Table of Contents

CHAPTER 1. INTRODUCTION

§ 1:1 The context for this book
§ 1:2 How this book is arranged

CHAPTER 2. ORIGINS OF THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT

§ 2:1 Overview
§ 2:2 History of the Act—Groundwork, 1955–60
§ 2:3 —Development, 1960–64
§ 2:4 —Passage, 1965–67
§ 2:5 Role of the press in passage of the Act
§ 2:6 A political perspective on the Freedom of Information Act
§ 2:7 Retrospective & International Views

CHAPTER 3. EVOLUTION AND AMENDMENT OF THE ACT

§ 3:1 Expectations and criticisms
§ 3:2 Uses of the new Act
§ 3:3 Agency attitudes and backlash actions against open information
§ 3:4 The role of the Department of Justice
§ 3:5 The Variable Roles of Congress
§ 3:6 Problems in the courts
§ 3:7 Proposals for amendments
§ 3:8 The 1974 Amendments
§ 3:9 The 1976 and 1986 Amendments
§ 3:10 The 1996 Amendments
§ 3:11 The 2007 Amendments
§ 3:12 The 2016 Amendments
§ 3:13 Defining foreseeable harm after the 2016 Amendments

CHAPTER 4. DEFINITIONS

§ 4:1 Overview
§ 4:2 "Agency"—Introduction
§ 4:3 Agency—Types of agencies
§ 4:4 The "Agencies" covered

§ 4:5 Exclusions from "agency" status
§ 4:6 Agency status of the President's staff
§ 4:7 Process of defining "agency" coverage
§ 4:8 When does a private record become an "agency record"?
§ 4:9 "Agency" includes federally chartered entities
§ 4:10 Agency status of federal grantees and contractors
§ 4:11 "Agency" excludes State and local entities
§ 4:12 Agency excludes the Congress and its support entities
§ 4:13 "Agency" does not include courts
§ 4:14 Scope of "Judicial Records"
§ 4:15 What is an agency "record"?
§ 4:16 Formats of records
§ 4:17 Records in computerized files
§ 4:18 The 552(c) "neither confirm nor deny records exist" option
§ 4:19 Records, not answers, are available
§ 4:20 Personal non-agency files
§ 4:21 Physical objects are not FOIA "records"
§ 4:22 Role of Justice Department policy guidance
§ 4:23 Grantee records
§ 4:24 Presidential records
§ 4:25 State public records
§ 4:26 Personal non-agency files—Record retention
§ 4:27 —Agency possession of records
§ 4:28 No duty to create new records
§ 4:29 Agency disposal of records
§ 4:30 Access to "identifiable" records
§ 4:31 Elements of "Any person" access claims
§ 4:32 Any person access—Motives
§ 4:33 Specific statutes banning access by foreign governments or representatives § 4:34 Requests by corporations
§ 4:35 Requests by prisoners
§ 4:36 Process of Obtaining Records
§ 4:37 Any person access and agency contractors
§ 4:38 Any person access by the press
§ 4:39 Congressional requests
§ 4:40 Access by unions
§ 4:41 Access by agents of other nations
§ 4:42 Requests for access
§ 4:43 Exempt record
§ 4:44 Access to a record

§ 4:45 Availability of a record
§ 4:46 Fees
§ 4:47 "Non-Responsive" records within scope of request must be searched
§ 4:48 "Record" definition was revised as of 2017
§ 4:49 Effect of the 2016 Legislative changes
§ 4:50 Revised duties for Office of Government Information Services
§ 4:51 Creation of consolidated online request portal
§ 4:52 Proactive disclosures through records management
§ 4:53 Role of Native American tribal courts
§ 4:54 How FOIA interacts with newer technology
§ 4:55 Reverse freedom of information claims

CHAPTER 5. POLITICAL ASPECTS OF ADVOCACY UNDER THE FOIA

§ 5:1 The politics of access
§ 5:2 The role of Congress in FOIA implementation
§ 5:3 Use of political channels for disputed access
§ 5:4 More web posting reduces FOIA requests

CHAPTER 6. AFFIRMATIVE PUBLICATION & RULE DISSEMINATION

§ 6:1 The special requirements of publication
§ 6:2 Federal Register publication
§ 6:3 The "general applicability" norm
§ 6:4 Exceptions and exemptions
§ 6:5 Federal Reports Act
§ 6:6 The manuals and policies availability requirement
§ 6:7 Administrative record of rulemaking
§ 6:8 Where and how to use (a)(1) and (a)(2) access opportunities
§ 6:9 Judicial action against nonavailability
§ 6:10 Defenses to nonavailability
§ 6:11 Tax cases
§ 6:12 Labor cases
§ 6:13 Prison cases
§ 6:14 Other cases
§ 6:15 Reaching the electronic FOIA archives
§ 6:16 Practice suggestions

CHAPTER 7. WINNING THE REQUEST AT THE AGENCY

PART 1. MAKING THE REQUEST

§ 7:1 Successful requests
§ 7:2 The content of an FOIA request
§ 7:3 What is not a FOIA request?
§ 7:4 Requests should follow the agency FOIA rule
§ 7:5 Failure of the request's description of records
§ 7:6 Reverse freedom of information claims
§ 7:7 —Standard of review
§ 7:8 —Executive order 12,600

PART 2. HANDLING THE REQUEST

§ 7:9 The processing of a request within the agency § 7:10 Electronic tracking of FOIA requests

PART 3. SEARCH DISPUTES

§ 7:11 Records search disagreements—Reasonableness
§ 7:12 Inadequacy of searches
§ 7:13 Records search disagreements—Adequacy standards
§ 7:14 Role of E-Discovery Tools in FOIA search "Adequacy"
§ 7:15 Improvements to search processes
§ 7:16 Examples of successful defenses of agency searches
§ 7:17 Searches "reasonably calculated" to find records

PART 4. PROOF OF SEARCH ADEQUACY

§ 7:18 Clarity of search affidavits
§ 7:19 Rebuttal of the agency search affidavit
§ 7:20 Records in files outside agency control
§ 7:21 Records search disagreements—Challengers and their burdens
§ 7:22 —Procedural standards

PART 5. LIMITATIONS ON SEARCHES

§ 7:23 Exclusions from searches
§ 7:24 Background of the FBI's 552(c) Exclusion
§ 7:25 Timing and cutoff dates
§ 7:26 Errors in search processes

§ 7:27 Targeting the search
§ 7:28 Use of information technologies in FOIA processing

PART 6. DENIAL OF REQUESTS

§ 7:29 The initial denial
§ 7:30 Agency must make a "determination"
§ 7:31 Agency cannot parse record to withhold portions
§ 7:32 Producing records "promptly" after the "determination"
§ 7:33 Stating the reasons for denials
§ 7:34 Foreseeable harm required
§ 7:35 The initial denial—Appeal procedures
§ 7:36 Oral disclosure
§ 7:37 Other responses to denials
§ 7:38 Redactions from disclosed records

PART 7. THE RESPONSE THAT DOES NOT "CONFIRM OR DENY" RECORDS

§ 7:39 The special responses refusing to confirm or deny a record exists § 7:40 The initial denial—Denials relating to submitters' interests in records
§ 7:41 Denial based on fee and cost issues
§ 7:42 The initial denial—Other denials

PART 8. FORMAT OF RECORDS

§ 7:43 Denials based on formats
§ 7:44 Format of record disclosure
§ 7:45 Importance of record "form" or "format"

PART 9. APPEALS

§ 7:46 The administrative appeal after denial
§ 7:47 The administrative appeals may induce partial disclosure or settlement § 7:48 When requesters opt to sue rather than appeal
§ 7:49 Exhaustion of appeals
§ 7:50 Constructive exhaustion
§ 7:51 Negotiating access before litigation
§ 7:52 Remands and deadlines
§ 7:53 Tactical aspects of the appeal
§ 7:54 Segregating and disclosing records
§ 7:55 Explanation of need is an option for requesters

§ 7:56 Effects of agency rules on appeals
§ 7:57 Improvements in administrative appeals processes

PART 10. DELAY

§ 7:58 Delays and time deadlines for agencies
§ 7:59 Dealing with backlogs of delayed requests
§ 7:60 What are "normal" response times?
§ 7:61 Expanded resources for FOIA offices
§ 7:62 Delays and expedited requests
§ 7:63 Delays and pre-1996 controversies
§ 7:64 Delays and judicial remedies
§ 7:65 Delays and legislative history background
§ 7:66 Delays had been accepted prior to 1996 amendments
§ 7:67 Delays and "Prompt" disclosure
§ 7:68 "Unusual circumstances" explaining delays
§ 7:69 Use of "exceptional circumstances" for delays

PART 11. REMOVING PARTS OF RECORDS

§ 7:70 Deletions and excisions from records released
§ 7:71 Certified copies

PART 12. AGENCY DEFENSES

§ 7:72 Responding to agency defenses

PART 13. COSTS OF REQUESTS

§ 7:73 Fees for processing requests
§ 7:74 Effect of statutory amendments on timing
§ 7:75 Burden on appeal of fee waiver denial
§ 7:76 Fee waiver denial procedures
§ 7:77 Fee waiver & electronic files searching costs
§ 7:78 Refusal to pay fee justifies agency refusal to process request
§ 7:79 Fees & exhaustion of remedies
§ 7:80 Fee waiver denial upheld
§ 7:81 Waiver of search fees in the public interest
§ 7:82 Judicial review of fee waiver denials
§ 7:83 Public interest bases for fee waivers

PART 14. ELECTRONIC MEDIA

§ 7:84 Electronic records and the FOIA

§ 7:85 Electronic FOIA Searches
§ 7:86 Response sending requesters to existing agency website copies of records

