

Table of Contents

TITLE I. SCOPE OF RULES—ONE FORM OF ACTION (RULE 1 TO RULE 2)

Rule 1. Scope and Purpose

I Purpose and Construction of the Civil Rules

- § 1:1 General standard: just, speedy, and inexpensive
- § 1:2 The Supreme Court’s application of Rule 1
- § 1:3 Not clear whether Rule 1 supplies overarching principles for rule interpretation
- § 1:4 Lower federal court usage
- § 1:5 Obligation applies to counsel too
- § 1:6 Rule 1 and cooperation

II Courts in Which the Civil Rules Apply

- § 1:7 United States District Courts
- § 1:8 —Actions and proceedings before United States Magistrate Judges
- § 1:9 Territorial Courts
- § 1:10 United States Bankruptcy Courts
- § 1:11 Tax Court
- § 1:12 Discretionarily in other federal courts

III Actions and Proceedings to Which the Civil Rules Apply

- § 1:13 All civil actions and proceedings; equity and law
- § 1:14 Removed cases
- § 1:15 Admiralty cases
- § 1:16 Other actions and proceedings to which the Civil Rules apply

IV Actions and Proceedings to Which the Civil Rules Do Not Apply

- § 1:17 Congress can displace the Civil Rules by legislation
- § 1:18 Rule 81 exceptions
- § 1:19 Federal habeas post-conviction proceedings
- § 1:20 Other exceptions

V The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Erie Doctrine

- § 1:21 The Rules Enabling Act and the rulemaking process
- § 1:22 The Erie Doctrine
- § 1:23 Start by determining the source of the federal practice at issue
- § 1:24 Conflicts involving the Civil Rules
- § 1:25 —Validity of the Civil Rule
- § 1:26 —Whether the Civil Rule is “on point”
- § 1:27 —Current Erie challenges typically focus on whether the Civil Rule applies

FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

- § 1:28 —Significance of narrow interpretation of a Civil Rule
- § 1:29 Conflicts involving federal procedural statutes
- § 1:30 Conflicts involving federal judge-made law
- § 1:31 Conflicts involving the U.S. Constitution

Rule 2. One Form of Action

I Single Form of Action

- § 2:1 Forms of action abolished
- § 2:2 Mandamus

II Legal or Equitable Relief

- § 2:3 Merger of law and equity
- § 2:4 Same procedures apply, but substantive differences are preserved
- § 2:5 Relation to pleading and joinder rules
- § 2:6 Relation to Rule 54(c) and the judgment

III Right to Jury Trial

- § 2:7 Rule 2 does not affect right to jury trial
- § 2:8 Civil action with legal and equitable claims

TITLE II. COMMENCEMENT OF ACTION; SERVICE OF PROCESS, PLEADINGS, MOTIONS, AND ORDERS (RULE 3 TO RULE 6)

Rule 3. Commencing an Action

I Commencing an Action

- § 3:1 Uniform method for commencing action
- § 3:2 What constitutes filing
- § 3:3 What constitutes a complaint
- § 3:4 Civil cover sheet
- § 3:5 Filing fees
- § 3:6 Filing fees as prerequisite to commencement

II Relation to Timeliness

- § 3:7 Determining timeliness when state law supplies the limitations period
- § 3:8 Rule 3 defines timeliness for federal-law claims with borrowed limitations periods

III Related Matters

- § 3:9 Other timing matters that relate to commencement
- § 3:10 Service under Rule 4
- § 3:11 Signing under Rule 11
- § 3:12 Amended complaints
- § 3:13 Prisoner Litigation Reform Act
- § 3:14 Removal from state court

Rule 4. Summons

I Overview

- § 4:1 Service of process, in general

II Major Concepts Under Rule 4

- § 4:2 Role of service and its relation to due process

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 4:3 Methods of service under Rule 4
- § 4:4 Time for effecting service
- § 4:5 Role of Rule 4(k)
- § 4:6 Waiver of service option
- § 4:7 Service in removed cases
- § 4:8 Service of papers other than the summons and complaint
- § 4:9 Service of amended complaints
- § 4:10 Service during Civil Rules emergencies

III Form and Contents of the Summons

- § 4:11 Contents of the summons
- § 4:12 Summons forms
- § 4:13 Defects and amendment

IV Issuance

- § 4:14 Issuance of summons; multiple defendants
- § 4:15 Signing requirement

V Service

- § 4:16 Serve summons and complaint on each defendant
- § 4:17 By non-party adult
- § 4:18 By court appointment
- § 4:19 Remedy when proper service is not made

VI Waiver of Service

- § 4:20 Waiver of service of summons, generally
- § 4:21 Parties from whom waiver may be sought
- § 4:22 Waiver from defendants located abroad
- § 4:23 U.S. Marshal may seek waiver of service
- § 4:24 Plaintiff's option to seek waiver or serve
- § 4:25 Defendant's option to waive or not waive
- § 4:26 Specific requirements
- § 4:27 Required waiver form
- § 4:28 If the defendant returns the waiver form
- § 4:29 If the defendant does not waive service
- § 4:30 Expenses of service to be borne by the non-waiving defendant
- § 4:31 Relation to prevailing party cost-shifting under Rule 54(d)

VII Serving Individuals Within the United States

- § 4:32 Scope of Rule 4(e)
- § 4:33 Plaintiffs may choose from a menu of federal and state methods
- § 4:34 Incorporated state methods often supply very helpful options
- § 4:35 Method of service used must satisfy Due Process
- § 4:36 Federal method: personal service
- § 4:37 Federal method: leaving at the defendant's dwelling or usual place of abode with an eligible resident
- § 4:38 Federal method: delivery to an authorized agent
- § 4:39 Serving an individual by mail within the U.S.

FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

- § 4:40 Serving an individual by leaving the summons and complaint at the person's place of work
- § 4:41 Court's power to authorize improvised methods of service

VIII Serving Individuals in a Foreign Country

- § 4:42 Scope and substructure of Rule 4(f); relation to Rule 4(h)
- § 4:43 Rule 4(f)(1)—Service authorized by treaty
- § 4:44 —Hague Convention
- § 4:45 — —Alignment with Rule 4(f)'s substructure
- § 4:46 — —Postal channels
- § 4:47 Rule 4(f)(2)—Service when there is no exclusive treaty
- § 4:48 —Role in cases covered by the Hague Convention
- § 4:49 —Service according to the law of the nation in which the service is taking place
- § 4:50 —Service as directed by the foreign authority in response to a letter of request
- § 4:51 —Personal service
- § 4:52 —Service by clerk-issued certified mail
- § 4:53 Rule 4(f)(3)—Service as directed by the court
- § 4:54 — —Use when there is no exclusive treaty
- § 4:55 — —Use when the Hague Convention applies
- § 4:56 — —Service by email when the Hague Convention applies

IX Serving Minors and Incompetent Persons

- § 4:57 Service on minors and incompetent persons

X Serving Corporations and Associations

- § 4:58 Scope and structure of Rule 4(h)
- § 4:59 Serving a corporation or unincorporated association within the United States
- § 4:60 Incorporated state methods
- § 4:61 Federal method: service on an officer, managing agent, or general agent
- § 4:62 Federal method: service on authorized agent
- § 4:63 Serving a corporation or unincorporated association outside the United States
- § 4:64 Serving foreign companies within the United States

XI Serving the United States and Its Agencies, Officers, and Employees

- § 4:65 Scope and structure of Rule 4(i)
- § 4:66 Request for waiver under Rule 4(d)
- § 4:67 Service by certified mail
- § 4:68 Serving the United States
- § 4:69 Serving a federal agency or corporation
- § 4:70 Federal officer or employee in official capacity only
- § 4:71 Individual capacity claims included in service on federal officer or employee
- § 4:72 Extensions to cure defective service under Rule 4(i)(4)

XII Service Upon Foreign, State, or Local Governments

- § 4:73 Scope and structure of Rule 4(j)

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 4:74 Serving a foreign state
- § 4:75 Serving state and local governments
- § 4:76 Serving state officers

XIII Territorial Limits of Effective Service

- § 4:77 Role and structure of Rule 4(k)
- § 4:78 Rule 4(k)(1)(A)'s general adoption of state limits
- § 4:79 Rule 4(k)(1)(A) and claims under federal law
- § 4:80 Expanded jurisdiction under Rule 4(k)(1)(B)
- § 4:81 Expanded jurisdiction under Rule 4(k)(1)(C)
- § 4:82 Expanded jurisdiction under Rule 4(k)(2)

XIV Proof of Service

- § 4:83 Proof of service, generally
- § 4:84 Proof of service is prima facie evidence of proper service
- § 4:85 Challenges to sufficiency of service
- § 4:86 Failure to make proof of service; amendment of proof
- § 4:87 Proof of foreign service

XV Time Limit for Service

- § 4:88 Initial 90-day period
- § 4:89 Mandatory extension for “good cause”
- § 4:90 Discretionary extension
- § 4:91 Dismissal for failure to serve under Rule 4(m) must be without prejudice
- § 4:92 Relation to limitations
- § 4:93 Sua sponte dismissal
- § 4:94 Amended complaints
- § 4:95 Untimely objections to sufficiency of process and service are waived
- § 4:96 Timeliness of service in a foreign country
- § 4:97 Eminent domain action exception

XVI “In Rem” Actions

- § 4:98 Scope of Rule 4(n)
- § 4:99 Securing personal jurisdiction by seizing in-state assets
- Rule 4.1. Serving Other Process
 - § 4.1:1 Scope of Rule 4.1
 - § 4.1:2 Service under Rule 4.1
 - § 4.1:3 Registered judgments
 - § 4.1:4 Determining who can serve writs of execution under Rule 69
 - § 4.1:5 Service of civil contempt orders

Rule 5. Serving and Filing Pleadings and Other Papers

I Overview

- § 5:1 Service and filing of post-complaint papers, in general

II Scope of Rule 5(a)

- § 5:2 Papers that must be served under Rule 5
- § 5:3 Rule 5 service for pleadings after the original complaint

FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

- § 5:4 Rule 4 controls service of the original complaint and later pleadings asserting claims against “new” parties
- § 5:5 Parties in default
- § 5:6 Rule 45 controls service of subpoenas

III Methods of Service

- § 5:7 Determining to whom service must be directed; represented party versus pro se
- § 5:8 Service by types of physical delivery
- § 5:9 Service by mail
- § 5:10 Electronic service
- § 5:11 —CM/ECF
- § 5:12 —Other electronic means with written consent
- § 5:13 —Ordinarily complete on transmission
- § 5:14 Service by “other means”
- § 5:15 Method of service affects time for response
- § 5:16 Numerous defendants

IV What Must (and Must Not) Be Filed with the Court

- § 5:17 Papers that must be served must also be filed
- § 5:18 Discovery materials
- § 5:19 —“Used in the proceeding”
- § 5:20 Public right of access to filed materials
- § 5:21 Certificate of service
- § 5:22 Time when papers must be filed
- § 5:23 Effect of failure to file

V Process for Filing with the Court

- § 5:24 Electronic filing presumptively required for represented parties
 - § 5:25 Local control for method of filing by unrepresented parties
 - § 5:26 Nonelectronic filing usually accomplished by filing with the court clerk
 - § 5:27 Failure to follow electronic filing requirement
 - § 5:28 “After hours” hard copy filing
 - § 5:29 Filed upon receipt
 - § 5:30 Time of filing for papers filed electronically
 - § 5:31 Time of filing when CM/ECF entry fails or is not fully completed
 - § 5:32 Clerk cannot reject for defects of form
 - § 5:33 Failure to remit filing fees
 - § 5:34 In forma pauperis requests
 - § 5:35 “Mailbox rule” for pro se prisoners
- Rule 5.1. Constitutional Challenge to a Statute—Notice, Certification, and Intervention

I Overview

- § 5.1:1 Expansion of court’s statutory duty to notify

II Relation to Former Rule 24(c)

- § 5.1:2 New location

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 5.1:3 Expanded coverage

§ 5.1:4 Attorney General Article III standing

III Court's Duty to Certify

§ 5.1:5 Statutory duty to certify

§ 5.1:6 Rule 5.1 duty to certify; no forfeiture

§ 5.1:7 Applies only when the federal or state government is not a party

IV Party's Duty to Notify

§ 5.1:8 File notice with the court

§ 5.1:9 Serve notice and paper on the attorney general

§ 5.1:10 Prompt filing and service required; no forfeiture

V Timing of Intervention and Judgment

§ 5.1:11 When attorney general may intervene

§ 5.1:12 When court may enter final judgment

Rule 5.2. Privacy Protection for Filings Made with the Court

I Overview

§ 5.2:1 Privacy protection for court files, generally

§ 5.2:2 E-Government Act of 2002

II Mechanics of Rule 5.2

§ 5.2:3 General redaction requirement for paper and electronic filings

§ 5.2:4 Minors; relation to "Doe" pleading under Rule 10

§ 5.2:5 Names of parents

§ 5.2:6 Exemptions from redaction

§ 5.2:7 Special remote access rules for Social Security Appeals and Immigration Cases

§ 5.2:8 Rule 5.2 does not address whether items may be redacted in discovery

§ 5.2:9 Relation between redaction requirement and filing materials under seal

§ 5.2:10 Seeking additional protection

§ 5.2:11 Filing options

§ 5.2:12 Electronic transcripts of court proceedings

III Filers' Obligations and Waiver

§ 5.2:13 Responsibility lies with the filer, not the clerk

§ 5.2:14 Waiver of protection for person's own information

§ 5.2:15 Seeking relief after mistakenly including protected information

§ 5.2:16 Remedies for violations of Rule 5.2 involving another person's protected information

Rule 6. Computing and Extending Time; Time for Motion Papers

I Overview

§ 6:1 Scope of Rule 6

II Applicability of Time-Computation Provisions of Rule 6(a)

§ 6:2 Periods to which time-computation rules apply

FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

- § 6:3 Time-computations rules do not apply to fixed-date deadlines
- § 6:4 Relation to statutes of limitations and other claim-filing deadlines
- § 6:5 Rule 6 time counting and removal

III Operation of Rule 6(a) Time-Computation Rules

- § 6:6 Which days “count”
- § 6:7 Extend the period when the last day is a weekend or holiday
- § 6:8 The “last day” extension does not apply to fixed-date deadlines
- § 6:9 Periods stated in hours

IV Inaccessibility of the Clerk’s Office

- § 6:10 Deadlines extended
- § 6:11 “Inaccessibility rule” and fixed-date deadlines
- § 6:12 What constitutes inaccessibility
- § 6:13 Inaccessibility due to a CM/ECF shutdown
- § 6:14 Does CM/ECF make the courthouse accessible even when the clerk’s office is closed?
- § 6:15 CM/ECF, inaccessibility, and weather-related court closures
- § 6:16 General orders declaring courthouse inaccessible

V Definitions for Types of Days

- § 6:17 “Last day”
- § 6:18 Next day
- § 6:19 —Intersection with inaccessibility rule
- § 6:20 Legal holidays

VI Extensions

- § 6:21 Extensions authorized by Rule 6(b)
- § 6:22 “Good cause” when the extension is requested in advance
- § 6:23 “Excusable neglect” when the extension is sought after the deadline has passed
- § 6:24 Mistakes, inadvertence, and busy schedules generally insufficient
- § 6:25 Deliberate choices
- § 6:26 Post-deadline extension must be sought by motion
- § 6:27 Extensions lie within trial court’s discretion
- § 6:28 “After hours” or weekend filing on CM/ECF may warrant extension of time to respond
- § 6:29 Parties may not extend deadlines by agreement without court approval
- § 6:30 Deadlines that cannot be extended under Rule 6(b)
- § 6:31 Civil Rules emergencies
- § 6:32 Effect of failing to object when adversary requests an extension of a non-extendable deadline
- § 6:33 Relation to power to set dates in specific rules
- § 6:34 Relation to amendment of deadlines in scheduling order

VII Time for Serving Written Motions

- § 6:35 Default 14-day period

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 6:36 Relation to TROs and preliminary injunctions under Rule 65

§ 6:37 Relation to motions for new trial under Rule 59

VIII Adding Three Days after Being Served by Mail or Other Specified Means

§ 6:38 The “3-day” rule

§ 6:39 Does not apply to fixed-date deadlines

§ 6:40 Does not apply to periods that run from something other than service

§ 6:41 No longer applies to service via electronic means, including service through the court’s CM/ECF system

§ 6:42 Calculating the extra three days

TITLE III. PLEADINGS AND MOTIONS (RULE 7 TO RULE 16.1)

Rule 7. Pleadings Allowed; Form of Motions and Other Papers

I Overview

§ 7:1 Categories of papers that can be filed

II Pleadings Allowed

§ 7:2 Function of pleadings

§ 7:3 Seven recognized pleadings

§ 7:4 Importance of whether a paper is a pleading

§ 7:5 Answer to a counterclaim

§ 7:6 Court has wide discretion whether to permit a reply to an answer

§ 7:7 Replies in qualified immunity cases

III Motions

§ 7:8 Function of a motion

§ 7:9 Method for making a motion

§ 7:10 State grounds with particularity

§ 7:11 “Placeholder” motions

§ 7:12 Rule 10 formatting rules apply

§ 7:13 Letter motions

§ 7:14 Check local requirements

Rule 7.1. Disclosure Statement

I Overview

§ 7.1:1 Disclosures required

II Required Disclosures

§ 7.1:2 Rule 7.1(a)(1) corporate-ownership disclosures

§ 7.1:3 Rule 7.1(a)(2) attributed-citizenship disclosures

§ 7.1:4 Discretion for limited Rule 7.1(a)(2) disclosure

§ 7.1:5 Requiring all parties to file a Rule 7.1(a)(2) citizenship-disclosure statement

§ 7.1:6 Rule 7.1(a)(2) does not alter pleading requirements

III Timely Filing

§ 7.1:7 Time for filing; duty to supplement

§ 7.1:8 Failure to timely file corporate-ownership statement

- § 7.1:9 Failure to timely file attributed-citizenship statement
- § 7.1:10 Check local rules
- Rule 8. General Rules of Pleading

I Overview

- § 8:1 Scope of Rule 8

II Federal Pleading Policy

- § 8:2 The purpose of the pleadings
- § 8:3 Two basic themes of pleading under Rule 8

III Three Requirements to Plead a Claim for Relief

- § 8:4 Three requirements applicable to all claims for relief
- § 8:5 Pleading existence of absent Rule 19 party

IV The Jurisdictional Statement

- § 8:6 Short and plain statement of jurisdiction
- § 8:7 Rule 8(a)(1) refers to subject-matter jurisdiction, not personal jurisdiction
- § 8:8 Best practice for pleading subject-matter jurisdiction, generally
- § 8:9 Best practice for pleading federal-question jurisdiction
- § 8:10 Best practice for pleading diversity jurisdiction
- § 8:11 —Citizenship of parties
- § 8:12 —Relation to Rule 7.1
- § 8:13 —Amount in controversy
- § 8:14 Best practice for pleading supplemental jurisdiction
- § 8:15 Leave to amend jurisdictional allegations
- § 8:16 Jurisdictional challenges
- § 8:17 Pleading jurisdiction in removed cases

V The Statement of the Claim

- § 8:18 Scope of Rule 8(a)(2)
- § 8:19 The Conley v. Gibson standard
- § 8:20 The Twombly-Iqbal standard
- § 8:21 —Step 1
- § 8:22 —Step 2
- § 8:23 Lower court developments and application post-Iqbal
- § 8:24 Pleading and the relationship to Rule 11
- § 8:25 Pleading on information and belief
- § 8:26 Complaints that exceed notice pleading
- § 8:27 Pro se litigants
- § 8:28 Pleading deficiency dismissal usually without prejudice or with leave to amend
- § 8:29 State pleading rules do not apply

VI Demand for Relief

- § 8:30 Demand for relief, in general
- § 8:31 Judgment not limited to relief requested
- § 8:32 No dismissal if demand omitted
- § 8:33 No dismissal if improper remedy demanded

TABLE OF CONTENTS

VII Responding to the Claim

- § 8:34 Stating defenses
- § 8:35 Answers that include allegations

VIII Admitting or Denying the Allegations

- § 8:36 Three options to respond to an allegation
- § 8:37 Effect of admitting
- § 8:38 Use of other responses
- § 8:39 Partial admissions and denials
- § 8:40 Incomplete responses
- § 8:41 Asserting lack of knowledge or information
- § 8:42 General and specific denials
- § 8:43 Effect of failure to deny when a responsive pleading is required
- § 8:44 When no responsive pleading is required, new allegations are deemed denied
- § 8:45 Effect of pending pre-answer motion
- § 8:46 Moving to strike
- § 8:47 Relation to Rule 11

IX Affirmative Defenses

- § 8:48 Defendants must plead their affirmative defenses
- § 8:49 Method of pleading affirmative defenses
- § 8:50 Comparison with pleading negative defenses
- § 8:51 Pleading standard for affirmative defenses
- § 8:52 Rule 9(b) applies to fraud-based affirmative defenses
- § 8:53 Rule 8(c) list is illustrative, not exhaustive
- § 8:54 Forfeiture of unpleaded affirmative defenses
- § 8:55 Raising later by amendment
- § 8:56 Forfeiture not always enforced
- § 8:57 Raised by court sua sponte
- § 8:58 Responding to affirmative defenses

X Asserting Counterclaims & Pleading in the Alternative

- § 8:59 Asserting counterclaims
 - § 8:60 Parties may assert alternative, inconsistent, or hypothetical claims or defenses
 - § 8:61 Pleading facts inconsistently
 - § 8:62 Judicial estoppel
- Rule 9. Pleading Special Matters

I Overview

- § 9:1 Pleading of specific matters

II Capacity to Sue and Be Sued

- § 9:2 Capacity does not need to be pleaded; exception for jurisdiction
- § 9:3 Raise capacity issue by specific denial
- § 9:4 Forfeiture
- § 9:5 Does not alter burden of proof

§ 9:6 Relation to Rule 17

III Pleading Fraud or Mistake

§ 9:7 Fraud must be pleaded with particularity

§ 9:8 Application to state-law claims

§ 9:9 Application to certain federal-law claims

§ 9:10 Complying with Rule 9(b)'s "particularity requirement"

§ 9:11 Consequence of failure to plead fraud with particularity

§ 9:12 Securities fraud under the PSLRA

IV Pleading "Condition of the Mind"

