

Introduction to 2026–2027 Edition

Important new and updated materials in your 2026-2027 Edition of Litigating Major Automobile Injury & Death Cases include:

Additions to Chapter 2, Evaluating the Viability of the Case. These additions include new information on insurance coverage requirements for transportation network companies and delivery network companies.

Additions to Chapter 7, Written Discovery. These additions include new information on the use and limitations of artificial intelligence in modern discovery practice, focusing on AI's capabilities and limitations, lawyer's ethical obligations and the risks associated with its misuse.

Additions to Chapter 8, Depositions. These additions include new information on the use of artificial intelligence before, during and after depositions, including its capabilities, practical considerations, and the ethical and legal duties that accompany its use.