

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE 2025 SUPPLEMENT

- Up-to-date history of the Minnesota Rules of Evidence.
- Discussion of the future of Crawford analysis following the U.S. Supreme Court's decision in Arizona v. Smith.
- Recent decisions from the Minnesota Supreme Court regarding harmless error analysis, evidentiary presumptions, withdrawal of guilty pleas, attorney-client privilege, impeachment of verdict, impeachment by character evidence, expert testimony, and hearsay.
- Recent Court of Appeals decisions addressing withdrawal of guilty pleas, physician-patient privilege, the newsgatherers' privilege, personal knowledge, expert testimony, and hearsay
- New Federal Rule of Evidence 107 regarding the use of illustrative aids.