§ 9:13 "Condition of mind" may be alleged generally

§ 9:14 Does not reduce pleading requirement below ordinary level

V Pleading Conditions Precedent

§ 9:15 May be pleaded generally when required to be pleaded at all

§ 9:16 Twombly standard does not apply

§ 9:17 Defendant must deny with particularity

VI Pleading Time and Place

§ 9:18 If made, time and place allegations are material

VII Pleading Special Damages

§ 9:19 Special damages must be specifically stated

§ 9:20 Purpose and application

§ 9:21 Stating specifically

§ 9:22 Effect of failure to state specifically

§ 9:23 "Essential ingredient" special damages

§ 9:24 Attorney's fees

VIII Electing Admiralty Practice

§ 9:25 Designating claims as admiralty or maritime claims

Rule 10. Form of Pleadings

I Overview

§ 10:1 Scope of Rule 10

II Naming the Parties

§ 10:2 Naming all parties in the caption

§ 10:3 Omissions and false names

§ 10:4 "Doe" pleading and other pseudonyms

§ 10:5 —Procedure

§ 10:6 Relation to jurisdiction

§ 10:7 Access to the party's real name

§ 10:8 Relation to Rule 5.2

§ 10:9 Relation to Rule 17

§ 10:10 Interlocutory appeal of denial to proceed under a pseudonym

§ 10:11 "Doe" defendants

III Paragraphs and Counts

§ 10:12 Allegations in pleadings should be in numbered paragraphs that address particular topics

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 10:13 Pleadings that fail to comply with Rule 10(b)
- § 10:14 Setting forth multiple claims and multiple defenses separately

IV Cross-references and Adoption by Reference

- § 10:15 Cross-references within the same pleading
- § 10:16 Adopting contents of other pleadings by reference
- § 10:17 Incorporation into, from, or between motions and briefs

V Attachments to the Pleadings

- § 10:18 Documents attached to pleadings
 - § 10:19 Documents referenced but not attached
 - § 10:20 What qualifies as a written instrument
 - § 10:21 Extent to which the instrument's contents are incorporated
 - § 10:22 Allegations clearly contradicted by the attached material
 - § 10:23 Conversion to summary judgment
- Rule 11. Signing Pleadings, Motions, and Other Papers; Representations to the Court; Sanctions

I Overview

- § 11:1 Basics of Rule 11
- § 11:2 Purpose of Rule 11

II Applicability of Rule 11

- § 11:3 Non-discovery papers filed in a civil action; not for misconduct generally
- § 11:4 Jurisdiction to sanction
- § 11:5 Removed cases
- § 11:6 Appellate proceedings

III The Signing Requirement

- § 11:7 All papers must be signed
- § 11:8 Form of the signature
- § 11:9 Electronic filing
- § 11:10 Verification of pleadings not required

IV Presenting Paper to Court Certifies Purpose and Content

- § 11:11 Signing, filing, or submitting
- § 11:12 Later advocating
- § 11:13 Warranties of purpose and content; duty of reasonable inquiry
- § 11:14 Objective standard controls
- § 11:15 Compliance measured at time of filing; no continuing obligation or duty to withdraw
- § 11:16 Warranties apply to claims and defenses individually
- § 11:17 No “my client made me do it” defense

V Warranty of No Improper Purpose

- § 11:18 Not submitted for any improper purpose
- § 11:19 Multiple purposes
- § 11:20 Relation between improper purpose and legal or factual frivolousness

VI Warranty That Legal Contentions Have Merit

- § 11:21 Warranted by existing law
- § 11:22 Arguments to change or make new law
- § 11:23 Objective standard based on an inquiry reasonable under the circumstances

VII Warranty That Fact Contentions Have Evidentiary Support

- § 11:24 Evidentiary support needed
- § 11:25 What constitutes adequate evidentiary support
- § 11:26 Objective assessment based on an inquiry reasonable under the circumstances
- § 11:27 Stating that contentions will likely have evidentiary support
- § 11:28 Support measured at time factual contention is made
- § 11:29 Relying on information from the client
- § 11:30 No minimum number before a violation exists
- § 11:31 No duty to disclose adverse facts
- § 11:32 Relation between Rule 11(b)(3) and Rule 8(a)(2)

VIII Warranty That Fact Denials Are Warranted

- § 11:33 Denials must be warranted on the evidence
- § 11:34 Party must reasonably investigate
- § 11:35 Relation to Rule 8(b)

IX The Decision to Impose Sanctions

- § 11:36 The court must find a Rule 11(b) violation
- § 11:37 The court must give notice and an opportunity to be heard
- § 11:38 Timing
- § 11:39 The court need not impose any sanction
- § 11:40 Explaining the decision
- § 11:41 Private Securities Litigation Reform Act cases

X Who May Be Sanctioned?

- § 11:42 The violator and other persons responsible for the violation
- § 11:43 Law firm liability
- § 11:44 Ghostwriter liability
- § 11:45 Effect of withdrawal as counsel

XI Sanctions Initiated by Party Motion

- § 11:46 Who may file
- § 11:47 When the motion should be made
- § 11:48 Three requirements for party motions under Rule 11
- § 11:49 The 21-day “safe harbor” period
- § 11:50 Service under Rule 5
- § 11:51 What must be sent; courtesy notice
- § 11:52 Substantial compliance with pre-filing service requirement
- § 11:53 Failure to wait 21 days
- § 11:54 Whether safe harbor defects must be raised with the trial court

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 11:55	Claim dismissed by the court before the 21-day period expires
§ 11:56	What constitutes withdrawal or correction
§ 11:57	Attempt to withdraw the paper after the motion is properly filed with the court
§ 11:58	Amended papers
XII Sanctions Initiated by the Court Sua Sponte
§ 11:59	Court's power to initiate sanctions by show cause order
§ 11:60	No safe harbor
§ 11:61	Higher showing may be required
XIII Types of Sanctions Available
§ 11:62	Nonmonetary directives
§ 11:63	Penalties paid to the court
§ 11:64	Attorney's fees
XIV Amount of Sanctions and Limits
§ 11:65	The lower limit: no sanctions
§ 11:66	The upper limit: sufficient to deter
§ 11:67	Court's choice of sanctions within the upper and lower limits
§ 11:68	Advisory Committee Note factors to consider
§ 11:69	Attorney's fees available only for party-initiated sanctions
§ 11:70	No monetary sanctions against represented client for unfounded legal assertions
§ 11:71	No monetary sanctions sua sponte after voluntary dismissal or settlement
§ 11:72	Award may not include expenses on appeal
XV Sanctions and Relief Other Than Rule 11
§ 11:73	Sanctions available under other rules or statutes
§ 11:74	Inherent powers
§ 11:75	Significance of availability of non-Rule 11 sanctions
§ 11:76	Notice and opportunity to be heard
§ 11:77	State law claims based on misuse of the judicial process
XVI Appellate Review of Rule 11 Sanctions
§ 11:78	After final judgment
§ 11:79	Court still deciding sanctions issues after entering final judgment
§ 11:80	Abuse of discretion standard of review
Rule 12.	Defenses and Objections: When and How Presented; Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings; Consolidating Motions; Waiving Defenses; Pretrial Hearing
I Overview
§ 12:1	The big picture of Rule 12
II Due Date for Serving an Answer
§ 12:2	Due date for most defendants
§ 12:3	United States as defendant

- § 12:4 Individual capacity suits against United States officers and employees
- § 12:5 Due date for answers to crossclaims and counterclaims
- § 12:6 Due date for replies
- § 12:7 Relation to Rule 6 time-counting rules
- § 12:8 Rule 12(a) deadlines apply when state methods of service are used
- § 12:9 Failure to timely answer
- § 12:10 Responding to amended pleadings

III Availability and Effect of Pre-Answer Motions

- § 12:11 Rule 12(b) defenses may be asserted by pre-answer motion
- § 12:12 Timely Rule 12(b) motion tolls the time to answer
- § 12:13 Filing of Rule 12 motion with tolling effect precludes default
- § 12:14 Early summary-judgment motion may also toll the time to answer
- § 12:15 Tolling under Rule 12(a)(4) and amended pleadings
- § 12:16 Rule 12(e) and Rule 12(f) objections must be asserted before answering; tolling effect

IV Motion to Dismiss for Lack of Subject-Matter Jurisdiction

- § 12:17 Types of challenges
- § 12:18 —Facial challenges
- § 12:19 —Factual challenges
- § 12:20 Relation to Rule 7.1
- § 12:21 Determining jurisdictional facts
- § 12:22 Standard of review
- § 12:23 Confusion with merits-based challenges
- § 12:24 Other types of challenges to federal subject-matter jurisdiction
- § 12:25 Effect of dismissal for lack of subject-matter jurisdiction
- § 12:26 Subject-matter jurisdiction is always open to review at any time
- § 12:27 Remand or transfer instead of dismissal

V Motions to Dismiss for Lack of Personal Jurisdiction

- § 12:28 Standard vehicle for raising personal jurisdiction challenge; alternatives
- § 12:29 Forfeiture
- § 12:30 Court should not raise sua sponte
- § 12:31 Prima facie analysis on paper submissions
- § 12:32 Court may take evidence and make findings; evidentiary hearings
- § 12:33 Burden of proof
- § 12:34 Jurisdictional discovery
- § 12:35 Appellate review
- § 12:36 Relation to Rule 4(k)
- § 12:37 Option to transfer

TABLE OF CONTENTS

VI Motions to Dismiss for Improper Venue

- § 12:38 Standard method for challenging venue
- § 12:39 Option to transfer under § 1406
- § 12:40 Procedure on Rule 12(b)(3) motion
- § 12:41 Forfeiture
- § 12:42 Not to be used to enforce forum selection clauses

VII Motions to Dismiss Based on Defective Process or Insufficient Service of Process

- § 12:43 Defects in the summons
- § 12:44 Defects in the manner of service
- § 12:45 Procedure on Rule 12(b)(5) motions
- § 12:46 Discretion to quash and order proper service
- § 12:47 Forfeiture
- § 12:48 Standard of review

VIII Motions to Dismiss for Failure to State a Claim Upon Which Relief May be Granted

- § 12:49 Challenge to the sufficiency of the complaint
- § 12:50 Challenges based on affirmative defenses
- § 12:51 Procedure on the motion
- § 12:52 Incorporated documents may trump inconsistent allegations
- § 12:53 Partial motions permitted
- § 12:54 Deferring ruling to allow discovery to support the pleadings
- § 12:55 Filing of Rule 12(b)(6) motion does not automatically stay discovery
- § 12:56 Timing of the motion
- § 12:57 No oral hearing required
- § 12:58 Sua sponte dismissals
- § 12:59 Unopposed motions
- § 12:60 Amendment as of right before dismissal
- § 12:61 Seeking leave to amend while opposing the Rule 12(b)(6) motion
- § 12:62 “Standing on the complaint” and then seeking leave to amend if dismissed
- § 12:63 Amendment after dismissal
- § 12:64 Converting the Rule 12(b)(6) motion to one for summary judgment
- § 12:65 Judicial screening of in forma pauperis complaints and prisoner complaints

IX Motions to Dismiss for Failure to Join an Indispensable Party

- § 12:66 Basis for a Rule 12(b)(7) motion
- § 12:67 No forfeiture; effect of failure to timely raise
- § 12:68 Procedure on the motion

X Motions for More Definite Statement

- § 12:69 Purpose of Rule 12(e)

FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

- § 12:70 Only applies to pleadings
- § 12:71 Relation to Rule 8 pleading standards and Rule 12(b)(6)
- § 12:72 Application in civil rights litigation
- § 12:73 Procedure under Rule 12(e)

XI Motions to Strike

- § 12:74 Purpose of Rule 12(f)
- § 12:75 Discretionary but disfavored
- § 12:76 Matters that are redundant, immaterial, impertinent, or scandalous
- § 12:77 Affirmative defenses
- § 12:78 As applied to aspects of the plaintiff's claim
- § 12:79 Only applies to pleadings
- § 12:80 Summary-judgment affidavits
- § 12:81 Timing
- § 12:82 Striking as a sanction or for noncompliance with local rules

XII Consolidation of Pre-Answer Objections and Defenses

- § 12:83 Ordinarily get just one pre-answer motion under Rule 12
- § 12:84 Rule 12(g) does not apply to non-Rule 12 motions
- § 12:85 Additional Rule 12 motion allowed for newly available Rule 12 defenses and objections
- § 12:86 Amendments to complaint may or may not trigger a second Rule 12 motion
- § 12:87 Rule 12(g) not always enforced strictly
- § 12:88 Rule 12(h)(2) preserves a “fails to state a claim” defense but does not override Rule 12(g)’s consolidation requirement
- § 12:89 Court may permit amendment of Rule 12 motion to avoid forfeiture
- § 12:90 Consolidation and forfeiture rules are defendant specific

XIII Waiver and Preservation of “Pre-Answer” Objections and Defenses

- § 12:91 Scope and structure of Rule 12(h)
- § 12:92 Four “disfavored” defenses waived if omitted from “first response”
- § 12:93 No strict 21-day deadline to raise disfavored defense
- § 12:94 Even if initially raised properly, “disfavored” defenses can still be lost for other reasons
- § 12:95 Defense of failure to state a claim preserved
- § 12:96 —Relation to Rule 12(g) and the consolidation requirement
- § 12:97 “Rule 12(b)(6)” motion filed after the answer
- § 12:98 Relation between 12(h)(2) and summary judgment
- § 12:99 Defense of failure to join a Rule 19 indispensable party preserved
- § 12:100 Subject-matter jurisdiction never waived or forfeited

XIV Judgment on the Pleadings

- § 12:101 Purpose and standards

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 12:102	Defendant motions
§ 12:103	Plaintiff motions
§ 12:104	Converting a Rule 12(c) motion to one for summary judgment
§ 12:105	Timing
Rule 13.	Counterclaim and Crossclaim
I Counterclaim Basics
§ 13:1	Two types of counterclaims
§ 13:2	Counterclaim defined
§ 13:3	Any relief can be sought
§ 13:4	Rule 13 does not confer jurisdiction
II Compulsory Counterclaims under Rule 13(a)
§ 13:5	Compulsory counterclaim barred in later action
§ 13:6	Same transaction or occurrence
§ 13:7	For compulsory counterclaim bar to apply, the plaintiff in the second action must be suing someone who was an “opposing party” in the first action
§ 13:8	No compulsion until responsive pleading is filed
§ 13:9	Rule-based exceptions
§ 13:10	Counterclaims maturing or acquired after pleading
§ 13:11	Patent infringement
§ 13:12	State counterclaim rules and claim forfeiture
III Permissive Counterclaims under Rule 13(b)
§ 13:13	Permissive defined; pleader’s option
IV Counterclaim Procedure
§ 13:14	Assert in answer or other pleading
§ 13:15	Plaintiff must respond
§ 13:16	Assert in amended pleading if omitted
§ 13:17	Asserting counterclaims when answering an amended complaint
§ 13:18	Counterclaims adding new parties
§ 13:19	Counterclaims in reply to counterclaims
§ 13:20	After-acquired counterclaims
§ 13:21	Assertion of counterclaim does not waive jurisdictional defenses
V Crossclaims under Rule 13(g)
§ 13:22	Crossclaims against a coparty
§ 13:23	Same transaction or occurrence
§ 13:24	Indemnity or contribution
§ 13:25	Asserted in a pleading
§ 13:26	Permissive
§ 13:27	Crossclaims can trigger other joinder rules; joinder of additional parties
§ 13:28	Crossclaim defendant must respond
VI Relation to Jurisdiction
§ 13:29	Subject-matter jurisdiction required

- § 13:30 Supplemental jurisdiction and compulsory counterclaims
- § 13:31 Supplemental jurisdiction and permissive counterclaims
- § 13:32 Supplemental jurisdiction and mandatory or discretionary decline over counterclaims
- § 13:33 Supplemental jurisdiction and setoff claims
- § 13:34 Supplemental jurisdiction and crossclaims.
- § 13:35 Supplemental jurisdiction and Rule 13(h) additional parties
- § 13:36 Personal jurisdiction
- § 13:37 Sovereign immunity

VII Relation to Other Judicial Efficiency Doctrines

- § 13:38 Preclusion doctrines
- § 13:39 Filing new action in federal court instead of asserting counterclaim
- § 13:40 Abstention pending resolution of parallel state-court action

VIII Relation to Other Rules

- § 13:41 Relation to Rule 21 severance
- § 13:42 Separate trials; separate judgments

Rule 14. Third-Party Practice

I Impleader Scope and Purpose

- § 14:1 Joining a new party to assert a derivative liability claim
- § 14:2 No “him, not me” claims
- § 14:3 Same transaction not enough
- § 14:4 “Inchoate” claims allowed
- § 14:5 Derivative liability when the original claim is for a declaratory judgment
- § 14:6 Impleader is optional
- § 14:7 Impleader serves the goals of efficiency and consistency
- § 14:8 Impleader lies within the judge’s discretion
- § 14:9 Legal basis for derivative liability

II Impleader Mechanics

- § 14:10 Any defending party may implead
- § 14:11 Impleader brings in a new party
- § 14:12 Impleader requires a summons and a third-party complaint
- § 14:13 Timing; when leave of court is needed
- § 14:14 Third-party defendant must respond or risk default
- § 14:15 Motion to strike, sever, or separately try
- § 14:16 Challenging whether impleader was proper
- § 14:17 Third-party defendant may assert original defendant’s defenses
- § 14:18 Impleader can be the platform for joinder of additional claims and parties
- § 14:19 Claims between third-party defendant and original plaintiff

III Jurisdiction Over the Third-Party Plaintiff’s Claims

- § 14:20 Subject-matter jurisdiction
- § 14:21 Supplemental jurisdiction
- § 14:22 Impleader of “nondiverse” party does not destroy diversity

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 14:23 Jurisdiction over “add on” claims
- § 14:24 Personal jurisdiction
- § 14:25 Venue

IV Subject-Matter Jurisdiction Over Claims Following from the Impleader Claim

- § 14:26 Subject-matter jurisdiction
- § 14:27 Supplemental jurisdiction in federal question cases
- § 14:28 Supplemental jurisdiction in diversity cases

V Relation to Preclusion

- § 14:29 Between main action and impleader claim
- § 14:30 When the derivative liability claim is litigated separately

VI Admiralty

- § 14:31 Expanded impleader in admiralty
- Rule 15. Amended and Supplemental Pleadings

I General Practice and Policy

- § 15:1 Rule 15 applies only to pleadings
- § 15:2 Structure of Rule 15
- § 15:3 Liberal amendment policy
- § 15:4 Superseding effect of amended pleading
- § 15:5 No need to replead claims dismissed with prejudice to preserve appeal
- § 15:6 Preferred form of amended pleading is whole document
- § 15:7 Defendant’s right and duty to respond to an amended complaint
- § 15:8 Responding to an amended complaint with a Rule 12 pre-answer motion
- § 15:9 Repleading counterclaims when responding to an amended complaint
- § 15:10 No need for the plaintiff to respond to an amended answer
- § 15:11 Relation to Rule 16 scheduling order
- § 15:12 Relation to voluntary dismissal under Rule 41(a)

II Amendments “As a Matter of Course”

- § 15:13 Opportunity to make one amendment without permission or consent
- § 15:14 Period to amend the complaint once as a matter of course
- § 15:15 Extension of time to respond to Rule 12 motion might not extend time to amend as a matter of course
- § 15:16 Period to amend the answer once as a matter of course
- § 15:17 Relation to Rule 16 scheduling order deadline
- § 15:18 Multiple defendants
- § 15:19 Effect of an amended complaint on a pending Rule 12(b)(6) motion
- § 15:20 Amendment as of right after amending with party consent or leave of court
- § 15:21 Amendment as of right after dismissal
- § 15:22 Amendment as of right after removal

§ 15:23 Counterclaims in response to amended complaint

§ 15:24 New affirmative defenses in response to amended complaint

§ 15:25 Adding new parties; relation to Rule 21

III Amendments by Written Consent of the Adverse Party

§ 15:26 Amendments by written consent, generally

§ 15:27 Court's ability to refuse amended pleading

IV Amendments with Leave of Court

§ 15:28 Liberal amendment policy

§ 15:29 Court's discretion

§ 15:30 Leave to amend factor: delay

§ 15:31 Leave to amend factor: prejudice

§ 15:32 Leave to amend factor: futility

§ 15:33 Successive requests for leave to amend

§ 15:34 Amendments that would destroy jurisdiction

§ 15:35 Leave to amend is sought by motion

§ 15:36 Attaching a copy of the proposed amended complaint

§ 15:37 Requests made in briefs

§ 15:38 Amendments filed without having sought leave

§ 15:39 Court generally has no duty to grant leave sua sponte

§ 15:40 Court may condition leave to amend

§ 15:41 Seeking leave to amend when a Rule 12(b)(6) motion to dismiss is filed

§ 15:42 Standing on the original complaint

§ 15:43 Granting leave to amend before dismissal is not a PLRA strike

§ 15:44 Leave to amend after dismissal of complaint but before final judgment

§ 15:45 Leave to amend after final judgment

§ 15:46 Leave to amend after dismissal without prejudice

§ 15:47 Leave to amend after grant of summary judgment

§ 15:48 Leave to amend after scheduling order deadline has passed

§ 15:49 Leave to amend before trial but after the Rule 16(e) final pretrial order has been entered

§ 15:50 Motions seeking leave to add or drop a party

V Trial Amendments

§ 15:51 Two situations covered by Rule 15(b)

§ 15:52 Issues tried without objection

§ 15:53 Court may—but need not—conform the pleadings

§ 15:54 Court's options when an objection is made

§ 15:55 Standard of review

§ 15:56 Relation to pretrial order under Rule 16(e)

§ 15:57 Application to pretrial proceedings

VI Overview of Relation Back and Rule 15(c)

§ 15:58 Function of Rule 15(c)

