

Table of Contents

PART 1. COVERAGE

CHAPTER 1. ORIGIN AND OVERVIEW OF FLORIDA'S WORKERS' COMPENSATION LAW

- § 1:1 Purpose of this chapter
- § 1:2 What is workers' compensation, and what is its purpose?
- § 1:3 What is an accident under the Florida Workers' Compensation Law?
- § 1:4 Employee's required behaviors to obtain and keep workers' compensation coverage
- § 1:5 Summary of benefits available under the Florida Workers' Compensation Law
- § 1:6 The 1935 origins of Florida's laws on the compensation of injured workers
- § 1:7 Constitutionality of the Florida Workers' Compensation Law
- § 1:8 Is the amendment retroactive? Examining substantive and procedural enactments to the Florida' Workers' Compensation Law
- § 1:9 Citing to this text on Florida's Workers' Compensation Law

CHAPTER 2. OCCUPATIONAL DISEASES, REPETITIVE TRAUMAS, AND EXPOSURES

- § 2:1 Purpose of this chapter
- § 2:2 Differences among occupational diseases, repetitive traumas, and exposures
- § 2:3 Burden of proof of an occupational disease
- § 2:4 Burden of proof of a repetitive trauma
- § 2:5 Burden of proof of an exposure
- § 2:6 Burden of proof of an aggravation of a preexisting disease
- § 2:7 Defenses to claims of occupational disease, repetitive trauma, or exposure
- § 2:8 Average weekly wage computations for occupational disease, repetitive trauma, or exposure claims
- § 2:9 Date of accident, notice requirements and commencement of disability for occupational disease, repetitive trauma, or exposure claims

- § 2:10 Statute of limitations for occupational disease, repetitive trauma, or exposure claims
- § 2:11 Apportionment among employers/carriers and “last injurious exposure” doctrine
- § 2:12 Apportionment between preexisting conditions and a subsequent occupational disease, repetitive trauma, or exposure
- § 2:13 Review of Florida decisions: occupational disease
- § 2:14 Review of Florida decisions: repetitive trivial trauma and exposure
- § 2:15 Accident causing disease and accidental acceleration or aggravation of disease

CHAPTER 3. ACCIDENT AND INJURY

- § 3:1 Purpose of this chapter
- § 3:2 Introduction to the definition of “accident”
- § 3:3 The accident concept in general
- § 3:4 Review of Florida decisions: compensability found
- § 3:5 Review of Florida decisions: not compensable
- § 3:6 Possible coverage as “accidents” for internal failures such as heart attacks, strokes, hernias, and cardiovascular problems under the “Victor Wine test” and the “Zundell standard”
- § 3:7 Negligent or intentional self-inflicted injury
- § 3:8 Self-inflicted injury: the aggressor rule
- § 3:9 Self-inflicted injury: the suicide cases
- § 3:10 Self-inflicted injury: intentional exposure to risk
- § 3:11 Self-inflicted injury: violation of safety appliance or rule
- § 3:12 Fighting
- § 3:13 Alcoholism as an “accident”
- § 3:14 Mental or nervous injuries and their compensability as an “accident”
- § 3:15 Bug bites and insect stings as accidents

CHAPTER 4. ARISING OUT OF AND IN THE COURSE AND SCOPE OF EMPLOYMENT

- § 4:1 Purpose of this chapter
- § 4:2 Causation is defined not by fault but by the requirements of “arising out of” and “course and scope”
- § 4:3 Burden of proof that claim arises out of and in the course and scope of employment
- § 4:4 Commuting to and returning from work: the “going and coming rule,” the “premises rule,” the “special hazard” exception, and the “mission” or “special errand” exception

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 4:5 Travel Status: the traveling employee doctrine
- § 4:6 Employees who live at work: “the bunkhouse rule,” sleeping quarters, and employee housing
- § 4:7 Deviation from the employment
- § 4:8 Positional risk doctrine, and rescuers
- § 4:9 Increased hazard doctrine, or special hazard doctrine
- § 4:10 Deviations without willful or volitional intent of claimant
- § 4:11 Deviations and the “personal comfort” doctrine
- § 4:12 Deviation from the employment: frolic, banter, and horseplay
- § 4:13 Deviation or pause from the tasks of employment:
lunchtime and breaks
- § 4:14 Deviation from the employment: the personal errand
- § 4:15 Deviation from the employment: for emergency saving life or property
- § 4:16 Connection with the employment
- § 4:17 Recreational and social activities
- § 4:18 Dual purpose doctrine
- § 4:19 Connection with the employment: personal injury:
medical causation (causal connection)
- § 4:20 Subsequent intervening accidents and intervening
noncompensable accidents
- § 4:21 Successive compensable accidents or injuries
- § 4:22 Connection with the employment: the logical cause doctrine

CHAPTER 5. MAJOR CONTRIBUTING CAUSE

- § 5:1 Purpose of this chapter
- § 5:2 Introduction and overview of major contributing cause
- § 5:3 Burden of proof and definition of major contributing cause
- § 5:4 How and when major contributing cause applies to determine whether the accident and injury are compensable and then whether the medical or indemnity benefits are payable by the employer/carrier
- § 5:5 Review of pre-1994 case law decisions still vital after the enactment of major contributing cause: initial compensability of the accident
- § 5:6 Review of pre-1994 case law decisions still vital after the enactment of major contributing cause:
compensability of a symptom, sequela, or manifestation of the injury
- § 5:7 “Hindrance to recovery” theory of causation

CHAPTER 6. EMPLOYERS AND EMPLOYEES

- § 6:1 Purpose of this chapter

WORKERS' COMPENSATION

- § 6:2 Burden of providing workers' compensation insurance
- § 6:3 The employment contract in general
- § 6:4 Which employers provide workers' compensation coverage in Florida?
- § 6:5 Which workers are covered by Florida's Workers' Compensation Law?
- § 6:6 Who is the employer under the Florida Workers' Compensation Law?
- § 6:7 Who is the employer under the Florida Workers' Compensation Law when the claimant works for a state agency?
- § 6:8 Who meets the statutory definition of an employee under the Florida Workers' Compensation Law?
- § 6:9 Considered an employee under the Florida Workers' Compensation Law: the construction industry
- § 6:10 Considered an employee under the Florida Workers' Compensation Law: corporate officers and directors who do not elect to exempt themselves from coverage
- § 6:11 Considered an employee under the Florida Workers' Compensation Law: partnership by election
- § 6:12 Considered an employee under the Florida Workers' Compensation Law: volunteer firefighters
- § 6:13 Considered an employee under the Florida Workers' Compensation Law: sole proprietor by election
- § 6:14 Considered an employee under the Florida Workers' Compensation Law: volunteers
- § 6:15 Considered an employee under the Florida Workers' Compensation Law: employment by the state or by political subdivisions
- § 6:16 Considered an employee under the Florida Workers' Compensation Law: improperly terminated employees of an employee leasing company
- § 6:17 Covered as if an employee: an individual injured during a mandatory orientation session is deemed an employee for the purposes of coverage under the Florida Workers' Compensation Law
- § 6:18 Covered as if an employee: an individual whose employment is ended but is injured while picking up a final paycheck within a reasonable time is deemed an employee for the purposes of coverage under the Florida Workers' Compensation Law
- § 6:19 Not an employee under the Florida Workers' Compensation Law: independent contractors: dates of accident prior to January 1, 1993
- § 6:20 Not an employee under the Florida Workers' Compensation Law: independent contractors for dates of accident from January 1, 1994, through December 31, 2003
- § 6:21 Not an employee under the Florida Workers'

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- Compensation Law: independent contractors for dates of accident on or after January 1, 2004
- § 6:22 Not an employee under the Florida Workers' Compensation Law: other individuals specifically excluded by statute
- § 6:23 Not an employee under the Florida Workers' Compensation Law: domestic servants in private homes
- § 6:24 Not an employee under the Florida Workers' Compensation Law: some agricultural laborers
- § 6:25 Not an employee under the Florida Workers' Compensation Law: professional athletes
- § 6:26 Not an employee under the Florida Workers' Compensation Law: prisoners, inmates, and those doing community service labor under court sentence
- § 6:27 Not a statutory employee of the general contractor under the Florida Workers' Compensation Law: materialmen on a construction site
- § 6:28 Loaned employees, borrowed servants, dual employers, and special employers under the Florida Workers' Compensation Law
- § 6:29 Estoppel as applied to establish an employment relationship in a workers' compensation case

