license (IIL)—Reinstatement
- § 1:12 —Ignition interlock device (IID) restriction—24/7 sobriety program monitoring requirements
- § 1:13 —Assessment and treatment requirements
- § 1:14 Punishment for Driving under the influence—Vehicle seizure and forfeiture
- § 1:15 Other consequences—Generally
- § 1:16 —Financial
- § 1:17 —Employment
- § 1:18 —Immigration and travel
- § 1:19 Jury instructions
- § 1:20 DUI/Physical Control Sentencing Guide 1985 to present
- § 1:21 Assessment-Treatment Report for DSHS Certified Agencies
- § 1:22 Earned release or “good time” and work release by county

CHAPTER 2. BEING IN ACTUAL PHYSICAL CONTROL OF A MOTOR VEHICLE

- § 2:1 Physical control—A brief history
- § 2:2 —Elements

- § 2:3 — —Being in actual physical control
- § 2:4 — —Within this state
- § 2:5 — —The two-hour rule
- § 2:6 —Statutory defenses—Generally
- § 2:7 — —Consumption after being in actual physical control
- § 2:8 — —Vehicle moved safely off the roadway prior to being pursued—Generally
- § 2:9 — — —Prior to being pursued
- § 2:10 — — —Moved safely off the roadway
- § 2:11 —Non-statutory defense—Inoperability
- § 2:12 Punishment for physical control—Generally
- § 2:13 —Prior offense defined
- § 2:14 —Jail, Electronic Home Monitoring (EHM), 24/7 Sobriety Program, and Probation
- § 2:15 —Legal financial obligations
- § 2:16 Punishment for driving under the influence—License suspension or revocation—Ignition interlock license (IIL)—Reinstatement
- § 2:17 —Ignition interlock device (IID) restriction—24/7 sobriety program monitoring requirements
- § 2:18 —Assessment and treatment requirements
- § 2:19 —Vehicle seizure and forfeiture
- § 2:20 Other consequences—Generally
- § 2:21 —Financial
- § 2:22 —Employment
- § 2:23 —Immigration and travel
- § 2:24 Jury instructions
- § 2:25 DUI/Physical Control Sentencing Guide 1985 to present
- § 2:26 Earned release or “good time” and work release by county

CHAPTER 3. DRIVING OR BEING IN ACTUAL PHYSICAL CONTROL WHILE UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF DRUGS OR THE COMBINED INFLUENCE OF ALCOHOL AND ANY DRUG

- § 3:1 Driving or physical control under the influence of drugs—Generally
- § 3:2 Quantifying drug impairment—Generally
- § 3:3 —Alprazolam (XanaxTM)
- § 3:4 —Gamma hydroxybutyrate (GHB) and Ketamine
- § 3:5 —Marijuana

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 3:6 —Methadone
- § 3:7 —Opiates
- § 3:8 —Zolpidem (Ambien^(TM)) and other benzodiazepine hypnotics
- § 3:9 Drug Evaluation and classification program—Generally
- § 3:10 —Drug categories and indicators of impairment
- § 3:11 —DRE testimony admissibility under Baity
- § 3:12 —Attacking DRE evidence
- § 3:13 Defenses—Generally
- § 3:14 DRE forms
- § 3:15 Toxicology laboratory public disclosure request—Blood drug cases

PART II. RELATED OFFENSES

CHAPTER 4. RECKLESS DRIVING

- § 4:1 Reckless driving—Generally
- § 4:2 —Elements
- § 4:3 — —Willful or wanton disregard
- § 4:4 —Prima facie evidence—Generally

- § 4:6 — —Racing
- § 4:7 — —Speeding
- § 4:8 —Defenses
- § 4:9 Punishment for reckless driving
- § 4:10 Other consequences following conviction—License suspension or revocation—Temporary restricted license (ORL)
- § 4:11 —Ignition interlock restriction—Ignition interlock license (IIL)
- § 4:12 —Financial responsibility
- § 4:13 Jury instructions

