

Index

access in domestic violence situations

- denial, 226-230
- generally, 223-226
- restricted or supervised, 230-231

adversarial system of justice in family law, 5-6 alternative dispute resolution, (ADR), 6

appendices

- Child Interview Protocol, App. 3
- Collateral Semi-structured Interview Protocol, App. 4
- Family Interview, App. 2
- parenting and special needs children — case law from NDD database, App. 5
- Standard Parent Semi-structured Interview Protocol, App. 1
 - • individual interviews with parents, 330-338
 - • joint interviews with parents, 329-330

assessment considerations, relocation disputes, 91-94 assessment frameworks and tools, domestic violence

- Austin, 192
- Bala et al. — RRR Model, 196-197
- Bancroft & Silverman, 191-192
- Campbell's Danger Assessment (DA), 191
- Drozd — Domestic Violence in Child Custody (DVCC), 193-194
- Drozd, Kuehnle & Walker's Safety First Model, 193
- Ellis, Stuckless & Wright — Domestic Violence Evaluation (DOVE), 192-193
- generally, 198-199
- Jaffe et al.
 - • Abuse Observation Checklist (ABOC), 194
 - • PPP Model, 195-197
 - • Specialized Assessment Needs in Domestic Violence Cases, 195
- Johnston, checklist, 197
- Table 5 — Assessment of Domestic Violence: Context is Everything, 198
- Table 6 — Framework for Assessing Lethality, 198

Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD), special needs children

- etiology and prevalence, 253-254
- factors impairing daily functioning of children with ASD, 254
- impact on parent-child relationships, 254-255
- treatment and therapeutic interventions, 255-256

best interests of the child

- Bill C-78, and, 136, 280
- custody awarded to parent with history of abuse, 222-223
- evidence provided by mental health professionals, 5, 7, 8, 16, 27-29
- parenting plans and children with special needs, 280-282
- relocation, and, 42, 44-48
- United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child, 281

Bill C-78

- best interests of the child, 136, 280
- child's views, 300
- domestic violence, 208-209, 236
- generally, 2, 41-42, 326
- relocation, 73, 123-125

cerebral palsy, special needs children

- etiology and prevalence, 260-261
- factors impairing daily functioning of children with cerebral palsy, 261-262
- impact on parent-child relationships, 262-263
- treatment and therapeutic interventions, 263-265

children with special needs

- Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD)
 - • etiology and prevalence, 253-254
 - • factors impairing daily functioning of children with ASD, 254
 - • impact on parent-child relationships, 254-255
 - • treatment and therapeutic interventions, 255-256
- case law from NDD database, App. 5
- cerebral palsy
 - • etiology and prevalence, 260-261
 - • factors impairing daily functioning of children with cerebral palsy, 261-262
 - • impact on parent-child relationships, 262-263
 - • treatment and therapeutic interventions, 263-265
- epilepsy
 - • etiology and prevalence, 256-258
 - • factors impairing daily functioning of children with epilepsy, 258

- impact on parent-child relationships, 259
- treatment and therapeutic interventions, 259-260
- generally, 265
- parenting plans for children with special needs
 - best interests of the child
 - Canadian law, 280-281
 - international conventions, 281-282
 - considerations for court, 288-290
 - differentiated parenting assessment, factors to consider
 - child interview checklist, 285-286
 - children with ASD, 286-287
 - children with cerebral palsy, 287
 - children with epilepsy, 287
 - collateral interview checklist, 286
 - generally, 282-283, 287-288
 - parent-child observations, 284-285
 - parent interview checklist, 283-284
 - generally, 279-280
 - special and extraordinary expenses, s. 7
 - children with ADHD and ADD, 292
 - children with ASD, 292-293
 - children with cerebral palsy, 293-294
 - children with epilepsy, 293
 - generally, 290-291, 294
- neurodevelopmental disorders (NDD), defined, 250-253
- United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities, 281

children's participation in family disputes

- balancing vulnerability of children and their rights to be heard, 301-302
- different ways to hear children
 - Child, Youth and Family Services Act, mandatory consideration of children's views, 308-309
 - generally, 303-304
 - how children are heard, 304-306
 - Katelyn's Principle, 308
 - surveys and court file reviews, 307-309
- Divorce Act
 - new s. 16(3)(e), 300
 - silence on taking child's views into account, 300
- generally, 297-298, 317
- historical view, 297
- participation of children, meaning of, 302-303

