

Table of Contents

Volume 1

CHAPTER 1. OVERVIEW

PART A. THE INFORMATION REVOLUTION

- § 1:1 Introduction
- § 1:2 Legal issues in the digital revolution
- § 1:3 —Shift of economic values
- § 1:4 —Perspectives on information rights
- § 1:5 —Privacy and economic opportunity
- § 1:6 —Globalization and national choice
- § 1:7 —Individuals and automatons
- § 1:8 Information defined
- § 1:9 Information industry
- § 1:10 —Method of distribution
- § 1:11 —Subject matter
- § 1:12 Cyberspace and electronic information

PART B. ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE

- § 1:13 Artificial Intelligence—Overview—AI, Big Data, IOT Convergence
- § 1:14 —What is AI?
- § 1:15 —Do AI systems “think”?
- § 1:16 —Artificial Narrow Intelligence (ANI)
- § 1:17 —Artificial General Intelligence (AGI)
- § 1:18 —Artificial Super Intelligence (ASI)
- § 1:19 —Regulatory developments—U.S.
- § 1:20 — —E.U.
- § 1:21 —Ethical AI
- § 1:22 — —Beneficence
- § 1:23 — —Non-maleficence
- § 1:24 — —Autonomy
- § 1:25 — —Justice
- § 1:26 — —Explicability
- § 1:27 —AI systems as legal actors
- § 1:28 —AI systems as inventors
- § 1:29 —AI systems as authors
- § 1:30 —AI systems as trademark owners
- § 1:31 —AI systems as trade secret owners
- § 1:32 —AI systems as personalities
- § 1:33 —AI systems as signatories

CHAPTER 2. THE NATURE OF PROPERTY RIGHTS IN INFORMATION

PART A. PROPERTY RIGHTS IN INFORMATION

- § 2:1 Introduction to the issue
- § 2:2 Information ownership
- § 2:3 Property as a bundle of rights
- § 2:4 Tort and property compared
- § 2:5 Nature of the asset
- § 2:6 Transferability
- § 2:7 Public and private rights
- § 2:8 Rights and preconditions
- § 2:9 —Preconditions and copyrights
- § 2:10 —Unprotected information under copyright
- § 2:11 —Preconditions and copyrights—Fair use
- § 2:12 —Preconditions and property rights under other laws
- § 2:13 —Relationship between preconditions and property rights
- § 2:14 “Copy” rights
- § 2:15 Access rights
- § 2:16 —Access and access control devices
- § 2:17 —Access and authorization
- § 2:18 —Interplay of copyright and rights of access
- § 2:19 —DMCA and access
- § 2:20 —Trade secrets and access
- § 2:21 —Criminal law and access
- § 2:22 —Trespass and access or use control
- § 2:23 —“Super” DMCA state legislation
- § 2:24 Information integrity and alteration
- § 2:25 —Copyright issues
- § 2:26 —Criminal alteration of information
- § 2:27 —Violations of privacy
- § 2:28 —Theft and conversion

PART B. FEDERAL LIMITS ON STATE PROPERTY RIGHTS

- § 2:29 Federal-state interface
- § 2:30 —Direct conflict of specific rules
- § 2:31 —Preemption by general dominance of a field
- § 2:32 Federal disclosure and public domain policy
- § 2:33 Public domain and reverse engineering
- § 2:34 Copyright preemption
- § 2:35 —Equivalent rights
- § 2:36 —Copyright subject matter
- § 2:37 Contracts or other special relationships
- § 2:38 —Contracts
- § 2:39 —Trade secrecy

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 2:40 Claims not involving special relationships
- § 2:41 —Conversion
- § 2:42 —Fraud
- § 2:43 —Unfair competition and misappropriation
- § 2:44 —Right of publicity
- § 2:45 —Unjust enrichment
- § 2:46 —Criminal law
- § 2:47 Copyright and patent as contract default rules
- § 2:48 —First Sale as a Default Rule
- § 2:49 —Contributions to collective works
- § 2:50 State sovereign immunity
- § 2:51 Native American tribal immunity

PART C. PRESUMPTIONS OF VALIDITY

- § 2:52 Introduction to the issue
- § 2:53 Presumptions of validity—Evidence overview
- § 2:54 Presumption of validity for patents
- § 2:55 —Operation of Patent Act section 282
- § 2:56 —Contesting basic fact of issuance of the patent
- § 2:57 — —Contesting patent eligibility
- § 2:58 — —Asserting inequitable conduct
- § 2:59 —Summary of Patent Act section 282
- § 2:60 Presumption of validity for copyrights
- § 2:61 —Initial application of section 410(c)
- § 2:62 —Type of presumption
- § 2:63 — —Legislative history from 1909 Act
- § 2:64 — —Current case law conflicts
- § 2:65 —Other issues in the operation of section 410(c)
- § 2:66 —Contesting basic fact of issuance of certificate
- § 2:67 — —Challenging copyrightability
- § 2:68 — —Asserting inaccuracy and the Pro-IP Act
- § 2:69 — — —Pre Pro-IP case law
- § 2:70 — — —Pro-IP Act operation
- § 2:71 —Summary of Copyright Act section 410(c)
- § 2:72 Presumption of validity for federal trademarks
- § 2:73 —Initial application of Lanham Act sections 1057(b) & 1115(a)
- § 2:74 —Type of presumption
- § 2:75 — —Legislative history
- § 2:76 — —Case law conflicts
- § 2:77 —Other issues in operation of Lanham Act sections
- § 2:78 —Contesting basic fact of issuance of registration
- § 2:79 — —Collateral attack on registration
- § 2:80 — —Asserting fraudulent conduct
- § 2:81 —Summary of Lanham Act sections 1057(b) & 1115(a)

CHAPTER 3. RIGHTS IN FACTUAL MATERIAL

PART A. COPYRIGHT AND FACTUAL MATERIALS

- § 3:1 Introduction
- § 3:2 In general
- § 3:3 Copyright in individual items
- § 3:4 —Merger and creative display of text
- § 3:5 —Creative estimation
- § 3:6 Copyright in a compilation of facts
- § 3:7 —Selecting facts
- § 3:8 —Arranging facts
- § 3:9 Dual ownership in compilations
- § 3:10 Data collection effort
- § 3:11 What constitutes a “fact”
- § 3:12 —Objective truth as a standard
- § 3:13 —Estimates and guesses as “facts”
- § 3:14 —Words of another as facts
- § 3:15 Registration of database copyright
- § 3:16 Infringement of factual works
- § 3:17 —Using contents of a factual work
- § 3:18 —Copying organization and arrangement
- § 3:19 —Copying selections
- § 3:20 Fair use

PART B. COPYRIGHT IN SELECTED WORKS

- § 3:21 Selected types of works
- § 3:22 —Historical works
- § 3:23 —Lists and directories
- § 3:24 —Maps and charts
- § 3:25 —Tables, graphs, and data files
- § 3:26 —Numbers
- § 3:27 —Parts and other catalogues
- § 3:28 —Public documents and cases
- § 3:29 —Scientific theories
- § 3:30 —Unpublished works: Letters and e-mail
- § 3:31 —Video newsclips
- § 3:32 Electronic databases—General issues
- § 3:33 Selection and arrangement
- § 3:34 Downloading information
- § 3:35 Wrongful extraction of information
- § 3:36 Computerizing information
- § 3:37 Access control as an alternative right
- § 3:38 —Protected location
- § 3:39 —Protected relationships
- § 3:40 —Contract controls on access
- § 3:41 —Copyright and access

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 3:42 —Performance, display and access
- § 3:43 —Control of access devices
- § 3:44 Transmission right as an alternative

PART C. EUROPEAN LAW

- § 3:45 European union database protection
- § 3:46 Copyright protection
- § 3:47 Unfair extraction
- § 3:48 —Compulsory license
- § 3:49 —Insubstantial duplication
- § 3:50 —Reciprocity

