

Table of Contents

Preface	iii
Table of Cases	xi
 Chapter 1
Sources of Canadian Criminal Law	1
1. Introduction	1
2. The Reception of English Law	2
3. Criminal Law under the Constitution Act, 1867	3
4. Federal Offences	7
5. Federal Power to Create Crimes	10
6. Provincial Offences	14
7. Criminal Law under the Charter	18
8. The Common Law	22
9. Principles, Policies and Statutory Interpretation	24
10. Summary	28
 Chapter 2
Criminal Justice and Criminal Culpability	31
1. The Justification of Punishment	31
(a) The Aims of Punishment	31
(b) Limiting Principles	35
2. The Framework of Criminal Culpability	37
(a) The Relationship between Criminal Culpability and Penal Liability	37
(b) Common Law Principles and Constitutional Principles	39
3. Principles of Prohibition	42
(a) The “Harm” Principle	42
(b) The “Active Conduct” Principle	44
4. Principles of Fault	45
(a) The “Fault” Principle	45
(b) The “Fair Warning” Principle	47
(c) The “Contemporaneity” Principle	49
(d) The “Voluntariness” Principle	50
(e) The “Cognitive Capacity” Principle	51
(f) The “Moral Voluntariness” Principle	53
5. Principles of Proportionality	54
(a) The “Proportionality” Principle	54
(b) The “Symmetry” Principle (and the Predicate Offence” Principle)	56
(c) The “Subjectivity” Principle	59
(d) The “Criminal Negligence” Principle	62

6.	Principles of Equality	64
7.	Principles of Proof	69
	(a) The “Innocence” Principle	69
	(b) The “ Mens Rea ” Principle	71
	(c) The “Strict Liability” Principle	72
8.	Summary	73
Chapter 3	Elements of an Offence	79
1.	Proving an Offence	79
	(a) Persuasive and Evidentiary Burdens	79
	(b) Reverse Onuses and the Charter	82
2.	Actus Reus and Mens Rea	88
	(a) Actus Reus	89
	(b) Mens Rea	90
	(c) Presumption of Mens Rea	94
	(d) Subjective Mens Rea and Objective Mens Rea	96
	(e) Levels of Fault and the Charter	101
	(f) Proof of Subjective Mental States	104
3.	The Structure of Mens Rea Offences	109
	(a) Partial and Ulterior Mens Rea	109
	(b) Partial Mens Rea and the Charter	113
4.	Strict and Absolute Liability	116
	(a) The Classification of Offences	116
	(b) Strict Liability, Absolute Liability and the Charter	118
5.	Capacity to Commit Offences	121
	(a) Legal and Factual Capacity	121
	(b) Children	121
	(c) Organizations	122
6.	Summary	130
Chapter 4	Actus Reus	135
1.	The Determination of the Actus Reus	135
2.	Principles and Agents	138
3.	Acts and Omissions	139
	(a) Liability for Omissions	140
	(b) Duty to Act	141
	(c) Breach of a Duty to Act	146
	(d) The Problem of Classification	149
4.	Conduct and its Consequences	151
	(a) Causal Connection	152
	(b) The Threshold of Causal Responsibility	156

	(c) Novus Actus Interveniens	161
5.	Acts, Continuing Acts and Transactions	166
6.	The Mental Element in the Actus Reus	168
7.	De Minimis	171
8.	Summary	175
Chapter 5	Mens Rea	179
1.	Subjectivist and Objectivist Conceptions of Mens Rea	179
2.	Intention and Related Concepts	180
	(a) The Meaning of Intention	180
	(b) Intention as a Requirement	182
	(c) Intention as Purpose	187
	(d) Purpose and Motive	192
	(e) Intention as Knowledge or Foresight: Wilful Blindness	193
	(f) Specific and General Intent: An Example of Conceptual Confusion	196
3.	Recklessness and Related Concepts	197
	(a) The Orthodox Conception	198
	(b) Recklessness and Wilful Blindness	203
4.	Negligence and Related Concepts	211
	(a) The Elements of Negligence	211
	(b) Section 219(1) of the Criminal Code	215
	(c) Flexibility in Objective Standards	219
5.	Mens Rea and Mistake of Fact	222
	(a) General Principles	222
	(b) The “Air of Reality” Test	223
6.	Mens Rea and Mistake of Law	226
	(a) General Principles	226
	(b) Distinguishing Mistakes of Fact and Mistakes of Law	229
	(c) Mens Rea and Section 19	232
7.	Transferred and Substituted Mens Rea	241
	(a) Transferred Mens Rea	241
	(b) Substituted Mens Rea	242
8.	Summary	245
Chapter 6	Strict and Absolute Liability	249
1.	The Distinction between True Crimes and Regulatory/Public Welfare Offences	250
	(a) The General Framework	250
	(b) The Process of Judicial Classification	256