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 15:59	Relation back often invoked when party seeks leave to amend under Rule 15(a)
§ 15:60	Relation back and amendments made as of right
§ 15:61	Renumbered in 2007 restyling
§ 15:62	Relationship between Rule 15(c)(1)'s subsections
§ 15:63	Relation back must be both needed and helpful
§ 15:64	What the amended complaint can relate back to § 15:65	Standard of review of relation back decisions
VII Relation Back Under Rule 15(c)(1)(A)
§ 15:66	Relation back as permitted by underlying limitations law
§ 15:67	Relation back under Rule 15(c)(1)(A) often is broader than under (c)(1)(B) or (c)(1)(C)
VIII Relation Back Under Rule 15(c)(1)(B)
§ 15:68	Relation back of new claims against the existing parties
§ 15:69	Common core of operative facts
§ 15:70	Fair notice is the touchstone of relation back
§ 15:71	Notice provided by sources other than the complaint
IX Relation Back Under Rule 15(c)(1)(C)
§ 15:72	Relation back of claim against new parties
§ 15:73	Three requirements
§ 15:74	Notice required for relation back under Rule 15(c)(1)(C)
§ 15:75	Absence of prejudice
§ 15:76	Mistake of identity
§ 15:77	“Doe” defendants
§ 15:78	Replacing versus adding defendants
§ 15:79	Relation back in suits against the United States and its agencies and officers
§ 15:80	Relation back involving new plaintiffs
X Supplemental Pleadings
§ 15:81	Applies to events occurring after the initial complaint
§ 15:82	Leave always required; factors considered
§ 15:83	Not contingent on viability of original pleading
§ 15:84	Relation to Rule 15(c)
§ 15:85	Relation to exhaustion requirement for prisoner claims
§ 15:86	Relation to Rule 16(b)
Rule 16.	Pretrial Conferences; Scheduling; Management
I Overview
§ 16:1	Pretrial case management
II Pretrial Conferences Generally
§ 16:2	Active case management
§ 16:3	Practice varies widely
§ 16:4	Number of conferences
§ 16:5	Timing of different types of conferences
§ 16:6	Subjects courts may address at a pretrial conference
§ 16:7	Managing and coordinating discovery and dispositive motion practice

- § 16:8 Creative case management
- § 16:9 Lone Pine orders
- § 16:10 Streamlining the merits
- § 16:11 Who must attend pretrial conferences
- § 16:12 Inherent authority to order parties to engage in settlement activities
- § 16:13 Court should enter pretrial order after the conference

III Scheduling Conferences

- § 16:14 Relation to pretrial conference framework generally
- § 16:15 Scheduling conference is strongly recommended but not required
- § 16:16 How the scheduling conference is conducted
- § 16:17 Preference for and benefits of a “live” conference format
- § 16:18 Who must attend the scheduling conference
- § 16:19 Alternatives to scheduling conference
- § 16:20 Timing of scheduling conference
- § 16:21 Coordination with Rule 26(f) planning conference
- § 16:22 Electronic discovery issues
- § 16:23 Privilege issues and Evidence Rule 502

IV Scheduling Orders

- § 16:24 Required unless exempted by local rule
- § 16:25 When it must be issued
- § 16:26 Deadlines set in the scheduling order
- § 16:27 Pre-motion conferences for discovery disputes
- § 16:28 Court has broad power to set and enforce deadlines
- § 16:29 Modification for good cause
- § 16:30 Effect of stipulations
- § 16:31 Sanctions for disobeying the scheduling order
- § 16:32 Relation to amendments under Rule 15(a)
- § 16:33 Relation to extending deadlines under Rule 6(b)

V Settlement and ADR

- § 16:34 Rule 16 confers no new authority
- § 16:35 Authority conferred by ADR Act of 1998 and local rules
- § 16:36 Sanctions for not participating in activities covered under Rule 16
- § 16:37 Requiring someone with full settlement authority to attend
- § 16:38 Inherent authority to require ADR beyond what is now listed in Rule 16

VI Final Pretrial Conference

- § 16:39 Purpose and practice
- § 16:40 Subjects to be addressed
- § 16:41 Pre-conference submissions
- § 16:42 Relation to Rule 26(a)(3) pretrial disclosures
- § 16:43 Who must attend

VII Final Pretrial Order

- § 16:44 Supersedes and controls

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 16:45 Modified only to prevent manifest injustice
- § 16:46 Witnesses and exhibits not in the pretrial report

VIII Sanctions

- § 16:47 Sanctionable conduct; court's discretion
- § 16:48 Sanctions by motion or sua sponte
- § 16:49 Types and severity of sanctions
- § 16:50 Other sources of authority to sanction
- Rule 16.1. Multidistrict Litigation
 - § 16.1:1 Scope
 - § 16.1:2 Initial management conference
 - § 16.1:3 Report for the conference
 - § 16.1:4 Initial management order

TITLE IV. PARTIES (RULE 17 TO RULE 25)

- Rule 17. Plaintiff and Defendant; Capacity; Public Officers

I Real Party in Interest

- § 17:1 Purpose of real party requirement
- § 17:2 Holder of the substantive right; governing law
- § 17:3 Illustrative list
- § 17:4 Bankruptcy trustee
- § 17:5 Assignees
- § 17:6 Shareholder derivative suits
- § 17:7 Ways to challenge real party status
- § 17:8 Real party challenges waived if not timely raised; sua sponte challenge
- § 17:9 Plaintiff's opportunity to correct real party error
- § 17:10 Reasonable time to correct before dismissal
- § 17:11 Ratification
- § 17:12 Substitution; honest and understandable mistake
- § 17:13 Effect of ratification, substitution, or joinder
- § 17:14 Lack of standing of original plaintiff
- § 17:15 Meeting statutes of limitations

II Capacity to Sue

- § 17:16 Relation to real party in interest status
- § 17:17 Determining capacity to sue
- § 17:18 Capacity is not jurisdictional and can be waived

III Representatives for Minors and Incompetent Persons

- § 17:19 Representative required
- § 17:20 Distinction between next friend and guardian ad litem
- § 17:21 Suing by next friend
- § 17:22 Appointment of guardian ad litem
- § 17:23 Federal standards control appointment of guardian ad litem
- § 17:24 Duty to inquire into need for guardian ad litem
- § 17:25 Ad litem fees taxed as costs
- § 17:26 Issuing "another appropriate order"

IV Relation to Jurisdiction

- § 17:27 Diversity generally looks to citizenship of the real party in interest
- § 17:28 Deeming provisions in diversity suits involving estates, minors, and incompetents
- § 17:29 Collusive diversity jurisdiction
- § 17:30 Standing

V Relation to Other Rules

- § 17:31 Substitution because of post-filing change
 - § 17:32 Intervention
 - § 17:33 Pleading capacity or representative status
 - § 17:34 “Doe” parties
 - § 17:35 Necessary party joinder
- Rule 18. Joinder of Claims

I Mechanics of Claim Joinder

- § 18:1 Claim joinder is essentially unlimited
- § 18:2 Claim joinder is permissive; relation to preclusion.
- § 18:3 Using Rule 18 to add claims to a “platform” claim
- § 18:4 Application of Rule 18 in multi-defendant cases
- § 18:5 Contingent claims may be joined
- § 18:6 Adding claims by amendment
- § 18:7 Judge’s authority to sever or separate

II Jurisdiction

- § 18:8 Basis for subject-matter jurisdiction required
 - § 18:9 Supplemental jurisdiction in federal-question cases
 - § 18:10 Original jurisdiction based on aggregate damages in diversity jurisdiction cases
 - § 18:11 “Collusive” claim aggregation
 - § 18:12 Personal jurisdiction over joined claims
- Rule 19. Required Joinder of Parties

I Rule 19 Basics

- § 19:1 Exception to plaintiff autonomy
- § 19:2 How Rule 19 required joinder can be raised
- § 19:3 Three-step analysis
- § 19:4 Shifting terminology: “required” vs. “necessary and indispensable”
- § 19:5 Standard of review
- § 19:6 Special pleading requirement

II Required Parties

- § 19:7 Three categories of parties who must be joined if possible
- § 19:8 Required for the court to award complete relief
- § 19:9 Required based on a claim of interest
- § 19:10 —Practical impairment
- § 19:11 — —Relation to adequate representation under Rule 19(b)
- § 19:12 —Multiple or inconsistent obligations

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 19:13 Joint tortfeasors are not required parties
- § 19:14 Persons who choose not to participate
- § 19:15 Uncooperative required plaintiffs

III Obstacles to Joining Required Party

- § 19:16 Subject-matter jurisdiction
- § 19:17 Sovereign immunity
- § 19:18 Personal jurisdiction and venue

IV When Required Party Cannot Be Joined

- § 19:19 Choice to proceed or dismiss is made in equity and good conscience
- § 19:20 Rule 19(b) factors
- § 19:21 Prejudice to absent person; Adequate representatives
- § 19:22 Absent person's or existing party's ability to avoid prejudice
- § 19:23 Shaping relief
- § 19:24 Adequate remedy and availability or lack of an alternate forum
- § 19:25 Parties to contract may be indispensable depending on relief sought
- § 19:26 Public rights exception
- § 19:27 Native American tribes

V Relation to Other Joinder Rules

- § 19:28 Rule 14 impleader
- § 19:29 Rule 24 intervention
- Rule 20. Permissive Joinder of Parties

I Operation of Rule 20

- § 20:1 Permits joinder at plaintiff's option
- § 20:2 Defendants cannot invoke
- § 20:3 Court may raise appropriateness of joinder sua sponte
- § 20:4 Broad discretion to deny joinder or to sever

II Interpretation and Application of Rule 20

- § 20:5 Broad construction
- § 20:6 Two-part test
- § 20:7 Same transaction
- § 20:8 Defining the transaction
- § 20:9 Series of transactions
- § 20:10 Common question of law or fact
- § 20:11 "Fairness" may be additional requirement
- § 20:12 No joinder of unrelated claims by single plaintiff against different defendants
- § 20:13 Defendant joinder in patent infringement cases
- § 20:14 Defendant joinder in BitTorrent file-sharing cases
- § 20:15 Joinder of plaintiffs with similar cases against different actors
- § 20:16 Impact on payment of filing fees

III Relation to Other Federal Rules

- § 20:17 Relation to claim joinder under Rule 18
- § 20:18 Counterclaimants and cross-claimants
- § 20:19 Relation to Rule 15 and amendments adding parties
- § 20:20 Relation to Rule 16 and scheduling orders
- § 20:21 Relation to Rule 21 governing misjoinder and nonjoinder
- § 20:22 Relation to consolidation under Rule 42(a)
- § 20:23 Relation to bifurcation under Rule 42(b)

IV Relation to Jurisdiction and Other Matters

- § 20:24 Party joinder and diversity jurisdiction
 - § 20:25 Supplemental jurisdiction in federal question cases
 - § 20:26 Supplemental jurisdiction in diversity cases: joined defendants
 - § 20:27 Supplemental jurisdiction in diversity cases: joined plaintiffs
 - § 20:28 State-court misjoinder and removal
 - § 20:29 Party joinder after removal
 - § 20:30 Relation to the preclusion doctrines
- Rule 21. Misjoinder and Nonjoinder of Parties

I Operation of Rule 21

- § 21:1 Actions authorized; outright dismissal prohibited
- § 21:2 Requires court order
- § 21:3 Severing or dropping parties to remedy misjoinder
- § 21:4 Court can sever properly joined parties
- § 21:5 Severing claims
- § 21:6 Effect of severing
- § 21:7 Timing of appeal
- § 21:8 Abuse of discretion

II Relation to Other Rules

- § 21:9 Relation to Rule 15 when party seeks leave of court
- § 21:10 Relation to Rule 15 when party amends as of right
- § 21:11 Relation to Rule 16 and scheduling orders
- § 21:12 Relation to Rule 42(b) bifurcation

III Relation to Subject-Matter Jurisdiction and Venue

- § 21:13 Severing diversity spoilers to retain jurisdiction
 - § 21:14 Severing misjoined parties in removed cases
 - § 21:15 Severing properly joined parties to create diversity for removal
 - § 21:16 Subject-matter jurisdiction over severed claims
 - § 21:17 Transfer after severance
- Rule 22. Interpleader

I Interpleader Policy and Practice

- § 22:1 What is interpleader
- § 22:2 Purpose and policy of interpleader
- § 22:3 Two types of interpleader

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 22:4 “True” interpleader versus “in the nature of” interpleader
- § 22:5 Two stages of interpleader
- § 22:6 Initiating an interpleader action
- § 22:7 Requirement of a single obligation
- § 22:8 Reasonable fear of multiple suits or liability
- § 22:9 Depositing stake or posting bond
- § 22:10 Claimants must answer and assert rights
- § 22:11 Counterclaims against the stakeholder
- § 22:12 Award of attorney’s fees to a disinterested stakeholder
- § 22:13 “Normal course of business” exception for fee award
- § 22:14 Discretion to decline to hear the interpleader action

II Subject-Matter Jurisdiction

- § 22:15 Rule interpleader
- § 22:16 Statutory interpleader
- § 22:17 Consider both types of interpleader for subject-matter jurisdiction options
- § 22:18 Removal of state-court interpleader actions

III Personal Jurisdiction and Venue

- § 22:19 Interpleader is an in personam action
- § 22:20 Statutory interpleader
- § 22:21 Rule interpleader
- § 22:22 Venue in interpleader actions

IV Enjoining Other Actions

- § 22:23 Statutory interpleader
- § 22:24 Rule interpleader
- § 22:25 Scope of permissible injunction
- § 22:26 Relation to Rule 65

Rule 23. Class Actions

I Overview and Core Concepts

- § 23:1 Scope of this Commentary
- § 23:2 Representative litigation
- § 23:3 Purpose of class actions
- § 23:4 Requirements for certification
- § 23:5 Notice and opt-out rights
- § 23:6 Settlement approval
- § 23:7 Subject-matter jurisdiction
- § 23:8 Securities class actions

II Prerequisites to a Class Action

- § 23:9 Four rule-based prerequisites
- § 23:10 Moving party’s burden
- § 23:11 Numerosity
- § 23:12 Commonality
- § 23:13 Typicality
- § 23:14 Adequacy of representation
- § 23:15 —Adequacy of class counsel

- § 23:16 Existence of a definable class
- § 23:17 Fail-safe classes
- § 23:18 Standing and membership in the class

III Types of Class Actions

- § 23:19 Must fit into one of the four categories in Rule 23(b)
- § 23:20 Rule 23(b)(1)(A)
- § 23:21 Rule 23(b)(1)(B)
- § 23:22 Rule 23(b)(2)
- § 23:23 —Indivisible nature of relief
- § 23:24 —Availability of monetary relief
- § 23:25 —Necessity
- § 23:26 Rule 23(b)(3)
- § 23:27 —Predominance
- § 23:28 —Superiority
- § 23:29 —Choice of law issues
- § 23:30 —Affirmative defenses
- § 23:31 —Damages
- § 23:32 —Fraud claims
- § 23:33 —The Seventh Amendment

IV The Certification Decision and Order

- § 23:34 Court must make a decision on whether to certify
- § 23:35 Time for making the certification decision
- § 23:36 Certification decision committed to trial court's discretion
- § 23:37 Who may raise the issue of certification
- § 23:38 Motions to strike the class allegations
- § 23:39 Certification hearing
- § 23:40 Rigorous analysis of requirements
- § 23:41 Certification and the merits
- § 23:42 Daubert challenges
- § 23:43 Trial plans
- § 23:44 Subclasses
- § 23:45 Issue classes
- § 23:46 Settlement classes
- § 23:47 Negotiation classes
- § 23:48 Defendant classes
- § 23:49 The certification order
- § 23:50 Power to modify or decertify the class
- § 23:51 Power to revisit an earlier certification denial
- § 23:52 Conducting and managing the class action

V Certification Notice and Opt-Out Rights

- § 23:53 Mandatory notice in (b)(3) class actions
- § 23:54 Requirements for (b)(3) certification notice
- § 23:55 Costs of giving notice
- § 23:56 Mandatory opt-out rights in 23(b)(3) class actions
- § 23:57 Notice and opt-out rights in Rule 23(b)(1) and (b)(2) class actions

TABLE OF CONTENTS

VI Settlement Approval

- § 23:58 Court must approve any settlement or voluntary dismissal
- § 23:59 Preliminary approval
- § 23:60 —Two distinct situations
- § 23:61 —Proposal to certify class for settlement
- § 23:62 Class members must get notice of the proposed settlement before the court can give final approval
- § 23:63 Combined certification notice and settlement notice in a proposed settlement class
- § 23:64 Fairness hearing required for final approval of the settlement
- § 23:65 Court must find that the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate
- § 23:66 —“Procedural” and “substantive” factors
- § 23:67 —Arm’s length negotiation
- § 23:68 —Adequacy of the relief provided
- § 23:69 —Valuing the relief provided and the claims relinquished
- § 23:70 —Equitable treatment
- § 23:71 —Considering the fee request
- § 23:72 —“Warning signs” doctrine
- § 23:73 Second opt-out
- § 23:74 Cy pres provisions in settlements
- § 23:75 Incentive awards
- § 23:76 CAFA requirements
- § 23:77 Objectors
- § 23:78 —Court must approve payments connected with withdrawn objections
- § 23:79 —Fee requests by objectors
- § 23:80 —May appeal settlement approval
- § 23:81 Disclosure of side deals

VII Interlocutory Appeal of Certification Decision

- § 23:82 What can be appealed
- § 23:83 Process and timing
- § 23:84 Criteria for permitting interlocutory appeal
- § 23:85 Prohibited end run around Rule 23(f)

VIII Appointment of Class Counsel

- § 23:86 Court must appoint class counsel
- § 23:87 Relation to adequacy of representation under Rule 23(a)(4)
- § 23:88 Selection of class counsel
- § 23:89 Interim counsel

IX Attorney’s Fees

- § 23:90 Rule 23 creates procedures for awarding attorney’s fees in class actions
- § 23:91 Claim attorney’s fees by motion
- § 23:92 Determination of a reasonable attorney’s fee
- § 23:93 Attorney’s fees under CAFA

X Subject Matter Jurisdiction

- § 23:94 Statutory basis for subject-matter jurisdiction is needed
- § 23:95 Federal-question jurisdiction
- § 23:96 General diversity jurisdiction
- § 23:97 CAFA
- § 23:98 —Removal of CAFA class actions
- § 23:99 —Timeliness of CAFA removal
- § 23:100 —Burden of proof for CAFA removal
- § 23:101 —Asserting and determining the amount in controversy for CAFA removal
- § 23:102 —Remand after denial of certification.
- § 23:103 —Interlocutory appeal of CAFA remand order

XI Preclusive Effect

- § 23:104 Class actions have preclusive effect
- § 23:105 Scope of the class action judgment
- § 23:106 Collateral attack
- § 23:107 Preclusive effect of certification denial

XII Limitations Tolling

- § 23:108 Federal-law claims
- § 23:109 Tolerated plaintiffs cannot seek class certification in their new actions
- § 23:110 No equitable tolling for statutes of repose
- § 23:111 State-law claims

Rule 23.1. Derivative Actions

I Role of Rule 23.1

- § 23.1:1 Nature and function of a shareholder derivative suit
- § 23.1:2 Applicability of Rule 23.1
- § 23.1:3 Rule 23.1 is procedural only
- § 23.1:4 Right to jury trial

II Requirements Under Rule 23.1

- § 23.1:5 Adequate representation
- § 23.1:6 Verification and special pleading requirements
- § 23.1:7 Special pleading requirement: contemporaneous ownership
- § 23.1:8 Special pleading requirement: no collusion
- § 23.1:9 Special pleading requirement: demand
- § 23.1:10 Standard of review for Rule 23.1 pleadings dismissals
- § 23.1:11 Court must approve settlement or voluntary dismissal

III Jurisdiction and Venue

- § 23.1:12 Diversity jurisdiction
- § 23.1:13 Personal jurisdiction
- § 23.1:14 Venue

Rule 23.2. Actions Relating to Unincorporated Associations

- § 23.2:1 History and purpose of Rule 23.2
- § 23.2:2 Adequate representation

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 23.2:3	Applicability of Rule 23(a) class action prerequisites
§ 23.2:4	Applicability of Rule 23.2 when jural capacity exists under state law
§ 23.2:5	Relation to diversity jurisdiction
Rule 24.	Intervention
I Intervention Basics
§ 24:1	Two types of intervention
§ 24:2	Status of an intervenor
§ 24:3	Must file a timely motion
§ 24:4	Submit pleading with motion
§ 24:5	Appeal denial immediately
§ 24:6	Denying leave to intervene because of lack of subject-matter jurisdiction
II Intervention of Right
§ 24:7	Two categories of intervenors of right
§ 24:8	Four-part test for rule-based intervention of right
§ 24:9	Split on standard of review
III Timeliness of Motion to Intervene
§ 24:10	Timing
§ 24:11	Totality of the circumstances
§ 24:12	When timeliness clock begins
§ 24:13	Trial judge's discretion
IV Interest Relating to the Action
§ 24:14	Intervention requires a protected interest
§ 24:15	What is an "interest"
§ 24:16	Legal right not always required
§ 24:17	Economic interest
§ 24:18	Government interest in enforcing law
V Potential Impairment of the Interest
§ 24:19	Practical impairment
§ 24:20	Stare decisis effect
VI Interest Not Adequately Represented by Existing Parties
§ 24:21	No intervention if existing parties adequately represent outsider's interest
§ 24:22	Presumption for shared objectives
§ 24:23	Presumption that government adequately represents public
§ 24:24	No presumption that state attorney general adequately represents the state
§ 24:25	Disagreement over litigation strategy
VII Permissive Intervention
§ 24:26	Criteria for permissive intervention
§ 24:27	Trial court has broad discretion
VIII Late-Stage Intervention
§ 24:28	Intervention to derail settlement
§ 24:29	Intervention after final judgment

- § 24:30 Intervention to take an appeal
- § 24:31 Intervention in a case already on appeal

IX Relation to Subject-Matter Jurisdiction

- § 24:32 Joinder does not confer jurisdiction
- § 24:33 Supplemental jurisdiction in federal question cases
- § 24:34 Supplemental jurisdiction in diversity cases
- § 24:35 —Plaintiff intervenors
- § 24:36 —Defendant intervenors
- § 24:37 When intervenor is a Rule 19 party
- § 24:38 Standing

X Intervention in Specific Settings

- § 24:39 Intervening to protect a privilege
- § 24:40 Intervening to challenge confidentiality orders
- § 24:41 Intervening in a class action

XI Amicus Participation

- § 24:42 Amicus curiae, generally
- § 24:43 Trial court's discretion
- § 24:44 Not a substitute for intervention of right

Rule 25. Substitution of Parties

I Overview

- § 25:1 Scope and effect of substitution under Rule 25
- § 25:2 Timing of appellate review

II Death

- § 25:3 Rule 25(a) governs substitution when a party dies after suit commenced
- § 25:4 Trial court has discretion
- § 25:5 Claim must survive death; applicable law
- § 25:6 Status as representative or successor
- § 25:7 Substituted party assumes litigation position
- § 25:8 Effect of dismissal
- § 25:9 Roles of the motion to substitute and the statement noting death

