

INDEX

E

ESTABLISHING AND CHARACTERIZING THE INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR RELATIONSHIP, See Establishing and Characterizing

ESTABLISHING AND CHARACTERIZING

- Introduction, 11
- Recruiting and hiring, 11
- Factors to consider, 11
 - • Chance of profit or risk, 23
 - • Conformity with standard practices, 21
 - • • Exclusivity, 22
 - • Control, 12
 - • Hours of work, 15
 - • Performance expectations, 14
 - • • Place of work, 16
 - • • Remuneration, 17
 - • • • Benefit packages, 19
 - • • • Bonus compensation, 19
 - • • • Formulating the base pay, 17
 - • • • Future compensation increases, 19

- • • Method of pay, 20
- • Structuring the relationship, 13
- • Tools and expenses, 21
- Table summary of factors to consider, 24

I

ISSUES WITH IMMIGRATION AND CROSS-BORDER TRANSFERS

- Independent contractors and the business visitor category, 82
 - • Acceptable business visitor activities, 82
 - • • Business visitor definition, 83
 - • After-sales service, 84
- Independent contractor under Canadian Immigration Law, 81
 - • Canadian Immigration's definition of independent contractor, 95-81
- Introduction, 81
- Other immigration considerations, 105

Index

ISSUES WITH IMMIGRATION AND CROSS-BORDER TRANSFERS — cont'd

- Other immigration considerations — cont'd
 - • Criminal rehabilitation, 106
 - • Inadmissibility, 105, 106
 - • Temporary residence permits, 106
- Permanent residence options, 97
 - • Business Immigration: Self-employed class, 102
 - • • Relevant experience, 102, 103
 - • Canadian experience class, 98, 99
 - • Federal skilled worker program (FWSP), 98, 100, 103
 - • • Challenges, 101, 102
 - • Business Provincial nominee programs, 98, 99
 - Work permit options, 85
 - • Exceptions to the general rule, 91
 - • • International agreements, 92
 - • • Intra-company transfer work permit, 93
 - • • Significant benefit to Canada work permit, 95
 - • LMO-based work permit, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 91, 92, 94

- • • Advertising requirements, 88
- • • Contract requirements, 90
- • • Defining the employer-employee relationship, 86
- • • Salary requirements, 89

INDEPENDENT CONTRACTORS WITHIN THE LEGAL MODEL OF EMPLOYER-EMPLOYEE RELATIONSHIP, See Practical Perspectives

INTRODUCTION

- Advantages, 1
- Objectives, 3
- Trends in hiring independent contractors, 1
- Why diligence is paramount, 2
 - • Dangers of misclassification, 2

L

LEGISLATION

- Chart analysis of key federal and provincial/territorial legislative provisions, 78
- Introduction, 75
- Types of legislation that apply for independent contractor relationship, 75
 - • Frustrated Contracts Acts, 76
 - • Human Rights legislation, 75

Index

LEGISLATION — cont'd

- Types of legislation that apply for independent contractor relationship — cont'd
- • Workers' Compensation legislation, 77
- • Workers' Health and Safety legislation, 78

P

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES THAT MANAGE THE INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR RELATIONSHIP. See Policies and Procedures

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

- Contractor's right to refuse compliance, 29
- Intellectual property/work product, 31
- Introduction, 27
- Language, 28
- Underlying principle, 27
- Advantages of independent contractor relationship, 1, 5
- • Advantages for independent contractor, 5
- • General benefits, 1, 7
- • Legal benefits, 8
- • Note on taxation, 8
- • • Consequences of misclassification, 9
- Defined, 5

- Dependent contractors, 9
- • Definition, 10
- Differences, 5
- Employee vs. independent contractor, 5
- • Basic difference, 5
- Independent contractor agreement, 6
- Introduction, 5

T

TERMINATION OF THE INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR AGREEMENT

- Aggravated damages and bad faith conduct, 56
- • Examples of bad faith conduct, 56
- Can a contractor be a fiduciary, 55
- • Breach of fiduciary obligations, 57
- • Definition of fiduciary, 55
- • Factors to determine whether the contractor owes the payer a fiduciary obligation, 56
- • Fiduciary obligations, 56
- Constructive termination
- • Definition, 51
- • Kind of change required for repudiation, 51
- • Practical suggestions, 53
- • Repudiation, 51

Index

TERMINATION OF THE INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR AGREEMENT — cont'd

- Constructive termination — cont'd
 - • Result of repudiation of contract, 52
 - Does a contractor have an obligation to mitigate damages post-termination, 59
 - Fixed-term and defined-project contracts, 34
 - • Damages where the contract ends before the term expires or the project is complete, 36
 - • Defined-project contracts, 35
 - • Fixed-term contracts, 34
 - • • Features, 34
 - • • Roll-over/automatic renewal clauses, 34
 - Frustration of contract, 45
 - • Consequences of frustration, 47
 - • Definition, 45
 - • Illness, frustration and Human Rights, 45
 - Introduction, 33
 - Notice of Termination by the contractor, 48
 - • Length of notice, 48
 - • Wrongful resignation, 48
 - Post-Agreement restrictions, 52
 - • Characteristics, 52
 - • Definition, 52
 - Termination by agreement, 33
 - Termination for just cause, 43
 - Termination with notice, 37
 - • Legislation, 39
 - • Termination clauses in contractor agreements, 42
 - • • Dependent contractors, 42
 - • • Independent contractors, 42
 - • The Common Law, 40
 - • • Dependent contractors, 40
 - • • Independent contractors, 40

THIRD-PARTY EMPLOYERS

- Centralized CWM model, 120
- How to centralize your CWM program, 123
 - • Build the program, 123
 - • Determine scope, 123
 - • Program design, 124
- Important tips for success, 126
 - • Open communication and unfiltered feedback mechanisms, 127
 - • Standardize everything, 126
 - • Track, measure and report, 127
- Increasing employment and tax law enforcement, 110
- Increasing use of contract, freelance and temporary workers, 109
- Making a case for centralized contingent labour

Index

- management, 122
 - Program optimization and future best practices, 125
 - • Maximizing the program, 126
 - • Optimizing the program, 125
 - Third-party CWM service provider models, 118
 - Third-party definitions, 112
 - • Independent contractor engagement and payrolling specialists, 113
 - • • Case study: A large Canadian bank, 114
 - • Managed Service Provider (MSP), 115, 118, 121
 - • Staffing agency vendors, 112
 - • Vendor Management Systems (VMS), 115, 118, 125, 127
 - When to use a third-party MSP, 132
 - Why use a third-party to help centralize the contingent workforce, 116
 - Working with a third-party in the contractor/employer relationship, 111
 - • Contingent Workforce Management, 111
- TORT LAW IN THE INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR RELATIONSHIP
- Exceptions to the general rule, 63
 - • Agency, 64
 - • Landowner liability and strict liability, 66
 - • • Nuisance, 66
 - • • Trespass, 67
 - • Non-delegable duties, 68
 - • • Disguised form of vicarious liability, 68
 - • Occupiers' Liability legislation, 65
 - • • Definition of occupier, 65
 - • • Exclusion, 65
 - • Ultra-hazardous activity
 - • • Special precautions, 70
 - General rule, 61
 - • Exceptions, 61
 - Introduction, 61
 - • Definition of tort, 61
 - Principles of vicarious liability, 62
 - • Definition, 62
 - • Special relationship, 62
 - Strategic considerations, 71