- United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child, 299-300
- Views of the Child Reports (VCR)
 - distinguished from parenting assessment, 310
 - generally, 309-311, 317
 - jurisprudence, 313-317
 - qualitative studies of, 311-312
 - summary of research, 312-313
 - when to order, 312
- what children say they need, 299-300

children's wishes

- balancing tensions, 301-302
- domestic violence situations
 - access, 227-228
 - family court response, 220
 - parenting plans in, 199-200
- relocation disputes, 96-97, 104-105, 115, 305

coercive controlling violence (CCV), 153, 160-161, 162, 195, 202-203, 219

conflict-instigated violence (CIV), 161-162, 202

court-ordered assessor

- admissibility of report, 22
- appointment process, 19
- challenging recommendations, 23-25
- child protection cases, 19
- clinical issues test, 20-22
- consent of parties, 20-22
- critique evidence of assessor
 - generally, 25-29
 - government-retained expert, 29-32
 - party-retained mental health professionals as consultants, 32-33
- high-conflict situations, 21-22
- interviews by, 18
- literature on undertaking assessments, 17-18
- payment for, 19-20
- required knowledge of, 18-19
- review of court documents and previous reports, 18
- unique role of, 17, 19
- usefulness test, 21

critique evidence of assessor

- generally, 25-29
- government-retained expert, 29-32
- party-retained mental health professionals as consultants, 32-33

definitions

- domestic violence
 - generally, 132-133, 137, 139-140
 - United Kingdom, 132
 - World Health Organization, 132
- expert witness, 7
- family violence, Bill C-78, 209
- litigation expert, 15
- neurodevelopmental disorders (NDD), 250-253
- participant expert, 15
- relocation, Bill C-78, 124
- risk in domestic violence situations, 187 divorce, children's adjustment to

- changes to parent-child relationship, 53-54
- father absence and involvement, 54-60
- gatekeeping and support of child's relationship with other parent, 60-61
- parental conflict, 52-53

domestic violence

- allegations
 - false, exaggerated and manipulative allegations, 184, 215-219
 - rates of substantiated and unsubstantiated allegations, 146-148
- Arbitration Act, 1991, domestic violence training, 235-236
- assessment frameworks and tools
 - Austin, 192
 - Bala et al. — RRR Model, 196-197
 - Bancroft & Silverman, 191-192
 - Campbell's Danger Assessment (DA), 191
 - Drozd — Domestic Violence in Child Custody (DVCC), 193-194
 - Drozd, Kuehnle & Walker's Safety First Model, 193
 - Ellis, Stuckless & Wright — Domestic Violence Evaluation (DOVE), 192-193
 - generally, 198-199, 235
 - Jaffe et al.
 - Abuse Observation Checklist (ABOC), 194
 - PPP Model, 195-197
 - Specialized Assessment Needs in Domestic Violence Cases, 195

- Johnston, checklist, 197
- Table 5 — Assessment of Domestic Violence: Context is Everything, 198
- Table 6 — Framework for Assessing Lethality, 198
- change in societal view, 131
- children
 - effect on, 151-155
 - rates of exposure, 148-149
- credibility, assessment of, 189-191
- defined
 - generally, 132-133, 137, 139-140
 - United Kingdom, 132
 - World Health Organization, 132
- domestic violence vs. high-conflict situations, 140-142
- false allegations, 184, 215-219
- family court response
 - access
 - denial, 226-230
 - generally, 223-226
 - restricted or supervised, 230-231
 - children's wishes, 220
 - custody awarded to parent with history of abuse, 222-223
 - exchange supervision, 231-232
 - false, exaggerated and manipulative allegations, 215-219
 - historical development
 - case law, 206-208
 - legislation, 208-210
 - interim orders, 210-215
 - joint custody/parallel parenting, 220-222
 - judicial control over abusive partners, 232-234
 - separation-instigated violence, 219
- gender symmetry/asymmetry, 137-138
- generally, 131-135, 163, 183-185, 234-236
- need for specialized knowledge in assessment, 134
- parenting, effect on, 155-158
- parenting plans
 - children's wishes, 199-200
 - differentiated parenting recommendations and interventions, 200
 - principles, priorities and considerations
 - 5 guiding principles for parenting plan, 200-201
 - ongoing monitoring, 204
 - practicality of proposed plan, 201-202
 - resources and interventions, 202
 - restrictions, 203

