

Table of Contents

CHAPTER 1. OVERVIEW OF JURY CHARGES

I. IN GENERAL

- § 1:1 Introduction to jury charges
- § 1:2 Controlling issues
- § 1:3 Types of civil jury charges
- § 1:4 Form of Texas civil jury charges
- § 1:5 —Discretion of judge
- § 1:6 —Statutory causes of action
- § 1:7 —Pattern jury charges
- § 1:8 —History
- § 1:9 Federal jury charges
- § 1:10 —Pattern jury charges
- § 1:11 Practice and procedure for Texas civil jury charges
- § 1:12 Appellate review of Texas civil jury charges

II. PLEADINGS, EVIDENCE AND JURY CHARGES

- § 1:13 Pleadings and evidence must support jury charge
- § 1:14 Sufficiency of pleadings
- § 1:15 —Special exceptions
- § 1:16 Trial amendments to pleadings
- § 1:17 —Timing
- § 1:18 Waiver of pleading insufficiencies
- § 1:19 —History
- § 1:20 Comments on weight of evidence
- § 1:21 —Harmless and reversible error
- § 1:22 Advising jury of effect of answers

CHAPTER 2. DEFINITIONS IN TEXAS CIVIL JURY CHARGES

- § 2:1 Introduction to jury charge definitions
- § 2:2 Rules for jury charge definitions
- § 2:3 Duty and discretion of judge in jury charge definitions
- § 2:4 Definitions of legal and technical terms
- § 2:5 —When required
- § 2:6 —When not required
- § 2:7 Placement of definitions in jury charge
- § 2:8 Appellate review of jury charge definitions

CHAPTER 3. INSTRUCTIONS IN TEXAS CIVIL JURY CHARGES

I. IN GENERAL

- § 3:1 Introduction to jury charge instructions
- § 3:2 Rules for jury charge instructions
- § 3:3 Duty and discretion of judge in jury charge instructions
- § 3:4 General jury instructions
- § 3:5 —After oath and before voir dire
- § 3:6 —After selection of jurors
- § 3:7 —Before closing arguments
- § 3:8 —After verdict
- § 3:9 Drafting and placement of instructions in jury charges
- § 3:10 Appellate review of jury instructions
- § 3:11 Examples of incorrect instructions as harmless error
- § 3:12 Examples of incorrect instructions as reversible error
- § 3:13 Examples of omitted instructions as harmless error
- § 3:14 Examples of omitted instructions as reversible error

II. JURY INSTRUCTIONS ON EVIDENCE

- § 3:15 Evidence instructions—Advising jury of effect of answers
- § 3:16 —Assuming controverted facts
- § 3:17 —Burden of proof
- § 3:18 —Circumstantial evidence
- § 3:19 —Commenting on weight of evidence
- § 3:20 —Common knowledge
- § 3:21 —Dead Man’s Rule
- § 3:22 —Facts—Conclusively established
- § 3:23 — —Established by discovery sanctions
- § 3:24 — —Judicially noticed
- § 3:25 —Highlighting theory of recovery or defense
- § 3:26 —Limitation of evidence
- § 3:27 —“Nudging” or “tilting” jury
- § 3:28 —Plea of privilege
- § 3:29 —Presumptions
- § 3:30 —Spoliation of evidence
- § 3:31 —Sudden emergency
- § 3:32 —Summarizing evidence
- § 3:33 —Unavoidable accident

III. JURY INSTRUCTIONS ON DAMAGES

- § 3:34 Damages instructions

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 3:35 —Exemplary damages
- § 3:36 — —Corporate liability
- § 3:37 —Medical expenses
- § 3:38 —Mitigation
- § 3:39 —Multiple culpable parties
- § 3:40 —Taxation
- § 3:41 —Unrelated injuries

CHAPTER 4. QUESTIONS IN TEXAS CIVIL JURY CHARGES

I. IN GENERAL

- § 4:1 Duty and discretion of judge to submit jury questions
- § 4:2 Right and duty of parties to submit questions to jury
- § 4:3 Jury questions must be fact questions
- § 4:4 Examples of proper questions of fact for jury
- § 4:5 Examples of improper questions of law for jury
- § 4:6 Mixed questions of fact and law
- § 4:7 Jury questions requiring definitions
- § 4:8 Drafting questions in jury charges
- § 4:9 Appellate review of jury questions

