

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgements.....	iii
About The Editor	v
Summary Table of Contents	vii
Introduction	xvii
PART 1 THE NORMATIVE AND ETHICAL DIMENSIONS OF FAIRNESS	1
Chapter 1 Democracy and the Everyday Origins of Fairness— by Mark E. Warren	3
1. Fairness as Universalized Perspective-Taking: Kant ..	4
2. Fairness as Universalized Perspective-Taking: Habermas and Brandom	8
3. How Everyday Knowledge of Fairness Gets into Democratic Institutions	12
4. Conclusion	14
Chapter 2 Equity and Fairness: An Argument Against Abstract Ideas—by Susanna Braund	17
Chapter 3 Fairness and Formal Laws in the Informal Sector: The Example of Cameroon—by Claire Moore Dickerson	33
1. Taxation as the Venue for the Informal Sector’s Intersection with Government	36
2. Impact of the Unlevel Playing Field in Cameroon: Taxation of the Informal Sector	39
3. Levelling the Playing Field: Government and the Informal Sector	44
(a) External Pressure	44
(b) Dancing Elephants	45
(c) Devolution	46
4. Conclusion	47

Chapter 4	Fairness, Narrative, Empathy, and the U.S. Racial Wealth Gap—by Cheryl L. Wade	49
	1. Introduction	49
	2. Race Discrimination in the Twenty-First Century . . .	54
	3. Doublespeak, Narrative, and Empathy	57
	4. The Discourse About Predatory Lending	61
	5. Animal Spirits: A Distorted Narrative	66
	6. Conclusion	67
Chapter 5	How Reliable are Attributions of Fairness?—by Peter B. Reiner	71
Chapter 6	The Principle of Fairness and Political Obligation—by George Klosko	77
	1. The Principle of Fairness	78
	2. Excludable and Non-Excludable Cooperative Schemes	80
	3. Advantages and Disadvantages of the Principle of Fairness	83
Chapter 7	Facets of Fairness: Equal Share, Equal Chance, and Uniform Mechanisms—by Holger H. Hoos	87
	1. Introduction	87
	2. Equal Share	88
	3. Equal Chance	92
	4. Uniform Mechanisms	96
	5. Conclusion	99
PART 2	FAIRNESS IN MUSIC, MOVEMENT, AND THE ARTS	101
Chapter 8	Whither the Body? Form, Flexibility, and Fairness in Conflict Intervention—by Michelle Le Baron	103
	1. Introduction	103
	2. Toward an Operational Understanding of Fairness . .	106
	3. Is Fairness Related to Symmetry?	109
	4. Narrative and Fairness	110
	5. Toward Fairness: Integrating Physical Dimensions into Conflict Processes	112

Chapter 9	Reflections on Dance and the Body's Contribution to Living Fairness—by Margie Gillis	119
Chapter 10	The Dance of Fairness—by Lawrence M. Ward	121
	1. Introduction	121
	2. Fairness in Economics	123
	(a) Disentangling Fairness and Material Utility	126
	3. The Neuroscience of Fairness	127
	(a) Empathic Brain Responses are Modulated by Fairness	129
	4. Punish for Unfairness	130
	5. Music, Emotion, and Dance	131
	6. Conclusion	133
Chapter 11	Notions of Fairness in Music Listening and Composition—by Alfredo Santa Ana	135
	1. Introduction	135
	2. Fairness and Music Perception	136
	3. Listening in Context	137
	4. The Soundscape	139
	5. Creating Music with Fairness in Mind	141
	6. Form and Musical Time	142
	7. Musical Content, Form, and Fairness	145
	Appendix A: Notes on and musical score to On Fairness	147
Chapter 12	Fairness and the Visual Arts in Theory and Practice: The Case of Klimt's Portrait of Adele Bloch-Bauer I —by Catherine M. Soussloff	155
	1. Normative Fairness	156
	2. Aesthetic Fairness	157
	3. The Fairness of Porcelain	166
	4. Conclusions	169
Chapter 13	The Texture of Fairness—by Luisa Milan	171
	1. The Texture of Fairness	172
	2. The Colours of Fairness	176
Chapter 14	Art and the Heart of Fairness—by Rena Sharon	181

PART 3	FAIRNESS AND ECONOMIC ADVANTAGE	191
Chapter 15	Embedding Fairness as a Fundamental Norm in Financial Markets—by Janis Sarra	193
	1. Introduction	193
	2. Understanding Fairness	196
	3. Some Causes and Consequences of the Recent Global Financial Crisis	206
	4. Embedding Fairness as a Fundamental Norm in Financial Markets	214
	(a) Fairness in Capital Adequacy and Liquidity Standards	216
	(b) Prudential Obligations as a Fairness Norm	218
	(c) Fairness in Financial Advice	221
	(d) Fairness in Financial Products	229
	(e) Fairness in the Cost of Consumer Credit	234
	(f) Fairness in the Process for Change to Financial Markets	236
	5. Conclusion	239
Chapter 16	Ideas of Fairness in Financial Services Dispute Resolution—by Mary Condon	241
	1. Introduction: Fairness in Financial Services	241
	2. Empirical Description of Financial Dispute Resolution Process in Canada	243
	3. Examples of Typical Issues that Become the Subject of Financial Services Disputes	245
	4. Fairness as Process?	246
	5. Fairness as Outcome?	247
	6. Attributes of Fair Dispute Resolution?	248
	7. Conclusion: The Relationship Between Fairness and Legitimacy	250
Chapter 17	Can There be a Fair Share? Fairness, Regulation, and Financial Markets—by Dimity Kingsford Smith	251
	1. Introduction: Individuals, Markets, and Financial Regulation	251
	(a) Fairness	252
	(b) Individuals in Financial Markets	253
	(c) Institutions and Financial Markets	256

