

Index

References in the Index are to chapter and section number. For example, the entry “cardinal rule of advocacy, K.1.b is found in Chapter K, section 1(b).

advocacy, generally

cardinal rule of advocacy, K.1.b

effective advocacy, and, A.8

ethics of, A.1, A.2

Principles of Civility for Advocates, A.7

resolute advocacy, A.3, A.4

appeals and persuasive written advocacy, see written advocacy on appeal

best evidence rule

generally, B.1

steps for remaining in compliance, B.2

Brown v. Dunn, rule in generally, C.1

protocol, C.3

steps for remaining in compliance, C.2 business records, exception to hearsay rule, D.2.i.i

cardinal rule of advocacy, K.1.b

civility

effective advocacy, and, A.8

generally, A.9

Groia v. Law Society of Upper Canada, A.6, A.7,
A.8

Principles of Civility for Advocates, A.7, A.8

Rules of Professional Conduct, and, A.6, A.7

closing statement

addressing weaknesses, M.3.d

courtesy, M.3.m

credibility of witnesses, M.3.l

emotional arguments, use, M.3.i exaggeration, M.3.h

findings of fact, M.3.b

generally, M.1, M.3.a, M.3.p

logic, M.3.c

organization, M.3.j

presentation of law, M.3.e

primacy, M.3.g

questions from bench, M.3.f

recency, M.3.g

reinforcement of opening address, M.3.k

steps to creating effective statement, M.2

style, M.3.n

written submissions, M.3.o

collateral fact rule, E.2.d.ii

controlling theme

Freytag’s Pyramid, F.3.b.iv.C

generally, F.1, F.3.a, F.3.d persuasive and compelling story, elements

knowing audience, F.3.b.v

narrative, F.3.b.i

plot, F.3.b.iv.C

premise, F.3.b.iv.D

problem, F.3.b.iv.B

protagonist, F.3.b.iv.A

screenwriting, F.3.b.iii

storytelling, F.3.b.ii

telling story

clarity, F.3.c.ii

credibility, F.3.c.iii

generally, F.3.a, F.3.c

simplicity, F.3.c.i

tips to creating, F.2

cross-examination, control and avoidance of inferences and conclusions, I.4

control

achieving control, I.1

enhancing control

generally, I.1

preparing witness to resist control, I.8

generally, E.2.b.i, I.9

leading questions, I.2

limits, I.7

master's motion, N.2.f

patience and ordering, I.6

rhythm, I.3

three techniques

avoidance of inferences and conclusions, I.4

generally, I.1, I.5

leading questions, I.2

rhythm, I.3

witness preparation, I.8

declarations against interest, exception to hearsay rule, D.2.i.ii

duty of candour, fairness, courtesy and respect, A.5

duty of resolute advocacy, A.3

dying declarations, exception to hearsay rule, D.2.i.ii ethics of advocacy, A.1, A.2 examination in chief

generally, H.6

narrative

advancing, H.1

telling through witness, H.4

non-leading questions, use of, H.2

organization of evidence, H.5

witness, focus on, H.3

facts

collateral fact rule, E.2.d.ii

strategic use in opening statement contradictory facts, G.3.c.i.A disputed facts, careful use of, G.3.c.i.C

good and bad facts, G.3.c.i.B

written advocacy on appeal

adverse findings, K.3.d

bad facts, K.3.d

context, K.3.b

facts section and argument section, K.3.g

headings and sub-headings, K.3.c

organization, K.3.a

respondent's summary, K.3.e

visual and other aids, K.3.f

Freytag's Pyramid, F.3.b.iv.C

Groia v. Law Society of Upper Canada, A.6, A.7, A.8

hearsay

confusion about, D.2.a

dangers of, D.2.d

defined, D.2.b

examples of hearsay evidence, D.4

exceptions to rule

business records, D.2.i.i

declarations against interest, D.2.i.ii dying declarations, D.2.i.ii

res gestae, D.2.i.iii

generally, D.1, D.2.a necessity, D.2.j, D.2.k

objections to admission, D.2.m

prior out-of-court statements of available witness, D.2.h

purpose of evidence, D.2.f

rationale for rule, D.2.c

reliability, D.1, D.2.j, D.2.l statement offered for its truth, D.2.g steps for remaining in compliance, D.3 types of statements constituting, D.2.e impeachment through prior inconsistent statements credibility