CHAPTER 6A. EXCLUSIVE REMEDY: WORKERS' COMPENSATION IMMUNITY FROM CIVIL LIABILITY

- § 6A:1 Purpose of this chapter
- § 6A:2 Overview of employer immunity from civil suit via the exclusive remedy of the Florida Workers' Compensation Law
- § 6A:3 Employer immunity via the Florida Workers' Compensation Law: an overview of the legislative history of the "exclusive remedy"
- § 6A:4 Immunity via the exclusive remedy of the Florida Workers' Compensation Law arising from statutory employers, contractors, and subcontractors
- § 6A:5 Immunity and exclusive remedy for managers, supervisors and others with managerial or policy making capacity
- § 6A:6 Immunity and exclusive remedy of professional employer organization, employee leasing company, temporary labor, or help supply services company and of its client
- § 6A:7 Immunity, exclusive remedy, and the dangerous instrumentality doctrine
- § 6A:8 Immunity and exclusive remedy as affected by the injury happening in another state or happening in Florida while covered by the laws of another state

- § 6A:9 Immunity of the employer and carrier via the exclusive remedy of the Florida Workers' Compensation Law: exclusiveness and inability to waive the relationship
- § 6A:10 Partial immunity of construction design professionals via the exclusive remedy of the Florida Workers' Compensation Law
- § 6A:11 Relationship between exclusive remedy, immunity and indemnity
- § 6A:12 Immunity or exclusive remedy bars contribution
- § 6A:13 Immunity of co-employees and the exception for unrelated works via the exclusive remedy of the Florida Workers' Compensation Law
- § 6A:14 Joint ventures and immunity of the joint employers under the exclusive remedy of the Florida Workers' Compensation Law
- § 6A:15 Dual persona doctrine: mergers, acquisitions and their effect upon the exclusive remedy arising from the Florida Workers' Compensation Law
- § 6A:16 Estoppel to deny coverage in excluded employment
- § 6A:17 Estoppel to establish an employment relationship
- § 6A:18 Estoppel to prevent workers' compensation exclusivity or immunity from arising via the exclusive remedy of the Florida Workers' Compensation Law
- § 6A:19 Waiver of exclusion or exemption
- § 6A:20 Waiver of immunity arising from the exclusive remedy of the Florida Workers' Compensation Law due to an employer's intentional act or an intentional tort
- § 6A:21 Exception to immunity via the exclusive remedy of the Florida Workers' Compensation Law: criminal acts
- § 6A:22 Exclusive remedy: Claimant creates immunity via "election of remedies"
- § 6A:23 Immunity, exclusive remedy, and employers who were not required by law to provide workers' compensation coverage
- § 6A:24 Exclusive remedy versus causes of action where defenses are enumerated yet workers' compensation coverage or immunity is not listed
- § 6A:25 Effect upon exclusive remedy immunity when workers' compensation insurer denies claim as not arising out of the course and scope of employment
- § 6A:26 Effect upon exclusive remedy immunity when workers' compensation insurer denies claim by asserting that no employment relationship existed
- § 6A:27 Effect upon exclusive remedy immunity when workers' compensation insurer denies claim due to

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- pre-existing medical condition or a medical causation defense
- § 6A:28 Effect upon exclusive remedy immunity when workers' compensation insurer denies claim due to pre-existing condition, horseplay, intoxication, self-inflicted injury or misrepresentation

CHAPTER 7. LIABILITY LAWSUITS AGAINST CARRIERS, SERVICING AGENTS, AND CLAIMS ADJUSTERS AND IMMUNITY FROM SUIT

- § 7:1 Purpose of this chapter
- § 7:2 Burden of proof in liability lawsuits against carriers, servicing agents, and claims adjusters
- § 7:3 Who is included in the phrase "servicing agent" or "claims adjuster"
- § 7:4 Immunity of carriers, servicing agents, and third party administrators from claimants
- § 7:5 Immunity of claims adjusters, administrators and risk managers from claimants
- § 7:6 Immunity of lawyer and law firm representing employer

CHAPTER 8. CONFLICT OF LAWS

- § 8:1 Conflict of laws and federal jurisdiction
- § 8:2 Federal Occupational Safety and Health Act
- § 8:3 Federal Coal Mine Health and Safety Act
- § 8:4 Americans with Disabilities Act
- § 8:5 Social Security and the Florida Workers' Compensation Law
- § 8:6 Defense Base Act, Longshore Act, other federal laws and their relationship to Florida's Workers' Compensation Law
- § 8:7 Choice of law when workplace accidents involve automobiles
- § 8:8 Burden of payment when both PIP and work comp are payable
- § 8:9 Is PIP or work comp primary, and who pays first?
- § 8:10 Does PIP or work comp pay the claimant's wage claim?
- § 8:11 Does PIP or work comp pay the claimant's medical bills? (And what about the deductible?)
- § 8:12 Settlement issues as affected by PIP and work comp laws

CHAPTER 9. DEFENSES

- § 9:1 Purpose of this chapter; Affirmative Defenses, Duty to Raise, and Possible Waiver Due to Timeliness

WORKERS' COMPENSATION

- § 9:2 The defense of no coverage under the Florida Workers' Compensation Law
- § 9:3 The defense of waiver of the benefits of the Workers' Compensation Law
- § 9:4 The defense of failure to give notice of the workplace injury or death, or defense based on late notice
- § 9:5 The defenses of Martin v. Carpenter, no valid contract for employment, misrepresentation upon hiring regarding prior disability/compensation, or fraud in the inducement of the employment contract (Fla. Stat. § 440.15(5)(a))
- § 9:6 The defense of not an employee
- § 9:7 The defenses of limitations
- § 9:8 The defense of no accident or injury
- § 9:9 The defense of not arising out of and not in the course and scope of employment
- § 9:10 The defense of disease
- § 9:11 The defense of no causal relationship
- § 9:12 The defense of intoxication
- § 9:13 The defense of the same claim pending in another state
- § 9:14 The defense of res judicata
- § 9:15 The defense of waiver by payment of compensation
- § 9:16 The defense of an idiopathic condition
- § 9:17 Defenses based on drug use by employees, drug testing by employers, and implementation of a drug-free workplace
- § 9:18 120-day "pay and investigate" period: defense for employer, or claim of estoppel by employee
- § 9:19 Fraud or "Misrepresentation Defense": Defense that claimant providing false, misleading, or incomplete information after injury forfeits all claims and benefits
- § 9:20 Defenses arising out of claimant causing his own accident (suicide, overdoses, etc.)
- § 9:21 Defense from claimant's safety violation
- § 9:22 Voluntary limitation of income
- § 9:23 Voluntary limitation of income: deemed earnings
- § 9:24 Deadlines for denying claims made after October 1, 2003
- § 9:25 Substantial earning capacity
- § 9:26 Illegal alien or undocumented immigrant
- § 9:27 Misconduct on-the-job as a defense against temporary indemnity benefits
- § 9:28 Apportionment of liability for payment of medical and indemnity benefits between the workplace accident and some other cause
- § 9:29 The defense of failure to minimize injury or mitigate damages by failing to obtain or accept medical care

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CHAPTER 10. LIMITATIONS

- § 10:1 Purpose of this chapter
- § 10:2 Burden of proof, and appellate standard of review, regarding statute of limitations
- § 10:3 E/C's duty to assert timely the statute of limitations to avoid waiver
- § 10:4 Commencement of the running of the statute of limitations
- § 10:5 Tolling the statute of limitations by filing a petition for benefits
- § 10:6 Tolling or extending the statute of limitations by providing indemnity
- § 10:7 Tolling or extending the statute of limitations by employer or carrier providing medical care or by claimant using an authorized medical apparatus
- § 10:8 Tolling the statute of limitations for incompetents or minors
- § 10:9 Tolling the statute of limitations via waiver, misrepresentation or estoppel
- § 10:10 Tolling the statute of limitations due to filing a personal injury suit
- § 10:11 Attempting to toll the statute of limitations due to "reasonableness" or equity
- § 10:12 Whether certain workplace claims are exempt from or unaffected by the statute of limitations
- § 10:13 Reviving a claim extinguished by the statute of limitations
- § 10:14 Limitations upon actions for modification of a merit order or compensation order
- § 10:15 Limitations period may be extended by new law or enactment but not shortened
- § 10:16 Limitations not applicable against the state
- § 10:17 Effect of pending claim or appeal upon the running of the statute of limitations
- § 10:18 Can employer waive the statute of limitations as to the carrier and vice versa?
- § 10:19 Limitations for claims against the special disability trust fund
- § 10:20 Effect of medical prosthesis or implanted medical apparatus upon the running of the statute of limitations

