

Table of Contents

Foreword	v
Preface	vii
Preface to the First Edition	ix
Biographical Notes	xi

Chapter 1 Introduction

1.1 Witness Preparation in Context	1
1.2 The Purposes of Witness Preparation	7
(a) To Assist in the Search for Facts	8
(b) To Make the Evidence Most Effective.....	8

Chapter 2 Interview with a Prospective Witness

2.1 Introduction	10
2.2 General Principles	10
(a) Be Prepared.....	10
(b) Interview Everybody.....	11
(c) Interview Early.....	13
(d) Be Courteous	14
2.3 Purposes of the Interview	14
(a) To Discover the Facts.....	14
(b) To Develop an Understanding of the Potential of the Prospective Witness	16
(c) To Establish a Working Relationship.....	18
2.4 Interviewing Techniques	18
(a) Preliminary Considerations.....	18
(i) The Initial Approach	18
(ii) Legal Relationship with Prospective Witness	18
(iii) Explain your Obligations to the Witness	19

- (iv) How Much to Tell the Prospective Witness about the Case 19
- (v) Investigating the Prospective Witness..... 19
- (vi) Environment for the Interview..... 21
- (b) Structure of the Interview 22
 - (i) The Opening 22
 - (ii) The Overview 23
 - (iii) The Chronology..... 23
 - (iv) Working on the “Rough Spots” 25
 - (v) The Summary 26
- (c) Method of Questioning..... 26
 - (i) Not Just Questions 26
 - (ii) Atmosphere..... 27
 - (iii) Form of Questions..... 28
 - (iv) Some General Guidelines 30
 - (v) Sequence of Questions..... 31
 - (vi) Memory Tainting 33
- (d) Signed Statements 33

Chapter 3 Preparation for Examination-in-Chief

- 3.1 Introduction..... 37
- 3.2 Know Why This Person Must be a Witness 38
- 3.3 Objective 38
 - (a) The Minor Witness..... 39
 - (b) The Major Witness..... 40
- 3.4 Preparing Yourself 40
- 3.5 The Witness as a Person 41
 - (a) Treat Witnesses like Precious, Non-Renewable Resources .. 41
 - (b) Know the Witness’s Weaknesses 42
 - (c) Know the Witness’s Strengths 43
 - (d) How do I Want This Witness to be Perceived by the Judge..... 43
- 3.6 Working Through the Material 44
 - (a) Preparation for the Examination is Hard Work 44
 - (b) Develop in the Witness a Respect for the Facts..... 45
 - (c) Review the Transcripts and Documents 45

Table of Contents

(d) Anticipate Conflicts in the Evidence.....41
(e) Review the Order of the Evidence with the Witness.....46
(f) Witnesses Should not be Prepared in Groups47
(g) Evidence by Way of Witness Statement or Affidavit.....47
(h) Two Points of Caution: Privilege and Memory Training.....49

Chapter 4 Preparation for Cross-Examination

4.1 Introduction51
4.2 Some Basic “Do’s” and “Don’ts”52
4.3 Preparing the First-Time Witness.....54
 (a) Describe the “Ordeal”54
 (b) Do Not “Spook” the Witness.....54
 (c) Insist on Detail.....55
 (d) Cover with the Witness the Particular Direction from
 Which the Attack Will Come55
 (e) Advise the Witness that There Will be Areas of Attack
 by Cross-Examination that May Come as a Complete
 Surprise55
4.4 Preparing the Witness Who has Been Through it Before56
 (a) Find out What the Earlier Case Was and the Witness’s
 Involvement in it56
 (b) Find Out What the Witness Was Taught about Giving Evidence in the Earlier Case and the Reaction to the Experience56
4.5 Physical and Mental Preparation for the Ordeal56
4.6 The Hills That Must Be Held57
4.7 Re-Examination57
4.8 Conclusion.....58

Chapter 5 Evidence and Trial Procedure: What the Witness Needs to Know

5.1 Introduction59
5.2 Goals.....59
5.3 The Role of the Witness.....60
5.4 Before Being Called to the Stand61

Witness Preparation

5.5 Religious Attire.....	61
5.6 The Oath or Affirmation.....	61
5.7 How to Address People in the Courtroom	62
5.8 Interpreters	62
5.9 Questions from the Judge.....	63
5.10 Hearsay	64
5.11 Privilege.....	65
5.12 Objection to Questions	69
5.13 Conclusion	69

Chapter 6 Preparation for Examination for Discovery

6.1 The Importance of Preparation for Discovery	71
6.2 Explaining the Process of Discovery to the Witness	72
6.3 Preparation for Testimony at Discovery: How it Differs from Preparation for Testimony at Trial.....	73
6.4 Discovery Preparation: Other Matters	74
(a) Admissions	74
(b) Style of Questioning	74
(c) Reviewing the Pleadings	75
(d) Taking Counsel’s Directions During the Examination	76
(e) After the Discovery Examination.....	76
6.5 A Client Memo to Aid Preparation	76

Chapter 7 Preparing Experts

7.1 Introduction.....	77
7.2 Retainer.....	79
7.3 The Duty of the Expert Called as a Witness.....	79
7.4 Qualifications.....	84
7.5 The Facts	86
7.6 Preparation of Reports.....	87
7.7 Evidence in Chief.....	90
7.8 Hypothetical Questions	91
7.9 Preparation for Cross-Examination	92

Table of Contents

Chapter 8 Preparing Child Witnesses and Adults with Mental Disabilities

8.1 Introduction	93
8.2 Child Witnesses: The Legal Framework	94
(a) The Competence of Child Witnesses.....	95
(b) Manner of Giving Evidence	101
8.3 Particular Concerns With Children’s Evidence	105
(a) Memory.....	105
(b) Suggestibility.....	106
(c) Aids to Recall and Description	108
(d) Trauma of Testifying.....	108
(e) Honesty	109
8.4 Who Should Do the Interviewing.....	110
8.5 Implications for Witness Preparation	110
8.6 Adult Witnesses with Mental Disabilities	113

Chapter 9 Witness Preparation and Professional Responsibility

9.1 Introduction	117
9.2 The Obligation to Interview	118
9.3 The Ethical Limits of Witness Preparation.....	118
9.4 Presenting Witnesses	121
(a) The Duty to Adduce Evidence	122
(b) The Duty Not to Inconvenience a Witness.....	124
(c) Communication with Witnesses During and After Testimony.....	125

Appendix A Memorandum for Witnesses – Testifying in Court	127
--	-----

Appendix B Examination for Discovery.....	131
--	-----

Index	135
--------------------	-----