

Table of Contents

Preface and Acknowledgments	v
Acknowledgments to the 2005 edition	vii
Table of Cases	xxiii
Chapter 1 The Organizing Principles of Search and Seizure Law in Canada	1
1. Introduction: The Warrant Presumption and Its Significance	1
(a) The Central Role of Judicial Pre-Authorization	1
(b) Asking the Right Question: “What Is My Legal Authority?”	6
2. How Courts Analyze Search Problems	6
(a) Introduction	6
(b) Expectations of Privacy: Is There a Search or Seizure?	7
(i) Introduction	7
(ii) Anyone’s Reasonable Expectation of Privacy Engages Section 8	7
(iii) Factors Determining Whether a Reasonable Expectation of Privacy Exists.	9
(iv) Pure “Informational Searches”	15
(c) Examples of When a Reasonable Expectation of Privacy Does (and Does Not) Exist	21
(i) Cases Finding a Reasonable Expectation of Privacy Does Exist	21
(ii) Cases Finding a Reasonable Expectation of Privacy, But a Reduced One.	27
(iii) Cases Finding No Expectation of Privacy	29
(d) Did the Police Activity in Question Interfere with the Reasonable Expectation of Privacy?	36
3. “Reasonableness” of a Search.	39
(a) Was the Search Authorized by Law?	39
(b) Is the Law Reasonable?	40
(c) Was the Search Executed in a Reasonable Manner?.	41
4. Regulatory Searches	42
5. Meaningful Judicial Pre-Authorization.	43
6. Remedies for Constitutional Breaches: Charter Section 24(2)	43

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Chapter 2	The Roles and Responsibilities of Participants in the Warrant Process: Understanding the Nature of Judicial Pre-Authorization	45
1.	The Constitutional Standards: Hunter v. Southam Inc.	45
2.	The Role of the Issuing Justice.	46
	a. The Nature of Judicial Review of Warrant Applications.	46
	b. The Constitutional Standard	48
	c. Practical Implications of the “Neutrality” Requirement	50
	d. Dealing with Possible Constitutional Violations Apparent in the Warrant Application.	55
	e. Systemic or Institutional Independence.	58
	f. Signature	59
3.	The Roles of the Police Investigator and Crown Counsel	59
	(a) Introduction	59
	(b) Role of the Police.	60
	(i) Division of Labour	60
	(ii) Duty to Make Full, Frank and Fair Disclosure to the Judicial Officer	61
	(iii) Duty to Present the Information to Obtain in a Comprehensible Form	65
	(iv) Draft Warrant or Order	66
	(v) Duty to Preserve Source Materials and Draft ITOs	67
	(c) Crown Counsel’s Function in Warrant Applications.	67
	(d) When Should the Crown Be Brought In?	68
	(e) Who to Call.	70
	(i) Inquiries Arising in a Particular Investigation	71
	(ii) General Policy or Procedure	71
	(iii) Where No Identified Charging Jurisdiction	71
	(iv) No “Crown Shopping”	72
4.	The Role of the Reviewing Court	72
	(a) Review of Issued Warrants	72
	(b) Review of a Refusal to Issue a Warrant	77
Chapter 3	Understanding Warrant Provisions: The Conventional Warrant — Section 487	81
1.	Preconditions to Issuance and Scope of Authority	81
	(a) Preconditions	81

TABLE OF CONTENTS

(b) Scope of Authority 83

2. Common Language and Its Meaning 83

(a) Introduction 83

(b) “Satisfied by Information on Oath” 85

(i) Introduction 85

(ii) The Requirement for Sourcing 86

(iii) Use of Hearsay: Information from Other Investigators and
“Police Investigation Has Revealed” 86