- risk-benefit analysis, 201
- specialized criminal courts, 205-206
- stage of separation and legal process to be considered, 202-203
- prevalence
 - custody litigation populations, 144-146
 - population studies, 142-144
- “private matter”, 131, 135
- rates of children exposed to, 148-149
- rates of substantiated and unsubstantiated allegations, 146-148
- recognizing domestic violence
 - current perspective, 137-140
 - historical perspective, 135-137
- relocation disputes, 73-75, 115-117
- screening
 - distinguished from risk assessment, 185-187
 - Ontario Domestic Assault Risk Assessment Guide (ODARA), 189
 - psychometric tools and risk assessment frameworks, 187-189
 - required even where no allegations made, 135, 235
 - Spousal Assault Risk Assessment Guide (SARA), 188-189
 - Trauma Symptom Inventory (TSI), 188
- separation-instigated violence, 162, 219
- types of domestic violence
 - benefits and risks of typologies, 159-160
 - coercive controlling violence (CCV), 160-161
 - conflict-instigated violence (CIV) or situational couple violence, 161-162
 - generally, 158
 - mental illness, 162-163
 - separation-instigated violence (SIV), 162
 - violent resistance (VR), 161
- underlying causes and explanations, 149-151

epilepsy, special needs children

- etiology and prevalence, 256-258
- factors impairing daily functioning of children with epilepsy, 258
- impact on parent-child relationships, 259
- treatment and therapeutic interventions, 259-260

evolution of law governing parental assessments, 1-4

expert evidence

- court-ordered assessment
 - challenging recommendations, 23-25
 - generally, 17-23

- critique evidence of assessor
 - generally, 25-29
 - government-retained expert, 29-32
 - party-retained mental health professionals as consultants, 32-33
- generally, 36
- judges as gatekeepers, 7-11
- qualification as expert witness
 - impartiality, 12-14
 - participant and litigation experts, 15-17
 - voir dire, 11-12
- testifying as expert witness, 33-35

family court response to domestic violence

- access
 - denial, 226-230
 - generally, 223-226
 - restricted or supervised, 230-231
- children's wishes, 220
- custody awarded to parent with history of abuse, 222-223
- exchange supervision, 231-232
- false, exaggerated and manipulative allegations, 215-219
- historical development
 - case law, 206-208
 - legislation, 208-210
- interim orders, 210-215
- joint custody/parallel parenting, 220-222
- judicial control over abusive partners, 232-234
- separation-instigated violence, 219

Federal Child Support Guidelines*, s. 7, special needs children, and

- children with ADHD and ADD, 292
- children with ASD, 292-293
- children with cerebral palsy, 293-294
- children with epilepsy, 293
- generally, 290-291, 294

gender symmetry/asymmetry, domestic violence, and, 137-138

high-conflict situations

- assessment and opinion of court, 21
- children's adjustment to divorce, and, 52, 57
- distinguished from domestic violence, 140-142
- relocation in, 73-75

Integrated Domestic Violence Court (IDVC), 205-206interview protocols

- Child Interview Protocol, App. 3
- Collateral Semi-Structured Interview Protocol, App. 4
- Family Interview, App. 2
- Standard Parent Semi-Structured Interview Protocol, App. 1
 - individual interviews with parents, 330-338
 - joint interviews with parents, 329-330

judges as gatekeepers

- best interest of the child, opinion on, 8
- cost-benefit analysis, 10-11
- dangers of, 8
- judicial scrutiny where expert gives opinion on “ultimate issue”, 7
- resources of litigants, 8
- threshold criteria for admission, 9-10 litigation expert, defined, 15mental health professionals, role of

- consultant, as, 32-33
- court-ordered assessments, 17-18
- critique evidence of court-appointed assessor, offering, 25-22
- expert witness, as, 33-35
- generally, 5-7, 23

mental illness, domestic violence and, 162-163neurodevelopmental disorders (NDD)

- case law from NDD database, App. 5
- defined, 250-253

Ontario Domestic Assault Risk Assessment Guide (ODARA), 189parental separation, impact on children

