Table of Contents

Volume 1

PART I. OVERVIEW

CHAPTER 1. INTRODUCTION TO OASDI

I. GENERAL INFORMATION

§ 1:1 Scope
§ 1:2 Social Security Act and programs
§ 1:3 Distinguishing Social Security from SSI
§ 1:4 Social Security Administration
§ 1:5 Accessibility of SSA facilities

II. AGENCY STRUCTURE

§ 1:6 Structure of the Social Security Administration
§ 1:7 —District and Branch Offices
§ 1:8 —Regions
§ 1:9 Telephone access
§ 1:10 Claimant exclusion from SSA offices
§ 1:11 State agencies
§ 1:12 Hearings and appeals
§ 1:13 Office of Inspector General
§ 1:14 Office of General Counsel

III. SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBERS

§ 1:15 Social Security Numbers
§ 1:16 Who can be assigned a Social Security Number
§ 1:17 Who can be assigned a Social Security number—Documentation for Social Security Numbers
§ 1:18 Who can be assigned a Social Security Number—Replacement of Social Security cards
§ 1:19 —Limitation on number of replacement Social Security cards
§ 1:20 —Gender identity and Social Security cards
§ 1:21 —Issuance of new Social Security Numbers to victims of abuse
§ 1:22 —Penalties for false information and wrongful use of Social Security Numbers
§ 1:23 Prohibited reference to, or misue of, agency words and symbols

§ 1:24 Private printing of SSA applications and forms

IV. SOCIAL SECURITY SOURCES OF LAW

§ 1:25 Sources of Social Security law
§ 1:26 —SSA website
§ 1:27 —Social Security Act
§ 1:28 —Code of Federal Regulations
§ 1:29 —Program Operations Manual Systems (POMS)
§ 1:30 —Hearings, Appeals, and Litigation Law Manual (HALLEX)
§ 1:31 — —Useful HALLEX provisions
§ 1:32 —Social Security Rulings (SSRs)
§ 1:33 —Acquiescence Rulings (ARs)
§ 1:34 —Caselaw
§ 1:35 —Other agency sources
§ 1:36 —Finding old and obscure agency documents

V. TAX-RELATED ISSUES

§ 1:37 Federal income tax and Social Security/SSI benefits
§ 1:38 Foreign work
§ 1:39 —Totalization agreements
§ 1:40 Treaty obligations

VI. SOCIAL SECURITY PAYMENTS OUTSIDE THE U.S.

§ 1:41 Social Security benefit payments made outside the U.S.—To U.S. citizens
§ 1:42 —To non-U.S. citizens
§ 1:43 Non-citizen dependents of eligible aliens
§ 1:44 Payment of Social Security benefits to non-citizens residing in the U.S.

VII. ASSIGNMENT OF BENEFITS

§ 1:45 Assignment of Social Security or SSI benefits
§ 1:46 Assignment of Social Security benefits—Court ordered victim restitution
§ 1:47 Assignment of Social Security or SSI benefits—Private debt
§ 1:48 —Institutional claims
§ 1:49 —Welfare department claims
§ 1:50 —Tax debt
§ 1:51 —Child support or alimony
§ 1:52 —Bank debt and restraints
§ 1:53 —Federal student loans
§ 1:54 —Offset of non-SSA government debts from Social Security payments
§ 1:55 —Recoupment and withholding of benefits by SSA

VIII. SOCIAL SECURITY BENEFITS AND BANKRUPTCY

§ 1:56 Bankruptcy of claimant

IX. NON-ENGLISH SPEAKING LANGUAGE SERVICES

§ 1:57 Translation service to non-English speaking and hard of hearing claimants

X. ANNUAL TABLE OF SOCIAL SECURITY AND SSI BENEFITS AND COSTS

§ 1:58 Annual table of Social Security/SSI benefits and costs (2026)

CHAPTER 1A. INTERNET DISABILITY PRACTICE RESEARCH SOURCES

§ 1A:1 Scope

I. SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION (SSA)

§ 1A:2 SSA's websites
§ 1A:3 Administrative Law Judges
§ 1A:4 Appeals Council
§ 1A:5 SSA acronyms and abbreviations

II. OTHER AGENCY RESOURCES

§ 1A:6 Other government sources
§ 1A:7 Student loan discharge
§ 1A:8 Consumer financial protection

III. LEGAL RESOURCES

§ 1A:9 Legal sources
§ 1A:10 Lawyer licensing
§ 1A:11 Legal policy
§ 1A:12 Legal writing

IV. JUDICIAL ACCESS RESOURCES

§ 1A:13 Court access

V. MEDICAL RESOURCES

§ 1A:14 Medical terminology/dictionaries/abbreviations
§ 1A:15 Medical journals and medical library resources
§ 1A:16 General medical websites
§ 1A:17 AIDS/HIV
§ 1A:18 Blind, low-vision, and vision loss
§ 1A:19 Cardiac
§ 1A:20 Cancer
§ 1A:21 Chronic fatigue syndrome
§ 1A:22 Deaf, hard of hearing, and hearing loss
§ 1A:23 Digestive system and disorders
§ 1A:24 Drug addiction and alcoholism

§ 1A:25 Drug and pharmaceutical information
§ 1A:26 Hospitals
§ 1A:27 ICD codes
§ 1A:28 Laboratory tests
§ 1A:29 Long COVID/ Post-Acute Sequela of SARS-CoV-2 Infection (PASC)
§ 1A:30 Medical records and privacy
§ 1A:31 Mental health issues and conditions
§ 1A:32 Miscellaneous specific impairments
§ 1A:33 Neurological impairments
§ 1A:34 Obesity
§ 1A:35 Pain sites
§ 1A:36 Pediatrics
§ 1A:37 Radiology
§ 1A:38 Respiratory impairments

VI. PHYSICIAN LICENSING, STANDARDS, SANCTIONS

§ 1A:39 Physician licensing, board certification, and sanctions
§ 1A:40 Legal ethics material

VII. VOCATIONAL MATERIALS

§ 1A:41 Vocational sources

VIII. SSI

§ 1A:42 SSI (Supplemental Security Income)
§ 1A:43 Property valuation
§ 1A:44 Housing and transportation

IX. FEES

§ 1A:45 Representative fees

X. PRISONERS AND FLEEING FELONS

§ 1A:46 Prisoner re-entry

XI. MEDICARE AND MEDICAID

§ 1A:47 Medicare
§ 1A:48 Medicare Part D (drug benefits)
§ 1A:49 Medicaid

XII. VETERANS

§ 1A:50 Veterans benefits

XIII. MISCELLANEOUS

§ 1A:51 Miscellaneous resources

CHAPTER 2. DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION

I. INTRODUCTION

§ 2:1 Scope of chapter
§ 2:2 General considerations

II. STATUTORY RULES AFFECTING DISCLOSURE

§ 2:3 Social Security Act
§ 2:4 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA)
§ 2:5 Social Security implementation of FOIA Improvement Act of 2016
§ 2:6 Privacy Act
§ 2:7 Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA)

III. DISCLOSURE UNDER FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT (FOIA)

§ 2:8 Information required to be published in Federal Register
§ 2:9 Information that must be available for public inspection
§ 2:10 Other records which must be made promptly available
§ 2:11 Creation of records
§ 2:12 Where to submit requests for information
§ 2:13 Time limits for processing FOIA requests
§ 2:14 Information available for public inspection
§ 2:15 FOIA disclosure principles and burden of proof
§ 2:16 Availability of potentially exempt information
§ 2:17 Information in personnel, medical, or similar files
§ 2:18 Fees for information under FOIA
§ 2:19 Request for waiver of fees for FOIA requests
§ 2:20 Administrative review of FOIA denial

IV. DISCLOSURE UNDER PRIVACY ACT

§ 2:21 Records agency may maintain
§ 2:22 Regulations under Privacy Act
§ 2:23 Electronic disability claim files
§ 2:24 Individuals' right to review their own records
§ 2:25 Records about more than one individual contained in same social security account record
§ 2:26 Information specifically exempted from disclosure under Privacy Act
§ 2:27 Litigation materials
§ 2:28 FOIA exemptions inapplicable
§ 2:29 Disclosures requiring individual consent
§ 2:30 Exceptions to the consent requirement
§ 2:31 Representative Disqualification, Suspension, and Non-Recognition Information File

§ 2:32 Requesting information under Privacy Act
§ 2:33 Record collection on allegations of ALJ bias and misconduct
§ 2:34 Special rules for requests for medical records
§ 2:35 Disclosure in testimony by SSA employees and production of SSA records and information in legal proceedings
§ 2:36 Fees for providing records under Privacy Act
§ 2:37 Denial of access to information
§ 2:38 Administrative review of Privacy Act denial

V. CORRECTION OF RECORDS

§ 2:39 Maintenance of records
§ 2:40 Record correction procedures

VI. JUDICIAL REVIEW

§ 2:41 Freedom of Information Act
§ 2:42 Judicial sanctions under FOIA
§ 2:43 Privacy Act
§ 2:44 Judicial sanctions under Privacy Act

PART II. BENEFIT PROGRAMS

CHAPTER 3. RETIREMENT BENEFITS

§ 3:1 Introduction
§ 3:2 Entitlement to old age benefits
§ 3:3 Full retirement age (FRA)
§ 3:4 Fully insured status
§ 3:5 Determining when a particular age is attained
§ 3:6 Filing an application
§ 3:7 Meeting the retirement test
§ 3:8 Earnings defined
§ 3:9 Amount of benefits
§ 3:10 —Primary insurance amount
§ 3:11 —Increase for delayed receipt
§ 3:12 —Reduction for entitlement before FRA
§ 3:13 Work after retirement
§ 3:14 Benefits for dependents
§ 3:15 —Effect of excess earnings
§ 3:16 Eligibility for increased retirement benefits after receipt of spouse's benefits
§ 3:17 Retroactivity of retirement benefits
§ 3:18 SSA and Railroad Retirement Act benefits
§ 3:19 Filing at the same time for early retirement and disability
§ 3:20 Annual earnings report
§ 3:21 Duration of benefits
§ 3:22 Circumstances in which retirement benefits may be reduced or suspended
§ 3:23 Retirement and alien eligibility

§ 3:24 —Reporting non-citizen applicants to the INS

CHAPTER 4. DEPENDENCY AND SURVIVOR BENEFITS

§ 4:1 Scope of the chapter

I. GENERAL REQUIREMENTS FOR AUXILIARY ELIGIBILITY

A. INSURED STATUS OF WAGE-EARNER

§ 4:2 Insured status
§ 4:3 Eligibility of the dependents of an insured wage earner
§ 4:3.1 Eligibility for wage-earner benefits following dependency benefits
§ 4:3.2 Same-sex marriage eligibility

B. DEPENDENCY AND SURVIVOR ELIGIBILITY, IN GENERAL

§ 4:4 Dependency and survivor benefit eligibility, in general
§ 4:5 Need to file a written application
§ 4:6 Maximum allowable dependency and survivor benefit amounts
§ 4:7 CHART: Percentage of benefits due dependents and survivors before application of family maximum § 4:7.1 Using Title II benefits to support other family members

C. ALIEN ELIGIBILITY

§ 4:8 Insured status and alien eligibility
§ 4:9 Benefits provisions for dependent and surviving aliens

II. DEPENDENCY BENEFITS

A. SPOUSES

1. Husband and wife

§ 4:10 Generally
§ 4:11 Establishing a spousal relationship
§ 4:11.1 Social Security spousal benefits and the Defense of Marriage Act ["DOMA"]
§ 4:11.2 Dates of eligibility for same-sex marriage
§ 4:12 Deemed and putative marriage
§ 4:13 Common law marriage
§ 4:14 Additional requirements for establishing husband's or wife's eligibility

2. Child in care

§ 4:15 Generally
§ 4:16 When is a child in claimant's care

§ 4:17 Exercising direct or indirect control of child
§ 4:18 When claimant cannot establish that child is "in his or her care"
§ 4:19 When claimant and child are not living together but child may still be in claimant's care
§ 4:20 Evidence necessary to establish in-care status
§ 4:21 Duration of benefits of claimant with child in his or her care

3. Divorced spouses

§ 4:22 Generally
§ 4:23 Constitutionality of distinction between spouses and divorced spouses under age 62
§ 4:24 Who is a divorced spouse
§ 4:25 —Requirement that marriage to insured person have lasted ten years
§ 4:26 Cases that illustrate the ten-year duration of marriage rule
§ 4:27 —Proof of divorced spouse status
§ 4:28 —Entitlement to benefits after remarriage

4. Amount and payment of benefits

§ 4:29 Amount of benefits to married spouses
§ 4:30 Amount of benefits to divorced spouses
§ 4:31 Circumstances requiring reduction, deduction or nonpayment of benefits

5. Duration of benefits

a. When entitlement begins

§ 4:32 Spouses and divorced spouses who have attained retirement age
§ 4:33 Spouses and divorced spouses age 62 to retirement age § 4:34 Spouses with a child in care

b. When entitlement ends

§ 4:35 Spouses
§ 4:36 Deemed and putative spouses
§ 4:37 Spouses with child in care
§ 4:38 Divorced spouses

B. CHILDREN

1. General considerations

§ 4:39 Children who may be eligible for childhood insurance benefits
§ 4:40 Childhood eligiblity requirements
§ 4:41 Childhood dependency, in general
§ 4:42 Need to file an application
§ 4:43 Full time school attendance
§ 4:44 —Secondary school attendance
§ 4:45 —Periods of nonattendance

§ 4:46 —Effect of imprisonment
§ 4:47 Retroactive entitlement
§ 4:48 Requirement that child be unmarried
§ 4:49 Reentitlement to child's benefits
§ 4:50 —Effect of terminated marriage on re-entitlement
§ 4:51 —End of reentitlement
§ 4:52 Amount of benefits
§ 4:53 —Application for Child's Benefits

2. Relationship of child to insured

a. In general

§ 4:54 Introduction
§ 4:55 Eligibility of natural children
§ 4:56 Application of state law to determination of "child" status
§ 4:57 Cases illustrating application of state law
§ 4:58 —Effect of changes in state law
§ 4:59 Grandchild and stepgrandchild

b. Natural children

(1) In general

§ 4:60 Proof of natural child status
§ 4:61 Dependency of a natural child
§ 4:62 Presumption of legitimacy (Lord Mansfield Rule)
§ 4:63 Rebuttal of presumption of legitimacy
§ 4:64 Posthumously born children
§ 4:64.1 DNA evidence of paternal relationship
§ 4:65 Posthumously conceived children
§ 4:66 Other evidence of child status
§ 4:67 Contribution of support during life
§ 4:68 Judicial construction of one-half support requirement
§ 4:69 —Support for posthumously born child
§ 4:70 Proving fatherhood of illegitimate child by testimony of father or father's family
§ 4:71 Proving fatherhood of illegitimate child by mother's testimony

(2) Written acknowledgement, Court decree or support order

§ 4:72 Generally
§ 4:73 What constitutes written acknowledgement of paternity
§ 4:74 Requirements of court order or support decree

c. Adopted children

(1) Legally adopted

§ 4:75 Generally
§ 4:76 Evidentiary requirements
§ 4:77 Adoption and presumed dependency