PART D. MISAPPROPRIATION LAW

- § 3:51 Basic theory of misappropriation
- § 3:52 Restatement and misappropriation
- § 3:53 Preemption

CHAPTER 4. DIGITAL COPYRIGHT AND CYBERSPACE

PART A. INTRODUCTION

- § 4:1 Introduction

PART B. U.S. DIGITAL COPYRIGHT LAW BASICS

- § 4:2 Copyright subject matter and digital media
- § 4:3 Music Modernization Act
- § 4:4 —Background
- § 4:5 — —Copyright background
- § 4:6 — —ASCAP and consent decree
- § 4:7 — — —Streaming
- § 4:8 — — —Review and attempted extension
- § 4:9 — —ASCAP and consent decrees—United States v. Broadcast Music, Inc.
- § 4:10 — —ASCAP and consent decree—New Developments
- § 4:11 —Musical works and compulsory licenses
- § 4:12 —Musical works and compulsory licenses
- § 4:13 — —Section 115 compulsory licenses: Conditions for claiming
- § 4:14 — —Section 115 compulsory licenses: Process for claiming
- § 4:15 — —Section 115 compulsory licenses: Royalties
- § 4:16 — —Section 114 compulsory licenses: Noninteractive digital music services
- § 4:17 Remedies for infringement
- § 4:18 Statute of Limitations
- § 4:19 Machine context and copies
- § 4:20 —Copyright of computer code

- § 4:21 —Copyright of API's
- § 4:22 —Copying into and within a computer
- § 4:23 Transitory and evanescent images and works
- § 4:24 —Subject matter issues: live performances
- § 4:25 —Infringement: digital copies of brief duration
- § 4:26 Infringing expression in digital media
- § 4:27 —Proof of copying
- § 4:28 —Wrongful copying and substantial similarity
- § 4:29 —Unprotected and nonliteral elements
- § 4:30 Fair use in digital works
- § 4:31 —Transformative and commercial uses
- § 4:32 —Intermediate copies for valid purposes
- § 4:33 Use of API
- § 4:34 Fair use in digital works—Contract and method of acquisition
- § 4:35 Program code and structure
- § 4:36 —Distinguishing expression and unprotected process
- § 4:37 —Standardization and efficiency as exclusions
- § 4:38 Digital displays and interfaces
- § 4:39 —Computer game images and themes
- § 4:40 —Digital images
- § 4:41 User interfaces and copyright
- § 4:42 DMCA: Copyright management information
- § 4:43 DMCA: Circumvention rules and trafficking
- § 4:44 —Access control measures and DMCA
- § 4:45 — —Effective controls and circumvention
- § 4:46 — —Authorization by copyright owner
- § 4:47 — —“Effective controls” on access
- § 4:48 — —“Circumventing” a technology measure
- § 4:49 —Rights protection technology
- § 4:50 —Rights issues in circumventing access technology
- § 4:51 —Exemptions
- § 4:52 —Remedies
- § 4:53 —Relation to other laws and fair use
- § 4:54 DMCA: Access control devices—Constitutionality of DMCA
- § 4:55 — —Speech or conduct?
- § 4:56 — —Content neutrality
- § 4:57 — —Nature of speech
- § 4:58 — —Permitted content-neutral regulation
- § 4:59 — —Trafficking rules and First Amendment
- § 4:60 Audio Home Recording Act
- § 4:61 Indirect infringement of digital works
- § 4:62 —Contributory infringement
- § 4:63 —Knowledge of material contribution
- § 4:64 —Dual use products: Sony case
- § 4:65 —Inducement: Grokster case
- § 4:66 —Vicarious liability
- § 4:67 Multiparty ownership in digital works

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 4:68 Multi-party ownership in digital works—Joint vs. sole ownership
- § 4:69 Control of derivative works that are not infringing
- § 4:70 Multi-party ownership in digital works—Dual ownership in collective works

PART C. NETWORK AND INTERNET ISSUES

- § 4:71 Classification of works and rights
- § 4:72 —Type of work of authorship
- § 4:73 — —Registration, programs and displays
- § 4:74 — —Works of visual art
- § 4:75 — —Transfer of ownership digitally
- § 4:76 —Exclusive rights
- § 4:77 Copying into the internet and other digital form
- § 4:78 —Non-digital works into digital environments
- § 4:79 —Digital works and computer programs
- § 4:80 Use and copying within the Internet
- § 4:81 —Direct infringement
- § 4:82 — —Passive copying or storage
- § 4:83 — —Other infringing acts
- § 4:84 —Indirect infringement
- § 4:85 —Peer to peer systems
- § 4:86 Copying within networks and the Internet—Linking and copyright infringement
- § 4:87 Copying within networks and the internet—Transitory copies
- § 4:88 Copying from the Internet
- § 4:89 Copying from the internet—Reading and copying
- § 4:90 —Online purchase or sale
- § 4:91 —Copy owners and retransmission
- § 4:92 Internet fair use
- § 4:93 —Downloading for personal use
- § 4:94 Posting as implied license and fair use
- § 4:95 Private copying
- § 4:96 Safe harbors: DMCA service provider protections
- § 4:97 —Repeat infringer policy: in general
- § 4:98 —Transmitting entities
- § 4:99 —Caching
- § 4:100 —Information placed on a system by users
- § 4:101 —512(c) Knowledge and “red flags” as an issue
- § 4:102 —Direct financial benefit and the right and ability to control
- § 4:103 —Other safe harbor issues
- § 4:104 —Links to infringing material
- § 4:105 Shareware issues
- § 4:106 Authorization of acts
- § 4:107 Public display and performance
- § 4:108 —Streaming and public performance
- § 4:109 — —Aereo

- § 4:110 — —Streaming as a cable system
- § 4:111 Transmission right
- § 4:112 Making available right
- § 4:113 Access right
- § 4:114 Interactive digital music services
- § 4:115 Aggregators, search systems and transformative fair use

PART D. INTERNATIONAL COPYRIGHT IN CYBERSPACE

- § 4:116 General themes
- § 4:117 Territoriality of copyright law
- § 4:118 Defining infringement: Choice of law
- § 4:119 Litigating infringement: Jurisdiction
- § 4:120 Intellectual property conventions
- § 4:121 International trade agreements
- § 4:122 International diversity, moral rights
- § 4:123 Choice of copyright law in online space
- § 4:124 —Direct infringement
- § 4:125 —Indirect infringement
- § 4:126 Territorial liability: Place of downloading or reception
- § 4:127 Infringing acts leading to extraterritorial infringement
- § 4:128 Foreign first sales

CHAPTER 5. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION: TRADE SECRET LAW

PART A. INTRODUCTION

- § 5:1 Overview—Chapter
- § 5:2 —Trade secrets
- § 5:3 —Confidentiality contracts

PART B. TRADE SECRET LAW

SUBPART 1. GENERAL PRINCIPLES

- § 5:4 Development of trade secret law
- § 5:5 —Restatement (Common Law) phase
- § 5:6 —UTSA phase
- § 5:7 —DTSA phase
- § 5:8 Managing a trade secret case
- § 5:9 Policies behind trade secret protection
- § 5:10 Trade secrets—Basis of protection
- § 5:11 — —Confidentiality approach
- § 5:12 — —Property approach
- § 5:13 — —Significance of the approach
- § 5:14 Trade secrets and the First Amendment
- § 5:15 —Expressive conduct
- § 5:16 —Public disclosure

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 5:17	—Breach of contract
§ 5:18	—Content component
§ 5:19	Trade secrets and the public domain
§ 5:20	Trade secrets and patents
§ 5:21	—Patent preemption
§ 5:22	—Patent disclosures
§ 5:23	Trade secrets and copyrights
§ 5:24	—Copyright preemption
§ 5:25	— —Subject matter test
§ 5:26	— —Equivalency test
§ 5:27	— —DTSA
§ 5:28	—Copyright notice
§ 5:29	—Copyright deposit