2.	Issues of Statutory Interpretation.....	262
3.	Strict Liability.....	266
	(a) Strict Liability and Due Diligence.....	266
	(b) Strict Liability and the Charter	267
4.	Absolute Liability.....	273
5.	Defences to Strict and Absolute Liability
	Offences.....	278
6.	Summary.....	281
Chapter 7	Justifications and Excuses	285
1.	Justification, Excuse and Culpability	286
	(a) The Range of Justifying and Excusing
	Defences	286
	(b) Evidentiary and Persuasive Burdens	290
	(c) Actus Reus, Mens Rea and the Special
	Defences	291
	(d) The Models of Permission and Impairment....	294
	(e) Mistakes.....	299
	(f) The Distinction between Justification and
	Excuse	302
2.	Defence of the Person	306
	(a) Introduction	306
	(b) Self-defence.....	308
	(c) Prevention of Assault and Crime.....	317
	(d) Excessive Force.....	320
	(e) General Issues.....	322
3.	Defence of Property	323
	(a) Introduction	323
	(b) Defence of Movable Property	324
	(c) Defence of Real Property	326
	(d) General Issues.....	328
4.	Correction of Children.....	329
5.	Duress	335
	(a) Section 17 of the Code	335
	(b) Ruzic and the Constitutionality of Section
	17.....	339
	(c) The Code and the Common Law	343
	(d) Mens Rea and the Excusing Defence	348
6.	Necessity.....	351
	(a) Necessity as a Common Law Defence	352
	(b) Limitations on the Defence	357
7.	Impossibility.....	367
8.	Provocation	371

	(a) The Elements of Provocation.....	372
	(b) The Objective Test.....	378
9.	Mistake of Law as an Excuse	387
	(a) Inaccessibility	389
	(b) Vagueness and Overbreadth	391
	(c) Officially Induced Error.....	397
10.	Abuse of Process	403
	(a) Procedural Defences and Stays of Proceedings	404
	(b) Entrapment	407
11.	Summary.....	413
Chapter 8	Deficient Mental Capacity	425
1.	Mental Capacity and Criminal Liability	425
2.	Mental Disorder	427
	(a) Fitness to Stand Trial	427
	(b) Introductory Overview of the Mental Disorder Defence.....	429
	(c) Dispositional Options and Procedures.....	430
	(d) Effect of a Mental Disorder that does not Amount to a Section 16 Defence	433
	(e) The Nature of Mental Disorder Defences	435
	(f) The Persuasive Burden	439
	(g) Disease of the Mind: An Introductory Overview	441
	(h) Internal and External Factors	444
	(i) Policy Concerns	449
	(j) Appreciating the Nature and Quality of Conduct	456
	(k) Knowing that Conduct is Wrong	462
3.	Intoxication	467
	(a) The Role of the Intoxication Defence	467
	(b) Distinguishing “Specific” and “General” Intent: The Precedents	469
	(c) The Evolution of the Common Law “ General Intent” Intoxication Rules	473
	(d) Problematic Aspects of Daviault	482
	(e) Legislative Developments Pertaining to General Intent Offences	483
	(f) Involuntary Intoxication	484
	(g) The Evolution of the Common Law “Specific Intent” Intoxication Rules	486

	(h) Distinguishing “Specific” and “General” Intent: Historical and Theoretical Analyses....	488
	(i) The Constitutionality of Section 33.1.....	498
4.	Automatism.....	501
	(a) The Nature of Automatism.....	501
	(b) Evidential and Persuasive Burdens of Proof...	505
5.	Summary.....	512
Chapter 9	Inchoate Liability	519
1.	The Structure of Inchoate Liability.....	520
	(a) Forms of Inchoate Liability	520
	(b) Merger of Inchoate and Substantive Liability	523
	(c) Combining Inchoate Liability	523
2.	Attempts	526
	(a) Mens Rea	526
	(b) Actus Reus	530
3.	Conspiracy	536
	(a) The Nature of Conspiratorial Liability	536
	(b) Parties to a Conspiracy	539
	(c) The Mental Element in Conspiring.....	541
4.	General Defences to Inchoate Liability	545
	(a) The Question of Abandonment	545
	(b) The Question of Impossibility.....	546
5.	Summary.....	551
Chapter 10	Secondary Liability	553
1.	The Rejection of Vicarious Liability.....	554
2.	The Structure of Secondary Liability	556
	(a) Forms of Secondary Liability	556
	(b) Charges and Verdicts	559
	(c) The Relative Independence of Secondary Liability	560
3.	Aiding and Abetting.....	563
	(a) Actus Reus	563
	(b) Mens Rea	568
4.	Counselling	572
	(a) Actus Reus	572
	(b) Mens Rea	573
5.	Extended Secondary Liability.....	574
	(a) Actus Reus	574
	(b) Mens Rea	575
6.	Accessoryship after the Fact.....	578

Table of Contents xi

7.	The Defence of Abandonment	579
8.	Summary.....	581