§ 4:78 Effect of adoption on entitlement based on natural parent's earnings record

(2) Equitable adoption

§ 4:79 Generally
§ 4:80 States recognizing equitable adoption
§ 4:81 Contract requirements
§ 4:82 —Proving by testimony of natural parent § 4:83 Implied contract

d. Stepchildren

§ 4:84 Generally
§ 4:85 Dependency requirement
§ 4:86 Computing support: pooled fund method
§ 4:87 Duration requirements
§ 4:88 Effect of death or divorce

3. Disabled adult children

§ 4:89 Generally
§ 4:90 Disability before age 22
§ 4:91 Eligibility requirements
§ 4:92 Requirement that the DAC/CDB not be married
§ 4:93 Re-entitlement to DAC/CDB benefits
§ 4:94 Tranfer from SSI to DAC
§ 4:95 DAC and performance of SGA

4. Commencement of benefits

§ 4:96 Child of deceased insured
§ 4:97 Child of live insured
§ 4:98 Entitlement on more than one social security account

5. Termination of benefits

§ 4:99 Generally
§ 4:100 Full-time elementary or secondary students

III. SURVIVOR BENEFITS

A. WIDOWS, WIDOWERS AND SURVIVING DIVORCED SPOUSES

1. Entitlement to benefits, in general

§ 4:101 Generally
§ 4:102 Duration of marriage requirement for widows and widower's
§ 4:103 —Nine-month marriage requirement
§ 4:104 Eligibility of deemed surviving spouse
§ 4:105 Marriage requirements for surviving divorced spouses
§ 4:106 —The 10-year marriage requirement
§ 4:106.1 Disabled widow(er) and seven-year period to establish onset of disability

§ 4:107 Effect of remarriage
§ 4:108 Medical benefits available to widows, widowers and surviving divorced spouses
§ 4:109 Retroactive widow's or widower's benefits

2. Amount of payment of benefits

§ 4:110 Generally
§ 4:111 When more than one person qualifies for benefits on an earnings record
§ 4:112 Events which may result in non-payment, reduction, suspension or termination of dependency and survivor benefits

3. Duration of benefits

§ 4:113 When entitlement begins
§ 4:114 When entitlement ends

B. MOTHER'S AND FATHER'S BENEFITS

1. Entitlement to benefits

§ 4:115 Generally
§ 4:116 Requirements applicable to surviving divorced spouses
§ 4:117 When child in care requirement must be met
§ 4:118 Effect of remarriage on entitlement

2. Amount of payment of benefits

§ 4:119 Generally
§ 4:120 When more than one person qualifies for benefits on an earnings record

3. Duration of benefits

§ 4:121 When entitlement to benefits begins
§ 4:122 When entitlement to benefits ends

C. PARENT'S BENEFITS

1. Entitlement to benefits, in general

§ 4:123 Generally
§ 4:124 Requirement that claimant be parent of the insured person
§ 4:125 Effect of marriage on entitlement
§ 4:126 Evidence of entitlement

a. Support requirement

(1) In general

§ 4:127 Generally
§ 4:128 What constitutes one-half support
§ 4:129 —Requirement that support be provided for a reasonable period of time

§ 4:130 Computing support: Claimant lived in insured's home
§ 4:131 —Insured person lived in claimant's home
§ 4:132 —Both parents live together

(2) Proof of support

§ 4:133 Generally
§ 4:134 When proof of support must be filed

2. Amount of payment of benefits

§ 4:135 Amount payable when one parent is entitled to benefits
§ 4:136 Amount payable when two parents are entitled to benefits
§ 4:137 Circumstances requiring reduction, deduction or nonpayment of benefits

3. Duration of benefits

§ 4:138 When entitlement to benefits begins
§ 4:139 When entitlement to benefits ends

IV. LUMP SUM DEATH BENEFITS

§ 4:140 Generally

CHAPTER 5. DISABILITY BENEFIT PROGRAMS

§ 5:1 Introduction
§ 5:2 Categories of benefits programs
§ 5:3 Disability insurance benefits for wage-earners
§ 5:4 Disability insurance benefits for auxiliary beneficiaries
§ 5:5 —Child of the wage-earner
§ 5:6 —Surviving spouse or former spouse
§ 5:7 Supplemental Security Income—Financial threshold
§ 5:8 —Adult individual
§ 5:9 —Adult couple
§ 5:10 —Child

CHAPTER 6. [Reserved]
Reserved for Future Use

PART III. BENEFIT COMPUTATION

CHAPTER 7. SUPPLEMENTAL SECURITY INCOME

I. INTRODUCTION

§ 7:1 Distinguishing Social Security and SSI
§ 7:2 Purposes for which SSI payments are made

§ 7:3 Sources of SSI funding
§ 7:4 Federal SSI benefit payments
§ 7:5 State Supplemental SSI payments
§ 7:6 Eligibility requirements, in general
§ 7:7 Categorical eligibility
§ 7:8 Technical eligibility
§ 7:9 Financial eligibility
§ 7:10 Medicaid eligibility
§ 7:11 Medicaid eligibility in concurrent eligibility situations
§ 7:12 SSI data collection methods

II. CATEGORICAL ELIGIBILITY

§ 7:13 Aged
§ 7:14 Blind
§ 7:15 Disabled: adults and children

III. TECHNICAL ELIGIBILITY

§ 7:16 Citizenship
§ 7:17 Proof of citizenship
§ 7:18 Alienage qualifications
§ 7:18.1 Alien SSI eligibility extended past seven-year limit at least temporarily
§ 7:19 Proof of alien status
§ 7:20 —Entry to U.S. under a sponsorship agreement before August 22, 1996
§ 7:21 —Entry to U.S. under a sponsorship agreement on or after August 22, 1996
§ 7:22 —Lawful alien permanent residents [LAPR] who may have a work requirement for old age SSI benefits
§ 7:23 Defining 40 quarters of work for lawful alien permanent residents [LAPR]
§ 7:24 —Permanently residing under color of law [PRUCOL]
§ 7:25 SSI cash benefits for certain World War II veterans
§ 7:26 Reporting aliens not legally present in the U.S
§ 7:27 Actual residency in the United States
§ 7:28 Application for other benefits
§ 7:29 Fleeing felon exclusions

IV. FINANCIAL ELIGIBILITY

A. INDIVIDUAL OR COUPLE STATUS, IN GENERAL

§ 7:30 Eligibility as an individual or as a member of a couple
§ 7:30.1 Same sex marriages
§ 7:31 Husband and wife status
§ 7:32 When change in individual or couple status takes effect
§ 7:33 Institutionalization of an individual or spouse
§ 7:33.1 What is residence in an institution?

B. RESOURCES

§ 7:34 In general
§ 7:35 Resource limitations
§ 7:36 When does an asset count as a resource?
§ 7:37 —Definition of resources
§ 7:37.1 —Is a contract a resource?
§ 7:38 —Liquid resources
§ 7:39 — —Cash
§ 7:40 — —Stocks, bonds, promissory notes, mutual fund shares, pension, and retirement funds
§ 7:41 — —Financial institution accounts
§ 7:42 — —Trusts
§ 7:43 Unknown assets
§ 7:44 —Non-liquid resources
§ 7:45 Countable resources
§ 7:46 —Deemed resources
§ 7:46.1 —Same sex couples resources
§ 7:47 Disposing of resources
§ 7:47.1 —Spending down resources
§ 7:47.2 Resources of battered spouses
§ 7:48 Conditional eligibility for SSI benefits
§ 7:49 Transfer of assets penalty
§ 7:50 Excluded resources
§ 7:50.1 Excess resources
§ 7:51 Excess resources and overpayments

C. INCOME

§ 7:52 In general
§ 7:53 What is the effect of income?
§ 7:54 What income is counted?
§ 7:55 When is income counted?
§ 7:56 To whom does income belong?
§ 7:57 When income becomes a resource
§ 7:58 Definitions of income
§ 7:59 Distinguishing earned and unearned income
§ 7:60 —Earned income
§ 7:61 —Unearned income
§ 7:62 —In-kind support and maintenance [ISM]
§ 7:63 Valuation of in-kind support and maintenance
§ 7:64 —The one-third reduction (VTR) rule
§ 7:65 —Avoiding the one-third reduction rule
§ 7:66 —The presumed maximum value (PMV) rule
§ 7:67 —Non-countable in-kind support and maintenance in specific living arrangements
§ 7:68 Deeming income, in general
§ 7:69 Sponsor to Alien deeming
§ 7:70 —Sponsor's affidavit of support

§ 7:71 Income that is not deemable
§ 7:72 Calculating deemed income
§ 7:73 When deeming ends
§ 7:74 Deeming and in-kind support and maintenance
§ 7:75 Income that is not counted
§ 7:75.1 Student earned income exclusion (SEIE): expanded application
§ 7:75.2 —Deeming of SEIE
§ 7:75.3 —SEIE: application to home schooling
§ 7:76 SSI income calculations: Examples of how it works

D. LIVING ARRANGEMENTS

§ 7:77 Living arrangements, in general
§ 7:78 —Federal living arrangements
§ 7:79 —State living arrangements
§ 7:80 —Living arrangements that cause total or partial ineligibility for SSI benefits
§ 7:81 —Effect of living arrangements and earnings on calculation of SSI benefits

E. MISCELLANEOUS RULES

§ 7:82 When income affects a benefit amount: retrospective monthly accounting [RMA]
§ 7:83 Nonpayment, suspension or termination of SSI benefits
§ 7:84 Claimant reporting responsibilities
§ 7:84.1 List of changes that must be reported to SSI
§ 7:85 Consequences of failing to report changes in a timely fashion
§ 7:86 Checklist of uses (and limitation of uses) of funds in dedicated savings account

Appendix A. SSI Interviewing Questionnaire
Appendix B. Calculating Countable Income
Appendix C. Deeming Worksheets

CHAPTER 8. COVERED EARNINGS AND EARNINGS RECORDS

§ 8:1 Scope
§ 8:2 Introducing quarters of coverage
§ 8:3 Why care about "quarters of coverage"; insured status
§ 8:4 Fully insured status; elapsed years
§ 8:5 Minimum number of QCs for fully insured status
§ 8:6 Elapsed years; effect of a period of disability
§ 8:7 When will earnings not generate a QC; effect of a period of disability
§ 8:8 Acquiring QCs
§ 8:9 Insured status for retirement insurance benefits
§ 8:10 Insured status for disability insurance benefits

§ 8:11 DIB insured status; effect of a prior period of disability
§ 8:12 DIB insured status for younger workers; special insured status
§ 8:13 Special insured status and re-entitlement after age 31
§ 8:14 DIB insured status for statutorily blind wage earners
§ 8:15 Coverage for benefits to dependents and survivors
§ 8:16 Coverage for benefits to surviving dependents; currently insured status
§ 8:17 Coverage for lump sum death payment
§ 8:18 QCs that cannot be counted; non-citizen wage earners
§ 8:19 How QCs get earned and counted; FICA and SECA taxes
§ 8:20 FICA tax; employer and employee
§ 8:21 FICA tax; covered employment
§ 8:22 SECA tax
§ 8:23 Getting the earnings record
§ 8:24 Earnings needed to earn one quarter of coverage by year

CHAPTER 9. ESTIMATING SOCIAL SECURITY BENEFITS

§ 9:1 Scope

A. CONCEPTS NEEDED TO DETERMINE PRIMARY INSURANCE AMOUNTS (PIA)

§ 9:2 Computing a basic benefit
§ 9:3 Contribution and benefit base
§ 9:4 Primary insurance amount
§ 9:5 Benchmark year
§ 9:6 Elapsed years
§ 9:7 Computation base years
§ 9:8 Drop out years
§ 9:9 Average of total wages or national average wage index
§ 9:10 Cost of Living Adjustments [COLAs]

B. CALCULATING PIA AND FAMILY MAXIMUM USING INDEXING FORMULA

§ 9:11 Indexing year
§ 9:12 Indexed earnings [AIME]
§ 9:13 Average indexed monthly earnings [AIME] and bend points [BP]
§ 9:14 Applying bend points to derive wage-earners' primary insurance [PIA] amount § 9:15 Calculating family maximum benefits for retirement
§ 9:16 Calculating family maximum benefits for disability
§ 9:17 Subsequent entitlement following end of prior period of disability

C. OTHER METHODS FOR DETERMINING PIA

§ 9:18 Average monthly wage [AMW] method

§ 9:19 Calculating average monthly wage
§ 9:20 Guaranteed alternative method of computation
§ 9:21 Older benefit calculation formulas

D. WORKERS' COMPENSATION OFFSET

§ 9:22 Worker's compensation offset, in general
§ 9:23 When does a workers' compensation offset apply
§ 9:24 Parties in interest to DIB proceeding where offset is at issue
§ 9:25 Exception to offset
§ 9:26 Average current earnings [ACE]
§ 9:27 Methods for computing average current earnings [ACE]
§ 9:28 Utilizing earnings in excess of taxable limits to determine ACE
§ 9:29 Offset reductions: examples
§ 9:30 Reverse offset
§ 9:31 Lump-sum workers' compensation payments
§ 9:32 Extent to which a lump-sum payment is subject to offset
§ 9:33 Lump sum amounts not subject to offset
§ 9:34 Facts needed to prorate a lump sum settlement
§ 9:35 What constitutes gross amount of lump sum
§ 9:36 Proration of lump-sum settlements
§ 9:37 Potential SSI eligibility during period of workers' compensation offset § 9:38 Expenses excluded from offset
§ 9:39 Medical expenses excluded from offset and Medicare
§ 9:40 When offset stops
§ 9:41 Disclosure of workers' compensation claim § 9:42 Offset applied to dependents first § 9:43 Redetermination of offset
§ 9:44 Workers' compensation offset, SSD and taxes

CHAPTER 10. NONPAYMENT AND REDUCED PAYMENT SITUATIONS

§ 10:1 Scope
§ 10:2 Benefit reductions, suspensions or terminations: Difference between Social Security and SSI, in general

A. TITLE II: OASDI

§ 10:3 Reductions, in general
§ 10:4 Deductions, in general
§ 10:5 Adjustment of benefits
§ 10:6 Nonpayment, in general
§ 10:7 Recalculation of benefits
§ 10:8 Suspension, in general
§ 10:9 Termination, in general
§ 10:10 Interrelationship of deductions, reductions, and nonpayment of benefits

