

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	iii
Foreword	v
Introduction.....	xv

PART 1 — MEDIA TODAY: A COMMUNICATIONS OFFICER’S PRIMER

Chapter 1 — Why Should I Talk to Reporters Anyway?	1
Reach the Public More Effectively.....	3
Improve Safety & Site Control.....	5
Reduce Reputational Risks	7
Promote Transparency & Accountability.....	10
Build Mutual Trust	13
Boost Accuracy & Minimize Misinformation	15
Ensure Trained Professionals Bear the Message.....	19
Chapter 2 — Understanding the Evolving Newsroom	23
Technology & News: For Better, For Worse	26
The End of the Golden Age	27
Thinning Ranks & Ballooning Demands	30
Local Reporters: An Endangered Species?.....	32
Beat Reporting Blues	34
The Multimedia, Multiskilled Newsroom.....	35
Letting the Public in: Citizen Journalism and Audience Interaction.....	37
Anatomy of The Post-Digital Reporter	39

Table of Contents

PART 2 — CRIME, ACTS OF TERROR & COURTS: COMMUNICATIONS INSIGHTS FROM THE FRONT LINES

Chapter 3 — Cops and Reporters: Tips from the Field	43
What Do Police Want from Journalists (and How Can They Get It)?	43
Promote Mutual Understanding	45
Set Clear Policies & Practices & Publicize Them	46
Ensure Messengers Are Up-to-Date on The Message	48
Establish Parameters & Announce Planned Availability	49
Be Transparent	50
Define Your Terms	51
Be Clear on What You Can Say, What You Cannot, and Why	52
Monitor & Correct the Record	54
Chapter 4 — Terrorism and Mass Casualty Incidents	57
Prepare for the Worst	58
“Speed is of the Essence”	59
Focus on Safety	61
Beware Misinformation & Unintended Consequences	62
Show a Human Face	63
Prepare for Attacks from Cyberspace	64
Chapter 5 — Journalists and the Judiciary	69
The Court System in Canada	72
Provincial & Territorial Courts	72
Federal Courts	73
Contempt of Court	74
Libel & Court Reporting	76

Table of Contents

Discretionary Publication Bans.....	77
Statutory Publication Bans	78
Automatic Publication Bans	78
Statutory Bans Under a Judge’s Discretion.....	79
Other Limits	80
The Verdict	81

PART 3 — WHEN NATURE CALLS: WORKING WITH MEDIA DURING FIRES, FLOODS, PANDEMICS & OTHER DISASTERS

Chapter 6 — Earth, Wind, Fire and Ice	85
Remember Why Natural Disasters Are Different	86
Think Bench Strength & Staff Training	87
Exploit the Power of Planning & Simulation	89
Be Fast, Be Honest	91
Control the Site	95
Coordinate the Message.....	98
Message with Clarity & Compassion.....	100
Partner on Public Education.....	101
Chapter 7 — Pandemics and Public Health Emergencies... 	105
Prepare, Prepare, Prepare.....	107
Choose the Right Messengers	110
Be Fortright About What You Know	112
. . . And What You Don’t Know.....	113
Coordinate Information Flow.....	115
Use Key Influencers	117
Combat Misinformation & Be Available	118
The Prescription	119

Table of Contents

PART 4 — FROM SOCIAL MEDIA TO SOUNDCLOUD: TODAY’S COMMUNICATIONS TOOLKIT

Chapter 8 — How Social Media Changed the Game	123
A Direct Line to — and from — the Public	124
Social Media Tip-Offs.	127
Social Media and Social Change	129
What Makes a Powerful Tweet (or Post)?	131
The Mighty Hashtag (#).	135
Dealing with Misinformation at Digital Speed	136
The Right Messenger, the Right Message	137
Inviting the Public to the Table	139
Chapter 9 — More High-Tech Tools of the Trade	141
The Public Face: Building an Informative Website	141
The National Public Alerting System	142
Video & Audio Tools and Techniques	143
Technologies of the Future	145
How to Uncross the Wires: Some Key Points	147
Appendix.	151
Journalistic Sources Protection Act.	151
Endnotes.	161
Index	175