CHAPTER 5. NEGLIGENT DRIVING

- § 5:1 Negligent driving first degree—Generally
- § 5:2 Negligent driving second degree—Generally
- § 5:3 —Vulnerable user victim
- § 5:4 Negligent driving first degree—Elements
- § 5:5 — —“Negligent”
- § 5:6 — —“Exhibiting the effects”
- § 5:7 —Defenses
- § 5:8 Punishment for negligent driving first degree
- § 5:9 Other consequences following conviction—Ignition interlock restriction—Ignition interlock license (IIL)

- § 5:10 —Generally
- § 5:11 Jury instructions

CHAPTER 6. HIT-AND-RUN ATTENDED

- § 6:1 Hit-and-run attended—Generally
- § 6:2 —Elements
- § 6:3 —Defenses
- § 6:4 Punishment for felony hit-and-run attended-death and injury
- § 6:5 Punishment for non-felony hit-and-run attended
- § 6:6 Other consequences following conviction
- § 6:7 Compromise of misdemeanor
- § 6:8 License suspension or revocation—Temporary restricted license (ORL)
- § 6:9 Jury instructions
- § 6:10 Motion, affidavit, and order for compromise of misdemeanor

CHAPTER 7. HIT-AND-RUN UNATTENDED

- § 7:1 Hit-and-run unattended—Generally
- § 7:2 Hit-and-run unattended vehicle—Elements
- § 7:3 Hit-and-run unattended—Property other than a vehicle—Elements
- § 7:4 —Defenses
- § 7:5 Compromise of misdemeanor
- § 7:6 Punishment for misdemeanor hit-and-run unattended
- § 7:7 Other consequences following conviction
- § 7:8 Jury instructions
- § 7:9 Motion, affidavit, and order for compromise of misdemeanor

CHAPTER 8. RECKLESS ENDANGERMENT

- § 8:1 Reckless endangerment—Generally

- § 18:11 Operation on private property within this state

CHAPTER 19. CORPUS DELICTI

- § 19:1 Corpus delicti

PART V. THE STOP AND PRE-ARREST ACTIVITIES

CHAPTER 20. VEHICLE CONTACTS, STOPS, AND DETENTIONS

- § 20:1 Accidents, parked vehicles, and unobserved driving
- § 20:2 Stops based on observed driving
- § 20:3 Requests for license, registration and proof of insurance
- § 20:4 Length of detention
- § 20:5 Requests to exit vehicle—Drivers and passengers
- § 20:6 Community caretaking stops
- § 20:7 Pretextual stops
- § 20:8 Anonymous tip stops
- § 20:9 Stops based on known informants
- § 20:10 Fellow officer rule
- § 20:11 Roadblocks
- § 20:12 Stops based on mistake of law
- § 20:13 Stops based on radio or computer information
- § 20:14 Out of jurisdiction stops—Fresh pursuit—State stops on tribal roads

CHAPTER 21. STANDARDIZED FIELD SOBRIETY TESTING

- § 21:1 DUI and field sobriety tests
- § 21:2 History of the NHTSA standardized field sobriety tests—Development and standardization
- § 21:3 National recognition of NHTSA SFSTs and the SFST training curriculum

§ 21:4	Washington's recognition of SFSTs
§ 21:5	What NHTSA SFSTs are capable of demonstrating— Science dictates the answer
§ 21:6	Not a measure of actual physical impairment
§ 21:7	Correlation with BAC
§ 21:8	What the SFSTs were designed for: probable cause to measure BAC—Not evidence of guilt
§ 21:9	Administration of NHTSA SFSTs—Compliance with NHTSA standards
§ 21:10	Test administration
§ 21:11	Horizontal and vertical gaze nystagmus
§ 21:12	Walk and turn
§ 21:13	One leg stand
§ 21:14	Final scoring
§ 21:15	Standardized field sobriety testing—Self incrimination
§ 21:16	—Consent and coercion
§ 21:17	—Search and seizure; right to refuse
§ 21:18	Standardized field sobriety testing and the Americans with Disabilities Act
§ 21:19	Standardized Field Sobriety Test Cross Examination Tips

CHAPTER 22. PRELIMINARY OR PORTABLE BREATH TESTING (PBT)