II. PLEADINGS, EVIDENCE AND JURY QUESTIONS

- § 4:10 Jury questions must be supported by pleadings
- § 4:11 Jury questions must be supported by evidence
- § 4:12 Jury questions on facts conclusively proven by evidence
- § 4:13 Jury questions on facts supported by some evidence
- § 4:14 Jury questions on facts supported by no evidence
- § 4:15 Jury questions assuming controverted facts
- § 4:16 —Examples
- § 4:17 Jury questions on termination of parent-child relationship

III. JURY QUESTIONS ABOUT CONTRACTS AND WRITTEN INSTRUMENTS

- § 4:18 Fact and law questions in contract and written instrument cases
- § 4:19 Proper questions of fact about ambiguous terms
- § 4:20 Improper questions of law in contract and instrument cases
- § 4:21 Improper questions about terms of written contracts

IV. JURY QUESTIONS ABOUT DAMAGES

- § 4:22 Damages questions

- § 4:23 —Personal injury cases
- § 4:24 —Proportionate responsibility
- § 4:25 —Bifurcated trials

CHAPTER 5. CONDITIONAL AND DISJUNCTIVE JURY QUESTIONS

- § 5:1 Introduction to conditional and disjunctive jury questions
- § 5:2 Conditional jury questions
- § 5:3 —Examples of proper conditioning
- § 5:4 —Examples of improper conditioning
- § 5:5 Complaining of erroneous conditional jury questions
- § 5:6 Disjunctive submission of alternative conditions or facts

CHAPTER 6. BURDEN OF PROOF IN JURY CHARGE

- § 6:1 Introduction to burden of proof in jury charge
- § 6:2 Proof by preponderance of evidence
- § 6:3 Proof by clear and convincing evidence
- § 6:4 Allocating burden of proof to proper party
- § 6:5 —Burden on both parties
- § 6:6 Placement of burden of proof in jury questions
- § 6:7 Placement of burden of proof in jury instructions
- § 6:8 History of placement of burden of proof in jury charges

CHAPTER 7. BROAD-FORM AND GRANULATED JURY CHARGES

- § 7:1 Introduction to broad-form and granulated submissions
- § 7:2 Duty and discretion of judge in broad-form submissions
- § 7:3 Party preferences for broad-form and granulated submissions
- § 7:4 Examples of proper broad-form submissions
- § 7:5 Examples of improper broad-form submissions
- § 7:6 Examples of proper granulated submissions
- § 7:7 Duplicitous “yes” or “no” and “and/or” jury questions
- § 7:8 History of broad-form and granulated submissions
- § 7:9 Appellate review of broad-form submissions

CHAPTER 8. INFERENTIAL REBUTTALS IN JURY CHARGES

- § 8:1 Introduction to inferential rebuttals in jury charges
- § 8:2 Pleading and requesting inferential rebuttal theories
- § 8:3 Inferential rebuttal tort theories
- § 8:4 —“Act of God”

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 8:5 —New and independent cause
- § 8:6 —Sole proximate cause
- § 8:7 —Sudden emergency
- § 8:8 —Unavoidable accident
- § 8:9 Burden of persuasion on inferential rebuttals
- § 8:10 Prohibition against inferential rebuttal questions
- § 8:11 Appellate review of inferential rebuttal questions
- § 8:12 History of inferential rebuttals in jury charges

CHAPTER 9. COMPLAINTS OF CIVIL JURY CHARGES

I. IN GENERAL

- § 9:1 Introduction to complaints of civil jury charges
- § 9:2 Rules for preserving error in jury charge by complaint
- § 9:3 Proper complaint to preserve error
- § 9:4 —Broad-form submission
- § 9:5 —Definition or instruction omitted
- § 9:6 —Question omitted
- § 9:7 Consequences of omitted elements and grounds of recovery or defense
- § 9:8 Charge complaint affects review of legal sufficiency of evidence