(iv) Privileged Informers and Tipsters 89

(v) Expert Evidence. 90

(vi) Criminal Records 90

(vii) Profiles of Possible Targets. 91

(viii) Eyewitness Identification 93

(c) “Information on Oath in Writing”: The Form and the Four Corners
Rule 93

(d) “Reasonable Grounds to Believe” 95

(e) “Reasonable Grounds to Suspect” 99

(f) “That There Is” (the Present Tense Requirement). 102

(g) “Anything That Will Afford Evidence” 103

(h) “Information Concerning the Offence” 105

3. Ex Parte Nature of the Application 106

4. Which Judicial Officer Is Authorized to Issue?. 107

(a) Generally 107

(b) Ancillary Orders. 108

(c) Table of Judicial Officers 109

5. Before Whom Does the Affiant Swear the “Information”?. 110

6. Judicial Protocols 112

7. To Whom Is the Warrant Directed? 113

8. Amending, Extending, or Modifying Warrants after Issuance. 114

Chapter 4 General Drafting Approaches. 115

1. Introduction 115

2. Empirical Data on Warrant Drafting 115

3. Falsehoods in an Information to Obtain. 120

4. Using Precedents. 121

TABLE OF CONTENTS

5. Avoiding Archaic or Legalistic Language	124
6. Avoiding the Passive Voice	124
7. Write (or Read) to the Section	127
(a) Standard for Issuance	127
(b) Preconditions	128
8. The Rule Against Narrative	128
9. Telling the Story of the Investigation	129
10. The Three Questions Approach for the Warrant Writer and the Judicial Officer	129
(a) What Does the Officer Know?	130
(b) How Does the Officer Know It?	130
(c) Why Does It Matter?	131
11. Organizational Tips	131
(a) Overview and Introduction	132
(b) Cast of Characters	132
(c) Headings	133
(d) Formatting and Paragraph/Page Numbering	133
(e) Using Exhibits and Appendices	134
(f) Proofreading	135
12. A Word About Pre-Printed Forms	135
13. Preserving Draft Materials	137
Chapter 5 Describing the Things to be Searched for and Seized . .	139
1. Introduction: The Fellow Officer Test	139
2. Limit on “Things” That May be Seized	141
3. Describing Classes of Things	143
(a) Generally	143
(b) “Basket Clauses”	146
(i) Legitimate Basket Clauses	147
(ii) Unacceptable Basket Clauses	148
(iii) Setting Parameters	149
4. Compliance with Limits on “Things to be Seized”	151
5. “Will Afford Evidence” Requirement	152
6. Other Bases of Seizure: Offence-Related Property, Location of Fugitive	153

TABLE OF CONTENTS

7. Banking Records: Originals v. Copies	153
Chapter 6 Describing the Location to be Searched	155
1. Introduction: The Importance of the Rule	155
2. Describing the Location to be Searched.	156
3. “Building, Receptacle or Place”	157
4. Outbuildings	158
5. Rural Properties	159
6. Multi-Unit Dwellings and Offices and Units with Multiple Occupants	160
7. Motor Vehicles	161
8. Computer Searches and Section 487(2.1).	162
(a) Introduction	162
(b) Describing Computer Hardware Seizures	163
(c) Wording the Warrant: Section 487(2.1) and “Place to be Searched”	164
Chapter 7 Describing the Offences Under Investigation	165
1. Introduction	165
2. Failure to Properly Describe the Offence under Investigation.	166
3. Approaches to Wording	167
4. Dealing with “Unknowns”	168
Chapter 8 Computers and Search Warrants.	171
1. Introduction: The Medium v. the Message.	171
(a) Introduction	171
(b) Informational Searches	172
(c) Distinguishing Between the “Medium” and the “Message”.	173
2. Seizing Hardware	174
(a) Deciding to Seize Hardware	174
(b) Peripherals.	174
3. The Innocent Third Party: Using Section 487(2.1) to Seize Copies.	175
(a) Copies v. Originals.	175
(b) When and Why to Seize Copies of Data.	176
(c) Drafting the Section 487(2.1) Warrant	176
4. Expert Assistance (Not Including the Target).	177