CHAPTER 11. PRESUMPTIONS

- § 11:1 Purpose of this chapter
- § 11:2 Obsolete legislative presumptions: that sufficient notice of workers' compensation claim has been given
- § 11:3 Obsolete legislative presumptions: that the workers'

- compensation injury was not occasioned primarily by intoxication of the injured employee
- § 11:4 Legislative presumptions: if the employee was intoxicated, the workers' compensation injury was caused by that intoxication
- § 11:5 Obsolete legislative presumptions: that the workers' compensation injury was not occasioned by the willful intention of the injured employee to injure or kill himself or another
- § 11:6 The "Heart/Lung Bill," the "Firefighter's Presumption," or the "Heart-Lung Statute" applicable to certain public officers with cardiovascular or pulmonary injuries
- § 11:7 Legislative presumptions relative to certain communicable diseases contracted by firefighters, paramedics, emergency medical technicians, law enforcement officers, and correctional officers
- § 11:8 Legislative presumptions in workers' compensation as applied to law enforcement officers, firefighters, emergency medical technicians, and paramedics
- § 11:9 Rebuttable presumption: leased employees and workers' compensation
- § 11:10 Legislative presumptions: claimant concedes that late payment was due to circumstances beyond e/c's control by concluding claim without requesting penalties

CHAPTER 12. THIRD-PARTY TORTFEASORS AND SUBROGATION

- § 12:1 E/c/sa's workers' compensation lien upon claimant's recovery from third party tortfeasor: the Manfredo formula
- § 12:2 Who can bring suit against the third-party tortfeasor—claimant, workers' compensation insurer, or both?
- § 12:3 Employer's accrual of cause of action against the employee's third-party tortfeasor
- § 12:4 Constitutionality of the workers' compensation subrogation and third party statutes
- § 12:5 Who are third-party tortfeasors?
- § 12:6 Who are insured (covered) third-party tortfeasors?
- § 12:7 Who has venue and jurisdiction over Fla. Stat. § 440.39 and action thereunder?
- § 12:8 Settlement by third-party tortfeasor with employee
- § 12:9 Equitable distribution and liens upon recovery from third-party tortfeasor
- § 12:10 Res judicata in third-party actions
- § 12:11 Failure to file a compensation claim as evidence in a third-party action

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 12:12 Veterans' benefits: the Veterans' Administration may be subrogee of employee's rights

CHAPTER 13. CONTROVERSY AND REIMBURSEMENT BETWEEN AND AMONG EMPLOYERS AND CARRIERS

- § 13:1 Controversy between carriers; contribution between employers
- § 13:2 Controversies between the employer and its own insurance carrier

CHAPTER 14. THE SPECIAL DISABILITY (SECOND INJURY) TRUST FUND

- § 14:1 The purpose of the fund and of this chapter
- § 14:2 Burden of proof of fund recovery
- § 14:3 Review of Florida decisions: medical merger
- § 14:4 Review of Florida decisions: other requirements for fund reimbursement
- § 14:5 Fund reimbursement to employers who hire workers who have been unemployed for two years or to "preferred workers"
- § 14:6 Deadlines, nonclaim statutes, and statutes of limitations regarding claims against the Special Disability Trust Fund

CHAPTER 15. APPORTIONMENT

- § 15:1 Apportionment: accident occurring on or after October 1, 2003
- § 15:2 Apportionment before October 1, 2003: taking the employee as we find him; review of Florida decisions
- § 15:3 Apportionment before October 1, 2003: how the apportionment is to be made
- § 15:4 Apportionment before October 1, 2003: acceleration and aggravation; taking the employee as we find him; disease; summary
- § 15:5 Apportionment before October 1, 2003: Subsequent intervening injuries: apportionment inapplicable
- § 15:6 Apportionment and the burden of proof

CHAPTER 16. OFFSETS, REDUCTIONS, AND RECOUPING COMPENSATION

- § 16:1 Purpose of this chapter
- § 16:2 Burden of proof of offsets
- § 16:3 Jurisdiction to determine offsets
- § 16:4 Maximum offset amounts: $20/20%
- § 16:5 Maximum amounts of compensation and maximum compensation rates

- § 16:6 Administrative trust fund payments and offsets for PTD supplemental benefits
- § 16:7 No offset for special disability trust fund recovery
- § 16:8 Widows' benefits
- § 16:9 Noncompliance, misfeasance, or malfeasance of claimant
- § 16:10 Criminal activity by claimant
- § 16:11 Incarceration, imprisonment, or inmate status of the claimant
- § 16:12 Offset for subsequent injuries or prior injuries
- § 16:13 Offset for subrogation or third party recovery
- § 16:14 Offset due to passage of time since industrial accident
- § 16:15 Grice offset: combined benefits not to exceed 100% of the average weekly wage
- § 16:16 Unemployment compensation
- § 16:17 Advances paid to claimant
- § 16:18 Waiting period and offset for first seven days of disability
- § 16:19 Employer recovering from carrier payments made by employer to claimant
- § 16:20 Pensions
- § 16:21 Disability benefits from private insurance policies
- § 16:22 "Reclassifying" benefits: e/c taking credit for disability payments paid for wrong class of compensation
- § 16:23 Overpayment and/or "gratuity" by employer/carrier to claimant
- § 16:24 Offset for workers' compensation benefits paid by other states
- § 16:25 Social Security benefits
- § 16:26 The Social Security disability offset reducing claimant's benefits to a maximum of 80% of his average weekly wage
- § 16:27 Child support setoffs and other claims of creditors
- § 16:28 Failure to give notice of injury or death
- § 16:29 The 90-day waiting period under the 1978 Act
- § 16:30 Offsets for employer-paid sick leave or vacation time
- § 16:31 Offsets against attorney fee awards due to written offers to settle
- § 16:32 Apportionment and reduction of indemnity and medical payments due to merger with a pre-existing condition

CHAPTER 17. INSURANCE POLICY ISSUES
AS IMPLICATED BY THE FLORIDA
WORKERS' COMPENSATION LAW

- § 17:1 Purpose of this chapter
- § 17:2 The workers' compensation policy and its statutorily required format

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 17:3 Creating workers' compensation coverage by estoppel, faulty cancellation or binder
- § 17:4 Waiver of workers' compensation exemptions for owners or other employees
- § 17:5 Self-insurance and the Florida Workers' Compensation Law
- § 17:6 Substituting carrier for employer
- § 17:7 Misrepresentations in the workers' compensation application or fraud in the inducement
- § 17:8 Workers' Compensation adjuster education
- § 17:9 The Florida workers' compensation insurance plan
- § 17:10 Rates and excess profits under the Florida Workers' Compensation Law
- § 17:11 Review of Florida decisions: liability of insurance agent or broker for failure to obtain workers' compensation coverage
- § 17:12 Review of Florida decisions: employer's automobile liability insurance instead of workers' compensation coverage
- § 17:13 Insured's cause of action against workers' compensation insurer for failure to provide coverage
- § 17:14 Private health insurance and possible concurrent coverage under the Florida Workers' Compensation Law
- § 17:15 Insolvency of a workers' compensation insurer and the insurance guaranty association
- § 17:16 Trust funds and assessments upon workers' compensation carriers

CHAPTER 18. FULL TEXT OF THE CURRENT AND HISTORICAL FLORIDA WORKERS' COMPENSATION LAW

- § 18:1 Purpose of this chapter
- § 18:2 Full text of the current Florida Workers' Compensation Law (current through February 6, 2026)
- § 18:3 Full text of the 2003 Florida Workers' Compensation Law
- § 18:4 Full text of the 1994 Florida Workers' Compensation Law
- § 18:5 Full text of the 1989 Florida Workers' Compensation Law
- § 18:6 Excerpt from the 1943 Florida Workers' Compensation Law