III Death: Motion to Substitute

- § 25:10 Who may file motion to substitute; substitution sua sponte
- § 25:11 Serving the motion
- § 25:12 Timing of motion generally
- § 25:13 Statement noting death starts 90-day deadline to file motion to substitute
- § 25:14 Motion to substitute may be filed before anyone files a statement noting death

IV Death: Statement Noting Death

- § 25:15 Function of statement noting death
- § 25:16 Must be written, filed, and served
- § 25:17 Who may file and serve the statement noting the death
- § 25:18 Serving the statement noting the death

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 25:19 —Deceased plaintiffs versus deceased defendants

§ 25:20 —Deceased plaintiffs

§ 25:21 —Deceased defendants

V Incompetency

§ 25:22 Substitution of representative after litigant becomes incompetent

VI Transfer of Interest

§ 25:23 Scope and Purpose of Rule 25(c)

§ 25:24 No effect on party's rights

§ 25:25 Post-filing transfers only

§ 25:26 Government agencies

VII Public Officers

§ 25:27 Automatic substitution for official capacity suit

§ 25:28 No automatic substitution for individual capacity claims

§ 25:29 Assumes litigation position

§ 25:30 Substitution on appeal

VIII Relation to Subject-Matter Jurisdiction

§ 25:31 Post-filing death and incompetency do not affect diversity

§ 25:32 Substitution does not withdraw vested diversity jurisdiction

TITLE V. DEPOSITIONS AND DISCOVERY (RULE 26 TO RULE 37)

Rule 26. Duty to Disclose; General Provisions Governing Discovery

I Overview

§ 26:1 Foundation of discovery practice

II Required Initial Disclosures

§ 26:2 Duty to make required initial disclosures

§ 26:3 Exempted categories

§ 26:4 Altering or waiving initial disclosures for particular cases

§ 26:5 Duty to identify supporting witnesses and documents

§ 26:6 Information the party may use

§ 26:7 Identification of individuals

§ 26:8 Identification or copy of documents and ESI

§ 26:9 Duty to disclose extends to information known to the other party and to information that is publicly available

§ 26:10 Relation to “information otherwise made known” under Rule 26(e)

§ 26:11 Impeachment evidence excepted

§ 26:12 Damage calculations and insurance

§ 26:13 Consequences for failure to make required disclosures

§ 26:14 Timing of disclosures

III Required Expert Disclosures

§ 26:15 Expert disclosures, generally

§ 26:16 When is a witness giving “expert” testimony

§ 26:17 Parties must identify all witnesses who may give expert testimony

FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

- § 26:18 Parties must provide either expert reports or summary disclosures for all witnesses who may give expert testimony
- § 26:19 Scope of expert's testimony will depend on whether a report or disclosures were submitted
- § 26:20 "Report" experts
- § 26:21 —Preparation of the expert report
- § 26:22 —Purpose and required contents of the expert report
- § 26:23 "Disclosure" experts
- § 26:24 —Contents of disclosures
- § 26:25 Treating physicians
- § 26:26 Work-product protection for most communications between attorneys and "report" experts
- § 26:27 Timing of expert identification and reports
- § 26:28 Duty to supplement expert disclosures
- § 26:29 Supplementation cannot be used to add new opinions or correct defects
- § 26:30 Consequence of failing to identify expert or provide report or disclosures

IV Required Pretrial Disclosures

- § 26:31 Duty to serve and file pretrial disclosures; timing
- § 26:32 Objections
- § 26:33 Consequence of failing to make required pretrial disclosures
- § 26:34 Relationship to Rule 16(e) final pretrial order

V Scope of Discovery

- § 26:35 Discovery is broad and liberal but not unlimited
- § 26:36 Scope of discovery: relevant, not privileged, and proportional to the needs of the case
- § 26:37 Relevant to claims or defenses
- § 26:38 Purpose of eliminating the subject-matter tier
- § 26:39 The meaning of relevance
- § 26:40 Information need not be admissible to be discoverable; deletion of "reasonably calculated"
- § 26:41 Reference to discovery of sources deleted

VI Proportionality

- § 26:42 History of proportionality in Rule 26
- § 26:43 Relationship between proportionality limits and Rule 26(g)
- § 26:44 Case law endorsing proportionality
- § 26:45 Proportionality factor: importance of the issues at stake
- § 26:46 Proportionality factor: amount in controversy
- § 26:47 Proportionality factor: the parties' relative access to relevant information
- § 26:48 Proportionality factor: parties' resources
- § 26:49 Proportionality factor: importance of the discovery in resolving the issues

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 26:50 Proportionality factor: whether the burden or expense of the proposed discovery outweighs its likely benefit
- § 26:51 No rigid formulas or priority among the factors
- § 26:52 No new burdens on requesting parties
- § 26:53 No boilerplate proportionality objections
- § 26:54 Burden of supporting claims about the proportionality factors
- § 26:55 Proportionality decisions committed to trial court's discretion
- § 26:56 Integral part of active case management
- § 26:57 Focusing initial discovery as a path to proportionality

VII Privileged Information

- § 26:58 Rule 26(b)(1) protects, but does not create or define, evidentiary privileges
- § 26:59 Work-product is not a privilege addressed by Rule 26(b)(1)
- § 26:60 Federal Rule of Evidence 502 limitations on waiver of attorney-client privilege and work-product protection
- § 26:61 Federal Rule of Evidence 502(a): presumption against subject-matter waiver
- § 26:62 Federal Rule of Evidence 502(b): protection for inadvertent disclosure
- § 26:63 Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d): non-waiver orders

VIII Rule 26(b)(2) Limits

- § 26:64 Rule 26(b)(2)(A): court's power to vary limits on number and length.
- § 26:65 Rule 26(b)(2)(B): does not apply to discovery from accessible sources of ESI
- § 26:66 Rule 26(b)(2)(B): discovery from inaccessible sources of ESI
- § 26:67 Rule 26(b)(2)(B): reasonable accessibility
- § 26:68 Rule 26(b)(2)(C) objections: court's independent duty

IX Judicial Management of Discovery

- § 26:69 Judicial management is an important part of the federal-court discovery scheme
- § 26:70 Collective responsibility
- § 26:71 Iterative discovery and sampling
- § 26:72 Party cooperation; acting responsibly
- § 26:73 Cost shifting

X Work-Product

- § 26:74 Federal-law standard for work-product protection
- § 26:75 Overview of Rule 26(b)(3)'s structure and operation
- § 26:76 Relationship to attorney-client privilege
- § 26:77 Documents and tangible things
- § 26:78 Anticipation of litigation
- § 26:79 By or for the party or the party's representative
- § 26:80 Work-product protection does not extend to expert materials generally

FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

- § 26:81 Overcoming work-product protection by showing substantial need and undue hardship
- § 26:82 Special protection for mental impressions
- § 26:83 Waiver or forfeiture of work-product protection
- § 26:84 Scope of waiver and inadvertent disclosure under Federal Rule of Evidence 502
- § 26:85 Person's right to obtain their own statement

XI Expert Discovery

- § 26:86 Testifying experts may be deposed
- § 26:87 Expert discovery and its relation to the work-product doctrine
- § 26:88 Work-product protection for draft reports and draft disclosures of testifying experts
- § 26:89 Work-product protection for most communications between attorneys and "report" experts
- § 26:90 Recap of what is discoverable regarding "testifying" experts
- § 26:91 Rule 26(b)(4)(C) work-product protection does not apply to communications between attorneys and non-retained "disclosure" experts
- § 26:92 Redesignating testifying expert to consulting expert
- § 26:93 Consulting experts
- § 26:94 Experts both testifying and consulting ("two hat" experts)

XII Compensating Testifying Experts for Responding to Discovery

- § 26:95 Presumptively must pay another party's retained expert to respond to discovery
- § 26:96 Application of Rule 26(b)(4)(E) expense-shifting to non-retained "disclosure" experts
- § 26:97 Calculation of fee amount generally
- § 26:98 Compensation for preparation time
- § 26:99 Compensation for travel time
- § 26:100 Compensation for reading and signing the deposition transcript
- § 26:101 Application to treating physicians
- § 26:102 Deadline for making fee motion
- § 26:103 Duty to confer before seeking expenses order
- § 26:104 Compensating for discovery from consulting experts

XIII Process for Claiming Privilege or Work-Product Protection

- § 26:105 Claiming privilege or work-product protection, generally
- § 26:106 Identifying what was withheld and why
- § 26:107 Privilege logs
- § 26:108 Difference between claiming privilege and proving that it applies
- § 26:109 Duty extends only to information "otherwise discoverable"
- § 26:110 Timing

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 26:111 Consequences of failing to make or perfect a timely and sufficient claim of privilege or work-product protection
- § 26:112 Invoking privilege or work-product protection after disclosure has occurred
- § 26:113 Not a basis to recover irrelevant documents
- § 26:114 Challenge method does not alter standards for privilege or waiver
- § 26:115 Relation to Federal Rule of Evidence 502

XIV Protective Orders

- § 26:116 Protective orders, generally
- § 26:117 Good cause
- § 26:118 Range of protections
- § 26:119 Limitations on use of information acquired through discovery
- § 26:120 Cost shifting
- § 26:121 Who may move for or challenge a protective order
- § 26:122 Which court
- § 26:123 Duty to confer
- § 26:124 Time for seeking protective order
- § 26:125 Court may issue order compelling production
- § 26:126 Fee shifting for motion winner
- § 26:127 Stipulated protective orders
- § 26:128 Blanket protective orders
- § 26:129 “Attorney’s eyes only” protective orders
- § 26:130 Relationship between discovery protective orders and the public’s right of access to court records
- § 26:131 Modifying or vacating protective orders

XV Timing and Sequence of Party-Initiated Discovery

- § 26:132 When parties may seek discovery
- § 26:133 Activities covered by the initial Rule 26(d) moratorium
- § 26:134 Exceptions to Rule 26(d)(1)
- § 26:135 Order permitting early discovery
- § 26:136 Duty to respond to premature discovery requests
- § 26:137 Early delivery of Rule 34 requests
- § 26:138 Sequence of discovery after the moratorium is lifted
- § 26:139 Court has discretion to regulate (or not regulate) sequence of discovery events
- § 26:140 Noncompliance by one party does not justify return noncompliance
- § 26:141 Removed cases

XVI Duty to Supplement or Correct

- § 26:142 Scope of the duty to supplement or correct
- § 26:143 Duty to supplement or correct is automatic
- § 26:144 The disclosures and responses that must be supplemented or corrected
- § 26:145 Supplementation or correction does not cure faulty initial disclosures

FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

- § 26:146 Clearly signaling that new or corrected documents are being produced
- § 26:147 Exception for “information otherwise made known”
- § 26:148 When to supplement or correct non-expert discovery
- § 26:149 Expert supplementation
- § 26:150 Failure to supplement

XVII Discovery Conference

- § 26:151 Discovery planning conference generally required
- § 26:152 Timing of the conference
- § 26:153 Who must participate; sanctions for failure to participate
- § 26:154 The format of the conference
- § 26:155 Purpose and topics
- § 26:156 Foundation for better judicial case management
- § 26:157 Proportionality
- § 26:158 The importance of planning for electronic discovery
- § 26:159 Preservation of ESI
- § 26:160 The written discovery plan

XVIII Signature and Sanctions

- § 26:161 Signing requirement
 - § 26:162 Certification standard for disclosures
 - § 26:163 Certification standard for discovery requests and responses
 - § 26:164 Relationship between Rule 26(g) certification and proportionality
 - § 26:165 Relationship between the attorney’s certification of a discovery response, the search process, and the accuracy or truthfulness of the response
 - § 26:166 Electronic discovery and the duty of competence
 - § 26:167 Objective standard
 - § 26:168 Taking Rule 26(g) seriously
 - § 26:169 Sanctions are mandatory absent substantial justification
 - § 26:170 Procedure for Rule 26(g) sanctions
 - § 26:171 Relationship to other grounds for sanctions
- Rule 27. Depositions to Perpetuate Testimony

I Overview

- § 27:1 Mechanism to preserve evidence for a future proceeding
- § 27:2 Ultimate standard: to prevent “a failure or delay of justice”
- § 27:3 Discretionary
- § 27:4 Federal law controls
- § 27:5 Independent action to perpetuate testimony

II Pre-Action Petition to Perpetuate

- § 27:6 Initiate by filing a verified petition
- § 27:7 Notice and service
- § 27:8 Admissibility of a Rule 27(a) deposition
- § 27:9 Must expect to be a party to a federal-court action that currently can’t be brought
- § 27:10 Must identify the evidence sought and its importance

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 27:11 Types of evidence that can be preserved

§ 27:12 Not a vehicle to discover evidence

§ 27:13 Establishing the need for preservation

III Post-Judgment Motion to Perpetuate

§ 27:14 Contents of motion

§ 27:15 Showing required

IV Relation to Other Rules

§ 27:16 Arguably frivolous requests

§ 27:17 Actions governed by arbitration clauses

Rule 28. Persons Before Whom Depositions May be Taken

I Overview

§ 28:1 Persons who may administer oath and take testimony

§ 28:2 Depositions in the United States

§ 28:3 Depositions in foreign countries

§ 28:4 —Securing the attendance of the witness

§ 28:5 —Consult U.S. government websites for country-specific information

§ 28:6 —Admissibility of foreign depositions

II Hague Convention on the Taking of Evidence Abroad

§ 28:7 Taking evidence abroad

§ 28:8 Letters of request and the Hague Evidence Convention process

§ 28:9 Hague Evidence Convention process is not mandatory

§ 28:10 Getting “foreign” testimonial evidence without using the Hague Evidence Convention procedures

§ 28:11 Summary of when the Hague Evidence Convention process applies

III Foreign Depositions Under a Letter of Request or Commission

§ 28:12 Letters of request

§ 28:13 Commission

§ 28:14 U.S. procedure to obtain letters of request or commission

§ 28:15 Discretion of court

§ 28:16 Scope of discovery

§ 28:17 Consideration of expected testimony

§ 28:18 Consideration of enforcement under the foreign country’s laws

§ 28:19 No need to show impossibility

IV Foreign Depositions by Notice

§ 28:20 Rule requirements

§ 28:21 Securing witness’s attendance

§ 28:22 Legality under local law

V Depositions Before Interested Persons

§ 28:23 Officer must be disinterested or deposition will be inadmissible absent waiver

VI Relation to Other Rules

§ 28:24 Telephonic or video depositions

Rule 29. Stipulations About Discovery Procedure

I Purpose and Scope

§ 29:1 Purpose of Rule 29

§ 29:2 Most discovery-related modifications are permitted without leave of court

§ 29:3 Leave of court is required to alter scheduling order deadline

§ 29:4 Court may require approval for certain stipulations

§ 29:5 Local rules

II Procedure and Enforcement

§ 29:6 Stipulations need not be filed

§ 29:7 Stipulation should be in writing

§ 29:8 Enforcement is likely but not mandatory

Rule 30. Depositions by Oral Examination

I Overview of Practice Under Rule 30

§ 30:1 Purpose and scope

§ 30:2 When depositions may be taken

§ 30:3 Timing of “trial depositions”

§ 30:4 Leave of court usually not required

§ 30:5 Geographic location for depositions

§ 30:6 Facility and setting of depositions

§ 30:7 Number of depositions permitted

§ 30:8 —Requests for additional depositions

§ 30:9 Length of depositions

§ 30:10 —Extending or reducing the duration

§ 30:11 —Rule 30(b)(6) depositions

§ 30:12 Discovery planning

§ 30:13 Raise challenges by seeking a protective order in advance

§ 30:14 Types and terms of protective orders

II Persons Who Can be Deposed

§ 30:15 “Any person”

§ 30:16 Prisoners

§ 30:17 Previously deposed witnesses

§ 30:18 —Rule 30(b)(6)

§ 30:19 High-ranking executives

§ 30:20 High-ranking government officials

§ 30:21 Opposing counsel

III Details of the Deposition Process

§ 30:22 Arranging for an officer

§ 30:23 Officer’s duties

§ 30:24 Method of recording

§ 30:25 Cost of recording

§ 30:26 Telephonic or videoconference depositions

§ 30:27 Requests for documents

TABLE OF CONTENTS

IV Notice Requirements and Obligation to Appear

- § 30:28 Written notice
- § 30:29 Notice must be reasonable
- § 30:30 Notice commands attendance of party witness
- § 30:31 Securing attendance of organizational party's employees
- § 30:32 Securing attendance of nonparties
- § 30:33 —Orders directed at parties
- § 30:34 Witness fees and mileage
- § 30:35 Party to be deposed cannot unilaterally cancel or refuse to appear
- § 30:36 Noticing party must appear or give reasonable notice of cancellation

V Rule 30(b)(6) Depositions

- § 30:37 Purpose of Rule 30(b)(6)
- § 30:38 Intersection with limits on number and duration of depositions
- § 30:39 Duty to confer
- § 30:40 Scope of inquiry allowed
- § 30:41 Description of topics
- § 30:42 Questions outside scope of notice
- § 30:43 Legal contentions and supporting facts
- § 30:44 Proper even if information is available from other sources
- § 30:45 Challenging a Rule 30(b)(6) deposition notice
- § 30:46 Designating the representative
- § 30:47 Personal knowledge not required
- § 30:48 Duty to prepare the witness
- § 30:49 —Information in the hands of affiliated entities
- § 30:50 —Relation to privilege and work-product
- § 30:51 —Unprepared witness
- § 30:52 Effect of Rule 30(b)(6) testimony
- § 30:53 Depositions of individuals within the organization separately allowed
- § 30:54 Deposition of person as both an individual and a Rule 30(b)(6) witness

VI Conduct During the Deposition and Remedies for Misconduct

- § 30:55 Need for and effect of objections
- § 30:56 How objections should be stated
- § 30:57 Instructions not to answer
- § 30:58 Counsel and witness have no right to confer during questioning
- § 30:59 Inappropriate conduct during depositions
- § 30:60 Procedure for raising Rule 30(d)(2) violations
- § 30:61 Suspending deposition to seek a protective order
- § 30:62 Motion to compel
- § 30:63 Materials used to refresh a deponent's memory

- § 30:64 Exclusion of witnesses or parties from attending a deposition

VII Corrections to the Transcript; Signing the Transcript

- § 30:65 Signature required only for corrections
- § 30:66 Witness may request opportunity to “read and sign”
- § 30:67 Time to make changes
- § 30:68 Statement of changes with reasons; original answers remain part of the record
- § 30:69 Substantive changes

VIII Record of Deposition

- § 30:70 Record by court reporter or other officer
- § 30:71 Obtaining a transcript
- § 30:72 Exhibits

Rule 31. Depositions by Written Questions

I Overview

- § 31:1 Depositions on written questions, generally
- § 31:2 Who may be deposed
- § 31:3 Leave usually not required
- § 31:4 Timing

II Written Questions Procedure

- § 31:5 Submission of questions
- § 31:6 Form of questions
- § 31:7 Objections to questions
- § 31:8 Answers given orally
- § 31:9 Deposition officer required
- § 31:10 Attorneys need not attend
- § 31:11 Notice requirement
- § 31:12 Notice of completion and of filing

III Comparison to Other Discovery Devices

- § 31:13 Comparison to interrogatories
- § 31:14 Comparison to oral depositions

Rule 32. Using Depositions in Court Proceedings

I General Principles for Admission of Deposition Testimony

- § 32:1 Preference for live testimony
- § 32:2 Three conditions for using deposition testimony at trial
- § 32:3 Presence or notice requirement
- § 32:4 Must be admissible under the Rules of Evidence as if at trial
- § 32:5 Must be an “allowed use”
- § 32:6 Rule 32 requirements apply to all depositions

II Allowed Uses of Depositions

- § 32:7 Deposition can be used for impeachment and any other purpose permitted by the Federal Rules of Evidence
- § 32:8 Substantive use against an adverse party
- § 32:9 —“Managing agent” test
- § 32:10 Any use when witness is “unavailable”

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 32:11 —Court retains discretion
- § 32:12 —100 miles distant or outside U.S.
- § 32:13 —Unable to procure by subpoena
- § 32:14 —Age, illness, infirmity, and imprisonment
- § 32:15 —Exceptional circumstances
- § 32:16 Waiver of objection to use
- § 32:17 Limitation on using deposition taken on short notice
- § 32:18 Limitation on using deposition of unrepresented party
- § 32:19 Using only part of a deposition
- § 32:20 Depositions from prior actions
- § 32:21 —Use under the Federal Rules of Evidence

III Form of Presentation

- § 32:22 Offering party's option
- § 32:23 Insistence for video presentation

IV Preservation and Waiver of Errors and Irregularities

- § 32:24 Curable defects
- § 32:25 Defects in notice
- § 32:26 Defects in oath, officer, officer's duties, or officer's handling of the transcript
- § 32:27 Objections to manner and form
- § 32:28 "Substantive" objections

V Relation to Other Rules

- § 32:29 Discovery cutoff dates
 - § 32:30 Final pretrial disclosures and final pretrial order
 - § 32:31 Transmitted testimony under Rule 43(a)
 - § 32:32 Use at summary judgment
- Rule 33. Interrogatories to Parties

I Serving Interrogatories

- § 33:1 When interrogatories may be served
- § 33:2 Number of interrogatories permissible
- § 33:3 Multiple parties
- § 33:4 How to count number of interrogatories
- § 33:5 Responding party's options when interrogatories exceed the numerical limit
- § 33:6 Seeking additional interrogatories
- § 33:7 Interrogatories served prior to removal

II Usage and Scope

- § 33:8 Limited to parties
- § 33:9 Scope of questions permitted and restrictions on use
- § 33:10 Benefit of careful drafting
- § 33:11 Contentious interrogatories
- § 33:12 —Seeking "each and every" fact
- § 33:13 —Timing
- § 33:14 Interrogatories seeking identification of experts and trial witnesses

III Responding to Interrogatories

- § 33:15 Time in which to respond
- § 33:16 Party may respond with answers or objections
- § 33:17 Certification and sanctions under Rule 26(g)

IV Answers

- § 33:18 Answer must fairly respond to the question
- § 33:19 Answer each question separately and directly
- § 33:20 Duty to investigate
- § 33:21 When information not known or not yet available
- § 33:22 Organizational party must appoint person to answer questions
- § 33:23 Answers must be in writing, under oath, and signed by the party
- § 33:24 Lawyer may draft the answers
- § 33:25 Effect and use of answers
- § 33:26 Duty to supplement answers

