

Table of Contents

CHAPTER 1. THE RISE AND IMPACT OF MULTISTATE PRODUCT LIABILITY LITIGATION

- § 1:4 Role of procedural opportunities for multistate coordination and consolidation
- § 1:5 Role of organized cooperation in the bar
- § 1:6 Role of litigation financing [New]

CHAPTER 2. RESPONSE OF JUDICIAL SYSTEM TO THE RISE OF MULTISTATE LITIGATION

- § 2:1 Special procedures
- § 2:2 Class actions
- § 2:3 Class actions—Rule 23
- § 2:4 Class actions—Use in mass accident cases
- § 2:5 Class actions—Use in product cases
- § 2:6 Multidistrict litigation: Transfer and consolidation
- § 2:7 Multidistrict litigation: Transfer and consolidation—Statutory structure
- § 2:8 Multidistrict litigation: Transfer and consolidation—Statutory structure—Procedure for transfer
- § 2:9 Multidistrict litigation: Transfer and consolidation—Statutory structure—Effect of transfer
- § 2:10 Multidistrict litigation: Transfer and consolidation—Statutory structure—Termination and remand
- § 2:10.50 Multidistrict litigation—Rule 16.1
- § 2:11 Consolidation
- § 2:12 Informal organization
- § 2:13 Multiparty liability theories
- § 2:14 Multiparty liability theories—Alternative liability
- § 2:15 Multiparty liability theories—Concert of action liability
- § 2:16 Multiparty liability theories—Industrywide liability
- § 2:17 Multiparty liability theories—Market share liability
- § 2:18 Multiparty liability theories—Risk contribution apportionment

CHAPTER 3. ORGANIZING IN-HOUSE FOR MULTISTATE LITIGATION

§ 3:15 Informational organization—Computer assistance

CHAPTER 4. OUTSIDE COUNSEL

I. REGIONAL COUNSEL

§ 4:5 Pro hac vice admission

§ 4:6 Denial of pro hac vice admission

II. LOCAL COUNSEL

§ 4:7 Function

§ 4:8 Selection of counsel

CHAPTER 5. JURISDICTION AND VENUE: LIMITS ON MULTISTATE FORUM SHOPPING

I. JURISDICTION

§ 5:1 Jurisdiction requirement [New]

§ 5:2 Subject matter jurisdiction [New]

§ 5:3 Subject matter jurisdiction—Federal question [New]

§ 5:4 Subject matter jurisdiction—Diversity [New]

§ 5:5 Personal jurisdiction [New]

§ 5:6 Personal jurisdiction—Statutory [New]

§ 5:7 Personal jurisdiction—Constitutional [New]

§ 5:8 Limitations on exercise of personal jurisdiction [New]

§ 5:9 Limitations on exercise of personal jurisdiction—Imposed by contract [New]

§ 5:10 Limitations on exercise of personal jurisdiction—The requirement of local actions or local effects [New]

§ 5:11 Limitations on exercise of personal jurisdiction—For retailers or distributors [New]

§ 5:12 Limitations on exercise of personal jurisdiction—For manufacturers

§ 5:13 Limitations on exercise of personal jurisdiction—Foreign manufacturers [New]

§ 5:14 Limitations on exercise of personal jurisdiction—Forum non conveniens [New]

II. VENUE

§ 5:15 Venue distinguished from jurisdiction [New]

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 5:16 General principles [New]
- § 5:17 Federal venue [New]
- § 5:18 Federal venue—Based on diversity [New]
- § 5:19 Federal venue—Based on federal question [New]
- § 5:20 Federal venue—The federal government as a party [New]
- § 5:21 Federal venue—Definitional issues [New]
- § 5:22 State venue [New]
- § 5:23 Change of venue [New]
- § 5:24 Change of venue—Improper venue [New]
- § 5:25 Change of venue—Convenience of parties and witnesses
[New]
- § 5:26 Change of venue—Access to evidence [New]
- § 5:27 Change of venue—Administration of justice [New]

CHAPTER 6. COORDINATED DISCOVERY AND DISCOVERY RESPONSE

I. DISCOVERY IN MULTISTATE SUITS

- § 6:1 Purposes of discovery
- § 6:2 Need for nationwide coordination
- § 6:3 Need for nationwide coordination—Privilege once waived is waived forever

II. IN-HOUSE ORGANIZATION

- § 6:7 Personnel—Paralegals
- § 6:8 Procedures
- § 6:11 Procedures—Scheduling depositions