§ 10:11 Summary of Title II priority in applying deductions and reductions § 10:12 Reduction because of family maximum
§ 10:13 Reduction because of entitlement to other benefits
§ 10:14 Reduction due to receipt of workers' compensation (WC) or similar disability payment from a governmental entity (disability only)
§ 10:15 Government pension offset (GPO)
§ 10:16 Windfall elimination provision (WEP)
§ 10:16.1 Application of WEP and GPO
§ 10:17 Offset/reduction of retroactive Social Security payment against SSI payment for the same period
§ 10:18 Reduction in benefits because of age
§ 10:19 Deduction because of work earnings
§ 10:20 Reduction or non-payment of early retirement where claimant cannot establish actual retirement
§ 10:21 Reporting earnings; consequences of failure to do so timely § 10:22 Deduction because of noncovered remunerative activity outside the U.S
§ 10:23 Deduction because of failure to report not having a child in care
§ 10:24 Failure of representative payee to make reports to SSA
§ 10:25 Refusal to accept rehabilitation services—Sanctions eliminated
§ 10:26 Manner of making deductions
§ 10:27 Total amount of deductions where more than one deduction event occurs in one month
§ 10:28 Total amount of deductions where deduction event occurs in more than one month § 10:29 Nonpayment of alien not "lawfully present" in the U.S.
§ 10:30 Aliens deemed "lawfully present"
§ 10:31 Nonpayment of benefits to illegal aliens in the United States
§ 10:32 Nonpayment of benefits to aliens outside the United States; totalization agreements and treaty obligations
§ 10:33 Deportation/removal
§ 10:34 Nonpayment because of subversive activity
§ 10:35 Nonpayment: statutory blindness and substantial gainful activity (SGA)
§ 10:36 Nonpayment to prisoners and certain other inmates of publicly funded institutions and other prisoner-related issues—Definition of incarceration
§ 10:37 —Incentives for prison system to report incarceration to SSA
§ 10:38 —When incarceration ends
§ 10:39 —Effect of approved vocational rehabilitation program
§ 10:40 —Payment of dependency benefits
§ 10:41 —Reinstatement of benefits after release
§ 10:42 —Effect of exoneration

§ 10:43 —Non-payment of benefits while a person is incarcerated
§ 10:44 —Prisoner release issues
§ 10:45 Nonpayment of benefits for disability arising from or aggravated by commission of a felony
§ 10:46 Nonpayment of dependency benefits if the dependent is convicted of killing the wage-earner
§ 10:47 Disqualification of certain individuals avoiding criminal prosecution or punishment, probation or parole—Fleeing felons
§ 10:48 —Probation or parole violations
§ 10:49 —The regulations
§ 10:50 Nonpayment for failure to furnish Social Security number or apply for Social Security number § 10:51 Reduced Social Security benefit payments to offset non-tax federal debts
§ 10:52 Reduction of benefits to recoup Social Security overpayments
§ 10:53 Fraud or similar fault penalties that may result in reduction, suspension or termination of Title II benefits
§ 10:54 Summary of reasons for nonpayment or reduction of benefits (including penalties) by entitlement category

B. TITLE XVI: SSI

§ 10:55 Suspensions, in general
§ 10:56 Terminations, in general
§ 10:57 Suspension and termination, relationship
§ 10:58 Reduction of SSI benefits, in general
§ 10:59 Reasons why SSI benefits may be reduced, suspended or terminated
§ 10:60 Penalty deductions
§ 10:61 Reportable changes of circumstance for SSI
§ 10:62 Prisoner eligibility or reinstatement issues

PART IV. APPLICATION AND PAYMENT

CHAPTER 11. APPLICATION PROCESS UNDER TITLE II AND TITLE XVI

§ 11:1 Introduction
§ 11:2 Filing requirement
§ 11:3 Supplemental questionnaires
§ 11:4 Who may file an application
§ 11:5 How and where to file—Paper forms
§ 11:6 —Accommodations for physical, telephonic, or digital electronic access § 11:7 —Electronic filing for DIB and digital forms
§ 11:8 —Electronic filing for SSI-DI

§ 11:9 Non-disability information
§ 11:10 Submitting documentation
§ 11:11 Time covered by the application; protective and deemed filing
§ 11:12 Reapplication during appeal
§ 11:13 Electing between disability benefits and early retirement benefits § 11:14 Limited reduction in benefits where DIB entitlement begins after reduced RIB

CHAPTER 12. PAYMENT PROCESS

§ 12:1 Scope of chapter

I. OASDI

§ 12:2 Certification of payment
§ 12:3 When does certification occur?
§ 12:4 Source of Title II benefits
§ 12:5 Countries to which Title II benefits cannot be issued § 12:6 First benefit payment in concurrent cases
§ 12:7 Processing payments
§ 12:8 Program Service Centers: Processing favorable court decisions
§ 12:9 Proof of age
§ 12:10 Effectuating favorable administrative decisions
§ 12:11 Transfer or assignment of payments
§ 12:12 Expedited benefit payments
§ 12:13 When expedited benefit payment does not apply
§ 12:14 Who can request expedited payment
§ 12:15 Immediate payment process
§ 12:16 Critical case payment
§ 12:17 Procedure for preliminary certification of payment
§ 12:18 Accelerating payment in critical cases
§ 12:19 Interim benefit payments in administrative delay of disability cases
§ 12:20 Same day interview where time is of the essence
§ 12:21 Issuance of monthly benefit checks
§ 12:22 To whom is payment made
§ 12:23 Joint check payments to a family
§ 12:24 Claimants entitled to dual benefits
§ 12:25 Payment procedure when one spouse dies
§ 12:26 Receipt of payments due deceased beneficiary
§ 12:27 Cashing a benefit check
§ 12:28 Changing address of beneficiary
§ 12:29 Payment of benefits by direct deposit
§ 12:30 Payment of benefits by direct deposit or direct express card
§ 12:31 Direct deposit and representative payees
§ 12:32 Cancellation of direct deposit

§ 12:33 Payment of benefits to recipients outside the United States
§ 12:34 Procedures for nonreceipt of benefit payments
§ 12:35 Assignment of Title II benefits
§ 12:36 Child support assessments against social security benefit payments

II. SSI PAYMENT PROCESS

§ 12:37 When initial payment is due
§ 12:38 Retroactive payment of benefits and interim assistance reimbursement
§ 12:39 Challenging the determination of the amount of a retroactive benefit § 12:40 Conditions under which retroactive installment payments can be increased § 12:41 Conditions under which retroactive installment payments do not apply § 12:42 Retroactive Installment payments not counted as resource
§ 12:43 Immediate payment process
§ 12:44 Emergency advance payment
§ 12:45 Retrospective monthly accounting
§ 12:46 RMA and non-recurring income
§ 12:47 When SSI benefit checks are issued
§ 12:48 Circumstances in which proration applies after suspension
§ 12:49 Determining the amount of a prorated check § 12:50 To whom payment is made
§ 12:51 Changing SSI recipient's address
§ 12:52 Availability of direct deposit
§ 12:53 Payment replacement process
§ 12:54 Who may collect the benefits due a deceased claimant
§ 12:55 Effect of SSI eligibility on eligibility for Medicaid
§ 12:56 Medicaid and substantial gainful activity
§ 12:57 Withholding benefits for interim assistance reimbursement
§ 12:58 Assignment of SSI benefits
§ 12:59 Same day interview where time is of the essence
§ 12:60 Assignment of title XVI benefits

CHAPTER 13. FRAUD, SIMILAR FAULT AND PENALTIES

I. OVERVIEW

§ 13:1 Scope of chapter

II. PENALTIES FOR FRAUD OR SIMILAR FAULT

A. SUSPENSION OF CASH BENEFITS—ADMINISTRATIVE SANCTION

§ 13:2 Penalties for false or misleading statements, in general

§ 13:3 Benefits that will not be affected by imposition of a penalty § 13:4 What is the administrative sanction?
§ 13:5 Conditions necessary for application of a penalty
§ 13:6 Standard used to impose an administrative sanction
§ 13:7 Appeal rights
§ 13:8 When penalty period begins and ends

B. CIVIL MONETARY PENALTIES

§ 13:9 Misuse of Social Security Administration identifiers
§ 13:10 Misstatement of material facts—Penalty and assessment § 13:11 Appeal process, in general
§ 13:12 Hearings and appeals
§ 13:13 Initial hearing
§ 13:14 —Procedure
§ 13:15 Appeal from initial hearing decision; final decision of the Commissioner
§ 13:16 Appeal from final decision
§ 13:17 Collection and compromise

C. DISREGARD OF EVIDENCE

§ 13:18 When evidence can be disregarded
§ 13:19 Applicable definitions
§ 13:20 High risk factors for fraud and similar fault
§ 13:21 Evaluation procedure
§ 13:22 Disregarding evidence from tainted medical sources—Bad doctor rule

D. TRANSFER OF ASSETS PENALTY (SSI ONLY)

§ 13:23 Transfer of assets, in general
§ 13:24 Basic transfer of assets principles
§ 13:25 Timing and duration of the period of ineligibility
§ 13:26 Sequence of evaluation of transfer of assets rules
§ 13:27 Determining asset value and compensated value
§ 13:28 Types of transfers affected
§ 13:29 Concurrent ineligibility
§ 13:30 Processing an application with period of ineligibility and a disability determination is needed
§ 13:31 Processing an application with period of ineligibility but a disability determination is not needed
§ 13:32 Period of ineligibility for current SSI recipients
§ 13:33 Exceptions to transfer of assets penalty, in general
§ 13:34 Exception—Transfer to a trust
§ 13:35 —Transfer of a home
§ 13:36 —Transfer of non-home assets
§ 13:37 —Return of transferred asset
§ 13:38 —Transfer for purpose other than to obtain or retain SSI eligibility

§ 13:39 —Transferred asset valued at less than resource limit § 13:40 —Undue hardship

E. OTHER PENALTIES

§ 13:41 Burial fund penalties
§ 13:42 Penalties for failure to report (Title II)
§ 13:43 Penalties for failure to report (Title XVI)
§ 13:44 Penalties applicable to representative payees
§ 13:45 Fleeing felon ineligibility penalty
§ 13:46 Disqualification for trial work period for fraudulent concealment of work activity
§ 13:47 Restitution of defrauded benefits
§ 13:48 Criminal penalty for corrupt or forcible interference with administration of SSA
§ 13:49 Civil monetary penalties and assessments for misuse of SSA's words or emblems

CHAPTER 14. REPRESENTATIVE PAYEES AND PAYMENTS

I. GENERAL CONSIDERATIONS

§ 14:1 Introduction to chapter
§ 14:2 What is a representative payee
§ 14:3 Legislation to improve representative payment system
§ 14:4 When is representative payment required
§ 14:5 —Beneficiary's "best interest" standard
§ 14:6 Information considered in determining need for representative payment § 14:7 —Minor beneficiaries
§ 14:8 —Legally incompetent beneficiaries
§ 14:9 —Drug Addiction and Alcoholism ("DA&A")
§ 14:10 Reevaluating beneficiary's ability to manage benefits
§ 14:11 When can direct payment be delayed or suspended
§ 14:12 When direct payment will be made to beneficiaries who need representative payees
§ 14:13 Determining "substantial harm"
§ 14:14 Examples of "substantial harm" determinations
§ 14:15 How delayed or suspended payments will be paid
§ 14:16 When beneficiary requests assignment of representative payee

II. PAYEES

A. CHOOSING A REPRESENTATIVE PAYEE

§ 14:17 Selection of a representative payee, generally
§ 14:18 Selecting a representative payee, generally—Preferred payees for a minor beneficiary

§ 14:19 —Eligibility of noncitizen parent without a Social Security number to be representative payee for a minor beneficiary
§ 14:20 —Preferred payees for adults
§ 14:20.1 —Advance designation of payee
§ 14:21 —Preferred payees for substance abusers
§ 14:22 Problems finding a representative payee
§ 14:23 Disqualification for service as representative payee
§ 14:24 Investigation of representative payee applicant
§ 14:25 —Special rules for creditors of beneficiary
§ 14:26 Avoiding conflict of interest between payee and beneficiary
§ 14:27 Information a representative payee must report to SSA
§ 14:28 Periodic re-evaluation of appointed representative payees
§ 14:29 Selection of new representative payee
§ 14:30 Transferring funds to new representative payee

B. NOTICE OF AND CHALLENGE TO REPRESENTATIVE PAYEE DETERMINATIONS

§ 14:31 Notice of representative payee determination
§ 14:32 Appeal of determination to appoint a representative payee

C. STATUS AND FUNCTION OF PAYEE

§ 14:33 Legal status of payee
§ 14:34 Responsibilities of a representative payee
§ 14:35 Responsibilities of a representative payee of a disabled child
§ 14:36 Protecting a beneficiary's rights when there is a representative payee
§ 14:37 Payment of fees to certain organizations, institutions and individuals § 14:38 Fee forfeiture in case of misuse

III. USE OF BENEFITS

A. IN GENERAL

§ 14:39 Payment of beneficiary's current expenses
§ 14:40 Payment of institutional care costs
§ 14:41 Purchase of life or burial insurance
§ 14:42 Securing release from an institution
§ 14:43 Payment of debts
§ 14:44 Support of legal dependents

B. SURPLUS FUNDS

§ 14:45 Conservation and investment
§ 14:46 Prudent investor standard
§ 14:47 Transfer of surplus funds to successor payee

IV. LIABILITY AND ACCOUNTABILITY

A. IN GENERAL

§ 14:48 Liability of SSA
§ 14:49 Negligent failure
§ 14:50 Enforcement of payee duties
§ 14:51 Oversight of representative payees
§ 14:52 Liability of non-governmental representative payee for misuse
§ 14:53 Authority to redirect delivery of benefit payments

B. IMPROPER USE VERSUS MISUSE OF BENEFITS

§ 14:54 Improper use of benefits
§ 14:55 Misuse of benefits
§ 14:56 Liability of the representative payee for overpayments of benefits
§ 14:57 Restitution
§ 14:58 Sanctions and penalties applicable to representative payees
§ 14:59 When a new representative payee will be chosen

C. ACCOUNTING

§ 14:60 Generally
§ 14:61 Final accounting
§ 14:62 Titling bank account for a beneficiary where there is a representative payee

D. SPECIAL VETERANS BENEFITS

§ 14:63 Special Veterans Benefits (SVB)

V. FORMS

§ 14:64 Form SSA-787
§ 14:65 Form SSA-11-BK

PART V. APPEALS PROCESS

CHAPTER 15. STAGES OF APPEAL

I. GENERAL OVERVIEW OF THE APPEAL PROCESS

§ 15:1 Scope
§ 15:2 Application and appeal process, in general
§ 15:3 Time limit for appeals
§ 15:4 Time limit on agency to make decisions
§ 15:5 Written application
§ 15:6 Notices of decision or determination

§ 15:7 SSI notices of decision or determination
§ 15:8 Decisions subject to administrative review
§ 15:9 Decisions not subject to administrative review
§ 15:10 Collateral estoppel and res judicata
§ 15:11 Requests for appeal
§ 15:12 Requesting extension of time to appeal
§ 15:13 —"Good cause" for late filing
§ 15:14 —"Good cause" based on mental incapacity
§ 15:15 Requesting re-opening of prior claim § 15:16 Exhaustion of administrative remedies
§ 15:17 —Waiver of exhaustion
§ 15:18 Disqualification of ALJ
§ 15:19 Safety of public and hearing office staff

II. NON-DISABILITY APPEAL PROCESS

§ 15:20 Administrative appeal steps: Non-disability appeals
§ 15:21 Reconsideration
§ 15:22 Reconsideration process
§ 15:23 Administrative Law Judge hearing
§ 15:24 Appeals Council review

III. OVERPAYMENT APPEAL PROCESS

§ 15:25 Overpayment appeals, in general
§ 15:26 Social Security and SSI reconsiderations
§ 15:27 Social Security waiver requests
§ 15:28 SSI waiver requests