SUBPART 2. TRADE SECRET INFORMATION

§ 5:30	Trade secret information—Is there a trade secret?
§ 5:31	—Definitions
§ 5:32	— —Restatement
§ 5:33	— —UTSA
§ 5:34	— —DTSA
§ 5:35	—Specificity requirement
§ 5:36	— —Restatement
§ 5:37	— —UTSA
§ 5:38	— — —Policy goals
§ 5:39	— — —Required disclosures
§ 5:40	— — —Sample disclosures
§ 5:41	— — —Content considerations
§ 5:42	— — —Timing considerations
§ 5:43	— — —Amendment
§ 5:44	— —DTSA
§ 5:45	—Trade secret attributes
§ 5:46	— —Information
§ 5:47	— — —Restatement
§ 5:48	— — —UTSA
§ 5:49	— — —DTSA
§ 5:50	— —Value
§ 5:51	— — —Restatement
§ 5:52	— — —UTSA
§ 5:53	— — —DTSA
§ 5:54	— —Secrecy
§ 5:55	— — —Restatement
§ 5:56	— — —UTSA
§ 5:57	— — —DTSA
§ 5:58	—Determining independent economic value
§ 5:59	— —Independent
§ 5:60	— —Economic
§ 5:61	— —Value
§ 5:62	— — —Specific details

- § 5:63 — — —Direct evidence
- § 5:64 — — —Circumstantial evidence
- § 5:65 — — —Actual or potential
- § 5:66 — — —Not generally known
- § 5:67 — — —Not readily ascertainable
- § 5:68 — — —Proper means
- § 5:69 — — —Other persons
- § 5:70 —Evaluating secrecy measures
- § 5:71 — — —Internal security
- § 5:72 — — —Express confidentiality obligations
- § 5:73 — — —Implied confidentiality obligations
- § 5:74 — — —Developing an effective program
- § 5:75 — — —External security
- § 5:76 — — —Public disclosures
- § 5:77 — — —Publications
- § 5:78 — — —Internet postings
- § 5:79 — — —Court filings
- § 5:80 — — —Public records filings
- § 5:81 — — —Distribution of products
- § 5:82 — — —Reverse engineering
- § 5:83 — — — —Distribution of products
- § 5:84 — — — —Relation to copyright
- § 5:85 —Use
- § 5:86 — — —Use in business
- § 5:87 — — —Continuous use (single event)
- § 5:88 — — —Potential use (research and development)
- § 5:89 — — —Non-use (negative information)
- § 5:90 Improper Means (Lawful Conduct)
- § 5:91 —Restatement
- § 5:92 Improper Means (Lawful Means)—UTSA
- § 5:93 —DTSA

PART C. PROTECTED INFORMATION

- § 5:94 Selected Issues In Evaluating A Trade Secret
- § 5:95 Selected Issues—Novelty
- § 5:96 —Non-obviousness
- § 5:97 —Concreteness
- § 5:98 —Tangibility
- § 5:99 —Memory (Employee Knowledge)
- § 5:100 —Duration (Abandonment)
- § 5:101 —Resuscitation
- § 5:102 - 5:119 [Reserved]

PART D. PROTECTED INFORMATION

- § 5:120 Selected types of information—Customer lists and data—
Special customer relationships
- § 5:121 — — —Character of the information
- § 5:122 —Electronic databases

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 5:123 — —Internal databases
- § 5:124 — —Online databases
- § 5:125 —Digital information products
- § 5:126 — —Unrestricted distributions: Copyright
- § 5:127 — —Restricted distribution

PART E. CONFIDENTIALITY

- § 5:128 Protected relationships
- § 5:129 Contextually protected relationships
- § 5:130 —Pretransaction disclosures
- § 5:131 —Licensees
- § 5:132 —Contractors
- § 5:133 —Transferees of tangible products
- § 5:134 — —Leases of products
- § 5:135 — —Buyers of products
- § 5:136 —Employees
- § 5:137 — —Employer's internal security measures
- § 5:138 — —Employee's ability to use general skill and knowledge
- § 5:139 — — —Basic business information
- § 5:140 — — —Employee's level of skill
- § 5:141 — — —Employee's participation in developing the trade secret
- § 5:142 Contracts and confidential information
- § 5:143 —Enforceability issues
- § 5:144 — —Violations of contract law
- § 5:145 — —Unenforceability of clauses that restrain trade
- § 5:146 — —Types of provisions—Nondisclosure clauses
- § 5:147 — — —Commercial agreements
- § 5:148 — — —Employment agreements
- § 5:149 — —Noncompetition clauses
- § 5:150 — — —Substantive reasonableness requirement
- § 5:151 — — —Relationship approach
- § 5:152 — — —Geographic restrictions
- § 5:153 — — —Ancillary promises

PART F. FINDINGS OF MISAPPROPRIATION AND REMEDIES

- § 5:154 Misappropriation
- § 5:155 —Improper acquisition
- § 5:156 —Improper use or disclosure
- § 5:157 —Third parties
- § 5:158 — —Liability for knowing acceptance of misappropriated information
- § 5:159 — —Rights of innocent third parties
- § 5:160 Computer crimes as an alternative
- § 5:161 Damages
- § 5:162 —Basis of damages: Loss to secret owner vs. profit of wrongdoer

- § 5:163 —Damage computation
- § 5:164 Injunction
- § 5:165 —Availability of relief
- § 5:166 —Scope and duration
- § 5:167 Statute of limitations

CHAPTER 6. RIGHTS IN IMAGES, NAMES, PHRASES, SIGHTS, AND SOUNDS

PART A. INTRODUCTION

- § 6:1 Introduction

PART B. COPYRIGHT ISSUES

- § 6:2 Scope of copyright
- § 6:3 Authorship issues
- § 6:4 General themes relating to infringement—Derivative works and changed media
- § 6:5 —Carrying through short phrases or brief images
- § 6:6 —Works derived from the same sources
- § 6:7 Copyright small claims
- § 6:8 Visual works
- § 6:9 —Photographs
- § 6:10 — —Types of photographs—Posed or staged photographs
- § 6:11 — — —Photographs of live or natural objects or events
- § 6:12 — —Extent of copying required for an infringement
- § 6:13 —Art works
- § 6:14 —Works of visual art—Applicable works
- § 6:15 — —Special rights
- § 6:16 —Relation between pictorial works and physical objects
- § 6:17 —Reproductions and secondary editions
- § 6:18 —Ownership of title to copy—Fine art
- § 6:19 Audiovisual works: motion pictures and games
- § 6:20 Visual works—Ownership of title to copy—Nazi misappropriation—FSIA
- § 6:21 Audiovisual works: motion pictures and games—
Copyrightable elements
- § 6:22 —Intended mechanical use
- § 6:23 Fair use in motion pictures and the like
- § 6:24 Digital handling of visual works
- § 6:25 —Colorization
- § 6:26 —Other digital modifications
- § 6:27 —Pop-up displays and copyright
- § 6:28 —Circumvention of controls
- § 6:29 Characters and images
- § 6:30 —Textual characters
- § 6:31 —Visually depicted characters
- § 6:32 Slogans, titles, and names
- § 6:33 Non-fungible tokens

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 6:34 Issues in musical works
- § 6:35 —Live performances
- § 6:36 —Sound recordings
- § 6:37 — —Authorship issues
- § 6:38 — —Type and scope of protection
- § 6:39 — —Digital performance right
- § 6:40 — — —Exemptions
- § 6:41 — — —Royalty rates
- § 6:42 — — —Interactive service
- § 6:43 —Digital sampling
- § 6:44 Parodies and fair use
- § 6:45 Compulsory licenses and exemptions
- § 6:46 Music performance licensing societies
- § 6:47 Restored copyrights
- § 6:48 Transformative fair use: images, slogans and the like

