

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface to the Second Edition	v
Preface to the First Edition.....	vii
Table of Cases.....	xxiii
Chapter 1 — Parliament and Acts of Parliament
Understanding Government and “Parliament”	1
History of Acts of Parliament	3
Public and Private Bills	5
Drafting a Bill	6
How a Bill Is Considered in Parliament.....	7
Commencement and Coming into Force	9
Irregularities in the Passage of a Bill	10
Chapter 2 — When an Act Comes into Force
The Date of Assent	13
What the Date of Assent Means.....	13
The Date and Time on Which the Act Comes into Force.....	14
Bringing the Act into Force on a Later Day	15
Treating an Act as Having Been In Force from a Day before the Date on Which it Was Passed	18
The Effect of a Statute Revision on In Force Dates.....	18
Statutes Continue In Force Indefinitely	20
Chapter 3 — How Acts Cease to Be: Repeal, Expiration, Replacement and Obsolescence
How Acts Expire or are Repealed.....	21
How Acts are Repealed and Replaced	22
How Acts Become Obsolete	23
Chapter 4 — Classes of Acts of Parliament
Introduction	25
General and Private Acts.....	25
Amending Acts.....	27
Repeal Acts	28
Codes.....	29

Table of Contents

Declaratory Acts.....	30
Consolidations.....	31
Revised Acts	33
Validating Acts.....	36
Duplicate Acts.....	36
Chapter 5 — The Elements of an Act
Introduction	39
The Elements of an Act	39
Chapter 6 — The Regnal Year
The Regnal Year.....	41
Chapter 7 — The Citation
Citation Basics.....	43
The Chapter Number	44
Parliament of the United Kingdom.....	46
The Effect of the Number	47
Chapter 8 — The Long Title of the Act
The Form of the Long Title.....	49
The Long Title as Part of the Act.....	49
Using the Long Title to Find the Meaning of the Act.....	50
Chapter 9 — The Short Title
The Nature of the Short Title.....	53
Where the Short Title Is Found.....	53
The Use of the Short Title	54
The Legal Effect of a Short Title.....	54
Short Title of Regulations.....	56
Chapter 10 — The Table of Contents
Other Names for the Table of Contents	57
The Nature of the Table of Contents	57
The Table of Contents is Not an Index	58
The Effect of the Table of Contents	59

Table of Contents

Chapter 11 — The Enacting Words
The Use of Enacting Words.....	61
The Effect of the Enacting Words.....	61
Chapter 12 — The Preamble
An Alternative Name.....	63
The Reason for the Preamble	63
The Preamble as Part of the Act	65
The Form of a Preamble	66
The Use of the Preamble to Find the Meaning of a Section	67
Chapter 13 — The Purpose Section of an Act
What the Purpose Section of an Act Is.....	69
The Purpose Section Is Part of the Act.....	70
Where to Find the Purpose Section	70
How to Use the Purpose Section	71
Chapter 14 — Definitions
The Need for Definitions.....	73
The Definitions Section.....	74
The Effect of Definitions in an Act.....	76
Definitions Which Use “Mean” or “Include” or Both.....	77
Definitions in Other Acts.....	80
The Role of Interpretation Acts.....	81
Dictionary Definitions and Technical Terms	81
Chapter 15 — Headings
The Nature of Headings	83
The Form of Headings	83
The Use of Headings	84
Headings and the Charter of Rights and Freedoms.....	87
The Effect of Headings When the Meaning of a Section is Clear	88
The Effect of Headings in the Interpretation of a Word or Section	88