Table of Contents

PART 2. BENEFITS

CHAPTER 19. AVERAGE WEEKLY WAGE

- § 19:1 Purpose of this chapter
- § 19:2 Introduction and overview of average weekly wage
- § 19:3 Burden of proof of AWW
- § 19:4 Standard of appellate review: AWW
- § 19:5 Computing AWW: methods
- § 19:6 Computing AWW: the $\frac{1}{13}$ th formula and “substantially the whole of 13 weeks”
- § 19:7 Computing AWW: similar employee
- § 19:8 Computing AWW: seasonal workers
- § 19:9 Computing AWW: “contract of hire” or the “full-time weekly wages” basis
- § 19:10 Computing AWW: minors and workers age 21 and younger
- § 19:11 Computing AWW: part-time workers
- § 19:12 Computing AWW: concurrent employment, second jobs, and “moonlighting”
- § 19:13 Defining “wages”
- § 19:14 Effect of tips, commissions, and untaxed income on AWW
- § 19:15 Fringe benefits prior to the 1990 amendments: general rule
- § 19:16 Fringe benefits prior to the 1990 amendments: items included in AWW
- § 19:17 Fringe benefits prior to the 1990 amendments: items excluded from AWW
- § 19:18 Fringe benefits after the 1990 amendments
- § 19:19 Post-accident earnings as they affect AWW
- § 19:20 Earnings from prior employment
- § 19:21 Subsequent intervening accidents as they affect AWW
- § 19:22 Closely held businesses, sole proprietorships, and corporate ownership as it affects AWW
- § 19:23 Stipulated AWW
- § 19:24 Occupational disease or exposure as it affects the computation of AWW
- § 19:25 Average monthly wage
- § 19:26 Compensation rate

CHAPTER 20. PERMANENT TOTAL DISABILITY AND REHABILITATION

- § 20:1 Purpose of this chapter
- § 20:2 Burden of proof of permanent total disability
- § 20:3 Elements of proof of permanent total disability for workplace accidents occurring on or after October 1, 2003
- § 20:4 Elements of proof of permanent total disability for workplace accidents occurring on or after January 1, 1994, but before October 1, 2003
- § 20:5 Elements of proof of permanent total disability for workplace accidents occurring before January 1, 1994
- § 20:6 The affirmative defense of substantial earning capacity
- § 20:7 The defense of sheltered employment
- § 20:8 Other defenses: causation and major contributing cause
- § 20:9 “Temporary” permanent total disability: awarding PTD with a stated ending date under the Emanuel decision
- § 20:10 Subsequent claims for PTD after the denial of a prior PTD claim
- § 20:11 Elements of proof of PTD for accidents from July 1, 1979, until January 1, 1994
- § 20:12 Reestablishment of earning capacity after permanent total disability
- § 20:13 Computing compensation due on PTD payments and PTD supplemental payments
- § 20:14 Adjudicating PTD without a controversy
- § 20:15 Rehabilitation
- § 20:16 Permanent total disability plus PTD supplemental benefits: illustrative case law summaries
- § 20:17 E/C ending or suspending PTD benefits without a prior order of the JCC

CHAPTER 21. IMPAIRMENT BENEFITS

- § 21:1 Purpose of this chapter
- § 21:2 Introduction and overview of permanent impairment
- § 21:3 Burden of proof of permanent impairment
- § 21:4 Does the permanent impairment entitle the claimant to money benefits?
- § 21:5 Computing compensation due on permanent impairments for workers compensation accidents occurring before January 1, 1994
- § 21:6 Computing compensation due on permanent impairments for workers compensation accidents

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- occurring on or after January 1, 1994, but before October 1, 2003
- § 21:7 Computing compensation due on permanent impairments for workers compensation accident occurring on or after October 1, 2003
- § 21:8 Case law guidance on how to interpret the appropriate impairment guidebook
- § 21:9 Permanent impairment and apportionment (subsequent injury)

CHAPTER 22. TEMPORARY INDEMNITY BENEFITS

- § 22:1 Purpose of this chapter
- § 22:2 Types and classifications of temporary indemnity benefits available to workers whose injury results in lost wages
- § 22:3 Statutes creating entitlement to, or defenses against, temporary indemnity benefits
- § 22:4 Temporary partial disability: required elements of proof for the claim
- § 22:5 Temporary partial disability: affirmative defenses to the claim
- § 22:6 Misconduct on-the-job as a defense against temporary partial disability benefits
- § 22:7 Temporary total disability: required elements of proof for the claim
- § 22:8 Temporary mental disability
- § 22:9 “Retraining” temporary total disability
- § 22:10 “Catastrophic” temporary total disability
- § 22:11 Case law illustrations of how the various temporary indemnity benefit classifications interact to grant or deny benefits to injured workers
- § 22:12 Relationship between disability and temporary indemnity benefits: summaries of illustrative case law
- § 22:13 Introduction to wage loss benefits (for dates of accident prior to January 1, 1994)
- § 22:14 The “old law” of wage loss before January 1, 1994
- § 22:15 The wage-loss formula; the amount of wage-loss benefits
- § 22:16 The time for payment of wage-loss benefits; when such benefits are due
- § 22:17 The length of time for which wage loss may be paid
- § 22:18 Wage-loss benefits and subsequent injury
- § 22:19 Wage-loss benefits and unemployment compensation
- § 22:20 Wage loss and Social Security
- § 22:21 Notice of wage loss

- § 22:22 Wage loss for occupational disease
- § 22:23 Ceasing wage loss benefits due to establishment of post-injury wages
- § 22:24 Self-employed claimant
- § 22:25 Prerequisites to the award of wage-loss benefits: maximum medical improvement
- § 22:26 Prerequisites to the award of wage-loss benefits: permanent physical impairment
- § 22:27 Prerequisites to the award of wage-loss benefits: inability to earn due to physical limitation
- § 22:28 Prerequisites to the award of wage-loss benefits: job search and looking for work
- § 22:29 Prerequisites to the award of wage-loss benefits: connection of the loss to the injury
- § 22:30 Westphal and the maximum number of weeks payable for temporary disability: the 104-week cap or statutory maximum on TTD and/or TPD indemnity is replaced with a 260-week cap

CHAPTER 23. DEATH, DEPENDENTS, AND DEPENDENCY

- § 23:1 Benefits payable when a workplace accident results in death vary depending upon whether the deceased had dependents
- § 23:2 Death within one year or within five years
- § 23:3 Dependents: spouse
- § 23:4 Dependents: who is a spouse?
- § 23:5 Dependents: children
- § 23:6 Dependents: stepchildren
- § 23:7 Dependents: parents
- § 23:8 Dependents: brothers, sisters, and grandchildren
- § 23:9 If no dependents, no loss for administrator to recover
- § 23:10 Benefits that personal representative may recover
- § 23:11 Lump-sum death benefits
- § 23:12 Entitlement upon dissolution of marriage
- § 23:13 Guardianships and appointment of the guardian
- § 23:14 Death benefits for college tuition or vocational-technical education
- § 23:15 Funeral expenses
- § 23:16 Recovery for wrongful death and e/c's lien upon such recovery

CHAPTER 24. MEDICALLY NECESSARY

- § 24:1 Purpose of this chapter
- § 24:2 Overview of the October 1, 2003, statutory amendments that affect medical benefits
- § 24:3 Burden of proof of workers' compensation medical benefits

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 24:4 Practice parameters and medical standards of care in workers' compensation
- § 24:5 The workers' compensation medical fee schedule
- § 24:6 Reimbursement and claims for workers' compensation medical expenses
- § 24:7 Psychiatric, psychological, and mental treatment
- § 24:8 Utilization review, division investigation, and pilot programs
- § 24:9 "Permanent impairment" defined
- § 24:10 "Date of maximum medical improvement" defined
- § 24:11 Right to control medical treatment and choose doctors: in general
- § 24:12 Remedial treatment: for such period as the nature of the injury or the process of recovery may require: life?
- § 24:13 Palliative care
- § 24:14 Change of treating physician
- § 24:15 Remedial treatment: suppose there can be no recovery?
- § 24:16 Remedial treatment: suppose there is a recovery?
- § 24:17 Remedial treatment: prosthetic devices
- § 24:18 Duty of the employer to provide alternative treatment when authorized doctor will no longer treat claimant (regarding dates of accident before Jan. 1, 1994)
- § 24:19 Experimental treatment
- § 24:20 Duty of the employee: to take reasonable care of his injury
- § 24:21 Duty of the employee: to submit to care and treatment: surgical and other procedures
- § 24:22 Duty of the employee: medical and surgical treatment: religious scruples or convictions
- § 24:23 Employee not liable to pay authorized medical providers

CHAPTER 25. DOCTORS, MEDICINE, AND MEDICAL BENEFITS

- § 25:1 Requirements to physicians: authorization
- § 25:2 May an authorized physician authorize another physician?
- § 25:3 Death or retirement of authorized physician: does a physician become authorized by taking over the practice of a physician who retires or dies?
- § 25:4 Relocation of the practice, or change in clinic or professional affiliation, of authorized physician: does a physician become deauthorized by moving his office or changing jobs?
- § 25:5 Effect of carrier's failure to respond timely to a proper request for medical authorization