PART C. TRADEMARK AND TRADE NAMES

- § 6:49 Trademark issues in general
- § 6:50 —Substantively qualifying as a mark
- § 6:51 —Generic terms
- § 6:52 —Distinctive and suggestive marks
- § 6:53 — —Use of Top Level Domain Names (e.g. “.com”)
- § 6:54 —Registration and enforcement rights
- § 6:55 —Disparaging or immoral marks
- § 6:56 —Priority, contestability and registration
- § 6:57 — —First and second users
- § 6:58 — —Transfers
- § 6:59 — —Incontestability
- § 6:60 —Intent to use registrations
- § 6:61 —Infringement issues: Likelihood of confusion
- § 6:62 — —Similarities in the mark
- § 6:63 — —Strength of the mark
- § 6:64 —Infringement issues: likelihood of confusion—Similarities in products or services
- § 6:65 — —Initial interest confusion
- § 6:66 — —Postsale confusion
- § 6:67 — —Effect of disclaimers
- § 6:68 —Infringement issues: likelihood of confusion—Use not as a mark
- § 6:69 —Use in commerce as a mark
- § 6:70 —Fair use
- § 6:71 Interface with copyright claims
- § 6:72 First Amendment protections as to expressive content
- § 6:73 Trademark issues in general—First sale
- § 6:74 Dilution of famous marks
- § 6:75 —Famous and distinctive marks
- § 6:76 —Form of dilution
- § 6:77 —Fair use

- § 6:78 Business and personal names and trademark law
- § 6:79 —Business names
- § 6:80 —Personal names and trademark
- § 6:81 Slogans and titles
- § 6:82 Parodies, criticisms, and antisites
- § 6:83 Contact numbers or letters
- § 6:84 Hidden identifiers, metatags, and search-engine terms
- § 6:85 Pop-up and keyed advertising
- § 6:86 —Trademark issues
- § 6:87 —Spyware legislation
- § 6:88 Domain names: The general issue
- § 6:89 Domain names as property
- § 6:90 Domain names as trademarks
- § 6:91 Domain names that may infringe existing marks
- § 6:92 Domain names: ACPA and cybersquatting
- § 6:93 —Bad faith intent: cybersquatting and exploitation
- § 6:94 —Distinctive and famous marks
- § 6:95 —In rem proceedings
- § 6:96 Registration of domain names: Disputed trademark issues
- § 6:97 —Reverse name hijacking
- § 6:98 International considerations

PART D. RIGHT OF PUBLICITY OR COMMERCIALIZATION

- § 6:99 Publicity as a personal right
- § 6:100 —Court recognition of the right to publicity
- § 6:101 —Incomplete adoption
- § 6:102 Relationship to other law
- § 6:103 —Copyright
- § 6:104 —Trademark
- § 6:105 —False endorsement
- § 6:106 Uses of identity covered
- § 6:107 —Advertising
- § 6:108 —Creative and other uses
- § 6:109 Elements of personal identity
- § 6:110 —Look-alikes
- § 6:111 —Sound-alikes
- § 6:112 —Characters portrayed
- § 6:113 Defenses
- § 6:114 —Consent
- § 6:115 —Newsworthiness and the first amendment
- § 6:116 First Sale Issues

PART E. PRODUCT DESIGNS: DESIGN PATENTS, TRADEMARKS ON FUNCTIONAL ELEMENTS, COPYRIGHTS ON USEFUL ARTICLES

- § 6:117 How design patents, trade dress and copyright interact

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PART F. DESIGN AND FUNCTIONALITY ISSUES

- § 6:118 Design patents
- § 6:119 —Patentability
- § 6:120 —Obviousness and anticipation
- § 6:121 —Infringement
- § 6:122 —Apple v. Samsung: Federal Circuit
- § 6:123 —Design patent damages
- § 6:124 Trademark and product design
- § 6:125 —Functionality
- § 6:126 —Federal Circuit definition of functionality
- § 6:127 —Aesthetic functionality
- § 6:128 Copyright related to “useful articles”

CHAPTER 7. COMMUNICATIONS REGULATION AND INFORMATION LAW

PART A. INTRODUCTION

- § 7:1 Introduction

PART B. BACKGROUND PRIOR TO 1996

- § 7:2 Sources and structure of law
- § 7:3 AT&T divestiture issues
- § 7:4 —Underlying issues
- § 7:5 — —Access
- § 7:6 — —Cross-subsidization
- § 7:7 —Modified consent decree
- § 7:8 — —AT&T aspects
- § 7:9 — —BOC aspects
- § 7:10 FCC regulation and technology convergence
- § 7:11 —Computer inquiries
- § 7:12 —Appellate rulings
- § 7:13 Cable and telecommunications entities
- § 7:14 1996 telecommunications reform

PART C. SELECTED COMMUNICATIONS LAW ISSUES

- § 7:15 Telecommunications and information services
- § 7:16 —Cable modem Internet access
- § 7:17 Interconnectivity
- § 7:18 Net neutrality
- § 7:19 Broadcast issues: Broadcast flag regulation
- §§ 7:20 to 7:30 [Reserved]
- § 7:31 First amendment and regulation
- § 7:32 —First principles or themes
- § 7:33 — —Content-based regulation
- § 7:34 — — —Unprotected information

- § 7:35 — — —Less protected speech
- § 7:36 — —Policies or circumstances sustaining regulation
- § 7:37 — — —Target audience: minors
- § 7:38 — — —Scarcity of media outlets and access
- § 7:39 — — —Intrusiveness of media
- § 7:40 — — —Public forums and common carriers
- § 7:41 —Categorical analysis and type of communication system
- § 7:42 — —Print, telephone, and related media
- § 7:43 — —Cable systems
- § 7:44 — —Broadcast media
- § 7:45 — —Internet systems
- § 7:46 Obscenity: Criminal and other regulation
- § 7:47 —Community or national standards
- § 7:48 —Interstate transportation of obscene materials
- § 7:49 —Online systems and diverse jurisdictions—Child pornography
- § 7:50 Indecency regulations and protecting minors
- § 7:51 —General issues: Narrow tailoring
- § 7:52 —CPOEA and Adam Walsh Act—Age Verification, Record Keeping and Labeling
- § 7:53 —Internet regulation and child pornography—CDA criminal provisions
- § 7:54 — —Child Online Protection Act (COPA)
- § 7:55 — —Empowerment provisions
- § 7:56 CDA Section 230: Liability limitations
- § 7:57 Unsolicited e-mail: Spam
- § 7:58 —Private rights and remedies
- § 7:59 Spam statutes: CAN-SPAM and state law
- § 7:60 Directory lists
- § 7:61 Customer proprietary information
- § 7:62 Hackers, wrongful use, and other intrusions
- § 7:63 —Pure hackers
- § 7:64 —Intent to destroy or misuse
- § 7:65 —Customer liability in telecommunications
- § 7:66 Automated Marketing Systems
- § 7:67 Caller ID and blocking
- § 7:68 Standards-setting entities
- § 7:69 State regulations concerning the internet
- § 7:70 Access to internet and internet sites
- § 7:71 —From public facilities
- § 7:72 —To public entity sites or systems
- § 7:73 Access to Internet and Internet sites—Private sites and systems
- § 7:74 Federal regulation of Internet gambling
- § 7:75 Enforcing rights on satellite TV signals [new]