IV. DISABILITY APPEALS PROCESS

§ 15:29 Administrative appeal steps—Disability appeals
§ 15:30 —Initial and reconsideration decisions
§ 15:31 —Quick Disability Determinations
§ 15:32 Compassionate Allowances
§ 15:33 Administrative appeal steps—Reconsideration in termination cases (CDRs)
§ 15:34 Hearing notice
§ 15:35 Prehearing remand
§ 15:36 Pre and post-hearing conferences
§ 15:37 On-the-record decisions
§ 15:38 Administrative Law Judge hearing
§ 15:39 Order of presentation at ALJ hearing
§ 15:40 Hearings by video or telephone
§ 15:41 ALJ decision
§ 15:42 Appeals Council review
§ 15:43 Appeals Council process
§ 15:44 Judicial review in federal court
§ 15:45 —Cases remanded from federal court
§ 15:46 Single decision-makers

§ 15:47 Expedited appeal process
§ 15:48 —Requesting expedited appeal
§ 15:49 —Expedited appeal by agreement
§ 15:50 Critical case designation
§ 15:51 Dire need cases
§ 15:52 Terminal cases

V. FILING A SUBSEQUENT APPLICATION

§ 15:53 Processing a new application when a prior application is on appeal § 15:54 Does an ALJ have authority to reopen a subsequent allowance?
§ 15:55 Processing a subsequent application when a prior application is pending in federal court
§ 15:56 When to file a subsequent application

CHAPTER 16. ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE HEARINGS

A. INTRODUCTION

§ 16:1 Scope of chapter
§ 16:2 What is a hearing—Overview
§ 16:3 —Procedural overview
§ 16:4 What actions can be appealed to a hearing

B. REQUESTING A HEARING

§ 16:5 Requesting a hearing—General procedure
§ 16:6 —Paper request
§ 16:7 —Via Internet
§ 16:8 —Procedures for appointed representatives receiving direct payment of fees
§ 16:9 Time limit to request a hearing
§ 16:10 Extending the time to request a hearing § 16:11 What needs to be filed in addition to the hearing request

C. PRE-HEARING REVIEWS

§ 16:12 Pre-hearing case review and attorney advisor review

D. DISMISSAL OF HEARING

§ 16:13 Dismissal of the hearing—Overview
§ 16:14 —Good cause exceptions
§ 16:15 —Failure to appear
§ 16:16 —Vacating or appealing

E. RESPONDING TO ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF REQUEST

§ 16:17 Acknowledgment of hearing request—Objecting to video teleconference

F. SUBMITTING AND ACCESSING EVIDENCE

§ 16:18 Submitting evidence—Onus on claimant and representative to submit § 16:19 —Methods
§ 16:20 Access to the evidentiary records—Overview
§ 16:21 —Fraud investigation reports
§ 16:22 —Paper files
§ 16:23 —Electronic files

G. SCHEDULING THE HEARING

§ 16:24 Scheduling of the hearing
§ 16:25 —Time and place
§ 16:26 —Expediting critical case scheduling and decision

H. PRE-HEARING PROCEDURES

§ 16:27 Conferences
§ 16:28 Consultative examination
§ 16:29 Preparation for the hearing

I. HEARING PROCEEDINGS

§ 16:30 Appearance at the hearing—Video teleconference
§ 16:31 —At representative's location: Representative Video Project
§ 16:32 —Witness or party by telephone
§ 16:33 —Procedural objections to virtual appearance
§ 16:34 —Appearance by designated representative
§ 16:35 —Party is a minor child or an incapacitated person
§ 16:36 —Party resides outside the United States
§ 16:37 —Party is deceased
§ 16:38 —Travel expenses reimbursement
§ 16:39 —Foreign language interpreter needed
§ 16:40 —Hearing-impaired party or witness
§ 16:41 —Party excluded for security
§ 16:42 —Opening protocol and procedure
§ 16:43 —Presenting the case
§ 16:44 Testimony of consultative examiner, consulting medical advisor or State Agency Staff § 16:45 Close of the hearing

J. AFTER THE HEARING

§ 16:46 Hearing decision
§ 16:47 After the hearing decision

CHAPTER 17. APPEALS COUNCIL REVIEW

§ 17:1 Scope of the chapter

A. GENERAL CONSIDERATIONS

§ 17:2 Overview: organization and jurisdiction of the Appeals Council
§ 17:3 Appeal Council review, in general
§ 17:4 Appeals Council Best Practices Handbook
§ 17:5 Bases for Appeals Council review
§ 17:6 —Abuse of discretion
§ 17:7 —Error of law
§ 17:8 —Substantial evidence
§ 17:9 —Submission of new and material evidence
§ 17:10 Circuit Court law as a basis for Appeals Council review
§ 17:11 Own motion review
§ 17:12 —How cases are identified for own motion review
§ 17:13 —Notice of own motion review
§ 17:14 Interim benefits pending Appeals Council review
§ 17:15 Scope of Appeals Council review on claimant-initiated review requests

B. REQUESTING REVIEW

§ 17:16 Where to file a request for Appeals Council review
§ 17:17 When to request review
§ 17:18 How to request review
§ 17:19 —Requesting extension of time to file request for review
§ 17:20 —Failure to meet the filing deadline
§ 17:21 Examples of good cause for late filing
§ 17:22 Requesting record of hearing and exhibits from the Appeals Council
§ 17:23 Requesting additional time to submit evidence
§ 17:24 Other means of expediting claims at the Appeals Council

C. NEW AND MATERIAL EVIDENCE

§ 17:25 Submission of additional evidence and argument
§ 17:26 —What does "new and material" mean?
§ 17:27 —SSA's rules on evaluating new and material evidence
§ 17:28 —Appeals Council action depends on when Appeals Council receives additional evidence § 17:29 Whether new evidence submitted to the Appeals Council becomes part of the administrative record on judicial review?

D. PROCEDURES ON APPEALS COUNCIL REVIEW

§ 17:30 Drafting an argument to the Appeals Council
§ 17:31 Asking the Appeals Council to audit the hearing recording
§ 17:32 Request for oral argument before the Appeals Council
§ 17:33 Filing new claims when a prior claim is pending at Appeals Council

E. DISPOSITION OF REVIEW

§ 17:34 Denial of review, in general
§ 17:35 Dismissal by the Appeals Council
§ 17:36 When the Appeals Council decides to review
§ 17:37 Granting request for review
§ 17:38 Decision of the Appeals Council
§ 17:39 Effect of the Appeals Council's decision or denial of review
§ 17:40 Extension of time to file in federal district court
§ 17:41 Cases remanded by the Appeals Council
§ 17:42 When an ALJ issues a recommended decision in a remanded case
§ 17:43 Conditions for issuing a recommended decision
§ 17:44 Cases remanded to the Appeals Council by a court
§ 17:45 Returning to court after administrative action on remand

F. APPENDIX A: POSSIBLE REASONS FOR APPEALS COUNCIL REMANDS

§ 17:46 Possible reasons for Appeals Council remands

G. APPENDIX B: APPEALS COUNCIL CONTACTS

§ 17:47 Appeals Council contacts

H. APPENDIX C: SAMPLE BRIEFS

§ 17:48 Sample briefs

CHAPTER 18. REOPENING AND ADMINISTRATIVE FINALITY

§ 18:1 Scope
§ 18:2 Considering administrative finality as compared to reopening, in general
§ 18:3 Extensions of time vs. reopening

I. ADMINISTRATIVE FINALITY AND RES JUDICATA

A. FINALITY

§ 18:4 Finality, in general
§ 18:5 Binding effect of decision at each level of administrative process

B. RES JUDICATA

§ 18:6 Definition
§ 18:7 Application of res judicata
§ 18:8 Res judicata and collateral estoppel
§ 18:9 Res judicata should not be rigidly applied
§ 18:10 Relationship of res judicata to reopening

§ 18:11 Hearing as a prerequisite to application of res judicata
§ 18:12 Claims to which res judicata is not applicable
§ 18:13 Res judicata and claimants with mental impairments
§ 18:14 Extension of time to appeal for mentally ill claimant
§ 18:15 Identity of claims § 18:16 Identity of issues in disability case
§ 18:17 Identity of parties
§ 18:18 Requirement of proper notice of initial decision
§ 18:19 Effect of lack of counsel
§ 18:20 New evidence
§ 18:21 Manifest error in the record
§ 18:22 After change in law
§ 18:23 Waiver of res judicata
§ 18:24 Res judicata at the pre-hearing level
§ 18:25 ALJ or Appeals Council dismissal based on res judicata
§ 18:26 Judicial review of refusal to reopen on grounds of res judicata

II. REOPENING AND REVISING DECISIONS

A. GENERAL CONSIDERATIONS

§ 18:27 Reopening and revising defined
§ 18:28 Discretionary reopening
§ 18:29 Conditions for reopening: Title II
§ 18:30 Conditions for reopening: Title XVI
§ 18:30.1 Request for reopening based on inadequate notice
§ 18:31 Application of OASDI rules to medicare reopenings
§ 18:32 Determinations and decisions subject to reopening and revising
§ 18:33 Reopening by new application
§ 18:34 Who makes reopening determinations?
§ 18:35 Hearing on reopening
§ 18:36 Constructive reopening
§ 18:36.1 Good cause for re-opening
§ 18:37 Notice of decision not to reopen
§ 18:38 Reopening and disability onset date
§ 18:39 Who may initiate reopening?
§ 18:40 Computing the time period for reopening, and effect of reopening prior application on earlier claims

B. GROUNDS FOR REOPENING

§ 18:41 Reopening for any reason within 12 months
§ 18:42 Reopening for good cause within four years (OASDI) or two years (SSI)
§ 18:43 Good cause
§ 18:44 Good cause not based on change in ruling or legal precedent
§ 18:45 —New and material evidence

§ 18:46 Error on the face of the record
§ 18:47 Error on the face of the evidence
§ 18:47.1 Constitutional violation
§ 18:48 Fraud or similar fault
§ 18:49 Later claims based on same earnings record
§ 18:50 Wage earner's death
§ 18:51 Duplicate railroad retirement benefits
§ 18:52 Conviction of felonious and intentional homicide of wage earner
§ 18:53 Error in crediting quarters of coverage and wages
§ 18:54 Reopening suspension of benefits because of earnings
§ 18:55 Increase in future benefits where time period for reopening has expired

C. ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW OF REVISED DECISION

§ 18:56 Notice of proposed revision
§ 18:57 Effect of a revised determination or decision
§ 18:58 Late completion of timely investigation on request for reopening: "diligent pursuit"
§ 18:59 Right to continued benefits
§ 18:60 Notice of revised determination
§ 18:61 Judicial review on reopening

Volume 2

CHAPTER 19. JUDICIAL REVIEW

§ 19:1 Scope

I. REQUIREMENTS FOR JUDICIAL REVIEW

A. IN GENERAL

§ 19:2 Statutory requirements for review
§ 19:3 —No waiver of sovereign immunity
§ 19:4 —Exclusive remedy
§ 19:5 —Mandamus exception
§ 19:5.1 —Sample mandamus complaint
§ 19:6 —Limited alternative jurisdictional grounds

B. FINAL DECISION REQUIREMENTS

§ 19:7 Overview
§ 19:8 Presentation of claim
§ 19:9 Presentment and termination of benefits
§ 19:10 Presentment and class actions
§ 19:11 Exhaustion of administrative remedies, in general
§ 19:12 —Satisfying the exhaustion requirement

§ 19:13 Decisions subject to review
§ 19:14 Decisions not subject to review
§ 19:15 When is a decision final after a hearing?
§ 19:16 —Final decision must be adverse
§ 19:17 Waiver of exhaustion of administrative remedies
§ 19:18 —Who may waive exhaustion
§ 19:19 —Circumstances for court to grant waiver
§ 19:20 —Futility of exhaustion
§ 19:21 —Issues collateral to benefit claim
§ 19:22 —Irreparable harm
§ 19:23 —Constitutional issues
§ 19:24 Refusal to reopen claim
§ 19:25 Application of res judicata
§ 19:25.1 Application of collateral estoppel
§ 19:26 Dismissal of hearing request
§ 19:27 Appeals Council dismissal of untimely request for review
§ 19:28 Refusal to grant extension of time

C. TIMELY FILING FOR REVIEW

§ 19:29 Time period for filing suit
§ 19:30 What does "filing" mean?
§ 19:31 Filing and motion to proceed as a poor person
§ 19:32 Equitable tolling of the statute

II. PARTIES TO JUDICIAL REVIEW

§ 19:33 Individual claimants
§ 19:34 Third parties
§ 19:35 Standing to sue
§ 19:36 Commissioner of Social Security as defendant
§ 19:37 Substitution of parties

III. SCOPE OF REVIEW

§ 19:38 Generally
§ 19:39 Liberal Construction of the Social Security Act
§ 19:40 Role of a reviewing court
§ 19:41 —Proper application of law
§ 19:42 —Agency interpretation of regulations
§ 19:43 Harmless error
§ 19:43.1 Examples of harmful error
§ 19:44 Role of state law
§ 19:45 Judicial notice
§ 19:46 Substantial evidence standard
§ 19:47 —Review of the record as a whole
§ 19:48 —Credibility findings
§ 19:49 —Submission of new evidence to Appeals Council
§ 19:50 Submission of new evidence to district court
§ 19:51 Waiver of issues not presented to SSA

§ 19:51.1 Waiver of issues relevant to SSA's burden of proof
§ 19:52 Waiver of issues not presented to a district court
§ 19:53 Waiver of defenses not raised or rationales not relied upon by SSA

IV. JUDICIAL DISPOSITIONS

§ 19:54 Overview
§ 19:55 Judicial discretion
§ 19:56 Reversal, in general
§ 19:57 —Persuasiveness of the evidence
§ 19:58 —Legal error
§ 19:59 —Equitable considerations and the futility of further administrative proceedings
§ 19:60 —Other practical considerations
§ 19:60.1 Default against the government
§ 19:61 Remand, in general
§ 19:62 Failure of SSA to properly develop the record
§ 19:63 Application of erroneous legal standards
§ 19:63.1 Conflict of laws between Circuits
§ 19:64 Improper evaluation of evidence
§ 19:65 Failure to explain decisional reasoning
§ 19:66 Deficient, defective or inadequate transcript
§ 19:66.1 Effect of evidence from subsequent approved claim
§ 19:66.2 Effect of serious delay
§ 19:67 Types of remand: Sentence four versus sentence six § 19:68 New evidence submitted to the Appeals Council
§ 19:69 Good cause for remand based on new and material evidence § 19:70 —Evidence must be new § 19:71 —Evidence must be material
§ 19:72 Remand illustrations
§ 19:73 Request for Remand by the Commissioner
§ 19:74 Getting the most out of a remand order
§ 19:74.1 Effect of failing to follow a remand order
§ 19:75 Effect of remand
§ 19:76 Appealing a remand order
§ 19:77 —Re-hearing before different ALJ
§ 19:78 Law of the case doctrine
§ 19:78.1 Credit-as-true rule
§ 19:79 Returning to court following remand
§ 19:80 Other remedies, in general
§ 19:81 Declaratory judgments
§ 19:82 Injunctive relief
§ 19:83 Interim benefit award
§ 19:84 Contempt proceedings and default judgments

