 13:141 —Reason for request
- § 13:142 —When additur or remittitur appropriate
- § 13:143 — —Consent of other party

X. CHECKLIST

- § 13:144 Basic requirements for a valid judgment

XI. FORMS

- § 13:145 General verdict jury form with written interrogatories
- § 13:146 Jury interrogatories—Trade Secrets Act/Unfair Trade Practices Act
- § 13:147 —Cause of action alleging violation of New Home Warranty Act
- § 13:148 —Cause of action in connection with residential renovations alleging breach of contract, unfair trade practices, negligence, and conversion
- § 13:149 —Vehicle accident—Failure to yield when entering from private road
- § 13:150 Sample special interrogatories—Medical malpractice—Hip replacement

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 13:151 —Whistleblower action in connection with violation of Louisiana environmental law
- § 13:152 Judgment—Bench Trial
- § 13:153 —Jury Trial
- § 13:154 Request for written notice
- § 13:155 Special verdict jury form
- § 13:156 Special jury verdict form—Products liability case
- § 13:157 —Negligent placement of IV needle in connection with surgery
- § 13:158 Sample jury instructions—Subrogation
- § 13:159 —Conflict in testimony
- § 13:160 —Actions against utility company—Defects in wiring system
- § 13:161 — —Duty
- § 13:162 — —Compliance with safety codes
- § 13:163 —Breach of oral employment contract
- § 13:164 —Damages—Use and enjoyment
- § 13:165 —Medical malpractice
- § 13:166 —Product liability—Truck
- § 13:167 Costs—Memorandum in support of motion to tax costs
- § 13:168 —Memorandum in opposition to motion to tax costs

CHAPTER 14. POST-TRIAL MOTIONS

I. MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL

- § 14:1 Function of motion
- § 14:2 —Standard used in granting or denying motion for new trial
- § 14:3 Basis of motion
- § 14:4 —Peremptory grounds
- § 14:5 —Judgment clearly contrary to law and evidence
- § 14:6 — —Distinguished from a motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict (JNOV)
- § 14:7 —Discovery of new evidence
- § 14:8 — —Due diligence
- § 14:9 — —Must have existed at the time of trial
- § 14:10 — —Newly discovered evidence must be material
- § 14:11 [Reserved]
- § 14:12 Basis of motion—Discovery of new evidence—Newly discovered evidence must be material—Newly discovered evidence not sufficient to warrant new trial
- § 14:13 — — —Newly discovered evidence sufficient to warrant new trial

- § 14:14 —Jury misconduct
- § 14:15 —Discretionary grounds
- § 14:16 — —What constitutes good grounds
- § 14:17 — — —Jury instructions
- § 14:18 — — —Improper admission of evidence
- § 14:19 — —Insufficient grounds
- § 14:20 Scope of motion
- § 14:21 Remittitur or additur as alternative to new trial
- § 14:22 —What is excessive or inadequate
- § 14:23 —Only if damages issue is separable
- § 14:24 —Need for party’s consent
- § 14:25 Motion
- § 14:26 —Time for filing of motion
- § 14:27 —Affidavits
- § 14:28 —Hearing and argument
- § 14:29 —Time limit for judge to determine motion
- § 14:30 —Determination; review
- § 14:31 Procedure in new trial
- § 14:32 —Jury trial
- § 14:33 —Effect on appeal of original judgment
- § 14:34 —Effect on non-moving parties
- § 14:35 Motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict (JNOV)
- § 14:36 —Basis of motion
- § 14:37 —Determination
- § 14:38 —Personal injury action
- § 14:39 — —Examples of
- § 14:40 —Medical malpractice actions—Examples
- § 14:41 —Appellate review

A. MOTION TO RECONSIDER

- § 14:42 Generally

II. MOTION TO SUPPLEMENT RECORD

- § 14:43 Generally
- § 14:44 —Examples

III. MOTION TO AMEND A JUDGMENT

- § 14:45 Nature of procedure
- § 14:46 Basis of motion
- § 14:47 —Altering phraseology
- § 14:48 —Errors of calculation
- § 14:49 — —Examples

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 14:50 —Substantive vs. phraseology or calculation
- § 14:51 When judgment may be amended
- § 14:52 —Notice
- § 14:53 —On its own motion or on motion of any party
- § 14:54 Motion
- § 14:55 —Court
- § 14:56 —Party
- § 14:57 —Notice
- § 14:58 —Instances where court improperly amended judgment

IV. ACTION OF NULLITY OF JUDGMENT

- § 14:59 Function
- § 14:60 Grounds
- § 14:61 —Lack of jurisdiction over defendant
- § 14:62 —Lack of subject matter jurisdiction
- § 14:63 —Incompetent person not represented
- § 14:64 —Fraud, ill practices
- § 14:65 — —Showing required
- § 14:66 — — —Disputes between counsel
- § 14:67 — — —Issues of notice
- § 14:68 — — —Judicial discretion
- § 14:69 — —Examples where annulment proper
- § 14:70 — —Examples where annulment not proper
- § 14:71 Comparison to Fed. R. Civ. P 60(b) motion for relief from judgment
- § 14:72 Procedure
- § 14:73 —Proper court
- § 14:74 —Time
- § 14:75 — —Vices of form, any time
- § 14:76 — — —Acquiescence
- § 14:77 — —Fraud or ill practices; limitation period
- § 14:78 — — —Discovery rule
- § 14:79 —Who may bring
- § 14:80 —Waiver
- § 14:81 —Effect pending appeal
- § 14:82 — —Grounds if appellate court rendered judgment
- § 14:83 —Effect of motion on right to appeal

V. CHECKLISTS

- § 14:84 Requirements for motion for new trial
- § 14:85 Requirements for JNOV
- § 14:86 Requirements for motion to amend judgment

VI. FORMS

- § 14:87 Motion to amend judgment
- § 14:88 Petition for nullity
- § 14:89 Motion for a new trial
- § 14:90 Motion for new trial—Alternatively remittitur
- § 14:91 Motion for new trial or alternatively to amend judgment on issue of costs
- § 14:92 Motion to vacate judgment of directed verdict or in alternative for new trial with memorandum and affidavit
- § 14:93 Motion for Reconsideration of Summary Denial of Rule for Partial New Trial
- § 14:94 Plaintiffs' motion for partial judgment notwithstanding the verdict on damages only
- § 14:95 Plaintiffs' Motion for Partial Judgment Notwithstanding the Verdict on Damages Only, or, in the Alternative, Motion for Partial New Trial On Damages Only and Incorporated Memorandum in Support (mesothelioma litigation)

Table of Laws and Rules

Table of Cases

Index