PART 15. RECORDS ALREADY KNOWN

§ 7:87 Arguing for disclosure of already-"leaked" records
§ 7:88 Reprocessing past requested records
§ 7:89 Agency responses to subpoenas
§ 7:90 Intersection with Federal Records Act
§ 7:91 Official acknowledgement & presidential tweets
§ 7:92 FOIA.GOV requests
§ 7:93 Applying "law of the case" to previous decision being re-litigated

CHAPTER 8. THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT IN COURT

PART 1. ELEMENTS

§ 8:1 Purpose of FOIA litigation
§ 8:2 Jurisdiction
§ 8:3 Venue
§ 8:4 Standing
§ 8:5 Pleadings
§ 8:6 Freedom of information litigation contrasted to mediation or civil discovery
§ 8:7 Burdens of proof
§ 8:8 Preparing the complaint
§ 8:9 Agency must establish "Foreseeable Harm" from disclosure

PART 2. AGENCY DEFENSES

§ 8:10 Relief
§ 8:11 Statute of Limitations
§ 8:12 Preliminary Injunctions
§ 8:13 Defense of nonexistence of responsive records
§ 8:14 Defense of destruction/retention of agency records
§ 8:15 No remedy after records released
§ 8:16 Litigating agency "policy or practice" of non-compliance
§ 8:17 Effect of prior adjudications
§ 8:18 Supplemental jurisdiction may be denied
§ 8:19 When state claims interact with parallel FOIA cases

§ 8:20 Res judicata
§ 8:21 Collateral estoppel
§ 8:22 Judicial estoppel
§ 8:23 Mootness
§ 8:24 Exhaustion of administrative remedies before suit
§ 8:25 Ripeness for adjudication
§ 8:26 Applying the rules against re-litigation of claims
§ 8:27 Effects of prior exemption claims
§ 8:28 Effect of the 2008 Supreme Court Sturgell decision
§ 8:29 Settlements of agency defenses under the 2007 mediation amendment
§ 8:30 Agency "bad faith" in asserting defenses
§ 8:31 Agency waiver of defenses for failure to assert them early § 8:32 Fugitives barred from litigating for FOIA access
§ 8:33 Spoliation claims

PART 3. DE NOVO REVIEW IN COURT

§ 8:34 De novo review decisions
§ 8:35 No deference is given for agency interpretations of FOIA
§ 8:36 Appellate review of de novo decisions

PART 4. IN CAMERA

§ 8:37 In camera judicial inspection—Policy
§ 8:38 Practical aspects of in camera review
§ 8:39 Findings from in camera document reviews
§ 8:40 Discretionary in-court settlement negotiation
§ 8:41 Sealing the record
§ 8:42 In camera judicial inspection—Discretion not to inspect

PART 5. INDEXING & DISCOVERY ISSUES

§ 8:43 Why would an agency index be rejected?
§ 8:44 Identifying authors in the affidavit
§ 8:45 Indexing, timing & delays
§ 8:46 Burden of proof
§ 8:47 Standards for Vaughn index preparation
§ 8:48 Index affidavits' authorship
§ 8:49 "Bad faith" charges in the index affidavit
§ 8:50 Sufficient factual affidavits to support the index

§ 8:51 Segregable information
§ 8:52 Index demonstrating adequate search
§ 8:53 Indexing of records withheld, using sampling
§ 8:54 Affidavits and waiver issues
§ 8:55 Applying evidence rules to agency affidavits
§ 8:56 Pretrial practice: masters
§ 8:57 Stipulations
§ 8:58 Intervention by affected persons
§ 8:59 Limited discovery rarely granted
§ 8:60 Why discovery is unavailable
§ 8:61 Secrecy and sealed files
§ 8:62 Protective orders
§ 8:63 Interrogatories
§ 8:64 Allowing limited discovery
§ 8:65 Presumption of good faith in affidavits
§ 8:66 Discovery prior to summary judgment motions
§ 8:67 Denials of discovery
§ 8:68 Denials of discovery for presidential documents
§ 8:69 Possession of records received after request

PART 6. SUMMARY JUDGMENT

§ 8:70 Summary judgment motion practice—Generally
§ 8:71 Limited discovery before summary judgment
§ 8:72 Procedural aspects of summary judgment
§ 8:73 Summary judgment without discovery
§ 8:74 Burdens on the agency
§ 8:75 Effect of finding additional records
§ 8:76 Review of agency FOIA regulations
§ 8:77 Equity powers
§ 8:78 Claims of agency estoppel
§ 8:79 Common law access replaced by statutory rights
§ 8:80 Requester's motive is irrelevant
§ 8:81 Agency response of "neither confirming nor denying" records existed
§ 8:82 Procedural difficulties with injunctions
§ 8:83 Mandamus is disfavored
§ 8:84 Remand to the agency
§ 8:85 Continuing jurisdiction
§ 8:86 Remedial options generally
§ 8:87 Remedial powers are limited
§ 8:88 No FOIA power to win tort damage awards
§ 8:89 The sovereign immunity bar

§ 8:90 Court remedies against delay
§ 8:91 Estoppel against change in agency positions
§ 8:92 Damages and sovereign immunity
§ 8:93 Administrative Procedure Act review

PART 7. ATTORNEY FEES

§ 8:94 Attorneys' fees and costs awards—Introduction
§ 8:95 Purpose
§ 8:96 Definitions for attorney fees
§ 8:97 Requester categories
§ 8:98 Commercial use requesters
§ 8:99 Educational institution, noncommercial scientific institution, or news media requesters
§ 8:100 All other requesters
§ 8:101 Fee category considerations
§ 8:102 Causal connection of request and release
§ 8:103 Effect of agency settlement offers
§ 8:104 Causation of the release
§ 8:105 Factors in calculating attorney fee award amounts
§ 8:106 When agencies win easily on fee requests
§ 8:107 Effect of late discovery of records
§ 8:108 Fee awards against multiple agencies
§ 8:109 Effects of publication and indexing orders
§ 8:110 Elements in discretionary attorney fee awards
§ 8:111 Considering effects from withholding
§ 8:112 Effects of Buckhannon decision
§ 8:113 Effect of 2007 amendments on fee awards
§ 8:114 No fee awards where no one prevailed
§ 8:115 No right to appointed counsel
§ 8:116 Civil plaintiffs seeking financial relief
§ 8:117 Agency approval for release needed for award of fees
§ 8:118 Fee award because of agency trial tactics
§ 8:119 Attorney fees factors
§ 8:120 Size of the fee award can be affected by requester's and agency's motivations
§ 8:121 When plaintiffs have prevailed
§ 8:122 Settlements awarding fees
§ 8:123 Fees and court orders
§ 8:124 Comparisons to other fee award statutes
§ 8:125 Vaughn index and limited production
§ 8:126 Delay as a factor to consider in fee awards
§ 8:127 Award of costs to plaintiffs

§ 8:128 Catalyst theory for fee awards codified after 2007
§ 8:129 Effect on fee awards of the 2007 amendments
§ 8:130 How the 2007 amendments changed the test for fees
§ 8:131 No retroactive effect on pre-2007 fees
§ 8:132 Impacts of the post-2007 catalyst approach
§ 8:133 Agency delay as a factor in fee awards
§ 8:134 Catalyst theory for causing disclosure
§ 8:135 Procedure for attorney fee awards
§ 8:136 Entitlement to fees
§ 8:137 Broad discretion on fees
§ 8:138 Plaintiff's proof for fees
§ 8:139 Entitlement to fees
§ 8:140 Local court rules
§ 8:141 Mootness issues affecting fees
§ 8:142 Appellate review of fee decisions
§ 8:143 Equal Access to Justice Act
§ 8:144 Settlements & attorney fees
§ 8:145 Applying the factors
§ 8:146 Reasonableness of amounts
§ 8:147 Reasonable basis test for the agency action
§ 8:148 Applying the catalyst theory
§ 8:149 When attorney fees are denied
§ 8:150 How the fee standards are applied in cases
§ 8:151 Interim fee awards
§ 8:152 Role of in camera review in justifying fee awards
§ 8:153 Timing of the fee requests
§ 8:154 The "insubstantial results" argument
§ 8:155 When faster processing is rewarded as a success
§ 8:156 Awards of costs
§ 8:157 Actions by appellate courts
§ 8:158 Index orders are not merits relief
§ 8:159 Assessing court orders as relief meriting fees
§ 8:160 Attorney fees & stipulations
§ 8:161 Burden to show waiver of exemption had occurred § 8:162 The fee award based on public benefit
§ 8:163 Fee awards & the "substantially prevailed" test
§ 8:164 Dissemination of records as a reason for fees
§ 8:165 Commercial requesters
§ 8:166 Procedural changes meriting fees
§ 8:167 Fees denied for private-only benefits
§ 8:168 Denial of attorney fees
§ 8:169 Routine voluntary release

§ 8:170 No FOIA jurisdiction, no fee awards
§ 8:171 Amount of award
§ 8:172 Pro se plaintiff's eligibility for fee awards
§ 8:173 Rarest remedy: FOIA sanctions against agencies and requesters
§ 8:174 Criminal plea bargain can waive FOIA rights
§ 8:175 Applying the administrative record as the source of decisions

PART 8. OTHER EFFECTS OF FOIA LITIGATION

§ 8:176 Impacts of FOIA litigation on other cases—Civil discovery
§ 8:177 Effect of FOIA on False Claims Act cases
§ 8:178 Impacts of FOIA litigation on other cases—Criminal cases
§ 8:179 Plea bargains waive future FOIA rights
§ 8:180 Impacts of FOIA litigation on other administrative adjudications