V Objections

- § 33:27 Objection discharges duty to respond
- § 33:28 Failure to object constitutes waiver
- § 33:29 Answering may waive objections to question answered
- § 33:30 Must state specific reasons for objection
- § 33:31 Objections for undue burden
- § 33:32 Objections based on privilege or work-product
- § 33:33 Objections that questions are vague or ambiguous
- § 33:34 Objections that the requesting party already knows the information or has equal access to the information
- § 33:35 Attorney must sign objections
- § 33:36 Motion to compel

VI Reference to Business Records

- § 33:37 Answer by reference to business records
 - § 33:38 Answer must be in the records
 - § 33:39 Burden must be substantially equal
 - § 33:40 Detailed specification of records
 - § 33:41 Location or production of documents
 - § 33:42 Not for contention interrogatories
- Rule 34. Producing Documents, Electronically Stored Information, and Tangible Things, or Entering onto Land, for Inspection and Other Purposes

I Serving Document Requests

- § 34:1 Limited to parties
- § 34:2 How early document requests can be served; early delivery
- § 34:3 How late document requests can be served
- § 34:4 Status of requests served before removal
- § 34:5 Requests served with deposition notice
- § 34:6 Number of document requests permitted
- § 34:7 Requests must be in writing

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 34:8 Specifying the time, place, and manner of production
- § 34:9 Specifying the form of production of ESI

II Scope of Requests

- § 34:10 Request may seek discoverable items within another party's possession, custody, or control
- § 34:11 Identification of items being requested
- § 34:12 No right to conduct the search
- § 34:13 Direct access to computer files
- § 34:14 Electronically stored information
- § 34:15 —Metadata
- § 34:16 Social media
- § 34:17 Requests for releases

III Determining Possession, Custody, or Control

- § 34:18 Possession, custody, or control, generally
- § 34:19 Location of documents is not dispositive
- § 34:20 Legal control test
- § 34:21 Practical ability test
- § 34:22 No duty to create documents that do not exist
- § 34:23 Documents in possession of attorney
- § 34:24 Parent-subsidiary companies and other related entities

IV Responding to Document Requests

- § 34:25 Thirty days to respond in writing
- § 34:26 Response must state whether inspection will be allowed
- § 34:27 Responding with partial objections
- § 34:28 Response must indicate what is and is not being produced
- § 34:29 Response must state whether materials are being withheld
- § 34:30 Reasonable inquiry required
- § 34:31 —Search terms
- § 34:32 —Predictive coding and TAR
- § 34:33 Sampling
- § 34:34 ESI sources not reasonably accessible
- § 34:35 Certification and sanctions under Rule 26(g)

V Objections

- § 34:36 Objections must be specific
- § 34:37 Vague “subject to” objections not permitted
- § 34:38 Objections based on undue burden or proportionality
- § 34:39 Summary of “burdens” applicable when objections are made
- § 34:40 Waiver
- § 34:41 Requirements for asserting privilege or work-product protection
- § 34:42 Objections to the specified form of production of ESI
- § 34:43 Obtaining production after party responds with objections
- § 34:44 Seeking a protective order

VI Mechanics of Production

- § 34:45 Time, place, and manner of production

- § 34:46 Option to provide copies
- § 34:47 Types of redactions allowed
- § 34:48 Organizational format of production
- § 34:49 —Usual course of business
- § 34:50 Form of production of ESI
- § 34:51 —Process for determining
- § 34:52 —Form ordinarily maintained
- § 34:53 —Reasonably usable form
- § 34:54 —Presumption against producing the same information in multiple forms
- § 34:55 —Do the “organizational format” requirements also apply?
- § 34:56 Costs associated with production
- § 34:57 Foreign language documents and translation
- § 34:58 Challenging completeness of the production

VII Production of Other Tangible Things

- § 34:59 Party may request production of other tangible things
- § 34:60 Imaging of computers
- § 34:61 Production for testing

VIII Entry Upon Land

- § 34:62 Party may requests entry on land of another
- § 34:63 Interviews of people at the site

Rule 35. Physical and Mental Examinations

I Scope of Rule 35

- § 35:1 Discretionary authority to order a physical or mental examination
- § 35:2 Who may be examined
- § 35:3 Types of examinations that may be conducted
- § 35:4 Professionals who may conduct the examination
- § 35:5 Selection of the examiner
- § 35:6 Number of examinations that may be conducted
- § 35:7 Where the examination may take place
- § 35:8 Costs associated with the examination
- § 35:9 Timing and its relation to the general discovery scheme
- § 35:10 Timing of requests for examinations
- § 35:11 Timing of reports and disclosures

II Obtaining an Examination

- § 35:12 Order or agreement required
- § 35:13 Specificity of the request
- § 35:14 Two-part showing required
- § 35:15 “In controversy” requirement
- § 35:16 Good cause requirement
- § 35:17 —Party to be examined has sought expert testimony
- § 35:18 —Follow-up examination

III Orders Compelling Examination

- § 35:19 What the order must specify

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 35:20 Reluctance to micromanage the examination
- § 35:21 Protecting the examinee
- § 35:22 Allegations of harm or bias
- § 35:23 Presence of a third party at examination
- § 35:24 Requests to record examination
- § 35:25 Appealability of order compelling examination

IV Examiner's Report

- § 35:26 Examinee's right to the examiner's report
- § 35:27 Request obligates examinee to furnish own report and waives privilege
- § 35:28 Other discovery methods may be available

V Sanctions

- § 35:29 Improper requests or objections
- § 35:30 Failing to comply with order to submit to examination

Rule 36. Requests for Admission

I Serving Requests for Admission

- § 36:1 Two purposes of requests for admission
- § 36:2 Scope of Rule 36 requests
- § 36:3 Requests seeking admission of clearly contested matters
- § 36:4 Drafting a request
- § 36:5 How many requests may be served
- § 36:6 Requests must be in writing and served
- § 36:7 Timing for serving requests

II Responding to Requests for Admission

- § 36:8 Failure to timely respond leads to automatic admission
- § 36:9 Allowing late responses
- § 36:10 Party may respond with answers or objections
- § 36:11 Responding with answers
- § 36:12 Responding with objections
- § 36:13 No gamesmanship
- § 36:14 Improper objections and answers
- § 36:15 Qualified answers
- § 36:16 Duty to make a reasonable inquiry
- § 36:17 Denial is sufficient without explanation
- § 36:18 Claiming lack of knowledge
- § 36:19 Effect of admissions
- § 36:20 Signing obligations under Rule 36 and Rule 26(g)
- § 36:21 Duty to supplement

III Challenging Objections and Answers

- § 36:22 Challenging objections
- § 36:23 Challenging the sufficiency of the answers

IV Relief from Admissions

- § 36:24 Motion required
- § 36:25 Permissive and discretionary
- § 36:26 Two-prong test under Rule 36(b)

FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

- § 36:27 —Promoting presentation of the merits
- § 36:28 —Prejudice to party who obtained the admission
- § 36:29 Higher showing required to withdraw admissions made in the final pretrial order

Rule 37. Failure to Make Disclosures or to Cooperate in Discovery; Sanctions

I Motions to Compel

- § 37:1 Scope and function of Rule 37(a)
- § 37:2 Who may move to compel
- § 37:3 Method for making the motion
- § 37:4 When to move to compel
- § 37:5 Which court issues the order
- § 37:6 Motion to compel required disclosures
- § 37:7 Evasive or incomplete disclosures or responses
- § 37:8 Relation between Rule 37(a)(4) and Rule 37(d)
- § 37:9 Duty to confer
- § 37:10 Effect of failure to confer or include certification
- § 37:11 Expense shifting
- § 37:12 —Motion to compel is granted
- § 37:13 —Motion to compel is denied
- § 37:14 —Neither side wins completely
- § 37:15 Expense-shifting—Not a true “loser pays” scheme
- § 37:16 Expense shifting—Losing party’s position was substantially justified
- § 37:17 —Other circumstances make award of fees unjust
- § 37:18 —Reasonable expenses against the party or the attorney

II Sanctions for Failing to Comply with a Discovery-Related Court Order

- § 37:19 Only when a court order has been violated
- § 37:20 —Scheduling orders
- § 37:21 —Protective orders
- § 37:22 “Merits sanctions” become available
- § 37:23 Presumptive expense shifting applies
- § 37:24 Disobedient party may be held in contempt
- § 37:25 Trial court has broad discretion to sanction
- § 37:26 Very limited application to nonparties
- § 37:27 No meet-and-confer requirement

III Sanctions for Failure to Disclose or Produce

- § 37:28 Scope and structure of Rule 37(c)(1)
- § 37:29 Presumptive sanction is exclusion
- § 37:30 Substantial justification and harmlessness
- § 37:31 Discretion to impose a sanction other than exclusion when a party tries to use undisclosed information
- § 37:32 Sanction when party fails to produce harmful information
- § 37:33 Amount of fees that may be imposed as a sanction
- § 37:34 Limited to sanctions against the party and not counsel

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 37:35 Procedure

IV Sanctions for Failure to Admit

§ 37:36 Unique sanction specific to Rule 36 requests to admit

§ 37:37 Facts established other than by adjudication

§ 37:38 Process for obtaining expenses under Rule 37(c)(2)

§ 37:39 Not a de facto “prevailing party” fee-shifting mechanism

§ 37:40 No prior “sufficiency” motion challenging an answer is required

§ 37:41 Timely challenge to objections may be required

§ 37:42 What expenses are recoverable

V Sanctions for Failure to Attend Own Deposition, Respond to Interrogatories, or Respond to Document Requests

§ 37:43 Generally available only for total non-compliance

§ 37:44 Unprepared Rule 30(b)(6) witness

§ 37:45 Relation to evasive answers under Rule 37(a)(4)

§ 37:46 Date for determining failure to respond

§ 37:47 Duty to take some action in response to improper discovery requests

§ 37:48 “Objecting” to depositions is not sufficient

§ 37:49 Effect of filing motion for protective order

§ 37:50 Sanctions available; trial court’s discretion

§ 37:51 Duty to confer

§ 37:52 No duty to first seek motion to compel or get specific discovery order

VI Sanctions for Failure to Preserve Electronically Stored Information

§ 37:53 Purpose and structure of Rule 37(e)

§ 37:54 “Safe Harbor” provision eliminated

§ 37:55 Limited to ESI

§ 37:56 Must show breach of duty to preserve as defined by evolving common law

§ 37:57 Only applies if information is lost

§ 37:58 Only applies if the loss occurred because the party failed to take reasonable steps to preserve

§ 37:59 Additional discovery to restore or replace

§ 37:60 Rule forecloses other grounds for sanctions when it applies

§ 37:61 Sanctions to cure prejudice

§ 37:62 —Burden of showing prejudice

§ 37:63 —Types of sanctions allowed

§ 37:64 —No greater than necessary

§ 37:65 Sanctions requiring intent to deprive

§ 37:66 —When finding is made and by whom

§ 37:67 —What evidence is needed to show intent

§ 37:68 —Sanctions included

§ 37:69 —No showing of prejudice required

§ 37:70 —Court’s discretion

FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

VII Sanctions for Failure to Participate in the Discovery Plan

§ 37:71 Sanctions under Rule 37(f)

VIII Inherent Authority to Sanction

§ 37:72 Courts retain inherent authority to sanction

Table of Contents

TITLE VI. TRIALS (RULE 38 TO RULE 53)

Rule 38. Right to a Jury Trial; Demand

I Right to a Jury Trial

- § 38:1 Rule does not alter right or determine its existence
- § 38:2 Seventh Amendment right to jury trial
- § 38:3 Declaratory relief
- § 38:4 Enforcement of contractual waiver

II Demand Basics

- § 38:5 Jury demand is required
- § 38:6 Demand must be in writing
- § 38:7 No magic-word requirement
- § 38:8 Scope of demand
- § 38:9 Service and filing required
- § 38:10 Timing generally
- § 38:11 Demand made in response to counterclaims
- § 38:12 Timing and multiple defendants
- § 38:13 Extensions under Rule 6(b)
- § 38:14 Other parties may rely on the demand; Scope of reliance
- § 38:15 Jury demands in removed cases

III Amended Pleadings

- § 38:16 Effect when previous jury demand was made
- § 38:17 Effect when no previous demand was made
- § 38:18 Duty to object

IV Waiver and Withdrawal of Demand

- § 38:19 Failure to timely serve jury demand results in waiver
- § 38:20 Voluntary participation in bench trial results in waiver
- § 38:21 Consent required to withdraw properly made demand
- § 38:22 No consent required to withdraw improper demand

V Other Issues

- § 38:23 Harmless error
- § 38:24 Interlocutory appeal
- § 38:25 Joinder of legal and equitable claims
- § 38:26 Court may enter judgment as a matter of law
- § 38:27 Jury demand with respect to motion to stay litigation and compel arbitration

Rule 39. Trial by Jury or by the Court

I Effect of Rule 38 Demand on Whether Trial is by Jury or by the Court

- § 39:1 If a jury was demanded

§ 39:2 If no jury was demanded

II Consent Required to Withdraw Proper Jury Demand

§ 39:3 Consent of all parties

§ 39:4 Consent by participation in bench trial

III Withdrawal or Striking of Improper Jury Demands

§ 39:5 Withdrawal of improper demand

§ 39:6 Improper demand may be stricken

§ 39:7 Authority for motion to strike improper jury demand

§ 39:8 Timing of motion to strike improper jury demand

§ 39:9 Appeal from order striking jury demand

IV Relief from Waiver of Jury Trial of Right

§ 39:10 Court may grant motion seeking jury despite waiver

§ 39:11 Discretionary

§ 39:12 Factors considered

§ 39:13 “Mere inadvertence” as a reason for delay is generally not enough

§ 39:14 Burden on court

§ 39:15 Prejudice

§ 39:16 Length of delay

§ 39:17 Whether the issues are best suited to a jury

§ 39:18 Greater leniency in removed cases

§ 39:19 Pro se parties

§ 39:20 Enlargement of time

V Jury Trial by Consent

§ 39:21 With consent of all parties

§ 39:22 Court’s choice and the option to empanel an advisory jury

§ 39:23 Withdrawal of consent

VI Advisory Juries

§ 39:24 Role of advisory jury

§ 39:25 Trial judge’s discretion

Rule 40. Scheduling Cases for Trial

I Overview

§ 40:1 Districts must adopt rules for scheduling trials

§ 40:2 Scheduling power of the court and continuances

§ 40:3 Common approaches to assignment

II Preferences

§ 40:4 Criminal trials

§ 40:5 Preferences imposed by statute

§ 40:6 Preferences imposed by rules and state law

Rule 41. Dismissal of Actions

I Three Types of Voluntary Dismissals Under Rule 41(a)

§ 41:1 Importance of determining which type is involved

§ 41:2 Rule 41(a) applies to actions, not claims

§ 41:3 Dismissal of all claims against a particular defendant

TABLE OF CONTENTS

II Voluntary Dismissals by Notice or Stipulation

- § 41:4 Scope of Rule 41(a)(1) voluntary dismissal without court order
- § 41:5 Dismissal by notice or stipulation is self-executing
- § 41:6 Applies to actions (not claims)
- § 41:7 Dismissal by notice
- § 41:8 —Timing
- § 41:9 —How defendants can protect themselves
- § 41:10 —Some but not all defendants have answered or moved for summary judgment
- § 41:11 —Effect of filing of amended complaint
- § 41:12 Dismissal by stipulation
- § 41:13 —Timing
- § 41:14 Effect of a voluntary dismissal by notice or stipulation

III Two-Dismissal Rule

- § 41:15 Scope and purpose of the two-dismissal rule
- § 41:16 Decision gets made by the judge in the third case
- § 41:17 Types of dismissals that trigger the two-dismissal rule
- § 41:18 Only applies when the second dismissal is in federal court
- § 41:19 Second action must be “based on” the same claim asserted in the first action
- § 41:20 Application of the two-dismissal rule when the parties are not identical

IV Voluntary Dismissals by Motion and Court Order

- § 41:21 Request for voluntary dismissal by court order
- § 41:22 Plaintiff eligible to dismiss by notice may opt to pursue dismissal by court order
- § 41:23 Purpose and policy of requiring a court order
- § 41:24 Applies to actions (not claims)
- § 41:25 Effect of pending counterclaim
- § 41:26 Trial court’s discretion; legal prejudice standard
- § 41:27 Court can require the plaintiff to agree to terms and conditions
- § 41:28 Requests for dismissal with prejudice
- § 41:29 Effect of dismissal entered under Rule 41(a)(2)

V Involuntary Dismissals

- § 41:30 Grounds for involuntary dismissal
- § 41:31 Rule 41(b) applies to actions and claims
- § 41:32 Failure to prosecute
- § 41:33 Failure to comply with the Federal Rules or a court order
- § 41:34 Effect of involuntary dismissal
- § 41:35 “Operates as an adjudication on the merits”
- § 41:36 Jurisdictional dismissal must be without prejudice

VI Jurisdiction After Dismissal

- § 41:37 Loss of power over merits; ancillary jurisdiction
- § 41:38 Jurisdiction to enforce a settlement agreement

VII Costs of Previously Dismissed Action

- § 41:39 Costs of previous action
- § 41:40 Only authorizes costs award by a federal judge hearing the second suit
- § 41:41 Attorney's fees

VIII Relation to Other Rules

- § 41:42 Pleading requirements
 - § 41:43 Failure to prosecute for inaction after Rule 12(b)(6) dismissal with leave to amend
 - § 41:44 Dismissals to create complete diversity
 - § 41:45 Class actions
 - § 41:46 Jury demands
 - § 41:47 Voluntary dismissal of unresolved claims; relation to Rule 54(b) and final judgment rule
 - § 41:48 Relief from judgment under Rule 60(b)
- Rule 42. Consolidation; Separate Trials

I Consolidation

- § 42:1 Scope and purpose of consolidation under Rule 42(a)
- § 42:2 Factors informing trial court's discretion
- § 42:3 Court can adjust consolidation order as case progresses
- § 42:4 Effect on separate identities of actions
- § 42:5 Actions must be pending in the same district
- § 42:6 Relation to Rule 20
- § 42:7 Relation to multidistrict litigation practice
- § 42:8 No interlocutory appeal of consolidation decision
- § 42:9 Consolidated cases and "final judgment" for appeal

II Separate Trials

- § 42:10 Scope of bifurcation under Rule 42(b)
 - § 42:11 Factors informing trial court's discretion
 - § 42:12 Separating issues for trial; Bifurcating liability and damages
 - § 42:13 Jury rights preserved
 - § 42:14 Bifurcation decision is not immediately appealable
 - § 42:15 When does a separately tried claim become final for appeal?
 - § 42:16 Relation to Rule 21
 - § 42:17 Relation to Rule 23
 - § 42:18 Phased pretrial
 - § 42:19 Rule 42(b) controls in diversity suits
- Rule 43. Taking Testimony

I Form of Testimony

- § 43:1 Preference for in-person live testimony
- § 43:2 Transmitted testimony
- § 43:3 Zoom proceedings and the Covid-19 pandemic
- § 43:4 Two conditions required for a court to permit transmitted testimony in its discretion

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 43:5 Good cause in compelling circumstances
- § 43:6 Unforeseeable circumstances
- § 43:7 Travel inconvenience
- § 43:8 Prisoners
- § 43:9 Protection of the witness
- § 43:10 Safeguards
- § 43:11 Means of transmission
- § 43:12 Compelling attendance of remote witness
- § 43:13 Bench trials
- § 43:14 Alternative of using deposition testimony at trial
- § 43:15 Solemn affirmation in lieu of an oath

II Evidence on Motions

- § 43:16 Trial court's discretion on how to take evidence on a motion
- § 43:17 Evidentiary hearings; live witness testimony
- § 43:18 Evidentiary hearings on summary judgment
- § 43:19 Interpreters

Rule 44. Proving an Official Record

I Proving a Domestic Record

- § 44:1 What is a domestic record
- § 44:2 Official publication of the official record
- § 44:3 Attested copy of an official record
- § 44:4 Distinct from admissibility

II Proving a Foreign Record

- § 44:5 Official publication of the foreign record
- § 44:6 Attested foreign record
- § 44:7 —Certified pursuant to treaty or convention
- § 44:8 —Certified by final certification of genuineness
- § 44:9 Other means for good cause

III Other Issues Under Rule 44

- § 44:10 Lack of a record
- § 44:11 Rule 44 scheme is not exclusive

Rule 44.1. Determining Foreign Law

I Notice of Intent to Raise Issue of Foreign Law

- § 44.1:1 Notice required
- § 44.1:2 Method of giving notice
- § 44.1:3 Timing of notice
- § 44.1:4 Specificity of notice
- § 44.1:5 Failure to give notice waives ability to rely on foreign law
- § 44.1:6 Review on appeal

II Determining Foreign Law

- § 44.1:7 Types of information the court may consider
- § 44.1:8 Expert testimony
- § 44.1:9 Independent research
- § 44.1:10 Foreign country's own views

FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

- § 44.1:11 Burden of proving substance of foreign law and effect of failure to prove
- § 44.1:12 Question of law reviewed de novo
- § 44.1:13 Rule 44.1 determinations do not preclude summary judgment
- § 44.1:14 Rule 44.1 determinations are not inconsistent with motions to dismiss

Rule 45. Subpoena

I Role and Function of a Subpoena

- § 45:1 Subpoena commands a person to appear and provide information
- § 45:2 “Persons” subject to subpoena
- § 45:3 Persons subject to subpoena—Existing parties
- § 45:4 Securing deposition attendance of organizational party employees
- § 45:5 Subpoena to take Rule 30(b)(6) deposition of nonparty
- § 45:6 Scope of information available by discovery subpoena
- § 45:7 Subpoena practice limited by the Stored Communications Act

II Form and Issuance

- § 45:8 Contents of subpoena
- § 45:9 Deposition subpoena must state the method of recording
- § 45:10 Stating the form of production of electronically stored information
- § 45:11 Prior notice required for a document subpoena
- § 45:12 Which court issues the subpoena
- § 45:13 Subpoena issued from wrong court
- § 45:14 Clerk may sign and issue a subpoena
- § 45:15 Attorney may sign and issue a subpoena
- § 45:16 When a subpoena may be issued
- § 45:17 Which court enforces the subpoena
- § 45:18 Consequences of failure to comply
- § 45:19 Obtaining an enforcement order

III Serving a Subpoena

- § 45:20 By whom and how
- § 45:21 Witness and mileage fees required
- § 45:22 Subpoena may be served any place within the United States
- § 45:23 Nationwide service and personal jurisdiction
- § 45:24 Service outside the United States

