INTRODUCTION TO THE NOVEMBER 2026 EDITION

The November 2026 Edition of Automobile Liability Insurance 4th includes updated coverage throughout the publication. Topics which have received significant attention include:

- § 2:21 Availability of "per accident" limits for derivative and consequential damages claims: Loss of consortium and loss of services; negligent infliction of emotional distress
- § 5:12 Gunshot injuries and drive-by shootings
- § 6:8 Household or "intra-family" exclusion—In general
- § 12:1 Triggering the duty to defend: "Tender of defense" requirement; The "Four Corners" and "Eight Corners" rules; Duty to pay pre-tender defense costs
- § 15:23 Insurer good faith as defense to excess judgment liability
- § 20:17 Ownership, maintenance, and use requirements
- § 24:10 Indirect contact with "hit and run" vehicle
- § 27:17 Minority positi8on: Multiple injury limits available
- § 37:2 The Unfair Claims Practices Act—Availability off private right of action
- § 39:1 The owned-uninsured motor vehicle exclusion
- § 70:1 Colorado uninsured/underinsured motorist summary
- § 108:2 Texas no-fault summary

This release is also updated with new Table of Contents, Table of Laws and Rules, Table of Cases, and Index to reflect these enhancements.

Automobile Liability Insurance 4th can be accessed online on Thomson Reuters Westlaw.