V. DISTRICT COURT PRACTICE

§ 19:85 Overview

§ 19:86 Venue
§ 19:87 Complaint
§ 19:88 —Amending a complaint
§ 19:89 —Caption
§ 19:90 —Inclusion of social security number
§ 19:91 —Stating grounds for judicial review in a complaint
§§ 19:92 and 19:93 [Reserved]
§ 19:94 Sample complaints
§ 19:95 Court appointment of counsel
§ 19:96 Filing complaint
§ 19:97 Filing a civil action with a pauper's petition
§ 19:97.1 Accessing federal court documents via the internet
§ 19:98 Assignment of Judge
§ 19:99 Service of complaint and summons
§ 19:100 Answer
§ 19:101 [Reserved]
§ 19:102 Transcript of record
§ 19:103 Motion to dismiss
§ 19:104 —Other motions
§ 19:105 Discovery in Social Security and SSI cases
§ 19:106 —FOIA request
§ 19:107 —Other discovery
§ 19:108 District court procedures, in general
§ 19:109 —Presentment for decision
§ 19:110 —Motion for remand
§ 19:110.1 —Remand stipulations
§ 19:111 Memoranda of law
§ 19:112 —Organization of Memoranda of law
§ 19:113 —Introduction
§ 19:114 —Issues presented
§ 19:115 —Statement of facts
§ 19:116 —Statement of case
§ 19:117 —Argument
§ 19:118 —Conclusion/request for relief
§ 19:119 Citing unofficial legal authority
§ 19:120 Oral argument
§ 19:121 Decision by district court
§ 19:122 Local rules and individual judges' rules
§ 19:123 Referral to Magistrate-judge
§ 19:124 —Procedures before magistrate-judge
§ 19:125 —Effect of magistrate-judge's decision
§ 19:126 —Filing timely objections
§ 19:127 —Filing specific objections
§ 19:128 —De novo review of recommended decision when objections filed § 19:129 Judgment
§ 19:130 Review by Circuit Court of Appeals

PART VI. REPRESENTATION AND FEES

CHAPTER 20. REPRESENTATION

§ 20:1 Scope
§ 20:2 Who may represent, in general
§ 20:3 Withholding of past-due benefits for representatives' fees, in general
§ 20:4 Travel and other expense reimbursement for representatives

I. CLAIMANTS' RIGHT TO REPRESENTATION

§ 20:5 Right to representation, in general
§ 20:6 Who may appoint a representative
§ 20:7 Who is your client?
§ 20:8 Stage at which the right to representation applies
§ 20:9 Representation is not required
§ 20:10 Effect of claimant's appearance at hearing without representation
§ 20:11 SSA's responsibility to notify claimant of right to representation
§ 20:12 Information necessary to notify a claimant about the right to be represented § 20:13 Right to representation can be waived by claimant
§ 20:14 —Examples of informed waiver of representation
§ 20:15 —Examples of uninformed waiver of representation
§ 20:16 —Need to show prejudice from lack of representation
§ 20:17 —Examples where prejudice is shown
§ 20:18 —Examples where prejudice is not shown
§ 20:19 —Denial of due process despite valid waiver

II. REPRESENTATIVES' QUALIFICATIONS

§ 20:20 SSA recognition of representative, in general
§ 20:21 Qualifications of representative
§ 20:22 Competency of counsel
§ 20:23 An organization is not a representative
§ 20:24 Persons who will not be recognized as a representative
§ 20:25 Disqualification of representative
§ 20:26 Non-attorney representative recognition
§ 20:27 Procedures for recognizing non-attorney representatives
§ 20:28 Exclusion of federal employees as representatives
§ 20:29 Appointing a representative
§ 20:30 Appointment of representative form (SSA-1696)
§ 20:30.50 Claimant's revocation of the appointment of a representative (SSA-1696-SUP1)
§ 20:30.70 Representative's withdrawal of acceptance of appointment (SSA-1696-SUP2)

III. REPRESENTATIVE DUTIES

§ 20:31 Authority and duties of representative
§ 20:32 Holding video teleconference hearings at the representative's site
§ 20:33 Obligation to develop the evidentiary record
§ 20:34 What a representative may not do
§ 20:35 SSA's contact with claimant when a representative has been appointed § 20:36 Disclosure of records to an individual who is not an appointed representative
§ 20:37 Form SSA-3288
§ 20:38 Terminating representative's authority
§ 20:39 When a representative's authority expires

IV. DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS AGAINST REPRESENTATIVES

A. RULES OF CONDUCT FOR REPRESENTATIVES

§ 20:40 Conduct rules governing representatives—Affirmative duties
§ 20:41 —Prohibited behaviors
§ 20:42 —Interpretive guidance
§ 20:43 Representatives' tasks which must be performed electronically
§ 20:44 Registering for electronic file access
§ 20:45 Violation of SSA conduct rules and standards
§ 20:46 Suspension, disqualification and non-recognition data sharing

B. INITIATION AND WITHDRAWAL OF DISCIPLINARY CHARGES

§ 20:47 Representative actions that may result in sanctions
§ 20:48 Penalties and sanctions
§ 20:49 Notice of charges against a representative
§ 20:50 Withdrawal of charges
§ 20:51 Recognizing representatives pending disposition of charges against them

C. DISCIPLINARY HEARINGS AND SANCTIONS

§ 20:52 Hearing on charges against representative
§ 20:53 Conduct of hearing on charges against representative
§ 20:54 Decision by hearing officer

D. REVIEW OF DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS AND REINSTATEMENT OF REPRESENTATIVE

§ 20:55 Request for review of hearing decision
§ 20:56 Evidence permitted on review

§ 20:57 Appeals Council review of decision on charges
§ 20:58 Judicial review on disciplinary charges, not generally available
§ 20:59 Reinstatement of representative after suspension or disqualification
§ 20:60 Reinstatement after disbarment or suspension—Special circumstances

CHAPTER 21. ATTORNEY'S FEES

§ 21:1 Scope
§ 21:2 Relationship between—SSA § 406(b) and EAJA fees
§ 21:2.1 Relationship between SSA § 406(a) and EAJA
§ 21:3 Rule 11 sanctions

I. FEE-RELATED DEFINITIONS

§ 21:4 Claimant and auxiliary beneficiary
§ 21:5 Representative
§ 21:6 Fee authorization
§ 21:6.1 Third-party fees that SSA no longer needs to approve
§ 21:7 Fee petition
§ 21:8 Fee agreement
§ 21:9 Two-tier fee arrangement
§ 21:10 Direct payment of representative fees
§ 21:11 Registration for direct payment of agency fees
§ 21:11.1 Attorneys fees exempt from direct deposit requirement
§ 21:12 SSA Form 1694
§ 21:13 SSA Form 1695
§ 21:14 SSA Form 1699
§ 21:14.1 SSA Form 1696
§ 21:14.2 SSA Form 3288

II. FEES UNDER THE SOCIAL SECURITY ACT

A. OVERVIEW OF ADMINISTRATIVE FEES

§ 21:15 The universe of SSA representational fees
§ 21:16 Representative fees subject to SSA's authorization
§ 21:17 Representative's costs not subject to SSA's authorization
§ 21:18 Title II fees, in general
§ 21:19 Title XVI fees, in general
§ 21:20 Concurrent Title II and XVI fees, in general
§ 21:21 Penalty for violation of fee rules § 21:21.1 Penalty when seeking fees while not being admitted to the jurisdiction
§ 21:22 User fee on attorney's fees
§ 21:23 When a representative's authority ends
§ 21:24 Past due benefit calculations under Title II and XVI
§ 21:25 What constitutes past-due benefits in Title II cases?
§ 21:26 What constitutes past-due benefits in Title XVI cases?

§ 21:26.1 Internal Revenue Service fee reporting

B. WITHHOLDING OF FEES FROM SSI RETROACTIVE PAYMENTS

§ 21:27 SSI fee withholding and interim assistance reimbursement
§ 21:28 SSI benefit payments in installments and attorney's fees
§ 21:29 —Limited exception to fee approval requirement

C. NONATTORNEY CERTIFICATION FOR DIRECT PAYMENT OF FEES UNDER THE SOCIAL SECURITY ACT

§ 21:30 Fees under Title II and XVI for nonattorney representatives
§ 21:31 —Nonattorney application process
§ 21:32 —Nonattorney education requirements
§ 21:33 —Status of disbarred or suspended attorney under nonattorney representative certification program
§ 21:34 —Representational experience requirement for nonattorney representatives
§ 21:35 —Nonattorney representative examination

D. SSA ADMINISTRATIVE FEE PROCESS OPTIONS

§ 21:36 Using the fee petition process or the fee agreement process
§ 21:37 Fee petition, in general
§ 21:38 Fee contracts for flat-rate fee or hourly fee
§ 21:39 Fee agreement, in general
§ 21:40 Submitting a fee petition after submitting a fee agreement
§ 21:41 The maximum fee payment under a fee agreement
§ 21:42 The maximum fee payment under a fee petition
§ 21:43 Circumstances for direct payment of representative's fee
§ 21:44 Failure to withhold fees
§ 21:45 Representative's use of trust or escrow account
§ 21:46 Fees held in escrow
§ 21:47 Authorization of fees for services below the hearing level
§ 21:48 Authorization of fees at and above the hearing level
§ 21:49 Fees authorized in court cases, in general
§ 21:50 Waiver of direct fee payment
§ 21:51 How to waive a fee or direct payment of a fee
§ 21:52 Violation of fee rules
§ 21:53 Title II past-due benefits subject to withholding § 21:54 Title XVI past-due benefits subject to withholding
§ 21:55 —Title XVI representative fees and interim assistance reimbursement
§ 21:56 Adjustment to amount of past-due benefits and representative fees § 21:57 Representative fees if claimant declares bankruptcy

E. FEE AGREEMENTS

§ 21:58 Fee agreements, in general

§ 21:59 Election of fee agreement process
§ 21:60 Form of submitted fee agreement
§ 21:61 Fee agreement document
§ 21:62 Statutory conditions for approval of a fee agreement
§ 21:63 Fee agreement provisions acceptable to SSA that increase the fee cap § 21:64 Fee agreement provisions allowed
§ 21:65 Fee agreement provisions that will be disapproved
§ 21:66 Two-tier fee agreements
§ 21:67 Appealing decision on fee agreement
§ 21:68 —Signing fee agreement on behalf of legally incompetent claimant
§ 21:69 Fee agreement must be with individual representative not a firm
§ 21:69.1 Attorney fees exempt from direct deposit requirement
§ 21:70 Exceptions to the fee agreement process
§ 21:71 Multiple fee agreements
§ 21:72 Unappointed representative
§ 21:73 Factors SSA will not consider or that will not preclude a favorable determination of a fee agreement
§ 21:74 Actions for which SSA cannot approve a fee agreement
§ 21:75 Calculating past-due benefits
§ 21:76 Fee agreement determinations
§ 21:77 Evaluating a fee agreement
§ 21:78 Administrative review of fee agreement decisions
§ 21:79 Sample contingent fee agreements
§ 21:80 Sample SSA order approving fee agreement

F. FEE PETITIONS

§ 21:81 Fee petitions, in general
§ 21:82 When a fee petition must be filed
§ 21:83 Filing a petition when there is no past-due fund
§ 21:84 Filing a fee petition when a claim is denied
§ 21:85 Who may file a fee petition
§ 21:86 Responsibility for authorizing administrative fees
§ 21:87 Factors considered in determining a fee under a fee petition
§ 21:88 Maximum fee under fee petition
§ 21:89 Filing the fee petition: information required
§ 21:90 Notice to claimant of fee petition
§ 21:91 Fees based on services after Appeals Council action and before filing a civil action
§ 21:92 —When to file a fee petition
§ 21:93 —Representative dies before filing petition
§ 21:94 —Where to file a fee petition
§ 21:95 Who may appeal initial decision on fee petition
§ 21:96 Time limit for requesting review
§ 21:97 Petition authorization review criteria

§ 21:98 Finality of fee petition determination
§ 21:99 Fee petition form

G. FEE PAYMENT PROCESS

§ 21:100 Jurisdiction for certification of fees
§ 21:101 Procedures for fee agreement questions
§ 21:102 Fee processing time frames for cases approved at the hearing level
§ 21:103 —Information needed before fees can be processed

H. FEDERAL COURT CASES UNDER § 406(b)

§ 21:104 SSA attorney's fees for representation in proceedings before a court
§ 21:104.1 Process for petitioning court for attorney's fees
§ 21:105 Assessing a fee when there is a contingency fee agreement
§ 21:106 Reasonable fees in judicial proceedings under § 406(b)
§ 21:107 Examples of post-Gisbrecht fee awards
§ 21:108 Compensable time and charges under § 406(b)
§ 21:109 Timeliness of submission of court fee petition pursuant to § 406(b)
§ 21:109.1 Attorney's fees and claimant bankruptcy
§ 21:110 Appeal of district court fee award under § 406(b)
§ 21:111 Motion for approval of attorney fees in federal court
§ 21:112 Effectuation of federal court approval of fees

III. FEES UNDER THE EQUAL ACCESS TO JUSTICE ACT (EAJA)

§ 21:113 Fees pursuant to the Equal Access to Justice Act—Generally § 21:114 The importance of seeking EAJA fees
§ 21:115 Prerequisites to EAJA award
§ 21:116 Parties eligible for EAJA fees
§ 21:117 Requirements for EAJA application
§ 21:118 Prevailing party status
§ 21:119 —Prevailing party in remanded cases
§ 21:120 A little history on how the Supreme Court determined prevailing party status
§ 21:121 —Special circumstances that make EAJA award to prevailing party unjust § 21:122 Who is a prevailing party?
§ 21:123 Prevailing party and catalyst theory
§ 21:124 Substantial justification
§ 21:125 —Burden of proof
§ 21:126 —Substantial justification determined under abuse of discretion test
§ 21:127 —Examples of decisions in which substantial justification was found

§ 21:128 —Examples of decisions in which substantial justification was not found § 21:129 —Substantial justification applies to both the government's administrative decision and litigation position
§ 21:130 —Alleging that the government's position was not substantially justified § 21:131 When to file an EAJA application
§ 21:131.1 Incurred fees
§ 21:132 When to file an EAJA application—EAJA petition time limits run from the filing of a separate judgment
§ 21:133 —Remand proceedings under sentence 4
§ 21:134 —Remand proceedings under sentence 6
§ 21:135 —Opposing government's motion to remand
§ 21:136 Rate of fees available under EAJA
§ 21:136.1 EAJA sanctions
§ 21:137 Basis of cost of living adjustments
§ 21:137.1 Reasonableness of number of hours billed
§ 21:138 District court has discretion to determine reasonableness
§ 21:138.1 To whom should EAJA fees be paid: attorney or client?
§ 21:138.2 Obtaining client debt information
§ 21:138.3 Post-Ratliff offset process
§ 21:138.4 Acceptable assignment language
§ 21:138.5 Sample limited power of attorney for EAJA
§ 21:139 Activities that are compensable under EAJA
§ 21:140 Bad faith EAJA fees
§ 21:141 EAJA fee contacts
§ 21:142 Appellate review of district court fee award
§ 21:143 Direct deposit of EAJA fee payments
§ 21:144 Vendor/Miscellaneous Payment Enrollment Form, SF 3881
§ 21:145 EAJA fee motion and declaration of attorney
§ 21:146 Sample EAJA fee demand: sentence 6
§ 21:147 Sample EAJA fee demand letter: sentence 4