IV Place of Compliance

- § 45:25 For a trial, hearing, or deposition
- § 45:26 For a trial, hearing, or deposition—Remote deposition testimony under Rule 30(b)(4)
- § 45:27 For a trial, hearing, or deposition—Remote trial testimony under Rule 43(a)

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 45:28 To produce documents, ESI, or tangible things

V Subpoenas for Production or Inspection

§ 45:29 Certain Rule 45 provisions specifically address subpoenas for production or inspection

§ 45:30 Option to seek “documents only” or join with subpoena for testimony

§ 45:31 Prior notice requirement

§ 45:32 Prior notice requirement—Timing

§ 45:33 Prior notice requirement—No duty to notify that production has occurred

§ 45:34 Subpoena must describe the documents requested

§ 45:35 Duty to make reasonable efforts to locate and produce

§ 45:36 Possession, custody, or control

§ 45:37 Possession, custody, and control—Local facilities of national entities

§ 45:38 Format and form of production

§ 45:39 All parties are entitled to review the materials produced

§ 45:40 Written objections to subpoenas duces tecum

§ 45:41 Direct access to electronically stored information

§ 45:42 Inaccessible sources of electronically stored information

VI Protection of Persons Subject to Subpoena

§ 45:43 Rule 45 provides special protections to nonparties

§ 45:44 Requesting party’s freestanding duty to avoid imposing undue burden or expense

§ 45:45 Court’s power to quash or modify

§ 45:46 Court’s power to quash or modify—Time for compliance not reasonable

§ 45:47 Court’s power to quash or modify—Requires action beyond the geographic limits for compliance

§ 45:48 Court’s power to quash or modify—Privilege or other protection

§ 45:49 Court’s power to quash or modify—Undue burden

§ 45:50 Court’s power to quash or modify—Trade secrets or other confidential information

§ 45:51 Court’s power to quash or modify—Unretained experts

§ 45:52 Court’s duty to protect person from significant expense when ordering compliance with a document subpoena

§ 45:53 Court’s duty to protect person from significant expense when ordering compliance with a document subpoena—Scope of cost-shifting

VII Mechanics of Challenging a Subpoena

§ 45:54 Three ways recipient can challenge a subpoena

§ 45:55 Who may challenge

§ 45:56 Responding to a subpoena duces tecum with written objections

§ 45:57 Failure to object to subpoena duces tecum within 14 days generally waives objection

FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

- § 45:58 Deadline for motion to compel after objections
- § 45:59 Motion to quash or modify
- § 45:60 Preference for modification where possible
- § 45:61 Where to bring a motion to quash or modify
- § 45:62 When a motion to quash or modify must be made
- § 45:63 Seeking a protective order in the district where the case is pending
- § 45:64 Appealability of orders to quash or compel
- § 45:65 Standard of review

VIII Asserting Privilege or Work-Product Protection

- § 45:66 Must be expressly made
- § 45:67 Time to assert privilege
- § 45:68 Privilege log generally required for withheld documents
- § 45:69 Requesting a “hold” on privileged information after it is produced

IX Transfer of Subpoena-Related Motions

- § 45:70 Compliance court can transfer a subpoena-related motion
 - § 45:71 Exceptional circumstances justifying nonconsensual transfer
 - § 45:72 Practice after transfer
 - § 45:73 Both courts have enforcement authority
 - § 45:74 Effect of transfer on interlocutory appeal of enforcement decision
 - § 45:75 Transfer decision is not immediately appealable
- Rule 46. Objecting to a Ruling or Order

I Obligation to Object

- § 46:1 Formal “exception” not required to preserve objection
- § 46:2 No particular words required to make objection
- § 46:3 Specificity of objection
- § 46:4 Each party must object
- § 46:5 Objection upon sua sponte consideration by court

II Limited Exceptions to Objection Requirement

- § 46:6 When there is no opportunity to object
- § 46:7 When objection would be futile

III Failure to Object

- § 46:8 Waiver in trial court and on appeal
- § 46:9 Plain error review

IV Relation to Other Rules

- § 46:10 Objection to jury instructions
 - § 46:11 Motion for reconsideration
- Rule 47. Selecting Jurors

I Process for Examining Jurors

- § 47:1 Voir dire
- § 47:2 Trial judge controls voir dire
- § 47:3 Participation of court and counsel

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 47:4 Court determines the scope of inquiry

§ 47:5 Review on appeal

II Striking a Juror for Cause

§ 47:6 Cause analysis precedes peremptory challenge stage

§ 47:7 Automatic disqualification due to presumed or implied bias

§ 47:8 Disqualification for actual bias

§ 47:9 Law enforcement bias

§ 47:10 Deference to trial court

§ 47:11 Effect of error

III Peremptory Challenges

§ 47:12 Statutory right to exercise peremptory challenges

§ 47:13 Impermissible use of peremptory challenges

§ 47:14 Harmless error

IV Excusing a Juror

§ 47:15 Good cause required

§ 47:16 Excusals during deliberations

§ 47:17 Review on appeal

V Relation to Other Rules

§ 47:18 Minimum number of jurors and no alternates

§ 47:19 Jury Selection and Service Act

§ 47:20 Motion for new trial based on juror's alleged dishonesty during voir dire

Rule 48. Number of Jurors; Verdict; Polling

I Size of Jury and Participation of Jurors

§ 48:1 Size

§ 48:2 Considerations favoring larger juries

§ 48:3 Participation

§ 48:4 Loss of jurors after empanelment

§ 48:5 Federal law controls

II Unanimity of Verdict

§ 48:6 Right to a unanimous jury

§ 48:7 Stipulation to accept non-unanimous verdict

§ 48:8 Unanimity only required for dispositive parts of verdict

III Polling

§ 48:9 Polling the jurors to assess individual juror assent

§ 48:10 Grounds for new trial

Rule 49. Special Verdict; General Verdict and Questions

I Verdict Types

§ 49:1 Three types of verdicts

§ 49:2 General verdict

§ 49:3 —Jury is deciding multiple claims

§ 49:4 Special verdict

§ 49:5 General verdict with written questions

§ 49:6 Characterizing the type of verdict rendered

FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

- § 49:7 Why characterization of verdict type matters
- § 49:8 Choice of verdict form is within the trial court's discretion
- § 49:9 Criticism of general verdicts
- § 49:10 Complex cases

II Special Verdicts

- § 49:11 Sufficiency of the verdict form
- § 49:12 "Legal effect" instruction permitted but not required
- § 49:13 Court can make findings on unasked issues, but cannot supply findings on issues asked but not answered
- § 49:14 Imputed findings
- § 49:15 Inconsistent findings
- § 49:16 Remedies when findings are irreconcilably inconsistent
- § 49:17 Failure to heed "stop here" instructions
- § 49:18 Objections to the verdict form
- § 49:19 Objection to inconsistency in the special verdict

III General Verdicts with Written Questions

- § 49:20 Court has discretion to determine what questions to ask
- § 49:21 Court cannot supply additional findings
- § 49:22 Answers consistent with each other but inconsistent with the general verdict
- § 49:23 Answers inconsistent with each other
- § 49:24 Need for objection; waiver

IV Inconsistent General Verdicts

- § 49:25 Inconsistent multiple general verdicts
- § 49:26 Inconsistency based on sufficiency of the evidence
- § 49:27 Inconsistency based on legally irreconcilable verdicts

V Recalling a Discharged Jury to Address Verdict Problems

- § 49:28 Authority to recall a discharged jury
- § 49:29 Factors to consider

- Rule 50. Judgment as a Matter of Law in a Jury Trial; Related Motion for a New Trial; Conditional Ruling

I Overview of Rule 50

- § 50:1 Role and structure of Rule 50
- § 50:2 Basis for JMOL
- § 50:3 Evidence viewed in favor of nonmoving party
- § 50:4 Resolving issues and granting judgment
- § 50:5 Steps required to preserve sufficiency-of-the-evidence challenges for postverdict renewal and appellate review
- § 50:6 Applies only in jury trials
- § 50:7 Sufficiency standards in diversity cases
- § 50:8 Findings of fact and conclusions of law
- § 50:9 JMOL may be granted despite previous summary judgment denial
- § 50:10 Summary-judgment ruling rejecting sufficiency-of-the-evidence challenge is not appealable after verdict

TABLE OF CONTENTS

II Preverdict Motions under Rule 50(a)

- § 50:11 Who may make a motion
- § 50:12 Court may act sua sponte
- § 50:13 Motion can be directed to nondispositive issues
- § 50:14 Format and specificity of motion
- § 50:15 When a Rule 50(a) motion may be made
- § 50:16 Opposing party must be “fully heard”
- § 50:17 Discretionarily reserving the ruling
- § 50:18 All motions not granted are automatically reserved

III Renewed Motions After Judgment Under Rule 50(b)

- § 50:19 Any proper Rule 50(a) motion may be renewed
- § 50:20 Rule 50(b) standard is the same as under Rule 50(a)
- § 50:21 Renewed motion must state grounds
- § 50:22 Renewed motion is limited to issues raised in a preverdict Rule 50(a) motion
- § 50:23 Deadline for bringing a Rule 50(b) renewal motion
- § 50:24 Sua sponte sufficiency challenges by the trial court postverdict
- § 50:25 Some trial courts may reach “waived” sufficiency issues for manifest injustice
- § 50:26 No waiver when party is precluded from presenting argument
- § 50:27 Trial court has two options when the evidence was insufficient to support the verdict
- § 50:28 Rule 50 timing and punitive damage award challenges

IV Conditional Rulings on Motions for New Trial

- § 50:29 Conditional ruling when party seeks a new trial in the alternative
- § 50:30 Trial court’s failure to make conditional ruling
- § 50:31 Rule 59 motions separately authorized

V Review on Appeal

- § 50:32 De novo review
 - § 50:33 Rule 50(b) renewal motion required for appellate review of sufficiency of the evidence
 - § 50:34 Other motions construed as Rule 50(b) renewal motions
 - § 50:35 Party should object that no Rule 50(b) motion was filed
 - § 50:36 Effect of failure to move under Rule 50(b) on appellate review for “manifest injustice”
 - § 50:37 Non-sufficiency legal error reviewable without Rule 50(b) motion
 - § 50:38 Court of appeals’ options when reversing denial of JMOL
 - § 50:39 Effect of Rule 50(b) renewal motion on timing for appeal
 - § 50:40 “Tolling” effect of untimely Rule 50(b) motion where no objection is made
- Rule 51. Instructions to the Jury; Objections; Preserving a Claim of Error

I Submitting Proposed Instructions

- § 51:1 Right to propose instructions
- § 51:2 Nature and scope of proposed instructions
- § 51:3 When to submit requests
- § 51:4 Court has discretion to consider untimely requests

II Instructions

- § 51:5 Content and coverage of instructions
- § 51:6 Diversity cases
- § 51:7 Notice and opportunity to object
- § 51:8 Manner of giving notice and opportunity to object
- § 51:9 Objections to lack of notice and opportunity to object
- § 51:10 Timing of jury instruction
- § 51:11 Manner of instruction

III Objections

- § 51:12 Purpose of objection requirement
- § 51:13 Who must object
- § 51:14 Objections must be on the record and specific
- § 51:15 Objection to modified instruction
- § 51:16 Use versus form objections
- § 51:17 When to make objections

IV Preserving Error

- § 51:18 For the instructions actually given
- § 51:19 For instructions requested but not given

V Appellate Review When Error Preserved

- § 51:20 Standard of review
- § 51:21 Harmless error
- § 51:22 Review limited to grounds asserted below

VI Appellate Review When Error Not Preserved

- § 51:23 Plain error
- § 51:24 Waiver versus forfeiture
- § 51:25 Waiver is no jurisdictional bar to review

VII Relationship to Other Rules

- § 51:26 Judgment as a matter of law
- § 51:27 New trial
- § 51:28 Rule applies to verdict forms
- Rule 52. Findings and Conclusions by the Court; Judgment on Partial Findings

I Rulings Covered by Rule 52

- § 52:1 Bench trials
- § 52:2 Preliminary injunction rulings
- § 52:3 Does not apply to rulings on motions generally
- § 52:4 Need for court to give reasons when ruling on motions

II Entry of Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

- § 52:5 Format

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 52:6 Purpose of findings and conclusions
- § 52:7 Scope of findings and detail required
- § 52:8 Incomplete or inadequate findings
- § 52:9 Findings and conclusions drafted by counsel

III Judgment on Partial Findings

- § 52:10 Court may enter judgment based on partial findings
- § 52:11 Timing
- § 52:12 Against either party but typically against the plaintiff
- § 52:13 Court may act on motion or sua sponte
- § 52:14 Comparison with Rule 50(a) motions

IV Motions for Amended or Additional Findings

- § 52:15 Party may seek amended or additional findings
- § 52:16 When motion must be made; tolling effect
- § 52:17 Motion for amended or additional findings and preserving error

V Appellate Review of Findings and Conclusions

- § 52:18 Standard of review
- § 52:19 Clear error defined
- § 52:20 Special deference to credibility determinations
- § 52:21 Mixed questions of law and fact
- § 52:22 Findings premised on erroneous view of law
- § 52:23 Special review standards under First Amendment
- § 52:24 Preserving error

Rule 53. Masters

I Appointment of a Master

- § 53:1 Three types of masters under Rule 53
- § 53:2 Reasons for appointing a master; trial court's discretion
- § 53:3 The role of the parties in the appointment process
- § 53:4 Consent masters
- § 53:5 Trial masters
- § 53:6 —Exceptional conditions
- § 53:7 —Detailed accounting or complex damages calculation
- § 53:8 Pretrial masters
- § 53:9 Post-trial masters
- § 53:10 Court-appointed experts and technical advisors
- § 53:11 Relation to Magistrate Judges
- § 53:12 Master subject to judicial code of conduct

II The Appointment Order and the Master's Authority

- § 53:13 Appointment order defines and limits the master's authority
- § 53:14 Ex parte communications
- § 53:15 The record and report
- § 53:16 Modification of the appointment order
- § 53:17 Broad discretion over procedures used
- § 53:18 Evidentiary issues

- § 53:19 Compensation
- § 53:20 Appointment reviewable via writ of mandamus

III Court's Action on Master's Order, Report, and Recommendations

- § 53:21 Court's options when reviewing Master's order, report or recommendation
- § 53:22 Time to object or move; review when no timely objection is made
- § 53:23 Review of legal conclusions
- § 53:24 Review of master's factual findings
- § 53:25 Review of procedural matters

TITLE VII. JUDGMENT (RULE 54 TO RULE 63)

Rule 54. Judgment; Costs

I Judgment Defined

- § 54:1 Definition

II Certifying Final Decision on Individual Claims for Immediate Appeal

- § 54:2 Role and purpose of certification under Rule 54(b)
- § 54:3 Relationship between Rule 54(b) and finality under 28 U.S.C.A. § 1291
- § 54:4 Action must present multiple claims
- § 54:5 Trial court must have made a final decision on the claim
- § 54:6 Trial court must find that there is no just reason for delay
- § 54:7 Trial court must expressly determine that there is no just reason for delay
- § 54:8 Trial court must direct entry of a final judgment
- § 54:9 Compliance with Rule 54(b)'s requirements can come up in two distinct settings, potentially affecting how strictly the requirements are applied
- § 54:10 Standard of review
- § 54:11 Time frame for seeking certification under Rule 54(b)
- § 54:12 Obtaining certification after prematurely filing an appeal
- § 54:13 How and when a party may challenge a Rule 54(b) certification as unwarranted
- § 54:14 Impact of unserved defendants
- § 54:15 Stay of enforcement
- § 54:16 Accelerating appeal of resolved claims by voluntarily dismissing the unresolved claims

III Motions for Reconsideration Under Rule 54(b)

- § 54:17 Trial court retains power to revisit and revise interlocutory rulings.
- § 54:18 Reconsideration of interlocutory orders after reassignment to new judge
- § 54:19 Reconsideration of interlocutory rulings under Rule 54(b) versus postjudgment relief under Rule 59 or Rule 60

IV Rule 54(c): Demand and Relief Awarded

- § 54:20 General rule under Rule 54(c)

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 54:21 Special damages exception
- § 54:22 Limited prejudice exception
- § 54:23 Default judgments limited to relief demanded

V Award of Costs

- § 54:24 Costs are presumptively awarded to the prevailing party
- § 54:25 Discretion to deny costs; court must state reasons
- § 54:26 Reasons for denying costs
- § 54:27 What costs includes
- § 54:28 —Other statutes can expand range of taxable costs
- § 54:29 —Deposition and copying charges
- § 54:30 —Electronic discovery costs
- § 54:31 —Computerized legal research
- § 54:32 —Private process servers
- § 54:33 —Pro hac vice fees
- § 54:34 Statutes can supersede Rule 54(d)
- § 54:35 Party agreements on costs
- § 54:36 Expenses (sometimes referred to as “costs”) under other bases
- § 54:37 Relation to Rule 68
- § 54:38 Costs against the federal government
- § 54:39 Federal law controls taxable costs

VI Procedure for Costs Under Rule 54(d)

- § 54:40 Time to seek costs
- § 54:41 Prevailing party begins process by filing a bill of costs
- § 54:42 Taxing of costs
- § 54:43 Challenge to the clerk’s award of costs
- § 54:44 Appellate review standard
- § 54:45 Taxing of costs operates separately from any merits appeal
- § 54:46 Court may require costs bond

VII Award of Attorney’s Fees

- § 54:47 Rule 54(d) does not determine availability of attorney’s fees
- § 54:48 Attorney’s fees are sought by motion under Rule 54(d)(2) unless they must be proved as damages
- § 54:49 Attorney’s fees defined as “costs” are sought by motion and not in the Bill of Costs
- § 54:50 Attorney’s fees as special damages
- § 54:51 Fee motion provisions do not apply to attorney’s fees sought as sanctions

VIII Fee Motions

- § 54:52 Need to file motion
- § 54:53 Default 14-day deadline
- § 54:54 Trial court can extend the deadline
- § 54:55 Effect of postjudgment motions on fee-motion deadline
- § 54:56 Resolving the fee motion
- § 54:57 Delegation of fee motion
- § 54:58 Separate judgment entry not required

FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

- § 54:59 Unresolved fee motion and time to appeal
- § 54:60 Trial court's options for fee motions after the merits case is appealed
- § 54:61 Appeal from final ruling on fee motion
- Rule 55. Default; Default Judgment

I What Constitutes Default

- § 55:1 Failure to file a required responsive pleading
- § 55:2 Party who "otherwise defends"
- § 55:3 Party who attempts to plead or otherwise defend but fails to make a proper appearance or file an answer
- § 55:4 Penalty defaults
- § 55:5 No-shows at trial

II Entry of Default

- § 55:6 Entry of default is the first step in the default process
- § 55:7 Showing needed; proof of proper service
- § 55:8 Effect of entry of default

III Default Judgment Entered by the Clerk

- § 55:9 Requirements for clerk to enter a default judgment
- § 55:10 What is a sum certain
- § 55:11 Clerk has immunity

IV Default Judgment Entered by the Court

- § 55:12 Disfavored and discretionary but sometimes necessary
- § 55:13 Default judgment establishes the well-pleaded factual allegations, except for damages
- § 55:14 Trial on damages is usually to the court
- § 55:15 Notice required when party has appeared
- § 55:16 Hearings
- § 55:17 Personal jurisdiction
- § 55:18 Relief limited to what was demanded in the complaint

V Setting Aside Entry of Default

- § 55:19 For good cause under Rule 55(c)
- § 55:20 Culpable conduct
- § 55:21 Meritorious defense
- § 55:22 Prejudice
- § 55:23 Court can act sua sponte

VI Setting Aside a Default Judgment

- § 55:24 Defendant must seek relief from judgment under Rule 60(b)
- § 55:25 Point at which relief is from default judgment rather than entry of default
- § 55:26 Excusable neglect
- § 55:27 Void for lack of jurisdiction
- § 55:28 Exceptional circumstances
- § 55:29 Rule 60(b) motion may be needed to preserve appellate review

TABLE OF CONTENTS

VII Special Defendants

- § 55:30 Actions against the United States
- § 55:31 Actions against a foreign government
- § 55:32 Protection for service members
- § 55:33 Protection for minors and incompetents

VIII Relation to Other Rules

- § 55:34 Failure to deny particular averments
- § 55:35 Waiver of defenses under Rule 12(h)(1)
- § 55:36 Unopposed motions
- § 55:37 Default as a sanction
- § 55:38 Plaintiff's failure to prosecute
- § 55:39 Entry of default or default judgment entered in state court before removal
- § 55:40 Prisoner actions
- Rule 56. Summary Judgment

I Basic Principles and Practice

- § 56:1 Purpose and policy
- § 56:2 The court's role
- § 56:3 Relation to Rule 12(b)(6)
- § 56:4 Relation to Rule 50
- § 56:5 Continued importance of the "trilogy"
- § 56:6 Constitutionality of summary judgment

II Who May Move for Summary Judgment

- § 56:7 Any party may move for summary judgment
- § 56:8 Court may act sua sponte
- § 56:9 Court may invite motion

III Timing of Summary Judgment

- § 56:10 How early?
- § 56:11 How late?
- § 56:12 Summary judgment motions made before the defendant answers
- § 56:13 Summary judgment motions made before the close of discovery
- § 56:14 Phased summary judgment
- § 56:15 Phased summary judgment compared to partial summary judgment
- § 56:16 Successive ("repeat") summary-judgment motions; reconsideration of denial
- § 56:17 Pre-motion conferences

IV Standard for Granting Summary Judgment

- § 56:18 The general standard
- § 56:19 The central question is whether a trial is needed
- § 56:20 Can the court rule as a matter of law without having to resolve any fact disputes?
- § 56:21 Materiality
- § 56:22 —Other facts dispositive

- § 56:23 —Accepting facts as true
- § 56:24 Only “genuine” disputes of fact preclude summary judgment
- § 56:25 Evidence that is not capable of being true
- § 56:26 Evidence that no reasonable juror could believe
- § 56:27 Impact of video evidence
- § 56:28 Supreme Court application: Scott v. Harris
- § 56:29 Court must be able to rule as a matter of law
- § 56:30 Substance-specific proof burdens and limits
- § 56:31 Supreme Court application—Beard v. Banks
- § 56:32 Discretionarily withholding summary judgment

V The Showing Required for Summary Judgment

- § 56:33 Summary judgment when the nonmoving party has the burden of proof
- § 56:34 The Celotex “showing”
- § 56:35 The nonmoving party’s burden in response
- § 56:36 Scope of the nonmoving party’s burden
- § 56:37 Summary judgment when the moving party has the burden of proof