PART 9. SETTLEMENTS & APPEALS

§ 8:181 Settlement terms
§ 8:182 Courts cannot fix compromises beyond FOIA's limits
§ 8:183 Appellate review—Issues on appeal
§ 8:184 Review of degree of success
§ 8:185 Appellate review—Procedural matters
§ 8:186 Winning an appellate stay of disclosure decisions
§ 8:187 Appellate review—The Supreme Court's contributions
§ 8:188 Standards for FOIA access to court-sealed records
§ 8:189 Responding to Congressional subpoenas
§ 8:190 Dismissals of abusive litigants
§ 8:191 Privacy impact statements
§ 8:192 Agency wins when requester waives objections
§ 8:193 Fees & parallel state actions

CHAPTER 9. CONDITIONS AND LIMITATIONS ON ACCESS

PART 1. DISCRETION & DISCLOSURE PRESUMPTIONS

§ 9:1 The presumption in favor of disclosure
§ 9:2 The historical rationale for the pro-disclosure presumption

§ 9:3 FOIA disregards motivation of requesters
§ 9:4 Benefit of the narrow withholding
§ 9:5 Burden on the agency to justify withholding § 9:6 Claims for withholding usually fail unless exemptions apply § 9:7 Unsuccessful agency reasons for withholding
§ 9:8 No general duty to balance benefits and harms from disclosure § 9:9 Court orders and statutes may apply
§ 9:10 Civil discovery use
§ 9:11 Effect of agency records destruction

PART 2. SPECIFIC REQUESTS

§ 9:12 The Requirement to specify the records sought
§ 9:13 The requester's options
§ 9:14 Courts dislike "fishing expedition" requests
§ 9:15 Complex requests
§ 9:16 When records do not exist
§ 9:17 FOIA does not allow questions & answers
§ 9:18 Challenges to adequacy of searches for records
§ 9:19 Effects of the 1996 amendments

PART 3. DUTY FOR PARTIAL DISCLOSURES

§ 9:20 Agencies have a duty to disclose "any reasonably segregable portion" of exempt records § 9:21 Background on the disclosure of "any reasonably segregable portion" of exempt records § 9:22 The agency function in segregating disclosable portions § 9:23 Classes of documents may sometimes be withheld
§ 9:24 Burdens of proof regarding segregation and disclosure
§ 9:25 When segregation is not possible
§ 9:26 Segregation for disclosure not used for Glomar responses
§ 9:27 Procedural issues in segregability for release
§ 9:28 Special classes
§ 9:29 Intertwining of exempt portions
§ 9:30 Inferences and clues
§ 9:31 Segregating internal memos
§ 9:32 Segregating law enforcement records
§ 9:33 Segregation of business data
§ 9:34 Segregation and specific statutory powers
§ 9:35 Segregating personal privacy records

PART 4. DISCRETION TO RELEASE

§ 9:36 Exemptions are not mandatory: there is no mandate to withhold § 9:37 Policy objections
§ 9:38 No explanation needed for claiming exemption
§ 9:39 Courts must uphold discretion to invoke available exemptions
§ 9:40 Waivers and segregability
§ 9:41 Public interest
§ 9:42 Uses of agency discretion
§ 9:43 No inferences of wrongdoing from use of exemptions
§ 9:44 No withholding "except as specifically stated"

PART 5. DISCLOSURE OPENS RECORDS TO ALL

§ 9:45 Disclosure cannot be selective—No preferences
§ 9:46 If records are exempt, agency discretion to invoke exemption is broad § 9:47 Waiver by actual release
§ 9:48 Union claims to access
§ 9:49 Requester's motive is not relevant if record is not exempt
§ 9:50 Rights of the person who is the subject of an agency file
§ 9:51 Effects of past confidentiality promises
§ 9:52 No restraints are possible once records are released
§ 9:53 Private enforcers of federal laws
§ 9:54 Inconsistent actions of other agencies
§ 9:55 Law enforcement
§ 9:56 FOIA & tort litigation discovery

PART 6. EFFECTS OF PRIOR RELEASE

§ 9:57 Prior disclosures and current requests
§ 9:58 Waiver requires official disclosure
§ 9:59 Elements of official acknowledgement
§ 9:60 What releases are not "disclosure"?
§ 9:61 What is an "official acknowledgement" of a disclosure?
§ 9:62 Effect of congressional disclosure
§ 9:63 Does presidential tweet waive exempt status?
§ 9:64 Was the identical record disclosed?
§ 9:65 Was the agency disclosure voluntary and specific?
§ 9:66 Understanding the prior disclosure

§ 9:67 Types of disclosures
§ 9:68 Evolution of the archiving requirement
§ 9:69 Discovery regarding Releases
§ 9:70 Litigation use and waiver
§ 9:71 Records that are already public
§ 9:72 Records use in False Claims Act "qui tam" actions
§ 9:73 Effects of promises of confidentiality
§ 9:74 Preservation of agency records
§ 9:75 Penalizing employee improper release
§ 9:76 Experience with the "foreseeable harm" standard
§ 9:77 The core values debate
§ 9:78 Waiver of privilege claims § 9:79 Parallels in state statutes

Table of Contents

CHAPTER 10. RIGHTS OF THE PRIVATE SUBMITTER OF INFORMATION

PART 1. INTRODUCTION

§ 10:1 Overview
§ 10:2 Submitters' rights within the agency
§ 10:3 —General statutes
§ 10:4 —Specific statutes
§ 10:5 —Analyzing the disclosure
§ 10:6 Confidentiality marking and filing procedures

PART 2. USING EXECUTIVE ORDER 12,600

§ 10:7 Submitter actions under the executive order
§ 10:8 Notification rights under the executive order—Background
§ 10:9 —Efficient processes
§ 10:10 —Recognizing confidentiality
§ 10:11 —Timing and class determinations
§ 10:12 —Exclusions from notification
§ 10:13 —Special considerations
§ 10:14 —Conditions for notification
§ 10:15 —Mechanics of notification
§ 10:16 —Agency decisions
§ 10:17 —Litigation by the submitter

PART 3. THE ADMINISTRATIVE RECORD FOR REVIEW

§ 10:18 The administrative record—Introduction
§ 10:19 —How much is needed
§ 10:20 —Submitter's prima facie case
§ 10:21 —Weakness of agency support
§ 10:22 —De novo review
§ 10:23 —Effect of voluntary submission
§ 10:24 —Applying the voluntariness standard

PART 4. ASPECTS OF JUDICIAL REVIEW

§ 10:25 Judicial review of the decision to disclose private data:—Standards

§ 10:26 —form of Review
§ 10:27 —deference
§ 10:28 —effects of the executive order
§ 10:29 —support for the agency decision to disclose
§ 10:30 —effects of the critical mass decision
§ 10:31 —consistency with prior decisions
§ 10:32 —limitations
§ 10:33 —successful defenses
§ 10:34 Judicial review of challenges to the agency disclosure rules

PART 5. —LITIGATION ISSUES

§ 10:35 Litigation issues—Jurisdiction
§ 10:36 Special burden to establish jurisdiction
§ 10:37 How the reporters committee views these cases § 10:38 Litigation issues—Venue
§ 10:39 —Parties
§ 10:40 —No sovereign immunity defenses
§ 10:41 —Intervention
§ 10:42 —"Record"
§ 10:43 —Standing
§ 10:44 —Likelihood of success
§ 10:45 —Ripeness for court review & mootness
§ 10:46 —Submitter's burden of proof
§ 10:47 —Disputes with no pending FOIA request § 10:48 Litigation issues: scope of coverage of records
§ 10:49 Litigation issues—Injunction standards
§ 10:50 —Meeting the standards for injunctive relief § 10:51 —Irreparable harm to persons
§ 10:52 —Public interest
§ 10:53 —Protective orders
§ 10:54 —Mediation
§ 10:55 —Declaratory judgment
§ 10:56 —Mandatory notice
§ 10:57 Limits on judicial constraints on FOIA process affecting one submitter
§ 10:58 Litigation issues—Subpoenas
§ 10:59 —Replevin of submitted documents
§ 10:60 —No damage awards
§ 10:61 —Remands
§ 10:62 —Discovery
§ 10:63 —De novo review

§ 10:64 —Waiver

PART 6. AFTER DISCLOSURE OCCURS

§ 10:65 Remedies after mistaken disclosure
§ 10:66 After mistaken disclosure, can anyone be punished?

