

PREFACE

The 2026 supplement to HANDBOOK OF FEDERAL CIVIL DISCOVERY AND DISCLOSURE reflects changes to civil discovery in federal courts resulting from rule amendments and judicial action.

The 2026 supplement includes:

- Case law updates
- Expanded discussion of number of depositions and depositions of an organization (§ 5:14)
- Expanded discussion of when a court may order a forensic examination an opposing party's computers (§ 9:12)
- New sections on artificial intelligence and discovery (§§ 13:49-13:52)
- New section ethics and artificial intelligence (§ 14:21)

Many thanks to Michelle White-Savage, excellent editor, for her support and guidance.
