

Table of Contents

Preface.....	v
Preface to Second Edition.....	vii
Preface to Third Edition.....	ix
Table of Cases.....	xix
1. Introduction.....	1
1. Independent legal advice.....	1
2. Categories of cases where ILA is required.....	2
3. Non est factum , undue influence, duress, and unconscionability.....	5
4. For whose benefit is ILA given?.....	6
2. Professional Standards and Independent Legal Advice.....	9
1. Introduction.....	9
2. Standard of care for independent legal advice.....	10
3. Conflicts of interest between clients.....	15
(a) Conflicts under the CBA Code	16
(b) Conflicts under the FLSC Model Code.....	19
4. Conflicts of interest between lawyer and client.....	26
(a) Business relations.....	26
(b) Errors and omissions.....	33
5. The duty to unrepresented persons.....	35
6. Conclusions.....	37
7. Research references.....	38
3. Non est factum, Undue Influence, Duress, and Unconscionability.....	45
1. Introduction.....	46
2. Non est factum	48
(a) Non est factum in England.....	48
(b) Void versus voidable contracts.....	50
(c) Non est factum in Canada.....	54
3. Undue influence.....	69
(a) Burden of proof in establishing undue influence.....	70
(b) Undue influence in Canada.....	71
(c) Canadian decisions considering Etridge (No. 2)	80
4. Duress.....	90

TABLE OF CONTENTS

(a)	Physical duress.....	90
(b)	Economic duress.....	92
(c)	Economic duress not proven.....	94
(d)	Economic duress proven.....	101
5.	Unconscionability.....	106
6.	Conclusions.....	116
7.	Research references.....	117
4.	Independent Legal Advice in Banking Law.....	127
1.	Introduction.....	128
2.	Factors influencing the enforceability of bank guarantees.....	129
3.	The duty of banks to recommend ILA.....	131
4.	Canadian cases where guarantee was enforced against the guarantor.....	152
(a)	Sophisticated guarantors/guarantors involved in the business of debtor.....	153
(b)	General appreciation of the guarantee and its obligations.....	168
(c)	Bank explained the documents.....	174
(d)	ILA was provided.....	176
(e)	ILA was waived.....	185
(f)	Guarantor was negligent or careless in not reading the guarantee.....	188
5.	Canadian cases where guarantee was not enforced.....	199
(a)	Where the guarantor did not speak English.....	199
(b)	Where the guarantor lacked business sophistication.....	204
(c)	Where the bank had a duty to recommend ILA.....	207
(d)	Where there was undue influence, duress or misrepresentation.....	211
6.	Alberta's Guarantees Acknowledgment Act.....	226
7.	Factors bank officers should consider regarding ILA and bank guarantees.....	231
8.	Research references.....	232
5.	Independent Legal Advice in Family Law.....	237
1.	Introduction.....	238
2.	The historical view of the "wife" as being needy of protection.....	239
3.	Domestic contracts and independent legal advice.....	249

TABLE OF CONTENTS

(a)	The law of domestic contracts.....	249
(b)	Domestic contract upheld, ILA provided	265
(i)	Emphasis placed on ILA being provided.....	266
(ii)	Applicant claiming depression or drug dependency	277
(iii)	Applicant claiming undue influence or duress...	279
(iv)	Claimant was a man	293
(v)	Claimant alleges advice was inadequate.....	301
(vi)	ILA advice not followed	310
(c)	Domestic contract upheld, no ILA.....	317
(i)	Where neither party had ILA.....	317
(ii)	Wife was the applicant.....	322
(iii)	Husband was the applicant	331
(d)	Domestic contract set aside/varied, ILA provided ...	339
(e)	Domestic contract set aside/varied, no ILA.....	360
4.	Practical tips on ILA for family law transactions	374
5.	Research references.....	376
6.	Independent Legal Advice in Employment Law	383
1.	Introduction	383
2.	Cases where the employee received ILA	388
3.	Cases where the employee did not receive ILA.....	395
(a)	Release/settlement agreement upheld despite no ILA	395
(b)	Release/settlement agreement set side, no ILA	408
4.	Practical advice for employers.....	420
5.	Research references.....	421
7.	Independent Legal Advice in Corporate Law	427
1.	Introduction	427
2.	Corporate transactions between shareholders	428
(a)	Transaction upheld	429
(b)	Transaction set side	445
3.	Ethical issues for inside and outside corporate counsel.	454
4.	Practical strategies for counsel involved in corporate transactions.....	462
5.	Research references.....	463
8.	Independent Legal Advice in Insurance Law.....	469
1.	Introduction	469

