TABLE OF CONTENTS

Foreword iii
Preface v
Table of Cases TC-1

Chapter 1: An Introduction to Subdivision Control 1
1. Subdivision Control and its Evolution 1
2. Goals of Subdivision Control 4
   (a) Certainty of Boundaries 4
   (b) Adequate Lot Size 4
   (c) Appropriate Roads 4
   (d) Necessary Servicing at Lowest Risk to Taxpayer 5
   (e) Creation of a "Pleasant and Convenient Environment" 5
   (f) Balanced Tax Base 5
   (g) Preserving Farm Land 6
3. Role and Format of Section 50 6
4. Planning Act and Judicial Interpretation 7
   (a) Vendors and Purchasers Act Applications 7
   (b) The Planning Act Reference 9
5. Standard of Care for Solicitors 10
6. The Future of Subdivision Control 13

Chapter 2: Effect of Contravention: Section 50(21) 15
1. Introduction 15
2. Meaning of "Create or Convey any Interest in Land" 16
3. Is the Whole Agreement Void? 18
   (a) The Issue 18
   (b) Background 18
   (c) Effect upon Agreements of Purchase and Sale 20

(d) Effect Upon Mortgages and Deeds 21
(e) Assignments of Rents and Other Security 23
(f) Estoppel and Equity as a Defence 24
(g) Equitable Mortgages 26
4. Contravention as Matter Going to Root of Title 27
5. Exception for Agreements With "Express Condition" 27
(a) Background 27
(b) Meaning of "Express Condition Contained Therein" 29
(c) Some Agreements Where Express Condition is Necessary 32
(d) Judging the Need for Express Condition 34
(i) A timing problem for options 34
(ii) Agreements where property has been previously conveyed with consent 36
(e) Rectification to Include the Condition 36
(f) Duty of Vendor to Comply with Act 38
6. Is Purchaser's Lack of Knowledge of Need for Consent a Defence to a Claim of Contravention? 40
7. Exceptions for Mistakes in Description; Variances Between Intention and Documentation 43
(a) Omissions in Legal Descriptions; Rectification 44
(b) Confirming Possessory Title: Correcting Legal Descriptions by Quit Claim or Land Titles Transfer 47
8. Exception for Potential Illegality of Agreements to Purchase 48
9. Paramountcy of the Planning Act: Section 71 50
(a) Land Titles 50
(b) Registry System 51
(c) Federal Legislation 53

Chapter 3: The Basic Prohibition: Section 50(3) 55
1. Introduction 55
2. Who is Affected 57
3. Type of Transactions Prohibited 57
(a) Conveyances of Land by Deed or Transfer 58
(b) Powers of Appointment 58
(c) Mortgage or Charge of Land 59
(d) Agreements of Sale and Purchase 60
(e) Other Agreements Granting the Use of or Right in Land 60
(i) Easements and rights-of-way 60

(ii) Options to purchase and first refusal rights 62
(iii) Leases, Renewal Rights and Lease Extension Agreements, Life Interests, Life Leases 63
(iv) Encroachment agreements 64
(v) Boundary agreements 65
(vi) Assignments of agreements of purchase and sale and of options to purchase 65
(vii) Licences 66
(viii) Agreements related to co-operatives 68
(ix) Agreements separating land from the building 68

4. Transactions Not Prohibited 69
(a) Chattel Mortgages 69
(b) Vesting Orders 70
(i) Family law legislation 70
(ii) Vesting Orders under the Trustee Act 71
(c) Transfers by Operation of Law: Feeding the Estoppel 71
(d) Quit Claims and Transfers to Release Registered Interests in Land 74
(e) Release of Rights-of-Way 75
(f) Condominium Transactions 76
(g) Reservation of an Interest 77
(h) Trades or Swaps of Abutting Parcels 78
(i) Adverse Possession and Prescription 79
(j) Profits A Prendre 80

5. Conveyancing Loopholes Prohibited by Specific Statutory Prohibition 81
(a) Foreclosure Orders 81
(b) Partition Act Orders 82
(c) Partial Discharges 82

6. Summary 83

Chapter 4: The Exception: The Registered Plan of Subdivision: Section 50(3)(a) 85

1. Introduction 85

2. Meaning of "Registered Plan of Subdivision" 86
(a) Township Plans 86
(b) Registry Act and Land Titles Act — "Plan of Subdivision" 86
(c) Composite, Compiled or Municipal Plans 87

