Release No. 2022-3, August 2022

Publisher's Special Release Note 2021

The pages in this work were reissued in December 2021 and updated to reflect that date in the release line. Please note that we did not review the content on every page of this work in the December 2021 release. We will continue to review and update the content according to the work's publication schedule. This will ensure that subscribers are reading commentary that incorporates developments in the law as soon as possible after they have happened or as the author deems them significant.

Changes to chapter and heading numbering may have occurred. Please refer to the Correlation Table in the front matter if you wish to confirm references.

This publisher's note may be scanned electronically and photocopied for the purpose of circulating copies within your organization.

This publication provides comprehensive, invaluable information relating to transactions and agreements that technology-oriented companies enter into throughout their life cycle. Each chapter includes a discussion on the law that is relevant to negotiating and drafting particular types of agreements, and practical suggestions for drafting and negotiating clauses and provisions within the agreements. The publication includes key contracts and transactions that are of interest to technology-oriented companies.

This release features updates to the appendices in Chapter 11. IT Outsourcing. This release also features updates to the Table of Concordance in Appendix 13I. Electronic Commerce Statutes.

Highlights

- IT Outsourcing—Appendix 11F—B-10 Guidelines: Outsourcing of Business Activities, Functions and Processes—The Office of the Superintendent of Financial Institutions has published these Guidelines to help federally regulated entities understand the Office's expectations with respect to outsourcing business activities.
- IT Outsourcing—Appendix 11G—Draft Guidelines B-13: Technology and Cyber Risk Management—The Office of the Superintendent of Financial Institutions has released Guidelines applicable to all federal regulated financial institutions that set out the Office's expectations with respect to cyber risk management.
- IT Outsourcing—Appendix 11H—Memorandum Cyber Security Self-assessment—The Office of the Superintendent of Financial Institutions released this Cyber Security Self-Assessment to assist organizations in Canada, including federally regulated financial institutions, to assess their current position with respect to cyber-security, and to help develop better practices and policies. The Cyber-Security Risk Assessment identifies twenty risk assessment categories, and ninety control statements against which organizations can measure their cyber-security status and progress.
