User Guide

This Index to Lawyers & Ethics: Professional Responsibility and Discipline draws material from the Canadian Abridgment's Index to Canadian Legal Literature ("ICLL"), which provides comprehensive access to all the secondary literature of interest to the Canadian legal community. The materials indexed are useful both for theoretical studies and as an aid to the practice of law.

The ICLL is both a periodical index and a bibliography of Canadian secondary legal literature. The ICLL is fully bilingual, and indexes are all Canadian secondary legal literature, both English and French, from both the common law and civil law traditions. This Index is drawn primarily from English-language materials listed in the ICLL. The complete ICLL 12-volume work, annual supplements and monthly issues provide comprehensive access to all materials from either language.

In the interest of presenting more current materials, this Index includes primarily entries that date back to 1995. The Complete ICLL work provides a full listing of secondary literature dating back to 1985.

How to Use This Index

This Index to Lawyers & Ethics: Professional Responsibility and Discipline, much like the ICLL, arranges entries alphabetically by subject. The subjects in this Index were chosen from the ICLL as those most relevant to the law and practice relating to real property. Each entry contains all the bibliographic information required to identify and retrieve the item described. In the bibliographic and case citations provided in entries for periodical articles, the title of the periodical is abbreviated. The key to these abbreviations can be found below under "Periodicals Index".

Each item is entered under as many subjects as is appropriate to its content. Subdivisions may be used under a subject heading to delineate the subject more precisely. In the Index to Lawyers & Ethics: Professional Responsibility and Discipline additional subdivisions relate to form.

Form subdivisions specify the type of item indexed. Popular works are always entered under the subdivision "—Popular Works". Conference materials are listed under the subdivision "—Seminars, workshops, etc.".