(d) Land Registrars' Compiled Plans 90
(e) Reference Plans 91
(f) Boundaries Act Plans 92
(g) Judges' Plans 93
3. Deemed Deregistration: Section 50(4) 93
(a) Effect of By-Law 93
(b) When Used? 94
(c) Procedural Requirements 95
4. Part Lot Control: An Exception to the Exception 97
5. Sale of Lots Prior to Registration of Plan: Section 52 98
5. PINs and Parcels 99

Chapter 5: The Exception: The Death of a Joint Tenant: Section 50(3)(a.1) 101

Chapter 6: The Exception: No Abutting Lands: Section 50(3)(b) 105
1. Introduction 105
2. Meaning of "Abutting" 106
(a) Commonly Accepted Meaning 106
(b) Lands Meeting at a Point 106
(c) Lands Abutting Horizontally: Section 50(2) 107
(d) Ownership of Beds of Streams and Ponds; Water Lots; Flooded Lands 108
(e) Conveyance of an Interest in Common Right-of-Way as Link to Two Separate Parcels 111
3. Three Statutory Exceptions to the no Abutting Lands Prohibition ... 112
4. Prohibited Types of Interests in Abutting Land: Retaining the Fee .. 114
(a) Introduction 114
(b) Retaining the Fee: The Technical Meaning 115
(c) Retaining the Fee — "Dominion Over the Fee"; the Power of Disposition 117
(d) Retaining the Equity of Redemption 119
(e) Retaining a Power of Appointment 119
5. Types of Interests in Abutting Land that are Acceptable 120
(a) As Mortgagee 121
(b) Possessing Right-of-Way Only in Abutting Land 122
(c) Holding Right of First Refusal in Abutting Land 123

(d) Purchaser of Abutting Land Under Agreement of Purchase and Sale 124
(e) Paper Title Retention Where Title is Lost by Adverse Possession, Erosion, or Municipal Road Dedication or Assumption 126
(f) Interests of Optionor and Optionee after Granting of Option..... 127
(g) A Vendor Under an Agreement of Sale Constituting an Owner of Abutting Land 132
(h) Possessing Right to Occupy after Conveyance to Director, Veterans' Land Act 133
(i) Errors in Description: Appearing to Retain Abutting Land Where No Property Interest Remains..... 134
(j) General Summary and Conclusions 136
6. Tenure of Abutting Land: Ownership of Abutting Parcels is Different..... 136
(a) Establishing the "Relevant Party" 136
(b) Interpretation of "Grantor" Approach..... 138
(c) Joint Tenants 139
(d) Tenants-in-Common 142
(e) Tenants-in-Common and Joint Tenancies that abut..... 144
(f) Partners 144
(g) Releases of Interest by Co-owners: Section 50(19)..... 145
(h) Executors and Administrators, Estate Trustees..... 147
(i) Construction Lien Claims..... 148
(j) Trusts: An Analytical Plan..... 148
(i) The Relevance of Land Titles 150
(ii) The Registry System: no notice of trusts 154
(iii) The Registry System: owner holds in trust on title..... 155
(iv) Actual knowledge of the trust..... 157
(v) Summary..... 160
(k) Long Term Ground Leases..... 161
(l) Holder of Interest in a Condominium 162
7. Abutting Land Being the "Whole of a lot on a Registered Plan" Exception 162
8. Land that Abuts Land Previously Conveyed with an Unstipulated Consent 164
9. Abutting Land is a Condominium 166
10. Simultaneous Conveyances and Other Dealings 167
(a) History-Timing 167

(b) Section 50(15) 169
(c) Statutory Exception for "Same Parties in Same Respective Capacities" 171
(d) Exception for Land Divided Between Registry and Land Titles Systems 173
(e) Simultaneous Exchanges of Land; Swaps or Trades of Land 173
11. Merger of Separate Parcels 174

Chapter 7: Exceptions: Government, Transmission Lines and Conservation Authorities: Sections 50(3)(b.1), (c), (d), (e), (g), (h) 177
1. Government Acquisitions and Dispositions Section 50(3)(c) 177
(a) Background 177
(b) What is an Acquisition or Disposition? 178
(c) Meaning of "Her Majesty in Right of Canada" and "Her Majesty in Right of Ontario" 178
(d) Meaning of "Municipality": Section 1 180
(e) Hydro Exception and other Energy Undertakings 180
(f) Entities and Transactions Not Included 184
(i) "Proper Purpose" 184
(ii) Easements for privately-supplied services 186
2. Acquisition for Certain Transmission Lines: Section 50(3)(d) and (g) 186
3. Long Term Leases for Affordable Housing: Section 50(3)(b.1) 188
4. Acquisition for Conservation Purposes: Section 50(3)(e) 188
5. Grants of Easements or Covenants Under the Conservation Land Act: Section 50(3)(h) 189