PART 7. POLICY & CONSTITUTIONAL ISSUES

§ 10:67 Purpose of reverse-foia cases: protection for technology § 10:68 Protection for confidential business statistics
§ 10:69 Constitutional issues on disclosure of private business data § 10:70 The protective motive underlying Chrysler v. Brown
§ 10:71 Employment statistical data after Chrysler

PART 8. CENTRAL ROLE OF TRADE SECRETS LEGISLATION

§ 10:72 The scope of exemption (b)(4) and of Section 1905

PART 9. GOVERNMENT CONTRACTOR ACTIONS

§ 10:73 Rights of government contractors—Generally
§ 10:74 Withdrawal of contractor submissions
§ 10:75 Contractor bid prices disclosure
§ 10:76 Contractor unit—pricing remedies
§ 10:77 The debate over access to contract pricing data

PART 10. DISCLOSURE'S SIDE EFFECTS

§ 10:78 The distorted disclosures problem
§ 10:79 Agency claims of doubtful secrecy in private submissions
§ 10:80 Agency claims of doubtful adverse effects from disclosure
§ 10:81 Disclosure and the role of a nexus statute favoring release
§ 10:82 Submitters' misplaced reliance on statutes
§ 10:83 Effects of "leaks" of private submissions
§ 10:84 Disclosure and licensing proceedings

PART 11. ROLE OF THE INFORMATION QUALITY ACT

§ 10:85 Role of the Information Quality Act

§ 10:86 Effects of the Information Quality Act
§ 10:87 The future outlook for the protection of business information

CHAPTER 11. THE EXEMPTION FOR NATIONAL SECURITY INFORMATION

§ 11:1 Overview
§ 11:2 History and development of the (b)(1) exemption—Preenactment § 11:3 —Through watergate
§ 11:4 —The 1974 amendments
§ 11:5 —Judicial interpretations
§ 11:6 Executive privilege issues
§ 11:7 —State secrets
§ 11:8 —Background
§ 11:9 —Discovery
§ 11:10 —Political considerations
§ 11:11 Burdens of proof and procedure issues
§ 11:12 Applying the current Executive Order on classified secrets
§ 11:13 Executive Order 13556—Controlled unclassified information
§ 11:14 Applying the executive order—The effects of the 1995 executive order § 11:15 —Tying the order to the exemption
§ 11:16 Effects of classification of records
§ 11:17 Types of confidential information protected
§ 11:18 Physical protection of classified data
§ 11:19 Applying the executive order—The mosaic puzzle arguments
§ 11:20 —No implied agreements
§ 11:21 In camera review
§ 11:22 Challenges to exemption (b)(1) claims—Introduction
§ 11:23 —Burden of proof
§ 11:24 —Use of the executive order
§ 11:25 —Content of the agency presentation
§ 11:26 —Potential impact of disclosure is measured
§ 11:27 Diplomatic position papers
§ 11:28 Segregable portions disclosure
§ 11:29 CIPA is not available in FOIA litigation
§ 11:30 Bad faith claims of Exemption 1 status
§ 11:31 Judicial deference

§ 11:32 No balancing is required
§ 11:33 Agency affidavits in exemption (b)(1) cases
§ 11:34 Compliance with the executive order
§ 11:35 Types of records withheld
§ 11:36 Waiver and obsolescence issues
§ 11:37 Timing of the claims of exemption
§ 11:38 Future of the (b)(1) exemption
§ 11:39 Public dissemination of pirated federal records
§ 11:40 Foreign government exclusion
§ 11:41 Coordination with other exemption defenses
§ 11:42 Military recommendations are classified
§ 11:43 "Official acknowledgement" doctrine

CHAPTER 12. THE INTERNAL PERSONNEL RULES EXEMPTION

§ 12:1 Overview
§ 12:2 Background of the (b)(2) exemption
§ 12:3 Elements of an exemption (b)(2) case: trivial matters—Introduction
§ 12:4 —Coverage
§ 12:5 —How the Supreme Court restricted (b)(2) coverage
§ 12:6 Elements of an exemption (b)(2) case: trivial matters § 12:7 —Markings and codes
§ 12:8 Records not exempted
§ 12:9 History of exemption 2 "trivial personnel matters" litigation
§ 12:10 Procedural issues
§ 12:11 The pre-2011 "circumvention of the agency" cases are no longer controlling law § 12:12 Exemption of matters that could aid circumvention of the agency—Agency burdens
§ 12:13 —Exclusions
§ 12:14 Internal personnel matters
§ 12:15 Importance of the Supreme Court's interpretations
§ 12:16 Successful requests
§ 12:17 Agency manuals
§ 12:18 Other issues under the exemption

CHAPTER 13. THE EXEMPTION FOR SPECIFIC STATUTES PERMITTING WITHHOLDING

§ 13:1 Overview

§ 13:2 Background of the (b)(3) exemption
§ 13:3 The 1976 history
§ 13:4 Changes after 1976
§ 13:5 Elements of a (b)(3) case
§ 13:6 Procedural issues
§ 13:7 Cases applying general norms
§ 13:8 The "no discretionary release" category
§ 13:9 The "particular criteria" category
§ 13:10 Specific withholding statutes—Tax records
§ 13:11 —Social Security records
§ 13:12 —Grand jury materials
§ 13:13 —Law enforcement and parole records
§ 13:14 —Central Intelligence Agency records
§ 13:15 —Federal Trade Commission records
§ 13:16 —The Privacy Act
§ 13:17 —Other statutes
§ 13:18 Statutes not triggering exemption 3 coverage
§ 13:19 Postal statutes
§ 13:20 Applying exemption 3 norms to other statutes
§ 13:21 Specific withholding statutes—Other statutes—Homeland Security information § 13:22 Contracting statutes
§ 13:23 Banking and financial statutes
§ 13:24 Cultural Property Committee Meetings
§ 13:25 Special CIA exclusions
§ 13:26 Kennedy assassination files
§ 13:27 Other intelligence-protective exemptions
§ 13:28 Medical statutes

CHAPTER 14. CONFIDENTIAL BUSINESS INFORMATION

PART 1. OVERVIEW

§ 14:1 Introduction
§ 14:2 Effects on Exemption 4 of the Supreme Court's 2019 Argus Decision § 14:3 Long term impacts of the Argus Leader Supreme Court precedent
§ 14:4 How the Argus Dissent in 2019 defined the majority opinion's impact on FOIA requests

PART 2. TRADE SECRETS

§ 14:5 Trade secrets—Introduction

§ 14:6 Trade secret definitions
§ 14:7 The Elements of trade secrets
§ 14:8 Trade secrets historical protections
§ 14:9 Types of Trade Secrets
§ 14:10 Trade secrets claims denied
§ 14:11 Trade secret loss without compensation
§ 14:12 Trade secrets: comparison to private licensing
§ 14:13 Trade secrets injunctions
§ 14:14 Pre-disclosure consultations
§ 14:15 Agency mechanisms for trade secrets protection
§ 14:16 Trade secrets under state alternative terms
§ 14:17 Duration of trade secret status
§ 14:18 Analogies of FOIA to private trade secrets litigation
§ 14:19 Valuation of a trade secret
§ 14:20 Research and testing data for product approval

PART 3. PRIVILEGED AND CONFIDENTIAL RECORDS

§ 14:21 "Privileged" information—Introduction
§ 14:22 Traditional privileges
§ 14:23 "Privileged" information coverage background
§ 14:24 Types of "Privileged" information
§ 14:25 Waiver of privileges
§ 14:26 "Privileged" in FOIA in relationship to Rule 26
§ 14:27 "Confidential" commercial information—Definitions
§ 14:28 Defining what is "commercial"
§ 14:29 Two types of confidential data
§ 14:30 Pandemic forced politically sensitive Decisions
§ 14:31 Impairment of future cooperation
§ 14:32 Value of the private information
§ 14:33 Proof of confidential status
§ 14:34 Voluntary and involuntary submissions
§ 14:35 "Confidential" exemption not dependent on requester's knowledge § 14:36 "Confidential" status waiver
§ 14:37 "Confidential" status denied
§ 14:38 Confidentiality of product related complaints
§ 14:39 Timing and delays
§ 14:40 Types of records exempted
§ 14:41 Claims relating to government efficiency

PART 4. PRIVATE SECTOR ORIGIN OF THE DATA REQUESTED

§ 14:42 Information "obtained from a person"—Definitions
§ 14:43 —Coverage
§ 14:44 —Agencies cannot be persons § 14:45 —Grantee and contractor research
§ 14:46 —The controversies

PART 5. TYPES OF RECORDS

§ 14:47 "Financial" information
§ 14:48 Burden of showing records are "Commercial"

PART 6. LITIGATION

§ 14:49 Litigation of exemption (b)(4) cases—Notice to the submitter
§ 14:50 Burden of proof
§ 14:51 Vaughn index
§ 14:52 In camera review
§ 14:53 Detailed affidavits
§ 14:54 Segregation of disclosable portions
§ 14:55 Summary judgment standards
§ 14:56 Duty to involve records owners
§ 14:57 Nonparty participation in defense of confidential status
§ 14:58 Waiver
§ 14:59 Defense of required submissions
§ 14:60 Motives of requester
§ 14:61 Presentation of the defense
§ 14:62 Burden on the agency to show "Commercial" status
§ 14:63 Appellate review
§ 14:64 Role of linkages of information in defense of private data § 14:65 Risk of reverse-engineering from records disclosed
§ 14:66 Estoppel against agency disclosure
§ 14:67 Copyrights
§ 14:68 Specific rules
§ 14:69 Effect of redactions
§ 14:70 Roles of intervening data owners
§ 14:71 No "injury" from potential lawsuits

PART 7. HARMS

§ 14:72 The "substantial harm" National Parks standard

§ 14:73 What is harm?
§ 14:74 Proof of harms
§ 14:75 How records are shared impacts exemption 4 status
§ 14:76 Reputational harm
§ 14:77 The Critical Mass standard of confidentiality
§ 14:78 Voluntary submissions
§ 14:79 Required submissions
§ 14:80 The confidentiality tests

PART 8. COMPETITIVE HARM

§ 14:81 Evidence of competitive harm—Background
§ 14:82 Measuring costs of data as a basis for valuation
§ 14:83 Degree of knowledge affects competitive harm
§ 14:84 Proof of value affects competitive harm
§ 14:85 Effects of loss of confidential status
§ 14:86 Contexts increasing claimed competitive harm
§ 14:87 Contexts reducing the claim of competitive harm
§ 14:88 Contexts favoring disclosure
§ 14:89 Aggregation of data and alternative solutions
§ 14:90 Examples of substantial harm
§ 14:91 Government contractors' data exemption claims

