CHAPTER 221. OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH ACT RECORDKEEPING, REPORTING, AND NOTICE POSTING

I. OVERVIEW OF OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH ACT RECORDKEEPING, REPORTING, AND NOTICE POSTING

§ 221:1 Introduction to Occupational Safety and Health Act recordkeeping, reporting, and notice posting requirements

II. RECORDKEEPING REQUIREMENTS

§ 221:2 Who must keep records
§ 221:3 Records that must be kept
§ 221:4 Penalties for failure to keep records
§ 221:5 Sample forms and tips on determining the recording requirement

III. RECORDS ACCESS AND RETENTION

§ 221:6 Access to log and supplementary record
§ 221:7 Medical and exposure records
§ 221:8 Retention of records
§ 221:9 Sample authorization letter for releasing employee medical record information

IV. REPORTING REQUIREMENTS

§ 221:10 Fatalities and multiple hospitalizations
§ 221:11 Statistical reporting program

V. POSTING REQUIREMENTS

§ 221:12 OSHA requirements

CHAPTER 222. OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH ACT ENFORCEMENT AND ADMINISTRATION

I. OVERVIEW OF OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH ACT ENFORCEMENT AND ADMINISTRATION

§ 222:1 Introduction to enforcement and administration of the Occupational Safety and Health Act

II. ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES AND SERVICES

§ 222:2 Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA)
§ 222:3 National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health (NIOSH)
§ 222:4 Occupational Safety and Health Review Commission (OSHRC)
§ 222:5 Voluntary Protection Program

§ 222:6 Severe Violator Enforcement Program

III. CITATIONS AND PENALTIES

§ 222:7 Citations
§ 222:8 Contesting OSHA citations
§ 222:9 Civil penalties
§ 222:10 Criminal penalties
§ 222:11 State criminal penalties

CHAPTER 223. OSHA HAZARD COMMUNICATION STANDARD

I. OVERVIEW OF THE OSHA HAZARD COMMUNICATION STANDARD

§ 223:1 Introduction to the OSHA Hazard Communication Standard

II. SAFETY DATA SHEETS (SDSS)

§ 223:2 Employers' responsibilities
§ 223:3 Format of the Safety Data Sheet (SDS)
§ 223:4 Labeling requirements
§ 223:5 Training requirements
§ 223:6 Checklist: Hazard communication compliance

III. RESOURCES ON HAZARD COMMUNICATIONS STANDARD

§ 223:7 Resources: Hazard communication standard
§ 223:8 Checklist for hazard communication training
§ 223:9 Sample hazard communication program
§ 223:10 Sample hazard investigation report form
§ 223:11 Worksheet for listing hazardous chemicals and index of Safety Data Sheets (SDSs)

CHAPTER 224. SAFETY, HEALTH AND RIGHT-TO-KNOW LAWS

I. OVERVIEW OF RIGHT-TO-KNOW LAWS

§ 224:1 Introduction to right-to-know and related health and safety laws

II. RIGHT-TO-KNOW AND SIMILAR SAFETY AND HEALTH PROVISIONS

§ 224:2 State safety, health and right-to-know laws
§ 224:3 Emergency Planning and Community Right-to-Know Act (EPCRA)
§ 224:4 Whistleblower laws

CHAPTER 225. OTHER LEGAL REQUIREMENTS AFFECTING SAFETY AND OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH

I. OVERVIEW TO OTHER SAFETY AND OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH REQUIREMENTS

§ 225:1 Introduction to additional legal safety and occupational health requirements

II. FEDERAL SAFETY AND OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH LAWS

§ 225:2 Further regulation in certain industries

III. ANTI-DISCRIMINATION LAWS

§ 225:3 Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA)

§ 225:4 Civil Rights Act (Title VII)
§ 225:5 Age Discrimination in Employment Act (ADEA)
§ 225:6 Pregnancy Discrimination Act (PDA)
§ 225:7 Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA)

IV. NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS ACT (NLRA)

§ 225:8 Impact on health and safety
§ 225:9 Collective bargaining rights
§ 225:10 Right to safety data
§ 225:11 Access to data
§ 225:12 Trade secret concerns
§ 225:13 Unions' right of access
§ 225:14 Refusing unsafe work
§ 225:15 Enforcing safety and health rules

