Introduction to 2026-2027 Edition

Firearms Law Deskbook helps prosecutors and defense attorneys identify various firearms offenses based on caselaw and unpublished agency decisions.

Highlights to the 2026-2027 edition include discussion of:

- New section discussing the Supreme Court decision in Wolford v. Lopez and "sensitive place" Restrictions (§ 1:18)
- The Supreme Court holding in United States v. Hemani that the prohibition by a person who is "an unlawful user of" a controlled substance violates the Second Amendment as applied to one who used marijuana "about every other day" (§ 2:23)
- New section covering the Supreme Court's grant of certiorari in two cases involving bans on semiautomatic rifles with certain features (§ 10:16)
- Discussion of two circuit court cases involving whether silencers are protected by the Second Amendment—from the Fifth Circuit, United States v. Comeaux, and from the Ninth, United States v. DeBorba (§ 8:11)
