

TABLE OF CONTENTS

DEDICATION	iii
CONTRIBUTOR BIOS	v
CONTENTS	xi
FORWARD (STEPHEN GRANT)	xvii
PREFACE	xix
1. SETTling FAMILY LAW CASES	1
Why are family law cases so difficult to settle?	1
Why do family law cases settle when they do?.....	2
The role of counsel.....	5
The role of mediators	5
The role of judges and arbitrators	5
2. UNDERSTANDING THE CASE	7
The first meeting	9
Should you accept the case?.....	9
Getting the facts.....	9
The financial statement.....	10
Getting the law.....	12
Preliminary expert advice.....	13
Family professional support (Gary Dierenfeld).....	13
Determining your client's interests	14
Determining the adverse party's interests	15
Understanding opposing counsel	15
Developing a game-plan	16
3. PREPARING FOR SETTLEMENT	17
The first letter	17
Financial disclosure	18
Educating your Client	20
The pre-negotiation letter	21
Controlling emotions.....	22
Developing rapport with your client	23
Building rapport with opposing counsel.....	24
Preparing with your client	25
Coaching your client (Bill Eddy).....	29
4. CHOOSING THE RIGHT DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCESS ..	31
Factors to consider	31
Lawyer's obligation to inform client of ADR	33
When is a dispute not suitable for mediation?.....	34
Factors in deciding whether to arbitrate	34
Creative arbitration	37
Effective use of mediation-arbitration	40

	Judicial dispute resolution (Terrence McMahon)	42
	The settlement conference vs. a mediation	43
	Choosing the collaborative process (Deborah Graham)	44
	Screening for power imbalances and risk (Hilary Linton).....	45
	Choosing the mediator (Justice Gerri Wong)	51
5.	NEGOTIATING SETTLEMENT	55
	When to negotiate	55
	Modes of negotiation	56
	Where to meet.....	57
	Making the first offer	57
	Order of negotiation.....	57
	Positional negotiation.....	58
	Principled negotiation.....	59
	Negotiating with opposing counsel	60
	Creative settlement techniques	61
	Planned early negotiation	65
	Third party problems	66
	Offers to settle.....	71
	Ten commandments	72
6.	EFFECTIVE ADVOCACY IN MEDIATION	75
	The role of counsel.....	75
	When to go to mediation.....	77
	Preparing your client	78
	Preparing yourself	79
	The mediation brief (Ricki Harris).....	81
	Problem-solving advocacy	84
	Anticipating problems at the mediation	86
	Do's and don't's of mediation advocacy	87
	Negotiating with your own client.....	90
	Lawyer-client problems.....	91
	Using the mediator	92
	Advocacy in mediation-arbitration	95
	Documenting the settlement	95
	Involving the mediator post-mediation	97
	Learning from the failed mediation.....	98
7.	THE EFFECTIVE MEDIATOR	99
	Know yourself (Alfred Mamo)	99
	What the mediator should know going into the mediation (Alfred Mamo).....	100
	Commencing the mediation	105
	Evaluations	107
	Thirty-two lines that mediators use.....	109
	Dealing with difficult counsel in mediation	113

	High conflict mediation: four tips for mediators (Bill Eddy).....	117
	Top ten reasons family mediations fail (Stephen M. Grant).....	119
8.	JUDICIAL DISPUTE RESOLUTION IN THE COURT OF QUEEN’S BENCH: (JUSTICE NEIL C. WITTMAN)	123
	Short history of JDR in Alberta	125
	Accessing the JDR program	126
	The success of JDR	128
	The downside of JDR.....	128
	Ethical issues	129
9.	CREATING COOPERATIVE PARENTING PLANS (BARBARA LANDAU)	133
	External/social influences.....	134
	Interpersonal history	141
	Intrapersonal factors	150
10.	USING THE COLLABORATIVE PROCESS (DEBORAH GRAHAM)	153
	What is collaborative practice?	153
	Professional/client relationship.....	153
	Relationship between counsel	159
	Neutrals	159
	Process	160
	Communication	164
	Negotiation and settlement advocacy.....	167
11.	MED/ARB IN THE PARENTING COORDINATION PROCESS (CRAIG NEVILLE)	169
	What is parenting coordination?.....	169
	How are we retained?	170
	Who in their right mind would do this work?	173
	Our model of med/arb.....	174
	Balancing natural justice and keeping parties Engaged in the process	175
	What is the cost of all this?	177
12.	SETTLEMENT SWEETENERS	179
	Creative way to satisfy equalization payments	179
	Using taxes to enlarge the pie.....	182
	Offering something they can’t get from a court.....	186
	Creating a process to resolve unresolvable issues	191
	Other settlement motivators.....	194

13. DEALING WITH THE DIFFICULT CLIENT (JUSTICE CAROLE CURTIS)	199
Why should you be concerned about the difficult client?.....	199
The basic three steps of your involvement with the difficult client	200
Categories of difficult clients	204
14. WHEN ONE OR BOTH PARTIES ARE UNREPRESENTED (HILARY LINTON)	209
Key principles of family law dispute resolution.....	210
What is your role as the advocate?	211
What is your role as the neutral?	215
Where are the parties on the separation continuum?.....	219
Is the negotiation taking place in the context of a court case?	219
What Negotiation Process is being Considered?.....	219
15. USING FINANCIAL EXPERTS (ANDREW FREEDMAN)	221
The role of the expert	221
The expert's primary role	222
The expert's file.....	224
Additional roles for the expert.....	225
The experts role in the disclosure process	226
Documents required for business valuation.....	227
Preparation for trial	229
What type of report do you need?	233
Finding the "right" expert	236
Discussions between experts	236
Engagement letters	237
Joint retainers.....	238
16. OVERCOMING IMPASSE (ALFRED MAMO)	239
The nature of the impasse	239
High conflict personalities	240
The victim paradigm	240
Specific strategies to overcome an impasse.....	241
17. POST-SETTLEMENT	259
Documenting the settlement	259
Implementing the settlement	261
Looking ahead	261
The post-settlement letter	262
BIBLIOGRAPHY	263
INDEX	265