V. LABOR MANAGEMENT RELATIONS ACT (LMRA)

§ 225:16 Work stoppage based on unsafe conditions

CHAPTER 226. WORKERS' COMPENSATION

I. OVERVIEW OF WORKERS' COMPENSATION

§ 226:1 Introduction to workers' compensation laws and regulations

II. WORKERS' COMPENSATION BASICS

§ 226:2 State-run systems
§ 226:3 Coverage and exemptions
§ 226:4 Benefits provided
§ 226:5 Income replacement rates
§ 226:6 Social Security coordination
§ 226:7 Hot spots

III. WORKERS' COMPENSATION PREMIUMS

§ 226:8 National Council on Compensation Insurance
§ 226:9 Employer ratings
§ 226:10 Self-insurance
§ 226:11 Second-injury funds

IV. CONTROLLING WORKERS' COMPENSATION COSTS

§ 226:12 Trends in cost control
§ 226:13 Safety programs
§ 226:14 Alternate duty programs

V. OCCUPATIONAL DISEASES AND "TOXIC TORTS"

§ 226:15 Background information on occupational diseases and "toxic torts"
§ 226:16 Handling occupational disease claims
§ 226:17 "Toxic tort" claims
§ 226:18 Recreational injuries
§ 226:19 Concealment of hazards
§ 226:20 Retaliatory discharge
§ 226:21 Injunctive relief

§ 226:22 "Dual capacity" suits
§ 226:23 Public policy violations
§ 226:24 Third-party liability
§ 226:25 Intentional tort
§ 226:26 Emotional distress claims

VI. INVESTIGATING EMPLOYEES FOR WORKERS' COMPENSATION FRAUD

§ 226:27 What is fraud
§ 226:28 Checklist for handling workers' compensation claims

VII. WORKERS' COMPENSATION RESOURCES

§ 226:29 Workers Compensation Research Institute (WCRI)
§ 226:30 International Association of Industrial Accident Boards and Commissions (IAIABC)
§ 226:31 U.S. Chamber of Commerce
§ 226:32 U.S. Department of Labor

CHAPTER 227. SAFETY PROGRAMS

I. OVERVIEW OF SAFETY PROGRAMS

§ 227:1 Introduction to safety programs

II. ELEMENTS OF SAFETY PROGRAMS

§ 227:2 General considerations of safety programs
§ 227:3 Safety and occupational health staff function
§ 227:4 Line and staff role

III. PLANNING AND DESIGN OF SAFETY PROGRAMS

§ 227:5 Design considerations for safety programs
§ 227:6 Safety incentives
§ 227:7 Hazard pay
§ 227:8 Design considerations in union agreements
§ 227:9 Setting objectives for safety and health programs
§ 227:10 Developing goals for the safety and health program
§ 227:11 Creating a safety and health action plan

IV. SAFETY PROGRAM WORKSHEETS

§ 227:12 Planning and design worksheet
§ 227:13 Safety and occupational health worksheet

V. IMPLEMENTATION OF SAFETY PROGRAMS

§ 227:14 Implementing a safety program
§ 227:15 Establishing a safety policy statement
§ 227:16 Safety committees
§ 227:17 —Labor-management committee effectiveness
§ 227:18 Employee involvement
§ 227:19 —Personal protective equipment (PPE)
§ 227:20 Safety rules
§ 227:21 Enforcing safety rules
§ 227:22 Accident investigations
§ 227:23 Accident reports

§ 227:24 —OSHA reporting regulations
§ 227:25 Assessing safety program effectiveness

VI. GOVERNMENT GUIDELINES ON SAFETY PROGRAMS

§ 227:26 OSHA guidelines—Safety management programs
§ 227:27 —Occupational health programs
§ 227:28 —Voluntary compliance programs
§ 227:29 NIOSH—Safety programs for "green job" hazards
§ 227:30 GAO testimony summary: Safety and health programs key to effective workplace safety