§ 22:1	Preliminary breath testing (PBT)—Generally
§ 22:2	Washington Administrative Code provisions concerning PBTs
§ 22:3	Use to determine probable cause to arrest
§ 22:4	PBT certification
§ 22:5	Inadmissibility of PBT
§ 22:6	Admission of PBT evidence by defendant
§ 22:7	Admissibility of refusal to take PBT

PART VI. THE ARREST

CHAPTER 23. ARRESTS

§ 23:1	Probable cause to arrest

- § 24:16 —Effective January 1, 2019
- § 24:17 Implied consent—Required warnings—Advisement of the right to additional tests
- § 24:18 —Inaccurate and misleading warnings
- § 24:19 —Incomplete warnings
- § 24:20 —Confusion doctrine
- § 24:21 Blood evidence—Missouri v. McNeely
- § 24:22 Historical implied consent and blood evidence pre-Missouri v. McNeely
- § 24:23 Implied consent warnings—Blood—When officers have authority to take blood without consent
- § 24:24 WSP training concerning confusion

PART VII. CHEMICAL TESTS AND REFUSALS

CHAPTER 25. BREATH TESTING

- § 25:1 Breath testing—A brief history

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 25:2	The DataMaster™ and DataMaster CDM™
§ 25:3	Henry's Law and the partition ratio
§ 25:4	Absorption and post absorption of alcohol
§ 25:5	Body temperature and breath testing
§ 25:6	Radio frequency interference
§ 25:7	Test administration
§ 25:8	Observation period, mouth alcohol and the slope detector
§ 25:9	Effect of breathing pattern on breath test result—Generally
§ 25:10	—Law enforcement manipulation of breath test results
§ 25:11	—Questioning the assumption that end-exhaled breath is alveolar air
§ 25:12	Margins of error
§ 25:13	Interfering substances
§ 25:14	Physical conditions that can affect the breath test result—Gastro-esophageal reflux disease (GERD), diabetes, low calorie/low carbohydrate diets, asthma, candida albicans, and dentures
§ 25:15	Women and breath testing
§ 25:16	Incomplete samples and earnest attempts to provide breath sample
§ 25:17	Toxicology laboratory division external simulator solution and quality assurance solution preparation—DataMaster™ and Draeger™ instruments
§ 25:18	The WSP discovery website
§ 25:19	Admissibility of breath test evidence—City of Fircrest v. Jensen
§ 25:20	Partition ratios and corresponding differences in the actual BAC
§ 25:21	DataMaster™ codes
§ 25:22	Discovery report interpretation guide

CHAPTER 25A. COMPUTATIONAL ASPECTS OF MEASUREMENT UNCERTAINTY IN WASHINGTON STATE BREATH ALCOHOL TESTS

§ 25A:1	Measurement uncertainty—Introduction
§ 25A:2	Correcting for bias to obtain the best estimate of true BrAC
§ 25A:3	Determining the combined uncertainty of the result
§ 25A:4	Determining the probability that the “True” BrAC is less than 0.08

- § 25A:5 Flaws in the Toxicology Laboratory Division's method of determining uncertainty
- § 25A:6 Uncertainty in Criminal Proceedings
- § 25A:7 Uncertainty in Administrative Proceedings
- § 25A:8 Uncertainty Resources

CHAPTER 25B. THE DRAEGER ALCOTEST® 9510

- § 25B:1 The Draeger Alcotest® 9510—Design and general overview
- § 25B:2 —Conducting an evidential test
- § 25B:3 —Breath sampling
- § 25B:4 —Breath sample parameters
- § 25B:5 Physiological conditions
- § 25B:6 The Draeger Alcotest® 9510—Residual mouth alcohol detection
- § 25B:7 —Detection of interfering substances
- § 25B:8 —Breath temperature monitoring
- § 25B:9 —Calibration and verification of calibration
- § 25B:10 —Court challenges
- § 25B:11 The Draeger Alcotest 9510—The WebDMS Database
- § 25B:12 Draeger Database Codes
- § 25B:13 Draeger Error Codes