Chapter 8: The Exception: Obtaining a Consent: Section 50(3)(f), Section 50(6) 191
1. Introduction 191
2. Granting Body: Section 50(1) 191
3. Who May Apply for Consent and When 192
4. How is Consent Given? 196
5. Two Year Validity: Section 53(43) 199
6. When is Consent Given 200
(a) Pre-August 1, 1983 Consents 201
(b) Post-August 1, 1983 Consents 202

(c) Provisional and conditional consents 202
7. Consent Does not Create a new lot; Registration of an Instrument is Necessary 203
8. Ability to Convey Remaining Part: Section 50(6) 203
(a) The history of section 50(6) 203
(b) The current provision 207
9. Relying on the Certificate: Section 53(42) 208
10. Certificate Missing From Title 209
11. Cancellation of Consent Certificates 209

Chapter 9: The Exceptions Extended 213
1. Relying on Combination of Exceptions 213
2. Satisfying Conditions for Registration of Plan of Subdivision: A Further Exception 214

Chapter 10: Prohibition Establishing Part Lot Control: Sections 50(5) and (7) 215
1. Introduction 215
2. Background — Timing 216
3. Scope of Prohibition 218
(a) The Knudsen Case 218
(b) The Courneyea Case 219
(c) Easement Cases 219
4. The Standard Exceptions 220
5. Exception for Remainder After Acquisition of Part by Body With Rights of Expropriation: Section 50(5)(e) 223
6. By-Law Exempting Lands from Part Lot Control: Section 50(7) 225

Chapter 11: Further Prohibitions: Plugging the Historic Loopholes: Sections 50(16), (17), (18), (19) and (20); Section 50.1 229
1. Partial Discharges: Sections 50(16) and (17) 229
(a) Introduction 229
(b) Background — Timing 230
(c) Current Prohibition: Section 50(16) 230
(d) Exceptions to the Rule: Section 50(17) and Cases 231
2. Foreclosure and Exercise of Power of Sale: Section 50(18) 232

(a) Introduction 232
(b) Background — Timing; History 232
(c) Current Provision 233
(d) Amending Mortgages and Adding Land 234

3. Release of Interest by Joint Tenant or Tenant-in-Common: Section 50(19) 235
(a) Introduction 235
(b) Background, History and Timing 235
(c) Current Prohibition 236

4. Partition Act Orders: Section 50(20) 237
(a) Introduction 237
(b) Background, History and Timing 237
(c) Current Provision 238

5. Transferring Land by Will: Section 50.1 239
(a) Introduction 239
(b) Background, History and Timing 239
(c) Current Provision 242

Chapter 12: Practical Statutory Exceptions: Sections 50(8), (9), (10), (11) 245

1. Vendor Take-Back Mortgages: Section 50(8) 245
(a) Background 245
(b) Current Exception 245
(c) Retroactivity of Section 50(8) 246
(d) Vendor Take-Back Mortgage to Third Party 248

2. Leases, Life Leases, and Other Transactions Involving Parts of Buildings: Section 50(9) 248
(a) Introduction 248
(b) Background and History 249
(c) Current Exception 249
(d) Outdoor and Ancillary Rights 252

3. Agreements Under the Drainage Act: Section 50(10) 253

4. Agricultural Rehabilitation and Development Act: Section 50(11) 254

Chapter 13: Interpretation of the Act by the Courts: Plain Meaning or Remedial Approach; The Reference Case 257

1. Introduction 257

2. Development of the Approaches 259
(a) The Parameters of the Controversy 259
(b) The Reference Case and the Plain Meaning Approach 261
(i) The plain meaning approach 261
(ii) Criticism of the remedial or purposive approach 262
(c) The Post-Reference Period 263
3. Position Taken by Commentators 267
4. "Fraud Upon the Act": A Separate Category 268
5. Putting Interpretation Into Practice: A Suggested Approach 272
(a) The Threshold Consideration 273
(b) If There is a Contravention of the Plain Words 273
(c) If There is no Contravention of the Plain Words 273
6. The Higher Standard 274
7. Summary of the Judicial Approaches 275
8. Conclusions 276