TABLE OF CONTENTS

5. Overseizure and Computer Media	178
6. Legal Issues Arising from Vu	180
(a) Computers Require Specific Mention in the Warrant	180
(b) Computers when Not Expected	181
(c) Protocols are not per se Mandatory, but	181
7. Timing of Execution	183
8. Taking Notes During Search of Computer	184
Chapter 9 Specific Drafting Challenges	185
1. Introduction	185
2. The Complex Warrant Application	185
3. The Informer and the Tipster	186
(a) Nomenclature: Informant, Tipster and Confidential Informer. . .	186
(b) The Challenge of Anonymous Sources	187
(c) Assessing the Anonymous Source: The “Three Cs”	189
(d) The Nature and Scope of Informer Privilege	195
(i) What Is Informer Privilege?	195
(ii) Who Is an Informer?	196
(iii) Limits on the Scope of Informer Privilege.	196
(iv) Limits on Police Dealing with Informer Information. . .	197
(e) Special Challenges Raised by Tipsters	197
(f) The Citizen Informer	198
(g) How to Protect Informers	198
(h) The Only Exception to the Rule	199
(i) Confidential Informers and the Garofoli Procedure.	199
4. Dealing with Earlier Constitutional Errors	200
5. Multiple Warrants Based on One Information to Obtain: The “Roll-Up”	202
6. Regulators and Earlier Seizures.	202
Chapter 10 Observations on Some Specialized Warrants	207
1. Introduction: Entering the “Thicket”	207
2. DNA Warrants	208
(a) Authorization	209
(b) What Is Authorized?	210
(c) Privacy and Statutory Safeguards	211

TABLE OF CONTENTS

(d)	Preconditions for Authorization	212
(i)	Designated Offence.	213
(ii)	The Forensic Sample	213
(iii)	The Best Interests of the Administration of Justice.	216
(e)	Conditions Related to Execution	217
(f)	Delaying Execution Pending a Challenge to the Warrant	219
(g)	Post-Execution Conditions.	219
(h)	DNA as Evidence v. DNA Data Bank Warrants and Orders	220
3.	Controlled Drugs and Substances Act (CDSA) Warrants	221
(a)	Preconditions: Section 11 of the CDSA	221
(b)	Execution	222
(c)	Inspections.	223
(d)	Post-Execution	223
4.	General Warrants: Section 487.01	227
(a)	Introduction and Background.	227
(i)	Introduction	227
(ii)	Rationale for the General Warrant	228
(b)	The Types of Techniques to be Authorized under Section 487.01	230
(i)	Internal Limitations.	230
(A)	Bodily Integrity (Section 487.01(2)).	230
(B)	Video Surveillance	234
(C)	Covert Entry	236
(ii)	Terms and Conditions	237
(iii)	“A Flexible Range of Investigative Procedures”.	239
(A)	Examples of Authorized Techniques under Section 487.01	243
(B)	Examples of Techniques Not Authorized under Section 487.01.	249
(c)	Preconditions for Issuance of General Warrants.	250
(i)	Introduction	250
(ii)	Issuing Judicial Officer.	251
(iii)	Standard of Proof: “Reasonable Grounds to Believe”.	252
(iv)	Information Concerning the Offence Will Be Obtained through the Technique.	253

TABLE OF CONTENTS

(v)	The Best Interests of the Administration of Justice	254
(vi)	No Other Provision That Would Provide for a Warrant	255
(d)	Specific Issues	259
(i)	“Rolled-up” Approach	259
(ii)	The “Confirm or Deny” Warrant	259
(iii)	Returns in General Warrant Cases	261
(iv)	Techniques Authorized by Another Section with Scheduled Offences	262
(v)	Covert Entries, Cover-Ups, and Distractions	263
(e)	Not Available for Provincial Offences	266
5.	Assistance Orders: Section 487.02	266
(a)	Background to Assistance Orders: Section 487.02	266
(b)	Constitutionality of Section 487.02	268
(c)	The Types of Assistance Orders to be Authorized	268
6.	Special Locations	270
(a)	Law Offices	270
(i)	Introduction	270
(ii)	The Demise of Section 488.1	272
(iii)	The Post- Lavallee Law Office Search	273
(b)	Media Outlets	277
(i)	Introduction	277
(ii)	Four-Part Analysis for Issuing Search Warrants and Production Orders Related to Media Outlets	281
(A)	Notice	281
(B)	Statutory Preconditions	284
(C)	Balancing of Interests	284
(D)	Conditions	288
(E)	Summary of Four-Part Analysis	290
(iii)	Post-Issuance: Challenging the Order	291
(A)	Challenging Disclosure to the State under the JSPA	292
(B)	Review of the Issued Order	293
(iv)	Other Considerations	295
(A)	Exception to the Application of the Journalistic Sources Protection Act	295
(B)	Special Advocate	295