PART VII. EVALUATING DISABILITY

CHAPTER 22. EVALUATION OF DISABILITY

§ 22:1 Scope of chapter

I. OVERVIEW OF DISABILITY

A. REQUIREMENTS OF THE DEFINITION OF DISABILITY

§ 22:2 Definition of disability
§ 22:3 Application of disability definition to both Social Security and SSI claims

§ 22:4 —Medically determinable impairment(s)
§ 22:5 Medical condition(s) prevents performance of Substantial Gainful Activity (SGA)
§ 22:6 Duration requirement
§ 22:7 Other components of the disability definition

B. OTHER BASIC DISABILITY CONCEPTS

§ 22:8 Sequential evaluation
§ 22:9 —Flow chart
§ 22:10 Performance of SGA (Step 1)
§ 22:11 —Severity (Step 2)
§ 22:12 Listing of Impairments (Step 3)
§ 22:13 —"Meets" or "equals" a listing
§ 22:14 —Inability to "perform past relevant work" (PRW)
§ 22:15 Residual functional capacity (RFC)
§ 22:16 —Inability to perform other work
§ 22:17 Sequential evaluation and burden of proof
§ 22:18 Combination of impairments
§ 22:19 Multiple impairments and duration
§ 22:20 Blindness
§ 22:21 Mental impairments, in general
§ 22:22 SSI presumptive disability

C. DISABILITY CATEGORIES

§ 22:23 Wage-earners
§ 22:24 Disabled widows and widowers
§ 22:25 Divorced disabled widows and widowers
§ 22:26 Adult disabled children (Title II only)
§ 22:27 SSI Disability: adults
§ 22:28 —SSI disabled Children
§ 22:29 —Elderly non-citizens (SSI only)
§ 22:29.1 Veterans disability
§ 22:30 Impairment arising from commission of a felony (Title II only)
§ 22:31 Impairment arising during incarceration (Title II only)
§ 22:32 Conditions considered remediable
§ 22:33 Failure to follow prescribed treatment
§ 22:34 —Special cases: smoking and obesity/weight loss
§ 22:35 —Failure to seek treatment
§ 22:36 Inability to afford treatment
§ 22:37 —Lack of treatment
§ 22:38 Substance Abuse
§ 22:39 Sample report on substance abuse
§ 22:40 Adjudication process, in general
§ 22:41 SSA's role in disability adjudication
§ 22:42 —State agency role in disability adjudications
§ 22:43 Quick Disability Determinations (QDD)
§ 22:44 Compassionate Allowances (CA)

§ 22:45 [Reserved]

D. PRODUCTION OF EVIDENCE

§ 22:46 Claimant's responsibility to produce
§ 22:46.1 Submission of adverse evidence
§ 22:47 SSA's responsibility to collect and develop evidence
§ 22:48 Evidence of impairment
§ 22:49 "Medically determinable" impairment
§ 22:49.50 Evaluating COVID-19 Cases
§ 22:50 "Acceptable medical source" evidence
§ 22:51 —Other medical sources of evidence
§ 22:52 —Lay evidence
§ 22:53 —Medical records
§ 22:54 —Medical opinions
§ 22:55 —Medications
§ 22:56 —Weighing medical opinions
§ 22:57 —Treating source opinion on ultimate issue of disability
§ 22:58 Opinion evidence from non-examining sources
§ 22:59 Opinions of state agency medical and psychological consultants, other program physicians and psychologists and medical experts
§ 22:60 Payment for medical evidence
§ 22:61 Where to submit evidence
§ 22:62 Failure to submit evidence

E. CONSIDERATION OF SUBJECTIVE SYMPTOMS

§ 22:63 What are symptoms?
§ 22:64 Symptoms are not medically determinable impairments
§ 22:65 What are signs?
§ 22:66 —Evaluating symptom evidence (pain and other subjective complaints)
§ 22:67 —Weighing medical opinions
§ 22:68 —Sequential evaluation and symptoms
§ 22:69 —Listings and symptoms
§ 22:70 —Residual Functional Capacity (RFC) and symptoms
§ 22:71 —Linking symptoms to diagnoses

F. EVALUATION OF CREDIBILITY

§ 22:72 Credibility, in general
§ 22:73 —Credibility versus reliability
§ 22:74 —Credibility and consistency of evidence
§ 22:74.1 Credibility and residual functional capacity (RFC)
§ 22:75 Credibility, in general—Credibility and daily activities
§ 22:76 —Credibility and school attendance
§ 22:77 —Credibility and subjective symptoms
§ 22:78 —Credibility and work history
§ 22:78.1 Malingering

§ 22:79 Credibility, in general—Credibility and claimant demeanor
§ 22:79.1 Credibility and claimant demeanor at video teleconferenced (VTC) hearings
§ 22:79.2 Credibility Assessment and the use of social media
§ 22:80 Effects of medication
§ 22:81 Credibility and treatment
§ 22:81.1 Effects of medication—Credibility and medical conditions
§ 22:82 Mental impairment assessments
§ 22:83 Credibility and mental impairments
§ 22:84 —Credibility and receipt of unemployment insurance
§ 22:85 Substantial evidence standard

II. SEQUENTIAL EVALUATION PROCESS

A. STEP 1: SGA

§ 22:86 SGA and the sequential evaluation
§ 22:87 Useful SSRs at Step 1
§ 22:88 Definition of substantial gainful activity (SGA)
§ 22:89 —Substantial work activity
§ 22:90 —Gainful work activity
§ 22:91 —Work not considered SGA
§ 22:92 —Work performed as part of a welfare program
§ 22:93 —Presumption of SGA: employee guidelines
§ 22:94 —Presumption of SGA: self-employment guidelines
§ 22:95 —SGA and illegal activity
§ 22:96 —SGA and averaging income
§ 22:97 Work detrimental to health
§ 22:98 Unsuccessful work attempt § 22:99 SGA and part-time work
§ 22:100 SGA and sheltered work
§ 22:101 SGA and subsidized work
§ 22:102 SGA and work under special circumstances
§ 22:103 SGA and SSI
§ 22:104 Calculating SSI earnings and eligibility
§ 22:105 SGA and blindness
§ 22:106 Impairment-related work expenses (SSDI and SSID)
§ 22:107 Blind work expenses (SSI only)
§ 22:108 SGA—Step 1—Review/Examples

B. STEP 2: SEVERITY

§ 22:109 Step 2, in general
§ 22:110 —"More than slight" or "significant"
§ 22:111 Step 2: A screening device
§ 22:112 Severity versus duration
§ 22:113 Basic work activities
§ 22:114 —Physical activities
§ 22:115 —Mental activities

§ 22:116 Medical evidence
§ 22:117 Considering combination of impairments
§ 22:118 Substantial evidence standard
§ 22:119 Burden of proof of severity
§ 22:120 Useful SSRs at Step 2
§ 22:121 Severity at Step 2 compared with severity at Step 3

C. STEP 3: LISTING OF IMPAIRMENTS

§ 22:122 Step 3, in general
§ 22:123 What are the Listings?
§ 22:124 Relationship between adult and childhood Listings
§ 22:125 Composition of the Listings
§ 22:126 Listed body systems
§ 22:127 Periodic Listing Revisions
§ 22:128 Meeting a Listing
§ 22:129 Equaling a Listing
§ 22:130 Mental Listings—Evaluation
§ 22:131 — —Documenting consideration of mental impairments
§ 22:132 — —Mental impairments as high-risk claims
§ 22:133 Who decides whether Listing is met or equaled?
§ 22:134 Mental Listings—Evaluation—Substantial Evidence test
§ 22:135 Consideration of medical and non-medical evidence
§ 22:136 Other authority for listed and non-listed impairments: POMS and SSRs
§ 22:137 Useful SSRs at Step 3
§ 22:138 Effect of meeting or equaling a Listing
§ 22:139 Relationship between Listings and statutory standard
§ 22:140 Arguing the Listings and beyond
§ 22:141 Index to Listings [editor's note: not all numbers in the index list below are consecutive]

D. STEP 4: PAST RELEVANT WORK

§ 22:142 Steps 4 and 5, in general
§ 22:143 Vocational considerations
§ 22:143.1 Expedited vocational assessment under the sequential evaluation
§ 22:144 Residual functional capacity (RFC) evaluation
§ 22:145 —Who determines RFC?
§ 22:146 RFC evaluation versus "medical source statement about what the claimant can still do"
§ 22:147 What should a "medical source statement about what the claimant can still do" contain § 22:147.1 Need to recontact treating medical source § 22:148 What should a "medical source statement about what the claimant can still do" contain—Effect of RFC on disability determination § 22:149 When in the sequential evaluation is RFC determined?
§ 22:150 —Step 4: Special vocational profiles

§ 22:151 —Vocational Specialists and Vocational Experts
§ 22:152 Agency collection of vocational information
§ 22:153 —Dictionary of Occupational Titles (DOT)
§ 22:154 Problems with the DOT/SCODOT
§ 22:155 Replacement of the DOT
§ 22:156 When vocational expert testimony differs from DOT requirements
§ 22:157 Specific Vocational Preparation (SVP) and General Educational Development (GED)
§ 22:158 Sources of vocational evidence—Using the DOT to prepare claims
§ 22:159 —Using the Selected Characteristics of the Occupations defined in the Dictionary of Occupational Titles (SCODOT) and the Guide to Occupational Exploration (GOE) to prepare claims
§ 22:160 —Practical application: Comparing SVP with GED: An example
§ 22:161 —Practical application: Comparing SVP with GED: An example—Other vocational sources
§ 22:161.1 Surveillance systems monitor: an example
§ 22:161.2 Sources of vocational evidence—Standard Occupational Classification (SOC)
§ 22:161.3 Other sources of vocational evidence—What is the difference between occupations and jobs?
§ 22:162 Difference between Step 4 and Step 5
§ 22:163 Past relevant work, in general
§ 22:164 What is past relevant work (PRW)
§ 22:165 Past relevant work as actually performed or as performed generally in the national economy
§ 22:166 What is considered in evaluating whether work is "past relevant"?
§ 22:167 SSA's responsibility at Step 4
§ 22:168 Burden of proof at Step 4
§ 22:169 Past relevant work and substantial gainful activity
§ 22:170 —Past relevant work that no longer exists
§ 22:171 —Past relevant work in a foreign country
§ 22:172 —Past relevant work and date last insured
§ 22:173 Considering past relevant jobs as a whole
§ 22:174 Arduous work profile
§ 22:175 No past relevant work experience profile
§ 22:176 Useful SSRs at Step 4
§ 22:177 Winning at Step 4?
§ 22:178 ALJ findings and substantial evidence

E. STEP 5: OTHER WORK

§ 22:179 Vocational considerations, in general
§ 22:180 Evaluating exertional versus non-exertional limitations
§ 22:181 Burden of proof at Step 5
§ 22:182 What does "other work" mean?

§ 22:183 —Significant numbers
§ 22:184 —Administrative notice of jobs under the Medical-Vocational Guidelines
§ 22:185 —Significant numbers when grid rules do not apply § 22:186 —In the national economy
§ 22:187 Vocational categories
§ 22:188 Age categories
§ 22:189 —Effect of age categories
§ 22:190 —Borderline age situations
§ 22:191 —Age and additional adversity
§ 22:192 Age and burden of proof
§ 22:193 When age is attained
§ 22:194 Education, in general
§ 22:195 Education categories
§ 22:196 Education categories including inability to communicate in English—Illiteracy or the inability to communicate in English
§ 22:197 Past work experience
§ 22:198 What is a skill?
§ 22:199 Skill categories
§ 22:200 —Unskilled
§ 22:201 —Semi-skilled § 22:202 —Skilled
§ 22:203 Aptitudes and abilities versus skills
§ 22:204 Transferability of skills, in general
§ 22:205 Age and transferability of skills
§ 22:206 PRW and transferability of skills: a summary
§ 22:207 Loss of ability to utilize skills and its effect
§ 22:208 Classification of physical exertional requirements of work
§ 22:209 —Sedentary work
§ 22:210 —Light work
§ 22:211 —Medium work
§ 22:212 —Heavy work
§ 22:213 —Very heavy
§ 22:214 —Less than sedentary
§ 22:215 Exertional activities
§ 22:216 Non-exertional activities
§ 22:217 Treatment of exertional limitations and nonexertional limitations, in general
§ 22:218 What are the Medical-Vocational Guidelines ("Grid Rules")
§ 22:219 How the Grid Rules work
§ 22:220 Who do the Grid Rules favor or disfavor?
§ 22:221 Effect of applying a Grid Rule: mandatory finding of "disabled" or "not disabled"
§ 22:222 Applying the Medical-Vocational rules: case examples
§ 22:223 When the Grid Rules do NOT apply § 22:224 Who is a vocational expert (VE)?