II. PROCEDURE FOR OBJECTIONS AND REQUESTS

- § 9:9 Submission of draft jury charge to counsel for examination
- § 9:10 Time for presentation of complaints
- § 9:11 —Presumption of timeliness
- § 9:12 Presentation of draft charge complaints
- § 9:13 —By multiple parties
- § 9:14 Procedure for objecting to opponent's omitted question
- § 9:15 Procedure for written requests for submission
- § 9:16 Ruling on complaints of jury charge
- § 9:17 Checklist—Pre-trial preparation of draft jury charge
- § 9:18 —Complaining of draft jury charge—Lack of pleadings
- § 9:19 — —No evidence
- § 9:20 — —Conclusive evidence
- § 9:21 — —Invalid theory
- § 9:22 — —Immaterial element
- § 9:23 — —Improper conditioning
- § 9:24 — —Assumption of fact
- § 9:25 — —Controlling issue
- § 9:26 — —Question of law

- § 9:27 — —Broad-form submission
- § 9:28 — —Granulated submission
- § 9:29 — —Definitions, instructions and questions
- § 9:30 — —Omitted definitions or instructions
- § 9:31 — —Omitted questions for complaining party
- § 9:32 — —Omitted questions for opposing party
- § 9:33 — —Complaining of amended jury charge

III. WAIVER OF ERRORS IN JURY CHARGE

- § 9:34 Waiver of errors in civil jury charges
- § 9:35 — —Invited errors
- § 9:36 Waiver of errors—Burden of proof
- § 9:37 — —Damages
- § 9:38 — —Definitions
- § 9:39 — —Instructions
- § 9:40 — —Pleadings
- § 9:41 — —Questions
- § 9:42 — —Conditioning
- § 9:43 — —Substantive law
- § 9:44 — —Parental rights

CHAPTER 10. OBJECTIONS AND REQUESTS FOR SUBMISSION

I. OBJECTIONS TO JURY CHARGE

- § 10:1 Objections to jury charge must be specific
- § 10:2 Prohibition against adopting objections by reference
- § 10:3 Insufficient objections—Attorney fees
- § 10:4 — —Assumption of fact
- § 10:5 — —Comment on weight of evidence
- § 10:6 — —Damages
- § 10:7 — —Definitions
- § 10:8 — —Instructions
- § 10:9 — —Omitted elements or grounds
- § 10:10 — —Questions
- § 10:11 Objections based on pleadings and evidence
- § 10:12 Objections to definitions and instructions
- § 10:13 Sufficient objections to definitions
- § 10:14 Sufficient objections to instructions
- § 10:15 Objections to questions
- § 10:16 Sufficient objections to questions
- § 10:17 — —Burden of proof
- § 10:18 — —Damages

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 10:19 —Invalid theory

II. REQUESTS FOR SUBMISSION IN JURY CHARGE

- § 10:20 Requests for omitted definitions, instructions, or questions
- § 10:21 Requests for phase or shade of included element
- § 10:22 Requests must be proper elements of jury charge
- § 10:23 Requests must be substantially correct
- § 10:24 Effect of partially incorrect requests
- § 10:25 Form of requests for definitions, instructions, or questions

CHAPTER 11. SUPPLEMENTAL INSTRUCTIONS AND JURY VERDICT

I. SUPPLEMENTAL JURY INSTRUCTIONS

- § 11:1 Rule 286 supplemental jury instructions
- § 11:2 —Procedure
- § 11:3 Rule 295 supplemental jury instructions
- § 11:4 Supplemental “dynamite” charge for deadlocked jury

II. JURY VERDICT

- § 11:5 Concurrence of jurors required for verdict
- § 11:6 Unanswered jury questions in verdict
- § 11:7 Immaterial and unsupported jury findings
- § 11:8 Notations on jury charge form
- § 11:9 Election of remedies after receipt of verdict

III. CONFLICTS IN JURY VERDICT

- § 11:10 Conflicting answers in jury verdicts
- § 11:11 Duty of courts to reconcile conflicting answers
- § 11:12 Rules for resolving conflicts
- § 11:13 —Same material fact
- § 11:14 —General and specific findings
- § 11:15 —Material to judgment

