

TABLE OF CONTENTS

About the Authors .....	iii
Preface .....	v
Introduction .....	1
CHAPTER 1: PRACTICAL PERSPECTIVES — INDEPENDENT CONTRACTORS WITHIN THE CURRENT LEGAL MODEL OF THE EMPLOYMENT RELATIONSHIP .....	5
1.1 Introduction.....	5
1.2 Employee vs. Independent Contractor .....	5
a) The Basic Difference .....	5
b) Independent Contractor Agreement .....	6
1.3 Advantages of the Independent Contractor Relationship .....	7
a) A Note on Taxation .....	8
1.4 Dependent Contractors.....	9
CHAPTER 2: ESTABLISHING AND CHARACTERIZING THE INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR RELATIONSHIP .....	11
2.1 Introduction.....	11
2.2 Recruiting and Hiring the Independent Contractor .....	11
a) Factors to Consider in the Recruitment and Hiring Process.....	12
i) Control.....	12
ii) Structuring the Relationship.....	13
iii) Performance Expectations.....	14
iv) Hours of Work .....	15
v) Place of Work .....	16
vi) Remuneration .....	17
(1) Formulating the Base Pay .....	17
(2) Future Compensation Increases.....	19
(3) Bonus Compensation .....	19
(4) Benefit Packages.....	19
(5) Method of Pay .....	20

Table of Contents

vii) Tools and Expenses.....	21
viii) Conformity with Standard Practices.....	21
(1) Exclusivity.....	22
ix) Chance of Profit or Risk .....	23
b) Table Summary of Factors to Consider.....	24

CHAPTER 3: POLICIES AND PROCEDURES THAT MANAGE THE INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR RELATIONSHIP .....

3.1 Introduction.....	27
3.2 Policies and Procedures: The Underlying Principle.....	27
3.3 Language of Policies and Procedures .....	28
3.4 A Contractor’s Right to Refuse Compliance.....	29
3.5 Intellectual Property/Work Product .....	31

CHAPTER 4: TERMINATION OF THE INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR AGREEMENT .....

4.1 Introduction.....	33
4.2 Termination by Agreement of the Parties.....	33
4.3 Fixed-Term and Defined-Project Contracts.....	34
a) Fixed-Term Contracts.....	34
b) Defined-Project Contracts .....	35
c) Damages Where the Contract Ends Before the Term Expires or Project Is Complete .....	36
4.4 Termination with Notice .....	39
a) Legislation.....	39
b) The Common Law .....	40
i) Independent Contractors .....	40
ii) Dependent Contractors .....	41
c) Termination Clauses in Independent Contractor Agreements .....	42
i) Independent Contractors .....	42
ii) Dependent Contractors .....	42
4.5 Termination for “Just Cause” .....	43
4.6 Frustration of Contract .....	45
a) Illness, Frustration and Human Rights.....	46
b) Consequences of Frustration.....	47
4.7 Notice of Termination by the Contractor.....	48
4.8 Constructive Termination.....	49
a) What Kind of Change Is Required for Repudiation?.....	49
b) Result of Repudiation of Contract.....	50
c) Practical Suggestions.....	51
4.9 Post-Agreement Restrictions .....	52

Table of Contents

4.10	Can a Contractor Be a Fiduciary?.....	53
	a) What Are Fiduciary Obligations?.....	55
	b) Breach of Fiduciary Obligations.....	55
4.11	Aggravated Damages and Bad Faith Conduct.....	56
4.12	Does a Contractor Have an Obligation to Mitigate Damages Post-Termination?.....	57
 CHAPTER 5: TORT LAW IN THE INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR RELATIONSHIP .....
		61
5.1	Introduction.....	61
5.2	The General Rule.....	61
5.3	The Principles of Vicarious Liability .....	62
5.4	Exceptions to the General Rule .....	63
	a) Agency .....	64
	b) Occupiers' Liability Legislation.....	65
	c) Landowner Liability and Strict Liability .....	66
	i) Nuisance.....	66
	ii) Trespass.....	67
	d) Non-Delegable Duties.....	68
	e) Ultra-Hazardous Activity .....	69
5.5	Strategic Considerations .....	71
 CHAPTER 6: LEGISLATION .....
		75
6.1	Introduction.....	75
6.2	What Types of Legislation Apply to the Independent Contractor Relationship?.....	75
	a) Human Rights Legislation.....	75
	b) Frustrated Contracts Acts .....	76
	c) Employment Standards Legislation .....	76
	d) Workers' Compensation Legislation.....	77
	e) Workers' Health and Safety Legislation .....	78
6.3	Chart Analysis of Key Federal and Provincial/Territorial Legislative Provisions.....	78
 CHAPTER 7: ISSUES WITH IMMIGRATION AND CROSS-BORDER TRANSFERS.....
		81
7.1	Introduction.....	81
7.2	The Independent Contractor Under Canadian Immigration Law.....	81
7.3	Independent Contractors and the Business Visitor Category.....	82
	a) Acceptable Business Visitor Activities .....	82
	b) After-Sales Service.....	84

Table of Contents

7.4	Work Permit Options .....	85
	a) The LMO-Based Work Permit .....	86
	i) Defining the Employer-Employee Relationship .....	86
	ii) Advertising Requirements .....	88
	iii) Salary Requirements .....	89
	iv) Contract Requirements .....	90
	b) Exceptions to the General Rule .....	91
	i) International Agreements .....	92
	ii) The Intra-Company Transfer Work Permit .....	93
	iii) Significant Benefit to Canada Work Permit .....	95
7.5	Permanent Residence Options .....	97
	a) Canadian Experience Class .....	99
	b) Provincial Nominee Programs .....	99
	c) Federal Skilled Worker Program .....	100
	d) Business Immigration: Self-Employed Class .....	102
7.6	Other Immigration Considerations .....	105
	a) Inadmissibility .....	105
	b) Temporary Residence Permits .....	106
	c) Criminal Rehabilitation .....	106
	CHAPTER 8: THIRD-PARTY EMPLOYERS .....	109
8.1	Increasing Use of Contract, Freelance and Temporary Workers .....	109
8.2	Increasing Employment and Tax Law Enforcement .....	110
8.3	Working with a Third Party in the Contractor/Employer Relationship .....	111
8.4	Third-Party Definitions .....	112
	a) Staffing Agency Vendors .....	112
	b) Independent Contractor Engagement and Payrolling Specialists .....	113
	i) Case Study: A Large Canadian Bank .....	114
	c) Vendor Management Systems (VMS) .....	115
	d) Managed Service Provider (MSP) .....	115
8.5	Why Use a Third Party to Help Centralize the Contingent Workforce .....	116
8.6	Third Party CWM Service Provider Models .....	118
8.7	Centralized CWM Model .....	120
8.8	When to Use a Third-Party MSP .....	121
8.9	Making a Case for Centralized Contingent Labour Management .....	122
8.10	How to Centralize Your CWM Program .....	123
	a) Determine Scope .....	123
	b) Program Design .....	124

Table of Contents

c)	Build the Program.....	124
8.11	Program Optimization and Future Best Practices.....	125
a)	Optimizing the Program .....	125
b)	Maximizing the Program.....	126
8.12	Important Tips for Success .....	126
a)	Standardize Everything.....	126
b)	Track, Measure and Report .....	127
c)	Open Communication and Unfiltered Feedback Mechanisms .....	127
	APPENDIX: SAMPLES.....	129
A	Independent Contractor Agreement .....	129
B	Checklist to Create a True Independent Contractor Relationship.....	139
	Index .....	143