- § 25:6 Requirements to workers' compensation physicians and hospitals: filing bills and reports
- § 25:7 Can physician guilty of malpractice be sued as third-party tortfeasor by workers' compensation employee?
- § 25:8 Reasonable medical probabilities or certainty as required for workers' compensation medical benefits
- § 25:9 Coercion by e/c/sa in selection of physician: prohibited?
- § 25:10 Difference between examining and treating physician
- § 25:11 Definition: independent medical examination
- § 25:12 Definition: medicine
- § 25:13 Independent medical examinations from 1990 through 1994: statutory procedure for a "super doc" or "super" IME
- § 25:14 Independent medical examinations prior to 1994: survey of case law summaries
- § 25:15 "Court" appointed physicians
- § 25:16 Medicolegal problems: Etiology—Causation—Unrelated conditions
- § 25:17 Medicolegal problems: history and verification
- § 25:18 Medicolegal problems: expert medical testimony
- § 25:19 Medicolegal problems: maximum medical improvement
- § 25:20 Physical impairment versus disability

CHAPTER 26. MEDICAL EQUIPMENT, DIAGNOSTIC TESTS, SPECIALISTS, AND MEDICALLY NECESSARY ITEMS

- § 26:1 Diagnostic tests and procedures may be covered by workers' compensation even if the accident or injury is not
- § 26:2 Chiropractic services
- § 26:3 Osteopathic services
- § 26:4 Acupuncture
- § 26:5 Weight loss programs
- § 26:6 Housing, supplies, rent, utilities, water, sewer and home comforts: compensable under Florida workers' compensation?
- § 26:7 Hospital services
- § 26:8 Attendant care or nursing services from home health care providers or family
- § 26:9 Medical mileage reimbursement and travel expenses
- § 26:10 Prostheses
- § 26:11 Funeral and death benefits
- § 26:12 Counseling benefits
- § 26:13 Alcoholism
- § 26:14 Swimming pools

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 26:15 Cars, vans, trucks, and automobiles
- § 26:16 Lawn care, yard work and grass mowing
- § 26:17 Managed care
- § 26:18 Emergency care
- § 26:19 Co-pays, deductibles and medical copayments
- § 26:20 Hospital beds
- § 26:21 Second opinions
- § 26:22 Diagnostic testing to determine the cause of symptoms
- § 26:23 Out-of-state or international medical care: compensable under Florida workers' compensation?
- § 26:24 Prescription medicine, pharmaceuticals, and pharmacy travel expenses
- § 26:25 Oxygen supplementation and heating pads

CHAPTER 27. TRAINING AND EDUCATION BENEFITS AND VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION

- § 27:1 Purpose of this chapter
- § 27:2 Introduction and overview of training and education benefits
- § 27:3 Jurisdiction and venue for retraining benefits, education benefits, and retraining Temporary Total Disability
- § 27:4 Burden of proof of training or education benefits
- § 27:5 Training and education screening process
- § 27:6 Vocational evaluation
- § 27:7 Reemployment plan
- § 27:8 Suitable gainful employment
- § 27:9 Course curriculum and duration
- § 27:10 Rehabilitation Temporary Total Disability
- § 27:11 Travel, lodging, and room and board as an incident to training and education benefits
- § 27:12 Refusing or declining offer of training and education

CHAPTER 28. PENALTIES OR INTEREST ON DELINQUENT BENEFITS OR ORDERS

- § 28:1 Purpose of this chapter
- § 28:2 Burden of proof for penalties and interest on late payment of workers' compensation
- § 28:3 Penalties for late payment of workers' compensation indemnity payable without a judicial award
- § 28:4 Payment of penalties on workers' compensation indemnity benefits after a judicial award or order
- § 28:5 Interest on late payments of workers' compensation indemnity benefits

- § 28:6 Interest or penalties against the Florida Insurance Guaranty Association for late workers' compensation payments
- § 28:7 Penalties and interest do not apply to all workers' compensation benefits
- § 28:8 Penalties on interest; interest on penalties; penalties on penalties; and interest on interest
- § 28:9 Penalties and interest and underpaid or improperly paid workers' compensation indemnity benefits
- § 28:10 Penalties and interest after an unsuccessful appeal from a workers' compensation order
- § 28:11 Penalties and interest on controversies or reimbursements among workers' compensation carriers
- § 28:12 Penalties and interest on disputes between or among workers' compensation employer and carrier and servicing agent
- § 28:13 Penalties against workers' compensation employer or carrier/servicing agent in favor of state regulators
- § 28:14 Review of Florida decisions: penalties
- § 28:15 Review of Florida decisions: interest
- § 28:16 Penalties and interest as applied to a washout settlement order of workers' compensation benefits

CHAPTER 29. COSTS

- § 29:1 Costs: Entitlement for claimant; entitlement for employer/carrier
- § 29:2 Costs: amount
- § 29:3 Costs on fees: Costs incurred in proving fee entitlement

CHAPTER 30. ATTORNEY FEES

- § 30:1 Purpose of this chapter
- § 30:2 Introduction and overview of attorney fees in workers' compensation adjudications
- § 30:3 Laws creating attorney fee entitlement in workers' compensation
- § 30:4 Laws restricting attorney fee entitlement in workers' compensation
- § 30:5 Burden of proof of entitlement to attorney fees and costs in workers' compensation
- § 30:6 Standard of review on appeal from an order awarding attorney fees and costs in workers' compensation
- § 30:7 Statutory history of claimant's entitlement to fees and costs from e/c/sa in workers' compensation
- § 30:8 Procedure for proving or disputing fee entitlement
- § 30:9 Attorney's fees: separate hearing not required
- § 30:10 Stipulations to entitlement to fees or costs

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 30:11	Prerequisite to fee and cost entitlement: securing a benefit
§ 30:12	Medical benefits obtained and fee entitlement (Fla. Stat. § 440.34(3)(a))
§ 30:13	Denied benefits later obtained and fee entitlement (Fla. Stat. § 440.34(3)(b))
§ 30:14	Compensability proven and fee entitlement (Fla. Stat. § 440.34(3)(c))
§ 30:15	Benefits delayed and attorney fees: 14-day rule or 30-day rule and fee entitlement (Fla. Stat. § 440.192(8) and § 440.34(3)(b))
§ 30:16	The 21-day rule and fee entitlement
§ 30:17	Bad faith and fee entitlement
§ 30:18	Fee entitlement denied
§ 30:19	IME disputes and fee entitlement
§ 30:20	Emergency hearings and fee entitlement
§ 30:21	State agencies, departments and immunity from fee entitlement
§ 30:22	Deposing claimant, witness or doing other discovery without litigation pending and its effect upon fee entitlement
§ 30:23	Medical bill reductions and fee entitlement
§ 30:24	Claimant missing, uncooperative, or changes lawyers and the effect upon fee entitlement
§ 30:25	Frivolous claims and fee entitlement
§ 30:26	Failure to prove misrepresentation or “fraud defense” and fee entitlement
§ 30:27	Employers winning fees and costs
§ 30:28	Appellate level attorney fees
§ 30:29	Rule nisi, enforcement, modification proceedings and fee entitlement
§ 30:30	[Reserved]
§ 30:31	Fees on Fees: Attorney fee entitlement for proving attorney fee entitlement
§ 30:32	Is there attorney fees entitlement when defeating an employer’s claim for taxable costs against the claimant?
§ 30:33	Interest on attorney fees or costs
§ 30:34	Judicial approval of fees or costs
§ 30:35	Excluded time, actions, and benefits in computing the amount of an attorney fee award
§ 30:36	Computing the amount of the claimant’s attorney fee: statutory formula is the starting point, and attorney is paid a “reasonable fee”
§ 30:37	Claimant’s attorney’s reasonable fee: computing the dollar value of “benefits obtained”
§ 30:38	Claimant’s attorney’s “reasonable” fee: Lee Engineering factors determine whether to deviate

