TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface v

Chapter 1 Introduction 1
The "After the JD" Study 3
Canadian Trends 5
Why are we Leaving? 7
Push and Pull Factors 8
Push Factors 9
Pull Factors 9
Where are we Going? 9
What Happens in our New Careers? 10
Moving In and Out of Law 11
Finding More Flexibility Within the Practice of Law 12
What is Work-life Balance and Why Use the Term? 14
What the Law Society of Alberta Study Tells Us about People Leaving the Law 15
What the Law Society of British Columbia Tells Us about Creating Better Workplaces 16
What the Law Society of Upper Canada Study Tells Us about Working in Law 16
The Justicia Project 17
Why is Anything Other Than the Typical Practice of Law Called "Alternative" or "Non-Traditional"? 18
Seeking Out Something New 19
A Last Word 20

Chapter 2 Exploring Other Career Paths During Law School: Looking at the Process for Law Students 23
Law School Admissions Requirements 24
How is Law School Different from Legal Practice? 25
Yes, You Got into Law School, But Do You Actually Want to Be a Lawyer? 26
Law School Support – Career Development Offices 27
The New Law Practice Program 28

Positioning Yourself for Roles Outside Traditional Practice 29
Information Interviews 29
Panels 30
Connecting with Alumni 30
Creating Your Own Opportunities 31
Crafting a Strategy 31
Wrestling with Difficult Questions: Should You Quit Law School? Should You Article? 32
What the Lawyers We Interviewed Say 33

Chapter 3 Making a Change: Looking at the Process for Lawyers 35
Feelings of Frustration with Private Practice 36
Culture Clash 37
Struggling with Expectations of Yourself and from Others 39
Lack of Self-assessment during Law School and Early Years of Practice 40
Working with a Career Coach/Counsellor 41
When to Make a Career Change 42
Embracing the Process 43
Being OK with Some Risk 43
Changing Focus 44
Identifying Transferable Skills 45
Brainstorming Next Steps 45
Avoiding the Pitfall of Overestimating your Application 46
Additional Education, Retraining or Volunteer Work 47
Contract Positions 47
Where do Lawyers Tend to Go? 48

Chapter 4 Moves Within the Profession 51
Going In-house 52
Flexible Work Arrangements 54
What are Common Flexible Work Arrangements? 56
Telecommuting 56
Flextime 56
Part-time or Reduced Hours 57
Negotiated Lower Billing Target 58

Compressed Workweek....58
Job Sharing....58
Banking of Hours/Annualized Hours....59
Flexible Work Arrangements in Law Firms: Do They Work?....59
The Catalyst Study....60
Potential Advantages....61
Potential Drawbacks....62
How are Salaries Affected?....62
Will I Just End Up Working All the Time but for Less Money?....63
Are they Career Limiting?....64
Will it Work in your Firm, Given its Size or your Practice Area?....65
Reflecting on the Definition of Success....66
Proposing a Flexible Work Arrangement....66
Working with a Flexible Work Arrangement....68
Anne's Experience....68
Leaves....70
Sabbaticals....71
Concerns about Returning from Leaves....71
Exploring Other Options and Returning to Law....72
Profile: Suzanne Lee, Associate, Kirwin Partners, Windsor, Ontario....72
Considering a New Practice Context....78
Moving to a Different Type of Legal Practice....78
Hannah's Experience....78
Working in a Different Place....82
Being a Contract Lawyer....84
Contract Lawyer/Locum Registries....84
Contract Lawyer Agencies....84
Interview with Christopher Sweeney, President, LexLocom....85
Recruitment and Professional Development....90
Working in Law Firm Recruitment and Professional Development....90
Erica's Experience....90

Chapter 5 Careers in Policy and Administration of Professions....95
Working in Government....95
Working as a Policy Analyst....97

Maya's Experience 97
Policy Positions in a Nutshell 105
Working in the Administration of Self-regulating Professions 106
Profile: Shenda Tanchak, Registrar & CEO of the College of Physiotherapists of Ontario 106
Working in the Administration of Self-regulating Professions in a Nutshell 111
Canada-wide 111
Alberta 112
British Columbia 112
Newfoundland & Labrador 112
Ontario 112
Saskatchewan 112

Chapter 6 Careers in Education 113
Working as a College Professor 114
Alex's Experience 114
Community College Professor in a Nutshell: Facts and Figures 120
Some Ideas about Salary 120
Working as a Law Professor 121
Ethan's Experience 121
University Professor in a Nutshell: Facts and Figures 129
Some Ideas about Salary 131
Working in Law School Administration 133
Laura's Experience 133
Working in Law School Administration in a Nutshell: Facts and Figures 134
Some Ideas about Salary 136
What Other Surveys Tell Us about Working in Administration 137
Getting Experience and Demonstrating your Interest 139
Job Leads: People to Talk To, Places to Visit 139
Working as a Law Librarian 140
Profile of Daniel Boyer, Associate Dean, User Services, McGill Libraries & Head Librarian of the Law Library, McGill University ... 140
Law Librarian in a Nutshell: Facts and Figures 146

Salaries for Law Librarians 149
Salaries and Qualifications for Law Librarians in Academic Law Libraries 149
Masters of Library Science/Masters of Information 151
Library Technician Diploma 152
Legal Research and Information Management Graduate Certificate (Durham College) 152
The New Law Librarians' Institute (Canadian Association of Law Libraries) 153
Job Leads 153
Working in Public Legal Education 153

Chapter 7 Being an Entrepreneur 157
Starting a Legal Recruitment Company 162
Profile of Steve Dykstra, President, Keybridge Legal Recruiting 162
Starting a Consulting/Social Entrepreneurship Business 170
Anita's Experience 170
Starting a Legal Publication 175
Profile of Melissa Kluger, Publisher and Editor of Precedent Magazine ... 175
Starting a Family Law Mediation Business 181
Profile of Rosanna Breitman, Family Law Mediator, Rechtshaffen, Breitman 181
Starting an Online Legal Services Company 192
Alan's Experience 192
Starting a Freelance Legal Writing Business 196
Sheila's Experience 196

Chapter 8 Conclusion 205
The Future of the Practice of Law in Canada 205
Outsourcing, Unbundling, and More "Do-It-Yourself" Options 206
The Traditional Law Firm Model is Under Strain 207
Client Pressures on the Billable Hour Model 208
New Lawyers Wanting to Change the Old System 208
Technology 209
Lots and Lots of Lawyers 210

Diversification of the Profession....210
Change is Everywhere....211
A Changing Profession – But is it Changing Fast Enough?....212
Conclusion....213

Appendix Insights from Career Coaches....217
Janine Denney-Lightfoot, Consultant, Phoenix-Legal Inc.,
http://www.phoenix-legal.com....217
Lianne Krakauer, Career & Leadership Coach, www.krakauer.ca....221
Sheena Macaskill, Coach, www.sheenamacaskill.com....225

Index....229