

INTRODUCTION TO THE 2025 EDITION

The 2025 Edition of the California Insurance Law Handbook covers almost every conceivable insurance issue faced by California practitioners. Thomson Reuters is pleased to be able to present you with this outstanding and useful legal reference. New topics and discussion in this year's edition include:

- § 4:24. Insurer's vicarious liability for tortious acts of agents and brokers
- § 10:3. Scope of arbitration
- § 11:98. Contractual limitations periods
- § 15:8. Automobile insurance
- § 17:6. Contractual choice of law provisions
- § 20:15. Unfair Competition Law claims
- § 23:3. Wrongful acts and cyber claims
- § 23:28. Restitutionary damages
- § 25:9. Attorney fee bills and waiver of the attorney-client privilege
- § 29:22. Health insurer subrogation claims
- § 32:29. Trigger of coverage ("exhaustion" of underlying limits and self-insured retentions)
- § 37:31. Mental health conditions
- § 45:12. Contractor exclusion

- § 46:16. Civil Code § 2860: Insurer's burden of establishing absence of conflict requiring independent counsel
- § 61:34. Illusory coverage
- § 62:2. Annual aggregate limits
- § 62:7. Theft and employee dishonesty claims
- § 65:20. Examination under oath
- § 66:32. California Insurance Commissioner Lara's "Sustainable Insurance Strategy": A solution for California's property insurance crisis?
- § 78:24. Diminution in value

California Insurance Law Handbook is available on Thomson Reuters Westlaw. Simply enter "California Insurance" in the main search box and choose "California Insurance Law Handbook" from the dropdown menu.