2.	Fairness in Individual Transactions.	259
(a)	Fairness as Reciprocity.	259
(b)	Fairness as Impartiality.	260
(c)	Fairness as Equality or Fair Equality of Opportunity.	261
3.	Fairness, Law, and Financial Institutions	264
(a)	Financial Institutions, Fairness in Sharing of Burdens, and Political Obligation.	265
(b)	Financial Institutions, Fairness, and Fostering Capabilities	269
4.	Analysis and Conclusion: Fairness, Regulation and Financial Markets.	271
Chapter 18	Considerations of Fairness and Conflicts of Interest in the Regulation of Financial Markets—by Michelle Welsh	277
1.	Introduction.	277
2.	Potential Defendants	279
3.	The Interests of Investors	281
4.	The Public Interest	284
5.	Issues of Fairness in Situations Where the Interests of Victims and the Public Conflict	287
6.	The Australian Securities and Investments Commission	290
7.	Conclusion	292
Chapter 19	Fairness in Business—by Les Jacobs and Ilan Vertinsky	293
1.	Introduction.	293
2.	Dimensions of Fairness.	295
3.	Fairness in Relations with Customers.	297
4.	Fairness in Relationships with Employees	299
5.	Fairness in Relationships with Shareholders.	301
6.	Fairness in Relationships with Suppliers	302
7.	Fairness in Relations with Business Partners and Competitors.	302
8.	Fairness in International Business.	303
9.	Conclusion	305

Chapter 20	Fair Compensation for Workers in the Great Recession— by David Silver.	307
	1. Fair Share of Profits	309
	2. Three Sets of Factors.	310
	(a) Recognition of Non-Market Value	310
	(b) Reciprocity	310
	(c) Workers' Interests in a Meaningful Life	311
	(d) Necessities and Full Social Inclusion	312
	(e) Stability in Life Planning	312
	(f) Objections and Replies	314
	(i) Protection of Interests	314
	(ii) Economic Effects	314
	3. Concluding Remarks.	315
Chapter 21	Fair's Fair in Australian Insolvency, Tacitly— by Christopher Symes	317
	1. Theories of Insolvency	319
	2. Personal Bankruptcy	320
	3. Tacit Fairness in Receivership	321
	4. Voluntary Administration—Australia's Corporate Reorganization	322
	5. Tacit Fairness in Liquidation.	323
	6. Directors in Insolvency—A Taciturnity	324
	7. Insolvency Practitioners and Tacit Fairness	326
	8. Tacit Fairness of the Doctrine of Limited Liability When Used with Insolvency.	326
	9. Legislators and the Courts Decide What is Fair in Insolvency.	327
	10. Conclusion	328
PART 4	COMPARATIVE CONCEPTIONS OF FAIRNESS, FAMILY, AND CITIZENSHIP	331
Chapter 22	Developmental Psychology Perspectives on Fairness— by Shelley Hymel and Lina Darwich	333

Chapter 23	Seeking Fairness in the Context of Inequality: Transformational Development Approach in Sub-Saharan Africa—by Karen Cowper	345
	1. Introduction	345
	2. Transformational Development	346
	3. Challenges	349
	4. The Tractor	351
	5. The Honest Grocery Shop	353
	6. Holistic Application of TD	355
	7. Strategic Projects	357
	8. Conclusion	359
Chapter 24	Fairness as Social Justice: The Gendered Lens of Citizenship—by Margot Young	361
	1. Social Justice and Citizenship	363
	2. Feminist Reformulations of Citizenship	367
	3. Public/Private Spaces	368
	4. Geography	369
	5. Conclusion	371
Chapter 25	Making Sense of Fairness in Sport—by Patricia Vertinsky, Cassandra Wells, and Stephanie Van Veen . .	373
	1. Seeking Gender Justice in Elite Sport	375
	2. Fairness Issues Around Judging in Aesthetic Sports: The Case of Ice Dance Competition at the Elite Level	378
	3. Fairness Issues in Sex Testing and Gender Verification in Sport, or the Question of “Women Who Turn in Manly Performances”	382
	4. Fairness Issues in Access and Female Inclusion in Elite Sporting Competition: The Case of Female Ski Jumping at the Winter Olympics	387
	5. Discussion	391
Subject Index	395