Publisher's Note

An Update has Arrived in Your Library for:

Please circulate this notice to anyone in your office who may be interested in this publication. Distribution List
☐
☐
☐
☐

ENFORCEMENT OF FAMILY LAW ORDERS AND AGREEMENTS: LAW AND PRACTICE Wilton & Miyauchi Release No. 3, July 2024

This practice-oriented manual details the full range of family law enforcement remedies available under federal and provincial legislation. The work is divided into three parts: Support, Custody Orders and Separation Agreements. Under each part, available enforcement remedies are described in detail with an emphasis on practice and procedure points. The full text of all relevant federal, provincial and territorial enforcement legislation is included.

What's New in this Update

This release features updates to the following Issues in Focus.

Commentary:

- § IF:1. Can a domestic contract be deemed void and unenforceable because the parties' signatures are not witnessed?
- § IF:5. Does a 3-month period of separation followed by a period of reconciliation have the effect of terminating a cohabitation agreement such that it no longer applies to post-reconciliation events?
- § IF:6. Can the parties to a family law dispute bring civil actions against one another for breach of fiduciary duty and interference with access?
- § IF:7. How can a separation agreement be enforced?

ProView Developments
Your ProView edition of this product now has a new, modified layout:

- The opening page is now the title page of the book as you would see in the print work
- As with the print product, the front matter is in a different order than previously displayed
- The Table of Cases and Index are now in PDF with no searching and linking
- The Table of Contents now has internal links to every chapter and section of the book within ProView
- Images are generally greyscale and size is now adjustable
- Footnote text only appears in ProView-generated PDFs of entire sections and pages