III. USE OF CONFIDENTIALITY ORDERS

- § 6:12 Advantages
- § 6:13 Enforceability
- § 6:14 Conflicts

CHAPTER 7. MOTIONS PRACTICE ON COMMON ISSUES

I. INTRODUCTION

- § 7:1 Development of model motions

II. PROCEDURAL

- § 7:3 Jurisdiction—Personal

- § 7:4 Jurisdiction—Subject matter
- § 7:5 Statute of limitations
- § 7:6 Statute of limitations—Which applicable
- § 7:7 Statute of limitations—When statute begins to run
[Retitled]
- § 7:8 Notice

III. EVIDENTIARY

- § 7:9 Government reports
- § 7:11 Specifications and standards—Government specifications
- § 7:12 Specifications and standards—Government standards
- § 7:13 Specifications and standards—Industry standards and customs
- § 7:14 Specifications and standards—State of the art
- § 7:15 Prior accidents
- § 7:16 Prior accidents—Statistical summaries
- § 7:17 Subsequent changes
- § 7:18 Recall notices
- § 7:19 Inflammatory language

CHAPTER 8. JURY ISSUES AND VOIR DIRE

- § 8:1 Juror attitudes
- § 8:3 Jury selection—Local Rules
- § 8:4 Jury selection—Challenges
- § 8:5 Jury selection—Manner of voir dire
- § 8:6 Effects of publicity
- § 8:7 Jury tampering [New]
- § 8:8 Jury misconduct [New]

CHAPTER 9. DEVELOPMENT AND USE OF TECHNICAL EXPERTS

- § 9:1 Importance of the expert
- § 9:2 Defining the area of expertise
- § 9:4 Factors influencing choice of expert
- § 9:5 Sources of experts
- § 9:7 Preparation of the expert
- § 9:8 Expert assistance in trial preparation

CHAPTER 10. PUNITIVE DAMAGES IN MULTIPLE LITIGATION

- § 10:1 General principles
- § 10:2 Application
- § 10:3 Constitutionality and policy issues

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 10:4 Standard for liability
- § 10:5 Standard for liability—Knowledge of defect
- § 10:7 Standard for liability—Compliance with standards
- § 10:8 Standard for liability—Profit motive
- § 10:9 Assessment of amount of damages
- § 10:10 Assessment of amount of damages—Relation to compensatory damages
- § 10:11 Assessment of amount of damages—Wealth of defendant
- § 10:12 Assessment of amount of damages—Problems with multiple awards
- § 10:13 Variation among states
- § 10:14 Choice of law issues

CHAPTER 11. COLLATERAL ESTOPPEL

- § 11:1 Collateral estoppel
- § 11:2 Choice of law: Federal or state
- § 11:3 Common law elements
- § 11:4 Common law elements—Identity of issue
- § 11:5 Common law elements—Fully litigated
- § 11:6 Common law elements—Critical and necessary
- § 11:7 Common law elements—Mutuality
- § 11:8 Offensive versus defensive
- § 11:9 Offensive versus defensive—May not promote judicial economy
- § 11:10 Offensive versus defensive—Potential for unfairness
- § 11:12 Application
- § 11:13 Application—Asbestos
- § 11:14 Application—Drugs

CHAPTER 12. RELATIONSHIPS WITH INSURERS

- § 12:2 Where the insurer controls the defense
- § 12:5 Excess insurers
- § 12:8 Coverage disputes—Latent disease/prolonged exposure cases
- § 12:9 Coverage disputes—Punitive damages and intentional acts

CHAPTER 13. SETTLEMENTS

I. GENERAL

- § 13:1 Coordination
- § 13:2 Evidentiary issues
- § 13:3 Structured settlements

II. MULTIPLE-PARTY CASES

- § 13:4 Relationship to contribution
- § 13:5 Relationship to contribution—Workers' compensation
- § 13:6 Relationship to indemnification
- § 13:7 Effect on verdict
- § 13:8 Mary Carter agreements

CHAPTER 14. MONITORING ONGOING BUSINESS OPERATIONS

I. PURPOSE

- § 14:2 Postmanufacturing duties
- § 14:3 Recall

II. AREAS TO MONITOR

- § 14:8 Information
- § 14:13 Claims and complaints

CHAPTER 16. GOVERNMENT INVOLVEMENT

I. FEDERAL AGENCY JURISDICTION AND POWERS

- § 16:2 Consumer Product Safety Commission
- § 16:3 Federal Aviation Administration
- § 16:5 Food and Drug Administration
- § 16:6 Occupational Safety and Health Administration
- § 16:7 National Highway Traffic Safety Administration
- § 16:8 National Transportation Safety Board

II. GOVERNMENT AS A SOURCE OF INFORMATION

- § 16:9 Freedom of Information Act

Table of Laws and Rules

Table of Cases