What's New in the 2026-2027 edition of the California Procurement Handbook

- New chapter on Artificial Intelligence in the California Procurement context
- New content on Initial (pre-award) Protests
- New content on contract changes and methods to recuperate resulting increased costs
- New updates on California standard terms and conditions, limitation of liability, disclaimer of warranties
- New content on unique local bid protest provisions