PART 9. OTHER REASONS FOR WITHHOLDING

§ 14:92 The "deterrence of cooperation" standard—Background
§ 14:93 Governmental interests served by withholding records
§ 14:94 Deterrence and chilling of cooperation
§ 14:95 Burden of proof that disclosure would deter cooperation
§ 14:96 Effects on potential impairment of regulatory work
§ 14:97 The Effect of agency promises of confidentiality
§ 14:98 Denial of confidentiality may have consequences

PART 10. PRESUBMISSION STAGES

§ 14:99 Presubmission procedures to justify exempt status

PART 11. AGENCIES' POLICIES

§ 14:100 Agency rules—Food and Drug Administration—Background
§ 14:101 FDA—Research and testing details

§ 14:102 —Inspectional data
§ 14:103 —Procedural issues
§ 14:104 —Trade secrets
§ 14:105 Agency rules—Cosmetic ingredient disclosure
§ 14:106 FDA—Adverse experiences with regulated products
§ 14:107 Agency rules—Environmental Protection Agency—Background
§ 14:108 EPA—Structure
§ 14:109 —Types of confidential data
§ 14:110 —Presubmission review
§ 14:111 —Specific pesticide data protection
§ 14:112 —Toxic chemicals data
§ 14:113 —Specific statutory disclosure commands
§ 14:114 Agency rules—Securities and Exchange Commission
§ 14:115 —Consumer Product Safety Commission
§ 14:116 —Federal Trade Commission
§ 14:117 —Department of Transportation
§ 14:118 Confidential private data entering agency rulemaking dockets & settlement agreements

PART 12. OTHER ISSUES

§ 14:119 Constitutional issues
§ 14:120 Can government organizations have a "commercial" secret?
§ 14:121 Evolution of the exemption
§ 14:122 Interaction of exemptions 3 and 4: Tobacco Regulatory Filing Protections § 14:123 Value of corporate compliance program withholding § 14:124 No Protective Orders can foreclose agency disclosure of non-exempt records
§ 14:125 FOIA status of developments in technology
§ 14:126 —Proposed 2023 Congressional changes to Exemption 4

CHAPTER 15. THE AGENCY MEMORANDA EXEMPTION

PART 1. INTRODUCTION

§ 15:1 Background and scope of the exemption
§ 15:2 History of the exemption

PART 2. DEFINITIONS

§ 15:3 Definitions—Agencies

§ 15:4 —Intra-agency and inter-agency transmission
§ 15:5 —Memoranda and letters
§ 15:6 —Unavailable to a party

PART 3. PRIVILEGES

§ 15:7 The privileges underlying the exemption—Overview
§ 15:8 —Background
§ 15:9 —The unusual Merrill decision
§ 15:10 —Civil litigation
§ 15:11 Understanding "deliberative process"
§ 15:12 When de novo review beyond the affidavits is appropriate

PART 4. FACTUAL PORTIONS OF RECORDS

§ 15:13 Factual records—Introduction
§ 15:14 —Factual records not exempted
§ 15:15 —Factual records that may be exempt
§ 15:16 —Intertwined facts and opinions
§ 15:17 —Selective summaries

PART 5. PREDECISIONAL RECORDS

§ 15:18 Predecisional memoranda are exempt—Policy
§ 15:19 —Exempted to avoid chilling effects on employees
§ 15:20 Measuring the risks of confusion & adverse effects
§ 15:21 Predecisional memoranda are exempt—Elements of predecisional status § 15:22 Exemption to promote candid discussion inside agencies
§ 15:23 Focus on function of the records
§ 15:24 Rulemaking administrative record exclusions
§ 15:25 Predecisional memoranda are exempt—Types of predecisional records § 15:26 Claims of potential confusion from premature disclosure
§ 15:27 Predecisional memoranda are exempt—Context of the records
§ 15:28 —Studies supporting rulemaking
§ 15:29 Requiring a subsequent decision for "predecisional" status § 15:30 Criteria for exemption of deliberative predecisional records
§ 15:31 Burdens of proof

§ 15:32 Protection of hierarchical and group decisions
§ 15:33 Lists of proposed attendees for agency meetings
§ 15:34 Recording of presidential decisions
§ 15:35 Records of consultants and contractors
§ 15:36 End of the "Consultant Corollary"
§ 15:37 Ending use of consultant corollary defenses
§ 15:38 Congressional communications as "predecisional"
§ 15:39 Response to Congressional subpoenas for agency internal documents § 15:40 Timing of the decision addressed in the withheld memorandum
§ 15:41 Predecisional memoranda and the "reasonably foreseeable" test
§ 15:42 Timing of the record
§ 15:43 Continued confidentiality of a predecisional memo after agency decisions
§ 15:44 Draft documents
§ 15:45 Predecisional memoranda in investigations
§ 15:46 Exclusions from exemption 5 coverage
§ 15:47 Studying discretion & the veterans realignment study

PART 6. POST-DECISIONAL RECORDS

§ 15:48 Post-decisional nonexempt records
§ 15:49 Finality of agency decisions
§ 15:50 Factors favoring disclosure
§ 15:51 Factors supporting withholding for postdecisional records
§ 15:52 Segregation and disclosure
§ 15:53 "No-action" records
§ 15:54 State disclosure law factors

PART 7. LEGAL PRIVILEGES

§ 15:55 Attorney-client privilege
§ 15:56 Coverage of attorney-client records
§ 15:57 Attorney-client records and limits on their circulation
§ 15:58 Communications to the attorney
§ 15:59 Attorney-client privilege—Burden of proof
§ 15:60 Disclosable policy interpretations by agency counsel
§ 15:61 Attorney-client exemption claims denied
§ 15:62 Work product privilege—Background and policy
§ 15:63 Work product privilege elements
§ 15:64 Burden of proof on work product claims

§ 15:65 Timing and finality
§ 15:66 Work product privilege Litigation
§ 15:67 Denial of work product privilege
§ 15:68 Coverage of the work product privilege

PART 8. OTHER PRIVILEGES

§ 15:69 Other recognized privileges
§ 15:70 Shifting burdens to demonstrate harm from disclosure

PART 9. WAIVER OF PRIVILEGES

§ 15:71 Waiver and exclusions
§ 15:72 Importance of protecting deliberative interactions

PART 10. LITIGATION

§ 15:73 Litigating the exemption issues—Burden of proof § 15:74 —Analysis of the agency process
§ 15:75 —Requester status
§ 15:76 Affidavit use
§ 15:77 Discovery of the agency decision elements
§ 15:78 Setting up the administrative appeal
§ 15:79 Use of the Vaughn index
§ 15:80 Litigation alternatives
§ 15:81 Summary judgment
§ 15:82 Standard for judicial review
§ 15:83 Effects of the Sierra Club Supreme court decision
§ 15:84 Role of equitable principles
§ 15:85 Role of in camera review
§ 15:86 Release of segregable portions
§ 15:87 Importance of segregability of records
§ 15:88 Future of the exemption
§ 15:89 Non-Exempt records officially acknowledged § 15:90 Explanations of an Agency's Decision
§ 15:91 Applying a functional approach to factual data
§ 15:92 Role of staff members as a factor in Exemption 5 cases
§ 15:93 Collected staff opinions as Exemption 5 material
§ 15:94 Showing formation of the agency decision
§ 15:95 How courts should scrutinize "Adopted as Final" status
§ 15:96 When facts are inextricably intertwined with deliberations

§ 15:97 Candor in news media interactions
§ 15:98 "Winnowing" staff member mental processes
§ 15:99 Functional test looks for compelling factual record
§ 15:100 Supreme Court's view of "Draft" documents under FOIA
§ 15:101 Supreme Court disfavors use of in camera reviews
§ 15:102 Claims of harm should be more than "Boilerplate"
§ 15:103 Segregation of documents
§ 15:104 Foreseeable Harm from Disclosure" evaluations
§ 15:105 Effect of 2016 Amendments
§ 15:106 Impacts of on-line access

CHAPTER 16. THE PERSONAL PRIVACY EXEMPTION

PART 1. BACKGROUND

§ 16:1 Overview
§ 16:2 History

PART 2. COVERAGE

§ 16:3 Definitions—Personnel files
§ 16:4 Examples of personnel files
§ 16:5 Files not deemed personnel files
§ 16:6 Considerations favoring exempt status
§ 16:7 Business-related activities
§ 16:8 —Medical files
§ 16:9 —Similar files—Introduction
§ 16:10 — —Background
§ 16:11 — —Sensitive data
§ 16:12 —Personalized financial data
§ 16:13 —Similar files—Denial of exemption
§ 16:14 — —Union list
§ 16:15 — —Other categories
§ 16:16 Effect of other Nations' privacy laws

PART 3. INVASION OF PERSONAL PRIVACY

§ 16:17 Invasion of personal privacy—Introduction
§ 16:18 —Records whose release invades privacy
§ 16:19 Expectations of privacy
§ 16:20 Invasion of personal privacy—Comparing court and agency views

§ 16:21 —Consequences arising from disclosure
§ 16:22 —Sufficient invasions of privacy
§ 16:23 —Waiver and disclosure
§ 16:24 "Clearly unwarranted"