CHAPTER 25C. THE BREATH ALCOHOL TEST MEASUREMENT UNCERTAINTY CALCULATOR

- § 25C:1 Breath alcohol test measurement uncertainty calculator—Introduction
- § 25C:2 —Who needs this?
- § 25C:3 Building the calculator—Preparing the spreadsheet
- § 25C:4 Using the calculator—Gather the data you need for the calculator
- § 25C:5 —Entering breath test-specific data in the calculator
- § 25C:6 —Reading the results
- § 25C:7 Breath alcohol test measurement uncertainty calculator—Sample

CHAPTER 26. BLOOD TESTING

- § 26:1 Blood analysis—Generally
- § 26:2 The blood specimen and proper methods for the blood draw
- § 26:3 Headspace gas chromatography and the Washington State Toxicology Laboratory Methods

§ 26:4	Confrontation of the blood analyst and chain of custody
§ 26:5	Additional and independent testing
§ 26:6	Hospital blood testing for medical purposes— Admissibility
§ 26:7	—Methodology
§ 26:8	—HIPAA applicability
§ 26:9	Certificate of compliance from the test tube vendor
§ 26:10	How false positive serum ethanol results occur using enzyme-assay hospital tests
§ 26:11	Discovery demands and public disclosure request— Generally
§ 26:12	Public Disclosure request: Blood draw—Alcohol case
§ 26:13	Notice of appearance and demand for discovery: Blood draw—Alcohol case
§ 26:14	Public Disclosure request: Blood draw—Drug case
§ 26:15	Notice of appearance and demand for discovery: Blood draw—Drug case

CHAPTER 27. TEST REFUSALS

§ 27:1	Test refusals—Generally
§ 27:2	The implied consent law—When the law applies
§ 27:3	The right to refuse breath testing
§ 27:4	What constitutes a refusal of a breath test?
§ 27:5	Confusion doctrine
§ 27:6	Drivers incapable of providing breath sample
§ 27:7	Admissibility of “refusal” evidence—Breath or blood testing
§ 27:8	—Field sobriety testing
§ 27:9	—Preliminary breath testing
§ 27:10	Search warrants—Generally
§ 27:11	—Procedure
§ 27:12	—Probable cause
§ 27:13	— —Driving under the influence
§ 27:14	— —Citizen informants
§ 27:15	—Application
§ 27:16	—Affidavits
§ 27:17	—Telephonic
§ 27:18	—“Franks” hearing
§ 27:19	—Sample search warrant forms from WSP website

CHAPTER 28. ACCUSATORY INSTRUMENTS, FIRST APPEARANCES, AND ARRAIGNMENT

§ 28:1	Generally
--------	-----------

- § 28:2 Accusatory instruments—Commencement by filing in superior court—Felony
- § 28:3 —Commencement by filing in district court—Felony
- § 28:4 Challenging and waiving the sufficiency of the information
- § 28:5 Bill of particulars
- § 28:6 Amendment of the charging document
- § 28:7 Accusatory instruments—Commencement by filing in district or municipal court—Non-felony
- § 28:8 Certification for determination of probable cause
- § 28:9 Grand jury indictments
- § 28:10 First appearance, pre-trial conditions of release, holds, and arraignment
- § 28:11 Statutory conditions of release: IID, alcohol monitoring and 24/7 sobriety program
- § 28:12 Bail and bond
- § 28:13 Problematic pre-trial conditions of release
- § 28:14 Memorandum in opposition to pretrial conditions of release
- § 28:15 Bail Law Bench card

PART VIII. DISCOVERY AND INVESTIGATION

CHAPTER 29. DISCOVERY

- § 29:1 Discovery—Generally
- § 29:2 Obligations of prosecutor
- § 29:3 Obligations of defense
- § 29:4 Limitations in the scope of discovery
- § 29:5 Depositions—When authorized
- § 29:6 Sanctions for non-compliance
- § 29:7 Brady violations
- § 29:8 Notice of appearance and demand for discovery: Breath test
- § 29:9 Notice of appearance and demand for discovery: Blood draw—Alcohol
- § 29:10 Notice of appearance and demand for discovery: Blood—Drug case