- from the statutory percentage amount of “benefits obtained”
- § 30:39 Evidence used to prove the amount of the fee
- § 30:40 Paralegal, clerical, and non-attorney time
- § 30:41 Specificity requirements
- § 30:42 Liens upon benefits and collecting fees from claimants
- § 30:43 Time spent in proof of a fee
- § 30:44 [Reserved]
- § 30:45 Restrictions upon carrier or servicing agent recouping fee awards from employer or using fee awards to alter employer’s rate base, premium or rate filing
- § 30:46 1978 version of attorney fee and cost statutes
- § 30:47 Additional fees and costs recovered from claimant in addition to the judicial award of recovery from e/c
- § 30:48 Making checks payable to attorney and/or claimant
- § 30:49 Division of fees between attorneys or between employers/carriers
- § 30:50 Are changes to attorney fee statutes retroactive?
- § 30:51 Offers to settle, offers of judgment, and their effect upon attorney fees
- § 30:52 Compensation orders, orders adjudicating fee entitlement, and their effect upon subsequent claims for attorney fees
- § 30:53 Side stipulations on attorney fees as part of a workers’ compensation settlement: minimizing the claimant’s recovery and maximizing the claimant’s attorney’s fee amount via paperwork structuring the settlement

CHAPTER 31. [Reserved]

CHAPTER 32. LIFE EXPECTANCY TABLE

- § 32:1 US Life Tables per the US Department of Health and Human Services

CHAPTER 33. FLORIDA IMPAIRMENT RATING GUIDE

- § 33:1 The 1996 Florida Uniform Permanent Impairment Rating Schedule as required by Fla. Stat. sec. 440.15(3)(b)

CHAPTER 34. DICTIONARY OF COMMONLY USED PHRASES AND ABBREVIATIONS

- § 34:1 Phrases and abbreviations commonly used in Florida workers’ compensation

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CHAPTER 35. TABLES OF MINIMUM AND MAXIMUM COMPENSATION RATES

- § 35:1 Maximum compensation rates from 1959 to the present
- § 35:2 Minimum compensation rates from 1959 to the present
- § 35:3 Statutory sources of minimum and maximum compensation rates from 1959 to the present

Table of Contents

PART 3. LITIGATION PROCEDURE

CHAPTER 36. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

- § 36:1 Purpose of this chapter
- § 36:2 Venue in workers' compensation adjudications
- § 36:3 Judge of compensation claims' jurisdiction limited to that expressly conferred by Florida Workers' Compensation Law
- § 36:4 Jurisdiction of a Judge of Compensation Claims under the Florida Workers' Compensation Law: generally
- § 36:5 JCC's concurrent jurisdiction to enforce workers' compensation order
- § 36:6 JCC's concurrent jurisdiction with civil court to determine coverage
- § 36:7 JCC's exclusive jurisdiction to determine offsets
- § 36:8 JCC jurisdiction regarding payments to collateral providers, reimbursement disputes, and fair debt collection actions by or against doctors, clinics, and other health care providers
- § 36:9 JCC jurisdiction over people or entities who are not parties
- § 36:10 JCC jurisdiction during utilization review
- § 36:11 JCC jurisdiction while state reviews whether treatment is experimental
- § 36:12 JCC jurisdiction after bankruptcy of a party
- § 36:13 JCC's jurisdiction while an appeal is pending or after remand
- § 36:14 JCC jurisdiction regarding settlements
- § 36:15 JCC jurisdiction regarding contractual rights
- § 36:16 JCC jurisdiction to control the behaviour of attorneys and to consider certain violations of the Rules Regulating The Florida Bar
- § 36:17 JCC lacks jurisdiction over the Catholic Church
- § 36:18 JCC lacks jurisdiction to address constitutional issues or to declare a law unconstitutional
- § 36:19 Territorial coverage of the Florida Workers' Compensation Law—Covering all accidents taking place in Florida
- § 36:20 Extraterritorial coverage of the Florida Workers' Compensation Law—Generally

- § 36:21 Pendency of the same claim in another state
- § 36:22 Florida jurisdiction requirements: in general
- § 36:23 Florida jurisdiction requirements: contract within the state
- § 36:24 Florida jurisdiction requirements: employment principally localized in this state
- § 36:25 Florida jurisdiction requirements: waiver and estoppel
- § 36:26 Hiring, appointment and retention of Judges of Compensation Claims

CHAPTER 37. PLEADING AND ADJUDICATION OF BENEFITS

- § 37:1 Purpose of this chapter
- § 37:2 Authority or jurisdiction of judge of compensation claims to control discovery
- § 37:3 How workers' compensation claims are adjudicated: the commencement, prosecution, and trial of a petition for benefits
- § 37:4 Service and service of process
- § 37:5 Appearance and withdrawal of attorneys
- § 37:6 Disqualification or recusal of a judge of compensation claims
- § 37:7 Ripeness of claims, premature claims, and undisputed claims
- § 37:8 Splitting the cause of action: mature but omitted claims
- § 37:9 Claims not properly within the scope of the merit hearing may not be adjudicated by the JCC
- § 37:10 Certain claims not pled are nevertheless required to be adjudicated by the JCC (tried by implication)
- § 37:11 Claims not properly pled but nevertheless put at issue by the parties at a merit hearing are "tried by consent"
- § 37:12 Waiver of ripe claims by not raising them at a merit hearing (including claims not yet mediated or not yet pled)
- § 37:13 Claims or defenses asserted belatedly; asserted after the pretrial; or asserted for the first time after the commencement of the merit hearing or shortly before
- § 37:14 Presuit requirements: request for assistance and mediation
- § 37:15 Specificity of the petition for benefits and the required notice of the claim
- § 37:16 Default upon the defense's failure to respond to the claim
- § 37:17 Pleading requirements for defenses

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 37:18 Withdrawal of claims, voluntary dismissals, and the “two dismissal rule” making the second dismissal effective with prejudice against re-filing
- § 37:19 Involuntary dismissals and motions to dismiss
- § 37:20 Frivolous claims
- § 37:21 Death or absence of parties
- § 37:22 Failure to prosecute

CHAPTER 38. DISCOVERY, MOTION PRACTICE, AND PRETRIAL PROCEDURE

- § 38:1 Permissible discovery methods for adjudicating workers’ compensation claims
- § 38:2 Permissible time for discovery
- § 38:3 Production of documents and entry upon land
- § 38:4 Spoliation or destruction of evidence
- § 38:5 Witness and exhibit lists
- § 38:6 Independent medical examinations: introduction
- § 38:7 Independent medical examiners: IME chosen by party
- § 38:8 Independent medical examiners: IME chosen by judge
- § 38:9 Expert medical advisor (EMA)
- § 38:10 Notice of hearing or notice of trial
- § 38:11 Advances of compensation to the claimant
- § 38:12 Ex parte communications with health care providers
- § 38:13 Psychotherapist/patient privilege
- § 38:14 Summary judgments and summary final orders
- § 38:15 Mediation
- § 38:16 Disqualification or recusal of mediator
- § 38:17 Computation of time
- § 38:18 Continuances
- § 38:19 Expert witnesses
- § 38:20 Arbitration
- § 38:21 Minors, incompetents, and guardians
- § 38:22 Request for assignment of case number and opening a case file before the judge of compensation claims without the filing of a petition for benefits

CHAPTER 39. SUMMARY FINAL ORDER

- § 39:1 Purpose of this chapter
- § 39:2 Burden of proof on a motion for summary final order
- § 39:3 Summary final order rule
- § 39:4 Application of summary final order rule
- § 39:5 Issues appropriate for resolution via a motion for summary final order
- § 39:6 Notice requirements before adjudicating a motion for summary final order
- § 39:7 Proof required to win a summary final order

- § 39:8 Genuine issues as to any material facts
- § 39:9 Necessary standards for a party to be entitled to a summary final order
- § 39:10 Pleading requirements for a motion for summary final order
- § 39:11 Evidence necessary for a summary final order
- § 39:12 Attacks on credibility
- § 39:13 Affidavit requirements for motions for summary final orders
- § 39:14 Reliance on hearsay and medical records for summary final orders
- § 39:15 Necessary objections to hearsay for summary final orders
- § 39:16 Appointment of expert medical advisors and independent medical examiners
- § 39:17 Denials of summary final orders with regard to IME usage and EMA requests
- § 39:18 Requirements for moving for a summary final order
- § 39:19 Burden of proving good cause for extending the time to respond to a motion for summary final order filed by opposing party
- § 39:20 Method of requesting an extension of time to respond to the motion for summary final order filed by the opposing party
- § 39:21 Entry of a summary final order by the JCC without first holding a hearing
- § 39:22 Obtaining a hearing date and time before the JCC rules upon a motion for summary final order that requests disposition without a hearing
- § 39:23 Sanctions imposed on unsuccessful motions for summary final orders
- § 39:24 Commencement of final merit hearings before a pending motion for summary final order has been adjudicated or decided by the JCC
- § 39:25 Appeals from denial of a motion for summary final order
- § 39:26 Appeals from an opposing party's successful motion for summary final orders
- § 39:27 Necessary requirements before filing an appeal from a summary final order
- § 39:28 Necessary steps to take if your opposing party will likely appeal from your successful motion for summary final order
- § 39:29 Standard of review on appeals taken from the granting of summary final orders