PART 4. BALANCING OF INTERESTS

§ 16:25 Balancing of interests under exemption (b)(6)—Introduction
§ 16:26 —Background
§ 16:27 —Basic steps in balancing
§ 16:28 —Burdens of proof
§ 16:29 Would disclosure "Shed Light" on agency activity?
§ 16:30 Balancing of interests under exemption (b)(6)—Subjective aspects
§ 16:31 —Effect of the Supreme Court decisions
§ 16:32 —Weighing individual interests
§ 16:33 —The public interests in disclosure
§ 16:34 Derivative use
§ 16:35 Balancing of interests under exemption (b)(6)—Private benefits § 16:36 —Long-term impacts
§ 16:37 —Effects of death
§ 16:38 —Denial of exempt status
§ 16:39 —Slight vs. no public interest
§ 16:40 —Criminal-related interests
§ 16:41 —Commercial interests
§ 16:42 —Litigation-related interests
§ 16:43 —Age of the records
§ 16:44 —Public need for access
§ 16:45 —Cases of low public interests
§ 16:46 —Future misuse potential
§ 16:47 —Motive
§ 16:48 —Low privacy interest
§ 16:49 —Low public benefit of disclosure
§ 16:50 Potential injury from identity disclosures
§ 16:51 Balancing of interests under exemption (b)(6)—Why not consider requester's needs?
§ 16:52 Requester must articulate how data helps oversight of agency
§ 16:53 Balancing of interests under exemption (b)(6)—Later derivative use claims § 16:54 —Potential harassment upon disclosure

§ 16:55 —Complaining witnesses
§ 16:56 —Agency employee identities
§ 16:57 —Linkages to other information
§ 16:58 Role of Federal Certificates of Confidentiality for research identities
§ 16:59 Balancing of interests under exemption (b)(6)—Risks to informants and employees § 16:60 —Factors favoring withholding
§ 16:61 —Benefits status favoring disclosure
§ 16:62 —Unions
§ 16:63 —Expectations of confidentiality
§ 16:64 —Prior availability of data to public § 16:65 —Exemption claims denied
§ 16:66 —Per se treatment

PART 5. APPLYING THE EXEMPTION

§ 16:67 Relationship to law enforcement exemption (b)(7)
§ 16:68 Explaining the potentials for harm
§ 16:69 The special case of privacy in labor disputes
§ 16:70 Mailing lists—Introduction
§ 16:71 —The Supreme Court's virtual ban on list disclosure
§ 16:72 —Commercial interests
§ 16:73 —Balance of interests
§ 16:74 —Effects of the Supreme Court cases
§ 16:75 —List disclosures
§ 16:76 —Lists of retired employees
§ 16:77 —The older cases
§ 16:78 —Private labor uses
§ 16:79 Relations of Privacy Act with FOIA (b)(6)

PART 6. LITIGATION

§ 16:80 Litigation of exemption (b)(6) cases—Introduction
§ 16:81 —Burden of proof
§ 16:82 —Misconduct
§ 16:83 —Deference
§ 16:84 —Agency discretion
§ 16:85 —The "neither confirm nor deny" cases
§ 16:86 —In camera review
§ 16:87 —Segregable portions
§ 16:88 Waiver of privacy exempt status
§ 16:89 Meeting agency defenses
§ 16:90 —Promises of confidentiality

§ 16:91 —Consent to disclosure
§ 16:92 —Equity arguments fail
§ 16:93 —Litigation-related defenses
§ 16:94 —Competing interests
§ 16:95 Remedies
§ 16:96 Future of the (b)(6) exemption

Table of Contents

CHAPTER 17. LAW ENFORCEMENT RECORDS

§ 17:1 Introduction
§ 17:2 Background
§ 17:3 Evolution of the section (b)(7) exemption
§ 17:4 The 1974 amendments
§ 17:5 The 1986 amendments
§ 17:6 Definitions—"Information for law enforcement purposes"—Introduction § 17:7 —Effect of the 1986 amendments
§ 17:8 —"Law enforcement"
§ 17:9 —"Compiled"
§ 17:10 Types of records covered
§ 17:11 Definitions—Agency cases
§ 17:12 —Court rejection of "law enforcement purpose" claims § 17:13 —Functional standards
§ 17:14 —Pre-1986 case law
§ 17:15 Withholding to avoid interference with enforcement under section (b)(7)(A)—Policy
§ 17:16 —Background
§ 17:17 —Operation of the exemption
§ 17:18 —Burdens of proof
§ 17:19 —Timing
§ 17:20 —"Interference"
§ 17:21 —Concrete proceedings
§ 17:22 —History
§ 17:23 —The Supreme Court's views
§ 17:24 —Agency misconduct
§ 17:25 —Closed files
§ 17:26 —Coercion of employees
§ 17:27 —Disclosure would cause evasion
§ 17:28 —Deference
§ 17:29 —Identity of the requester
§ 17:30 —Inference of harm
§ 17:31 —Chilling effects
§ 17:32 —Effects on future enforcement
§ 17:33 —Concrete investigations

§ 17:34 —Categorical coverage
§ 17:35 —Effects on foreign proceedings
§ 17:36 —Describing the interference
§ 17:37 —Conflicts of claims
§ 17:38 —Effects of agency misconduct
§ 17:39 Need to show meaningful benefit of disclosure § 17:40 Withholding to avoid interference with enforcement under section (b)(7)(A)—Particular claims—Immigration
§ 17:41 — —Labor
§ 17:42 — —Antitrust
§ 17:43 — —Counterintelligence
§ 17:44 — —Administrative § 17:45 — —Tax enforcement
§ 17:46 — —Independent counsel
§ 17:47 — —Discipline
§ 17:48 —Outcome is not determinative
§ 17:49 —Categories
§ 17:50 —Criminal investigations
§ 17:51 —Effects of publicity
§ 17:52 —Summary judgment
§ 17:53 —Rulemaking and tort
§ 17:54 —Exemption after case conclusion
§ 17:55 Withholding to protect fair adjudication for the accused under section (b)(7)(B) § 17:56 Withholding to avoid an unwarranted invasion of privacy under section (b)(7)(C)—Introduction
§ 17:57 —Policy
§ 17:58 —Privacy defined
§ 17:59 —The balancing of interests for and against disclosure
§ 17:60 The Glomar Option to "neither confirm nor deny" records exist
§ 17:61 Withholding to avoid an unwarranted invasion of privacy under section (b)(7)(C)—The balancing of interests for and against disclosure—Significance of Reporters Committee
§ 17:62 — —Balances favoring disclosure
§ 17:63 — —Balancing by degrees
§ 17:64 — —Privacy interests not overridden
§ 17:65 — —Motives of the requestor
§ 17:66 Individual need of the requester is not controlling § 17:67 Withholding to avoid an unwarranted invasion of privacy under section (b)(7)(C)—The balancing of interests for and against disclosure—Effect of Supreme Court decisions

§ 17:68 — —Statutory purposes of FOIA
§ 17:69 — —"Unwarranted" disclosure
§ 17:70 — —Contrasts to exemption (b)(6)
§ 17:71 — —Waivers
§ 17:72 — —The stigma problem with disclosure
§ 17:73 — —Exempted categories
§ 17:74 — —Exemption because of linkages
§ 17:75 — —Types of records protected by exemption (b)(7)(C)
§ 17:76 — —Pre-1989 categorization of exempt classes
§ 17:77 — —Privacy rights of investigated persons
§ 17:78 Interests of jail inmates
§ 17:79 Withholding to avoid an unwarranted invasion of privacy under section (b)(7)(C)—The balancing of interests for and against disclosure—Business and corporate privacy claims
§ 17:80 — —Effect of promises
§ 17:81 — —Anonymous information
§ 17:82 — —Names of third parties in investigative files
§ 17:83 — —Effect on unions
§ 17:84 — —Federal employee identities
§ 17:85 Prevention of harassment
§ 17:86 Withholding to avoid an unwarranted invasion of privacy under section (b)(7)(C)—The balancing of interests for and against disclosure—Denials of exemption (b)(7)(C) status
§ 17:87 — —Procedural issues in (b)(7)(C) cases
§ 17:88 — —Redaction and deletion
§ 17:89 — —Records exemption in civil and labor proceedings
§ 17:90 — —Source confidentiality and its limits
§ 17:91 — —Context gives rise to confidentiality
§ 17:92 — —Privacy after death
§ 17:93 Consideration of age of records
§ 17:94 Withholding to avoid an unwarranted invasion of privacy under section (b)(7)(C)—The balancing of interests for and against disclosure—Informants
§ 17:95 — —Payment records
§ 17:96 — —Witnesses
§ 17:97 The Supreme Court's Favish decision

§ 17:98 Withholding to protect confidential sources under section (b)(7)(D)—Introduction
§ 17:99 —Policy of exemption (b)(7)(D)
§ 17:100 —Defining "confidential"
§ 17:101 —No balancing of interests occurs in (b)(7)(D)
§ 17:102 —Burden of proof
§ 17:103 —Indirect harms
§ 17:104 —Effects of the 1986 amendments
§ 17:105 —Effect of the 1993 Supreme Court Landano decision
§ 17:106 —Landano's presumed confidential test
§ 17:107 —Comparing exemptions (b)(6) and (b)(7)(D)
§ 17:108 —Background checks
§ 17:109 —Relationship to the Privacy Act
§ 17:110 —Future cooperation
§ 17:111 —Retaliation not basis for generic presumption
§ 17:112 —Admissions about criminal acts
§ 17:113 —Connection to crime
§ 17:114 —Promises of confidentiality
§ 17:115 —Programs of routine confidentiality
§ 17:116 —Administrative hearing witnesses
§ 17:117 —Categorical exemptions
§ 17:118 —Context of confidentiality
§ 17:119 —How agreement was made
§ 17:120 —Informant codes
§ 17:121 —Jeopardy to future enforcement
§ 17:122 —Anonymous letters
§ 17:123 —Pre-Landano categorical cases
§ 17:124 —Police-FBI sharing
§ 17:125 —State parallels
§ 17:126 —Victim information
§ 17:127 —Reprisal fears
§ 17:128 —Good news
§ 17:129 —Confidentiality not based on crime
§ 17:130 —Sources need not be persons
§ 17:131 —Effect of death of the source § 17:132 Age of the information acquired from the source § 17:133 Defining "sources"
§ 17:134 —Federal agencies
§ 17:135 —Business sources
§ 17:136 —Foreign sources
§ 17:137 —States and localities as sources
§ 17:138 National security cases