Table of Contents

Chapter 16 — Parts
The Nature of Parts	91
The Effect of Dividing an Act into Parts.....	92
Chapter 17 — Sections, Subsections, Paragraphs, etc.
Sections	95
Setting out the Act in Numbered Sections, Subsections, and Paragraphs, etc.....	95
The Effect of Numbered Sections, Subsections, Paragraphs, etc.....	98
References to Former Enactments Cited at the End of a Section of an Act.....	99
Conflicting Sections in the Same Act.....	100
Chapter 18 — Marginal Notes
The Nature of Marginal Notes	103
The Form of a Marginal Note	104
Parliament and Marginal Notes.....	105
The Problem with Marginal Notes.....	106
Using Marginal Notes to Find the Meaning of an Act....	107
An Alternative System.....	108
Chapter 19 — Provisos
The Nature of a Proviso	111
The Form of a Proviso.....	112
The Effect of a Proviso	112
Chapter 20 — Punctuation
Acts of Parliament Passed before 1850.....	113
Acts of Parliament Passed after 1850	113
Chapter 21 — Schedules
The Nature of a Schedule.....	117
Ascertaining the Status of a Schedule.....	120
Conflict between a Section of an Act and a Schedule to that Act.....	121
The Use of Scheduled Forms.....	122

Table of Contents

Chapter 22 — Incorporation of Legislation or Documents by Reference

Legislation Incorporated by Reference.....	123
Non-Legislative Materials Incorporated by Reference	125
The Difficulty with Incorporation by Reference	126

Chapter 23 — How Acts and the Common Law Work in Conjunction with One Another

The Courts and the Common Law	127
How Acts and the Common Law Interact	129
Parliament Does Not Intend to Change the Common Law.....	130
Discrepancies between the Common Law and a Statute	131
The Extent to Which the Common Law Continues to Apply.....	131
Re-Enactment after an Act Has Been Interpreted by the Courts.....	133

Chapter 24 — Statutory Interpretation before the Adoption of the “Modern Principle”

Before the Modern Principle.....	135
Equitable Construction and the Mischief Rule	136
The Plain Meaning Rule.....	137
The Golden Rule	138

Chapter 25 — The Modern Principle Approach to Statutory Interpretation

Defining the Modern Principle.....	143
Dimensions of the Modern Principle	144
Textual Meaning.....	144
Legislative Intent	147
Compliance with Established Legal Norms.....	149
Three Questions to Address	151
The Duty to Interpret and the Doctrine of Vagueness in Charter Adjudication	152

Table of Contents

Chapter 26 — Textual Meaning
Presumption of Knowledge	155
Parliament Does Not Speak in Vain.....	155
Consistent Meaning.....	157
Plausible Meaning	158
Chapter 27 — The Meaning of Words Not Defined in the Act
Difficulty in Establishing the Meaning of Words	161
Where Possible, a Word Is to Be given the Same Meaning throughout the Act	161
Words in an Act Have Ordinary, Current Meanings.....	162
Dictionary Definitions	163
Other Sources for Definitions	164
Technical Terms and Legal Terms	166
Original Meaning Rule.....	167
Chapter 28 — Determining Meaning through Associated Words
The Nature of the Rule.....	169
The Rule is to Be Applied with Caution.....	170
Chapter 29 — The Limited Class Rule
The Nature of the Class Rule.....	171
The General Word Must Follow after a Class of Specific Words.....	173
There Must Be Two or More Specific Words before the General Word.....	174
A Court Will Not Necessarily Apply the Class Rule.....	174
The Class Rule Does Not Give Guidance on the Meaning of Specific Words within the Class	175
Chapter 30 — Express Inclusions and Implied Exclusions
The Name of the Rule.....	177
The Effect of the Rule.....	177
The Use of the Rule in Relation to Definitions	178
The Rule Must Be Applied with Caution.....	179
Chapter 31 — Presumption against Absurdity or Absurd Results
Ambiguity in Acts of Parliament	181