Volume 2

CHAPTER 8. PRIVACY AND DATA PROTECTION LAW

PART A. INTRODUCTION

§ 8:1 Introduction

PART B. DEFINITIONS AND PROTECTED INTERESTS

- § 8:2 “Privacy” and “data protection” compared
- § 8:3 —Informational privacy
- § 8:4 —Data protection or fair information practice
- § 8:5 —Reasonable expectation of privacy: search and seizure law
- § 8:6 —Privacy as a balancing issue
- § 8:7 Privacy defined
- § 8:8 —What is protected?—Personal information
- § 8:9 —Factors defining information as private or personal
- § 8:10 —Private contexts or locations
- § 8:11 —“Sensitive” vs. Personally Identifiable Information
- § 8:12 —Constitutional Dimensions of Privacy and Data Protection Law
- § 8:13 —Damages as an element in data protection and security cases
- § 8:14 —Article III standing
- § 8:15 — —Pre-Clapper cases
- § 8:16 — —Clapper v. Amnesty International USA
- § 8:17 — —Spokeo, Inc. v. Robins
- § 8:18 — —Post-Clapper and Spokeo cases
- § 8:19 —Damages
- § 8:20 —What are the elements of the right?
- § 8:21 — —Access to and collection of data
- § 8:22 — —Disclosure of personal data
- § 8:23 — —Use and prior notice
- § 8:24 — —Accuracy
- § 8:25 —Against whom do the rights extend?
- § 8:26 —Corporate right of privacy
- § 8:27 Individual as compared to aggregated facts
- § 8:28 Third parties that disclose information they rightfully acquired
- § 8:29 —Governmental records and disclosure policy
- § 8:30 —Information voluntarily disclosed to private parties
- § 8:31 Individual rights vs. public rights
- § 8:32 Right to anonymity
- § 8:33 Sources of law
- § 8:34 —Constitutional-law sources
- § 8:35 —Statutes

§ 8:36 —Privacy torts

PART C. COMMON LAW AND PRIVACY TORTS

- § 8:37 General common law approach
- § 8:38 General common-law approach—Highly offensive acts
- § 8:39 General common law approach—Giving publicity to facts
- § 8:40 Tort of intrusion on seclusion
- § 8:41 Tort of publishing private facts
- § 8:42 Tort of false-light publishing
- § 8:43 Tort and the right of publicity
- § 8:44 —First Amendment issues
- § 8:45 Disclosure: Risk of harm

PART D. COMMUNICATIONS PRIVACY

- § 8:46 Computer and communications privacy—In general
- § 8:47 Constitutional restrictions
- § 8:48 Statutory restrictions
- § 8:49 —Federal Wiretap Act: Interceptions of a communication
- § 8:50 — —Consent of a party
- § 8:51 — —Readily accessible systems
- § 8:52 — —Remedies
- § 8:53 ECPA: Stored Communications Act
- § 8:54 —Third-party access
- § 8:55 — —Authorization by users
- § 8:56 — —Authorization by system provider
- § 8:57 —Voluntary disclosure by the service operator
- § 8:58 — —Disclosure of content of the communications
- § 8:59 — —Noncontent transactional data
- § 8:60 —Standards for compelled disclosure
- § 8:61 — —Section 2703 before the CLOUD Act
- § 8:62 — —Section 2703 and storage on foreign servers before the CLOUD Act
- § 8:63 — —Section 2703 and storage on foreign servers after the CLOUD Act
- § 8:64 — — —Extraterritoriality provisions
- § 8:65 — — —Warrant quashing
- § 8:66 — — —Comity analysis
- § 8:67 —Executive agreements
- § 8:68 —Duty of service providers to assist law enforcement
- § 8:69 —CPNI and other customer proprietary information
- § 8:70 Stored distinguished from intercepted communications
- § 8:71 Statutory restrictions—Federal Computer Fraud and Abuse Act [CFAA]
- § 8:72 Automated surveillance of transactional information
- § 8:73 —Pen registers
- § 8:74 —Display pagers
- § 8:75 —Caller identification systems

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 8:76 E-mail privacy issues
- § 8:77 —Privacy and governmental acquisition
- § 8:78 —Private parties—Public systems
- § 8:79 —Employer operated and nonpublic systems
- § 8:80 Cookies and transactional information

PART E. GOVERNMENTAL DATA COLLECTION AND DISCLOSURE

- § 8:81 General issues
- § 8:82 Governmental data collection
- § 8:83 —Statutory limitations
- § 8:84 —Constitutional right of privacy in data collection
- § 8:85 —Accuracy of data
- § 8:86 Data matching
- § 8:87 Disclosure and rights of access
- § 8:88 —Disclosure: Accessibility and search requirements
- § 8:89 —Disclosure format
- § 8:90 —Disclosures for commercial use
- § 8:91 —Disclosure of programs and models
- § 8:92 —Disclosure: Trade secrets and proprietary rights
- § 8:93 Privacy restrictions on governmental disclosure
- § 8:94 —Social Security numbers and similar data
- § 8:95 —Medical records
- § 8:96 —Driver's License
- § 8:97 Criminal records and registries

PART F. PRIVATE DATA SYSTEMS

- § 8:98 Private data systems generally
- § 8:99 Privacy rights and private entities
- § 8:100 —Private data collection
- § 8:101 —Private data use or disclosure
- § 8:102 —Mailing lists
- § 8:103 —Privacy policies
- § 8:104 — —Privacy policies as contracts
- § 8:105 — —Privacy policies as representations and violations as deceptive practices
- § 8:106 — —FTC actions
- § 8:107 — —California Online Privacy Protection Act and other state laws
- § 8:108 —Disclosure of Social Security numbers
- § 8:109 Data protection principles
- § 8:110 —European data protection
- § 8:111 —California Consumer Privacy Act
- § 8:112 — —Definitions and coverage
- § 8:113 — — —Personal information
- § 8:114 — —Definitions and Coverage—Exclusions from personal information and from coverage
- § 8:115 — —Consumer privacy rights

- § 8:116 — —Right to equal treatment and non-discrimination
- § 8:117 — —Compliance with verified requests
- § 8:118 — —Additional affirmative obligations
- § 8:119 — —Civil penalties and equitable relief; private actions
- § 8:120 Fair Credit Reporting Act
- § 8:121 Educational records
- § 8:122 Financial records and institutions
- § 8:123 —Deposit information
- § 8:124 —Gramm-Leach-Bliley Financial Institutions Act
- § 8:125 —Electronic funds transfer
- § 8:126 Children’s Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA)
- § 8:127 Information security
- § 8:128 —General security obligation
- § 8:129 —Security breach notification rules
- § 8:130 —Disposal rules
- § 8:131 Fair and Accurate Credit Transactions Act (FACT)
- § 8:132 Spyware statutes
- § 8:133 —Utah Spyware Control Act
- § 8:134 —California Consumer Protection Against Spyware Act
- § 8:135 Identity theft

CHAPTER 9. CRIMES RELATING TO INFORMATION

PART A. INTRODUCTION

- § 9:1 Introduction

PART B. GENERAL CONSIDERATIONS

- § 9:2 Crime and information generally
- § 9:3 —Financial crimes
- § 9:4 — —Deception and effective consent
- § 9:5 — —Signatures and writings
- § 9:6 — —Authorization
- § 9:7 —Information as the target
- § 9:8 Federal and state authority
- § 9:9 —Jurisdiction and scope of law
- § 9:10 — —Basic principles
- § 9:11 — —State law territoriality
- § 9:12 — —Federal scope
- § 9:13 —Federal preemption
- § 9:14 Pornography and the Internet
- § 9:15 —Impossibility defense
- § 9:16 Pornography and the internet—Images that appear to be minors