VII. SAMPLE SAFETY PROGRAMS

§ 227:31 General plant safety rules
§ 227:32 Sample specific safety rules
§ 227:33 Supervisor's injury investigation report

CHAPTER 228. SAFETY COMMUNICATION

I. OVERVIEW OF SAFETY COMMUNICATION

§ 228:1 Introduction to safety communcation

II. PUBLICIZING ON-THE-JOB SAFETY

§ 228:2 Publicizing and communicating on-the-job safety efforts
§ 228:3 Legally required safety communication
§ 228:4 Sample communication: Personal protective equipment
§ 228:5 Safety motivation
§ 228:6 Safety campaigns
§ 228:7 Safety contests and games
§ 228:8 Safety clubs
§ 228:9 Safety meetings
§ 228:10 Case study: Using safety videos to reach workers on oil rigs

III. PUBLICIZING OFF-THE-JOB SAFETY

§ 228:11 Costs to employers
§ 228:12 Techniques for off-the-job safety communications

IV. RESOURCES: SAFETY COMMUNICATION

§ 228:13 Safety resources—OSHA
§ 228:14 —Professional organizations
§ 228:15 —Vendor publishers

CHAPTER 229. SAFETY TRAINING

I. OVERVIEW OF SAFETY TRAINING

§ 229:1 Introduction to safety training

II. DESIGNING A SAFETY TRAINING PROGRAM

§ 229:2 Legally required safety training
§ 229:3 Safety training elements
§ 229:4 —Safety orientation and training checklist

III. SAFETY TRAINING METHODS

§ 229:5 Step-by-step approach to safety training
§ 229:6 Job safety analysis
§ 229:7 Personal protective equipment
§ 229:8 Employee involvement in safety training
§ 229:9 Follow up of safety training

IV. OSHA'S VOLUNTARY TRAINING PROGRAM GUIDELINES

§ 229:10 OSHA training guidelines
§ 229:11 —Summary
§ 229:12 —Training model
§ 229:13 —Determining if training is needed
§ 229:14 —Identifying training needs
§ 229:15 —Identifying goals and objectives
§ 229:16 —Developing learning activities
§ 229:17 —Conducting the training

§ 229:19 —Improving the program
§ 229:20 —Matching training to employees
§ 229:21 —Identifying employees at risk
§ 229:22 —Training employees at risk

V. CASE STUDIES OF COOPERATIVE MANAGEMENT-LABOR SAFETY TRAINING

§ 229:23 UAW and General Motors
§ 229:24 IBPAT's unilateral approach
§ 229:25 United Steelworkers' recommended program

VI. RESOURCES FOR SAFETY TRAINING

§ 229:26 OSHA
§ 229:27 National Council for Occupational Safety and Health (National COSH)
§ 229:28 State resource centers
§ 229:29 DuPont
§ 229:30 Catalogues and directories
§ 229:31 Instruction manuals

CHAPTER 230. MEDICAL SERVICES

I. OVERVIEW OF MEDICAL SERVICES

§ 230:1 Introduction to medical services

II. FIRST AID FACILITIES AND SERVICES

§ 230:2 First aid supplies
§ 230:3 First aid training
§ 230:4 Resources for first aid training

III. MEDICAL EXAMINATIONS

§ 230:5 Americans With Disabilities Act
§ 230:6 Privacy issues

§ 230:7 Legal considerations of medical examinations
§ 230:8 Return-to-work exams
§ 230:9 Post-offer medical examinations
§ 230:10 Exams for terminating employees
§ 230:11 Examination forms

IV. COMPANY MEDICAL PROGRAMS

§ 230:12 OSHA supplies and training
§ 230:13 Design considerations of company medical programs
§ 230:14 What medical services to include in company medical programs

V. IN-HOUSE MEDICAL SERVICES

§ 230:15 Types of medical services offered in-house
§ 230:16 Cooperative programs

VI. SAMPLE COMPANY MEDICAL PROGRAMS

§ 230:17 Special benefits for long-term employees
§ 230:18 Health program for key personnel
§ 230:19 Diagnostic screening
§ 230:20 On-site medical services
§ 230:21 Wellness programs, the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, and the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission

CHAPTER 231. WORK ENVIRONMENT

I. OVERVIEW TO SAFETY AND HEALTH IN THE WORK ENVIRONMENT

§ 231:1 Introduction to work environment safety and health

II. HOUSEKEEPING, HYGIENE, AND SANITATION

§ 231:2 Housekeeping initiatives
§ 231:3 Washrooms and restrooms
§ 231:4 Lockers
§ 231:5 Drinking water
§ 231:6 Eating facilities
§ 231:7 Uniforms

III. NOISE

§ 231:8 Noise hazards
§ 231:9 OSHA noise standard
§ 231:10 Noise monitoring and control
§ 231:11 Hearing conservation program checklist

IV. LIGHTING AND ILLUMINATION

§ 231:12 Importance of proper lighting

V. TEMPERATURE AND AIR QUALITY

§ 231:13 Hot work environments
§ 231:14 Air conditioning
§ 231:15 Indoor air quality, mold and ‘sick building syndrome’

§ 231:16 OSHA's standard on air contaminants

VI. COLOR

§ 231:17 Effect on safety

VII. OTHER HAZARDS

§ 231:18 Office safety
§ 231:19 Driving safety
§ 231:20 Fire safety
§ 231:21 Safety concerns for pregnant or breastfeeding employees

CHAPTER 232. ERGONOMICS

I. OVERVIEW OF ERGONOMICS

§ 232:1 Introduction to ergonomics

II. REPETITIVE MOTION INJURIES

§ 232:2 Vocabulary around repetitive motion injuries
§ 232:3 The effect of repetitive motion injuries on employees
§ 232:4 The effect of repetitive motion injuries on employers
§ 232:5 The most well-known RMI: Carpal tunnel syndrome
§ 232:6 Regulation of repetitive motion injuries—NIOSH lifting guidelines
§ 232:7 —Background information
§ 232:8 —OSHA's ergonomics program standard
§ 232:9 —Recordkeeping requirements
§ 232:10 —Enforcement actions
§ 232:11 —Ergonomic guidelines for the meatpacking industry

III. LOW BACK PAIN

§ 232:13 Surveys on low back pain
§ 232:14 What employers can do regarding low back pain
§ 232:15 What employees can do regarding low back pain

IV. IMPLEMENTING AN ERGONOMICS PROGRAM

§ 232:16 Steps in implementing the program
§ 232:17 Layout of workspaces and facilities

V. STRATEGIES FOR IMPROVING WORKPLACE ERGONOMICS

§ 232:18 OSHA strategies for addressing workplace ergonomics
§ 232:19 —Awareness strategy
§ 232:20 —Selection and placement of workers
§ 232:21 —Training in safe work practices
§ 232:22 —Ergonomic redesign
§ 232:23 Superiority of ergonomic solutions over administrative controls

VI. ERGONOMIC RESOURCES

§ 232:24 Accessories
§ 232:25 Consulting and analysis

§ 232:26 Education and training
§ 232:27 Furniture
§ 232:28 Lifting systems

VII. CASE STUDIES ON WORKPLACE ERGONOMICS

§ 232:29 Case study # 1: Tube bending creates hand stress
§ 232:30 Case study # 2: Lifting creates ergonomic stress on back
§ 232:31 Case study # 3: Punch press operation creates ergonomic stress
§ 232:32 Case study # 4: Carpal tunnel syndrome in transformer manufacturing § 232:33 Case study # 5: Ergonomic stress in meatpacking operation
§ 232:34 Case study # 6: Bending and lifting creates back injury risk

CHAPTER 233. COMPUTER MONITORS, VIDEO DISPLAY TERMINALS AND SIMILAR TECHNOLOGY

I. OVERVIEW OF COMPUTER MONITORS, VIDEO DISPLAY TERMINALS AND SIMILAR TECHNOLOGY

§ 233:1 Introduction to computer monitors, video display terminals and similar technology