CHAPTER 40. SPOILIATION AND THE "DUTY TO COOPERATE" WITH THIRD PARTY CLAIMS

- § 40:1 Purpose of this chapter

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 40:2	Spoilation by employers and carriers
§ 40:3	Spoilation by employees
§ 40:4	Spoilation analyzed under seven rubrics: remedy, identity, culpability, prejudice, quality, duty, and timing
§ 40:5	Spoilation—Remedy
§ 40:6	—Identity
§ 40:7	—Culpability
§ 40:8	—Prejudice
§ 40:9	—Quality
§ 40:10	—Duty
§ 40:11	—Timing
§ 40:12	Duty to cooperate with third-party claims

CHAPTER 41. SETTLEMENT AND OFFERS TO SETTLE

§ 41:1	Purpose of this chapter
§ 41:2	Jurisdiction, venue and burden of proof for approval of settlements in workers' compensation
§ 41:3	Standard of review on appeal from workers' compensation for settlements
§ 41:4	Format for the settlement in workers' compensation
§ 41:5	Format for offers to settle, proposals for settlement and offers of judgment in workers' compensation
§ 41:6	Release as part of a workers' compensation settlement: what rights, benefits, claims, and lawsuits are affected?
§ 41:7	Modification of a workers' compensation settlement
§ 41:8	Derivative claims, dependents and former attorneys and their rights as affected by a workers' compensation settlement
§ 41:9	Setting aside or voiding a workers' compensation settlement
§ 41:10	Interpreting and enforcing a workers' compensation settlement
§ 41:11	Verbal settlement agreement with a workers' compensation claimant
§ 41:12	Settlement with a married claimant
§ 41:13	Settlement with a pro se workers' compensation claimant
§ 41:14	Settlement with a guardian, ward, minor, or mentally incompetent workers' compensation claimant
§ 41:15	Settlement as affected by the death of the workers' compensation claimant
§ 41:16	Settlement as affected by JCC's need to approve claimant's attorney fee or a post-settlement dispute between attorney and workers' compensation claimant about the proper amount of that fee

- § 41:17 Settlement as affected by a Medicare Set-Aside Agreement with the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services
- § 41:18 Effect of fully binding settlement agreement upon jurisdiction of the JCC

CHAPTER 42. HEARINGS, TRIAL, ORDERS, AND AWARDS

- § 42:1 Purpose of this chapter
- § 42:2 Emergency hearings and emergency conferences before workers' compensation judges of compensation claims
- § 42:3 Expedited hearings
- § 42:4 Pre-hearing memorandum of law, trial brief and hearing information sheet
- § 42:5 Joint pretrial stipulation and workers' compensation pretrial compliance questionnaire
- § 42:6 Stipulations regarding workers' compensation benefits or disputes
- § 42:7 Workers' compensation trial procedure: how to conduct the "final hearing," "merit hearing," or "compensation hearing," present your evidence, and argue your case
- § 42:8 Rules of evidence at workers' compensation hearings
- § 42:9 Fifth Amendment right against self-incrimination as applied to witnesses in workers' compensation proceedings
- § 42:10 Cross-examination of witnesses in workers' compensation proceedings
- § 42:11 Medical opinion testimony restricted to medical doctors who are authorized treating physicians, IME's, EMA's or emergency care providers
- § 42:12 Expert witnesses in workers' compensation: applying the standards of admissibility of Daubert v. Merrell Dow as required by the Florida Evidence Code
- § 42:13 Expert witnesses in workers' compensation: competency of testimony, or effect of undisputed medical testimony
- § 42:14 Lay testimony in workers' compensation proceedings and "readily observable" injuries and ailments
- § 42:15 Vocational testimony, vocational evaluations, testing and rehabilitation in workers' compensation proceedings
- § 42:16 Failure to attend the workers' compensation trial, final hearing or merit hearing
- § 42:17 Post-hearing depositions and evidence in workers' compensation proceedings
- § 42:18 Re-opening the evidence after the conclusion of the workers' compensation merit hearing

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 42:19 Abbreviated final orders adjudicating workers' compensation claims

CHAPTER 43. APPEALS

- § 43:1 Merit orders or compensation orders of a judge of compensation claims: format, timing, and staleness
- § 43:2 Correcting scrivener's errors, typographical errors or clerical errors in workers' compensation orders
- § 43:3 Collateral estoppel and res judicata in workers' compensation proceedings
- § 43:4 Previous rulings in the same workers' compensation case: effect upon subsequent proceedings and power of JCC to alter
- § 43:5 Motions for rehearing and amending or vacating orders
- § 43:6 Appellate review generally, appellate standard of review, venue, and jurisdiction
- § 43:7 Appeals from determinations of workers' compensation immunity
- § 43:8 Time within which to petition for appellate review of a workers' compensation order
- § 43:9 Extending time to appeal from a workers' compensation adjudication when order is not provided to parties due to clerical error
- § 43:10 Appeal bonds in workers' compensation
- § 43:11 Appellate filing fee, record on appeal, and insolvency petition for relief from of filing fee and appellate record in workers' compensation appeals
- § 43:12 Transcripts of proceedings, lost transcripts and problems with recorded tapes of the record on appeal from a workers' compensation merit hearing
- § 43:13 Appellate briefs in workers' compensation appeals
- § 43:14 Jurisdiction of the judge of compensation claims while an appeal is pending
- § 43:15 Payment of workers' compensation benefits that either were not appealed or were abandoned on appeal
- § 43:16 Award of costs on appeal from workers' compensation adjudications
- § 43:17 Appellate attorney's fees in workers' compensation matters
- § 43:18 Review of workers' compensation adjudications by the Supreme Court of Florida

CHAPTER 44. REMAND, MANDATE, AND POST-APPEAL PROCEEDINGS

- § 44:1 Remand from an appellate court and workers' compensation proceedings thereafter

- § 44:2 Previous decisions in same case as “Law of the Case” and the effect of appellate court findings upon subsequent workers’ compensation proceedings
- § 44:3 Successor, new, or replacement judges of compensation claims
- § 44:4 Petitions for rule nisi enforcement of workers’ compensation orders or merit orders by state circuit court

CHAPTER 45. MODIFICATION OF ORDERS

- § 45:1 Purpose of this chapter
- § 45:2 Modification for change in condition
- § 45:3 Modification for mistake of fact
- § 45:4 Modification of attendant care nursing services
- § 45:5 Time within which petition for modification must be presented

CHAPTER 46. TORT LIABILITY FOR DISCRIMINATION OR RETALIATION AGAINST CLAIMANTS

- § 46:1 Judge of compensation claims lacks jurisdiction over claim of retaliatory discharge or retaliation for seeking workers’ compensation

CHAPTER 47. MEDICAL REIMBURSEMENT DISPUTES AND UTILIZATION REVIEW

- § 47:1 Purpose of this chapter
- § 47:2 Overview of medical reimbursement and overutilization disputes in workers’ compensation
- § 47:3 Jurisdiction over reimbursement and utilization disputes in workers’ compensation
- § 47:4 Burden of proof in reimbursement disputes
- § 47:5 Third-party rights in workers’ compensation reimbursement disputes
- § 47:6 Standing in workers’ compensation reimbursement disputes
- § 47:7 Procedures for filing, discovery, pre-trial motions, and adjudication of workers’ compensation reimbursement disputes
- § 47:8 Administrative rules govern workers’ compensation reimbursement disputes and utilization
- § 47:9 Florida administrative code chapter 69L-31 addresses workers’ compensation medical billing and fee schedules
- § 47:10 Florida Administrative Code chapter 69L-31 addresses utilization and reimbursement dispute procedures

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 47:11 Historical analysis: statutory history and legislative progression of utilization reviews, division investigation, and pilot programs
- § 47:12 Agency forms used for making a reimbursement dispute or responding to one