TABLE OF CONTENTS

(C) Section 2(b): Freedom of the Press	296
(c) Hospitals and Doctors’ Offices (Medical Records)	297
(i) Regular Medical Records.	297
(ii) Psychiatric Records	300
7. Mail Searches	302
8. “Feeney Warrants”: Sections 529 and 529.1 Warrants and Related Orders	303
9. Telewarrants	304
10. Requests under the Mutual Legal Assistance in Criminal Matters Act	308
11. Tracking Warrants (Transactions/Things and Individuals): Section 492.1	310
12. Transmission Data Recorder Warrants: Section 492.2	312
13. Other Warrant-Granting Provisions	316
14. Production Orders	317
(a) Introduction	317
(b) Sections 487.014 and 487.018	319
(i) General Production Orders: Section 487.014	319
(ii) Financial Institution Production Orders: Section 487.018.	323
(c) Other Production Orders and Demand Orders	323
Chapter 11 Specific Procedural Issues	325
1. Sealing a Warrant and Related Material.	325
(a) Common Law Power and Its Limits	325
(b) Codified Power in Section 487.3	325
(c) When Should a Sealing Order Be Considered?	328
(d) Reasons Required.	331
(e) Review of Sealing Orders	331
(f) Sealing Orders Post-Execution of Warrant.	331
(g) Non-Publication Orders.	332
2. Material in the Hands of a Regulatory Investigator.	333
3. Assistance Orders	333
4. Multiple Warrants and Successive Applications	334
Chapter 12 Execution Issues	337
1. Timing of Execution	337

TABLE OF CONTENTS

(a)	Introduction	337
(b)	The “In-and-Out” Rule: Not Applicable unless Specified	338
(c)	Night Execution	339
(d)	The “One Search” Rule.	341
(e)	Extended Execution Periods.	341
2.	Dynamic or “No Knock” Entries	342
3.	Out-of-Province Warrants: “Backing”	345
4.	Photographing and Videotaping During Execution	347
5.	Extraneous or Unnecessary Intrusions	348
6.	Protocols for Computer Searches	348
7.	Duty to Present the Warrant.	349
8.	Supervision of Execution	350
9.	Delaying Implementation of the Right to Counsel	351
10.	No Preclusion of Common Law Search Powers	352
	Chapter 13 Post-Execution Issues	353
1.	Introduction: Judicial Supervision After Authorization	353
2.	Report to a Justice.	355
(a)	The Need for a Report for Every Seizure Covered by Section 489.1.	355
(b)	Timing of Return	356
(c)	Consent Searches	356
(d)	Other Warrantless Searches	357
(e)	Banking Documents: Originals and Copies under Canada Evidence Act , Section 29(7).	357
(f)	Production Orders: Sections 487.0144 to 487.018	358
3.	Detention Orders: Section 490	358
(a)	Table Summarizing Detention Orders	358
(b)	The Initial Detention Order	360
(c)	Where a Charge Is Laid (or Other “Proceedings Instituted”)	360
(d)	Subsequent Orders	360
(i)	Three to Twelve Months	360
(ii)	More Than Twelve Months	361
(e)	Consent to Detention Following a Warranted Search	361
(f)	Lapsed Orders	362

TABLE OF CONTENTS

(g) No Constitutional Challenges to Underlying Seizures at Detention Hearings 362

