

Introduction to the 2025 Edition

The Bankruptcy Practice for the General Practitioner 2025 update contains replacement Volumes 1 and 2. For ease of handling, the materials in this shipment may ship in more than one box.

Bankruptcy Practice for the General Practitioner is updated annually. Subscribers will receive annual replacement softbound volumes with revised content.

Shelving Instructions

REMOVE and RECYCLE the 2024 Volumes 1 and 2.

REPLACE the removed volumes on your shelf with the new 2025 Volumes 1 and 2.

As is the case every year, the 2025 Edition contains a large volume of new case law citations on various issues concerning consumer and business bankruptcy decided by bankruptcy courts, district courts, bankruptcy appellate panels, circuit courts, and the United States Supreme Court throughout 2024 and the beginning of 2025.

Bankruptcy Practice for the General Practitioner has been a practical resource on the fundamentals of bankruptcy law for over thirty-five years. It continues to offer a comprehensive, yet easily understood framework for both lawyers new to bankruptcy law and seasoned professionals.

Thank you for subscribing to Bankruptcy Practice for the General Practitioner. We consider it an honor and a privilege to keep you updated on new developments in bankruptcy law.