PART C. STATE LAWS

- § 9:17 Types of crimes

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 9:18	—Information theft and destruction
§ 9:19	— —Information as property
§ 9:20	— —Access as a criminal event
§ 9:21	— —Theft of information—Defining information as property
§ 9:22	— —Defining conduct as theft
§ 9:23	—Trade secret theft
§ 9:24	— —Value of the information
§ 9:25	— —Confidentiality of the information
§ 9:26	— —Conduct considered to be theft
§ 9:27	—Theft of programs or intellectual property
§ 9:28	—Damage, destroy, or modify data
§ 9:29	— —Tampering with electronic information
§ 9:30	— —Tampering that is not permanent
§ 9:31	— —Unauthorized conduct—Unauthorized access
§ 9:32	— —Unauthorized use
§ 9:33	— —Scope of authorization
§ 9:34	— —Intent and indirect access or use
§ 9:35	Valuation of assets

PART D. FEDERAL LAWS

§ 9:36	Theft of government property
§ 9:37	Interstate stolen property
§ 9:38	Electronic funds and access devices
§ 9:39	Federal copyright crime
§ 9:40	Federal Computer Fraud and Abuse Act
§ 9:41	—Scope of statute
§ 9:42	— —Protected computers
§ 9:43	— —Distributed and cloud computing
§ 9:44	— —Access
§ 9:45	— —Indirect access
§ 9:46	— —Authorization
§ 9:47	— —Transmission
§ 9:48	— —Interpretation rules
§ 9:49	—Unauthorized access and exceeding authorized access
§ 9:50	— —Types of harm
§ 9:51	— —Violating company policy
§ 9:52	— —Violating terms of use
§ 9:53	— —Employment termination
§ 9:54	— —Cease and desist letters
§ 9:55	— —Access to defraud
§ 9:56	—Civil actions
§ 9:57	—Transmission of harmful code
§ 9:58	Mail and wire fraud
§ 9:59	—Application to intangible property
§ 9:60	—Interstate communications
§ 9:61	Violations of electronic privacy law
§ 9:62	—Interception of electronic communications
§ 9:63	—E-mail systems

- § 9:64 —Descrambler devices
- § 9:65 Federal trade secret crime
- § 9:66 Identity theft
- § 9:67 Internet threats as a federal crime
- § 9:68 Internet threats—§ 875 and statutory issues
- § 9:69 —First Amendment issues
- § 9:70 Internet gambling

PART E. INTERNATIONAL ISSUES

- § 9:71 General pattern
- § 9:72 Jurisdiction
- § 9:73 —Jurisdictional bases
- § 9:74 —Territoriality
- § 9:75 —Internal effects
- § 9:76 —Limits on extraterritorial scope

CHAPTER 10. LIABILITY FOR INFORMATION THAT INJURES OTHERS

PART A. INTRODUCTION

- § 10:1 Introduction
- § 10:2 General patterns and policy issues
- § 10:3 —Public vs. private forum
- § 10:4 —False vs. correct information
- § 10:5 —Simple errors vs. fault
- § 10:6 Commercial vs. Other speech

PART B. REPUTATIONAL DAMAGE

- § 10:7 Defamation: Basic elements
- § 10:8 Choice of law
- § 10:9 Falsity of the statement
- § 10:10 —Falsity as a criterion
- § 10:11 — —Proof of falsity
- § 10:12 — —Defining truth
- § 10:13 —Opinions
- § 10:14 — —State law policy
- § 10:15 — —Constitutional protection
- § 10:16 Publication
- § 10:17 —Self-publication
- § 10:18 —Republication and online services
- § 10:19 — —Affirmative liability
- § 10:20 — —Protected conduits—Republishers
- § 10:21 — — —Vendors, bookstores, and libraries
- § 10:22 — —Online providers and CDA section 230
- § 10:23 Fault concepts
- § 10:24 —Classifying plaintiffs and issues
- § 10:25 —Actual malice

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 10:26 —Other standards and private plaintiffs
- § 10:27 Inaccurate business information
- § 10:28 —Actual malice standard
- § 10:29 —Public figures in business cases
- § 10:30 —Electronic data services and business data

PART C. RELIANCE DAMAGE: FRAUD

- § 10:31 General concepts of fraud
- § 10:32 Definition of fraud
- § 10:33 —Elements of fraud
- § 10:34 —Reliance and relationships
- § 10:35 —Fact issues and level of proof
- § 10:36 —Damages
- § 10:37 —Choice of law
- § 10:38 Misrepresentations of material fact
- § 10:39 —Puffing and opinion
- § 10:40 —Inaccurate predictions and promises
- § 10:41 —Disclosure obligations
- § 10:42 — —Affirmative statements that mislead
- § 10:43 — —Securities professionals
- § 10:44 — —Superior knowledge
- § 10:45 — —Special relationship
- § 10:46 — —Satisfying disclosure obligations
- § 10:47 —Advertising
- § 10:48 Justified reliance
- § 10:49 —Expertise and relationship
- § 10:50 —Role of a written contract
- § 10:51 — —Reliance
- § 10:52 — — —Absence of relevant information
- § 10:53 — — —Literal misrepresentation
- § 10:54 — —Avoiding reliance
- § 10:55 — — —General disclaimers and merger clauses
- § 10:56 — — —Specific disclaimers
- § 10:57 — —Choice of law and forum
- § 10:58 Standards of fault and duties of care
- § 10:59 —Reckless misrepresentation
- § 10:60 —Negligent misrepresentation
- § 10:61 —Comparative or contributory fault

PART D. OTHER TYPES OF LIABILITY FOR INFORMATION

- § 10:62 Other liability: General standards and issues
- § 10:63 —Fault levels and information liability
- § 10:64 —Relationships and information liability
- § 10:65 —Commercial and technical information
- § 10:66 Other liability: Duties of care in public forums
- § 10:67 —Negligent misrepresentation
- § 10:68 —Publishers and distributors of third-party data

- § 10:69 — —No duty for third-party data in general
- § 10:70 — —Electronic information sources
- § 10:71 — —Interactive computer service providers and Section 230
- § 10:72 — —Scope
- § 10:73 — —Judicial tests for immunity
- § 10:74 — —Application to users
- § 10:75 — —Intellectual property exception
- § 10:76 — —Preemption
- § 10:77 — —Liability for criminal advertisements
- § 10:78 — —Authors, professionals, and other information providers
- § 10:79 — —Gratuitous providers: Web sites
- § 10:80 — —Air flight charts: An anomaly
- § 10:81 Scope of liability or duty: Third-party data liability
- § 10:82 — —Foreseeability or intended effect
- § 10:83 — —Foreseeability standard
- § 10:84 — —Standard based on intent and knowledge
- § 10:85 — —Privity standard
- § 10:86 — —Reports, surveys, and other material intended for third parties
- § 10:87 Type of loss involved
- § 10:88 Exclusions, disclaimers, and reliance
- § 10:89 Ratings services
- § 10:90 Internet threats
- § 10:91 Blogs

CHAPTER 11. LICENSING OF INFORMATION ASSETS

PART A. INTRODUCTION

- § 11:1 Introduction

PART B. GENERAL ISSUES

- § 11:2 General nature of information licenses
- § 11:3 Licenses defined
- § 11:4 — —Rights: Based or contractual licenses
- § 11:5 — —Exclusive or non-exclusive licenses
- § 11:6 Licenses and conditional rights
- § 11:7 — —Rights retained by licensor
- § 11:8 — —Limits on licensee
- § 11:9 Assignment compared to license
- § 11:10 Focus of different types of licenses
- § 11:11 Patent and copyright licenses
- § 11:12 Trademark licenses
- § 11:13 Focus of different types of licenses—Trade secret licenses
- § 11:14 — —Online licenses

