INTRODUCTION TO 2026-2027 SUPPLEMENT UPDATES

The 2026-2027 update to Katz and Giannelli Criminal Law, 3d (Baldwin's Ohio Practice) covers all aspects of Ohio criminal procedure, from initial appearance to post-conviction remedies, with emphasis on constitutional and evidentiary issues.

This 2026-2027 supplement update replaces the 2025-2026 supplement update in its entirety.

- Right of privacy—Cell phones—Cell-site location information (CSLI) (Chatrie v. United States, § 4:21.25)
- Probable cause—Nexus of evidence to place to be searched (State v. Bode, § 5:8.50)
- Development of the automobile exception (State v. Boykins, § 14:2)
- Even though probable cause or reasonable suspicion has dissipated following lawful stop, officer may engage driver and check license and registration (State v. Fips, § 15:2)
- Probable cause requirement (State v. Weaver, § 16:7)
- Frisk—Purpose (State v. Hall, § 19:15)
- Suppression hearings—Factual basis (State v. Mathis, § 34:13)
- Understanding nature of charges (State v. Gowdy, § 43:10)
- Challenges for cause (State v. Rogers, § 64:3)
- Attachment of right—Critical stages (State v. Morris, § 75:5)
- Factual causation (State v. Seymour, § 96:2)
- Community control sanctions (State v. Ballish, § 119:2)

Thank you for subscribing to Katz and Giannelli Criminal Law, 3d (Baldwin's Ohio Practice). We hope you find this work an invaluable tool for your practice.

THE PUBLISHER