Chapter 14: Resolving Possible Contraventions Based on the Act Itself 279
1. Timing Considerations 279
(a) The Importance of Timing 279
(b) June 15, 1967 Rule 283
(c) Continuing Application of Subdivision Control By-laws 286
(i) Application of by-laws despite subsequent changes in enabling legislation 286
(ii) Application despite annexation of municipality 287
(d) Repeal of the "10 Acre Rule" 288
(e) Implications of the Imposition of Subdivision Control on Existing Transactions; Transitional Problems with Supervening Legislation 289
(i) Transactions completed before subdivision control imposed 289
(ii) Instruments delivered before but registered after subdivision control is imposed 289
(iii) Agreements executed before but transaction to be completed after subdivision control 289
2. Effect of Statutory Amendments Changing the Law Between Agreement and Closing 292
3. Conversion to Land Titles System 293
4. Retroactivity of Amendments to the Planning Act 295

5. Continuing Effect of Consents: Sections 50(12) and 50(13) 297
(a) Once a Consent, Always a Consent 298
(b) The Retroactivity of Subsection (12) on Pre-1979 Consents to Convey 299
(i) The case against retroactivity of subsection (12) 300
(ii) The case for retroactivity of subsection (12) 303
(iii) Once a consent, always a consent does not require subsection (12) 306
(iv) Resolving the debate 308
(c) An Extension of the Principle to the Abutting Non-consented Parcel 310
(d) Summary 312
6. Curative Effect of Registered Plans, Condominiums and Consents: Section 50(14) 312
(a) Introduction 312
(b) Retroactivity 315
(c) Judicial Interpretation 316
(d) Applying the Subsection 321
(i) Who is the owner with status to apply for consent and who can convey 322
(ii) Consents without severances-consents with no retained land 324
(e) Does a Consent for One Parcel Cure the Abutting Parcel's Title? 325
(f) Summary 327
7. Inadvertent Mergers and Technical Severances 327
8. Planning Act Affidavit: Not to be Relied on 330

Chapter 15: Prescribed Statements: Sections 50(22) to (25) 331
1. Introduction 331
2. Effect of Section 50(22) 332
3. The Grantee's Solicitor's Statement 337
(a) Contents of the Statement 337
(b) Benefits of Signing the Statements 338
4. The Grantor's Statement 339
(a) Contents of the Statement 339
(b) Benefits of Signing the Statements 339
5. The Grantor's Solicitor's Statement 339

(a) Contents of the Statement 339
(b) Concerns of the Grantor's Solicitor 340
(i) Explaining subdivision control 340
(ii) Making inquiry of the grantor of possible contravention 341
(iii) Solicitor is not certifying title 342
(iv) Limited participation 342
(v) Relying on the client 342
6. Liability for Errors 343
(a) Another New System for Land Division 343
(b) Signing Statements in the Face of Planning Act Contravention: Section 50(25) 344
(c) The Extent of Personal Liability 345
7. Exempting Orders (Section 50(24)) 346
8. Impact on Planning Act Searches 346
9. Example Problems and Suggested Answers 347
10. Other Questions 349
(a) When do the Statements Take Effect? 349
(b) How Do Corporations Sign? 349
(c) Rights Acquired from an Order 350
11. A Practical Approach 350

Chapter 16: Addressing the Suspected Breach: The Vendors and Purchasers Act and Rule 14.05(3) 353
1. Introduction: Choosing the Correct Proceeding 353
2. Additional Non-Title Problems in the Sale Context: The Combined Application 356
3. Practical Timing Considerations 356
4. Additional Parties 357
5. Documents Required 358
6. Implications of Order 359
7. Conclusion 359

Chapter 17: Methods of Repairing Past Contraventions: Answering Common Planning Act Requisitions 361
1. Introduction 361

2. Problem of Misdescription in Deed or Inconsistency Between Title and Possession 362
3. Fixing Misdescription in Land Titles; Omitted Pins 365
(a) Changing a Legal Description 365
(b) Omitted PINs 365
4. Contravention of Part Lot Control 367
5. Contravention Followed by 10 Years of Adverse Possession 368
6. The Validation Certificate: Section 57 369
(a) Section 57 and its Background 369
(b) When Is It Used? 370
(c) Section 57 and its Background 372
(d) The Effect of a Certificate on Title and on Priorities 373
(e) Who Can Apply? 376
(f) Who has Jurisdiction to Hear the Application? 376
(g) What are the Criteria? 377
(h) What is the Application Procedure? — Consent Procedures do not Apply to Validations 378
(i) The Form of Certificate 380
7. Conveying With Consent: Subsection (14) 381

Appendix 1: Planning Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. P.13 385
Appendix 2: Ontario Regulation 197/96 429
Appendix 3: Certificate of Validation 445
Appendix 4: Certificate of Cancellation 447
Appendix 5: A Procedural Guide to the Ontario Planning Act Amendments 2022 449

Index 471