PART C. ANTITRUST ISSUES IN LICENSING

- § 11:15 Antitrust policy

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 11:16	—General parameters
§ 11:17	—Antitrust policy and licensing
§ 11:18	Statutory framework
§ 11:19	Method of analysis: Rule of reason and per se rules
§ 11:20	Market and economic power
§ 11:21	Defining a market
§ 11:22	Market power
§ 11:23	Scope of property right as an issue
§ 11:24	Ancillary or naked restraints
§ 11:25	Tying arrangements
§ 11:26	—Economic power
§ 11:27	—Intellectual property
§ 11:28	—Services and systems
§ 11:29	— —Separate products
§ 11:30	— —Primary product lock-in
§ 11:31	—Justifications and exceptions
§ 11:32	Package licenses
§ 11:33	Refusals to license
§ 11:34	Monopolization
§ 11:35	Antitrust injury

PART D. MISUSE DOCTRINE

§ 11:36	Patent and copyright misuse: Overview
§ 11:37	Patent misuse
§ 11:38	Copyright misuse

PART E. LICENSING AND CONTRACT DOCTRINE

§ 11:39	Sources of contract law
§ 11:40	Contract formation
§ 11:41	Required writing: Statute of frauds
§ 11:42	—The UCC
§ 11:43	—State common law
§ 11:44	—Federal requirements of a record of transfer of ownership
§ 11:45	—Federal requirements of registration of transfer of ownership
§ 11:46	Contract interpretation: Generally
§ 11:47	—Terminology unique to licensing
§ 11:48	—Federal law impact
§ 11:49	— —Federal policy as an interpretive tool
§ 11:50	— —Intellectual property law as contract default rules
§ 11:51	— —Preemptive federal rules
§ 11:52	Scope of license as a contract issue
§ 11:53	—Scope limitation or contractual promise
§ 11:54	—Broad v. Narrow Construction
§ 11:55	—New technology applications
§ 11:56	— —General issues

- § 11:57 — —Coverage of digital uses
- § 11:58 —Location restrictions
- § 11:59 Implied licenses
- § 11:60 —Implied license and estoppel
- § 11:61 —Duration of the implied license
- § 11:62 —Implied license to cure transactional defect
- § 11:63 —Implied license to complete terms
- § 11:64 —Implied license and exhaustion doctrine
- § 11:65 Parol evidence
- § 11:66 —Trade use and course of dealing and performance
- § 11:67 —Ambiguity of a term
- § 11:68 —Merger clauses
- § 11:69 Relationship of license to tangible property
- § 11:70 —First sale, exhaustion, and infringement exemptions
- § 11:71 —Patent exhaustion
- § 11:72 —First sale—Digital copies
- § 11:73 —Licenses and copy ownership
- § 11:74 —Copy ownership in absence of a license
- § 11:75 —Right to possession of copies
- § 11:76 Bona fide purchase of a license
- § 11:77 What rights are transferred
- § 11:78 Good faith in performance
- § 11:79 Best efforts
- § 11:80 Assignability of contract rights
- § 11:81 —Assignment: no contract term and no consent
- § 11:82 —Article 9 and assignability
- § 11:83 —Assigning nonexclusive licenses
- § 11:84 —Exclusive licenses
- § 11:85 —Contract terms that preclude assignment
- § 11:86 —Contract terms regulating transfer
- § 11:87 Choice of law clauses
- § 11:88 —Statutory rules
- § 11:89 —Common law and restatement
- § 11:90 —Consumer law issues
- § 11:91 Choice of judicial forum
- § 11:92 Choice of judicial forum—Judicial forum clauses
- § 11:93 Choice of judicial forum—Arbitration clauses
- § 11:94 Choice of forum—Invalidating conditions
- § 11:95 Duration of license; Termination without breach
- § 11:96 —Absence of agreed terms: Contract law rules
- § 11:97 —Absence of agreed terms: Copyright overlay
- § 11:98 Duration of license; termination without breach—Express contract term: rights validity issues
- § 11:99 Duration of license; Termination without breach—Express contract term: Rights validity issues—Duration that exceeds length of the rights
- § 11:100 Duration of license; termination without breach—Express contract term: rights validity issues—Licensee and assignor estoppel

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 11:101 Termination of a license
- § 11:102 —Termination at will
- § 11:103 —Termination other than at-will
- § 11:104 —Effect of termination

PART F. ROYALTY ISSUES

- § 11:105 Royalty duration
- § 11:106 —Postexpiration royalties
- § 11:107 —Multiple rights licenses
- § 11:108 Royalty computation
- § 11:109 —Differential rates
- § 11:110 —Most-favored licensees

PART G. LICENSOR OBLIGATIONS

- § 11:111 General considerations
- § 11:112 Warranty of title
- § 11:113 —Public-domain warranty
- § 11:114 —Exclusivity warranty
- § 11:115 —Infringement and authority warranties
- § 11:116 —Specifications and indemnity
- § 11:117 Warranty of non-interference
- § 11:118 Quality warranties
- § 11:119 —Implied warranties or obligations
- § 11:120 —Express warranties
- § 11:121 —Limited express warranties
- § 11:122 Information content licenses
- § 11:123 —Defining the product
- § 11:124 —Standard of care in data contracts
- § 11:125 —Third party beneficiaries

PART H. LICENSEE'S OBLIGATIONS AND RIGHTS

- § 11:126 Nondisclosure and information use
- § 11:127 —Contract term preserving trade secret rights
- § 11:128 —Enforceability of the term
- § 11:129 —Independence of contract claim and trade secret status
- § 11:130 Disclosure and use restrictions compared
- § 11:131 No reverse engineering clauses
- § 11:132 Non-circumvention and non-competition
- § 11:133 Modifications and improvements
- § 11:134 —Licensee's right to adapt technology
- § 11:135 — —Patent licenses
- § 11:136 — —Copyright licenses
- § 11:137 —Ownership of modifications
- § 11:138 —Antitrust and grant-back clauses
- § 11:139 — —Patent licenses
- § 11:140 — —Copyright licenses
- § 11:141 —Contract interpretation

- § 11:142 Use restrictions
- § 11:143 Digital restrictions on access and use

PART I. DISTRIBUTION LICENSES

- § 11:144 License issues related to distribution
- § 11:145 —Intellectual property infringement
- § 11:146 —Channel of distribution: Licensing controls
- § 11:147 Resale price and antitrust
- § 11:148 Non-price vertical restrictions
- § 11:149 Exclusive dealing

PART J. END USER LICENSES

- § 11:150 End-user licenses: Contract enforceability
- § 11:151 —Standard forms and licenses
- § 11:152 End-user licenses: contract enforceability—License enforceability and first sale rules
- § 11:153 —Timing of assent: shrinkwrap licenses
- § 11:154 Three party transactions
- § 11:155 End user licenses: Public policy limitations

PART K. BREACH AND CANCELLATION OF LICENSE

- § 11:156 Cancellation for material breach
- § 11:157 —Conditions that justify cancellation
- § 11:158 —Notice of cancellation
- § 11:159 Failure of a condition
- § 11:160 Remedies: contract or property claim
- § 11:161 Jurisdiction and nature of claim
- § 11:162 Electronic remedies
- § 11:163 Damages for breach
- § 11:164 Property claims against third parties
- § 11:165 —Copyright licenses and standing
- § 11:166 —Patent licenses and standing

PART L. BANKRUPTCY

- § 11:167 Effect of bankruptcy on licenses
- § 11:168 Termination of license
- § 11:169 —Licensor as bankrupt
- § 11:170 —Licensee bankruptcy

CHAPTER 12. ELECTRONIC INFORMATION CONTRACTS

PART A. INTRODUCTION

- § 12:1 Introduction

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PART B. ELECTRONIC CONTRACTS FOR INFORMATION: GENERAL CONSIDERATIONS

- § 12:2 Applicable contract law: Basic issues
- § 12:3 Type of contract law governing information contracts
- § 12:4 —Digital information provided online
- § 12:5 —Providers of online markets
- § 12:6 —Access contracts
- § 12:7 Which contract law applies?
- § 12:8 Which jurisdiction's contract law applies—General nature of the issue
- § 12:9 —United States common law
- § 12:10 —UCC Article 1
- § 12:11 —UCITA choice of law
- § 12:12 —International laws
- § 12:13 —Choice of law by contract