§ 22:225 When is a vocational expert needed?
§ 22:226 Guidelines for ALJ's use of VEs
§ 22:227 What information does a VE receive prior to a hearing?
§ 22:228 Questioning a VE
§ 22:228.1 —Measuring function
§ 22:229 —Using hypotheticals
§ 22:230 —Work-related testimony: how to avoid being boondoggled by your client at a hearing
§ 22:231 Legal or common sense limitation on performance of particular jobs
§ 22:232 Factors which limit or preclude use of Grid Rules—Inability to perform a full range of work
§ 22:233 Factors which limit or preclude use of grid rules—Need to change position frequently
§ 22:234 —Ability to perform less than a full range of sedentary work
§ 22:235 Factors which limit or preclude use of Grid Rules—Loss of use of an upper extremity
§ 22:236 Factors which limit or preclude use of Grid rules—Capacity to perform work between exertional levels
§ 22:237 —Use of guidelines where claimant suffers from both exertional and nonexertional impairments
§ 22:238 —Nonexertional impairments, generally
§ 22:239 —Claimant with solely nonexertional impairments
§ 22:239.1 Use of Grid Rule 204 as framework with mental claims
§ 22:240 Absenteeism
§ 22:240.1 Sustained work activity
§ 22:241 Essential mental work abilities and aptitudes
§ 22:242 Work evaluation
§ 22:243 Global Assessment of Function (GAF)
§ 22:244 Checklist of nonexertional activities
§ 22:245 Evaluating SSD for individuals over age 65 or, disability evaluations for certain elderly, age 65 and above, non-citizens seeking SSI
§ 22:246 Employment accommodations
§ 22:247 ALJ decision must be based on the record as a whole
§ 22:248 Useful SSRs at Step 5
§ 22:249 The Medical-Vocational Guidelines, Appendix 2

III. ONSET OF DISABILITY

§ 22:250 Onset and date last insured (DLI), relationship in general
§ 22:251 Date Last Insured (DLI) (SSD only)
§ 22:252 Length of disability insurance coverage
§ 22:253 Retrospective evidence of onset
§ 22:254 Alleging onset for Title II: how to determine the proper date?
§ 22:255 Using a medical expert to determine onset
§ 22:256 Onset and work after application
§ 22:257 Onset and prior applications

§ 22:258 Onset and traumatic injury
§ 22:259 Onset and progressive impairments
§ 22:260 Onset and multiple impairments
§ 22:261 Onset and disabled adult child's eligibility
§ 22:262 Onset and disabled widows and widowers
§ 22:263 Onset and Title XVI alien claims
§ 22:264 Onset and Title II blind claims

IV. DURATION OF DISABLING IMPAIRMENT(S)

§ 22:265 Duration requirement, in general
§ 22:266 —12 month duration already passed
§ 22:267 —Expected duration at least 12 months into the future
§ 22:268 Duration and sequential evaluation
§ 22:269 Impairment likely to result in death
§ 22:270 Duration and multiple impairments
§ 22:271 Duration and episodic impairments
§ 22:272 —Impact of remissions
§ 22:273 Ability or inability to perform sustained work activity
§ 22:274 —Examples of inability to perform sustained work activity
§ 22:275 Closed period of disability
§ 22:276 —Application of medical improvement standard
§ 22:277 Duration and performance of work before adjudication
§ 22:278 Duration and trial work period
§ 22:279 Applicability of duration requirement to subsequent period of disability

V. DISABILITY FORMS

§ 22:280 General physical report of medical condition and function
§ 22:281 Psychiatric or psychological report of condition and function
§ 22:282 Questionnaire as to respiratory impairments
§ 22:283 Medical evaluation: central nervous system vascular accident
§ 22:284 Report on condition and functional limitations: neurological impairment
§ 22:285 Report of condition and functional limitations: eye impairment
§ 22:286 Medical and functional evaluation: arthritis
§ 22:287 Medical and functional evaluation: diabetes
§ 22:288 Medical evaluation: malignant neoplastic disease (any cancer)
§ 22:289 Medical and functional evaluation: skin disorders
§ 22:290 Medical and functional evaluation: chronic venous insufficiency
§ 22:291 Medical and functional evaluation: congestive heart failure
§ 22:292 RFC Questionnaire for psychiatric disorders

§ 22:293 Medical Report on Adult with Allegation of Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV) Infection (Form SSA-4814)
§ 22:294 Medical Report on Child with Allegation of Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV) Infection (Form SSA-4815)
§ 22:295 Disability Report—Adult (Form SSA-3368-BK)
§ 22:296 —Appeal (Form SSA-3441-BK)
§ 22:297 Work History Report (Form SSA-3369-BK)
§ 22:298 Function Report—Adult (Form SSA-3373-BK)

VI. APPENDIX A: EVALUATING CLAIMANTS WITH LONG-TERM EFFECTS OF CORONAVIRUS DISEASE

§ 22:299 Emergency Message 21032

Volume 3

CHAPTER 23. SSI CHILDHOOD DISABILITY

I. INTRODUCTION

§ 23:1 Organization of this chapter
§ 23:2 History of childhood SSI program

II. GENERAL CONCEPTS

§ 23:3 Duration
§ 23:4 Listing of Impairments
§ 23:5 Medical equivalence
§ 23:6 Continuous development of evidence

III. CURRENT REGULATIONS AND PRACTICES

§ 23:7 Definition of childhood disability
§ 23:8 Children's sequential evaluation
§ 23:9 Meeting a Listing
§ 23:10 Medically equaling a Listing
§ 23:11 Functional equivalence
§ 23:12 Conditions deemed to functionally equal Listing-level severity
§ 23:13 Challenge of maladaptive behavior
§ 23:14 Functional equivalence assessment
§ 23:15 Intellectual disability (Listing 112.05) and adaptive function
§ 23:16 When function will be considered
§ 23:17 Sources of evidence to be considered in determining functional limitations
§ 23:18 Factors considered in evaluating function

§ 23:19 Effect of a structured setting
§ 23:20 Age-related determination
§ 23:21 Using school information
§ 23:22 Chronic illness
§ 23:23 Effects of treatment
§ 23:24 Marked and extreme limitations
§ 23:25 Evaluating standardized test scores
§ 23:26 Functional domains
§ 23:27 —Childhood functional Social Security Rulings (SSRs)
§ 23:28 —Age categories
§ 23:29 —Acquiring and using information
§ 23:30 —Attending and completing tasks
§ 23:31 —Interacting and relating.
§ 23:32 —Moving about/manipulating objects
§ 23:33 —Caring for yourself
§ 23:34 —Health and physical well-being § 23:35 Assessing combined impact of impairments
§ 23:36 Childhood continuing disability reviews
§ 23:37 —Exceptions to medical improvement standard
§ 23:38 —Evidence at CDR of child's continuing treatment
§ 23:39 Redetermination of disability at age 18
§ 23:40 Continuation of benefits with vocational rehabilitation (Section 301 Benefits)
§ 23:41 Hearing procedure in childhood cases
§ 23:42 Sample children's SSI interview questions
§ 23:43 Forms—Psychiatric/Psychological Report for Child
§ 23:44 —SSI Child's Medical/Functional Assessment
§ 23:45 —Childhood Functional Questionnaire

CHAPTER 24. BLINDNESS

§ 24:1 Introduction to blindness benefits

A. EVALUATION OF VISION IMPAIRMENT

§ 24:2 Visual impairments
§ 24:3 Visual Listings, in general
§ 24:4 Blindness
§ 24:5 Blindness definition specific to children
§ 24:6 Visual field abnormalities—Scotoma
§ 24:7 Who is eligible for statutory blind status
§ 24:8 Listed visual impairments that do not constitute statutory blindness
§ 24:9 Other vision impairments
§ 24:10 Changes in the vision Listings: 2007 and 2013

B. VISUAL IMPAIRMENTS CONSIDERATIONS APPLICABLE TO BOTH TITLES II AND XVI

§ 24:11 Social Security communication with blind individuals

§ 24:12 Onset in blindness cases
§ 24:13 Title II blindness and duration
§ 24:14 Title II blindness and SGA
§ 24:15 Termination of benefits

C. TITLE II BLINDNESS ENTITLEMENT

§ 24:16 Title II earnings requirement in statutory blindness cases
§ 24:17 Title II disability freeze period
§ 24:18 Title II evaluation of work activity for blind individuals aged 55+
§ 24:19 Title II evaluation of work activity for self-employed blind individuals § 24:20 Title II impairment-related work expenses [IRWE] for blind workers
§ 24:21 Blindness and trial work period

D. TITLE XVI BLINDNESS ENTITLEMENT

§ 24:22 Title XVI evaluation of work for blind individuals
§ 24:23 Title XVI blindness work expenses (BWE)
§ 24:24 SSI income determination for BWE
APPENDIX 1

CHAPTER 25. MEDICAL EVIDENCE

§ 25:1 Scope

A. EVIDENCE

§ 25:2 Types of medical evidence
§ 25:3 Preferred medical evidence: reproducibility of test results
§ 25:4 Conditions that defy objective testing
§ 25:5 Other medical data
§ 25:6 Impairments SSA will not consider
§ 25:7 Agency documentation
§ 25:8 —Cooperative Disability Investigation (CDI)
§ 25:9 Sources of medical documentation
§ 25:10 "Acceptable" medical sources
§ 25:11 "Other" medical sources
§ 25:12 Evaluating opinion evidence in claims filed before March 27, 2017
§ 25:13 Evaluating opinion evidence in claims filed on or after March 27, 2017
§ 25:14 Treating relationship
§ 25:15 —Giving controlling weight to treating physician opinions (for claims filed before March 27, 2017)
§ 25:16 —Evaluation if treating physician is not given controlling weight (for claims filed before March 27, 2017)

B. DOCUMENTATION

§ 25:17 Medical reports: contents

§ 25:18 —Technical medical report requirements
§ 25:19 Functional evaluations: RFC versus "statement about what a claimant can still do (or not do)"
§ 25:20 Mental health reports
§ 25:21 Psychotherapy notes
§ 25:22 Submission of false or misleading evidence
§ 25:23 Issues reserved to the Commissioner

C. ADMISSIBILITY AND RELEVANCE

§ 25:24 Admissibility of evidence, in general
§ 25:25 Purpose for which medical report is prepared
§ 25:26 Submission of evidence by claimant
§ 25:27 The form of a medical report
§ 25:28 Contemporaneous medical evidence: updating the medical file
§ 25:29 Retrospective medical opinions
§ 25:30 Relevance of medical evidence
§ 25:31 Relevance of medical records and onset of disability
§ 25:32 Relevance of medical evidence and date last insured (DLI)

D. OBTAINING MEDICAL EVIDENCE

§ 25:33 Medical evidence, in general
§ 25:34 Medical evidence from the VA
§ 25:35 Agency receipt of electronic medical records
§ 25:36 Obtaining medical professionals credentials

E. THE MEDICAL PLAYERS

§ 25:37 Treating physicians
§ 25:38 Consultative physicians and consultative evaluations (CE)
§ 25:39 Private use of SSA consultative examiners
§ 25:40 Video teleconferencing consultative examinations
§ 25:41 Situations which require a consultative examination
§ 25:42 Situations in which a consultative examination will not be ordered § 25:43 Failure of a claimant to appear at a consultative examination
§ 25:44 Effect of claimant's failure to cooperate with a consultative examination
§ 25:45 Failure of ALJ to order a consultative examination
§ 25:46 The type of examination to be ordered
§ 25:47 Consultative examiners' credentials and discipline
§ 25:48 Weight to be accorded consultative examination
§ 25:49 Evidence provided to CEs
§ 25:50 Using a treating physician or psychologist as a consultant
§ 25:51 Objections to a consultant physician
§ 25:52 Minimum scheduling requirements for consultative examinations

§ 25:53 Consultative report content
§ 25:54 Obtaining information from a Consultative Examiner (CE)
§ 25:55 SSA review of consultative examination reports
§ 25:56 Avoiding conflicts of interest
§ 25:57 Authorizing and monitoring consultative examination
§ 25:58 State agency medical evaluators
§ 25:59 Single decisionmaker assessments (SDM)
§ 25:60 Medical experts
§ 25:61 Medical expert testimony by telephone or video teleconference (VTC)
§ 25:62 Agency physicians: obtaining credentials

F. OTHER EVIDENTIARY CONSIDERATIONS

§ 25:63 Use of medical texts and treatises
§ 25:64 Sufficiency of evidence
§ 25:65 Clarification of functional impact of medically determinable impairments
§ 25:66 An ALJ may not substitute his or her own opinion for medical evidence § 25:67 Evaluating "other" medical evidence
§ 25:68 Evaluating medical and opinion evidence in claims filed before March 27, 2017
§ 25:69 An ALJ must give good and valid reasons to discount medical opinions
§ 25:70 Medical evidence checklist

CHAPTER 26. EVIDENCE: OTHER SOURCES

§ 26:1 Scope

A. NON-MEDICAL EVIDENCE OF DISABILITY

§ 26:2 Overview
§ 26:3 Non-medical sources of evidence
§ 26:4 The sequential evaluation and non-medical/lay evidence
§ 26:5 Weighing non-medical source evidence
§ 26:6 Credibility of "other evidence"
§ 26:7 When is non-medical evidence useful?
§ 26:8 Checklist of potential sources of non-medical evidence in disability claims § 26:9 Release of non-medical evidence
§ 26:10 Evidence of personal observations
§ 26:11 Format of observational evidence of lay witnesses
§ 26:12 Disability decisions by other agencies
§ 26:13 Receipt of unemployment insurance (UI) as a possible disqualifying factor
§ 26:14 Unsuccessful work attempts (UWA)

B. EVIDENCE OF STATUS AND RELATIONSHIP: DISABILITY, RETIREMENT AND SURVIVOR PROGRAMS

§ 26:15 Overview
§ 26:16 Convincing evidence
§ 26:17 Preferred evidence
§ 26:18 Evidence of identity
§ 26:19 Evidence of age
§ 26:20 Evidence of citizenship: SSI
§ 26:21 Evidence of Residence: SSI
§ 26:22 Evidence of death
§ 26:23 Rebuttal of the presumption of death
§ 26:24 Evidence of marriage
§ 26:25 Evidence of divorce
§ 26:26 Evidence an individual is a natural parent, grandparent, or child
§ 26:27 Evidence regarding posthumously conceived children
§ 26:28 Evidence of stepparent or stepchild relationship
§ 26:29 Evidence of legal adoption
§ 26:30 Evidence of equitable adoption
§ 26:31 Evidence of a child's dependency
§ 26:32 Evidence of school attendance
§ 26:33 Evidence of support of insured worker's parents
§ 26:34 Evidence of living in the same household
§ 26:35 Evidence of having a child in care
§ 26:36 Evidence of where the insured person had a permanent home
§ 26:37 Evidence of earnings to correct earnings record

CHAPTER 27. HEARING PREPARATION

§ 27:1 Scope

I. INITIAL MEETING WITH CLIENT

§ 27:2 Interviewing client
§ 27:3 Reviewing client's documents
§ 27:4 Ethical concerns
§ 27:5 Signing authorizations
§ 27:6 Scope of services
§ 27:7 Scope of authority of representative
§ 27:8 Time frame

II. OBTAINING AND REVIEWING SSA FILE

§ 27:9 Requesting client's file
§ 27:10 OHO preparation of a disability exhibit file
§ 27:11 Reviewing exhibit file
§ 27:12 Reopening prior applications

III. DEVELOPING THE RECORD

§ 27:13 Obtaining new records
§ 27:14 —Cost of copying medical records
§ 27:15 Developing new records
§ 27:16 —Using claimant logs and photos

IV. DEVELOPING A THEORY OF THE CASE

§ 27:17 Framework for theory of case
§ 27:18 Theory at Step 3—Listing of Impairment
§ 27:19 Step 4—Past relevant work
§ 27:20 Step 5—Other work
§ 27:21 Effect of receiving unemployment compensation during an alleged period of disability
§ 27:22 Defining or refining a theory
§ 27:23 Other issues that may impact a theory

V. PREPARING YOUR FILE FOR HEARING

§ 27:24 Evaluating and developing the claim file
§ 27:25 On-the-record decision (OTR)

VI. PREPARING WITNESSES

§ 27:26 Evaluating your client as a witness
§ 27:27 Preparing claimant for a hearing
§ 27:28 Credibility issues
§ 27:29 Preparation of other witnesses

VII. PREPARING FOR MEDICAL EXPERT TESTIMONY

§ 27:30 Medical experts, in general
§ 27:31 Difference between medical expert (ME), consultative examiner (CE), and State agency medical reviewers
§ 27:32 Reasons to call an ME
§ 27:33 Evaluating ME's credentials
§ 27:34 Objecting to ME's credentials
§ 27:35 Hearing procedure when an ME is present
§ 27:36 ALJ examination of ME
§ 27:37 Need to cross-examine a ME
§ 27:38 When not to cross-examine an ME
§ 27:39 Consideration of ME testimony
§ 27:40 Preparation for ME testimony
§ 27:41 —Plan of action
§ 27:42 —Objectives of cross-examining a ME
§ 27:43 Hypothetical case: Illustration of ME cross-examination
§ 27:44 Objections to ME testimony
§ 27:45 Ways a ME can assist a claimant