Table of Contents

Parliament Cannot Be Presumed to Act Unreasonably or Absurdly	183
How Courts Interpret Provisions to Avoid Absurd Results.....	184
Chapter 32 — Legislative Gaps and Omissions
The Rule as to Things Left out of the Act.....	187
Using Implied Terms or the Common Law to Fill Gaps in Legislation	188
Chapter 33 — Mistakes in an Act
Common Causes of Mistakes in Acts of Parliament.....	193
The Effect of a Mistake as to the Facts.....	194
The Effect of a Mistake as to the Law.....	195
The Effect of a Belief as to a Mistake in Policy	196
The Effect of a Drafter’s Error	196
The Effect of Typographical Errors.....	198
The Extent to Which the Courts Will Correct Mistakes in Acts	199
Chapter 34 — The Purpose of an Act
Interpretation and the Purposes of the Act.....	201
Legal Foundation for Interpretation with Reference to the Purposes of the Act.....	202
The Charter of Rights and Freedoms and the Purposes of an Act.....	203
Determining Legislative Intention and Purpose	206
Balancing Competing or Conflicting Legislative Purposes.....	208
Inferring Legislative Purposes.....	209
Chapter 35 — Extrinsic Materials and Surrounding Circumstances Used to Understand the Meaning of an Act
The Use of Extrinsic Materials to Interpret an Act	211
The Historical Reluctance to Use Extrinsic Materials.....	212
Types of Extrinsic Materials	213
Hansard	213

Table of Contents

Reports by Law Reform Commissions.....	216
Reports by Royal Commissions, Task Forces, and Commissions of Inquiry.....	217
Parliamentary Committee Reports	219
Draft Versions and Commentary.....	219
Miscellaneous Reports and Other Government Documents	220
Interpretation Bulletins and Information Circulars....	221
Explanatory Notes.....	222
Subordinate Legislation (i.e., Regulations, etc.).....	223
The Use of Surrounding Circumstances to Interpret an Act.....	224
Chapter 36 — The Act Must Be Read as a Whole
Words Must Be Read in the Light of the Entire Section.....	227
Meaning Must Be Construed in the Light of the Act as a Whole	227
An Act’s Meaning May Be Construed in Light of its Regulations	228
Chapter 37 — Interpreting an Act in the Light of Other Acts
Acts Which Are Related to the Act Are Considered	231
Words in One Act May Be Defined in Light of Words in Other Similar Acts.....	232
Effect of the Date of Enactment of Related Statutes	233
Construction of the Same Words Appearing in a Subsequent Act In Pari Materia	234
Meaning Must Be Construed in the Light of the Statute Book as a Whole.....	235
Meaning May Be Construed in the Light of Statutes and Cases in Other Jurisdictions.....	237
The Effect of Acts Which Are Not Related to the Act under Consideration.....	238

Table of Contents

Chapter 38 — Acts Which Overlap, Conflict and Are Inconsistent with Each Other

Overlap and Conflict between Different Acts of Parliament	239
Acts Are Presumed to Be Coherent	239
Overlapping Acts	240
Conflict between Federal and Provincial Acts	240
Other Methods for Resolving Conflicts between Acts	241
The Intention of Parliament	241
Hierarchy among Sources of Law	242
Explicit Provisions	244
Specific Statutes Prevail over General	245
Implied Repeal	246

Chapter 39 — Interpreting an Act in the Light of the Constitution

Legislation Is Presumed to Be Made in Compliance with the Constitution	249
Enactments Are to Be Construed in Such a Way as to Make Them Conform with the Constitution	253
Enactments Which Are Unconstitutional Are Not Necessarily Repealed by Parliament	256

Chapter 40 — The Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms

The Nature of the Charter	259
The Basis for Interpreting the Charter	260
The Purposive Approach to Interpretation of the Charter	261
Interpretation Acts Do Not Apply to the Charter	262
Charter Values in the Interpretation of Statutes	262

Chapter 41 — Applicable Interpretive Principles for Aboriginal Legislation and Treaties

Special Principles of Interpretation Apply to Treaties	265
Principles of Interpretation Which Apply to Legislation	269

Table of Contents

Chapter 42 — The Interpretation of Quasi-Constitutional Legislation

Quasi-Constitutional Acts.....	271
The Canadian Bill of Rights is Quasi-Constitutional.....	271
Human Rights Acts are Quasi-Constitutional	273
How Courts Interpret Human Rights Legislation	275
Human Rights Legislation Must Be Interpreted in a Consistent Way	277
Language Rights Are Human Rights	277
Privacy Rights Are Quasi-Constitutional.....	278
Quasi-Constitutional Statutes Are Interpreted Using the Modern Principle Approach	279