§ 17:139 Withholding to protect enforcement techniques under section (b)(7)(E)
§ 17:140 Applying Exemption 7 to homeland security issues
§ 17:141 Withholding to protect individuals from retribution under section (b)(7)(F)
§ 17:142 Exclusions—"Neither confirm nor deny" under section 552(c) § 17:143 When confidentiality is lost or waived
§ 17:144 Litigation—Burdens of proof
§ 17:145 —Elements of proof
§ 17:146 —Presumptions and proof burdens
§ 17:147 —Proof regarding categories
§ 17:148 —Summary judgment proof
§ 17:149 —Standard of review
§ 17:150 —Indexing
§ 17:151 —Requester identity
§ 17:152 Class actions
§ 17:153 Litigation—Brief must follow affidavits
§ 17:154 —Proof as to specific cases and status
§ 17:155 —The Eighth Circuit analysis
§ 17:156 —Cross-examination of the agency
§ 17:157 —Fact-specific balancing
§ 17:158 —Timing
§ 17:159 —Role of the district court
§ 17:160 —In camera review
§ 17:161 —Vaughn index orders
§ 17:162 —Consideration of public need
§ 17:163 —Agency witnesses
§ 17:164 Waiver, other disclosures and leaks—Introduction
§ 17:165 Segregable portions disclosable
§ 17:166 Waiver, other disclosures and leaks—Burden of proof
§ 17:167 —Leaks
§ 17:168 —Effect of trial testimony
§ 17:169 —Reference to record is not waiver of record's exemption § 17:170 —No waiver if records are not similar § 17:171 —Criminal cases
§ 17:172 —Conditional release disfavored
§ 17:173 —Waiver by the protected person
§ 17:174 —Broad disclosure of records diminishes "harm"
§ 17:175 —Waiver by the source
§ 17:176 —Delay in disclosure as a settlement offer

§ 17:177 —Disclosure in a private proceeding is not waiver
§ 17:178 —Criminal record files
§ 17:179 —Witness speculation
§ 17:180 —Effect of accidents
§ 17:181 —Disclosure to Congress
§ 17:182 —Criminal status irrelevant
§ 17:183 —Agency need not solicit waivers
§ 17:184 —Once publicly disclosed, must be open
§ 17:185 —Effect of plaintiff's knowledge regarding records
§ 17:186 —State openness law effects
§ 17:187 —Effect of news media coverage
§ 17:188 —Submission of new affidavits
§ 17:189 —Partial disclosure not waiver
§ 17:190 —Speculation inadequate
§ 17:191 —Interviewed person consents
§ 17:192 —Categorical treatment, not balancing, of exclusions
§ 17:193 —Waiver is exceptional
§ 17:194 —Privacy interests despite anonymity
§ 17:195 —Only the agency, not one employee, can waive § 17:196 —Effects of publicity by the source § 17:197 —Express waiver of privacy rights
§ 17:198 —Sealed court records
§ 17:199 —Waiver is disfavored in (b)(7)(D)
§ 17:200 —Late exemption claims
§ 17:201 —Protection of multiple persons' privacy
§ 17:202 —Sharing with other enforcers
§ 17:203 —Waiver by sharing with file subject
§ 17:204 Stays pending adjudication of section (b)(7) cases
§ 17:205 Effects on labor cases
§ 17:206 Use of the exemption in other litigation
§ 17:207 Future of the exemption
§ 17:208 Searches & individual privacy issues
§ 17:209 False claims and criminal arrest information

CHAPTER 18. EXEMPTIONS FOR FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS AND GEOLOGICAL EXPLORATION

§ 18:1 The (b)(8) exemption
§ 18:2 How the Exemption has been applied
§ 18:3 The (b)(9) exemption

CHAPTER 19. DISCLOSURE OF RECORDS OF COURTS, CONGRESS AND PRIVATE ENTITIES

§ 19:1 Records of federal courts—FOIA is unavailable
§ 19:2 Records of the courts—Common law
§ 19:3 —Presentence reports
§ 19:4 —Litigation issues
§ 19:5 —Jury access
§ 19:6 —Advisory bodies
§ 19:7 —Sealing records
§ 19:8 Records of Congress
§ 19:9 Records of private persons are not FOIA—Accessible
§ 19:10 College, school and university records under FERPA
§ 19:11 Resolving FERPA disputes
§ 19:12 State election records
§ 19:13 Access to older judicial and prosecution records
§ 19:14 Balancing rights of access to sealed court records

CHAPTER 20. THE PRIVACY ACT: HISTORY, SCOPE AND DEFINITIONS

PART 1. INTRODUCTION

§ 20:1 Overview
§ 20:2 Background
§ 20:3 Enactment of the Privacy Act
§ 20:4 The Privacy Act after adoption

PART 2. DEFINITIONS

§ 20:5 Definitions—"Agency"—Introduction
§ 20:6 —The President's office
§ 20:7 —The courts
§ 20:8 —Congress
§ 20:9 —Private sector
§ 20:10 —States
§ 20:11 —Bankruptcy court
§ 20:12 —Individual employees
§ 20:13 —Government corporations
§ 20:14 —"Individual"—Introduction
§ 20:15 —Citizenship required
§ 20:16 —Criminal defendants and convicts

§ 20:17 —Families
§ 20:18 —Unions
§ 20:19 —Business relationships
§ 20:20 —Deceased persons
§ 20:21 —"Record"—Introduction
§ 20:22 —Courts
§ 20:23 —Form of records
§ 20:24 —Distinguishing non-"records"
§ 20:25 —Business related records
§ 20:26 —"About" an individual
§ 20:27 —Agency personnel documents
§ 20:28 —"System of records"—Introduction
§ 20:29 —Reasons for inclusion
§ 20:30 —Systems included
§ 20:31 —Excluded from systems
§ 20:32 —First Amendment rights protection
§ 20:33 —Personnel supervision records
§ 20:34 —Enforcement of Privacy Act rights
§ 20:35 —Possibility of retrieval
§ 20:36 —"Routine use"—Introduction
§ 20:37 —Publication required
§ 20:38 —Judicial review of inclusion
§ 20:39 —Background
§ 20:40 —Litigation over routine uses
§ 20:41 —Administrative implementation
§ 20:42 —Internal sharing within an agency
§ 20:43 —Law enforcement
§ 20:44 —Compatibility
§ 20:45 —Union claims
§ 20:46 —Examples of routine uses
§ 20:47 —"Consent"
§ 20:48 —"Disclosure"—Introduction
§ 20:49 —Not a disclosure
§ 20:50 —Disclosure applied
§ 20:51 —Other public disclosure
§ 20:52 —Litigation

PART 3. OTHER ASPECTS

§ 20:53 The Privacy Act and the census
§ 20:54 The Privacy Act and the social security number—Introduction § 20:55 —Criteria

§ 20:56 —Statutory provisions
§ 20:57 —Implementation
§ 20:58 —Litigation

PART 4. FOIA AND PRIVACY ACT

§ 20:59 The Privacy Act and the Freedom of Information Act—The law since the 1984 amendment
§ 20:60 —Suing under both acts
§ 20:61 —Prior law
§ 20:62 —Background prior to 1984 amendments
§ 20:63 —Balance of interests
§ 20:64 How the CASES Act affects individual consent to disclosures

CHAPTER 21. AGENCY RESPONSIBILITIES UNDER THE PRIVACY ACT

PART 1. INTRODUCTION

§ 21:1 Overview

PART 2. COLLECTION OF INFORMATION

§ 21:2 Agency collection of information—Background
§ 21:3 —Lack of specific requirements
§ 21:4 Effects of the Supreme Court decisions in Nelson and Chrysler § 21:5 Agency collection of information—Direct collection
§ 21:6 —Notices and informed consents
§ 21:7 —Balancing the competing interests

PART 3. USE OF INDIVIDUAL RECORDS

§ 21:8 Retention and use of information on individuals—Overview § 21:9 Relevance and necessity
§ 21:10 OMB guidance
§ 21:11 Accuracy of the records
§ 21:12 Burden of proof
§ 21:13 Timely records
§ 21:14 First Amendment rights
§ 21:15 The need to know

§ 21:16 Individual records
§ 21:17 Remedies
§ 21:18 Safeguards
§ 21:19 Matching files
§ 21:20 Completeness
§ 21:21 Releases
§ 21:22 Taxes
§ 21:23 Publication requirements

PART 4. CONSENT EXCEPTIONS

§ 21:24 Exceptions to the consent requirements—Introduction
§ 21:25 —Routine uses
§ 21:26 —Freedom of Information Act disclosures
§ 21:27 —Congress
§ 21:28 —Emergency and family disclosures
§ 21:29 —Courts
§ 21:30 —Notice to persons
§ 21:31 —Law enforcement
§ 21:32 —Exceptions and exemptions
§ 21:33 —Intertwined portions withheld
§ 21:34 —Unions
§ 21:35 —Agency head
§ 21:36 —Procedural issues

PART 5. INTERNAL CONTROL

§ 21:37 Agency internal control requirements

PART 6. PRIVACY ACT EXEMPTIONS

§ 21:38 General exemptions—Overview
§ 21:39 —Law enforcement
§ 21:40 —CIA exemption
§ 21:41 — —Homeland Security exemption
§ 21:42 —Legal standard
§ 21:43 —Pre-Act coverage
§ 21:44 —Remedies
§ 21:45 Specific exemptions—Overview
§ 21:46 —Exclusionary effects
§ 21:47 —Aspects not exempted
§ 21:48 —Statutory exemptions
§ 21:49 —Reasons for exemption
§ 21:50 —History