VI Supporting and Opposing Summary Judgment

- § 56:38 Rule 56 does not regulate the process for making or briefing summary-judgment motions; Local rules, standing orders, and case orders
- § 56:39 Rule 56 does not regulate the method for making (as opposed to supporting) assertions of fact
- § 56:40 Supporting assertions about what facts are or are not genuinely disputed
- § 56:41 Objection that supporting material cannot be presented in an admissible form
- § 56:42 Challenging affidavits; motions to strike not needed
- § 56:43 Failure to properly support or respond to an assertion of fact
- § 56:44 —“Deemed admitted” rules
- § 56:45 Court has no duty to search the record
- § 56:46 Failure to cite to available evidence cannot be remedied by post-judgment motion for reconsideration
- § 56:47 Reply briefs and sur-replies

VII When Facts Are Unavailable to the Nonmovant

- § 56:48 Opposing party may file affidavit under Rule 56(d)
- § 56:49 No formal “Rule 56(d) motion” is required
- § 56:50 Factors informing trial court’s decision under Rule 56(d)
- § 56:51 Relief when moving party has thwarted discovery efforts
- § 56:52 Method of submitting the Rule 56(d) affidavit
- § 56:53 Failure to file a Rule 56(d) affidavit
- § 56:54 Party cannot raise Rule 56(d) arguments after the fact
- § 56:55 Court must consider Rule 56(d) arguments before deciding summary judgment motion

TABLE OF CONTENTS

VIII Forms of Proof at Summary Judgment

- § 56:56 Materials to be considered
- § 56:57 Forms of proof at summary judgment are relaxed
- § 56:58 Contents of affidavits or declarations must be admissible
- § 56:59 Personal knowledge or competence
- § 56:60 Hearsay
- § 56:61 Unsworn affidavits; subscribed declarations
- § 56:62 “Self-serving” affidavits
- § 56:63 “Sham” affidavits
- § 56:64 Limited use of pleadings
- § 56:65 Deposition transcripts
- § 56:66 Interrogatory answers
- § 56:67 Submitting documentary evidence
- § 56:68 Using documents produced in discovery
- § 56:69 Submitting electronically stored information
- § 56:70 Taking live witness testimony
- § 56:71 Expert reports

IX The Court’s Decision

- § 56:72 The court may decide on the briefs and supporting materials
- § 56:73 Cross motions
- § 56:74 Entering summary judgment for the nonmoving party
- § 56:75 Entering summary judgment on grounds not raised in the motion
- § 56:76 Considering summary judgment sua sponte
- § 56:77 What constitutes reasonable notice; court acting without or beyond the scope of a party motion
- § 56:78 Failure to give proper notice; preserving error and harmless error
- § 56:79 Unopposed motions
- § 56:80 Failure to oppose as to particular claim may result in abandonment
- § 56:81 Stating the reasons for the decision

X Partial Summary Judgment/Establishing Facts

- § 56:82 Court may grant a partial summary judgment
- § 56:83 Motion directed at issues or elements only
- § 56:84 Establishing facts when denying summary judgment
- § 56:85 Reconsidering partial summary judgments

XI Sanctions

- § 56:86 Affidavits made in bad faith
- § 56:87 Rule 11
- § 56:88 Other types of sanctions

XII Appeals

- § 56:89 Standard of review
- § 56:90 Appeal of grant of partial summary judgment

FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

- § 56:91 Conduct taken after a partial summary judgment sometimes can lead to an appealable final judgment
 - § 56:92 Interlocutory appeal of denial of summary judgment
 - § 56:93 Appeal of denial of summary judgment after trial
- Rule 57. Declaratory Judgment

I Declaratory Judgment Act

- § 57:1 Enlarging the remedial power of federal courts
- § 57:2 Purpose and examples of the Declaratory Judgment Act
- § 57:3 Statutory exceptions
- § 57:4 Further relief

II Declaratory judgment procedure under Rule 57

- § 57:5 Federal Rules govern; sought by filing a complaint
- § 57:6 Right to jury trial
- § 57:7 Adequate coercive remedy does not preclude declaratory relief
- § 57:8 Relief awardable under Rule 54(c)

III Subject-Matter Jurisdiction

- § 57:9 Three tiers of analysis
- § 57:10 Must satisfy Article III “Case or Controversy” requirement
- § 57:11 Must be within federal subject-matter jurisdiction
- § 57:12 Federal-question jurisdiction over declaratory judgment actions
- § 57:13 Diversity jurisdiction over declaratory judgment actions

IV Discretion to Decline Jurisdiction

- § 57:14 Federal courts have discretion to decline to hear declaratory judgment actions
 - § 57:15 Factors informing discretion to decline jurisdiction
 - § 57:16 Effect on discretion when no parallel state action is pending
 - § 57:17 Effect on discretion when federal law claims are raised
 - § 57:18 Effect on discretion when plaintiff seeks both declaratory and coercive relief
 - § 57:19 Parallel proceedings in federal court
 - § 57:20 “Younger” abstention
- Rule 58. Entering Judgment

I Basics of Entering Judgment

- § 58:1 Entry of judgment starts important deadlines
- § 58:2 Rule 58 does not define what is a judgment
- § 58:3 Entry means notation
- § 58:4 The clerk enters judgment, but sometimes the judge must approve it first

II Separate Document Requirement

- § 58:5 Purpose of the separate document requirement
- § 58:6 General rule is that a separate document is required; exceptions
- § 58:7 What qualifies as a separate document of judgment

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 58:8 Minute entries
- § 58:9 Title of the separate document
- § 58:10 Collateral order appeals

III Time of Entry

- § 58:11 Time of entry when a separate document is not required
- § 58:12 Time of entry when a separate document is required
- § 58:13 Party may request separate document entry

IV Entry of Judgment and Time for Appeal

- § 58:14 Time for appeal; effect of postjudgment motions
 - § 58:15 Effect of “early” appeal
 - § 58:16 Effect of fee motion
 - § 58:17 Effect of taxing of costs
 - § 58:18 Effect of clerk’s failure to make separate document entry
- Rule 59. New Trial; Altering or Amending a Judgment

I Rule 59 Motions

- § 59:1 Scope of Rule 59 motions
- § 59:2 Who may move under Rule 59
- § 59:3 Particularity required
- § 59:4 Deadline for Rule 59 motions
- § 59:5 The 28-day deadline cannot be extended
- § 59:6 Premature Rule 59 motion is timely
- § 59:7 Timeliness of grounds added in amended motion
- § 59:8 Timely Rule 59 motion tolls time for appeal
- § 59:9 Untimely Rule 59 motion does not toll time for appeal
- § 59:10 Tolling effect of defective motions
- § 59:11 Forfeiture of timeliness objections
- § 59:12 “Unique circumstances” exception will rarely if ever save an untimely Rule 59 motion
- § 59:13 Successive Rule 59(e) motions
- § 59:14 Amended judgment opens new 28-day window only for matters that were changed
- § 59:15 Late Rule 59(e) motion may be converted into Rule 60 motion

II Motions for New Trial

- § 59:16 New trial motion is appropriate only after a trial
- § 59:17 Granting a new trial sua sponte
- § 59:18 Court not limited to grounds raised by the parties
- § 59:19 Role of state law in diversity suits
- § 59:20 Discretionary
- § 59:21 Grounds justifying new trial
- § 59:22 —Verdict against the clear weight of the evidence
- § 59:23 —Excessive or inadequate damages
- § 59:24 —Unfair trial
- § 59:25 —Newly-discovered evidence

III Orders Granting New Trial

- § 59:26 Court may have to specify grounds

- § 59:27 Partial new trial
- § 59:28 Remittitur
- § 59:29 Additur
- § 59:30 Order granting new trial not immediately appealable

IV Motions to Alter or Amend the Judgment

- § 59:31 Trial court may alter or amend the judgment after it is entered
 - § 59:32 What qualifies as a Rule 59(e) motion
 - § 59:33 Relief independent of motion
 - § 59:34 Discretionary
 - § 59:35 Grounds justifying relief
 - § 59:36 —Manifest error of fact or law
 - § 59:37 —Newly discovered evidence
 - § 59:38 Postjudgment award of prejudgment interest
 - § 59:39 Post-judgment requests to amend a pleading under Rule 15
- Rule 60. Relief from a Judgment or Order

I Rule 60(a) Motions

- § 60:1 What errors can be corrected
- § 60:2 When correction can be made
- § 60:3 Court may correct sua sponte

II Rule 60(b) Motions

- § 60:4 Relief from a final judgment under Rule 60(b)
- § 60:5 Policy behind Rule 60(b) structure and practice
- § 60:6 Trial court's discretion
- § 60:7 Who may be relieved
- § 60:8 Sua sponte relief
- § 60:9 Which court may grant relief under Rule 60(b)
- § 60:10 Effect on judgments
- § 60:11 Timely motion tolls time to appeal
- § 60:12 Ability to obtain relief when the case is on appeal

III Timing of Rule 60(b) Motions

- § 60:13 General deadline for filing Rule 60(b) motions
- § 60:14 One-year cap for motions under Rule 60(b)(1) to (3)
- § 60:15 Opposing party's failure to raise lack of timeliness

IV Mistake, Surprise & Excusable Neglect

- § 60:16 Relief based on a mistake
- § 60:17 Relief based on excusable neglect
- § 60:18 No Rule 60(b)(1) relief on grounds provided for in Fed. R. App. P. 4(a)
- § 60:19 Vacating default judgments based on excusable neglect

V Newly Discovered Evidence

- § 60:20 Relief based on newly discovered evidence

VI Fraud or Other Misconduct

- § 60:21 Relief based on fraud or other misconduct
- § 60:22 Demonstrating fraud, misrepresentation, or misconduct

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 60:23 Discovery misconduct

§ 60:24 Other remedies

VII Underlying Judgment Is Void

§ 60:25 Relief because underlying judgment is void

§ 60:26 Subject-matter jurisdiction defect narrowly construed

§ 60:27 Lack of due process

§ 60:28 Vacating default judgments based on lack of personal jurisdiction or inadequate service of process

VIII Satisfaction, Release, Discharge, or Changed Circumstances

§ 60:29 Relief based on satisfaction, release, discharge, or changed circumstances

§ 60:30 Earlier judgment reversed or vacated

§ 60:31 Showing required for relief based on changed circumstances

§ 60:32 Institutional reform litigation

§ 60:33 Limited to prospective effect of continued enforcement

§ 60:34 Changes in law

§ 60:35 Changes in fact

§ 60:36 Judgments may be modified to better achieve intended results

IX “Catch-all” Provision

§ 60:37 Rule 60(b)(6) catchall provision

§ 60:38 Only for “other reasons”

§ 60:39 Intervening changes in the law generally not sufficient for relief

§ 60:40 Incorrect Erie guesses

§ 60:41 Fraud on the court

§ 60:42 No Rule 60(b)(6) relief on grounds provided for in Fed. R. App. P. 4(a)

§ 60:43 Extraordinary circumstances not covered by Fed. R. App. 4(a) causing missed deadline to appeal

§ 60:44 Vacating default judgments based on extraordinary circumstances

X Other Powers to Grant Relief from Judgment

§ 60:45 Independent actions

§ 60:46 Fraud on the court

Rule 61. Harmless Error

I Scope of Rule 61

§ 61:1 All errors at every stage of the district court civil action

§ 61:2 On appeal

§ 61:3 Federal Rule of Evidence 103

II Harmless Error Doctrine

§ 61:4 Did the error affect a party’s substantial rights?

§ 61:5 Case-specific analysis

§ 61:6 Burden of persuasion

§ 61:7 Two-step process

§ 61:8 Cumulative error

III Applications of Harmless Error Doctrine

§ 61:9 Pleadings

§ 61:10 Evidentiary rulings

§ 61:11 Jury instructions

§ 61:12 Miscellaneous rulings

§ 61:13 Relation to Rule 37(c)

Rule 62. Stay of Proceedings to Enforce a Judgment

I Automatic Stay

§ 62:1 Automatic 30-day stay of enforcement; exceptions

§ 62:2 Court may alter automatic stay

§ 62:3 Other actions allowed during the 30-day stay

§ 62:4 Additional stay protections for military servicemembers

§ 62:5 Trial court may stay enforcement while it considers postjudgment motions

II Stay by Bond or Other Security

§ 62:6 Obtaining a stay by providing a bond or other security

§ 62:7 Rule 62(b) and stays pending appeal

§ 62:8 Generally limited to money judgments

§ 62:9 Amount of the bond

§ 62:10 Period when stay is in effect

§ 62:11 No bond required if appeal taken by federal government

§ 62:12 Conflict with state law

§ 62:13 Bond for costs on appeal

§ 62:14 Bond for trial court costs

III Injunction Pending Appeal

§ 62:15 Trial court may grant or modify an injunction during an appeal

§ 62:16 Scope of trial court's authority

§ 62:17 Four-factor test

§ 62:18 Bond or other security may be required

§ 62:19 Appeal from judgment rendered by district court of three judges

IV Stay According to State Law

§ 62:20 Stay according to state law when the judgment acts as a lien

§ 62:21 Procedure for invoking Rule 62(f)

V Stay of Judgment as to Multiple Claims or Multiple Parties

§ 62:22 Stay of judgment certified for early appeal under Rule 54(b)

§ 62:23 Judgment creditor's financial status

VI Appellate Court's Power Not Limited

§ 62:24 Rule 62 does not limit appellate court's power

Rule 62.1. Indicative Ruling on a Motion for Relief That is Barred by a Pending Appeal

TABLE OF CONTENTS

I Purpose and Scope

- § 62.1:1 Purpose of Rule 62.1
- § 62.1:2 What motions Rule 62.1 applies to
- § 62.1:3 Party must make the underlying motion before invoking Rule 62.1
- § 62.1:4 Only applies when jurisdiction has passed to the court of appeals
- § 62.1:5 Trial court's jurisdiction over collateral matters
- § 62.1:6 Only applies if appeal has taken effect

II District Court's Options

- § 62.1:7 Three options
- § 62.1:8 Indicative rulings
- § 62.1:9 Remand

III Coordination with Court of Appeals

- § 62.1:10 Notice to the Court of Appeals
- § 62.1:11 Appellate Rule 12.1
- § 62.1:12 Appellate Rule 12.1 motion without predicate Civil Rule 62.1 motion

Rule 63. Judge's Inability to Proceed

I Purpose and Scope of Rule 63

- § 63:1 Authorizes another judge to complete a hearing or trial
- § 63:2 Scope broadened in 1991
- § 63:3 Post-trial motions
- § 63:4 Magistrate Judges and Masters
- § 63:5 Circumstances of judge's disability
- § 63:6 Recusal and disqualification

II Procedure

- § 63:7 Reasons for reassignment
- § 63:8 Certifying familiarity with the record and determining no prejudice
- § 63:9 Extent of certification depends on successor judge's role

III Powers and Duties of Successor Judge

- § 63:10 Power to complete a trial
- § 63:11 Recalling witnesses
- § 63:12 Findings of fact and conclusions of law
- § 63:13 Summary judgment
- § 63:14 Reconsideration of prior judge's rulings
- § 63:15 Failure to object

TITLE VIII. PROVISIONAL AND FINAL REMEDIES (RULE 64 TO RULE 71)

Rule 64. Seizing a Person or Property

I Seizing a Person or Property as Security for a Future Judgment

- § 64:1 Rule 64 incorporates state prejudgment remedies
- § 64:2 Rule 64 provides remedies in a pending federal action.

FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

- § 64:3 Freeze orders may be available under state law
- § 64:4 Choice-of-law clauses not followed
- § 64:5 Federal statutes may apply and control
- § 64:6 No immediate appeal

II Due Process Limits on Prejudgment Remedies

- § 64:7 Due process limits
- § 64:8 No out-of-state attachment

III Related Issues

- § 64:9 Removed cases
- § 64:10 Postjudgment remedies
- § 64:11 Lis pendens

Rule 65. Injunctions and Restraining Orders

I Preliminary Injunctions

- § 65:1 Purpose of a preliminary injunction
- § 65:2 Independent basis for subject-matter jurisdiction needed
- § 65:3 Notice required
- § 65:4 Less formal procedures
- § 65:5 Evidentiary hearing usually held but not always required
- § 65:6 Consolidating with trial on merits
- § 65:7 Standard for granting a preliminary injunction
- § 65:8 Federal common law standard—Validity of “sliding scale” tests
- § 65:9 —Irreparable injury
- § 65:10 Heightened showing for certain “disfavored” injunctions
- § 65:11 Variance between federal and state standards in diversity cases
- § 65:12 Power to grant preliminary injunction to preserve assets for judgment is limited
- § 65:13 Motion to modify or dissolve a preliminary injunction
- § 65:14 Preliminary injunctions entered in state court before removal

II Temporary Restraining Orders

- § 65:15 Purpose of TROs
- § 65:16 TRO standard same as for preliminary injunction
- § 65:17 Procedural requirements for ex parte TRO
- § 65:18 Notice
- § 65:19 Duration
- § 65:20 Follow up with motion for preliminary injunction
- § 65:21 Intervening motion to dissolve or modify
- § 65:22 TROs entered in state court before removal

III Bond Requirement

- § 65:23 Bond required for TRO or preliminary injunction
- § 65:24 Purpose of an injunction bond
- § 65:25 Wide discretion to set bond
- § 65:26 Discretion to waive bond requirement entirely

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 65:27 Bond in public interest litigation
- § 65:28 Recovery against bond after wrongful injunction
- § 65:29 Implications of a low bond

IV Contents and Scope of Injunction and Restraining Orders

- § 65:30 Rule 65(d) applies to all injunctions, including permanent injunctions
- § 65:31 Orders must be detailed and specific
- § 65:32 Form of the order
- § 65:33 Order itself must set forth the acts restrained or required
- § 65:34 Persons bound by the order
- § 65:35 Enforcement jurisdiction over nonparties

V Appellate Review of Preliminary Injunction Rulings

- § 65:36 Grant or denial immediately appealable
- § 65:37 Trial court's power to modify or dissolve a preliminary injunction during interlocutory appeal
- § 65:38 Preliminary injunction issued by state court before removal
- § 65:39 Standard of appellate review
- § 65:40 Appellate review of TROs

Rule 65.1. Proceedings Against a Security Provider

- § 65.1:1 No need to file a new action
- § 65.1:2 Bonds or other security covered under Rule 65.1
- § 65.1:3 Proceedings only against a surety or other security provider
- § 65.1:4 Personal jurisdiction over security provider; clerk as agent to receive papers
- § 65.1:5 Right to jury trial
- § 65.1:6 Law applicable
- § 65.1:7 Timing of proceeding

Rule 66. Receivers

I Appointing a Receiver

- § 66:1 Role of an equity receiver
- § 66:2 Extraordinary remedy
- § 66:3 Equitable power in cases properly before the court
- § 66:4 Power to appoint lies within trial court's discretion
- § 66:5 Federal law controls appointment in diversity cases
- § 66:6 Factors guiding trial court's decision whether to appoint a receiver
- § 66:7 Receiver may be appointed to protect a judgment creditor
- § 66:8 Dismissal of action requires court order

II Conduct of Receivers

- § 66:9 Court exercises broad supervisory power
- § 66:10 Receiver's authority
- § 66:11 Receiver's administration and management of the estate
- § 66:12 Suits by the receiver
- § 66:13 Suits against the receiver
- § 66:14 Law governing the capacity of receiver to sue and be sued

III Relation to Jurisdiction and Other Matters

- § 66:15 Subject-matter jurisdiction
- § 66:16 Removal
- § 66:17 In rem jurisdiction
- § 66:18 Stay of other proceedings
- § 66:19 In personam jurisdiction
- § 66:20 Interlocutory appeal
- Rule 67. Deposit into Court

I Depositing Money or Other Property

- § 67:1 Purpose of Rule 67
- § 67:2 Leave of court required
- § 67:3 Deposit does not alter legal obligations
- § 67:4 Depositing party may assert claim
- § 67:5 Depositing party must serve the order granting leave on the clerk of court
- § 67:6 Deposit made as part of an interpleader
- § 67:7 Motion initiated by opposing party
- § 67:8 Deposit as a mootness tactic

II Court's Responsibilities

- § 67:9 Decide and disburse
- § 67:10 Statutory obligations
- § 67:11 Interest-bearing account required
- Rule 68. Offer of Judgment

I The Role and Implications of Rule 68

- § 68:1 What Rule 68 authorizes and why
- § 68:2 The potential added stakes of attorney's fees
- § 68:3 Civil rights actions

II Offer of Judgment Mechanics

- § 68:4 Only a defending party can make an offer of judgment
- § 68:5 Time when offer can be made
- § 68:6 Offer generally must stay open for full 14-day period
- § 68:7 Effect of summary-judgment grant during the 14-day period
- § 68:8 How an offer of judgment is made
- § 68:9 How an offer of judgment is accepted
- § 68:10 Entering judgment on an accepted offer
- § 68:11 Multiple offers are possible
- § 68:12 A Rule 68 offer must be for judgment and include pre-offer costs
- § 68:13 Offer may include liability disclaimer
- § 68:14 Clarity of terms
- § 68:15 Offer is construed pursuant to general contract principles
- § 68:16 Clarification of ambiguous offers
- § 68:17 Offers involving multiple parties
- § 68:18 Applicability to class actions and other representative actions

TABLE OF CONTENTS

III Effect of Accepted Offer

- § 68:19 Accepted offer results in a judgment on the record
- § 68:20 Effect of accepted offer on award of costs
- § 68:21 Award of attorney's fees when the fees are an element of costs
- § 68:22 Award of attorney's fees when the fees are not an element of costs
- § 68:23 Post-judgment interest
- § 68:24 Obtaining relief from a Rule 68 judgment

IV Effect of Rejected Offer

- § 68:25 Rejected offer does not moot the case
- § 68:26 Rule 68 shifts post-offer costs if the plaintiff wins but wins less than the offer
- § 68:27 Split on whether Rule 68 cost-shifting is triggered by a settlement
- § 68:28 Rule 68 cost-shifting is mandatory when it is triggered
- § 68:29 Rule 68 does not shift either party's pre-offer costs
- § 68:30 Effect on attorney's fees that are defined as an element of costs
- § 68:31 Rejected Rule 68 offer can affect the plaintiff's recovery of "non-costs" attorney's fees
- § 68:32 Comparing the rejected offer to the eventual judgment
- § 68:33 Valuing nonmonetary relief
- § 68:34 Comparison when the plaintiff accepts a remittitur
- § 68:35 Unaccepted offer is not admissible at trial
- § 68:36 State-law fees defined as costs