PART B1. VALIDITY OF ELECTRONIC CONTRACTS

- § 12:14 Validation of electronics satisfying formalities
- § 12:15 When does the validation issue arise?
- § 12:16 —No writing or signature required
- § 12:17 —Specific laws permitting electronics
- § 12:18 —Laws where interpretation suffices
- § 12:19 General validating laws: Framework
- § 12:20 Digital or secure signature laws
- § 12:21 General validation laws: Nondiscrimination laws
- § 12:22 —Uniform Electronic Transactions Act [UETA]
- § 12:23 — —Requirement of an agreement
- § 12:24 — —Substantive impact
- § 12:25 —Federal Electronic Signature Act [E-Sign]
- § 12:26 — —Requirement that record be retainable
- § 12:27 — —Consumer protection rules
- § 12:28 What validation laws govern? E-sign preemption
- § 12:29 —Pure version of UETA
- § 12:30 —Consistent laws

PART C. PROCESS OF ELECTRONIC CONTRACTING

- § 12:31 Contracts and objective assent
- § 12:32 Contract formation online
- § 12:33 —Access contracts and use of site or data
- § 12:34 —Sales or licenses of products: Third-parties
- § 12:35 — —Customer as offeror
- § 12:36 — —Separate contract and terms
- § 12:37 Electronic agents and automated systems
- § 12:38 E-mail contracts
- § 12:39 Effect of failure to form a contract

- § 12:40 Notices as a noncontractual relationship
- § 12:41 Mistakes in contracting online
- § 12:42 —Human errors and rescission right
- § 12:43 —Compliance with established procedures
- § 12:44 Attribution: Who is the other party?
- § 12:45 Electronic notices sent and received
- § 12:46 Conspicuous terms online
- § 12:47 “Clear and Conspicuous” online—Non-contractual issues
- § 12:48 Unconscionability and reasonable expectations online

PART D. SELECTED TERMS OF ELECTRONIC CONTRACTS

- § 12:49 Terms relating to system use
- § 12:50 —Service quality
- § 12:51 —Availability of access
- § 12:52 —Access using robots or electronic agents
- § 12:53 —Mass commercial e-mails
- § 12:54 —User’s compliance with law
- § 12:55 —Termination of service or access
- § 12:56 Changes in service terms
- § 12:57 Use of downloaded or accessed data
- § 12:58 Warranties as to content and products
- § 12:59 Conduits and protected interactive providers
- § 12:60 Compliance with physical-space regulations
- § 12:61 EU Distance Contracts Directive and Consumer Rights Directive
- § 12:62 Credit card receipts online

CHAPTER 13. INTERNET JURISDICTION AND GOVERNMENTAL POWERS ISSUES

PART A. GENERAL ISSUES

- § 13:1 General issues about personal jurisdiction
- § 13:2 Subject matter jurisdiction
- § 13:3 Contractual consent to jurisdiction
- § 13:4 —Presumptive enforceability
- § 13:5 —Unconscionability
- § 13:6 Fundamental public policy
- § 13:7 —Exclusivity of contractually chosen forum

PART B. PERSONAL JURISDICTION

- § 13:8 Personal jurisdiction—Generally
- § 13:9 Long-arm statutes
- § 13:10 Due process, minimum contacts and purposeful availment
- § 13:11 General jurisdiction on internet
- § 13:12 Specific jurisdiction on internet
- § 13:13 Nature of the site: Passive and interactive sites

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 13:14 —Passive sites and postings: Mere advertisement
- § 13:15 —Interactive sites
- § 13:16 The purposeful effects test
- § 13:17 Transactions and jurisdictional effects
- § 13:18 Specific, directed acts

PART C. FEDERAL LIMITS ON STATE JURISDICTION

- § 13:19 Commerce clause limits on state authority
- § 13:20 —Generally applicable state laws
- § 13:21 —Laws that focus on interstate commerce
- § 13:22 Federal statutory preemption
- § 13:23 First amendment: Access rights and public systems
- § 13:24 Laws that preclude discrimination in access and usability
- § 13:25 Laws that regulate informational content or context

PART D. INTERNATIONAL CONSIDERATIONS

- § 13:26 International jurisdiction: other countries
- § 13:27 International jurisdiction: U.S. exercise of jurisdiction over foreign actors

CHAPTER 14. ASSET-BASED FINANCING OF INFORMATION ASSETS

PART A. INTRODUCTION

- § 14:1 Introduction

PART B. INFORMATION AND OTHER PROPERTY

- § 14:2 Relation among types of collateral
- § 14:3 —Goods and contracts related to goods
- § 14:4 —Information, goods and information contracts
- § 14:5 — —Intellectual property rights as collateral
- § 14:6 — —Information and goods
- § 14:7 — —Information and contracts
- § 14:8 Types of financing and focus
- § 14:9 —Pure information-rights financing
- § 14:10 —Secondary finance: Information rights as limits
- § 14:11 Nature of the two systems in general
- § 14:12 —Federal intellectual property law
- § 14:13 —UCC Article 9
- § 14:14 Conflicting perspectives in the two systems

PART C. ISSUES IN INFORMATIONAL ASSET FINANCING

- § 14:15 Issues related to the scope of Article 9

- § 14:16 —Meaning of “security interest”
- § 14:17 —Meaning of “personal property”
- § 14:18 —Royalties and other payments
- § 14:19 —Preemption of Article 9
- § 14:20 Issues related to describing the collateral
- § 14:21 —Information and rights associated with goods
- § 14:22 —Contractual rights to payment as collateral
- § 14:23 —Intellectual property and licensed use rights
- § 14:24 —Digital information assets as collateral
- § 14:25 Issues related to creating a security interest
- § 14:26 —Describing the collateral
- § 14:27 —Developments and technology
- § 14:28 Issues relating to filing, perfection and registration
- § 14:29 —Article 9 perfection rules
- § 14:30 —Federal registration and filing systems
- § 14:31 — —Copyright: Registration and preemption issues
- § 14:32 — — —Does registration apply to security interests?
- § 14:33 — — —Federal filing and registered copyrights
- § 14:34 — — —Federal filing and unregistered copyrights
- § 14:35 — —Patents as collateral
- § 14:36 — —Trademarks as collateral
- § 14:37 — —Trade secrets as collateral
- § 14:38 Issues related to priority in intellectual property
- § 14:39 —Ownership and priority
- § 14:40 —Priority among transferees
- § 14:41 — —Article 9 priority rules
- § 14:42 — —Copyright priority rules
- § 14:43 — — —Registered copyrights and security interests
- § 14:44 — — —Unregistered copyrights and security interests
- § 14:45 — —Patent and trademark priority: Security interests
- § 14:46 —Lien creditors and bankruptcy trustees
- § 14:47 — —Copyrights and lien creditors
- § 14:48 — —Patents, trademarks, and lien creditors
- § 14:49 —Subsequent licensees and interests in property
- § 14:50 Issues related to contracts as collateral
- § 14:51 —Licensor’s cash flow as collateral
- § 14:52 — —Perfecting an interest
- § 14:53 — —Contract restrictions on transfer
- § 14:54 —Licensed rights as collateral
- § 14:55 —Priority issues and licenses as collateral

APPENDICES

- Appendix A. General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR): European Union Regulation 2016/679 (April 27, 2016)
- Appendix B. European Community Directive on Legal Protection of Databases (March 11, 1996)
- Appendix C. DMCA Exemption 2010 Rule-Making

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Appendix D. Selected Text from Federal Communications Commissions
Rule-Making on Open Internet

Appendix E. U.S. Copyright Office, The Making Available Right in the United States

Table of Laws and Rules

Table of Cases

Index