§ 21:51 —OMB guidance
§ 21:52 —Investigatory activities by law enforcement § 21:53 —Narrowing effect
§ 21:54 —Coverage
§ 21:55 —Exemption regulations
§ 21:56 —Source information during a criminal investigation
§ 21:57 —Procedural aspects
§ 21:58 The litigation exemption

PART 7. PARTICULAR PRIVACY PROVISIONS

§ 21:59 Mailing lists

CHAPTER 22. ASSERTING AND LITIGATING INDIVIDUAL PRIVACY ACT RIGHTS

PART 1. RIGHTS OF ACCESS

§ 22:1 Introduction
§ 22:2 Rights of access—Use of access
§ 22:3 —How access is obtained § 22:4 —Proper identification of the requester
§ 22:5 —Copying fees
§ 22:6 —Extent of access
§ 22:7 —Files about organizations
§ 22:8 —The request
§ 22:9 —Search fees
§ 22:10 —Medical records
§ 22:11 —Timing
§ 22:12 —Notices of appeal rights
§ 22:13 —Agency defenses
§ 22:14 —Plaintiff's burden
§ 22:15 —Third party objections
§ 22:16 —Discovery
§ 22:17 —Formats of records released

PART 2. RIGHTS OF AMENDMENT AND CORRECTION

§ 22:18 Rights of amendment and correction—Overview
§ 22:19 —Process for amendment
§ 22:20 —Expungement

§ 22:21 —Placing rebuttal statements in the file
§ 22:22 —Rights of the plaintiff-requestor
§ 22:23 —Denial of amendment requests
§ 22:24 —Failed attempts at changing content of agency decisions
§ 22:25 —Appeals in court
§ 22:26 —Effect of exemptions
§ 22:27 —Effect of union contracts
§ 22:28 —Opinion and fact distinctions in records content

PART 3. PRIVACY ACT LITIGATION

§ 22:29 Privacy Act litigation: jurisdiction and procedure—Background
§ 22:30 Privacy Act litigation: jurisdiction and procedure—Jurisdiction § 22:31 Privacy Act litigation: jurisdiction and procedure—Venue
§ 22:32 —Standard of review
§ 22:33 —Discovery
§ 22:34 —Summary judgment of dismissal
§ 22:35 —Identifying defendants
§ 22:36 Privacy Act litigation: jurisdiction and procedure—Timing and statute of limitations § 22:37 Privacy Act litigation: jurisdiction and procedure—Waiver
§ 22:38 —Standing
§ 22:39 —Res judicata
§ 22:40 —Mootness
§ 22:41 —Exhaustion of remedies
§ 22:42 —Agency affidavits and evidence
§ 22:43 —In camera review
§ 22:44 —Fee awards
§ 22:45 —Effects of other statutes
§ 22:46 —Exceptional cases
§ 22:47 —Other causes of action
§ 22:48 —Elements of the plaintiff's case
§ 22:49 — —Agency
§ 22:50 — —Individual records
§ 22:51 — —Exempt status
§ 22:52 — —Accuracy challenges
§ 22:53 — —Causal effect of agency action
§ 22:54 — —Plaintiff's burden of proof

§ 22:55 Spoliation & negative inferences
§ 22:56 Supreme Court denies non-pecuniary damage awards
§ 22:57 Privacy Act litigation: jurisdiction and procedure—Elements of the plaintiff's case—Damages
§ 22:58 — —Adverse determinations
§ 22:59 —"Willful" violations
§ 22:60 —Agency defenses to Privacy Act suits—Overview
§ 22:61 —Agency defenses to Privacy Act suits—Lack of Privacy Act coverage § 22:62 — —Burden of proving exempt status
§ 22:63 — —Negligence
§ 22:64 — —Types of disclosures
§ 22:65 — —Destruction
§ 22:66 — —Damages issues
§ 22:67 — —Collateral estoppel
§ 22:68 — —Judicial deference
§ 22:69 — —Agency defenses
§ 22:70 — —Exhaustion of remedies
§ 22:71 — —Causation
§ 22:72 — —Segregation of disclosable files
§ 22:73 — —Settlement
§ 22:74 — —Constitutional claims
§ 22:75 Remedies for data breach cases
§ 22:76 Privacy Act litigation: jurisdiction and procedure—Remedies in Privacy Act suits—Overview
§ 22:77 — —Procedure
§ 22:78 — —Remedies of injunctions and damages
§ 22:79 — —Alternative claims
§ 22:80 — —Remedies not available
§ 22:81 — —Attorney fees
§ 22:82 — —Amendment and accounting
§ 22:83 — —When remedies are denied § 22:84 Criminal action

PART 4. PROTECTING FIRST AMENDMENT RIGHTS

§ 22:85 Protections for First Amendment rights—Background
§ 22:86 —Law enforcement exceptions
§ 22:87 —Remedies
§ 22:88 —Scope of protections
§ 22:89 Family Educational Rights & Privacy Act
§ 22:90 Addiction information

§ 22:91 Defining what data is "Personal"

CHAPTER 23. GOVERNMENT IN THE SUNSHINE

§ 23:1 Overview
§ 23:2 Definitions—"Agency"
§ 23:3 —"Meeting"
§ 23:4 Rights created by the Sunshine Act
§ 23:5 Agency responsibilities under the Sunshine Act
§ 23:6 Exemptions from open meetings
§ 23:7 —Special exemptions
§ 23:8 The Sunshine Act in court

CHAPTER 24. FEDERAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE ACT

§ 24:1 Overview
§ 24:2 Definitions—Advisory committee
§ 24:3 —Contractor panels
§ 24:4 —Courts
§ 24:5 —Special situations
§ 24:6 —Utilized committees
§ 24:7 —Balance of committees
§ 24:8 —Established groups
§ 24:9 —Committees established to advise
§ 24:10 —Excluded groups
§ 24:11 Operation of advisory committees
§ 24:12 Courts and the committees
§ 24:13 FACA and FOIA
§ 24:14 Declaratory judgment remedy

CHAPTER 25. PUBLICITY AND THE AGENCIES

§ 25:1 Federal agency publicity
§ 25:2 Solutions to the adverse publicity quandary
§ 25:3 Analyzing federal agency publicity: your legal options

CHAPTER 26. INTERNET & OTHER METHODS OF FEDERAL DISCLOSURE

§ 26:1 Internet disclosure via websites
§ 26:2 Rights to electronic access

§ 26:3 Remedies for disclosure-related disputes
§ 26:4 Mandates for agency-compelled private disclosures
§ 26:5 Environmental and worker "right to know"

CHAPTER 27. STATE INFORMATION AND ACCESS LAWS

§ 27:1 Overview
§ 27:2 What should requesters do?
§ 27:3 Definitions of a public record
§ 27:4 Definitions—Required to be kept
§ 27:5 Broad statutory coverage
§ 27:6 Records outside statutory coverage
§ 27:7 Records of a public agency
§ 27:8 Access rights and policies
§ 27:9 Effect of supreme court McBurney decision
§ 27:10 Persons entitled to access
§ 27:11 Procedures for access
§ 27:12 Access to electronic records
§ 27:13 Exemptions and exceptions—Generally § 27:14 Litigation defenses
§ 27:15 Commercial submissions
§ 27:16 Personal privacy
§ 27:17 Law enforcement
§ 27:18 Special statutes
§ 27:19 Statutory classes of exemption
§ 27:20 Internal agency records
§ 27:21 Legal privileges
§ 27:22 Open meetings and sunshine laws
§ 27:23 Judicial review of access denials
§ 27:24 Preemption of state freedom of information laws by federal statutes § 27:25 District of Columbia laws
§ 27:26 Medical records
§ 27:27 Confidential business data
§ 27:28 Educational discipline records
§ 27:29 Frontiers of state privacy statutes
§ 27:30 Biometric privacy & facial recognition
§ 27:31 State privacy and abortion-tracking issues
§ 27:32 Rapid evolution of privacy legislation
§ 27:33 Cybersecurity state legislation
§ 27:34 State-federal cooperative developments

CHAPTER 28. FEDERAL "OPEN DATA" LEGISLATION

§ 28:1 Background
§ 28:2 OPEN
§ 28:3 Key Definitions
§ 28:4 Implementation
§ 28:5 Inventory & catalogue mandates
§ 28:6 Repository
§ 28:7 Access to other data assets
§ 28:8 Confidential Information Protection & Statistical Efficiency Act of 2018
§ 28:9 Scope & definitions
§ 28:10 Coordination and oversight of policies
§ 28:11 Roles of Statistical agencies
§ 28:12 Effect on Other Federal Statutes
§ 28:13 No Preemption of state law
§ 28:14 Enforcement & penalties use of statistical data
§ 28:15 Confidentiality for statistics & input data
§ 28:16 Confidential information protection under section 3572
§ 28:17 Disclosure of statistical data or information.
§ 28:18 Criminal felony fines & penalties
§ 28:19 Privacy Impacts of Section 208 of the E-Government Act

APPENDICES

Appendix A. The Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C.A. § 552)
Appendix B. The Privacy Act of 1974
Appendix C. Government in the Sunshine Act
Appendix D. Federal Advisory Committee Act
Appendix E. Family Educational and Privacy Rights Act (Buckley Amendment)
Appendix F. CFR Finding Lists
Appendix G. State Open Records Legislation
Appendix H. Legislative Bibliography
Appendix I. Model Forms

Table of Cases

Index