Chapter 14 Possible Language for Specific Situations 363

1. Introduction 363

2. Possible Language for Introductory Sections 363

 (a) Introducing the Warrant Applicant/Informant. 363

 (b) Introducing an Overview, Cast of Characters or Other Organizational Aid 364

 (c) Where the Subject of the Search Has Requested Notice 364

 (d) Where There Has Been a Previous Warrant Application. 365

3. Possible Language to Deal with Unnamed Sources. 365

 (a) The Tipster 365

 (b) The Experienced Informer for Hire 367

4. Possible Language to Deal with Unconstitutionally Obtained Evidence 368

Chapter 15 Checklists 371

1. Introduction 371

2. General Checklists. 371

 (a) General Checklist for Judicial Officers 371

 (b) General Checklist for Warrant Applicants 377

3. Specific Warrant Checklists 384

 (a) Section 487: Conventional Search Warrant 384

 (b) Section 487.01: General Warrant 385

 (c) Section 487.05: DNA Warrant (Investigative) 387

 (d) Section 487.092: Bodily Impression Warrant. 388

 (e) Section 487.012: Preservation Demand 388

 (f) Section 487.013: Preservation Order 390

 (g) Section 487.014: General Production Order. 391

 (h) Section 487.015: Communication Trace Production Order 392

 (i) Section 487.016: Transmission Data Production Order 393

 (j) Section 487.017: Tracking Data Production Order 394

 (k) Section 487.018: Financial Data Production Order. 395

 (l) Subsection 492.1(1): Tracking Device Warrant (Transactions and Things) 396

TABLE OF CONTENTS

(m)	Subsection 492.1(2): Tracking Device Warrant (Individuals)	397
(n)	Section 492.2: Transmission Data Recorder Warrant	398
(o)	Section 529: Entry Order on Arrest Warrant (Feeney Endorsement).	399
(p)	Section 529.1: Warrant to Enter Dwelling and Arrest (Feeney Warrant) 400
(q)	Controlled Drugs and Substances Act (CDSA) , Section 11 Warrant	401
(r)	Section 117.04: Firearms Warrant.	402
(s)	Section 320.29: Blood Warrant	403
(t)	Section 164: Warrant for Seizure of Recordings, Publications, Representations, or Written Material Tending to Corrupt Morals	404
(u)	Section 164.1: Warrant for Seizure of Recordings, Publications, Representations, or Written Material Tending to Corrupt Morals on Computer System.	405
(v)	Section 199: Warrant to Search Disorderly House or Gaming and Betting House	405
(w)	Section 83.222: Warrant for Seizure of Terrorist Propaganda	406
(x)	Section 83.223: Order to Computer System’s Custodian for Seizure of Terrorist Propaganda.	407
(y)	Section 320: Warrant for Seizure of Hate Propaganda	407
(z)	Section 320.1: Warrant for Seizure of Hate Propaganda on Computer System	408
(aa)	Section 395: Warrant to Search for Valuable Minerals	408
(bb)	Section 462.32: Special Search Warrant for any Property Subject to a Forfeiture Order	409
(cc)	Section 462.33: Restraint Order for any Property Subject to a Forfeiture Order	409
4.	Special Procedural Steps	410
(a)	Section 487.02: Assistance Order	410
(b)	Section 487.3: Sealing Order	411
(c)	Section 487.1: Telewarrant	413
5.	Statutory Warrantless Search Powers.	413
(a)	Section 487.11: Exigent Circumstances.	413

TABLE OF CONTENTS

(b) Section 117.02(1): Exigent Seizure of Evidence of Weapons Offences 414

(c) Section 117.04(2): Exigent Public Safety Seizure of Weapons 415

(d) Section 529.3: Exigent Entry to Dwelling House to Arrest or Apprehend. 416

(e) CDSA, Section 11(7): Exigent Drug Searches 417

Appendices 419

Appendix I Key Criminal Code Search Warrant Provisions. 419

Appendix II Criminal Code Forms for Warrants (Section 849) 422

Appendix III Key Controlled Drugs and Substances Act Provisions 423

Index 425