- factors mediating adjustment to divorce
 - changes to parent-child relationship, 53-54
 - father absence and involvement, 54-60
 - gatekeeping and support of child’s relationship with other parent, 60-61
 - parental conflict, 52-53
- generally, 49-51

parenting plans for children with special needs

- best interests of the child
 - • Canadian law, 280-281
 - • international conventions, 281-282
- considerations for court, 288-290
- differentiated parenting assessment, factors to consider
 - • child interview checklist, 285-286
 - • children with ASD, 286-287
 - • children with cerebral palsy, 287
 - • children with epilepsy, 287
 - • collateral interview checklist, 286
 - • generally, 282-283, 287-288
 - • parent-child observations, 284-285
 - • parent interview checklist, 283-284
- generally, 279-280
- special and extraordinary expenses, s. 7
 - • children with ADHD and ADD, 292
 - • children with ASD, 292-293
 - • children with cerebral palsy, 293-294
 - • children with epilepsy, 293
 - • generally, 290-291, 294

parenting plans in domestic violence cases

- children's wishes, 199-200
- differentiated parenting recommendations and interventions, 200
- principles, priorities and considerations
 - • 5 guiding principles for parenting plan, 200-201
 - • ongoing monitoring, 204
 - • practicality of proposed plan, 201-202
 - • resources and interventions, 202
 - • restrictions, 203
 - • risk-benefit analysis, 201
 - • specialized criminal courts, 205-206
 - • stage of separation and legal process to be considered, 202-203

participant expert, defined, 15 participation of children in family disputes, see children's participation in family disputes

“private matter”, domestic violence viewed as, 131, 135

relocation disputes

- assessment considerations, 91-94

- Bill C-78, 123-125
- conditions imposed by courts, 119-120
- factors requiring consideration
 - children's wishes and preferences, 96-97
 - generally, 94-96
 - maintaining relationship with both parents, 97-98
 - older children, 104-105
 - societal and contextual factors, 98-100
 - younger children, 100-104
- generally, 125
- interim applications, 118-119
- joint custody, 117
- reducing risks in move, parenting plans, 105-108
- restrictions on relocation and procedural issues, 120-123
- trends in jurisprudence
 - domestic violence and high conflict separations, 115-117
 - generally, 108-109
 - moving parent, behaviour of, 111-112
 - reasons for move, 113-115
 - relationship of children to new parents, 112-113
 - relationship of children with parents, 109-111
 - wishes of child, 115

residential moves and relocation, generally

- case law
 - Canada, 72
 - international, 72-73
 - summary of outcome studies, 73
- factors mediating adjustment to divorce
 - changes to parent-child relationship, 53-54
 - father absence and involvement, 54-60
 - gatekeeping and support of child's relationship with other parent, 60-61
 - parental conflict, 52-53
- generally, 41-45, 75-76
- legislation
 - generally, 41-42
 - history, 45-49
- literature, 61-62
- parental separation, impact on children, 49-51
- studies
 - family justice professionals, 68-69
 - generally, 62-63
 - interviews, 63-68

- • qualitative studies, summary, 69-70, 71-72
- • relocation, on, 70-71
- violent and high-conflict cases, 73-75

separation-instigated violence (SIV), 162, 202, 219

situational couple violence, 153, 161-162 special and extraordinary expenses, special needs children, and

- children with ADHD and ADD, 292
- children with ASD, 292-293
- children with cerebral palsy, 293-294
- children with epilepsy, 293
- generally, 290-291, 294

special needs children, see children with special needs

Spousal Assault Risk Assessment Guide (SARA), 188-189

testifying as expert witness, 33-35

Trauma Symptom Inventory (TSI), 188

“ultimate issue”, 7, 8, 15, 26, 92

United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities, 281

United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child

- best interests of the child, 281,
- participation in separation and divorce process, 299-300

Views of the Child Reports (VCR)

- distinguished from parenting assessment, 310
- generally, 309-311, 317
- jurisprudence, 313-317
- qualitative studies of, 311-312
- summary of research, 312-313
- when to order, 312

violent resistance (VR), 161

White Burgess Langille Inman v. Abbott and Haliburton Co.

- cost-benefit analysis, 10, 12, 29
- impartiality of expert witness, 12-13
- judge's gatekeeping role and admissibility of expert evidence, 8, 26