cross-examination, importance, E.2.b.i generally, E.2.b

prior inconsistent statements, E.2.b.ii generally, E.1, E.2.a

goals of impeachment, E.2.c

process

admitting statement for its truth, E.2.d.iii discovery transcripts, use of, E.2.d.v exhibit, entering statement as, E.2.d.iv relevance and collateral fact rule, E.2.d.ii statutory authority, E.2.d.i steps to impeaching witness, E.3

techniques, E.2.e

leading questions

cross-examination, I.2, I.4, I.9 non-leading questions, use in examination in chief, H.2

masters' motions

avoiding motion, N.1

bringing motion

booking and confirming, N.2.b cross-examination, whether necessary, N.2.f evidence, N.2.e
factums and briefs of authorities, N.2.g generally, N.2.a location, N.2.c
materials, N.2.d

do's and don'ts

do's, N.4
don'ts, N.5

hearing, N.3

motions

affidavits, O.2

civility and courtesy, O.7 discussion with opposing counsel, O.5

factum, structuring, O.4

hearsay, O.2

keep friends close, enemies closer, O.1 length of case brief, O.3

materials, bringing, O.6

questions from judge, O.10 reading factum discouraged, O.8 strengths of case emphasized, O.9

objections

generally, L.1

steps to object properly, L.2

opening statements

characters, introduction of counsel as narrator, G.3.c.ii.B human element, G.3.c.ii.A inflammatory remarks, avoiding use of,

G.3.c.ii.C

consequences, G.3.e

facts, strategic use

contradictory, G.3.c.i.A
good and bad facts, G.3.c.i.B

generally, G.1, G.3.a, G.3.f

organization, G.3.d

persuasive value of, G.3.b

steps to create effective statement, G.2

techniques

introducing characters, G.3.c.ii strategic use of facts, G.3.c.i theory and controlling theme, G.3.c.iii theory and controlling theme, see also control- ling theme irrelevant or improper theme, G.3.c.iii.B organize and persuade, G.3.c.iii.A persuasive written advocacy, see written ad- vocacy on appeal point first advocacy, F.3.c.ii.A point first writing, K.4.b

Principles of Civility for Advocates

generally, A.7

guide to effective advocacy, A.8

prior inconsistent statements, see also impeachment through prior inconsistent statements admitting for truth, E.2.d.iii entering as exhibit, E.2.d.iv impeachment, and, E.2.b.ii

prior out-of-court statements of available witness, D.2.h

re-examination, J

res gestae, D.2.i.iii

resolute advocacy

duty, A.3

morality, A.4

Rules of Professional Conduct, and, A.5

Rules of Professional Conduct civility, A.2, A.6

duty of candour, fairness, courtesy and respect, A.5

duty of resolute advocacy, A.3

generally, A.7

storytelling

clarity, F.3.c.ii

credibility, F.3.c.iii

generally, F.3, F.3.a, F.3.b.ii, F.3.c

knowing audience, F.3.b.v

narrative, F.3.b.i

plot, F.3.b.iv.C

premise, F.3.b.iv.D

problem, F.3.b.iv.B

protagonist, F.3.b.iv.A

screenwriting, F.3.b.iii

simplicity, F.3.c.i

written advocacy on appeal

advocate's credibility, K.1.e

appeals involving statutory provision, K.4.f

appellate factum, purpose of, K.1.f

argument, K.4

appeals involving statutory provision, K.4.f

indented lists, K.4.e

point first writing, K.4.b

quotations and citations, K.4.d

show, don't tell, K.4.c standard of review, K.4.a

cardinal rule of advocacy, K.1.b

conciseness, K.1.d

context, K.2.c

editing, K.7

elements of writing, K.6

paragraphs, K.6.c

sentences, K.6.b

words, K.6.a

facts, K.3

adverse findings, K.3.d

bad facts, K.3.d

context, K.3.b

facts section and argument section, K.3.g

headings and sub-headings, K.3.c

organization, K.3.a

respondent's summary, K.3.e

visual and other aids, K.3.f

generally, K.1, K.2, K.8

headings and sub-headings, K.3.c

issues

deciding which to argue, K.2.b generally, K.2.a

roadmap, K.2.e

relief requested, K.2.d, K.5

simplicity, K.1.c

writing process, K.1.a