V Mootness

- § 68:37 Rejected Rule 68 offer of full relief does not moot the case
- § 68:38 Other means of attempting "unconditional surrender"

VI Relation to Other Matters

- § 68:39 Ancillary jurisdiction to enforce an accepted Rule 68 offer
- § 68:40 Appeal
- § 68:41 Preclusion doctrines
- § 68:42 State offer-of-judgment rules

Rule 69. Execution

I Procedure for Enforcing a Money Judgment

- § 69:1 The role of Rule 69
- § 69:2 Writ of execution is the presumptive mechanism
- § 69:3 Recourse to other enforcement methods
- § 69:4 Only for federal-court money judgments
- § 69:5 Execution after registering judgment in other federal court

II Enforcement Procedure

- § 69:6 Follow state practice
- § 69:7 Exception if federal statute applies
- § 69:8 Intersection with other Federal Rules
- § 69:9 Who can serve a writ of execution

III Discovery

- § 69:10 Judgment winner may take discovery to locate judgment debtor's assets
- § 69:11 Choice of federal or state discovery devices
- § 69:12 Third-party discovery

IV Relation to Jurisdiction and Other Matters

- § 69:13 Rule 69 does not confer subject-matter jurisdiction
 - § 69:14 Ancillary jurisdiction over enforcement
 - § 69:15 Ancillary jurisdiction over discovery in furtherance of enforcement
 - § 69:16 Stay of enforcement
- Rule 70. Enforcing a Judgment for a Specific Act

I Role of Rule 70

- § 70:1 Enforcing a judgment for a specific act
- § 70:2 Enforcement tied to the judgment entered
- § 70:3 Court's enforcement jurisdiction
- § 70:4 No requirement to follow state practices

II Five Remedies

- § 70:5 Appoint someone else to do it
 - § 70:6 Vest title
 - § 70:7 Clerk's writ of attachment or sequestration
 - § 70:8 Clerk's writ of execution or assistance
 - § 70:9 Contempt
- Rule 71. Enforcing Relief for or Against a Nonparty
- § 71:1 Role of Rule 71
 - § 71:2 Same enforcement processes apply
 - § 71:3 Enforcement by nonparties
 - § 71:4 Enforcement against nonparties

TITLE IX. SPECIAL PROCEEDINGS (RULE 71.1 TO RULE 76)

Rule 71.1. Condemning Real or Personal Property

I Role of Rule 71.1

- § 71.1:1 Special rules for eminent domain actions in federal court
- § 71.1:2 Scope of Rule 71.1
- § 71.1:3 Role of state law
- § 71.1:4 Jurisdiction and venue

II Procedure Under Rule 71.1

- § 71.1:5 Two-stage process contemplated
- § 71.1:6 Joinder of properties
- § 71.1:7 Complaint
- § 71.1:8 Notice
- § 71.1:9 Service
- § 71.1:10 Two ways to respond: notice of appearance or answer
- § 71.1:11 Streamlined process for defendants to assert objections and defenses to the condemnation
- § 71.1:12 Counterclaims

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 71.1:13 Defendants who do not appear or answer
- § 71.1:14 Amending pleadings
- § 71.1:15 Immediate possession

III Trial of the Issues

- § 71.1:16 Rule 71.1(h) establishes scheme for awarding just compensation
- § 71.1:17 No Seventh Amendment right to jury trial; issues other than compensation
- § 71.1:18 Methods of determining compensation
- § 71.1:19 Summary judgment on compensation
- § 71.1:20 State jury rights in diversity cases

IV Additional Requirements of Rule 71.1

- § 71.1:21 Dismissal
- § 71.1:22 Condemnation under a state's power of eminent domain
- § 71.1:23 Costs in condemnation proceedings
- § 71.1:24 EAJA as applied to condemnation actions
- § 71.1:25 Attorney's fees and expenses against U.S. for failed condemnation action

Rule 72. Magistrate Judges: Pretrial Order

I Overview of Pretrial Referrals to Magistrate Judges

- § 72:1 Article I judges
- § 72:2 Rule 72 and the Magistrates Act
- § 72:3 Two tiers of civil pretrial referrals
- § 72:4 District court determines whether to make the referral
- § 72:5 Rule 72 does not apply to pretrial rulings in Rule 73 consent cases
- § 72:6 Local rules

II Nature of the Referral

- § 72:7 Statutory authority and restrictions
- § 72:8 Dispositive vs. nondispositive
- § 72:9 District judges often proceed with caution when in doubt
- § 72:10 Referring nondispositive matter for recommendation only

III Referral to Magistrate: Particular Matters

- § 72:11 Discovery
- § 72:12 Administrative subpoenas
- § 72:13 Section 1782 applications
- § 72:14 Discovery sanctions
- § 72:15 Rule 11 sanctions
- § 72:16 Motions for default judgment
- § 72:17 Motions to amend
- § 72:18 Motions to strike
- § 72:19 Motions to intervene
- § 72:20 Motions to remand
- § 72:21 Motions to transfer
- § 72:22 Motions to stay pending arbitration

FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

- § 72:23 Motion to disqualify counsel
- § 72:24 In forma pauperis dismissals
- § 72:25 Rule 54 fee motions
- § 72:26 Motions to review costs award
- § 72:27 Trial, post-trial, and post-judgment motions
- § 72:28 “Additional duties” referrals
- § 72:29 Limited contempt power

IV Referral and Decision

- § 72:30 Initial referral
- § 72:31 Order determining a nondispositive matter
- § 72:32 Report and recommendation on a dispositive matter
- § 72:33 Amended findings and conclusions

V Objecting to Magistrate Judge Rulings

- § 72:34 Need to object to preserve full review
- § 72:35 Fourteen days to make objections
- § 72:36 Objections must be specific
- § 72:37 Motions to reconsider; tolling 14-day period
- § 72:38 District judge’s power to act sua sponte

VI Failure to Object Can Waive District Judge and Appellate Review

- § 72:39 Need to distinguish different types of waiver
- § 72:40 Waiver of district judge review of a magistrate judge’s order determining a nondispositive matter
- § 72:41 Waiver of district judge review of a magistrate judge’s report and recommendation on a dispositive matter
- § 72:42 Waiver of appellate review is allowed
- § 72:43 Notice of waiver may be required
- § 72:44 Waiver of appellate review varies by circuit
- § 72:45 Waiver of appellate review not always absolute
- § 72:46 Appellate review for matters the district judge reviews despite failure to object
- § 72:47 Waiver of appellate review as to nondispositive motion rulings

VII Standards for District Judge Review

- § 72:48 District judge review of nondispositive matters
- § 72:49 District judge review of dispositive matters
- § 72:50 Arguments not presented to the magistrate judge
- § 72:51 Adoption of magistrate judge’s report and recommendation

VIII Prisoner Actions and Petitions

- § 72:52 Conditions of confinement
- § 72:53 Habeas petitions

Rule 73. Magistrate Judges: Trial by Consent; Appeal

I Authority to Exercise Consent Jurisdiction

- § 73:1 Article I judges
- § 73:2 Statutory authority for consent jurisdiction under the Magistrates Act

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 73:4 Justiciability requirements apply
- § 73:5 Designation to receive consent jurisdiction and case assignment
- § 73:6 Specific magistrate judge

II Scope of Magistrate Judge's Authority Upon Consent

- § 73:7 Consent can be sought for plenary or limited power
- § 73:8 Postjudgment motions
- § 73:9 Related later-filed suits
- § 73:10 Contempt power
- § 73:11 Appellate review when magistrate judge hears case by consent

III Procedures for Seeking and Giving Consent

- § 73:12 All parties must consent
- § 73:13 Unserved parties
- § 73:14 Class actions
- § 73:15 New parties
- § 73:16 Motions to intervene
- § 73:17 Substituted parties
- § 73:18 Attorney consent binds client
- § 73:19 Clerk acts as middleman
- § 73:20 Written consent form
- § 73:21 Implied consent may be sufficient
- § 73:22 Judges may raise but not coerce
- § 73:23 Time to consent
- § 73:24 No right to withdraw consent after case is referred
- § 73:25 Power to vacate
- [Rule 74. Method of Appeal From Magistrate Judge to District Judge Under Title 28, U.S.C. § 636(c)(4) and Rule 73(d)] (Abrogated April 11, 1997, eff. Dec. 1, 1997)
 - § 74:1 Rule 74 Advisory Committee notes
- [Rule 75. Proceedings on Appeal From Magistrate Judge to District Judge Under Rule 73(d)] (Abrogated April 11, 1997, eff. Dec. 1, 1997)
 - § 75:1 Rule 75 Advisory Committee notes
- [Rule 76. Judgment of the District Judge on the Appeal Under Rule 73(d) and Costs] (Abrogated April 11, 1997, eff. Dec. 1, 1997)
 - § 76:1 Rule 76 Advisory Committee notes

TITLE X. DISTRICT COURTS AND CLERKS: CONDUCTING BUSINESS; ISSUING ORDERS (RULE 77 TO RULE 80)

- Rule 77. Conducting Business; Clerk's Authority; Notice of an Order or Judgment

I The District Courts Are Always Open

- § 77:1 Always open but not always staffed
- § 77:2 "After-hours" filing
- § 77:3 Electronic filing; intersection with filing deadlines

II Where the Court May Conduct its Business

- § 77:4 Trial versus other proceedings
- § 77:5 Synchronous video proceedings

III Clerk's Office

- § 77:6 When clerk's office is open
- § 77:7 Orders grantable by clerk

IV Notice of Entry of Judgment and the Appeal Clock

- § 77:8 Clerk should serve notice of entry, but appeal clock runs regardless
- § 77:9 Litigants can serve the notice
- Rule 78. Hearing Motions; Submission on Briefs
 - § 78:1 Motion days
 - § 78:2 Decision on the briefs
- Rule 79. Records Kept by the Clerk
 - § 79:1 Clerk's duty to keep the civil docket
 - § 79:2 Minimum content and specificity of docket entries
 - § 79:3 Docket errors not dispositive
 - § 79:4 Relation to Rule 58 and entry of judgment
 - § 79:5 Docket entry of judgment is distinct from the judge's underlying order
- Rule 80. Stenographic Transcript as Evidence
 - § 80:1 Testimony at a prior trial or hearing
 - § 80:2 Not the exclusive method of authenticating a transcript
 - § 80:3 Court Reporter Act

TITLE XI. GENERAL PROVISIONS (RULE 81 TO RULE 87)

- Rule 81. Applicability of the Rules in General; Removed Actions

I Applicability of the Civil Rules

- § 81:1 Proceedings in which the Civil Rules apply

II Mandamus

- § 81:2 District court mandamus
- § 81:3 Statutory authority
- § 81:4 Courts of appeal

III Procedure After Removal

- § 81:5 Civil rules apply after removal
- § 81:6 State rules still govern events that occurred before removal
- § 81:7 State court orders remain in effect until altered

IV Pleading in Removed Cases

- § 81:8 No automatic need to replead
- § 81:9 Filing answer in state court does not waive removal
- § 81:10 Time to answer (or file a pre-answer motion) in federal court
- § 81:11 Intervening default
- § 81:12 Proper service required
- § 81:13 Time to serve after removal

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 81:14 Post-removal service does not revive “dead” claims
- § 81:15 Federal pleading standards govern after removal
- § 81:16 Rule 11 sanctions

V Jury Demand in Removed Cases

- § 81:17 A post-removal jury demand is not required in two situations
 - § 81:18 Making a jury demand after removal
 - § 81:19 Waiver and late demands
 - § 81:20 State-court pleadings can qualify as a federal-court jury demand
 - § 81:21 Federal-court jury demand does not waive ability to seek a remand
- Rule 82. Jurisdiction and Venue Unaffected
- § 82:1 Rules do not expand or withdraw federal-court subject-matter jurisdiction
 - § 82:2 Joinder does not equal jurisdiction
 - § 82:3 Rule 82 refers to subject-matter jurisdiction, not personal jurisdiction
 - § 82:4 Timing rules
 - § 82:5 Venue and admiralty jurisdiction
- Rule 83. Rules by District Courts; Judge’s Directives

I Overview

- § 83:1 The role of local rules, general orders, and standing orders
- § 83:2 Authority to make binding and enforceable local rules
- § 83:3 Must be consistent with the Federal Rules and not duplicative
- § 83:4 Local rules regulating motion practice are common
- § 83:5 No forfeiture for nonwillful failure to follow a requirement of form
- § 83:6 Deferential review

II Content of Local Rules

- § 83:7 Compatibility and inconsistency
- § 83:8 Summary judgment
- § 83:9 Motions on the pleadings
- § 83:10 Alternative dispute resolution
- § 83:11 Deadline for fee motions
- § 83:12 Examples of improper local rules

III Local Rulemaking Process

- § 83:13 Creation of local rules
- § 83:14 Circuit modification or abrogation
- § 83:15 Balkanization

IV District-Wide General Orders

- § 83:16 Authority to adopt General Orders
- § 83:17 Appropriate scope of General Orders

V Individual Judge’s Standing Orders

- § 83:18 Standing orders

FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

§ 83:19 Must be consistent

§ 83:20 Actual notice

VI Management of Individual Cases

§ 83:21 Broad authority

Rule 84. [Forms] (Abrogated April 29, 2015, effective December 1, 2015.)

I The Official Forms Have Been Abrogated

§ 84:1 Brief history and purpose of the official forms

§ 84:2 Abrogation

§ 84:3 Relocation of content from Forms 5 and 6 addressing service

§ 84:4 AO form bank

§ 84:5 Pro se forms

§ 84:6 Local court forms

II Historical Commentary on Abrogated Rule 84

§ 84:7 Sufficient

§ 84:8 Illustrations, especially for notice pleading

§ 84:9 Deviating from the forms

§ 84:10 Service and waiver

Rule 85. Title

§ 85:1 Citations to the Civil Rules

§ 85:2 Citations to this book

Rule 86. Effective Dates

§ 86:1 Determining the effective date of new rules and amendments

§ 86:2 Application to pending cases

§ 86:3 Apply new rule to “maximum extent possible”

§ 86:4 Completed versus uncompleted events

§ 86:5 Supersession effect of Style Amendments

Rule 87. Civil Rules Emergency

I Declaring a Rules Emergency

§ 87:1 Role and effect of Rule 87

§ 87:2 Emergency must be declared by the Judicial Conference

§ 87:3 Conditions for an emergency

§ 87:4 Scope and effect of the declaration

II The Emergency Rules

§ 87:5 Emergency Rules regarding service of process

§ 87:6 Emergency Rules regarding extensions

APPENDIX A

ADVISORY COMMITTEE NOTES

Rule 1. Scope and Purpose

Rule 2. One Form of Action

Rule 3. Commencing an Action

Rule 4. Summons

Rule 4.1. Serving Other Process

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Rule 5.	Serving and Filing Pleadings and Other Papers
Rule 5.1.	Constitutional Challenge to a Statute—Notice, Certification, and Intervention
Rule 5.2.	Privacy Protection for Filings Made with the Court
Rule 6.	Computing and Extending Time; Time for Motion Papers
Rule 7.	Pleadings Allowed; Form of Motions and Other Papers
Rule 7.1.	Disclosure Statement
Rule 8.	General Rules of Pleading
Rule 9.	Pleading Special Matters
Rule 10.	Form of Pleadings
Rule 11.	Signing Pleadings, Motions, and Other Papers; Representations to the Court; Sanctions
Rule 12.	Defenses and Objections: When and How Presented; Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings; Consolidating Motions; Waiving Defenses; Pretrial Hearing
Rule 13.	Counterclaim and Crossclaim
Rule 14.	Third-Party Practice
Rule 15.	Amended and Supplemental Pleadings
Rule 16.	Pretrial Conferences; Scheduling; Management
Rule 16.1.	Multidistrict Litigation
Rule 17.	Plaintiff and Defendant; Capacity; Public Officers
Rule 18.	Joinder of Claims
Rule 19.	Required Joinder of Parties
Rule 20.	Permissive Joinder of Parties
Rule 21.	Misjoinder and Nonjoinder of Parties
Rule 22.	Interpleader
Rule 23.	Class Actions
Rule 23.1.	Derivative Actions
Rule 23.2.	Actions Relating to Unincorporated Associations
Rule 24.	Intervention
Rule 25.	Substitution of Parties
Rules 26–37.	Explanatory Statement Concerning 1970 Amendments
Rule 26.	Duty to Disclose; General Provisions Governing Discovery
Rule 27.	Depositions to Perpetuate Testimony
Rule 28.	Persons Before Whom Depositions May Be Taken
Rule 29.	Stipulations About Discovery Procedure
Rule 30.	Deposition by Oral Examination
Rule 31.	Depositions by Written Questions
Rule 32.	Using Depositions in Court Proceedings
Rule 33.	Interrogatories to Parties
Rule 34.	Producing Documents, Electronically Stored Information, and Tangible Things, or Entering onto Land, for Inspection and Other Purposes
Rule 35.	Physical and Mental Examinations
Rule 36.	Requests for Admission
Rule 37.	Failure to Make Disclosures or to Cooperate in Discovery; Sanctions

FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rule 38.	Right to a Jury Trial; Demand
Rule 39.	Trial by Jury or by the Court
Rule 40.	Scheduling Cases for Trial
Rule 41.	Dismissal of Actions
Rule 42.	Consolidation; Separate Trials
Rule 43.	Taking Testimony
Rule 44.	Proving an Official Record
Rule 44.1.	Determining Foreign Law
Rule 45.	Subpoena
Rule 46.	Objecting to a Ruling or Order
Rule 47.	Selecting Jurors
Rule 48.	Number of Jurors: Verdict; Polling
Rule 49.	Special Verdict; General Verdict and Questions
Rule 50.	Judgment as a Matter of Law in a Jury Trial; Related Motion for a New Trial; Conditional Ruling
Rule 51.	Instructions to the Jury; Objections; Preserving a Claim of Error
Rule 52.	Findings and Conclusions by the Court; Judgment on Partial Findings
Rule 53.	Masters
Rule 54.	Judgments; Costs
Rule 55.	Default; Default Judgment
Rule 56.	Summary Judgment
Rule 57.	Declaratory Judgment
Rule 58.	Entering Judgment
Rule 59.	New Trial; Altering or Amending a Judgment
Rule 60.	Relief from Judgment or Order
Rule 61.	Harmless Error
Rule 62.	Stay of Proceedings to Enforce a Judgment
Rule 62.1.	Indicative Ruling on a Motion for Relief that is Barred by a Pending Appeal
Rule 63.	Judge's Inability to Proceed
Rule 64.	Seizing a Person or Property
Rule 65.	Injunctions and Restraining Orders
Rule 65.1.	Proceedings Against a Surety Provider
Rule 66.	Receivers
Rule 67.	Deposit into Court
Rule 68.	Offer of Judgment
Rule 69.	Execution
Rule 70.	Enforcing a Judgment for a Specific Act
Rule 71.	Enforcing Relief for or Against a Nonparty
Rule 71.1.	Condemning Real or Personal Property
Rule 72.	Magistrate Judges: Pretrial Order
Rule 73.	Magistrate Judges: Trial by Consent; Appeal
Rule 77.	Conducting Business; Clerk's Authority; Notice of an Order or Judgment
Rule 78.	Hearing Motions; Submission on Briefs
Rule 79.	Records Kept by the Clerk

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Rule 80.	Stenographic Transcript as Evidence
Rule 81.	Applicability of the Rules in General; Removed Actions
Rule 82.	Jurisdiction and Venue Unaffected
Rule 83.	Rules by District Courts; Judge's Directives
[Rule 84.	Forms] (Abrogated April 29, 2015, eff. December 1, 2015)
Rule 85.	Title
Rule 86.	Effective Dates
Rule 87.	Civil Rules Emergency

APPENDIX B

FORMS (ABROGATED APRIL 29, 2015, EFF. DECEMBER 1, 2015)

Form 1.	Caption
Form 2.	Date, Signature, Address, E-Mail Address, and Telephone Number
Form 3.	Summons
Form 4.	Summons on a Third-Party Complaint
Form 5.	Notice of a Lawsuit and Request to Waive Service of a Summons
Form 6.	Waiver of the Service of Summons
Form 7.	Statement of Jurisdiction
Form 8.	Statement of Reasons for Omitting a Party
Form 9.	Statement Noting a Party's Death
Form 10.	Complaint to Recover a Sum Certain
Form 11.	Complaint for Negligence
Form 12.	Complaint for Negligence when the Plaintiff Does Not Know Who is Responsible
Form 13.	Complaint for Negligence Under the Federal Employers' Liability Act
Form 14.	Complaint for Damages Under the Merchant Marine Act
Form 15.	Complaint for the Conversion of Property
Form 16.	Third-Party Complaint
Form 17.	Complaint for Specific Performance of a Contract to Convey Land
Form 18.	Complaint for Patent Infringement
Form 19.	Complaint for Copyright Infringement and Unfair Competition
Form 20.	Complaint for Interpleader and Declaratory Relief
Form 21.	Complaint on a Claim for a Debt and to Set Aside a Fraudulent Conveyance Under Rule 18(b)
Form 30.	Answer Presenting Defenses Under Rule 12(b)
Form 31.	Answer to a Complaint for Money Had and Received With a Counterclaim for Interpleader
Form 40.	Motion to Dismiss Under Rule 12(b) for Lack of Jurisdiction, Improper Venue, Insufficient Service of Process, or Failure to State a Claim
Form 41.	Motion to Bring in a Third-Party Defendant
Form 42.	Motion to Intervene as a Defendant Under Rule 24

FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

- Form 50. Request to Produce Documents and Tangible Things, or to Enter onto Land Under Rule 34
- Form 51. Request for Admissions Under Rule 36
- Form 52. Report of the Parties' Planning Meeting
- Form 60. Notice of Condemnation
- Form 61. Complaint for Condemnation
- Form 70. Judgment on a Jury Verdict
- Form 71. Judgment by the Court Without a Jury
- Form 80. Notice of a Magistrate Judge's Availability
- Form 81. Consent to an Assignment to a Magistrate Judge
- Form 82. Order of Assignment to a Magistrate Judge

APPENDIX C
SUPPLEMENTAL RULES

- Rule A. Scope of Rules
- Rule B. In Personam Actions: Attachment and Garnishment
- Rule C. In Rem Actions: Special Provisions
- Rule D. Possessory, Petitory, and Partition Actions
- Rule E. Actions in Rem and Quasi in Rem: General Provisions
- Rule F. Limitation of Liability
- Rule G. Forfeiture Actions In Rem