PARENTING LAW AND PRACTICE IN CANADA

Ann Wilton

Release No. 6, November 2024

Parenting Law and Practice in Canada guides the practitioner through all aspects of law and practice related to custody and access in Canada, including the impact of the changes to the Divorce Act. The expert commentary covers the stages of a custody access proceeding including interim proceedings, and decisions on the merits, enforcement, variation, and appeals. This work examines the substantive and procedural law as well as negotiation, tactical, and advocacy skills. Alternative dispute resolution methods are considered, as are other topics of current interest such as the expansion of access rights, including access for grandparents, child representation, mobility rights, and the effect of religion upon custody and access.