Chapter 43 — Interpreting an Act in Light of International Law

The Presumption That Statutes Are Compliant with International Law	281
Implementing International Obligations.....	282
Interpretation of Statutes Implementing International Conventions	285

Chapter 44 — Acts Which Are Interpreted in a Broad and Liberal Manner

Every Enactment Is Deemed Remedial	287
--	-----

Chapter 45 — Acts Which Are to Be Read Narrowly

The Kinds of Acts That Are Read Narrowly	291
Exceptions and Defences to Human Rights Legislation	293
Acts Which Impose a Penalty.....	294
Acts Which Empower Arrest or Detention	295
Acts Which Affect Vested Rights	295
Acts Which Authorize the Expropriating of Property	299
Acts Affecting a Fundamental Principle of the Common Law.....	300
Other Acts Read Narrowly	301

Table of Contents

Chapter 46 — Acts That Apply from before the Date on Which They Were Passed

Retroactive or Retrospective?	303
The Presumption That Statutes Are Not Retroactive.....	305
Clear Words or a Clear Implication	306
Declaratory Provisions and Retroactivity	307
Retroactivity and Existing Rights.....	308
Retroactivity and Legislation Designed to Protect the Public.....	310
Retroactivity and Tax Legislation	311
Retroactivity, Punishment, Penalties and Forfeiture	313
Acts Relating to Procedure Operate Immediately.....	315
Not All Procedural Provisions Are Retrospective	317
Rules of Evidence	317
Limitation Periods.....	317
Cost Awards	318
Conclusion.....	319

Chapter 47 — The Jurisdiction in Which an Act Operates

An Act Operates within and Sometimes beyond the Territory of the Parliament That Enacted It.....	321
Applying the Principle to Bodies Acting under Parliamentary Authority	324

Chapter 48 — How Acts of Parliament Affect the Crown

The Meaning of “the Crown”	325
When an Act Binds the Crown	325
The Crown May Waive Immunity	327
The Extent of “the Crown”	329

Chapter 49 — Bilingual and Bijural Legislation

The Civil Code of Quebec	331
Bilingual Legislation	332
The Constitutional and Statutory Authority for Bilingual Legislation	333
The Form of Bilingual Legislation	334

Table of Contents

The Equal Authenticity Rule and the Shared Meaning Rule	336
Bijuralism	337
Chapter 50 — Regulations
Regulations and Statutory Instruments.....	341
Who Can Make Regulations?.....	344
How Regulations Come into Being.....	346
Regulations Laid before Each House of Parliament	347
Regulations Subject to an Affirmative or a Negative Resolution	347
The Standing Joint Committee for the Scrutiny of Regulations	348
How Regulations Are “Made”	350
Filing/Registration and Publication Requirements.....	351
Regulations Made before the Enabling Act Is in Force...	352
Repeal of the Enabling Act.....	352
The Interpretation of Regulations	354
Initial Presumption of Validity.....	355
Reasons for Invalidity	356
Frustration of the Purpose of the Act	356
Inconsistency or Conflict between the Regulation and the Act	357
Exceeding Authority	358
Invalid Sub-Delegation.....	360
Noncompliance with the Laws on Registration or Publication	360
Taxation.....	361
Unreasonableness.....	362
Retroactivity	364
Violation of the Constitution.....	364
Terms Used in Both the Subordinate Legislation and the Enabling Act.....	366

Table of Contents

Chapter 51 — Further Reading

Further Reading on Statutory Interpretation	367
Canadian Textbooks	367
English Textbooks	367

Chapter 52 — Glossary

.....	369
Appendix A — Abbreviations for Legislation	387
Appendix B — Regnal Years Chart.....	391
Index.....	399

