

INTRODUCTION

This two-volume softbound set is an invaluable, practical guide for lawyers with cases in the Southern District of New York, offering detailed information from the commencement of an action through motion practice, provisional remedies such as preliminary injunctions, and discovery. Chapters cover discovery topics such as interrogatories, depositions, privileged material, and protective orders.

This new softbound edition contains updates to text and notes through both volumes. In addition, it includes:

- Coverage of changes to the Local Rules of the United States District Courts for the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York
- Coverage of changes to the Southern District's Electronic Case Filing Rules & Instructions (Chapter 2)
- Discussion of the Court's amended procedures for filing sensitive documents under seal and the Second Circuit's decision in Giuffre v. Maxwell holding that the identification of whether a document is a judicial document is made at the time of the document's filing and is not altered by subsequent mootness. (§ 2:16)
- Coverage of a recent case on offers of judgment under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 68 (§ 2:28)
- Coverage of recent cases on default judgments (§ 2:29)
- Discussion of the new Rule 1.4.1 governing Law Student Practice (§ 4:6)
- Coverage of Local Rule 1.4 and a recent case on withdrawal of attorneys (§ 4:8)
- Coverage of a recent case on New York Judiciary Law Section 487 (§ 5:42)
- Coverage of recent cases on pleading fraud (§ 6:10)
- Coverage of recent cases on amendments to pleadings (§ 6:29)
- Coverage of recent cases on personal jurisdiction (Chapter 8)
- Coverage of recent cases on subject matter jurisdiction (Chapter 9)
- Coverage of recent cases on removal jurisdiction (§ 9:26, 9:28)
- Coverage of recent cases on abstention (Chapter 9)
- Coverage of recent cases on venue and the doctrine of forum non conveniens (Chapter 10)

- Coverage of recent cases discussing standing, including the differences between Article III and statutory standing (§ 11:7)
- Coverage of recent cases on dismissal for failure to state a claim (§ 11:12)
- Coverage of recent cases on dismissal for lack of personal jurisdiction and subject matter jurisdiction (Chapter 11)
- Coverage of recent cases on motions to compel arbitration (§ 11:36)
- Discussion of recent Supreme Court caselaw on universal or nationwide injunctions (§ 12:13)
- Coverage of a recent case on discovery for use in a foreign or international tribunal (§ 13:19)
- Coverage of recent cases on privilege (Chapter 14)
- Coverage of recent cases on depositions (Chapters 16 and 18)
- Coverage of a recent case addressing sanctions for failure to comply with discovery orders under Fed. R. Civ. P. 37 (§ 25:5)
- Coverage of recent cases discussing spoliation of evidence (§ 25:8)