IV. EXAMPLES OF IRRECONCILABLE CONFLICTS

- § 11:16 Irreconcilable conflicts—Assault
- § 11:17 —Contracts
- § 11:18 —Damages
- § 11:19 —Easements
- § 11:20 —Insurance
- § 11:21 —Products liability

V. EXAMPLES OF RECONCILABLE CONFLICTS

- § 11:22 Reconcilable conflicts—Agency
- § 11:23 —Contracts
- § 11:24 —Damages
- § 11:25 —Landlord and tenant
- § 11:26 —Negligence
- § 11:27 —Promissory notes
- § 11:28 —Securities
- § 11:29 —Uniform commercial code
- § 11:30 —Workers' compensation

CHAPTER 12. FINDINGS ON OMITTED ELEMENTS

I. IN GENERAL

- § 12:1 Introduction to findings on omitted elements
- § 12:2 Rule 279 supplies findings on elements omitted from jury charge
- § 12:3 Distinguishing omitted elements from omitted grounds
- § 12:4 Partial submission of grounds of recovery or defense
- § 12:5 Submitted elements must be “necessarily referable” to grounds
- § 12:6 Unanswered jury questions
- § 12:7 —Due to conditioning
- § 12:8 Express findings by trial judge on omitted elements
- § 12:9 Deemed findings by appellate court on omitted elements
- § 12:10 Express and deemed findings must support judgment
- § 12:11 Exceptions to Rule 279 findings on omitted elements
- § 12:12 Appellate consequences of omitted elements
- § 12:13 History of omitted elements and grounds in jury charges

II. EXAMPLES OF DEEMED FINDINGS ON OMITTED ELEMENTS

- § 12:14 Deemed findings—Action on account
- § 12:15 —Agency
- § 12:16 —Attorney fees
- § 12:17 —Bailment
- § 12:18 —Commercial paper
- § 12:19 —Contracts
- § 12:20 — —Tortious interference
- § 12:21 —Conversion
- § 12:22 —Deceptive trade practices

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 12:23 —Defamation
- § 12:24 —Easements
- § 12:25 —Eminent domain
- § 12:26 —Employer and employee
- § 12:27 —Estoppel
- § 12:28 —Family law
- § 12:29 —Fiduciary duty
- § 12:30 —Fraud
- § 12:31 —Insurance
- § 12:32 —Landlord and tenant
- § 12:33 —Liens
- § 12:34 —Limitations
- § 12:35 —Negligence
- § 12:36 —Parental rights
- § 12:37 —Partnership
- § 12:38 —Premises defects
- § 12:39 —Unfair competition
- § 12:40 —Workers' compensation
- § 12:41 —Wrongful death

CHAPTER 13. WAIVER OF OMITTED GROUNDS

I. IN GENERAL

- § 13:1 Introduction to waiver of omitted grounds
- § 13:2 Rule 279 waives grounds omitted from jury charge
- § 13:3 Waiver of grounds by failure to request submission in jury charge
- § 13:4 Exceptions to Rule 279 waiver of omitted grounds
- § 13:5 Appellate consequences of waiver of grounds

II. EXAMPLES OF WAIVER OF OMITTED GROUNDS

- § 13:6 Waiver of grounds—Accord and satisfaction
- § 13:7 —Action on account
- § 13:8 —Agency
- § 13:9 —Attorney fees
- § 13:10 —Business organizations
- § 13:11 —Cancellation of instruments
- § 13:12 —Child support
- § 13:13 —Commercial paper
- § 13:14 —Contracts
- § 13:15 —Damages
- § 13:16 —Deceptive trade practices

- § 13:17 —Defamation
- § 13:18 —Easements
- § 13:19 —Employer and employee
- § 13:20 —Estoppel and waiver
- § 13:21 —Fiduciary duty
- § 13:22 —Fraud
- § 13:23 —Injunction
- § 13:24 —Insurance
- § 13:25 —Laches and limitations
- § 13:26 —Landlord and tenant
- § 13:27 —Liens
- § 13:28 —Negligence
- § 13:29 —Premises liability
- § 13:30 —Strict liability
- § 13:31 —Trespass to try title
- § 13:32 —Warranty
- § 13:33 —Workers' compensation

Table of Laws and Rules

Table of Cases

Index