

TABLE OF CONTENTS

A Principled Approach to Monitor Investigations Stephen Ferguson and Evan Cobb	1
Beyond Bluberi – Practical and International Perspectives on Litigation Funding Holly Palmer and Lisa Hiebert	29
Canadian Debt – Our Next Pandemic? Restructuring & Insolvency Implication of Canada’s Debt Burden Philip J. Reynolds, Matthew Stewart and Clifton P. Prophet	57
CCAA Supplier Protection: A System in Need of Reform – A Critical Perspective on the Current Framework Guiding the Relationship Between Post-CCAA Filing Suppliers and Debtor Companies Maria Belykh	101
If You Stop Building It, What Will Come? Construction and Real Estate Development Restructurings: A Discussion of Key Issues and Approaches in Recent Proceedings Simone Carvalho and Heather Meredith	113
Insolvency at Sea: Interplay between Insolvency and Admiralty Jurisprudence Gavin MacDonald	141
Letters Of Credit – Has the Ontario Court of Appeal Provided Clarity or Caused More Confusion on Letters of Credit? Sara L. Scott	161
Shared Liabilities in Insolvency Proceedings – Analysis and Considerations Clinton Roberts and John Regush	179
Signed, Sealed, Delivered: Sealing Orders and the Impact of the Sherman Estates Decision on Insolvency Law Marc-André Morin and Nicolas Mancini	203

Solvency and Sustainability – ESG Risks and Considerations in Canadian Insolvencies
Paul van Eyk, Adam Maerov and Danica Jorgenson227

The Pandemic – An Unconventional Review of Where We Are and Where We Should Go From Here?
John McKenna and Leanne Williams255

To Approve or Not Approve – That is the Question:
The Court’s Discretion when Considering to Approve an Asset Sale in the Absence of a Court-Approved Sales Process
Orest Konowalchuk, Ryan Zahara and Kaitlin Ward.....277