TABLE OF CONTENTS

2.	Duties of public automobile insurers.....	471
3.	ILA and the enforceability of insurance releases.....	478
	(a) Release enforced, no ILA.....	478
	(b) Release enforced, ILA provided	488
	(c) Release not enforced, no ILA	494
4.	ILA and insurance coverage issues.....	510
5.	Practical advice to insurers regarding ILA	524
6.	Research references.....	525
9.	Independent Legal Advice in Estate Planning	531
	1. Introduction	532
	2. Ethical standards governing estate planning lawyers.....	532
	(a) Receiving gifts from clients	533
	(b) Drafting wills.....	535
	(c) Joint retainers or joint or mutual wills	537
	(d) Dealings with beneficiaries	539
	(e) Acting as both executor and lawyer for the estate ...	541
	3. Estate planning jurisprudence where ILA provided	543
	(a) Where transaction upheld	543
	(b) Where transaction set aside or compromised	552
	4. Estate planning jurisprudence where ILA not provided	558
	(a) Where transaction upheld despite no ILA	559
	(b) Where transaction set aside or compromised, no ILA	563
	5. Legal advice privilege in estate litigation	573
	(a) Joint retainers for a joint or mutual will	573
	(b) Certificates of independent legal advice	574
	(c) To prove the intention of the testator	574
	6. Passing of accounts and costs issues involving ILA	576
	7. Practical advice for estate planning lawyers regarding ILA.....	580
	8. Research references.....	584
10.	Self-represented litigants and amicus Curiae	595
	1. Introduction	596
	2. The impact of self-represented litigants on the judicial system.....	597
	(a) Challenges for self-represented litigants	598
	(b) Challenges for judges	600
	(c) Challenges for litigation lawyers and their clients	603

TABLE OF CONTENTS

(d)	Partial solutions.....	604
3.	Ethical considerations for lawyers dealing with self-represented litigants	605
(a)	The duty to recommend independent legal representation	606
(b)	The duty as an advocate	607
4.	Self-represented litigants and amicus curiae before administrative boards.....	608
5.	Self-represented litigants and amicus curiae in civil litigation	615
(a)	When legal representation is required.....	616
(b)	When intervenors or amicus curiae will be added	618
(c)	The power of a judge to self-appoint amicus curiae or experts.....	621
6.	Self-represented litigants and amicus curiae in criminal law proceedings.....	625
(a)	The challenges facing a self-represented accused.....	626
(b)	The inherent power of the court to appoint amicus curiae	627
(c)	The power to appoint amicus curiae under the Criminal Code and other legislation.....	631
(d)	The role of amicus curiae in determining informer privilege	631
7.	Self-represented litigants and amicus curiae in family law proceedings	632
(a)	The impact of self-represented litigants in family court.....	632
(b)	The power of family court judges to appoint amicus curiae	638
(c)	Amicus curiae for child litigants	641
8.	Costs awards involving self-represented litigants and amicus curiae	642
(a)	Costs awards regarding self-represented litigants	642
(i)	Costs not granted to self-represented litigant....	642
(ii)	Costs granted to self-represented litigant	643
(iii)	Self-represented litigant ordered to pay costs....	645
(iv)	No order for costs	646
(v)	Costs awards where lawyer is the self-represented litigant or in-house counsel	647

TABLE OF CONTENTS

(vi) Special or enhanced costs awards involving self-represented litigants	650
(vii) Costs awards involving pro bono counsel or public interest litigation	654
(b) Costs awards involving amicus curiae	656
9. Conclusions	656
10. Research references	657
11. Negligence Claims Involving Independent Legal Advice	685
1. Introduction	685
2. Acts of omission – failing to recommend ILA	687
(a) Cases where negligence was found	687
(b) Cases where there was no negligence	711
3. Acts of commission – providing ILA but doing so incompetently	726
4. Conclusions	739
5. Research references	740
12. Practice Tips for Lawyers Providing Independent Legal Advice	747
1. Introduction	748
2. The independent nature of ILA	750
3. The use of ILA checklists	751
4. Common legal issues that arise when providing ILA	754
(a) Issues arising out of the execution of guarantees	754
(b) Issues arising out of the execution of family law domestic agreements	756
5. Independent legal advice practice tips for litigators	757
(a) Pleadings	758
(b) Pleading Non est factum	758
(c) Pleading undue influence or duress	759
(d) Pleading unconscionability	760
(e) Examination for discovery topics/questions	760
(f) Regarding Non est factum	760
(g) Regarding undue influence or duress	761
(h) Regarding unconscionability	762
6. Establishing effective office procedures for ILA	763
(a) Practice development	763
(b) File openings	763

TABLE OF CONTENTS

(c) Educate yourself on guarantee law and secured transactions	764
(d) Determine billing policies	764
(e) Transactions with clients	765
(f) Questions about undue influence or duress.....	765
(g) Take good notes, sign the ILA checklist.....	765
(h) Translators/special situations	766
(i) Communication with client	766
7. Conclusions	766
8. Research references.....	766
Index	771