VIII. PREPARING FOR A VOCATIONAL EXPERT

§ 27:46 General considerations

§ 27:47 Distinguishing a vocational specialist (VS) from a vocational expert (VE)
§ 27:48 Rules for assessing vocational factors
§ 27:49 Medical-Vocational Guidelines (Grid Rules)
§ 27:50 When VE testimony is necessary
§ 27:51 Consideration of nonexertional limitations
§ 27:52 Examples of when VE testimony is necessary
§ 27:53 Evaluating a VE's credentials
§ 27:54 Challenging VE credentials
§ 27:55 Sources of vocational testimony—Identified in Code of Federal Regulations
§ 27:56 —Not included in Code of Federal Regulations
§ 27:57 —POMS: potential vocational impact of various physical functions
§ 27:58 —POMS: potential vocational impact of various mental functions
§ 27:59 —Personal experience of VE
§ 27:60 Can a VE consider employment accommodations under Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) when citing jobs?
§ 27:61 VE's presence at a hearing
§ 27:62 Evidence VE should be provided prior to a hearing
§ 27:63 Vocational testimony by claimant's expert or vocational agency
§ 27:64 Hearing procedure when VE testifies
§ 27:65 Claimant's right to cross-examine a VE
§ 27:66 Failure to cross-examine a VE may act as waiver
§ 27:67 Using hypotheticals to question a VE
§ 27:68 Evidence that will impact VE testimony
§ 27:69 Can a VE consider information outside hypotheticals posed?
§ 27:70 ALJ's initial examination of VE
§ 27:71 Information VEs need to form an opinion
§ 27:72 Discrepancies between VE testimony and DOT
§ 27:73 Preparing to cross examine a VE
§ 27:74 Common objections to VE testimony
§ 27:75 Advocates role during ALJ's examination of VE
§ 27:76 What makes a hypothetical accurate
§ 27:77 —Mental limitations: Illustrations of erroneous hypotheticals
§ 27:78 —Hypotheticals citing medical diagnoses versus functional limitations
§ 27:79 —Quantifying functional limitations
§ 27:80 Quantifying pain and other symptoms
§ 27:81 —Significant number of jobs in national economy § 27:82 VE testimony and post-hearing evidence
§ 27:83 Examples of when to file posthearing briefs
§ 27:84 When not to cross examine a VE
§ 27:85 Consideration of VE testimony

§ 27:85.50 SSR 24-3p
§ 27:86 Hypothetical case: Illustrations and critique
§ 27:87 Summary: Preparing hypothetical questions
§ 27:88 Sample forms and letters

CHAPTER 28. SPECIFIC IMPAIRMENTS DIGEST

§ 28:1 Overview
§ 28:2 Musculoskeletal (including growth impairments in children)
§ 28:3 Special senses and speech
§ 28:4 Respiratory system
§ 28:5 Cardiovascular system
§ 28:6 Digestive system
§ 28:7 Genito-urinary system
§ 28:8 Hematological disorders (formerly hemic and lymphatic system)
§ 28:9 Skin
§ 28:10 Endocrine system and obesity
§ 28:11 Neurological
§ 28:12 Mental disorders and GAF
§ 28:13 Cancer (malignant neoplastic diseases) (formerly neoplastic (malignant) diseases)
§ 28:14 Immune disorders

PART VIII. POST-ENTITLEMENT ISSUES AND BENEFIT TERMINATIONS

CHAPTER 29. WORK INCENTIVES

§ 29:1 Scope of chapter
§ 29:2 Prevention of overpayments as a result of work activity
§ 29:3 Work incentives, in general
§ 29:4 Disability is a prerequisite to eligibility for any work incentive

I. TITLE II WORK INCENTIVES

§ 29:5 Trial Work Period (TWP)
§ 29:6 Sixty-month rolling TWP
§ 29:7 What constitutes "services"?
§ 29:8 Remuneration that constitutes trial work
§ 29:9 Therapeutic work activity, training and volunteer programs
§ 29:10 Who is entitled to a TWP?
§ 29:11 Who is not eligible for a TWP?
§ 29:12 Nonpayment of benefits during TWP on conviction of fraudulent concealment of work activity

§ 29:13 When does a TWP begin?
§ 29:14 TWP period begins within 12 months of onset
§ 29:15 When does a TWP end?
§ 29:16 Effect of completing a TWP
§ 29:17 Transitional months of benefit payments
§ 29:18 Extended period of eligibility (EPE) or re-entitlement, in general § 29:19 When does EPE not apply?
§ 29:20 When does EPE start?
§ 29:21 When does EPE end?
§ 29:22 When EPE ends—Effect if SGA is not performed during EPE: example
§ 29:23 —Effect if SGA is performed during EPE: example
§ 29:24 —How SGA is counted during EPE
§ 29:25 —Effect if SGA is performed after EPE: example
§ 29:26 Impact of primary beneficiary's loss of benefits on dependents § 29:27 To whom does the concept of Substantial Gainful Activity (SGA) apply?
§ 29:28 What is SGA?
§ 29:29 How is SGA determined?
§ 29:30 How SGA is determined—Assessing whether work is "substantial"
§ 29:31 —Assessing whether work activity is "gainful"
§ 29:32 —Assessing other aspects of SGA for self-employed individuals § 29:33 —Performing significant services
§ 29:34 —Countable income
§ 29:35 —Substantial income
§ 29:36 Reducing SGA, in general
§ 29:37 Income averaging
§ 29:38 Unsuccessful work attempt (UWA) is not SGA—Criteria for UWA
§ 29:39 —When is UWA considered?
§ 29:40 Impairment-related work expenses (IRWE)
§ 29:41 Impairment-related work expenses—Who is eligible for IRWE deductions?
§ 29:42 —Reasonableness of IRWE expense
§ 29:43 Business-related work expenses: self-employment
§ 29:44 Subsidized work
§ 29:45 Establishing the existence of a subsidy
§ 29:46 Special circumstances
§ 29:47 Special rules for evaluating work after receiving benefits for 24 months
§ 29:48 Protection from work-triggered CDRs for non-Ticket using individuals
§ 29:49 Former requirement that disabled individual accept vocational rehabilitation (VR) services or lose benefits
§ 29:50 Vocational rehabilitation [Section 301 payments]

§ 29:51 —Eligibility for continuing benefits under Section 301
§ 29:52 —How long will Section 301 benefits last?
§ 29:53 Ticket to Work, in general
§ 29:54 Ticket to Work, in practice and CDRs
§ 29:55 Tickets to Work, who is eligible?
§ 29:56 Tickets to Work, who is not eligible?
§ 29:57 Tickets to Work, when does the ticket terminate?
§ 29:58 Medicare
§ 29:59 —Extended Medicare
§ 29:60 A period of work may add additional countable quarters and a possibility of unemployment insurance benefits (UIB)
§ 29:61 Expedited reinstatement of benefits (EXR) after a period of SGA
§ 29:62 —EXR provisional benefit payments
§ 29:63 —When does EXR begin?
§ 29:64 —When does EXR end?
§ 29:65 EXR and appeals
§ 29:66 —Effect of EXR benefits lasting at least 24 months
§ 29:67 Reentitlement of disabled adult children after a period of work

II. WORK INCENTIVES FOR SSI

§ 29:68 SSI and other income, in general
§ 29:69 Title II concepts that have no application to Title XVI disability claims
§ 29:70 SSI and SGA
§ 29:71 Earned income
§ 29:72 Unearned income
§ 29:73 Calculating the effect of unearned income
§ 29:74 Calculating the effect of earned income: employee
§ 29:75 Calculating the effect of earned income: self-employment
§ 29:76 Student earned income exclusions (SEIE)
§ 29:77 Subsidies and special circumstances § 29:78 Unsuccessful work attempt (UWA)
§ 29:79 Sheltered workshop payments as "earned" income
§ 29:80 Impairment-related work expenses
§ 29:81 Blind Work Expense (BWE)
§ 29:82 Expenses that are not deductible as BWEs
§ 29:83 —SSI budgeting IRWEs and BWEs
§ 29:84 Special benefits for SSI recipients who perform SGA [1619], in general
§ 29:85 Section 1619(a) eligibility requirements
§ 29:86 Medicaid eligibility for SSI recipients who perform SGA [1619(b)]
§ 29:87 Section 1619(b) eligibility requirements
§ 29:88 Medicaid use/threshold tests
§ 29:89 Benefit reinstatement after reduced work time or work cessation

§ 29:90 Relationship of 1619 to other work incentives
§ 29:91 Property essential for self-support
§ 29:92 Ticket to Work
§ 29:93 Continued payments for individuals engaged in vocational rehabilitation after disability has ceased [Section 301 payments]
§ 29:94 Plan for Achieving Self-Support (PASS)
§ 29:95 —Uses to which PASS fund can be put § 29:96 —Most and least likely candidates for a PASS
§ 29:97 —Requirements for PASS approval
§ 29:98 Plan for Achieving Self-Support [PASS]—PASS objectives that may not get SSA approval
§ 29:99 Plan for Achieving Self-Support (PASS)—Financial impact of a PASS
§ 29:100 —Amending a PASS plan
§ 29:101 —Ending a PASS
§ 29:102 Expedited reinstatement of benefits (EXR)
§ 29:103 Work incentive acronyms
§ 29:104 Employment questionnaire for employer

CHAPTER 30. CONTINUING DISABILITY REVIEW

§ 30:1 Scope
§ 30:2 Medical improvement standard
§ 30:3 Medical improvement findings
§ 30:3.50 Evidence evaluation rules for CDRs after March 27, 2017
§ 30:4 Failure to consider medical improvement standard in CDRs
§ 30:5 CDRs and budgetary considerations
§ 30:6 Effect of not performing CDRs as scheduled
§ 30:7 HIV/AIDS CDR screen-outs

A. CONTINUING DISABILITY REVIEW TITLE II AND XVI: ADULTS

§ 30:8 Events triggering continuing disability review
§ 30:9 CDR review categories and frequency of medical continuing disability review: adults
§ 30:10 Continuing disability review sequential evaluation: adults
§ 30:11 Group one and two exceptions
§ 30:12 Proper application of the medical improvement standard
§ 30:13 CDRs and Ticket to Work Program
§ 30:14 When does cessation begin?
§ 30:15 CDRs and blindness: distinguishing SSI and SSDI
§ 30:16 Closed period of disability: Application of CDR standard

B. CONTINUING DISABILITY REVIEW SSI: CHILDREN

§ 30:17 SSI childhood medical and functional CDRs

§ 30:18 Statutory standard for cessation of SSI disabled children
§ 30:19 Childhood sequential evaluation
§ 30:20 Exceptions to medical improvement for children
§ 30:21 When does cessation begin?
§ 30:22 Medically necessary treatment requirement for children

C. EVALUATING MEDICAL IMPROVEMENT

§ 30:23 When claimant met or equaled a Listing: CDR evaluation process
§ 30:24 Medical improvement versus functional improvement
§ 30:25 Comparison point dates
§ 30:26 Determining a residual functional capacity
§ 30:27 When there is no previous RFC in a CDR file
§ 30:28 Reconstructing an RFC
§ 30:29 When previous file cannot be found.
§ 30:30 Conditions that involve remissions
§ 30:31 When previous decision did not include evaluation of all claimant's disabling impairments
§ 30:32 Continuation of benefits with new RFCs
§ 30:33 ALJ decisions and medical improvement
§ 30:34 Disability based on a new impairment

D. CDR PROCESS

§ 30:35 Notice of termination
§ 30:36 CDR Process
§ 30:37 Personal interview
§ 30:38 Reconsideration Disability Hearing with disability hearing officer
§ 30:39 Cooperative Disability Investigations (CDIs) in Continuing Disability Review (CDR) hearings
§ 30:40 Continuing in medical treatment to prepare for future CDR
§ 30:41 Medical improvement and trial work period
§ 30:42 Medical improvement and extended period of eligibility
§ 30:43 Termination of benefits pursuant to a CDR
§ 30:44 Continuing benefits pending appeal
§ 30:45 Glossary of abbreviations under medical improvement regulations

CHAPTER 31. [Reserved]
Reserved for Future Use

CHAPTER 32. OVERPAYMENTS AND UNDERPAYMENTS

§ 32:1 Scope of chapter
§ 32:2 What is an underpayment?
§ 32:3 Who can claim an underpayment

§ 32:4 What is an overpayment?
§ 32:5 What is not an overpayment?
§ 32:6 Types of overpayments (Title II only)
§ 32:7 Netting underpayments against overpayment
§ 32:8 Liability for overpayments
§ 32:9 —Same-sex couples
§ 32:10 —Representative payees
§ 32:11 SSA overpayment collection options
§ 32:12 Suspension or termination of collection action for Title II and XVI debts
§ 32:13 SSA OIG collection options: Penalties, fraud, and similar fault
§ 32:14 SSA overpayment collection options—Adjustment or recoupment from current benefits
§ 32:15 —Cross-program recovery
§ 32:16 —Collection and compromise by lump-sum payment
§ 32:17 —Seizure of tax refunds
§ 32:18 Administrative offset: withholding social security payments to recover other federal debts
§ 32:19 Garnishment of earned income
§ 32:20 Federal salary offset (FSO)
§ 32:21 Garnishment of earned income—Civil suit
§ 32:22 Notice to credit reporting agencies
§ 32:23 —Referral to private debt collection agencies
§ 32:24 Other recoupments that reduce Social Security benefits: IRS levy for past-due federal tax debt
§ 32:25 Debt collection from Social Security benefits: student loans
§ 32:26 Overpayment procedures, in general
§ 32:27 —Overpayment notices
§ 32:28 Burden of proof in overpayment cases
§ 32:29 Things to watch out for in overpayment cases
§ 32:30 Overpayment appeal options, in general
§ 32:31 Reconsideration of fact or amount of an overpayment
§ 32:32 —Reconsideration appeal procedure
§ 32:33 —Appeal after reconsideration decision
§ 32:34 Waiver option
§ 32:35 Request for waiver
§ 32:36 Waiver procedure
§ 32:37 —Obtaining overpayment documents for waiver
§ 32:38 —Certain overpayment occurring during COVID-19 pandemic period
§ 32:39 —Personal conference
§ 32:40 —Appeal after initial denial
§ 32:41 Request for Waiver of Overpayment Recovery (SSA-632-BK)
§ 32:42 Waiver—Without fault test
§ 32:43 —Fault versus "fraud or similar fault"
§ 32:44 —Defeat purpose of Social Security Act test

§ 32:44.50 —Deemed to defeat the purpose of the Social Security Act
§ 32:45 —Against equity and good conscience test
§ 32:46 —Impede efficient or effective administration of Social Security or SSI programs due to small amount involved
§ 32:47 Approval of waiver
§ 32:48 Second or subsequent request for waiver
§ 32:49 Discharge of overpayment in bankruptcy
§ 32:50 Overpayment-related Social Security Rulings (SSRs)

Volume 4

APPENDICES

Appendix 1. The Listings
Appendix 1A. Emergency Messages
Appendix 2. Social Security Rulings
Appendix 3. Acquiescence Rulings

Table of Laws and Rules

Table of Cases

Index