CHAPTER 48. MANAGED CARE

- § 48:1 Purpose of this chapter
- § 48:2 Introduction and overview of managed care
- § 48:3 Burden of proof under managed care
- § 48:4 Presumptions that arise under managed care
- § 48:5 Jurisdiction of the judge of compensation claims when a managed care plan applies
- § 48:6 The authority of the Florida Agency for Health Care Administration (“AHCA”) over managed care
- § 48:7 Required elements of a managed care plan of operation
- § 48:8 Medical benefits, rights and duties governed by terms of managed care plan
- § 48:9 The employer and carrier’s right to select managed care doctors
- § 48:10 Required notice to injured workers
- § 48:11 Grievance procedures
- § 48:12 Independent medical examinations under managed care
- § 48:13 Second opinions under managed care
- § 48:14 Employer’s discontinuation of a managed care plan and the subsequent effect upon claimant’s rights and benefits
- § 48:15 Managed care: helpful case law summaries

CHAPTER 49. USING THE EJCC ONLINE COURT DOCKET AND DOCUMENT FILING SYSTEM

- § 49:1 Purpose of this chapter
- § 49:2 How to use the eJCC system

CHAPTER 50. PRACTICE CHECKLISTS, OUTLINES, AND FORMS

- § 50:1 Purpose of this chapter
- § 50:2 Potential new client questionnaire (claimant’s attorney)
- § 50:3 New file checklist (defendant’s attorney)
- § 50:4 Initial request for production (claimant’s attorney)
- § 50:5 Initial request for production (defendant’s attorney)
- § 50:6 Claimant’s deposition

WORKERS' COMPENSATION

- § 50:7 Adjuster's deposition
- § 50:8 Physician's deposition
- § 50:9 Case value/exposure evaluation form
- § 50:10 Amended witness and exhibit list (used 30+ days before trial)
- § 50:11 Notice of appeal
- § 50:12 Designation of record on appeal
- § 50:13 Petition for benefits
- § 50:14 Response to petition for benefits (formerly known as a Notice of Denial)
- § 50:15 Notice of mediation conference
- § 50:16 Notice of action/change (DWC-4)
- § 50:17 Pleading caption and case style
- § 50:18 Certificate of service and good faith certification of counsel
- § 50:19 Motion for protective order
- § 50:20 Request for production—Generic form
- § 50:21 Motion to withdraw as attorneys and order
- § 50:22 Contract of representation of claimant by claimant's attorney (post-Miles and post-Castellanos)
- § 50:23 Stipulation between carriers resolving a notice of controversy, contribution claim, and subrogation
- § 50:24 Pretrial stipulation between claimant and e/c/sa
- § 50:25 Pretrial stipulation between special disability trust fund and e/c/sa
- § 50:26 Petition for rule nisi
- § 50:27 Order of consolidation
- § 50:28 Petition of indigency containing financial affidavit
- § 50:29 Affidavit of release of all claims (washout affidavit)
- § 50:30 Request for assignment of case number
- § 50:31 Attorney's fees data sheet—Form for general use
- § 50:32 —fee not in connection with settlement (OJCC Form AFDS-INT)
- § 50:33 —additional fee in connection with settlement (OJCC Form AFDS-WOA)
- § 50:34 —washout settlement (OJCC Form AFDS-WO)
- § 50:35 Affidavit in support of attorney's fees in excess of statutory guideline
- § 50:36 Motion for approval of attorney's fee and allocation of child support arrearage for settlements under Fla. Stat. § 440.20(11)(c), (d), and (e)
- § 50:37 Child support arrearage form (for completion by Central Depository)
- § 50:38 Sample form—doctor's estimate of future medical expenses
- § 50:39 Release of claims (in the format once suggested by The Florida Bar Trial Practice Section)
- § 50:40 Notice of final hearing and pretrial conference

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 50:41 Application for expedited hearing
- § 50:42 Notice of expedited hearing and order
- § 50:43 Certificate of notary public
- § 50:44 Notice of estimated cost of preparation of record on appeal
- § 50:45 Subpoena
- § 50:46 Affidavit of service of subpoena

CHAPTER 51. STATUTORY REVISIONS AND AMENDMENTS TO THE FLORIDA WORKERS' COMPENSATION LAW

- § 51:1 Purpose of this chapter
- § 51:2 Florida's Workers' Compensation Law as of 1978
- § 51:3 Florida's Workers' Compensation Law as of 1979
- § 51:4 Florida's Workers' Compensation Law as of 1980
- § 51:5 Florida's Workers' Compensation Law as of 1981
- § 51:6 Florida's Workers' Compensation Law as of 1986
- § 51:7 Florida's Workers' Compensation Law as of 1989
- § 51:8 Florida's Workers' Compensation Law as of 1990
- § 51:9 Florida's Workers' Compensation Law as of 1991
- § 51:10 Florida's Workers' Compensation Law as of 1992
- § 51:11 Florida's Workers' Compensation Law as of 1994
- § 51:12 Florida's Workers' Compensation Law as of 2001
- § 51:13 Florida's Workers' Compensation Law as of 2002
- § 51:14 Florida's Workers' Compensation Law as of 2003
- § 51:15 Florida's Workers' Compensation Law as of 2004
- § 51:16 Florida's Workers' Compensation Law as of 2005
- § 51:17 Florida's Workers' Compensation Law as of 2011

CHAPTER 52. SOCIAL SECURITY LISTINGS FOR PERMANENT TOTAL DISABILITY ARISING OUT OF ACCIDENTS FROM 1994 THROUGH 2003

- § 52:1 20 C.F.R. Ch. III, Pt. 404, Subpt. P, App. 1, as it existed on July 1, 1992, which is the version required by Fla. Stat. section 440.02(37)(f)(2002)

CHAPTER 53. SELECTED WORKERS' COMPENSATION RULES FROM THE FLORIDA ADMINISTRATIVE CODE

- § 53:1 Florida Administrative Code Chapter 69L-3 regarding workers' compensation claims
- § 53:2 Florida Administrative Code Chapter 69L-6 regarding workers' compensation compliance

WORKERS' COMPENSATION

- § 53:3 Florida Administrative Code Chapter 69L-22
regarding reemployment services in workers' compensation
- § 53:4 Florida Administrative Code Chapter 69L-30.002
regarding expert medical advisors
- § 53:5 Florida Administrative Code Chapter 69L-4 regarding assessments
- § 53:6 Florida Administrative Code Chapter 69L-5 Rules for the Self Insurers
- § 53:7 Florida Administrative Code Chapter 69L-7 regarding medical reimbursement and utilization review
- § 53:8 Florida Administrative Code Chapter 69L-8 regarding Dept. of Financial Services
- § 53:9 Florida Administrative Code Chapter 69L-9 regarding drug testing
- § 53:10 Florida Administrative Code Chapter 69L-10
regarding reimbursement against the Special Disability Trust Fund
- § 53:11 Florida Administrative Code Chapter 69L-11
regarding preferred worker program
- § 53:12 Florida Administrative Code Chapter 69L-24
regarding insurers' standards and practices
- § 53:13 Florida Administrative Code Chapter 69L-26
regarding Employee Assistance and Ombudsman Office
- § 53:14 Florida Administrative Code Chapter 69L-29
regarding Healthcare Provider Certification
- § 53:15 Florida Administrative Code Chapter 69L-30
regarding expert medical advisors
- § 53:16 Florida Administrative Code Chapter 69L-31
regarding utilization and reimbursement dispute
- § 53:17 Florida Administrative Code Chapter 69L-34 Carrier
Report of Healthcare Provider Violations
- § 53:18 Florida Administrative Code Chapter 69L-56
regarding EDI requirements

CHAPTER 54. RULES OF PROCEDURE FOR
WORKERS' COMPENSATION
ADJUDICATIONS BEFORE THE JCC OR
THE DISTRICT COURT OF APPEAL
(CURRENT THROUGH MARCH 17, 2023)

- § 54:1 Index to the current JCC rules of procedure and cross-reference table to the former rules
- § 54:2 Rules of procedure for workers' compensation
adjudications before the Office of the Judges of Compensation Claims
- § 54:3 Appeal proceedings to review workers' compensation
cases

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CHAPTER 55. TOPICAL INDEX TO THE FLORIDA WORKERS' COMPENSATION LAW

§ 55:1 Topical Index to Florida's Workers' Compensation Law

APPENDIX

Appendix A. Table for Reducing Weekly Future Payments to Present Value (Present Value Table Using a 4% Discount Factor)

Table of Laws and Rules

Table of Cases

Index