INTRODUCTION TO THE 2026-2027 EDITION

Enforcing Judgments and Collecting Debts in New York is an easy to use one volume practice reference that supplies complete, step-by-step practical advice, thorough analysis, and practice forms to handle collections cases in New York State Courts successfully.

The 2026-2027 Edition includes updates and expanded coverage on:

- CPLR 2106 allowing affirmations Answers to Interrogatories, Bills of particulars, and others as well as affirmation needed from attorney's regarding Statute of Limitations for entry by the Clerk of the Court
- New York Stop Hacks and Improve Electronic Data Security Act ("SHIELDS Act") and the New York City Stopping Harassment and Intimidation and Ensuring Lawful Debt (SHIELD) Collection Rule ("SHIELDS Rule")
- Upcoming Minimum Wage Increases
- Statutory interest rate on consumer credit judgments
- City Marshal limitations regarding their ability to execute on real property
- Recent case law and discrepancies between the Judicial departments
- Pending Legislation
- Coverage of other new and amended statutes and rules, updated case law, and additional new practice pointers throughout.