II. SAFETY AND HEALTH CONCERNS WITH COMPUTER MONITORS

§ 233:2 Avoiding health problems
§ 233:3 Ergonomics
§ 233:4 Eye strain
§ 233:5 Musculoskeletal complaints
§ 233:6 Fatigue
§ 233:7 Air quality
§ 233:8 Radiation concerns
§ 233:9 Stress
§ 233:10 Employee communication and training

III. ERGONOMICS AND VIDEO DISPLAY TERMINALS

§ 233:11 Role of HR and line management
§ 233:12 Checklist—Ergonomics and video display terminals

IV. LEGAL CONSIDERATIONS OF COMPUTER MONITORS

§ 233:13 Occupational Safety and Health Act
§ 233:14 Union initiatives
§ 233:15 Video display terminal laws and regulations

V. RESOURCES

§ 233:16 Government
§ 233:17 Publications
§ 233:18 Organizations

CHAPTER 234. REPRODUCTIVE HAZARDS AND FETAL PROTECTION POLICIES

I. OVERVIEW OF REPRODUCTIVE HAZARDS AND FETAL PROTECTION POLICIES

§ 234:1 Introduction to reproductive hazards and fetal protection policies

II. GAO REPORT ON REPRODUCTIVE HAZARDS AND FETAL PROTECTION POLICIES

§ 234:2 Defining reproductive hazards
§ 234:3 GAO recommendations
§ 234:4 Legal considerations of fetal protection policies

§ 236:14 Using EAPs to assist substance abusers
§ 236:15 Weighing costs of EAP's to assist with substance abuse
§ 236:16 Sample employee handbook EAP statements
§ 236:17 Sample Consortium Employee Assistance Program

CHAPTER 237. ESTABLISHING A DRUG-TESTING PROGRAM

I. OVERVIEW OF DRUG-TESTING PROGRAMS

§ 237:1 Introduction to drug-testing programs

II. DECIDING WHETHER TO USE DRUG TESTS

§ 237:2 Reasons to conduct drug-testing
§ 237:3 Reasons not to conduct drug-testing

III. DRUG-TESTING IN PRACTICE

§ 237:4 Applicant drug-testing

§ 237:5 Compliance with federal and state laws on drug-testing

IV. DECIDING WHICH PROGRAMS AND DRUG TESTS TO USE

§ 237:6 Drug-testing program options
§ 237:7 Types of drug tests

V. WHAT SUBSTANCES TO SCREEN

§ 237:8 Commonly abused substances
§ 237:9 Marijuana
§ 237:10 Cocaine
§ 237:11 Opioids
§ 237:12 PCP
§ 237:13 Amphetamines

VI. DEVELOPING DRUG-TESTING PROCEDURES

§ 237:14 Basic drug-testing guidelines
§ 237:15 Sample drug test collection procedures
§ 237:16 Chain-of-custody procedures for drug tests
§ 237:17 Laboratory designation procedures for drug tests
§ 237:18 Drug-test methodology
§ 237:19 Reporting and recordkeeping on drug-testing

VII. INSTALLING THE DRUG-TESTING PROGRAM

§ 237:20 Communicating the drug-testing policy
§ 237:21 Contracting out a substance abuse program

VIII. FORMS AND CHECKLISTS TO ASSIST IN ESTABLISHING A DRUG-TESTING PROGRAM

§ 237:22 Drug and alcohol testing program outline
§ 237:23 Drug-testing procedure
§ 237:24 Checklist for implementing a drug-testing program
§ 237:25 Checklist for choosing a testing laboratory
§ 237:26 Current list of laboratories which meet minimum standards to engage in urine drug-testing for federal agencies
§ 237:27 Checklist on components of drug-testing program
§ 237:28 Report of suspected at-work drug or alcohol abuse
§ 237:29 Medication questionnaire
§ 237:30 Applicant drug-testing consent form—Sample #1
§ 237:31 —Sample #2
§ 237:32 Employee drug-testing consent form
§ 237:33 Employee notice and acknowledgement of employer testing requirements
§ 237:34 Employee notice and acknowledgement for testing after rehabilitation § 237:35 Consent and release form for employees and applicants

CHAPTER 238. FEDERAL LAWS ON DRUG AND ALCOHOL TESTING
